

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 896

These elders of the Spirit Radiance Sect actually felt that having such a small ancestor was too embarrassing.

At that moment, they were incomparably grateful that they had one in Yun Chujiu. Not only had she saved the Spirit Radiance Sect from danger several times, but now that the Azure Mystic Continent was in danger, she was the one to step forward.

Just as Yun Chujiu had said back then, there would come a day when the Spirit Radiance Sect would be proud of her. At that moment, not only was she the pride of our Spirit Radiance Sect, but she was also the pride of the entire Azure Mystic Continent.

The young girl on the tall rock no longer had her usual cheeky personality. Instead, she exuded an awe-inspiring aura, a conviction that she would win, causing people to involuntarily submit to her and trust her.

The numerous demon beasts raised their heads and roared, kneeling in front of her to represent their submission. It was true that they were high-level demon beasts, and some of them had even higher spiritual power than Yun Chujiu. However, at that moment, they were willing to follow this young girl, fighting side by side with the humans to protect their home.

Many cultivators were affected by the majestic atmosphere and could not help but kneel. At that moment, in their eyes, they had already forgotten about Yun Chujiu's age. Saving their lives twice, having a shocking talent for cultivation, unparalleled intelligence, and being the personal disciple of Patriarch Linghua were enough to make up for the lack of age. They were willing to accept the young girl's command, and they were also extremely confident that she would lead them to take back their home.

Di Beiming stood at the side and looked at the girl who was like the god of war. His heart was filled with tenderness and pride. He had never seen Little Jiu like this before, but it made him even more moved. It made him willing to protect her.

Xue Wuji's heart was also filled with awe. He felt like his heart was about to stop beating. How could he not be moved by such a girl?!

Secret Agent Huahua looked at her young master's infatuation and sighed inwardly. That's right, how could such a woman not move his heart?! Her beautiful appearance would fade with time, but this boldness, this calmness, and this sense of responsibility transcended both age and gender. As time passed, the young master would probably be unable to extricate himself.

An Feng was also deeply moved. He could only say that his young master had a unique eye. Thinking back to that little black trash back then, who would have thought that in less than three years, she would bloom with such brilliance?! If the Palace Mistress saw this scene unfold, would she change her opinion of the ninth miss?! Although the ninth miss was still unable to compare with the other young ladies of the Tian Yuan continent, she would sooner or later become the most dazzling existence in the Tian Yuan continent. No one was more suitable than her to stand beside His Excellency.

Yun Chujiu looked at the cultivators and demonic beasts kneeling on the ground and with a firm expression, she said, "Everyone, thank you for your trust in me, Yun Chujiu. As long as you give me time, I will definitely give you a bright future. "Now, those who heard my name, stand by my right hand. I have other arrangements for you. The rest of you, stand by."

Seeing Yun Chujiu's calmness and maturity that did not match her age, everyone felt even more confident in their hearts and nodded in agreement.

"Spirit Radiance Sect's Zou Zhandong, Zhao Rui, Cao Bin, He Hongwen... Heavenly Gates Sect's Zhang Lingbai, Mu Yan, Gu Feng, Chu Yufeng... Skyblade Sect's Shi Yanyu, Ye Zhanli, Situ Cangyu, Ling Hao... Bixiao Palace's Shangguan Yue, Bai Muying, Liu Yushuang, Zhao Yuping... Seven-Star Sword Sect's Bai Chen, Luo Wenbo; Flying Tiger Villa's Yu Hongwen..." Yun Chujiu read out the names of over a hundred people in one breath.

Everyone was shocked. How did Yun Chujiu know the names of these people? It was fine if she knew those from the Spirit Radiance Sect but a large majority of the names were not. How did she know the names of the others, especially the itinerant cultivators?
