

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2410

Yun Chujiu pulled over a chair and sat on it. She crossed her legs and said with a smile, "You know what to say later, right? Do you need me to teach you patiently?"

The six people squatting on the ground shook their heads like rattle-drums. They were wrong! They thought that Yun Chujiu was just a little girl who lived under someone else's roof. Who would have thought that she was simply a devil!

An hour ago, Shaohua Garden.

After Yun Chujiu received ye Bingyu's voice transmission talisman, she rubbed her chin and blinked her eyes. Ye Xinwan was the daughter of Ge Shi, and Ge Shi hated her to the core. Ye Xinwan would definitely help ge shi vent her anger.

Moreover, ye Xinwan probably hated ye Lan to the core, and she would definitely hate her as well. Therefore, it was better to think of a foolproof plan.

Old Master Ye and Ye Yuanliang were afraid of offending the fan family, so they probably would not speak up for her. Unless she was stupid, she would go back to the living room to be tortured!

However, if she did not go, ye Xinwan might come and find trouble. In addition, Liu Shi and ye Bingying were instigating from the side, so it was very likely that they would use shaohua garden to cause trouble.

Shaohua garden was her mother's courtyard. No matter what, they could not let ye Xinwan and her daughter live in it. It was definitely not possible to fight head-on. They had to outsmart them.

Yun chujiu rubbed her chin and pondered for a while. Then, she called the two old women and the four maids into the house.

"I know that among the six of you, there are grandmother GE's people and Aunt Ge's people. "I don't really care about these things. As long as you don't harm me, I can't be bothered with you," Yun Chujiu said slowly.

The six servants looked at each other and opened their mouths, not knowing what to say.

At this moment, they heard Yun chujiu continue, "You must have heard that my aunt is here, right? None of you reported it to me. What are you thinking? HMM?"

Yun chujiu's "Hm" had completely received di Beiming's true teachings. The six servants immediately became terrified and hurriedly explained that they didn't go out and didn't know anything.

Yun chujiu laughed coldly. "If my aunt wants to move into Shaohua Garden and ask me to move out, what do you think we should do?"

The six servants looked at each other and thought, what can we do? Aunt is a member of the fan family, how can you compare to her?

“I have a way to make her give up on the idea of moving into Shaohua Garden. However, I need your cooperation. Are you willing or not?” Yun chujie took out a large kitchen knife from her storage ring, as she spoke, she took out a whetstone and started sharpening the knife.

Slash! Slash!

The ear-piercing sound of sharpening the knife was like a life-threatening talisman, ringing in the hearts of the servants. They were sure that if they said no, this Yun chujie would kill them.

“Are you all mute? Are you willing or not? HMM?”

“Yes, yes.” The six of them stuttered. They had made up their minds. No matter what, they would first brush them off and then ask their masters for help.

Yun chujiu saw that the six of them had agreed, the corners of her lips curled up. “Are you guys planning to secretly seek help from your master behind your back? You guys are really stupid! When your master sent you to me, you guys became abandoned.

If you guys complain, it’s just to let me suffer some punishment. “I’m a person who holds grudges the most. As long as I’m still alive, I will kill you guys. If you don’t believe me, we’ll just wait and see!

Don’t doubt my courage. After all, I dare to put a big kitchen knife on grandmother Ge’s neck. You, Hehe.”

Although the six servants did not know what Hehe meant, they were afraid!
