Chapter 361.1

Madam Fanghua did this for her own sake. The higher the cultivation base of Yang Chen was, the higher the benefits she would get. Similarly, Yang Chen would also get more benefits.

The cultivation of the jade law was one of the demon path cultivation methods and it was rare to be able to get such a cultivation method that could benefit others as well. However, it was not easy to cultivate it, it was not easy to find such a treasure so Madam Fanghua could not afford to leave Yang Chen for even a while.

The reason why she chose to be Yang Chen's slave was so that she could be able to stay on Yang Chen's side, she could say that she didn't care, but she was still afraid of Gongsun ling not waiting and having sexual intercourse with Yang Chen in advance. If this happened all her plans would be thrown into disarray.

Madam Fanghua was a person who liked luxury. Everything here was very elegant. After a series of arrangements, even if Yang Chen has seen the gorgeousness of the Heavenly Court, he was still full of praise for this place.

"Young Master, please eat!" At the time of dinner, a pretty little maid came to Madam Fanghua to indicate that Madam Fanghua immediately lined up to send the dinner.

The dinner that was sent was also gorgeous and the mountain and sea foods were all complete. It was rare that in this small town, Madam Fanghua could actually get so many ingredients.

What was even more rare was that every kind of delicacies seems to contain a strong force of Yuan Yin, which seemed to be a nourishing meal specially prepared for Yang Chen.

Madam Fanghua, like a dedicated slave, kept all the dishes in front of Yang Chen in the same way, with a sacred expression on her face, but the words in her mouth was that of a slave "Young Master, please have a meal!"

“Em? The power of these Yuan yin?” Yang Chen of course tasted the taste of the dishes, and he became suddenly surprised. Even if he had the experience of a Great Principal Golden Immortal, he did not know how to contain the power of the Yuan yin in the dishes.

“These are prepared by virgins who have cultivated for a hundred years, after taking special medicinal pills, they have cultivated a unique cultivation method. When they cook with spirit power, this is the effect.” Madam Fanghua explained on the sidelines.

“It tastes good!” Yang Chen nodded and gave a chopstick to Gongsun ling, then he brought out a wine jar from his Qiankun bag and said “poure it!”

“Yes, young master!” Madame Fanghua did not disobey, she opened the jar of wine, it was not known where she found a jade cup and she poured the wine into it, then she placed the jade cup in front of Yang Chen, then she stood on the side of Yang Chen.

There were at least twenty of the original subordinates of Madam Fanghua who have been waiting here. They have never seen Madam Fanghua making such a posture. One by one they were bearing the shock and the stood there not moving, even Madam Fanghua was like this, let alone them.

Gongsun Ling grabbed the jade cup and took a sip of it. Then she took a look at Shao Fanghua who was next to them and she used her mouth to feed Yang Chen the wine.

Even with the memory of his past life, he doesn't remember when the cultivation genius of the Pure Yang Palace behaving like this? Even before when the two of them showed affection towards each other, it would be just a hug, plus some small movements, there was never such directness like today.

After swallowing the wine from Gongsun ling's mouth, Yang Chen's heart was almost intoxicated. This was what Gongsun ling took the initiative to send to him, Yang Chen was almost reluctant to let go, he just wanted to taste the wonderful taste of his Senior apprentice sister's lips.

There were dozens of people around watching it now, even if Gongsun ling was daring, after a sip of the wine, she dared not do anything more. However, Yang Chen's reaction still made Gongsun ling very happy. After their lip split, she still carefully and unconsciously glanced at Shao Fanghua, full of provocation.

Madam Fanghua did not seem to see anything that went on, she stood on the side with a calm face, but her heart has once again began to despise Gongsun ling.

After Yang Chen drank a few mouthfuls of wine and ate some delicacies, Madam Fanghua finally made a move. During the time, a melodious silk bamboo music began to play. Then, woman with only a veil on her body entered and began to dance in the wide hall.

Every woman who danced was in perfect shape. She was only wearing a transparent gauze on her important parts. With the movement of the dance, from time to time, there would be snow white curves exposed in front of Yang Chen and Gongsun ling, making everyone who looked at it blood boil.

“Young Master, for your Jade Law, you also need to maintain your mood from time to time, this is a little dance to help you improve it, I ask the young master to give your opinion on it!” Madam Fanghua waited until the dancer had begun to dance until she said this. Everything was like a loyal slave trying to please her master.

The need to maintain the jade law was always to maintains the mood from day to day. In fact, the person who wanted to practice this cultivation method was always full of desire. This was definitely a painful suffering for those who really practice the cultivation of jade law. They always had to keep to themselves, there were a lot of women around him who he couldn't unleash his animal intent on them, it was just torture.

If it was just forbearing for a while then that would be fine, but to cultivate it from the first layer to the second layer and finally to third layer would require more than hundred years, not to mention the people in the demonic sects, even if it was people in the Dao Sects, It was not necessarily possible for them to persist under such circumstances.

It was a miracle that Madam Fanghua found Yang Chen, which was simply a miracle that was comparable to finding a needle in a haystack. How could she not attach great importance to him?

Now Yang Chen has not eaten the things brought by her and everything he has Gongsun ling acting for him. Whether it was eating or drinking, Gongsun ling was caught in Yang Chen's mouth, she uses her mouth to feed him, there was a beauty singing and dancing in front of him, Yang Chen eating this meal was simply refreshing.

“Fanghua, I heard that the Yin-Yang Demon Sect’s Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance is unparalleled in the world, I don’t know if you can open my eyes today?” After watching it for a while, Yang Chen became less interested. It’s just that some of the slightly open dances were not enough to make Yang Chen’s heart move, so he simply made this suggestion to Madam Fanghua.

“Does young master want to see the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance?” Madam Fanghua made a stunned look. This day, the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance was the treasure of the Yin-Yang Demon Sect. It was not easy for it to be used in front of people, but from the past history, as long as you watch the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance, no matter if you were a man or a woman, they would be enchanted.

Yang Chen actually asked to see the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance, not only Madam Fanghua, even Gongsun ling was shocked. Even if she hasn’t seen the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance, but in addition to the Eliminate the Demons and Protect the Dao to gain experience, Gongsun ling has also heard of the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance, even Yuanying stage ancestors could not help but become indulged in the face of the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance .

“Don’t!” Gongsun ling directly smothered Yang Chen’s mouth, showing a worried look in her eyes. She shook her head at Yang Chen and dissuaded him “No!”

Chapter 361.2

Madam Fanghua only needed Yang Chen to insist on it. In this way, once Yang Chen was enchanted, he could be firmly controlled by her and he could no longer escape.

The reason why Madam Fanghua did not use force was to avoid the legendary old devil who was about to ascend. The second reason was that she wanted Yang Chen to be willing.

With so many means, it was this kind of willingness. As long as she was not actively using the Heavenly Demon’s Alluring Dance to enchant Yang Chen on her own initiative, even if the old devil wanted to find her trouble, there would be no justified reason for it.

Now Yang Chen actually offered to watch the Heavenly Demon's Alluring Dance, this was him courting his own death and Madam Fanghua could not help but become tempted. Even if the old devil look for trouble for her in the future, she could use Yang Chen who would be willing to step in to help her.

"Aren't you going to get ready to begin?" Yang Chen turned to stare at Madam Fanghua and said with a smile.

"Yes, young master!" Madam Fanghua looked at Yang Chen's expression and determined that he was not joking. She finally said "This slave, will go and prepare."

In less than a moment, in front of Yang Chen, there were more than a dozen young women who seemed to be ordinary people. Compared with those women who wore tulle before, these women were almost not cultivators, and the makeup on their faces were also very delicate. In both of their eyes, a childish light that showed that they did not have any experience in the world, they were not experts.

