

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3351

Because of Lord Wu's interlude, the banquet ended hastily.

Yun Chujiu and the other three had just left the imperial palace when they heard someone behind them say, "Miss Yun, please wait a moment."

Yun chujiu frowned and called her Miss Yun? It was obvious that the person who came should be the crown prince.

Yun chujiu turned her head and looked. As expected, the person who spoke was the crown prince of the Jing Mu Kingdom, Jing Jiahong.

Jing Jiahong took two steps forward and approached Yun Chujiu. He said, "It's still early, and the moonlight is pretty good today. I'll send Miss Yun back to the Courier Station. We can admire the moon on the way."

Yun Chujiu's face was a little shy. She nodded and said, "Thank You, Your Highness!"

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two found an excuse to leave. They thought that the crown prince of the Jing Wood Kingdom seemed to like that girl, but no matter how much he liked her.., it wouldn't be easy for this girl to get married.

Yun Chujiu and Jing Jiahong chatted as they walked towards the courier station. In a carriage far away, Liu Hanyan looked at their backs, her eyes full of killing intent.

After Liu Hanyan returned to the Prime Minister's residence, she was immediately called to the study room by Imperial Chancellor Liu.

“Hanyan, your actions today have really disappointed me. Wu Dayou is my person. How will the Emperor View Me If you do this?”

Actually, you don’t have to do this at all. That woman, the female Emperor of Zephyr, will die sooner or later. She Won’t pose any threat to you.”

“Father, even so, I still can’t wait to kill her immediately! But, don’t worry, I know the severity of the situation. I Won’t do anything else.”Liu Hanyan said with slightly red eyes.

“That’s good. If we spoil his Majesty’s plans, it won’t be something our Liu family can bear.”

“Father, I still don’t understand. If His Majesty wants to annex the East Phoenix Kingdom, he can just send troops to attack. Would the East Phoenix Kingdom still dare to resist?”

“I think His Majesty is afraid of the Li Hen Palace! If the crown prince marries her, then our crown prince will be able to take control of the East Phoenix Kingdom in the name of supervising the kingdom.

“This way, we can annex the East Phoenix Kingdom without wasting a single soldier. Then, we can think of a way to annex the other three kingdoms. The remaining six small kingdoms will be even easier,”imperial chancellor Liu explained.

Liu Hanyan frowned, “Father, weren’t we always so peaceful? Why Did Her Majesty insist on annexing those vassal kingdoms?”

Imperial Chancellor Liu was clearly a little impatient, he said impatiently, “There are some things that you don’t need to know. You only need to know that you don’t need to find trouble with the female Emperor of Zephyr and let her marry here smoothly. Once the crown prince takes control of the East Phoenix Kingdom, she will naturally not be able to live.”

Seeing that her father was a little displeased, Liu Hanyan didn't dare to say anything more and retreated in embarrassment.

On the other side, Crown Prince Jing Jiahong and Yun Chujiu were chatting happily. They were talking about the local customs of the Jing Mu Kingdom and the East Phoenix Kingdom.

Although Yun Chujiu wanted to probe the reason why the crown prince married her as the crown prince's side concubine, she was afraid of alerting the enemy, so she didn't say anything more.

While the two were chatting, the bright full moon in the sky was covered by dark clouds. Yun Chujiu suddenly had a bad premonition. F * ck, could the D * MN Wu Yun have come to strike her?

Yes, she was far away from a city now, and there was no divine Phoenix Valley to hide from. This D * MN Wu Yun would naturally not let go of such a great opportunity.

Oh My God, what should she do? Would she be struck to death in a foreign country just like that?
