

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 446

"Junior Sister Zhuo, don't worry! I will protect junior sister Little Jiu. With our skills, we will definitely be able to complete the mission! Geng Yi, Shi Xuan, and senior brother Ding, do you have any objections?" Feng Ming said confidently.

The six people who went this time were all successive disciples. Besides Feng Ming and Yun Chujiu, there were also Zhuo Piaoyu, Ding Lang, Geng Yi, and Shi Xuan.

Geng Yi was the successive disciple of Peak Master Du of the East Peak, while Shi Xuan was the successive disciple of Peak Master Qiu of the South Peak. The two of them had a pretty good relationship with Feng Ming, so they naturally agreed readily.

Ding Lang's eyes flickered a few times, and he also nodded his head in agreement.

Seeing this, Zhuo Piaoyu had nothing more to say. She thought to herself, 'Yun Chujiu, you've got a death wish!! Originally, I didn't have the chance to kill you while in the sect, but now you're the one who took the initiative to come out and throw your life away!! I've already advised you not to go. If you insist on going, if something does happen, don't put the blame on me.'

Ding Lang, who was at the side, had a twinkle in his eyes. This was truly a heaven-sent opportunity. Among the six people who came out to pick the Eupatorium grass, besides Yun Chujiu, he was the only one who understood the medicinal principles. When the time came, he would be able to take this b*tch's life without anyone knowing.

Yun Chujiu was like a little bird that had been released from its cage, chattering non-stop along the way! Geng Yi and Shi Xuan had also heard some of their fellow disciples talk about how Yun Chujiu was arrogant and despotic. Now that they had come into contact with her, they felt that the three of them were the real monsters. She was clearly a naive and romantic little girl, but her reputation had been smeared to such an extent!

Four hours later, everyone arrived at the Eupatorium Valley.

The reason why the Eupatorium Valley was named so was that the valley was rich in Eupatorium grass. Eupatorium grass was a high-grade black grade medicinal herb, and the accompanying beast was the Eupatorium poison bee. Although Eupatorium poison bees were a third-grade demon beast, it was a demon beast that lived in groups. Each bee colony guarded the Eupatorium grass within a few dozen mu of land.

Although Eupatorium grass was called grass, it was actually a spiritual plant that bloomed all year round. Eupatorium poison bees liked the pollen and nectar of Eupatorium grass so if threatened, they would retaliate in force!

Eupatorium poison bees were different from ordinary bees. They would not die after stinging people. Moreover, their toxicity was extremely strong. After being stung by one, even if they immediately took an antidote pill, they would temporarily lose their spiritual power. If they were stung by more than one bee... if they could not remove the poison in time, their life would be in danger.

“Geng Yi and Shi Xuan, lure the bees away. Junior Sister Zhuo and senior brother Ding will be responsible for eliminating the remaining bees. Junior sister Jiu and I will pick the Eupatorium grass!” Feng Ming made a simple division of labor.

This arrangement was very reasonable. The most dangerous task was the one to lure the bees away. Geng Yi and Shi Xuan had higher spiritual power, so it was very suitable for them to do this.

The harvesting job was the least dangerous, and so it was suitable for Yun Chujiu, who had the lowest spiritual power. Moreover, with Feng Ming’s protection, there should be no problems. Although Zhuo Piaoyu and Ding Lang’s spiritual power was not as high as Geng Yi and Shi Xuan’s, it was still safe to pick the Eupatorium grass, however, it was not a problem for them to deal with the remaining poison bees.

Zhuo Piaoyu and Ding Lang both had their own thoughts. They simultaneously thought about how they could get rid of Yun Chujiu discreetly.

After the discussion, they found a nest of Eupatorium poison bees.

According to the plan, Geng Yi and Shi Xuan began to anger the bees. Sure enough, the bees all chased after them and flew far away!

“Junior Sister Zhuo, senior brother Ding, you guys deal with the remaining ones. Don’t let them come to me and junior sister Xiaojiu. Junior Sister Xiaojiu and I will hurry up and pick the Eupatorium grass!” Feng Ming pointed at the dozen or so Eupatorium poison bees in the distance and said.

After saying that, Feng Ming took Yun Chujiu to the side and began to pick the Eupatorium grass!

Seeing how Feng Ming doted over Yun Chujiu, Zhuo Piaoyu could no longer control the jealousy in her heart. A trace of ruthlessness flashed in her eyes. Yun Chujiu, you forced me to do this!
