

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2795

Yun chujiu nodded. Humans had all sorts of emotions and desires. Sometimes, even though she knew it was an illusion, it was easy for her to lose herself under the pressure of external forces.

Therefore, it was not difficult to understand why an Linchuan and an chujiu felt that this mission was abnormal.

Of course, to a certain jiu, this mission did not seem to be a mission at all.

Pressure?

No matter how strong the pressure was, how could it be as strong as the pressure of Heavenly Thunder?

Illusion Array?

What a joke. Even if the black bead didn't warn her, Yun Chujiu could still keep her consciousness clear, let alone the black bead.

However, she still decided to put on a show and pretend to fail just in case something went wrong.

At this time, an arch bridge appeared in front of the three of them. It was just an ordinary stone arch bridge, and there was no difference at all.

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao gave Yun chujiu a few instructions before they went onto the bridge. Yun chujiu noticed that beads of sweat were starting to drip down from their foreheads. It was obvious that they were already under pressure.

The first half of their journey was rather smooth. However, they stopped in the middle and their expressions changed.

An Linchuan's expression became extremely excited. He did not know what good things had happened in the illusion.

Shangguan Hao, on the other hand, had a pained expression. He had probably fallen into some kind of painful illusion.

Yun chujiu felt that she had observed enough, so she stepped onto the stone bridge as well.

The people in the meeting hall realized that Yun Chujiu was taking every step with great difficulty, so they immediately switched to self-congratulatory mode.

"Cheh! How was it? I told you that Yun Chujiu wouldn't be able to grow a rabbit's tail, right? She has a stomach full of bad ideas, so there are a lot of twists and turns in her head. It's easier for her to fall into an illusory formation than others. In my opinion, she might not be able to reach the other end of the bridge even after three years." Mountain master an felt that he had regained the face he had lost just now, he felt extremely pleased with himself.

Elder Jing chimed in from the side, "That's right. The first two rounds of missions were just a small test, but the third round of missions has truly become more difficult. What do you think? Mountain master he, do you still want to Bet?"

Mountain master he saw Yun chujiu struggling with every step she took, and to be honest, he really didn't have the confidence! However, one couldn't lose when losing, so he gritted his teeth and said, "This first attempt doesn't count. We have to let her familiarize herself with it, right? So this time doesn't count. If she still can't pass next time, I'll lose 100,000 Spirit Stones to you."

After saying that, Mountain Master he glanced at Mountain Master Zhuo and Mountain Master Zhuo with his eyes and forced a smile. He could only say, "I still agree with Mountain Master he's opinion this time, so I'll bet with him."

Mountain Master he nodded in satisfaction. He had never realized that this Mountain Master Zhuo was so loyal before. It seemed that they could have a good relationship in the future.

As for Mountain Master Shen and the others, they naturally followed Elder Jing's bet. They felt that even an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao, who had practiced for more than two months, could not resist the pressure, let alone Yun Chujiu.

Then, what kind of illusion had a certain jiu fallen into at this moment?

After stepping onto the stone arch bridge, the so-called extremely powerful pressure was basically negligible. What this person was more concerned about was what kind of illusion she would fall into. If she could see Qi Qi or the gigolo, it wouldn't be too bad. Then, she would stay in the illusion for a while longer.

Unfortunately, the illusion she fell into didn't have Qi Qi or the gigolo. Instead, there was a swaying grass. F * ck! ! Wasn't that Gou Weiba? !

However, the place where Gou Weiba grew was a little strange.

Hun Dun was in the surroundings and it was dark. There were only a few rocks on the ground. Guai Cao was swaying in the middle of a pile of rocks. It looked quite comfortable.

Yun Chujiu thought to herself that she had no way to deal with that damned Gou Weiba in reality. Now that it was an illusion, she could deal with it.
