

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3240

Yun chujiu dashed forward at her fastest speed. Although she did not know what kind of danger she would be in, she felt increasingly uneasy in her heart. She had to leave this dense forest as soon as possible.

When they reached the outside of the dense forest, even if there was danger, with the help of the He Shi's men, they would at least be able to protect themselves.

As the crowd sped forward, a guard suddenly exclaimed, "There seems to be someone chasing us from behind, and there are quite a number of them."

Some of the guards replied indifferently, "How is that possible? It's impossible for there to be anyone else in this forest."

Yun Chujiu's heart instantly sank. Could It Be King Yun's Men? That's right! That shameless bastard might want to kill her, or even kill everyone to silence her. After all, the fact that he secretly went to the Yun clan's nunnery could not be leaked, or else his reputation would be tarnished.

Thinking of this, yun chujiu said coldly, "If you don't want to die, then leave quickly!"

The guards were startled by Yun Chujiu's cold voice, and they subconsciously quickened their pace.

Unfortunately, when they were about five miles away from the exit of the dense forest, the people behind them still caught up and surrounded them.

The faces of those people were covered with black cloth, only revealing pairs of eyes full of killing intent. The leader raised his hand and shouted, "Kill! Leave No one alive!"

Ji Mama Protected Yun Chujiu, and the guards hurriedly accepted the challenge. However, the enemy had more than three times as many people as them, and their spiritual power was obviously higher than theirs. In less than an hour, they would die without a doubt.

Ji Mama inwardly cursed her bad luck. How could she have thought that she would only accompany a country bumpkin to the nunnery hall, and she would end up getting herself killed? She had seen a ghost!

Yun Chujiu's eyes flashed. If she fought head-on, there was no way she could survive. She had to think of a way to stall for time.

This place was only five miles away from the exit. It was possible that the people arranged by the He Shi would rush over to help when they heard the commotion. As long as those people came, it was uncertain who would win.

Yun chujiu thought of this, she coldly said, "Although your master is my eldest uncle, Ji Mama is one of the old consort's people. I am the ninth young miss of the Yun family. If you really kill us today, you will all die sooner or later! Your family members will also die! Even the dogs in your family will die!"

When those masked men heard Yun Chujiu's words, their actions clearly paused for a moment. Ji Mama instantly knew that Yun Chujiu's guess was true. These people were actually sent by King Yun to silence them.

Ji Mama felt both hatred and fear in her heart!

At first, she thought that it was the ye group who shamelessly seduced the king, but now it seemed that it was the exact opposite. The King was coveting the Ye Group and was afraid that she would tell the old princess about it. Now, he actually wanted to silence her.

Ji Mama felt her head buzzing. Since these people were ordered by the king to kill them, even if they managed to escape death this time, they would probably die sooner or later when they returned.

The guards following Ji Mama did not enter the Nunnery Hall, so they were confused. Why did the Royal Highness Want to kill Ji Mama and Miss Jiu? Was he crazy?

Yun chujiu saw that the masked men only paused for a moment, but their attacks did not decrease, she said loudly again, "Although the throne belongs to my eldest uncle now, don't forget that my grandfather is still alive. He can ask the emperor for an order to abolish Yun Fengjian's throne at any time.

"A man should leave some leeway in doing things. In the end, if we really pursue the matter, Yun Fengjian will be fine. You are all scapegoats!"
