

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 688

After Yun Chujiu restrained the spiritual power of the six people, she kicked them together like a soccer ball. The faces of the six people were all scratched by spiritual plants on the ground and when the woman saw that her proud face was scratched, her eyes were filled with a vicious light.

Yun Chujiu didn't care about it and said with a smile, "Come on, who can tell me about the Goshawk Sect? If you say something useful, I will let you go while I will kill the rest of your group! There is only one chance, which one of you will speak up?"

The eyes of the six people flickered, and the hook-nosed man said with a fierce expression, "Brat, if you dare harm any of us, the Goshawk Sect will not let you off!"

Yun Chujiu drew a sword from his waist and pointed it at his neck. The hook-nosed man screamed and fell to the ground.

"This time, do you believe me? Who will tell me what I want to know? Or do you all want to Die?" Yun Chujiu held up the sword and asked with a smile.

However, in the eyes of the five people, that was the most threatening smile they have seen. One of the men shouted, "I will! I'll tell you everything!"

The woman said fiercely, "Don't. I'll do it."

The eyes of the other three men flickered. One of the men said loudly, "Junior Sister Lianxin, we usually let do as you wish. This time, we cannot since it's a matter of life and death. Young hero, I will tell you what you want to know."

"Deng Shi, what do you know?! Young hero, I have more knowledge than him, let me be the one to tell you."

“Young hero, I’m the oldest here, and I know more than the rest. Ask me!”

Seeing the four of them like this, the woman cursed angrily, “You! You dare defy me? My father won’t forgive you!”

The eyes of the four of them flickered. They couldn’t care less about the consequences now. It was more important to save their own skin.

Yun Chujiu smiled faintly. “How about this? I’ll give each of you a chance to tell me something useful. Whoever provides the most detail, I’ll let them go.”

The five of them scrambled to tell Yun Chujiu everything they knew. They were afraid that they would lose out to the rest so they just spilled everything, regardless of whether it was useful or not.

Yun Chujiu summarized what they said, and she had a rough understanding of the Goshawk Sect.

Although the weather on the Chimeric Plain was harsh, there were many unique herbs and demonic beasts. Therefore, people saw a business opportunity and came to buy herbs and demonic beast materials. As time passed, a hundred miles away from the Chimeric Plain, lay Chimeric City. In the city were many shops and merchants frequented by cultivators.

The power of the mayor of Chimeric City grew bigger and bigger, and eventually, the Goshawk Sect was established.

The Goshawk Sect was medium-sized and on about the same level as the Zhuo family that Yun Chujiu had destroyed. There were six people above the spirit emperor realm, more than twenty spirit cultivators, and the rest were all at the spirit enhancement level.

These six people were all inner sect disciples, and the woman was the biological daughter of the current sect master, Liu Qian. The six of them had also come to the Chimeric Plains for training.

The sect members often came to this area for training so the symbol of the Goshawk Sect was widely recognized by others. Therefore, the six of them had always been able to do as they pleased. Who would have thought that they would stub their toes today?

Yun Chujiu thought about it. Even the strongest dragon could not defeat a snake that knew its surroundings. Moreover, she did not have anything against them, so she said, "If each of you give me 100,000 Spirit Stones and I will let you go. Otherwise, I'll kill you and leave your bodies in the Chimeric Plains. Your Goshawk Sect can't do anything to me."
