

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3462

Yun chujiu had adjusted her spiritual power to the eighth layer of the spiritual venerable realm when she landed on the flying spirit tool. As for a certain one, he had also adjusted his spiritual power to the eighth layer of the spiritual venerable realm with a secret technique.

The two of them held hands and arrived at the city gate. The soldiers guarding the city gate glanced at the two little ones. "Kids, where are your parents?"

Yun chujiu pouted. "We got separated from them. An uncle told us to go into the city and wait for them."

A few soldiers looked at the two little ones suspiciously. They looked to be about five or six years old, and their spiritual power was at the eighth layer of the spiritual venerable realm. They seemed to be quite talented, and their clothes were very exquisite. They should be children of big families.

They didn't want to offend people, so their tone was quite good. They asked, "What uncle?"

"Just like you guys, he's also a soldier! However, his clothes are purple, and there's a mole on his chin. It seems like people call him leader Zhang," little nine said softly.

The soldiers looked at each other when they heard that. Leader Zhang was the commander of the Royal Guards. Since leader Zhang had specifically instructed these two little dolls to enter the city, perhaps these two little dolls really had some background.

Therefore, the soldiers did not continue interrogating. They waved their hands and let the two children enter Yangli City.

A certain Lord's eyes flashed. When this little scoundrel lied, he did not even blink his eyes. However, it made people feel that he was a little cute. He must have lost his brain because his body had become smaller. HMM..., that must be it.

Hei Xinjiu did not know what the certain someone was thinking. When she saw the bustling scene in the city, she immediately threw her worries to the back of her mind. Especially when she saw the snacks on both sides of the road, she could not walk anymore.

The certain someone looked speechlessly at little nine who had bought a huge pile of snacks. Hei Xinjiu held a candy man and ate as she walked. She smiled and asked a certain someone beside her, "Brother, try this. It's So Sweet!"

A certain person looked at her indifferently and did not say anything.

Hei Xinjiu curled her lips. She did not know how to enjoy life at all. If she did not want to eat, then so be it!

Hei Xinjiu still wanted to go to the restaurant to have a big meal, but she was stopped by a certain person. "Don't cause trouble. Let's Find a bigger inn to stay in. Don't go out too much in the future."

Although Hei Xinjiu was unwilling, she knew that di beiming was right. It was better to keep a low profile. The two little ones finally chose a big inn and asked for a superior room to stay in.

Although the owner of the inn was surprised to see only the two little kids, he thought that their parents would come soon, so he didn't say anything.

This was also the reason why di beiming and Yun Chujiu chose the large inn. The owner and staff of the large inn were well-informed and wouldn't be surprised. If they chose a small inn, they might get into trouble.

The two little ones naturally did not want two rooms. At night, after little nine washed up, she climbed onto the bed. Then, she saw a certain someone take out a futon and sit cross-legged on the ground to meditate.

Little nine pouted. "If you want your cold poison to be bad, you can meditate on the ground tonight! "I'm not a tiger, do you have to be so afraid of Me? "You don't even dare to sleep on the same bed as me? "Besides, with your small body, I have no interest in doing anything!"

A certain venerable's body stiffened. He stood up and looked at Xiao Xiaojie coldly. "If you continue to speak without thinking, venerable, Venerable..."

"Humph! What about you? Let me tell you, Pretty Boy, your fate is in my hands now. If you make me unhappy, I'll make you a little bun for the rest of your life!" Hei Xinjie said proudly.
