

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 264

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes and smiled evilly. "Prince Charming, since you like this bathtub so much, I'll help you get a closer look at it."

Di Beiming suddenly had a bad feeling.

Yun Chujiu picked up Di Beiming and threw him into the bathtub.

"Cough! Cough! Black Thing... Y-You're rebelling! This isn't right! Just you wait! I won't forgive you!" Di Beiming choked on water and gritted his teeth in anger.

Di Beiming was really angry, but at that moment, he had no other way to express it other than using words.

Yun Chujiu leaned on the side of the bathtub and said with a smile, "Prince Charming, you've misunderstood me!

"You were drenched in the rain earlier, so it's good to soak in the bath to get rid of the cold! Besides, don't you have a mysophobia? Your body is covered in blood and dirt. That must be uncomfortable!"

Di Beiming choked. What the black thing said made sense. If he did not wash up, it would indeed be uncomfortable.

However, he was not stupid. He knew that Yun Chujiu was deliberately messing with him.

He gritted his teeth. Forget it. He may be controlled by someone then but he would endure it first. In the future, when he has recovered, he would look for this black thing to settle scores.

Yun Chujiu was so smart!

Even if she used her feet to think, she could guess what Di Beiming was thinking.

However, as the saying goes, 'Drink till you're drunk'. Since Di Beiming could not do anything to her then, she naturally had to make good use of the rare opportunity to vent her anger.

Hmph! The gigolo had scared her a lot in the past. Finally, it was her time to breathe a sigh of relieve for the great days to come.

It was not easy!

She was very proud in her heart, and her face could not help but show a little bit of pride.

Seeing this, Di Beiming became more and more frustrated and stopped talking.

She rolled her eyes and stared at Di Beiming's new hairdo. She said with a smile, "My Prince Charming, your new hairdo is very shiny. There's no need to light candles in this room anymore. With us two bald heads, there will be enough light!

"Tsk, tsk. My Prince Charming, I have to say that you're really good-looking. You're so good-looking even without your hair.

"My Prince Charming, why don't you keep it like that in the future? It'll save you a lot of trouble and looks good on you!"

...

When Di Beiming heard Yun Chujiu praising him so much, he could not help but feel a little smug in his heart.

His anger had dissipated a little. He thought to himself to forget it. Seeing that the black thing spoke well, he reluctantly forgave her for throwing him into the bathtub.

Just as he was thinking about it, he heard Yun Chujiu say, "Oh man, the water in this bathtub is cold. Let me help you change it!"

Yun Chujiu took out a new bathtub as she spoke. Then, she picked up a certain someone and threw him into the new bathtub.

The certain someone could not help but choke on a few mouthfuls of water. He immediately threw his previous thoughts to the back of his mind. This black thing really deserved to be taught a lesson!

After changing the water a few times, Yun Chujiu finally showed mercy and pulled Di Beiming out of the bathtub.

She still had some integrity. She did not help Di Beiming change his clothes. Instead, she used her spiritual power to help him dry his clothes.

Of course, this fellow was actually afraid of provoking Di Beiming. It would be bad if he vomited blood again.

Even so, he was still a little uncomfortable as his ears were always red.

Black Thing Jiu was also a little uncomfortable. When she was drying her clothes, she started to brag about how she had tricked Xue Wuji.

Although Di Beiming did not want to listen to that Xue Wuji nonsense, he cooperated and chatted with Yun Chujiu in order to divert his attention.