The string and woodwind instruments sound changed, they haven't waited for these new women to start dancing. Those who had stayed here to serve, they all hurriedly bowed to Madam Fanghua, then turned around and went out of the hall.

In the room, only Yang Chen, Gongsun Ling and the original five female slaves were left, as well as Madam Fanghua and those new women. The dinner table has also been withdrawn, revealing an empty hall.

"Please we ask young master to appraise!" The more than a dozen women dancers bowed and saluted Yang Chen and then they occupied the position in the hall, with the sound of silk bamboo and slowly began to dance.

These new women dancers, unlike the women in the past who had only a veil on their body, these women were tightly dressed, the dance that jumps out was very pleasing, but there was no such thing as a sly taste.

It was not known where the sound of the string and woodwind instruments resounded, it seems to be very peaceful, it was a dance that could be enjoyed in its elegance.

Just looking at it for a while, Gongsun ling's face showed a confused look. She didn't understand how everyone talked about the Heavenly Demon's Alluring Dance, it turned out to be only this.

If they dared to call it a sensuous dance, then what are the young girls who were barely able to jump, what was it?

She just wanted to ask Yang Chen, if Madam Fanghua had made a mistake, Gongsun ling suddenly found out that Yang Chen was watching the dances with relish, and his eyes did not blink a wink.

Yang Chen was someone who Gongsun ling was willing to absolutely trust, she was even willing to entrust her life to him. Yang Chen's performance showed that this Heavenly Demon's Alluring Dance was not simple. Gongsun ling also suppressed her doubts and began to pay attention to those dancers.

After jumping for the time for half a column of incense to burn, the sound of the string and woodwind instruments began to slowly change, the dance also had a little warmth in the hall, the women began to breath heavily, it seems that they were very tired to dance this dance.

After a while, the dancers seemed to be more tired, and their breathing sounds were more heavy. The face on their head began to show some fine sweat and their cheeks had some blushing.

The atmosphere seemed to change at this time. The dancers were tired and they felt a little hot. The tightly covered robes that had just been covered were also quietly pulled over at the neckline, revealing a touch of white skin of their crispy chest and the corner of the apron.

The body fragrance of the women also spread slightly with the sweat of their body, slowly filling the hall. The scent of the women were spreading and there was a bit of an enticing aura in the hall.

Even though she has been staring at these dancers, Gongsun ling did not notice when they secretly pulled their neckline. As the dance was getting better, the dancers' neckline exposure seems to be getting bigger and bigger, almost half a chest was revealed.

Suddenly, a dancer seems to have stumbled for a moment and her body began to tremble. A dancer next to her may have been too tired and stepped on her clothesline hanging down on the ground. With a bang, the tripping dancer's clothes were directly torn open, almost revealing half of her body.

The poor dancer was almost in a hurry and wanted to pull the only half of her clothes to cover her naked body, but the remaining half of the clothes was too small to be used. The most embarrassing thing was that in the cover of the mess, she has to dance with everyone's dance, and suddenly a beautiful scene flashed by.

The dancer was so anxious that she almost cried out, the deep feelings was on her face, everyone felt pity when they saw it, may be she was afraid of Madam Fanghua's reaction, so the dancer did not dare to pause, she could only secretly cover up. But the more she did, the more people look at it.

When a person moves in a mess, it immediately affects other people.

Scoffs, another dancer's clothes were torn apart, the overall movement was a big mess.

In the blink of an eye, all the dancers' faces showed a terrifying look, and it seemed that they would face horrible punishment after the dance for the mess. It has begun to be chaotic and no one could restore the original neatness. After a few movements, the third dancer was smashed by the cloth on the ground, and her body fell to Yang Chen's side, she just happen to fall on Yang Chen's foot.

"Young Master, save me!" When the flustered dancer looked up, she was presented in front of Gongsun ling, she had a pear of rainy eyes and an anxious expression, her mouth opened a few times but did not dare to make any noise. Gongsun ling still relied on the mouth shape to be able to guess the dancer's words.

In time, Gongsun ling's sympathy rose and she couldn't help but reach out and pull the woman up. The woman may have sprained her ankle when she fell. Just as she landed, she was soft and rushed to the arms of Gongsun Ling.

Gongsun ling's hand was fast and she helped the woman and she breath in the aura of the woman's body. She seemed to be enchanted and she took the initiative to hold the woman's waist. She reached out and wiped the tears on the woman's face, she gave a kiss actively on the woman's lips and she softly comforted "Don't be afraid, I am here."

"ssshh!" Yang Chen's sighed heavily in the ears of Gongsun Ling. Gongsun ling's brain trembled and she suddenly woke up.

The poor woman was still in her arms, but Gongsun ling had no such sympathy anymore. She only felt that she was holding a beautiful snake, and she used force to push the woman away.

Chapter 362.1: Madam Fanghua's Performance

If it wasn't for Yang Chen's sigh, Gongsun ling would even have unknowingly, because of the sympathy for this dancer, made something more outrageous.

Fortunately, it was just a kiss. In time, Yang Chen called her back to her consciousness, Gongsun ling still had a red face. She did not resist the temptation in front of Yang Chen, and kissed a woman in the demonic sect. When she thought of this, Gongsun ling even had an urge to die.

Even if she was defeated by the enemy, revenge was hopeless, Gongsun ling was not so desperate. She was so shameless in front of Yang Chen, how would she face Yang Chen in the future?

"Don't be discouraged!" Yang Chen's voice seemed to be in the heart of Gongsun ling's "The heav-enly demon's al-lur-ing dance is a test of people's hearts. Even the ordinary masters of the Yuanying stage are not willing to try it easily, You have done a good job."

Although Yang Chen's comfort was timely, Gongsun ling still blamed herself and her urgent tears still fell down her cheeks. She actually made such a shameless situation in front of a group of demon sects women, How would she look up in the future?

"A'Ling, this is a rare opportunity to hone your mind, don't let it go waste!" Yang Chen's voice, this time was a bit serious, the voice also carries a faint majesty "If you trust me as your husband, then obsessive!"

This sentence was more useful than any comfort. Gongsun Ling thus had the courage this time to converge her own demeanor. After concentrating again, she once again looked at the hall.

Yang Chen said that he would marry Gao Yue and herself, then Yang Chen was naturally her husband. Gongsun ling could ignore others, but Yang Chen's words must be heard. In her subconscious, Gongsun ling thought so.

Moreover, what Yang Chen said was also very reasonable. The heavenly demon's alluring dance was not something that anyone could see at random. Although she has just been entrapped by it, but she has to be more careful. It was an opportunity to hone her mind.

The woman dancer laughed and returned to the ranks of the other dancers. The sound of the bamboo changed again and the whole dance style changed again.

The dancers all brushed up their bodies and it was not known where they picked up a pink pill and they sent it into their mouth. After swallowing, the girls quickly changed.

The sound of the bamboo was full of temptations and the mouths of the girls have begun to moan, with their moaning, their mouth has exhaled a touch of pink smoke.

The mist quickly filled the entire hall, making the female dancers in the middle look awkward. Gongsun ling took an inhale of a little of it and suddenly felt a mourning in her heart, knowing that this mist was not a good thing, she rushed to exhale it.

After paying a little attention to Yang Chen, Gongsun ling found that Yang Chen was still having the kind of expression that looked at it with relish, it seems that there was no movement from him. Yang Chen's eyes seemed to be constantly sweeping over the naked places of the dancers and this made Gongsun ling unhappy.

Yang Chen's hand seems to have once again taken over the weight of Gongsun ling's waist. At this moment, there were some irregularities. His fingers were stroking at her waist, so that Gongsun ling felt a burst of redness on her face and her heartbeat became faster.

However, when Gongsun ling was being held by Yang Chen, she accidentally saw the face of Madam Fanghua standing next to them. On the face of Madam Fanghua, it seems that there was a scornful smile, Gongsun ling's heart was shocked and her mind was restored to sober again.

