

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3035

After the initial confusion, the Bull Lion Beast came back to its senses and shook its tail vigorously, trying to shake da Hua off.

But, uh, it didn't shake.

This was awkward!

The Bull Lion Beast couldn't shake da Hua off, and it couldn't reach its tail, so it could only spin in circles and Roar in anger.

After a while, DA hua dissipated.

The Bull Lion Beast was instantly delighted. Haha, it almost forgot that although this damned giant pig was difficult to deal with, it was only a spiritual beast after all. It would disappear very soon. What was it afraid of? !

At this moment, a group of spiritual piglets pounced out from the cave. The Bull Lion Beast immediately vented its anger on these piglets, using its horns and hooves to step on them.

The piglets with spiritual power quickly turned extremely dim. Before the Bull Lion Beast could be happy, its tail was grabbed by something again.

The Bull Lion Beast turned around and saw that it was the giant purple pig again!

What the hell was going on? Where did it come from?

Obviously, the Bull Lion Beast had never seen such a strange transformation method of a spiritual power beast. Therefore, it was a little confused and did not know what to do. It even suspected that there was a person hiding behind it who specifically ambushed it.

The Bull Lion Beast once again circled around in the same spot. It was so angry that it could not take it anymore. However, Hei Xinjiu just happened to be making sarcastic remarks at the entrance of the cave.

“Hey, hybrid breed, I told you you were stupid! How could you not reach your own tail? Come, Kitten, show it.”

Because the kitten was too weak, it did not have the opportunity to show off. After being called out, it naturally put in all its effort and played dozens of tricks with its tail.

The bull lion beast almost fainted from anger!

Could it be the same as the kitten? ! Its body was so big, and its tail was so short, how could it possibly reach it? !

“I’m not criticizing you, it’s a hybrid breed. You said that you were eugenically bred, why didn’t you pick the merits to evolve? If you had a long tiger tail, wouldn’t it be over? !”

“You are a classic case of eugenics and eugenics failure. Look at your ugly appearance! Look at your cow, nose, and nose, they are simply too ugly!”

“How about this, you can just kill yourself! Anyway, you are wasting the resources here, so you might as well make room for a good beast.”

The Bull Lion Beast was so angry that it roared and then fell to the ground, foaming at the mouth. It actually fainted out of anger..

Meng Yanshou’s rabbit eyes almost popped out!

Aiyo!

This little girl made the Bull Lion Beast faint out of anger? He didn't know whether he should praise this little girl for her sharp tongue or blame this bull lion beast for being too narrow-minded!

The Nightmare Beast jumped in front of the Bull Lion Beast and kept releasing wind blades. Unfortunately, it was too weak and only cut off a lock of the Bull Lion Beast's fur.

Just as the Nightmare Beast was about to blind the bull lion beast., yun chujiu stopped it. "The Pretty Boy can't move now. He just happens to be lacking a mount. I think this hybrid is quite good. The pretty boy should be quite comfortable lying on it."

Just as the Nightmare Beast was confused, it saw Yun chujiu forming a seal with her hands. She actually wanted to establish a temporary contract with the Bull Lion Beast.

Just as the Nightmare Beast was about to persuade Yun Chujiu to say that the spiritual sense of the ancient demon beast was strong and that it was not easy to tame it, it saw that Yun Chujiu had already succeeded in forming a contract with Meng Yanshou.

The nightmare beast swallowed its saliva. Alright, a monster was indeed a monster!

However, that was also true. Even though the ugly bird and those idiots were too weak to look at them directly, when they grew up, they wouldn't be easily provoked.

Since the little girl was able to establish a contract with them, it wasn't strange that she was able to establish a temporary contract with this Bull Lion Beast.
