

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2571

In Area 9, everyone was meditating. The person on duty shouted in panic, "There are demonic beasts coming from the distance! A group of 43-level fire-breathing bald-back Wolves!"

The people in the room immediately exploded!

"43-level? That's equivalent to the first to second levels of the spiritual space of humans. Moreover, it's a group of them. How can we defeat them?!"

"Yeah, the most dangerous ones are the fire-type demonic beasts. Not only are they not afraid of high temperatures, but they also like this kind of high temperature weather. I'm afraid we're really going to be eliminated."

"Just the first round of the test is already so abnormal. As expected, not just anyone can enter the chaos origin sect."

Yun chujiu smashed a few tables into pieces with her palm. "Shut up!"! If they had the time to grind their teeth, they might as well study how to deal with those fire-breathing bald-back wolves! Now, they had no other choice but to fight them! Fortunately, we have more people, and we are much smarter than the demonic beasts. As long as we work together, we can definitely kill them

Although everyone quieted down, they still felt that even if they could win this battle, a large number of people would die. In that case, who was willing to be the cannon fodder at the front? !

“I know what you guys are thinking. Isn’t it just that no one is willing to rush to the front and be the scapegoat?” Each group was then divided into three groups, taking turns to fight in close combat, rotating once every 15 minutes. “You guys can’t even resist for 15 minutes, right?” Yun chujiu asked with slight contempt.

Although most of the people’s spiritual power levels were around the third to fifth level of the spiritual void tier, it was still not a problem for so many people to hold on for 15 minutes. Therefore, no one raised any objections.

“In that case, let’s go out and face the enemy!” “The brave will win when we meet on a narrow path. Show your imposing manner!” Were the five thousand people afraid of dozens of fire-breathing bald-back wolves? “Don’t you feel very humiliated?” “If the observers outside saw how cowardly you are, would they accept you?”

It was unknown whether Yun Chujiu’s last sentence had hit the nail on the head of everyone. In short, everyone’s courage was stimulated by Yun Chujiu’s boisterous words. All of them held their heads high and puffed out their chests as they stormed out of the palace.

The people on the square of the primordial chaos sect could not help but click their tongues in wonder. Did these people not know that they were facing a group of fire-breathing bald-back wolves at level 43? They were actually fearless. Was it ignorance or fearlessness?

When everyone reached the open space outside the hall, Yun Chujiu drew a long line with cinnabar not far away from them.

Everyone was baffled. Why did she draw a line out of nowhere? Was everyone preparing to race?

Not long after Yun Chujiu finished drawing the line, the pack of fire-breathing bald-back wolves had already arrived in front of her.

“Hey! I’m warning you not to cross this Red Line, or else your lives will be in danger!” Yun Chujiu pointed at the pack of wolves with one hand on her waist and the other.

Everyone behind Yun Chujiu was dumbfounded. Was this guy crazy? Would those fire-breathing bald-back wolves be afraid of the Red Line You Drew? Stop BULLSH * tting! Unless the heads of those fire-breathing bald-back wolves were broken!

Coincidentally, the people found that the heads of these fire-breathing bald-back wolves seemed to be F * cking broken!

Although the fire-breathing bald-back wolves kept drooling, they were still hesitant and didn’t dare to cross the Red Line.

What the hell!

Was their brain really damaged?

They didn't know that Wolves were the most suspicious demonic beasts. They weren't afraid of the Red Line, but of everyone's imposing manner.

If everyone was cowardly, they would definitely attack together. However, seeing that no one was afraid, they became suspicious.

Could it be that these people had prepared a trap and were waiting for them to jump in?