At this moment, Gongsun ling really calmed down and her sea of consciousness stilled. Although the dancing of these people outside was moving, the air was filled with obscenity, but it did not affect Gongsun ling anymore.

After the spiritual awareness double cultivation with Yang Chen, the powerful role of the Highest Mystery Yin-Yang Heart Sutra was finally reflected. Her spiritual awareness was much stronger than that of her own cultivation base and after the condensing of the Highest Mystery Yin-Yang Heart Sutra, her sea of consciousness became powerful and unmatched.

After several times of stimulation, Gongsun ling finally woke up from the state that was easily tempted and began to clearly understand herself. Know who you are, what you are going to do here, what was the situation now. When she understood this, everything outside would naturally have no effect on Gongsun ling.

It was only the sentiment of this meeting that made the spiritual awareness of Gongsun ling promote to a small level, and the spiritual power of her whole body continued to circulate non stop.

In the eyes of outsiders, it was like Gongsun ling has mobilised her spiritual power to compete with the heavenly demon's alluring dance. Seeing this situation, Madam Fanghua was even more secretly laughing. How many people have wanted to rely on this method to resist the heavenly demon's alluring dance, but no one could succeed. The heavenly demon's alluring dance was not aimed at the other's cultivation base, but the other's state of mind, relying on spiritual power, how could it resisted?

On the contrary, Yang Chen, who has been holding on to the waist of Gongsun ling, has not been swayed by desires, he prefers not to let go of Gongsun ling's body, but still insists that there was no loss, which made Madam Fanghua desperate.

It was a normal performance for a person who cultivated the jade law for at least a hundred years to endure the pain of his burning desire and not to vent it. Even in this stage of the heavenly demon's alluring dance that they have started to use some simple aphrodisiac drugs to enhance the power, but they have not reached the strongest moment, she believed that to that point, let alone Yang Chen, even if the old devil himself came, he would have to suffer the same outcome.

"Fanghua, their strength is not enough, this is a little regretful!" After a little thought, Yang Chen suddenly opened his mouth and directly talked with Madam Fanghua.

"This is already all the disciple of this slaves who are best at the heavenly demon's alluring dance." Madam Fanghua finally revealed her dilemma. It was not that she does not want to do better. She was really limited by the strength of these disciples.

“The best?” Yang Chen smiled slightly and meaningfully said “Not necessarily!”

“Who is there?” Madam Fanghua smiled and was about to refute. She suddenly thought of something, she turned her eyebrows and turned to Yang Chen and She asked “You, you, you will not want this slave to do it personally!”

Yang Chen stared at the noble face of Madam Fanghua and did not speak, he just nodded silently.

“Why is the young master mistreating this slave!” On the face of Madam Fanghua, she suddenly screamed and pleaded softly “Dancing the heavenly demon’s alluring dance, taking the pill to my strength, but also to swallow the enchantment pill. I will have to wear cheap clothes, does young master really wants to let thus slave do this low level thing?”

A high-ranking Yuanying stage ancestor, to take the scattered power pill, temporarily limit her spiritual power, and then swallow the charm pill, wearing a sexy dress to dance, it was hard to believe.

At the moment, Madam Fanghua looked at Yang Chen’s gaze, full of enthusiasm, she looked at Yang Chen earnestly, just wanting to ask him not to let her do the dance.

Chapter 362.2: Madam Fanghua’s Performance

For a moment, Gongsun ling looked at the face full of grievance and her face flashed with a hint of pleading, but it quickly disappeared.

Here was the domain of the Demon sects. Yang Chen and her were facing the elder of the Yin-Yang Demon Sect, who was in the Yuanying stage. How much of her words were credible? If Gongsun ling became soft hearted because of her words, she would be the biggest fool.

“What a let down!” Yang Chen’s interest suddenly fell and he yawned “You want to play the game, but now you don’t play, it’s really boring!”

Yang Chen’s remarks were about the thoughts of Madam FangHua. Even if she wanted to trap Yang Chen, Madam Fanghua would not be alone and would live under Yang Chen and be his slave.

In addition to the recent monitoring of Yang Chen, there was a leisurely game of Madam Fanghua. People who are used to being aloof would occasionally change their identities. They could also flirt with the young and noble young masters like Yang Chen. It was also very interesting to play a game of mutual conquest.

Now that Yang Chen said this, Madam Fanghua felt wronged again, she could only go and perform the heavenly demon's alluring dance. However, before she left to prepare, she had taken the two female dancers who were dancing. They saw the excitement of the two female dancers, as if they wanted to see Madam Fanghua fall into the same situation as them.

Madam Fanghua, who has never surrendered her aloofness, stood at the door of the hall at the moment, there was grievance written all over her face and she looked at Yang Chen with pitiful look. On her body, they could no longer see the incomparable spirit power and there was no pressure from her Yuanying stage cultivation base anymore. Now after taking the smattering pill, she seemed to be just an ordinary woman who was very weak.

Madam Fanghua's body was not in the original luxurious dress of her, but it has been replaced with the same dress as the female dancers, she couldn't cover all her body and parts of her snow white skin became visible from time to time.

It was not known if Madam Fanghua has experienced having her naked body in front of men. Anyway, her performance at this moment was even worse than those of the female dancers. With a red face, the look of grievances, delicate and fascinating, both of her hands were trying to cover her exposed body, it seemed that she wanted to break the piece of cloth that has been broken and only a few palms stretched out to cover her whole body.

Where was her mood of dancing, apart from panicking, Madam Fanghua was only left to cover the parts of her body. The female dancers around them seem to have found an opportunity. From time to time, they would take the opportunity to pick up a piece of cloth on her body, causing Mrs. Fanghua to scream and hurriedly cover it.

After a while, in the moans of the female dancers, there was a soft dance full of panic. Madam Fanghua, who was in a hurry, while she was still dancing, only kept moving, disturbing the movements of the other dancers.

After every exclamation, Madam Fanghua would cast a stern look at Yang Chen, as if she wanted to let Yang Chen open his mouth and get her to avoid the embarrassing situation.

Looking around, even for a person with the heart of the stone, it seemed that they couldn't bear to watch such a beautiful woman endure such an insult, and they would hate that they could not hold her in their arms to comfort her.

Gongsun ling who was next to Yang Chen, even though she always felt that Madam Fanghua was abhorrent, but at the moment she could not bear to watch her fall into such a situation. And she seems to have forgotten Yang Chen's sigh, with a look of distressed and pity, staring at the semi-naked figure bullied by the female dancers, she watched obsessively.

Yang Chen next to her did not have a slight reaction, just watching it quietly. There was a little more appreciation and admiration in his eyes. The masters were really different. It took only a little time for Madam Fanghua to begin, but she had already completely enchanted Gongsun ling.

Although Gongsun ling had experienced a little of the heavenly demon's alluring dance and she could only get free only under the reminder of Yang Chen not long ago, but when Madam Fanghua who was in the peak Yuanying stage came out, she could enchant Gongsun ling without any effort.

Regardless of the spiritual power or the cultivation base of the spiritual awareness, Gongsun ling was not the opponent of Madam Fanghua, but in the aspect of trying to figure out the mind of people, the slightly simple Gongsun ling was even less inferior than Madam Fanghua who has been in the demonic domain for many years. Fortunately, Madam Fanghua's main goal was still directed at Yang Chen, otherwise it would have been easy to get Gongsun ling.

When Yang Chen was admiring Madam Fanghua, Madam Fanghua also secretly admired Yang Chen. If others saw her like this full grievances, they could not help but pull her into their arms, but Yang Chen seems to have never seen anything different, he was still sitting there slowly drinking wine and watching her.

