

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3162

Yun chujiu was so scared that she almost jumped up. She didn't even notice that someone was approaching her. If it was an enemy, her head would have been moved long ago.

Yun chujiu turned her head with fear and couldn't help but be stunned. She never dreamed that the person behind her was old man Yao from the Big Kitchen.

Yun chujiu was about to speak when old man Yao shook his head slightly at her, indicating for her to leave with him.

Yun chujiu did not understand, but she still followed old man Yao and left.

The two of them took a few turns and arrived at the back of the mountain of Tianshu Peak. After walking for a while, they finally arrived at a place.

Yun Chujiu felt that this place was somewhat familiar. She recalled that when she was locked in the No. 10 Reflection Cave, she once wanted to use a large kitchen knife to cut a passage to enter the No. 11 Reflection Cave. However, she later discovered that the exit was at the back of the mountain, at that time, she also met Old Man Yao who was picking herbs.

This was the place where she met Old Man Yao back then. Why did he bring her here?

"Old Man Yao, why did you call me here? Did something happen to the primordial chaos sect? Master Baili and the others, are they okay?" Yun chujiu asked anxiously.

"Liu Zitong and the head of the fan family colluded with the Divine Devil Hall. Baili Yin and the others are now poisoned and trapped in the primordial Chaos Square.

“The other disciples are also controlled by the Divine Devil Hall. In addition, I’m afraid the situation at the Shi Yuan sect is not too good. There are also traitors in the sky bearing alliance. The situation is critical!” Old Man Yao said with a heavy tone.

Yun chujia then realized that the usually listless old man Yao was like a different person at this moment. If the old man Yao in the past was a rusty kitchen knife, then he was now a cold and sharp blade.

At this moment, the aura around Old Man Yao was even stronger than Master Baili. Moreover, he was talking about Baili Yin and not the master.

“Old Man Yao, you, who exactly are you?”

Old Man Yao laughed self-deprecatingly. “Just a cripple! You Don’t have to care about who I am. Our goal is the same, that is to save people.

“I know that you can refine pills and are not afraid of poison. These are the dishes that baili yin and the others ate. You first see if you can cure the poison inside, then we can discuss the next step.

“Don’t worry. As this place is not far from the self-reflection cave, the purple-faced woman from the Divine Devil Hall can’t scan this place with her spiritual sense. She Won’t be able to discover us for a while.”

Yun chujia was not too surprised. The last time old man Yao and old man Yao found out that she had destroyed the self-reflection cave, and that the place she lived in was very close to her, so it was not strange for them to discover her clues.

Yun chujia took the wine and food that old man Yao handed over and immediately ate and drank. Yes, just in time, she was a little hungry.

Old Man Yao:”...”

Was this little girl tasting the poison or filling her stomach? Why did it look like the latter?

“How is it? is the antidote to this poison easy to prepare?” Old Man Yao asked anxiously.

“It’s not difficult at all. This poison is the upgraded version of the Devouring Spirit Powder.” Yun Chujiu took out a handkerchief and wiped her mouth.

“Then why didn’t the antidote to the devouring spirit powder work?” Although old man Yao had never heard of the upgraded version, he could guess the general meaning.

“Besides the antidote of the devouring spirit powder, we also need a medicinal primer, which is the coral fruit,” Yun Chujiu said unhurriedly.

“Coral fruit? The coral fruit of a level one spiritual plant? This is difficult! There is no such low-level spiritual plant in our immortal Yuan continent. It’s really fatal!” Old Man Yao was so anxious that his forehead was covered in sweat, and he kept spinning in circles.
