

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3071

Hei Xinjiu was in a great mood at the moment. She could finally return to the primordial chaos sect and strut her stuff! ! Just thinking about it made her very happy, didn't it? !

Jin Zhi and Bing Yu were probably worried sick. Senior brother An and Shangguan must also be worried about her safety.

Right, there was also her Leng Datu's deputy alliance master, Hahaha!

Hei Xinjiu was afraid that she would be dragged into the teleportation array again, so she deliberately avoided the place where the Black Fog was last time.

Meng yanshou grinned and said, "Little Fairy, the teleportation array will only appear after a long time, so you can go ahead without worry."

Hearing Meng Yanshou's words, Yun chujiu heaved a sigh of relief, but she did not dare to relax. Because this fellow was afraid that Ao Ji would arrange for people to block the exit of the Miasma District, he did not dare to delay even a single moment.

A day later, Hei Xinjiu finally passed through the miasma district.

She thought that the Yan clan had already retreated to the far west, and most of the human forces in the Ten Thousand Miles Gobi Desert should have already retreated. Therefore, she did not head towards the Ten Thousand Miles Gobi Desert, but chose to return directly to the Hunyuan sect.

She walked and stopped on the way. Hei Xinjiu actually heard a piece of news that shocked her greatly!

Something had happened to the killing origin sect!

It was said that half a month ago, a group of people had arrived outside the mountain gate of the killing Origin sect. The person in the lead claimed that they were the direct descendants of the killing Origin sect and asked Master Xiahou to give up the position of sect master.

The people of the killing origin sect were instantly dumbfounded!

Following that, they found out that the founder of this group of people was the disciple and grand-disciple of Patriarch Hongyuan's eldest disciple, Ji Qian. Back then, Ji Qian had gone out to train and had never returned.

In addition, there was still no news from Master Hongyuan. Therefore, everyone recommended that Master Hongyuan's second disciple, Zhuang Mu Li, take over as the sect master of the murderous origin sect. After that, it had been passed down to this day.

They did not expect that Ji Qian's disciple and grand-disciple would suddenly appear to compete for the position of sect master. It was really unexpected.

What made the murderous origin sect even more troubled was that not only did these people have superb spiritual power, but the leader, Murong Hanlie, was a generation older than Master Xiahou. In terms of seniority, Master Xiahou had to address him as Master Xiahou.

Then, there was a problem. If they were to really pursue this matter, master Xiahou really did not have the right. Because according to the records of the origin-killing sect, Master Hongyuan's favorite disciple back then was his eldest disciple, Ji Qian. He had also said long ago that..., the future position of the sect master must be passed on to his eldest disciple, Ji Qian.

If it was not for Ji Qian's disappearance, the position of the sect master would not have fallen to his second disciple, Zhuang Mu Li.

With such a serious argument, master Xiahou's position as the sect master became somewhat unjustified. Facing the aggressive Murong Hanlie, he was somewhat unable to withstand it.

However, the vast majority of the people in the murderous origin sect still agreed with Master Xiahou. After all, they knew him well. Who knew what kind of person Murong Hanlie was! Moreover, he had also brought a group of direct descendants back. If he were to take over power in the future, they would not have a good ending.

Of course, there were also some people who had long harbored feelings for Master Xiahou. They took the opportunity to fan the flames and joined Murong Hanlie.

For a time, the murderous origin sect was in chaos.

Hei xinjiu blinked her eyes. Back when she had obtained the Ring of Hongyuan Master in the burning sky mystic realm, that stupid flood dragon had once shown her a portrait. It was said that that person was Hongyuan master's disciple., it must be that eldest disciple, Ji Qian.

Hei Xinjiu curled her lips. In terms of seniority, who could be higher than her? !

The murderous origin sect and the Hunyuan sect would belong to her sooner or later. Now, Murong Hanlie had appeared and snatched her murderous origin sect? He was really courting death!