The more this was apparent, the more Madam Fanghua felt that she was playing against a tough opponents, and she was trying her best to act like a woman who was weak and delicate, but she was still the same in the eyes of Yang Chen.

Madam Fanghua couldn't help but become infuriated. Even if Yang Chen cultivated the jade law from a young age and he was determined to be able to endure the hardships of a hundred years of life temptation, but he was just a junior in the Jiedan stage and he could ignore her heavenly demon's alluring dance. How could it not let Madam Fanghua become angry?

However, the more angry she became, the more grievances appeared on Madam Fanghua's face, and under her gesture, the other female dancers were more and more arrogant, intentionally or unintentionally tearing off some of the clothes on her body. Leaving only a few key places and some fabrics, it was more and more fascinating.

With the filling of the mist, Madam Fanghua's eyes began to be blurred. It was no longer having the kind of unwillingness expression. It slowly became the lost nature of being affected by the enchanting medicine and began to enter realm of having sexual intercourse.

However, Madam Fanghua also seems to have a hint of wisdom, in the gaze of her eyes, occasionally flashing a glimpse of light, as if Yang Chen was her savior, as long as he could save her from this bitter sea, she was willing to pay any price.

If the proud and unparalleled Madam Fanghua bowed, it means that the game between Yang Chen and Madam Fanghua would eventually come to an end with Yang Chen the temporary victory. And this opportunity seemed to be there as long as Yang Chen reaches out and he could get it right away.

"You are calling for help!" Yang Chen has been staring at Madam Fanghua, but at this moment he took a long breath and sighed "Sure!"

With a bang, Mrs. Fanghua over there was finally completely lost in the demonic medicine. Several small pieces of cloth on her body were quickly torn away. Her naked body was smashed by two equally naked female dancers. At the same time, the four jade hands began to crawl around her, playing tricks.

"Ah!" A scream of sorrow that shoke the soul came from the cherry mouth of Madam Fanghua, her body suddenly became stiff, showing a breathtaking beauty.

Yang Chen's eyes shot two brilliant lights, this time was just right.

Chapter 363.1

At this time, whoever believed that Madam Fanghua had really eaten the smattering pill and her spiritual power temporary has dissipated and she has turned into an ordinary people, then that person was really a 'fool'.

Those 'female' dancers who danced the heavenly demon's alluring dance, although they all looked like ordinary 'females', this was definitely a unique result of a cultivation method and they would never really become ordinary people, which could give others the chance to oppress them.

Yang Chen's hypnosis technique used to control Wan Qian's master and apprentices. The heavenly demon's alluring dance was a powerful demonic arts that made people fall into enchantment and pry on them, but this was the same as most of the cultivation methods for spiritual awareness. There was a flaw that could be considered a fatal flaw.

Usually, if these charming demonic arts could not be successful, it would inevitably lead to a demonic arts backlash, and it would course harm to the people involved. The heavenly demon's alluring dance was slightly different. Although it also has a backlash, it was not fatal, but the caster would be slightly out of sort for a short period of time.

This period of time was very short, short-lived for Yuanying stage ancestors, it may be just a few breaths. It's just this time that Madam Fanghua moaned.

With the addition of Madam Fanghua, the heavenly demon's alluring dance was dominated by Madam Fanghua, while Madam Fanghua suffered from the backlash, the others were also facing it. The other 'female' dancers were even affected longer than Madam Fanghua.

When the time came, Yang Chen's hypnosis was issued immediately. Even if it was a master in the Yuanying realm, Madan Fanghua at the moment couldn't resist Yang Chen's hypnotism. What's more, Yang Chen's spiritual awareness cultivation base was better than Madam Fanghua at this moment.

In an instant, Madam Fanghua and a the other 'female' dancers fell into a state of hypnotism. Yang Chen almost grasped this golden opportunity and immediately whispered "Shao Fanghua, what is the purpose of your visit here?"

“We are using the unearthing of this demonic weapon to bait the Limitless Demon Sect’s Ye Zhen Xiong together with the white bone old demon.” Madam Fanghua almost did not think about it and subconsciously said her objectives.

“When do you start?” Yang Chen asked. Even if it was hypnotism, under such circumstances, the effect was limited and the time was tight, so it was beyond Yang Chen’s control to make other considerations.

“Ye Zhen Xiong has sneaked in. After three days, we will use the demonic weapon that is to be unearthed and we will state together.” Fanghua said quickly, but her brow was slightly wrinkled.

Seeing this, Yang Chen almost immediately removed the hypnotism, and then stretched out to take one hand of Madam Fanghua who was red-naked, and made a move to pull Madam Fanghua into his arms.

Madam Fanghua’s stiff body suddenly became soft, and once again, she made a sigh of pleasure and then found her body being pulled involuntarily.

Almost instinctual, Madam Fanghua made an effort to resist and then she saw Yang Chen’s fascinated gaze, she immediately realized that it was not good.

Yang Chen’s hand was holding the hand of Madam Fanghua in the air, and then the person seemed to wake up from a the big dream. The enchanted eyes slowly recovered their pure calm and gentleness, he then gently let go of the little hand of Madam Fanghua. His mouth made a sigh of relief and he repeatedly praised: “Great, powerful!”

Seeing the moment of success, but by one of her own efforts to break free, it led to a failure, Madam Fanghua almost wanted to die form regret. She was already close to the point where she faced a backlash from the heavenly demon’s alluring dance, so it was easy to seduce Yang Chen, but it was destroyed by one of her subconscious actions. How could it not make Madan Fanghua angry?

However, this showed that Yang Chen’s strength in meditation was not so good, but it also showed that his cultivation if the jade law was absolutely good. As long as she could firmly hold on to Yang Chen, she could quickly become a master of the dacheng stage.

“Young Master’s strength in meditation is astonishing, this slave admire you!” After she understood this, Madam Fanghua also resisted her anger, and her face showed a charming smile. Then she said to Yang Chen “Young Master please wait a little for this slave to serve you after changing clothes.”

After that, Madam Fanghua regained her high inviolability of temperament, even if she was not physically fit, but there was still a sacred expression on her face, which made peoples desire disappear. For a moment, the rags that had been torn from the ‘female’ dancers when they were dancing here had been cleaned up and the people quickly disappeared.

When Madam Fanghua changed her clothes, Yang Chen had once again woken up Gongsun ling.

After Gongsun ling was awoken, she did not expect that she would fall in the same trap continuously. She was caught twice in the heavenly demon’s alluring dance and she couldn’t help but feel depressed.

“Senior apprentice sister, Madam Fanghua personally made a move, in the whole mortal world for the people who can resist her heavenly demon’s alluring dance, there are only a handful of people, why should senior sister be disturbed about this?” Yang Chen did not say this, but he transmitted it through Gongsun ling’s forehead and passed it into her sea of consciousness “I believe that after this time, this method would be difficult to work on you.”

Gongsun ling also knew that Yang Chen was telling the truth, but still felt that she lost her face in front of Madam Fanghua and she was very unhappy about it. Yang Chen was able to tell her again with his thoughts, he had trapped Madam Fanghua once and got some news “This time, it is another great opportunity.”

Madam Fanghua and the white bone old demon were plotting against Ye Zhen Xiong, Ye Zhen Xiong was the future sect master of the Limitless Demon Sect. However, at this time, he has not yet become the sect master, but he was also a Yuanying stage elder.

Since the demonic weapon was a bait, it has nothing to do with the things that Yang Chen imagined. It has nothing to do with the seventh metal true essence, it was a fake news jointly created by the white bone old demon and Shao Fanghua.

It was estimated that the white bone old demon was waiting in the place where the demonic weapon was to be unearthed, and Madam Fanghua took a large number of people to inquire about the news in the small town. Otherwise, they would not know the news that Ye Zhen Xiong has arrived.

