The Great Marshal is going to propose to a lady living in the district.

The Great Marshal is going to propose to a lady living in the district.

A daring thought appeared in Lacey's head.

"Zeke, don't tell me... This is all you?"

"Do you like it?" Zeke smiled.

"I-I don't know..." Lacey stuttered.

"What are you talking about?" both Hannah and Daniel asked.

"Dad, mom, Zeke told me he was going to propose to me at the ceremony yesterday..." Lacey explained.

"What?" Daniel and Hannah exclaimed. "Are you saying... that Zeke's the one who arranged all of these? Doesn't that mean he's..."

"Let's go. We shouldn't keep them waiting," Zeke smiled as he took them down.

The family went down with Zeke, feeling as if they were dreaming.

None of them could believe that Zeke was the Great Marshal.

When they walked out of the building, they noticed that the crowd had gathered around the Clemons family.

"Oh my God! Emily, since when did you become the marshal's woman? I can't believe I'm staying in the same district as the Great Marshal's fiancé! What an honor!"

"So, the army is here to drive you to the ceremony?"

Emily was the center of attention; she couldn't hide her smile.

"Zaka, don't tell ma... This is all you?"

"Do you like it?" Zaka smiled.

"I-I don't know..." Lacay stammered.

"What are you talking about?" both Hannah and Daniel asked.

Emily was the center of attention; she couldn't hide her smile.

"At first, I was wondering why the Great Marshal would invite a nobody like me to the Grand Ceremony," Emily said. "I've never expected that he'd actually want to propose to me at the ceremony."

"Of course, the mershel would fell for you! You're gorgeous!" One of the neighbors complimented.

"He's right! How did you end the Greet Mershel meet?" Another neighbor asked.

"You guys know my brother is in the army, don't you?" Emily said. "I went to visit him a few days ago and bumped into a young soldier there. Now that I think about it, that must have been the mershel. It must have been love at first sight."

The neighbors cheered even harder after that as they showered Emily with compliments.

Lecey and her family were in awe.

What's happening? Are these cars here for Emily instead of Lecey?

The way Emily described how she came to meet the Greet Mershel made sense as well.

It woke the entire Hinton family up. What followed was disappointment.

They couldn't believe how naive they were for thinking that Zeke was the Greet Mershel.
