

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3200

Manager Liu almost cried as he transferred ten million upper-grade spirit stones to Yun Chujiu. He was just a small manager of the Yun Mansion and didn't have much money at all.

These spirit stones were all the black-hearted money that his father had received for so many years, and it was only because of his persuasion and persuasion that he was able to get them. Now, it was all given to this black-hearted little girl.

When everyone saw that manager Liu had really transferred ten million high-grade spiritual stones to Yun chujiu, they felt even more strongly that the money belonged to Yun Chujiu. After all, a mere manager like Liu Hua would not have so much money.

Yun Chujiu felt that the Yun mansion was not bad. They had just arrived on their first day, and they had already earned a small sum of money. Moreover, it was a great joy to fight with others!

After the servants brought Zhang Mama and manager Liu Away, only then did consort Yun personally help her introduce the people present.

Yun chujiu greeted them obediently, and those people nodded with fake smiles. As for those of the same generation, they were all indifferent, and some didn't even try to hide the disdain in their eyes.

Before Yun Chujiu could smooth out the relationship between these people, she heard a servant come in to report, "Reporting to the old Royal Highness, the Old Consort, the Royal Highness, the consort, the Crown Prince Is Here!"

When everyone heard this, they hurriedly stood up and prepared to go to the door to welcome him, but they didn't expect a clear voice to come from outside the door, "Everyone, there's no need to be so polite. I'm just sending Xi Yue back, so I came in to have a seat."

Following the voice, the crown prince and Princess Xi Yue walked in. They were a handsome man and a beautiful woman, a good pair of lovers.

Although there were differences between the ruler and the ministers, the Old Royal Highness and the Old Royal Consort were both specially conferred by the current Emperor with a rank beyond the first grade. Even when they met the emperor, they didn't have to kneel. Thus, after giving in modestly, the crown prince only sat on the lower right head, he did not sit on the main seat.

The maid served tea and pastries. After exchanging some pleasantries, Princess Yun asked gently, "Xi Yue, didn't you enter the palace to pay your respects to the Empress? Why did you return to the residence so quickly?"

"The empress happened to have other matters to attend to, so His Highness the Crown Prince sent me back." As Princess Xi Yue spoke, she stole a glance at the crown prince beside her, and a hint of shyness appeared on her face.

The crown prince smiled at her, and Princess Xi Yue lowered her head shyly.

When Princess Yun saw this, the depression that she felt from Hei Xinjiu was instantly swept away. As long as Xi Yue became the crown prince's consort, not to mention this little girl, even the two old geezers above her would have to listen to her.

Princess Xi Yue seemed to have just remembered, and asked, "Mother, when I came in just now, I saw that Zhang Mama was taken away by someone. What Happened?"

Princess Yun naturally understood her daughter's intention and sighed, "Sigh! Don't mention it. This Zhang Mama framed your little ninth sister in a moment of confusion, so I punished her to go to the manor."

Princess Xi Yue frowned slightly, "Oh, so that's how it is. Zhang Mama is usually dutiful, but I didn't expect that she would make a mistake today. Your Highness, the Red Bean cake that I gave you before was taught to me by Zhang Mama. I didn't expect that, Sigh!"

Princess Xi Yue's "Sigh" was like a thousand twists and turns, causing the crown prince's heart to clench, he frowned. "Princess Yun, that Zhang Mama didn't do anything wrong. Just punish her. Why must she send her to the manor?" "Besides, there's really no need to cause trouble in the manor for a person who can't make a name for himself."

When the Crown Prince said this, he looked at Yun Chujiu with disgust. Everyone naturally understood that when the crown prince said "Can't stand up to the public", he was referring to Yun Chujiu and not Zhang Mama, immediately, they all looked at Yun Chujiu with Schadenfreude.