The reason why Yang Chen said that it was a great opportunity was because Yang Chen thought of Ye Zhen Xiong's true identity. In addition to the future sect master of the Limitless Demon Sect, he was also the father of Ye Yu, Ye Yu was also one of the geniuses that Yang Chen planned to recruit.

In his previous life, in the Heavenly Court, Yang Chen had had several 'crossing' with Ye Yu, Ye Yu was famous in the world, there were some about stories him. One thing that Yang Chen remembered very clearly was that his father, Ye Zhen Xiong, was seriously injured by the white bone old demon and Shao Fanghua before he was not the sect master.

And Yang Chen's news that he received from Shao Fanghua seems to be that the white bone old demon and Shao Fanghua are plotting against Ye Zhen Xiong. Yang Chen did not know where Ye Zhen Xiong was attacked in his previous life and did not know when. However, Madam Fanghua's words just gave Yang Chen the answer.

Chapter 363.2: Favour

After his previous life Ye Zhenxiong survived the plot by the two people, he was seriously injured and had to escape to a remote valley to heal his wounds.

Although he didn't know where Ye Zhenxiong went to treat it specifically, Yang Chen remembered that there was a very obvious feature in the remote valley. There was a big water pool, which was the source of a river and Ye Zhenxiong hid under the waterhole after he escaped.

If Yang Chen did not know what to do with this kind of news, then his rebirth would have been futile. In his previous life, Ye Zhenxiong had been hiding in that place for a full decade before he could cure his injuries. Now that Yang Chen has already known the specific time and place, how could he not leave a big favour for himself in the demonic domain.

Madam Fanghua changed her clothes and returned to Yang Chen again. After this small contest, it seemed that both Yang Chen and Madam Fanghua have some feelings of sympathy for each other. Gongsun ling who was in a bad mood, when she saw Madam Fanghua, she made a resentful move that made Madam Fanghua secretly laugh.

In fact, in the eyes of Madam Fanghua, Gongsun ling at this moment was no longer her opponent. What she was interested in now was how to make Yang Chen accept herself with willingness.

He could still keep a clear consciousness under her own heavenly demon's alluring dance until the last moment, Madam Fanghua also very much admired Yang Chen. Such an opponent could make her feel fun and it would be worthwhile.

If it was not for their trap for Limitless Demon Sect's Ye Zhenxiong, then Shao Fanghua was even willing to play this game with Yang Chen for a long time, until Madam Fanghua was tired by herself.

It was a pity that in order to prepare for this trap, she had to spend a few years. After three days she would have to leave so the game with Yang Chen could only last for two days. When the time came after killing Ye Zhenxiong, then it would not be too late to continue.

For Yang Chen, Madam Fanghua was taking care of him meticulously. Even when Yang Chen went to bed at night, Madam Fanghua would also be by Yang Chen's side, so that Gongsun ling, who was resting with Yang Chen, had to gnash her teeth in anger. She hated that she couldn't swear at the fox.

The next morning, Madam Fanghua accompanied Yang Chen to the auction house as a slave. After several rounds of bidding for the items, Yang Chen bought a batch of the best nine secluded iron essence at a relatively low price and also harvested a few good materials.

In order to show that he did not care about the demonic weapon, Yang Chen even left a message to the person in charge of the auction house that this level of nine secluded iron essence, more was needed by him. Madam Fanghua was naturally curious about the use of these things by Yang Chen. Yang Chen explained a little bit, Madam Fanghua thought that as a descendant of the old devil, Yang Chen was giving it to him to use as a flying sword material.

After spending another day in Madam Fanghua's luxury inn, Yang Chen finally mentioned his plans of going out, he made it clear that he had to go around for a few days and come back half a month later. Madam Fanghua was naturally reluctant, but after all they still had to separate eventually.

After a little turn in a big circle, Yang Chen took Gongsun ling from the sight of everyone. Even if they used the means of spiritual awareness expropriation, they could not find the whereabouts of Yang Cheng and Gongsun Ling.

Madam Fanghua took a large number of people to the location of the setting and Yang Chen also began to look for the valley where Ye Zhenxiong hid when he was injured according to the characteristics in his memory.

Ye Zhenxiong was seriously injured in the attack, so he certainly would not escape too far from the place he was attacked. Yang Chen drove the shuttle under the concealment of the sea jasper, after their conscious exploration, it took only five days to discover the valley.

The White Bone Old Devil and Madam Fanghua have already started and Ye Zhenxiong also sneaked out in the midst of the chaos. The manpower of the white bone old demon and Madam Fanghua almost searched the boundaries of the surrounding miles and they did not find the place where Ye Zhenxiong was hiding.

If you tried to kill someone and they did not die, you have to bear the consequences. The people of the white bone old demon and Shao Fanghua did not keep their mouths shut and soon the news spread.

The Limitless Demon Sect was not a weak sect, so since their elder was attacked, they had to retaliate. Even the white bone old devil and Madam Fanghua had to temporarily avoid the revenge of the Limitless Demon Sect and temporarily disappear for a while.

However, before disappearing, Madam Fanghua also searched for Yang Chen for a while, but she never found the whereabouts of Yang Chen. Only with a feeling of sorrow did she go into hiding.

For a long time, Madam Fanghua was very unhappy. All the years of planning went to waste, not only did they not kill Ye Zhenxiong, but they were also being chased by the Limitless Demon Sect.

What made her most regretful was that she has already come into contact with the jade law, but she missed it because she wanted to attack Ye Zhenxiong. If she knew that this would happen, she would have taken Yang Chen back to her Immortal's Cave in the Yin-Yang Demon Sect from the beginning before she and the white bone old demon went after Ye Zhenxiong, it would have been better than the current situation where came back empty handed. Thinking of Yang Chen, this gem would inevitably belong to Gongsun ling, Madam Fanghua would always grinds her teeth in frustration.

No one would believe that, just in the middle of their fighting and the chaos, Yang Chen and Gongsun ling had already come to the water pool in the valley by the cover of the sea jasper.

Some things were not very good to explain, Yang Chen could only take advantage of Gongsun ling. He went to face the injured Ye Zhenxiong alone and he could only send Gongsun ling to the first layer in the 'medicine' garden, just in case.

Fortunately, after the experience she had about Madam Fanghua, Gongsun ling was more optimistic about Yang Chen. Yang Chen was willing to open the secret of his 'medicine' garden space to her, Gongsun ling also consciously had more weight in Yang Chen's heart. She was happy in her heart, so she did not say anything and listened to Yang Chen's arrangements.

After arranging for Gongsun ling, Yang Chen made a preparatory work and jumped into the waterhole to start searching for the place Ye Zhenxiong hid for his healing.

Already here, there was no had worked in finding it and soon Yang Chen stepped into the 'hole'.

"Who?" Yang Chen just stepped into the 'hole' and heard a sigh of qi, and then a black light, hurriedly rushed to Yang Chen's chest.

Bang, Yang Chen's thoughts moved and the golden bell flashed on his body and his flying sword appeared around him. However, Yang Chen did not counterattack, but he cupped his hands in the direction of the voice suddenly said "Predecessor Ye, don't misunderstand, this younger generation junior does not have any malicious intentions!"

"Who are you? How do you know that i Ye am here?" Ye Zhenxiong stayed inside, he did not think that Yang Chen could actually know his name, he was seriously injured, his flying sword was not working, so he had to ask about Yang Chen's origin.

"Who is this younger generation junior, the predecessors don't have to care." Yang Chen did not intend to tell Ye Zhenxiong his true name, but continued to ask "Predecessors seem to be seriously injured, and this younger generation junior has a good healing medicine. I don't know if predecessor can use it with confidence?"

Chapter 364.1: A Whole

When he heard that Yang Chen finally said that he was seriously injured, Ye Zhenxiong couldn't support himself anymore. Originally he was pretending that nothing was wrong, using his frying sword to attack would be fruitless, this would actually worsen his wound. After a sudden spurt of blood, he suddenly fainted.

