

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 948

The Demon Wolf was stunned, 'Why did this little girl stop running?! She was even smiling at me. Is she crazy?!'

"Little Puppy, I advise you to leave quickly. Otherwise, if you anger me, things won't end well for you. I'm very cruel!" Yun Chujiu hugged her shoulders and said smugly.

The Demon Wolf almost laughed out of anger. This little girl was most likely suffering from hysteria. She was having a seizure! The Demon Wolf snorted in disdain and opened his mouth, shooting hundreds of wind blades at Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu smiled coldly and summoned five immortal swords, stabbing them at the Demon Wolf's eyes, ears, and nose.

The Demon Wolf was shocked. F*ck! This little girl was very strange. It was fine if she had a Heavenly Thunder Root Spirit, but how could she command five flying swords at the same time?! Even a spirit saint could not do it. How could a weak little chicken at the first level of the spirit sect have such a strong spiritual sense?!

The Demon Wolf did not dare to be negligent. Although its body was strong, the parts that were targeted by the five immortal swords were the most vulnerable parts of its body. It had to dodge them.

Yun Chujiu relied on the five immortal swords to hold on for less than fifteen minutes. More than a dozen of the defensive spirit tools on Yun Chujiu's body cracked and shattered, which left her barely injured.

The Demon Wolf's eyes flashed with pride. The little girl could not hold on for much longer. Although she was a little strange, she was still weak. She should just die!

Unexpectedly, the little girl said faintly, "It's almost time. Little Puppy, don't you feel that there's something wrong?"

The Demon Wolf was stunned. It did not know what Yun Chujiu meant, but it immediately knew because it realized that its spiritual power was rapidly flowing away. This must be because she had done something to the demon beast meat just now. Damn it! It had to end the battle as soon as possible and try to kill these four people before its spiritual power disappeared.

The Demon Wolf went berserk. At that time, Yun Chujiu let Feng Ming and the other two join the battle, and the four people began to besiege the Demon Wolf.

Although the spiritual power of Feng Ming and the other two was not yet stable, they were still at the first level of the spirit sect. In addition to the decrease in the spiritual power of the Demon Wolf, the four people barely lasted another fifteen minutes with the Demon Wolf. Fortunately, the drug took effect, and the spiritual power of the Demon Wolf became weaker and weaker, the four of them finally had the upper hand.

An hour later, the Demon Wolf was finally killed by the four of them. It never thought that it would be killed by four weak chickens at the first level of the spirit sect. It did not even fully close its eyes until it died.

Yun Chujiu put the corpse of the Demon Wolf into the spiritual beast bag and then said to Feng Ming and the other three, "The smell of blood here is too strong. It would be bad if other demon beasts were attracted. Let's leave this place quickly."

The group went in the opposite direction from where the wolf came from. They ran dozens of miles away in one breath and then collapsed on the ground, panting heavily.

The four people's hearts were covered with a layer of shadow. That demonic wolf should not be considered a high-level demonic beast in the Tian Yuan Continent, but even such a low-level demonic beast had reduced the four of them to such a sorry state. If it had not been for its lack of vigilance and accidentally eating the soul-devouring powder, they would probably be in deep trouble.

The desert was so vast that there was no end to it. They did not know what other demon beasts they would encounter. They would not die here, would they?

The weather in the desert was very hot. The sun scorched them above their heads. Yun Chujiu had the Strange Grass secrete three drops of refreshing beads and handed them to Feng Ming and the other two. The three of them miraculously discovered that with those beads, their bodies had become cooler.

The four of them rested for a moment and ate some food before continuing on their journey. They tried their best to travel more during the day, but they absolutely could not travel at night. At night, it was when the Demon Beasts run amok..
