

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2313

Ding! Naming trash. A certain jiu officially went online.

“This courtyard is filled with spirit peach trees. Why don't we call it a Peach Garden!”No, why did she think of the three sworn brothers of the Peach Garden!

“Why don't we call it a spirit fruit garden?”It seemed a little vulgar and didn't seem like a place where people lived.

“Why don't we call it Little Jiu Garden?”No, it didn't sound good.

A certain jiu still couldn't think of a name that she was satisfied with even after ye Bingying had finished packing up her things. In the end, she gritted her teeth and decided not to change her name for the time being. She would only change her name after she thought of a good one.

Ye Bingying saw Yun chujiu squatting beside the peach forest and mumbling to herself. Her eyes revealed a vicious glint.

Back then, the mother of this little B * Tch had always been against Aunt Wan. A daughter of a concubine was even more pampered than a daughter of the first wife. Now, this little B * Tch probably had the same idea as well, if she wanted to be more glorious than the real daughter of the first wife of the Ye family, we'll see!

Ye Bingyu saw ye Bingying's gaze and could not help but feel her heart tremble. This cousin of hers usually looked high and mighty, but in reality, she was incomparably vicious. She probably hated Yun Chujiu.

Ye Bingyu used the tip of her foot to touch Yun Chujiu. "Little Jiu, Sister Bingying is leaving."

Yun chujiu stood up and said with a smile, "Sister Bingying, let's leave after lunch!"

Ye bingying said coldly, "Yun Chujiu, don't be complacent. We'll see!"

After ye Bingying said that, she left with her maid.

Yun chujiu curled her lips. "Forget it if you don't want to eat. Looking at her resentful face affects your appetite."

Ye Bingyu burst into laughter. "Little Jiu, your mouth is really mean, but your description is really apt." However, Ye Bingyu has always been favored in the Ye family. This time, she suffered a big setback. She will definitely not let this matter rest. You better be careful in the future."

After the two of them had lunch, Min Shi arrived with a maid.

"Little Jiu, I heard from Bing Yu that you like to eat snacks. I asked the canteen to make some for you to bring back to the academy to eat," min Shi said gently.

Yun chujiu thanked her with a smile and kept the pastries into her storage ring.

After Min Shi asked the maids to leave.., she lowered her voice and said, "Little Jiu, since you have already been recorded under me and your second uncle's name, we will be a family in the future. I still have to remind you of some things. Don't think that I'm meddling."

Yun Chujiu's expression turned serious. "Second aunt, my mother left early and I'm still young. Please give me some advice."

Min Shi sighed in her heart. Although this little jiu was from a lower-class continent, she was truly a clever girl. She was able to see through everything with just a little bit of effort. She was much better than her daughter who was able to catch fire with just a little bit of effort.

“Little Jiu, don’t think that just because you have received the attention of the old master and your grandfather, you can truly be like a fish in water in the Ye family. After all, the old master and your grandfather are men. It’s not good for them to always interfere in the matters of the inner residence.

You are now a member of the Ye family. In the future, the Ye family will naturally be in charge of your marriage. If your mother-in-law and sister-in-law are dissatisfied with you, I’m afraid that they will definitely trip you up in the future.

Moreover, your mother’s family is the support of a woman. In the future, the Ye family will definitely be led by your first uncle, this is also the reason why I have been enduring them for so many years.” Although these words from Min Shi had her own little thoughts, they also carried some sincerity.

Yun chujiu smiled. “Second aunt, I understand what you’re saying. However, even if I don’t cause any trouble and I just accept it, I’m afraid that Ge Shi won’t be able to tolerate me.

Although no one told me the details of the past, I’m afraid that my mother has made her lose face many times. Thus, I’m a thorn in her side.

As for Ye Bingying, she was the one who occupied my mother’s courtyard. In the morning, she even wanted to make fun of me. I’m a person. I won’t offend others unless they offend me. If they offend me, I’m never afraid of trouble.”