Yang Chen rushed in quickly, he first broke Ye Zhenxiong's restrictions and then he placed a restriction himself, so as not to be found by the white bone old demon and Madam Fanghua, then he began to explore Ye Zhenxiong's injury.

This time, the white bone old demon and Shao Fanghua took great pains and planned for a few years before they attempted to trap Ye Zhenxiong. Although Ye Zhenxiong situation was not good, he escaped in time, but he was also seriously injured.

When Yang Chen explored it, he suddenly found out that the injury was worse than he thought, Ye Zhenxiong life could not be guaranteed. Yang Chen hurriedly produced a thousand-year-old ginseng, which he turned into a ginseng fluid in the profound yang furnace. He first poured it into the mouth of Ye Zhenxiong and hanged his life.

Ye Zhenxiong woke up and the slight bitter taste in his mouth made him quickly understand what happened. With Ye Zhenxiong's knowledge, of course, he knew that the taste in his mouth was the taste of a millennium old ginseng and his attitude toward Yang Chen also changed rapidly.

In the case of him just fainting, if Yang Chen wanted to kill him, it would simply be easy and there was no need to make any intrigues. From this point alone, Ye Zhenxiong could judge that Yang Chen was a friend.

The ginseng just hangs his life, but this was no cure for the injury. Such a serious injury, Ye Zhenxiong himself was also very clear, Yang Chen appeared to save him, certainly there were conditions for it. In the demonic sect, he have never heard of someone who would do something like this for free. Nothing was done for free, this principle ws applicable regardless of whether it is a magic door or a door.

Since Yang Chen was not showing up for no reason, there must be some requirements. Ye Zhenxiong was also a cultivator so he endured the pain and he asked "What do you want before you heal my injury?"

"Straightforward!" Yang Chen praised him in his mind and he directly said "I will trade it for a favour as well as an apprentice."

Letting himself owe a person, this Ye Zhenxiong could understand, but what does it mean to have an apprentice, Ye Zhenxiong never understood it and immediately he asked "You want this Ye as an apprentice?"

"What do I want you as an apprentice to do?" Yang Chen said with a smile "To kill, killing his master is no better than killing the apprentice?" The implication was that Yang Chen could kill Ye Zhenxiong now, why bother to kill him when he was his apprentice.

This made Ye Zhenxiong more puzzled and he could only continue to ask "What does this apprentice mean?"

"I want to accept one of your sons as an apprentice!" Yang Chen no longer concealed it and said it directly.

"My son?" Ye Zhenxiong couldn't help but laugh out. This laugh led to the worsening of the injury, causing a cough and spitting out a small half of blood "I Ye am alone, where is my son?"

"Now there is no one, it does not mean that there would be none in the future." Yang Chen put on a posture of an expert and very inscrutable said "When one day you have a son, I want you to make him my apprentice. I will personally take him away, and by the way, you have to return the favor too."

"Who are you?" Ye Zhenxiong couldn't help but be curious about Yang Chen's strange request.

"Predecessor don't need to care about who I am, anyway, when the time comes you will know." Yang Chen did not intend to tell Ye Zhenxiong his true identity at this time. The Dao cultivators and the demonic cultivators don't see eye to eye. When the time came for Yang Chen to receive a disciple from the demon sect, it was not known what kind of opposition he will face from Ye Zhenxiong.

“Agreed!” Ye Zhenxiong was unusually refreshed, it was beyond his control as his own life is in danger. If someone was giving him medicine to heal his injuries then he must certainly owe the person a favor. As for the son he wanted as an apprentice, would there be two more in the future? Could the person in front of him infer what would happen in the future?

In the current situation, let alone a son who would not necessarily exist in the future, even if he has a son now, he would agree. What’s more, Yang Chen was not going to kill his son. He would just accept him as an apprentice, how would he still have different opinions.

“You have to make a heart oath!” Yang Chen did not lift his head and he said directly. Dealing with the people in the demonic sect, their credibility was unreliable, only the vows of the heart could make them feel some fear. The demonic cultivators were more afraid of the heart devil than the Dao cultivators.

“When I am to repay the favor, I can’t damage my sect’s interests, and I can’t hurt my family.” Although Ye Zhenxiong was a bachelor, he couldn’t help but think about it.

“At that time, I just want you to accompany me to a place and make a move once.” In the face of Ye Zhenxiong’s concerns, Yang Chen immediately gave his specific requirements.

This required Ye Zhenxiong to hardly consider, he was helping to save his life, but he needed him to make a move once, this was absolutely great. He said no more words and he solemnly made the heart oath.

When Ye Zhenxiong just swore this time, Yang Yang threw a jade bottle to him. In the jade bottle, there were two second grade lingzhi mushroom pills, which had excellent healing effect.

Two second grade Lingzhi Mushroom pills, one was enough to make Ye Zhenxiong’s current injury stable and two could make Ye Zhenxiong’s injury recover in the shortest possible time.

However, even so, it would take at least a year or two for him to be cured. After all, Ye Zhenxiong’s injury was too heavy. It took ten years before he could recover from the injury and now it would only take up to two years, It was a great improvement.

Ye Zhenxiong picked up one without hesitation and sent it into his mouth. After swallowing the pill, it turned into a warm current and flowed directly into Ye Zhenxiong's limbs. It warmed the injured organs and slowly stabilized the injury.

Yang Chen waited until Ye Zhenxiong healed for a few days. After dozens of days, the injury was completely stabilized. Then he asked "Predecessor Ye, this younger generation junior have a question, and i hope that senior will tell the truth."

"You can ask." Ye Zhenxiong, at this time, how could he refuse Yang Chen, so he let Yang Chen ask the question.

"Predecessor can find these hidden places to heal, so you must be familiar with the surrounding terrain." Yang Chen first flattered a sentence, and then began to ask "I don't know if the predecessor know, is there a place in the mine where the seventh metal qi is extremely strong?"

The Grand Supreme Elderly Lord only said that the seventh metal true essence was in this place, but did not say the specific location, Yang Chen could only look around. The indigenous people of the demonic domain such as Ye Zhenxiong, should naturally be more familiar with the terrain than he was, so he just asked.

"Where is the seventh metal qi extremely strong?" After Ye Zhenxiong closed his eyes and thought for a moment, he said: "That is only in the lowest level of the mine."

Chapter 364.2: A Whole

There were huge nine secluded iron mines and there were countless layers in the mines. The mines were different, some had many layers. Ye Zhenxiong said that several of them had at least seven layers of mines.

The more underground you went, the thicker the seventh metal qi was, because the various metal resources were also very well distributed here. If this was the case, then it was not worthy of Yang Chen's attention. However, Ye Zhenxiong mentioned that several mines had tens of thousands of years of history.

There were several mines and because the seventh metal qi was too strong, except for some metal attribute cultivators who could go in, others were afraid to enter them freely. There were even one or two mines that people have long since stopped mining in them, because metal attribute cultivators don't dare to go there freely.

These places were worthy of being carefully investigated by Yang Chen. With his experience the last time in the first wood true essence spiritual solution lake, Yang Chen also understood that when the spiritual power was strong enough, it was also able to kill.

After learning about these news, Yang Chen would not stay here, here was still reserved for Ye Zhenxiong's retreat.

With the scene of him and Madam Fanghua acting as his slave in the city, there were few people in this mining area who still don't know Yang Chen, no matter who saw Gongsun ling's ship, they respectfully paid their respect, either from far away, it also saved a lot of trouble for both of them.

Exploring the mine hole, Yang Chen was of course with Gongsun ling. After this disguise of being Yang Chen's concubine, Gongsun ling and Yang Chen's intimacy was better than ever. When there was no one around, Gongsun ling liked Yang Chen to hold her on the flight.

