

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 290

F*ck!

What was going on?!

Yun Chujiu noticed that the desert scorpions on the ground were starting to fight among themselves!

Dozens of scorpions attacked their own kind as if they had gone crazy, and then began to fight among themselves.

Yun Chujiu touched her chin and thought to herself, 'Could it be that these scorpions had gone crazy?'

The dozens of scorpions were quickly bitten to death by their own kind, and the victorious scorpions began to eat the corpses.

A dramatic scene ensued!

The scorpions that ate the corpses also began to become restless. Although they were not as crazy as the dozens of scorpions before, they were clearly becoming restless. Soon, a chaotic battle broke out again.

Yun Chujiu blinked her eyes. Why did the symptoms of these scorpions seem like they had rabies?! It seemed to be some kind of poison, but after the second infection, it was starting to weaken.

Yun Chujiu's eyes suddenly lit up!

Could it be because they ate the skin of the cactus fruit that she threw at them?

In order to verify her theory, Yun Chujiu took out a cactus fruit from her storage ring, peeled off the skin, and threw it on the ground.

A few scorpions quickly ate the skin.

After a while, the few scorpions began to bite their own kind crazily.

Yun Chujiu could not help but laugh at the sky. “Hahaha! A natural foodie must be useful! If it weren’t for my greed, how could I have found such an interesting thing?! After they kill each other, I only need to pick up their demon cores! Let me do the math...”

She counted with her fingers. Desert scorpions were a Tier 3 demon beast. A demon core cost 100 points. There were more than a thousand of them here. It was not impossible for her to get 100,000 points!

Yun Chujiu did not have a choice. She quickly peeled off the remaining cactus fruits and threw them on the ground.

Then, she watched the desert scorpions continuously attack each other.

She was shouting and cheering from above!

“Go! Bite it to death!”

“Idiot! Bite it! Use your pincers to clamp it!”

“You little cripple! Charge! Sacrifice yourself for little happy me!”

...

These desert scorpions already had some intelligence. Perhaps they felt that something was wrong, the hundreds of scorpions on the outside quickly ran away.

Yun Chujiu groaned in pain. "Don't run! Keep fighting! Seriously! Tens of thousands of points are gone just like that!"

Yun Chujiu waited for a while. After making sure that the scorpions had really run far away, she jumped down from the flower and landed on the sand.

Yun Chujiu looked at the few cactuses beside her, then picked up a scorpion's corpse and threw it at one of the cactuses! The huge thorns on the cactuses instantly turned the scorpions into hedgehogs.

Yun Chujiu relied on the spirit weapon to protect herself and kept throwing the scorpions' corpses on the ground at the cactuses.

Soon, the thorns on the cactuses were all shot out.

Yun Chujiu did the same thing, removing the thorns on the other cactuses. Then, she started to use the silk to remove the cactus fruits and put them in her storage ring happily.

This thing was not only delicious, but also a must-have for pit beasts. She had to get more.

After picking all the fruits, she felt that these cactuses might be beneficial, so she took out a big kitchen knife and cut off one of them with great strength and put it in her storage ring.

Yun Chujiu took out the demon cores from the desert scorpions and put them away. Then, she hopped toward the east.

Why did she head east? Because the scorpions had escaped to the west, so she naturally had to go in the opposite direction! However, she overlooked something. Perhaps the scorpions were afraid of something in the east, so they fled to the west...
