

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2610

Yun chujiu frowned. She originally wanted to choose culinary skills, but when she thought of the fact that it was not good for cultivation if she did not rest all day in the kitchen, she blinked her eyes and decided to plant it.

This fellow thought very simply. If it was not better, he would ask Gou Weiba for some liquid, dilute it, and sprinkle it in the spiritual field to ensure that everything would grow well.

That's right, let's do it!

Thus, Yun Chujiu stood behind the planting sign. Xue Wuji and the other two also stood behind the planting sign.

After a moment, everyone had chosen their places. Steward Tang began to announce their respective destinations.

In the end, only Yun Chujiu and the other three were left. Steward Tang frowned. "All the spiritual fields have been allocated. How about this, you guys go to the big kitchen first. When you have time to come down to the spiritual fields, I will transfer you over."

Yun chujiu felt as if she had been bawled by a dog. What kind of bad karma was this! She did not expect to be thrown into the big kitchen in the end.

With no other choice, Yun Chujiu and the other three could only follow everyone to the big kitchen.

The Chaos Origin sect had seven peaks. They were named after the Big Dipper. Tianshu Peak, Tianxuan Peak, Tianji Peak, Megrez Peak, Yuheng Peak, Kaiyang Peak, and Yaoguang Peak.

Tianshu Peak was the main peak, while the other six peaks were subordinate peaks. Naturally, there were plenty of infighting and feuds. As the saying went, where there were people, there would be disputes. Hence, the chaos origin sect was very lively.

The seven peaks had their own canteens, but these canteens only served food for outer sect disciples and above. As for the big kitchen that Yun Chujiu and the others went to, it only served food for odd-job workers.

The good chefs in the big kitchen might be transferred to the small dining halls of the peaks, and the corresponding treatment would be better. Therefore, the big kitchen was also full of intrigue.

As soon as Yun Chujiu and the others arrived at the big kitchen, they were caught in a fierce battle.

Two big and strong chefs were holding spatulas and beating each other up. There were also their supporters cheering for them.

Yun chujiu found out from the disciple on duty that each chef had around ten helpers in the kitchen, such as the helpers, the cooks, the washers, and the cutters. They were both in good times and bad, therefore, they naturally formed a group.

The disciple of the general affairs department who led the laborers over shouted unhappily, "Senior brother song, senior brother Luo, what are you doing? ! I've sent you a new helper."

The two chefs finally stopped and spat at each other. They spoke a few words of flattery to the disciple. After the disciple left, the two of them began to size up the new servants.

The two of them fought over the question of who would choose first. Then, fatty song took the upper hand and chose five servants first. Fatty Luo had no choice but to choose five more servants from the remaining people.

In the end, Yun Chujiu and the other three were left awkwardly.

The reason was very simple. Everyone was willing to choose those with high spiritual power so that they could work faster. Moreover, if they had a bright future in the future, they could also borrow some light.

Yun chujiu was wondering if if no one would choose them, then they would not be able to do any work in the future when a skinny old man walked out from the corner.

“The four of you can follow me!”The old man said weakly.

The two fat chefs spat in unison, fatty song pouted and said, “Old Man Yao knows nothing except making porridge and steamed buns. The four of you are a good match for him. All of you are useless! hahaha!”
