

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 229

The corner of Master Xuanyuan's eyes twitched slightly. "I can promise you ten thousand Spirit Stones, but if our Spirit Radiance Sect loses, are you also willing to take give ten thousand Spirit Stones?"

Yun Chujiu secretly cursed at the old fox and said with a grin, "Master Xuanyuan! How can you boost the morale of others and destroy our own prestige?! Our sect will definitely win, and we'll definitely beat the Heavenly Gates Sect to the point that they will give up!"

"There's always a contingency plan for everything. If you dare to agree, I will agree to you!" Master Xuanyuan kicked the ball back to Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes and straightened her small body. "Why wouldn't I dare?! As a Spirit Radiance Sect disciple, you have to have absolute confidence in the sect! Although I only have a dozen or so Spirit Stones with me, I can write an IOU and will slowly repay it in the future."

Yun Chujiu's words immediately won the praise of the people present. Although Yun Chujiu was usually not very interesting, she was still very loyal to the sect.

Master Xuanyuan was very surprised. Yun chujiu was not an ordinary person who was greedy for money. She actually dared to agree? At that moment, the train had left the station and he could not back down. He could only say, "Alright! Then it's a deal! If you win, I'll give you ten thousand Spirit Stones. If you lose, you'll compensate the sect with ten thousand Spirit Stones. You can go back!"

Yun Chujiu hopped back to the big kitchen. Elder Huang and the others immediately surrounded her.

Yun Chujiu waved her small claws. "It's alright, it's alright. Our sect leader is the most wise. Not only did he not punish me, he even felt that I had been too kind. He encouraged me to be harsher next time."

Although everyone felt that these words did not sound like what Master Xuanyuan had said, they did not ask any further when they saw that Yun Chujiu was unharmed.

Yun Chujiu strolled around the kitchen and began to 'collect' more items while she was at it, especially when she stole a few large packets of chili and pepper powder.

Early the next morning, Yun Chujiu brought Little Black with her, and with a rolling pin on her waist, she headed to the Southern Jade Square valiantly.

"Master, why are you so proactive?" Little Black asked in confusion.

"Are you stupid? We're talking about ten thousand Spirit Stones here! If the people of Spirit Radiance Sect aren't strong enough, I'll personally go up. No matter what, I can't give up ten thousand Spirit Stones."

"Master, aren't you afraid that your Thunder Spirit Energy will be exposed?"

"Don't I still have you? When you curse them, the opponent will definitely fall down. When he doesn't get up, I'll throw another bag of chili powder. It will be so painful. Quack!" Yun Chujiu laughed strangely.

The rolling pin shook. 'What kind of evil master did I follow? Isn't she too sinister?!

When Yun Chujiu hopped to the Southern Jade Square, there were already many people gathered in the square. They were all discussing that day's competition.

Yun Chujiu used her small figure to squeeze to the front. She took out a bag of spirit melon seeds from her bosom and ate them while listening to everyone's discussion.

"I wonder who will the Heavenly Gates Sect send? If my spiritual power wasn't too low, I would've wanted to go on stage and beat up those bastards. They're all very arrogant."

“I don’t think they will be outstanding disciples. After all, it’s just a test. They also want to leave some cards up their sleeves.”

“Well, what you said makes sense. If the people sent out by Heavenly Gates aren’t of a high level, I don’t think our sect will send out true disciples.”

“That’s only natural. I reckon that they would send people with similar spiritual power levels. When the time comes, what will be tested will be their actual combat ability and improvisation.”

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes. If the two sides were equally powerful, then she would have to teach the people of the Spirit Radiance Sect a lesson. They were all too honest. It would be better to be sinister on a battlefield. If they were too honest, they would suffer!