Here was the domain of the demonic sects, naturally no one would take the rules of the Dao Sects to condemn Gongsun ling's action and Yang Chen also liked it. Every time, he always had a joke with Gongsun ling. From time to time, she had a few jokes. She talked sweetly and she smiled happily.

The nearest mine was not far away, but no one has ever mined it. Yang Chen and Gongsun ling did not encounter any obstacles and easily entered the mine.

As Ye Zhenxiong said, there were several layers in the mines. After they entered each layer, each time they went down, the seventh metal qi became thicker and thicker. At the bottom of the mine, it was almost full of rich seventh metal qi.

As he had already prepared a seventh metal magic weapon, Yang Chen had time to use it and it was easy to reach the bottom. What disappointed Yang Chen was that the seventh metal qi here was indeed strong, but it was not the aura of the seventh metal true essence.

On the contrary, Gongsun ling's mountain river geographical map had some abnormal changes. In the quenching of this life source magic weapon, it was usually not used. Once it was used, it would put all the previous effort to waste.

However, the mountain river geographical map spontaneously began to absorb the strong seventh metal qi here. The seventh metal qi quickly condensed into a small stream that flowed into the mountain river geographical map and it was not known how the mountain river geographical map stored it.

This was an unexpected surprise. Gongsun ling quickly noticed the changes in the geographical map. It seemed that after absorbing the strong seventh metal qi, these seventh metal qi directly penetrated the soil layer of the mountain river geographical map. It also coincided with the pattern of the indigenous inborn metal.

Gong Sunling was happy, Yang Chen was also happy, now even if it was not looking for the seventh metal true essence, Yang Chen has to go through these places.

They have gone through the several mines that Ye Zhenxiong said and every time they came forward with expectations, they were disappointed. The seventh metal qi was indeed very strong, but it was still not the seventh metal true essence.

Gongsun ling's mountain river geographical map absorbed a lot of the seventh metal qi. According to Gongsun ling, the geographical figures have become solid.

Some mines also had cultivators in them. However, there was very little trust between the demonic cultivators. Most of them were using a demonic weapon to absorb enough seventh metal qi when they were mining, and they would refine these seventh metal qi in a safe place. Whether it was for refining medicinal pills or indirect absorption, very few people would practice in the mine for a long time.

Some people would sell these seventh metal qi directly and Yang Chen once saw this sale in the small city. He didn't know the source of these seventh metal qi at the time. Now that he saw this, he understood what was going on.

However, with Gongsun ling's mountain river geographical map, the efficiency of absorbing the seventh metal qi was very strong, and it has led to the inability of other people's demonic weapons to absorb a little bit of the seventh metal qi.

Those who absorbed the seventh metal qi, after seeing Yang Chen and Gongsun ling, did not dare to say anything. They could only admit that they were unlucky and left the mines.

Fortunately, Yang Chen and Gongsun ling only entered each mine once, and one or two days after they leave, the mine would naturally resume the overflow of seventh metal qi, and it would allow those people to absorb it.

After all the mines pointed out by Ye Zhenxiong had been gone through, Yang Chen chose to give up, no aura of the seventh metal true essence was in the mines. All of them were just ordinary seventh metal qi. Apart from the supplementing of the geographical map, there was no help for Yang Chen in the mines.

It was not one of these mines, Yang Chen couldn't think of the place where the seventh metal true essence was left by Li Changgeng in the end. When he was discouraged, Gongsun ling suddenly discovered what was wrong. She said strangely "Yang Chen, if you look at these mines, if you connect them, it seems to be a circle!"

The mountain river geographical map would record the terrain of the place where Gongsun ling walked, so Gongsun ling could easily see the distribution of these mines from the geographical map.

When Gongsun ling said this, Yang Chen became interested, after pondering over it, he suddenly asked "Since these mines are connected in a circle, what is in the circle?"

Her consciousness was immersed in the geographical map and soon Gongsun ling replied: "In the circle, there are several mountains connected together!"

After saying this, Gongsun ling continued to immerse her mind in the picture for a while, and once again said "It is five mountains that are connected together, and they come together from five directions. The place where they gather is the center of the circle" she hesitated and said: "probably..."

“Probably what?” Yang Chen hurriedly asked.

“It seems that these five mountains are a whole piece.” Gongsun ling finally recovered her mind from the geographical map and answered with certainty.

“Five directions, a whole?” Yang Chen reached out and pulled Gongsun Ling, he pulled her into his arms and quickly flew into the air and soon went to the five mountains that Gongsun Sunling said.

Looking down at the very regular distribution of the mountains in five directions, Yang Chen’s spiritual awareness was released. After a while, he said with a smile: “It’s really a whole piece!”

Chapter 365.1: Don’t Use Spiritual Awareness

Li Changgeng left a set of secret technique to open the blockade of the seventh metal true essence. Yang Chen finally knew where to use it. The intersection of the five peaks was the point of control.

Without much effort, Yang Chen took Gongsun ling to the top of the mountain. Looking down at the hard rock under their foot, Yang Chen suddenly said to Gongsun ling “No matter what happens, don’t leave my side.”

Gongsun ling nodded quietly and said nothing. She knew that Yang Chen must have discovered what she said and she also never doubted Yang Chen.

After making a series of complicated secret technique patterns, he hit the top of the mountain. For a while, there was no reaction at all. This made Gongsun ling very confused. In the end, what was Yang Chen doing, laying a secret technique on a mountain, wasn’t it a waste of true essence?

But Yang Chen did not mean to make a joke and he kept on applying the secret technique. Yang Chen applied the same secret technique three times and it took more than one hour to complete, then he stopped.

Taking advantage of Gongsun ling’s delicate body, Yang Chen has retreated at least a few dozen feet, but has always stood on the ground without the slightest means of flying. This made Gongsun ling feel even more strange, but she remembered Yang Chen’s words and she only silently cooperated with Yang Chen without saying a word.

Not only was Gongsun ling wondering, but the guys who have been secretly paying attention to Yang Chen's whereabouts were even more puzzled. Why was Yang Chen making such secret technique on the mountain? Was he playing around?

But looking at Yang Chen's serious look, it seemed that he was not joking. The hidden person had to bear with it. He wanted to see what Yang Chen was doing.

Almost in the boring time waiting for more than an hour, even the guy who secretly peeped at them couldn't help but want to rush out to find trouble for Yang Chen. The underground suddenly made a thunderous noise.

Listening to this booming sound, everyone became spirited. Gongsun ling did not dare to look at the top of the mountain under her feet. It seemed that she still couldn't believe it. As for the guy who waited in secret, he almost rushed out.

A series of roaring sounds came from deep underground, and the place where the sound came from seemed that the sound was getting closer and closer to the ground. This strange scene could only be by explain one point, that was, there must be something that was not clear to everyone there but Yang Chen knew.

Yang Chen was very calm and composed. He was not in a hurry. He even took Gongsun ling and sat on the top of the mountain to enjoy a few meals. The female slaves in the peak Jiedan stage waited diligently, life was very pleasant for him.

What was strange was that after arriving here, Yang Chen did not use any magic weapon, nor did he use any spiritual power. Whether he was walking or lying down, he was down to earth and never flew off the ground.

The sound of the bang seems to be deep in the ground. The sound coming was getting closer and closer, but it was still far away. Yang Chen didn't mean to worry at all and he was waiting patiently.

This kind of performance, let those guys hidden in the dark scratch their heads one by one, they were unable to bear it. If the final answer has not yet come out, there were almost a few who would have to rush out to make Yang Chen tell them the result.

Accompanied by the sound of the underground banging, it lasted a whole day and night and everyone finally waited until the booming sound was very close to the ground.

