

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2235

"Stop it! Stop it now!" The teachers of the law enforcement department saw the long-faced teacher's miserable state and could not help but twitch their lips. They had been beaten to a pulp!

Yun Chujiu silently put away the large kitchen knife and did not say a word.

The long-faced teacher got up, he said in a flustered and exasperated manner, "Teacher Liu, you are finally here! If you had not come, I would have been beaten to death by these three good-for-nothings today! They publicly beat up the teachers of the academy. Quickly expel the three of them!"

Teacher Liu frowned, thinking that this teacher Zhang was really a good-for-nothing. He was actually beaten up by the students, and he still had the nerve to call Mo Fangcao and the others good-for-nothings? !

However, Mo Fangcao and the other two were really audacious. They actually dared to beat up the teachers. This was really not good!

"Mo Fangcao, Xue Wuji, and Jin Zhi, according to the Academy's rules, beating up the teachers should deduct 200 points in one go. Their initial points are only 100 points, so your points will become negative. You should be expelled. Do you have any objections?"

Everyone's gaze was focused on Yun Chujiu and the other two, wanting to hear what they had to say.

However, everyone felt that there was nothing more to say. No matter how wrong teacher Zhang was, it would not make sense for Mo Fangcao and the other two to publicly beat a teacher. These three were definitely going to be expelled.

Mo Fangbing, who had the most complicated emotions, was not Mo Fangbing. On one hand, she was afraid of implicating her, and on the other hand, she was secretly complaining that Yun Chujiu and the other two were really courting death. Why did they beat up a teacher for no reason? ! It would be fine if she endured it for a while, but how could she twist her little arm over her thigh. ? The facts were right in front of her eyes. No matter how sharp-tongued Mo Fangcao was, there was no way she could quibble this time.

“Teacher Liu, this is the recording stone from the incident just now. You and the other teachers can listen to it.” Yun Chujiu opened the recording stone as she spoke, and from it came the eccentric voice of the long-faced teacher Zhang.

The teachers of the law enforcement department frowned when they heard this. Although these three students were not very talented, as a teacher, it was a bit too much for him to say this.

Moreover, Xue Wuji’s talent was a mutated wind spirit root. It was just that his spiritual power was slightly lower now.

Teacher Liu frowned. “Although teacher Zhang’s words and actions were inappropriate, the academy will deal with it. The fact that you guys beat up the teacher is established. What else do you have to say?”

“Instructor Liu, we admit that we beat him up. You can deal with it impartially. We have no objections,” Yun Chujiu said calmly.

The crowd immediately exploded. Was this Mo Fangcao Crazy? She actually admitted to the punishment without even explaining? Did she know that admitting to the punishment meant that she was going to be expelled?

Although Xue Wuji and Jin Zhi did not know what kind of Medicine Yun Chujiu was selling, they had great trust in Yun Chujiu. Therefore, they did not say a word, as if they were all relying on Yun Chujiu to make the decision.

Instructor Liu was also stunned, but since he had admitted his crime.., then they would deal with it impartially. “Since you have no objections, the three of you beat the instructor, and each of you will be deducted 200 points. Your points have already become negative, so you will be expelled. “Someone! “Expel the three of them from Xingtian Academy.”

Instructor Zhang, who had been beaten into a pig’s head, said proudly, “Humph! Serves you right! However, trash like you should never have appeared in Xingtian Academy! You are simply a disgrace to Xingtian Academy!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Yun Chujiu sent him flying into the wall with a flying kick. Xue Wuji and Jin Zhi naturally did not hold back and gave him another round of beating.
