

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3232

The old princess naturally saw that Yun chujiu still had something to say, so she asked, "Little Jiu, do you still have something to say?"

Yun chujiu bit her lips and put on a very troubled expression. "Grandmother, I don't dare to say it. I'm afraid you'll be angry."

"Sigh, you child, just say it. I Won't blame you."

"Then, then I will really say it. You, you really won't be angry?" Hei Xinjiu said timidly.

"I won't be angry, just say it!" The old consort saw Yun chujiu trembling as if she was treading on thin ice, and her heart ached even more.

"I, I want to go and see her. Since aunt has poisoned me, I'm worried that aunt will also poison her.

So, so I want to go and see her. Grandmother, don't be angry. I really only went to see if she was safe and sound." After saying that, Yun chujiu nervously tugged at the corner of her clothes, not even daring to raise her head.

The old imperial consort's expression was a little gloomy, after a long while, she said, "Little Jiu, grandmother will tell you the truth. As long as you don't do anything outrageous, you will always be the daughter of the Yun family. But the ye family, she has made a big mistake. She will never be able to enter the Yun family again."

"Grandmother, I, I know. I don't want her to return to the Yun mansion. I just want to see if she is safe. After all, she gave birth to me. Moreover, she had been looking for me for several years. If I don't see her safe and sound with my own eyes, I will always feel empty in my heart."

Yun chujiu deliberately said “She”and not “My mother”. It was to prove to the old princess that she intended to draw a clear line between her and Ye Lan.

The old consort was silent for a long time, then she said, “Alright, I’ll Get Ji Mama to accompany you. Ji Mama is proficient in medicine. She can help you see if ye is poisoned. After you see her, come back immediately. Don’t delay, understand?”

Yun Chujiu threw herself into the old consort’s arms and cried bitterly, “Grandmother, my good grandmother, it’s all thanks to you. Otherwise, Little Jiu really doesn’t know how to live. SOB SOB...”

The old consort’s eyes were also red from Hei Xinjiu’s crying. She patted her back and said, “Alright, Alright. I’ll look for an opportunity to strike Zheng Shi. She won’t dare to cause any more trouble for the time being.”

Yun chujiu acted coquettishly for a while more before she left the old consort’s courtyard with Xi Hua and Xi Xue.

After Yun Chujiu returned to the courtyard, she hummed a little tune. It was obvious that she was in a good mood. The reason why she took such a roundabout way to expose Zheng Shi was to make the old imperial consort feel guilty. That was why she dared to bring up the idea of meeting ye Lan. As long as she met her mother, she did not care about any orders. She would definitely find an opportunity to stay with her mother for a few more days.

Yun Chujiu did not plan to bring her mother back. This imperial residence of King Yun could be said to be a dragon’s Den and a tiger’s den. It was better to wait for her to get rid of all the eyesores before bringing her mother back.

“By the way, Miss Jiu, when we were in the old consort’s house, Zheng Shi hinted that I framed third madam he shi for ordering me to poison you. Zheng Shi is too vicious!”Xi Hua became angrier as she spoke, she wished she could strangle Zheng Shi to death.

Hei xinjiu rolled her eyes and nodded approvingly at Xi Hua. "Not bad, you've made up for it! If there's anything in the future, you two have to tell me every detail, understand?"

Xi Hua and Xi Xue nodded repeatedly. After this incident, they had already regarded Yun chujia as their real master.

"Come, Let's go to my third aunt's place and bring her a bowl of soup," hei xinjiu said with a smile.
