

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 924

Half a month later, Yun Chujiu returned to the Spirit Radiance Sect. The moment she entered the courtyard, she saw Di Beiming glaring at her like a tiger staring at a dead fish.

“You’re still willing to come back? I thought that you would live permanently in the Chimeric Icefield from now on!” Di Beiming squeezed out two sentences from between his teeth.

Yun Chujiu was also furious. Damn it, I just traveled home from a thousand miles away. It was fine if you did not ask about my well-being, but who were you trying to make fun of?

Yun Chujiu ignored Di Beiming and went straight into the house.

Di Beiming was so angry that he gritted his teeth and followed her into the house.

An Feng and An Yin in the corner looked at each other. A storm was brewing. It had been a long time since they had seen the His Excellency and Miss Jiu quarreling. This time, they would not be nice. Miss Jiu’s temper was getting shorter, she would not be as humble as before. His Excellency was also not a coward. The two of them would have a lot of trouble.

After Di Beiming entered the room, he saw that Yun Chujiu had picked up some paper and written on them. His heart relaxed. He overlooked the fact that the black thing ignored him just now. She must be writing a guarantee letter or a self-reflection letter for him. Since she already knew that she was wrong, I will forgive her for now.

After a moment, Yun Chujiu stuffed the things that she had written into Di Beiming’s arms and pushed Di Beiming out of the door. “I want to take a shower. You go out and wait!”

Although Di Beiming felt that it was a little embarrassing to be pushed out, he misunderstood Yun Chujiu’s behavior as shyness and did not take it to heart. He walked to a nearby stone table and read what Yun Chujiu had written. He got so angry that he smashed the stone table into powder on the spot!

There was an ugly fish drawn on the paper, and there was an egg drawn next to the fish. On the side, it was written, "Di Beiming fish, you arrogant bastard, get lost!"

Di Beiming was mad. After smashing the stone table, he directly rushed into the room, then covered his nose and rolled out dejectedly.

An Feng saw that there was blood flowing from the gap between the fingers of His Excellency, and he could not help but shiver. Miss Jiu was really valiant. She actually hit His Excellency's nose. His Excellency would probably be subjected to domestic violence frequently in the future!

An Feng saw His Excellency cover his nose with one hand like an idiot. He stood there foolishly as if he was being imprisoned.

An Feng could not stand it anymore. He ran over to collect the remnants of the Stone Table and took out another set of stone tables and chairs. An Feng's storage ring had more than ten sets of stone tables and chairs, mainly for His Excellency, the Palace Mistress, and that Xue Wuji. He felt that having several prepared just in case of situations like this. "Your Excellency, is your nose injured? It's better to wipe it quickly!" An Feng could not help but remind Di Beiming when he saw that Di Beiming was like a lost deer.

Only then did Di Beiming come back to his senses. He coughed awkwardly and waved his hand, indicating that An Feng should get lost.

An Feng scurried back to the corner and saw His Excellency take out a handkerchief to wipe the blood from his nose and hands. Then, he sat on the stone bench in a daze.

An hour later, Yun Chujiu walked out of the room. After washing up, Yun Chujiu looked even more beautiful. However, her eyes were full of anger as she rushed to Di Beiming's side, she grabbed his collar and said, "Didn't I tell you to stay outside? Who let you in? Didn't you know that I'm taking a bath?"

An Feng immediately understood how he got the nosebleed. Cough, cough, so it was because he had seen the Ninth Miss in her birthday suit....
