

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3205

Zheng Shi wished she could sew Yun Chujiu's mouth shut. This damn brat must have done it on purpose!

It was fine if you said that your body wasn't well, but why did you have to bring Xi Yue along? ! Wasn't this clearly trying to ruin Xi Yue's reputation? !

Zheng Shi sighed. "Imperial physician Wang, I've made a fool of myself! This child is most likely sick and confused. She's even starting to spout nonsense. You'd better hurry up and take a look at her!"

Imperial physician Wang was used to the shady and private affairs of the rear residence, so he did not continue the conversation and began to check Hei Xinjiu's pulse.

Hei Xinjiu had long let the guai Cao make her pulse weak and disorderly. Therefore, imperial physician Wang's brows were tightly knitted. After a long while, he finally withdrew his hand.

"Consort Yun, ninth miss' pulse is weak and weak. Moreover, it seems that the sunflower water has not arrived yet, and her body is severely depleted. No wonder she said that she often feels dizzy and weak. Fortunately, she has the spiritual power, or else the consequences would be worrisome.

"I'll prescribe a few doses of medicine to take first. Pay attention to rest and don't have any violent mood swings. Otherwise, the illness will worsen," imperial physician Wang said with a sigh.

He had seen many patients, but this was the first time he had seen a pulse that was so chaotic. It was really not easy for this little girl to live until now!

Consort Yun was really stunned. She thought that Yun Chujiu was pretending, but she didn't expect that she was really sick? And it sounded like she had a short life? Good, very good. It would prevent her from making a move.

Although Zheng Shi was happy in her heart, she had a worried expression on her face. She asked for some precautions and then asked someone to send imperial physician Wang out.

“Little Jiu, take care of yourself. If you need anything, ask the servants in your courtyard to look for me,” Zheng Shi said gently.

“Thank you very much, Auntie. Little Jiu is not feeling well, so I won’t send you off.” Hei Xinjiu coughed a few times as she spoke.

Zheng Shi saw that Yun chujiu was half dead and felt very relieved. She said a few more fake words and then left.

Yun chujiu saw that Zheng Shi had left and said weakly, “The two of you come in for a moment.”

The two handmaidens came in and bowed. “Xi Hua and Xi Xue pay their respects to Miss Jiu.”

Yun chujiu sat on the bed and sized up the two handmaidens. She did not speak for a long time.

The two handmaidens’ hearts were in a mess. What did Miss Jiu Mean?

Yun chujiu chuckled and said, “Did aunt ask you to report my every move to her? And she also asked you to be more respectful to me so that I wouldn’t find fault with you?”

Xi Hua and Xi Xue’s expressions changed. Just as they were about to defend themselves, they heard Yun chujiu say with a smile, “You don’t have to explain. I Won’t believe you even if you tell me.”

“You must have heard that I took care of Zhang Mama and manager Liu. I can take care of both of them, not to mention you two little beauties!

“If you want to live, just swear to your inner demons that you will never betray me. Otherwise, I will kill you now. I believe that the Yun Mansion won’t do anything to me just because I killed two handmaidens.”

Xi Hua and Xi Xue quickly knelt on the ground. Xi Hua said with a trembling voice, “Ninth miss, please spare my life! Ninth Miss, please spare my life! We will not, we will not betray you!”

“Then swear!”

“Ninth miss, this, this, you may not know this. In the towering sky continent, there is no such thing as an inner demon oath. Even if, even if you swear on your inner demons, it will be useless.”

Yun chujiu frowned. There was no such thing as a heart demon oath? Oh My, then she could no longer use the Heavenly Thunder Oath to fool others?
