

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2723

He Sheng fell to his knees with a thump. "Junior Sister Yun, I was wrong. Please spare me! I will definitely listen to you in the future and prepare good food for you every day. I beg you, please spare me!"

"It's not impossible to spare you, but you have to let me see your sincerity. How about this, you scold Fatty Wang for me now until I am satisfied." Yun chujia waved the explosive talisman in her hand.

He Sheng was about to cry!

After scolding fatty Wang, his days in the big kitchen would definitely be miserable. However, if he didn't scold Fatty Wang, this little pervert in front of him would torture him to death.

The lesser of two evils, he sheng chose to scold him in the end!

"Wang, Fatty Wang is a bastard! Usually, he either beats us or scolds us. He is a tyrant. He, he is shameless..."

He Sheng was still trying to survive in the beginning. Later on, he vented all the anger he had accumulated over the years and scolded him to his heart's content.

Fatty Wang, who was in the crowd, fainted with a lump in his throat!

Firstly, it was because he sheng had scolded him. Secondly, he had bet 500,000 high-grade spirit stones on he sheng. This time, it was all for naught!

Fatty Wang was not the only one who fainted. There were also many people who fainted. They were all disciples who had placed big bets on he sheng.

Yun chujiu turned around and asked the disciple on duty, "Did I win this competition?"

That disciple nodded repeatedly. "Junior Sister Yun, you won."

Yun chujiu ignored he sheng, who was still cursing non-stop. She went down the ladder and said to elder qi, "Elder Qi, come, let's enter the room and calculate how much money I have won."

Elder Qi's chubby face was smiling like a flower. He never thought that the competition would end so quickly. Although this little girl's spiritual power was low, her brain was enough! In any case, the competition stage did not prohibit the use of talismans, so there was nothing wrong with her winning!

"Elder Qi, according to what we said beforehand, excluding the 1% bonus that should be given to you, I'll give you another 20% of the money I won. Here, this is yours, the rest is mine."

Elder Qi looked at the nearly 300 million upper grade spirit stones that Yun Chujiu had put into her storage ring, and his heart was aching so much that he was grinding his teeth. How regretful he was! If he had known earlier, he would have asked for at least 50% !

However, this time, he had earned tens of millions of high grade spirit stones, which was considered a profitable business, so it was not considered a loss.

The disciples outside had lost so badly that they had no hope of surviving! However, what they were more concerned about was who had bet the ten million high-grade spirit stones, and whether they had made a huge profit!

The disciple on duty looked at the crowd and said with pity, "The ten million high-grade spirit stones were also bet by junior sister Yun. In other words, the money you lost was all won by junior sister Yun."

What?

The ten million was also bet by Yun Chujiu?

Then, then didn't she win several hundred million upper grade spirit stones at once?

On what basis? !

Therefore, when Yun chujiu came out of elder Qi's house, she was surrounded by the crowd!

"Yun Chujiu, return our hard-earned money!"

"Yes, Yun Chujiu, you cheated! Quickly return the money, or I will challenge you!"

"Yun Chujiu, do you want money or your life? Choose One!"

..

Elder Qi didn't expect things to turn out like this. As the saying goes, one can not offend the public. What would the little girl do? She wouldn't give him up, right?

Thinking of this, elder Qi glared fiercely at the disciple who leaked the secret. That disciple had an innocent look on his face, but he didn't say anything!
