The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2667

A certain Jiu cursed in her heart. F * ck, why didn't I meet a large coffin or a dead person recently? was he possessed?

This guy was really bold. He walked over to the corpses and observed them carefully.

Other than the lifeless corpses, they were no different from a living person.

There were men and women, but most of them were middle-aged or old. The clothes on their bodies were in the style of the ancient times, and there was no uniform logo. It was obvious that they were not from the same family or sect.

Yun chujiu originally planned to pick up the loot, but unfortunately, these people had nothing on their hands. They did not have storage rings, and their hair was disheveled. They did not even have hairpins.

"F * ck! Maybe they have already been robbed. Otherwise, how could there be nothing? !"

This guy did not get a storage ring, so naturally, he could not determine the identity of these people.

It was rare for this guy to have a shred of sympathy. It was quite pitiful for these people to hang around here. It was better to bring them out and find a place to bury them! Once they were buried, they could continue to enter the cycle of reincarnation.

Thus, a certain jiu removed the corpses from the wall and stored them into her storage ring.

After a lot of work, she finally stored the corpses into her storage ring. Only then did this guy begin to carefully examine this stone room.

The stone slabs and walls were all smooth bluestone slabs without any decorative patterns. Yun chujiu searched around but could not find an exit. It was as if the entire stone room was one.

This guy had a big heart. He yawned and said, "I've been busy for half the night. Let's sleep first. There's nothing that can't be solved by a good night's sleep."

Of course, this guy still let Xiao Hei out to be on guard and then fell into a deep sleep.

The whole night was peaceful and nothing unusual happened. The entire stone room was so quiet that one could even hear a pin drop on the ground.

Yun Chujiu felt that since this was a tower, there must be a passage leading to another level. As long as one searched carefully, they would definitely be able to find it.

It had to be said that this guy had the confidence of a mystery no matter what.

After searching one round, he could not find it.

He looked around again, but still could not find it.

This fellow lost his patience and began to hack at the wall with a large kitchen knife. Damn it, there is no door. I will hack a door out myself!

A disciple responsible for guarding outside was surprised to find that the black tower actually trembled for a moment and immediately reported this news to the higher-ups.

By the time everyone arrived, the black tower had already returned to normal.

Therefore, everyone thought that the disciple was seeing things. He was really making a fuss out of nothing.

A certain jiu, who had built the gate in the Black Tower, had already been transported to a new level.

A certain Jiu was proud. With a kitchen knife in hand, she had everything under the heavens!

This level was still filled with corpses. A certain jiu followed the principle of releasing a flock of sheep as well as a sheep, and put all the corpses into her storage ring.

This fellow thought to himself, could it be that this black tower was a corpse-hiding tower? Who would be so bored as to put all the corpses into the tower and hang them? Was she crazy?

After putting away the corpses, a certain Jiu did not find an exit. She took out a large kitchen knife again. Yes, she was building a door.

The disciple in charge of guarding the tower was once again surprised to find that the black tower trembled and quickly reported this news to the higher-ups.

Then, when everyone arrived, the black tower regained its calm. Mountain master he was so angry that he directly transferred the disciple who "Lied about the military intelligence"away.

Mountain master he had a very good reason. If his eyesight wasn't good, he wouldn't be in charge of the guard duty!
