

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 662

Yun Chujiu abandoned herself to despair for a while, and then she was revived again!

Damn! She was a little pest that could not be killed even by lightning. She did not believe that she could not find a way out!

Therefore, this girl began to knock around and use her half-baked knowledge of arrays to find a way out.

At the beginning, the three-tailed foxes of lie Yan looked at Yun Chujiu with anticipation.

The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King looked at Yun Chujiu's professional look and thought to itself, 'This human girl looks decent. Maybe she can really find a way out. I have to admit that humans are indeed smarter than demon beasts.'

In the blink of an eye, ten days passed. The foxes went about their business. This little girl was obviously impressive-looking but useless. She did not find anything even after such a long time! If it was not for the fact that she had provided them with food and water, they would have eaten her long ago. 'You are a f*cking liar, and a fraud!'

The fox king decided to take back what it had said earlier. 'Tsk! Humans are just so-so. They're not as smart as demon beasts!'

Yun Chujiu had lost her gusto again. She could only use her pickaxe to dig for minerals to comfort her miserable mood!

Fortunately, there was an endless supply of water and food in the Great Void Mystic Realm. It would not be a problem for her to live there for a few hundred years. However, she did not want to die with the foxes!

When the fox king heard Yun Chujiu's muttering, it curled its lips in disdain. 'We will not die with you. If you can not provide us with food, we will eat you. Then, we will continue to hibernate and wait for the next unlucky person.'

At that moment, Yun Chujiu's heart was half as bright as spring and half as cold as ice and snow. Naturally, she was overjoyed to have dug out many precious ores. However, when she thought about how she had no place to spend her money, she immediately became listless.

Fortunately, after the incident with the deathly aura, this fellow's willpower had become much stronger. After a few days of hesitation and depression, she began to revive to full health!

This fellow had set a strict schedule for herself. Apart from eating and sleeping, she spent one-third of her time mining, one-third of her time searching for the formation's core, and one-third of her time fighting with the Flaming Three Tailed Foxes.

The foxes abandoned their moral dignity for food... They unwillingly became Yun Chujiu's sparring partner.

In any case, Yun Chujiu had a lot of medicinal pills in her hands. Even if she accidentally injured those foxes, she let them consume medicinal pills to treat their injuries. At first, these foxes did not look up to Yun Chujiu at all. Later, they realized that this little girl was much stronger than she looked, and was not in the eighth level at all. Damn it, this little girl is a big liar!

Yun Chujiu was at the seventh level of the Spirit Cultivator realm, and these foxes were Tier Seven demon beasts. Their spiritual power was basically the same. However, Yun Chujiu, this little pervert, was able to deal with one fox with ease. Later on, it became a fight between one person and two foxes.

These foxes were motivated by their desire to win, and they fought with Yun Chujiu every day.

When Yun Chujiu was fighting with the Flaming Three Tailed Foxes, she did not show any evil intentions. She relied entirely on the lightning strike and her swift movements to fight with them.

As time passed, Yun Chujiu felt that although her spiritual power had not leveled up, her control of the lightning spiritual power was more skillful, and her movements were also more agile.

After a month, Yun Chujiu was not at a disadvantage even when fighting with five foxes. She mocked herself in her heart. It seemed that it was not a bad thing to fall into the fox cave. At least her actual combat ability had greatly improved.
