

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2774

The original four-hour journey was shortened to one and a half hours.

After Yun Chujiu got off the flying spirit tool, she waved her claws and said, "Senior brother Leng, remember to come and pick me up in three months..."

Before Yun Chujiu could finish her words, the flying spirit tool flew away with a swoosh. It was very fast as if it was running for its life. Soon, it turned into a black dot and disappeared from Yun Chujiu's sight.

F * CK, just you wait. Sooner or later, you will cry and beg her to go back! HMPH!

The two stone Pixiu clearly saw Yun chujiu being despised. The two of them sighed silently. This little girl was really amazing. She had only gone to the killing origin sect for three months, yet she had already made them so afraid., as expected of Patriarch Yuan Tian's disciple.

Yun chujiu naturally did not know what the two Stone Pi Xiu were thinking. This fellow had wandered into the primordial chaos sect.

This fellow had deliberately observed her for a moment. The people of the primordial chaos sect looked at her in a rather normal manner. This fellow thought to himself, "Aiya, the primordial chaos sect is still the best. They are not like the people of the primordial murder sect who are all ungrateful and ungrateful."

Not long after Yun Chujiu walked out, Jin Zhi and ye Bingyu came up to welcome her.

It had been three months since they last met, so the three of them naturally had a lot to talk about. They chatted as they walked.

Yun chujiu saw that Jin Zhi's spiritual power had already reached the first layer of the spiritual void tier, and Ye Bingyu had also reached the ninth layer of the spiritual void tier. She was very happy for them, and this fellow also felt a sense of urgency.

The spiritual power that she had stored now was enough to break through. All she needed was the process of being struck by lightning in her Dantian. The last time she refined pills, she had attracted lightning. She would find an opportunity to try it again one day.

Yun Chujiu told Jin Zhi and master baili to go back first. She had to at least greet master baili when she came back.

This guy came to see Master Baili. Master Baili knew how to do things better than Master Xiahou. He greeted Master Baili with a warm smile and then changed the topic:

"Little Jiu, I heard that you helped the Shi Yuan sect a lot a few days ago. I guess you must be tired. In that case, you should rest well in the dormitory and don't run around."

Yun Chujiu felt stifled in her heart. This old man Bai Li was like a smiling tiger. The first part of what he said was for the last part. He wanted to lock her up. No Way!

Yun Chujiu avoided answering. Instead, she handed two green jade roots to master baili. "Master Baili, these two green jade roots are my gift to you."

Master Baili didn't refuse. He took them and only nodded.

Yun chujiu gritted her teeth and handed master baili another white egg. "This is also a gift to you."

Master Baili still did not say anything. Yun Chujiu felt stifled in her heart. However, this fellow was stingy. She thought to herself, "It doesn't matter if you don't say anything. Anyway, she will still come out and take a stroll. If you have the ability, lock her in the hole of reflection!"! She was more than happy to do so!

Thus, this fellow said with a smile, "Master Baili, since there's nothing else, then I will take my leave."

Master Baili originally thought that Yun Chujiu would still give him some things, but he did not expect that the little girl would not give it to him! He could only say in disappointment, "Alright, go back and rest well. I will send someone to visit you at any time."

Pui!

Visit my ass!

Surveillance is more like it!

This fellow wanted to cry but had no tears. She didn't do anything, so how did she become a street rat? ! was the matter of the thought cave exposed? Or did she expose the matter of her luring the demonic beasts over and almost razing the chaos origin sect to the ground?
