

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3377

Shang Liangxin hurriedly agreed and called the other generals to discuss countermeasures.

“General Shang, if we want to pass through this valley, we must first kill or drive away the four Country Alliance army on both sides of the cliff. Otherwise, we have no way to pass through. Even if we barely pass through, we will suffer heavy casualties,” a general said.

“What you said makes sense. It's just that the allied forces of the four countries have the geographical advantage. It's really too difficult for us to kill or drive them away! They killed us before we could climb up the cliff,” said another general.

For a moment, everyone fell silent. This valley was easy to defend but hard to attack. It was really too difficult to pass through.

Two days passed in a row, but the people of the Jing Mu Kingdom were still at a loss.

Shang Liangxin was so anxious that he wanted to bang his head against the wall. If he still couldn't think of a way, the crown prince would really kill him. What should he do? !

On the morning of the third day, Shang Liangxin came to Jing Jiahong excitedly. “Your Highness, Your Highness! I have a way to get through the valley!”

Jing Jiahong asked suspiciously, “What Way?”

Shang Liangxin said mysteriously, “Smoke Attack!”

“Smoke Attack?”

“That’s right! Your Highness, let’s use wet wood to create thick smoke. The rising smoke will definitely obstruct the vision of the four countries’ allied forces. Moreover, this smoke goes up. We are at the bottom, so there won’t be too much of a hindrance.

At that time, they won’t know whether we have passed through the valley or not. When they have used up most of their talismans and rolling wood, we will use the smoke to hide and pass through the valley, and continue to attack the East Phoenix Kingdom.

As for these people, we don’t need to care about them. Let His Majesty send another army to guard them. Sooner or later, they won’t be able to endure it and will have to come down and surrender.”Shang Liangxin said proudly.

Jing Jiahong was stunned at first, and then said with praise, “This idea is not bad. Gather everyone and discuss it. How did you come up with this idea?”

Shang liangxin proudly said, “Your Highness, to tell you the truth, this is a dream I had in my dream. I guess it’s an unexpected surprise.”

Jing Jiahong nodded with satisfaction, “If we can pass safely this time, I will definitely reward you handsomely.”

When Shang Liangxin heard this, he was instantly overjoyed. His dream was not in vain. Not only did he not have to worry about his life, but he was also going to be promoted and make a fortune. This was great!

The generals of the Jing Mu Kingdom discussed and felt that Shang Liangxin’s idea was not bad. Therefore, they immediately ordered the army to gather wet firewood in the surroundings, and then sent people to put the wet firewood in the valley.

Prime Minister Sima stood on the edge of the cliff and saw the behavior of the Jing Mu Kingdom. He couldn't help but say worriedly, "Your Majesty, it seems that the Jing Mu Kingdom wants to use smoke to attack. With the rising smoke, I'm afraid we will be in a passive position!"

Yun Chujiu's eyes were as bright as the stars in the sky. She said with a smile, "Smoke attack is good! When the smoke rises, we will add some ingredients to it so that the smoke will turn into poisonous smoke."

Prime Minister Sima was so shocked that he almost rolled off the cliff. Had their Majesty Gone Mad? The smoke was already blocking their vision, and it was choking them. She actually wanted to add some ingredients to turn into poisonous smoke? Was she crazy or stupid?

"Your Majesty, are you... Are You Alright? Did you not rest well recently?" Prime Minister Sima asked with a trembling voice.

The smile on Yun Chujiu's face became even brighter. "This emperor is trying to beat them at their own game. Let's do it this way..."
