

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 760

"Sigh! It's easier said than done to mend the soul! If we hadn't separated from our physical bodies and consumed pills like the soul-mending pill, we would've slowly recovered. However, at this moment, we only have remnant souls left. If we want to mend our souls, we can only do so by placing ourselves in the Great Soul Replenishing Void Formation.

"However, the Great Soul Replenishing Void Formation is an ancient formation. It has already been lost during our era, not to mention that tens of thousands of years have passed. There's basically no possibility of finding it." The more the man spoke, the more depressed he became. He felt that the possibility of being able to find the Great Soul Replenishing Void Formation was almost zero.

"This matter is man-made. You guys have endured for tens of thousands of years, so who cares about waiting for a few more years! If your souls are completed, can you be reincarnated or can you possess others? You can't always exist in the form of souls, right?"

"If our souls are complete, we can choose to be reincarnated, but we can't possess because our souls are too strong. Right now, the human body can't withstand it, unless we can... Forget it, the possibility of this is even lower. It's better not to say it," the big man said sadly.

"Don't! Just say it. Let me broaden my horizons too!" Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

The big man saw that Yun Chujiu was going to get to the bottom of it, so he could only say, "Unless someone can find our original bodies. This is even harder than ascending to heaven."

"What? Your bodies are still there? Oh my God, they haven't rotted for tens of thousands of years? Isn't this too incredible?! Where are they now?" Yun Chujiu widened her eyes in surprise.

The burly man shook his head. "I can't tell you this, or else I'll be punished again."

Yun Chujiu blinked her eyes, she said with a smile, "I'm the kindest person. I can't stand to see the Heavens bullying an honest person like you! As you can see, I'm here at the right time, the right place, and with the right person. This jade bottle can nourish the soul, and I'm not afraid of being struck by lightning. Are you willing to venture out with me? Although I may not be able to help you recover your soul, and I may not be able to help you find your body, it is still better than waiting for your death here, right?"

The little black bird secretly cursed. 'Master, are you really that kind? Don't joke around! You're the most black-hearted person in the world! Thinking back to the time when we were all deceived by your little innocent appearance, but you're actually a little devil without horns on your head!'

The burly man naturally did not know Yun Chujiu's devilish attribute. He was seriously considering the possibility that Yun Chujiu had mentioned. After a long while, he said, "Little girl, I need to discuss with the others before I decide."

Yun Chujiu nodded. "Alright. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! You must cherish it! To have so many ancient green jade bottles and not be afraid of being struck by lightning, and to have someone as kind as me... This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!"

The burly man nodded and turned into a wisp of black smoke that drifted into the distance.

Yun Chujiu waited for the burly man to walk far away before she hopped to Di Beiming's side with a smile, "Prince Charming, I'm going to make another big deal!"

Di Beiming patted her little head lovingly, "Although these remnant souls still have some spiritual power left, but they have too many restrictions. Why do you still want to take them in?"

"Because I'm kind! I can't bear to see people suffer!"

"Tell me the truth!"

“Well, what if I can find the formation of the Great Void Soul Patching Formation in the future? What if I can find their bodies? At that time... Sh*t, I will actually have hundreds and thousands of ancient cultivators as helpers. Who can compete with me?! Hahaha!” Yun Chujiu thought of the beautiful vision. She was so happy that she almost rolled on the ground.
