

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3273

Yun Xilian looked at Princess Xi Yue and pleaded, "Sister Xi Yue, please help little jiu plead with the Crown Prince!"

Princess Xi Yue nodded and said to Yun chujiu, "Sister Jiu, quickly hand over all the herbs and kowtow to the Crown Prince to make amends. The crown prince might spare you."

Yun chujiu looked at Princess Xi Yue with ridicule. "Sister Xi Yue, I've already handed over all the wheat hay grass, what else do you want me to hand over?"

Princess Xi Yue's face sank. "Ninth sister, don't be stubborn. The world is so big, it can't be the king's land. The medicinal herbs you pick should be handed over to the crown prince."

Yun chujiu curled the corners of her lips. "Sister Xi Yue, you're right. The world is so big, it is indeed the king's land. However, let me remind you that the current emperor's body is still fine. Why is the crown prince so eager to replace him?"

Princess Xi Yue's expression immediately stiffened. The crown prince looked at her unhappily and then said to Yun chujiu, "Impudent! This is outrageous. Kill her!"

Although the people behind the crown prince were unwilling, they did not dare to offend the crown prince. They could only rush towards Hei Xinjiu.

"Stop! The crown prince is confused. Are you also confused? I am the Miss of the Yun mansion. What right do you have to attack me?!" Yun chujiu sat on the back of Chi Xiao and said with a sneer.

Those noble children were also very helpless. They did not want to attack, but they could not disobey the crown prince's words. They simply wished they could faint.

Princess Xi Yue looked conflicted. She stomped her feet and said, "Ninth sister, don't make mistakes again and again! Hurry up and kowtow and admit your mistake. The crown prince won't really kill you."

Yun chujiu looked at Princess Xi Yue sarcastically and said indifferently, "Sister Xi Yue, aren't you tired of acting? Your White Lotus character has already collapsed. What's the point of acting? !"

Although Princess Xi Yue had never heard of White Lotus or character design, it did not prevent her from understanding the meaning behind Yun Chujiu's words, she said exasperatedly, "Ninth sister, you're really too insensible! Since that's the case, I don't care if you're Dead or Alive!"

The crown prince said impatiently, "What are you still standing there for? ! Kill her!"

Just as the fifth Prince was debating whether to intervene, Yun chujiu laughed, "You want to kill me? Come, I want to see if you dare to kill me."

"If I die, our Yunwang Manor will definitely not spare those who make a move! "The emperor will naturally not execute the crown prince. When the time comes, all of you will be scapegoats!"

Those noble children were instantly caught in a dilemma. The Yunwang manor was not to be trifled with, especially with the old prince and the old consort still alive. If they were to really pursue this matter, they would not be able to get away with it!

Just as everyone was in a dilemma., they heard Yun chujiu shout loudly, "All of you, come over here! All of you have divided my phoenix feathers and eaten my phoenix eggs. Now is the time for you to compensate me. Come and protect me! I want to see who has no eyes and dares to provoke me."

Everyone was stunned to discover that Yun Chujiu was actually waving at the high-level demonic beasts in the distance. Everyone was first shocked, then laughed out loud.

This Yun chujiu was most likely a fool!

Although the demonic beasts didn't hurt her, this didn't mean that the high-level demonic beasts would listen to her. How could they protect her?

This was simply impossible!