At this moment, Yang Chen stood up and took the five female slaves back into the dome hall. Then his left hand took Gongsun ling and he stared quietly at the area where the sound was heard.

Without Yang Chen's reminder, Gongsun ling naturally noticed the area. However, Yang Chen reminded her not to use her spiritual awareness to explore it, Gongsun ling also did not send any spiritual awareness to that area, she just look at it with her eyes.

Boom, in the place where the five peaks intersected on the ground, suddenly broke a square big mouth. Below the mouth, it was a square channel leading to the underground, it not known how deep it was. But from the day and night of waiting, it would not be a short distance.

"Ha ha ha ha!" A smirk of laughter sounded out from a certain direction and there were dozens of people who appeared. At least half of them were Yuanying stage masters and the others were also masters of the Jiedan stage.

However, the person who made the arrogant laughter had not yet finished and a gale of aura suddenly rushed out of the big mouth of the underground. With this aura, there was a huge shock wave, sweeping unrelentingly around.

Yang Chen and Gongsun ling stood in the same place and the violent shock wave swept through their bodies without any influence. But those people who suddenly rushed out did not have the good luck of the two.

The figures that flew out, whether they were controlling flying swords or magic weapons at their foot, all the magic weapons outside their body, after the shock wave swept, suddenly all turned into ashes.

The smashing of the magic weapons was accompanied by screams. Among the dozens of people who came out, except for a few who stood on the ground, the others were planted from the air without exception.

This was not counting that they thought that in the process of falling down, as long as they used spiritual power support in time, with their Jiedan stage and Yuanying stage cultivation base, they could easily land, but they did not expect that as soon as the spiritual power was issued, it was like mud cows entering into the sea, no one could support their body in the air and all of them fall down heavily.

The Ha ha's laughter was only laughed half way and it became a chaotic scene of screams. The guy who made the laughter also felt that there was no light on his face and he stopped laughing.

"Is this the purpose of young master for coming to the nine secluded iron mine?" The guy who laughed at the head was like the skinny guy he met before. In combination with the previous news, Yang Chen recognized his identity almost at a glance.

"White bone old ancestor?" Yang Chen seemed to be sure about it and said the name.

"It's this old man!" The White bone old demon had a smug smile, and glanced at the guys who were crawling up next to each other, facing Yang Chen again, he somewhat awkwardly asked "Young Master, you played with Madam Fanghua for a few days, did you enjoy the wonderful taste of the lady?"

Yang Chen did not answer, he just looked coldly at the old devil. The white-bone demon did not care about Yang Chen's gaze and he said "This old man has always been wondering why Madam Fanghua will have time to play with a later generation. It turns out that there is such a good thing here."

"What's in this hole?" The White bone old demon saw that Yang Chen had not spoken. He smiled and asked "Demonic weapon? Or is it a demonic iron? Secret plane? If you just confess, we can write off the fact that you killed my disciples, how about it?"

Chapter 365.2: Don't Use Spiritual Awareness

The white-bone old demon said that Yang Chen had killed his disciples and Yang Chen was not surprised. The fat man and the thin man were in that direction and Yang Chen was also coming from that direction, It was easy to connect him to the incident.

Yang Chen never intended to conceal it. Even if the white bones old demon said this, Yang Chen did not have a panicked expression. It seemed that killing a few insignificant people was simply something that was not worth mentioning for him, even if those few people were the disciples of the white bone old demon.

This kind of performance, in the eyes of the old demon made him sure that Yang Chen was a predecessor of a certain demon path old ancestor. In fact, Madam Fanghua was not just someone who he could let her serve him without him having an extraordinary backing. This fully explained that Yang Chen's identity was not normal.

There were people with this background, let alone killing a few of his disciples, it was estimated that even he would be killed if he provoked them. He said that he wanted a bargaining chip and he did not want to make it difficult for Yang Chen.

"You want to know what it is, won't you know if you go in and see it yourself?" Yang Chen smiled coldly, ignoring the so-called transaction of the old demon.

The white bone old demon himself was also a cautious person, otherwise he would not have endured until now. Yang Chen's words were obviously to pull him in. Who was the old devil, would it be so easy to fool him?

However, before the old devil said anything, the people around him, there were already a few people who could not endure it anymore, they flew to the square hole.

"Insolent!" The white bone old demon suddenly became furious. Were these guys even ignoring his own orders and wanted to take advantage of this and advance to go in alone?

When he screamed, the white bone old demon swang his hand and a long bone whip had already flown out of the hand, it directly covered the two guys who rushed to the hole, and as their mind was everywhere, they couldn't even react and the two people even screamed. Without any warning, they were smashed into four quarters. Their visceral blood spewed out from the fracture and the blood was instantly absorbed by the white bone whip.

What surprised the white bones was that such bloody suppression did not scare the people around them. Instead, the number of people rushing to the hole became more and more.

"You are all now showing your true colours!" The white bones of the old devil screamed, but did not notice that at first all of them who rushed to the hole, almost all of them were Jiedan stage masters, but now one or two Yuanying stage ancestors have joined.

In his fury, the white bone old demon's white bone whip swayed and it continually wrapped up four or five people who did not listen to his warning, absorbing their blood, but the people around them were more and more arrogant and all of them are facing that. They flew to the square hole. The few who rushed to the front, he even lost their traces, they could not even be detected with his spiritual awareness.

In the midst of his anger, the white bone old demon who has been careful and cautious felt that something was not right for a while. He was planning to fly away, but it was too late. A powerful suction force coming directly from the hole, seemed to directly control his spiritual awareness and then pulled his body and he flew toward the hole.

No matter the struggle of the white bone old demon, this powerful force did not allow him to break away from the situation, but it was becoming more and more powerful. At this point, the white bone old demon finally realized that the guys who rushed to the hole were not greedy at all, but they were involuntarily pulled by this force to the hole.

No matter how much the white bone old demon thought about it, he could not understand why this force was only pulling his people but Yang Chen and Gongsun ling who were not far from it had no influence on them.

Perhaps, Yang Chen was using some magic weapon to shield them so they would not be affected! When he thought of it, the white bone old demon was so regretful that he almost cried. How could he not hold back? When the hole was opened, what was inside would surely come out. If he waited for a few second time, couldn't he follow Yang Chen in smoothly?

It's no use to regret it. The white-bone old demon was struggling and he had had no way to counter the powerful suction from the hole. He couldn't help but fly to the hole and he couldn't even make a sound.

"White bone ancestor, you are not keeping your word!" Just as the ancestor disappeared into the hole, farther away, there was a sudden scream.

The form of the white bone old devil has almost no difference from him looting it himself after he has suppressed his disobedient me , at least in the distance that how the others saw it. Someone immediately showed up and began to berate the white bone old demon.

They did not only berate him, but at least a dozen people were flying without hesitation toward the hole. The white-bone old demon also could not say anything to clear up the misunderstanding so they also rushed in.

Gongsun ling also found several people peeking around, but did not expect that there were so many. After a while, sixty or seventy people have already rushed into the hole. Looking at this scene, Gongsun ling did not know what to say. These people were all stupid and Yang Chen, who obviously knew the inside story, was not afraid of what was inside.

When the people were crazily pulled into the hole, Yang Chen just looked at what was going on. Yang Chen did not forget that the last time he took the tenth water true essence solution, as long as he used his spiritual awareness to explore in the pool, he would be pulled into the solution by the array there. The principle of storing the seventh metal true essence and the tenth water true essence was similar. Those people rushed to explore with their spiritual awareness and that was the way to find death.

As long as it was a cultivator, they couldn't help but get used to using their spiritual awareness to explore the unknown. At least the scope of the exploration with spiritual awareness was much broader than that of their field of vision. In this case, unless someone warned them against it, the response of everyone would be the same, they would all use their spiritual awareness to probe. If Yang Chen did not warn in advance, Gongsun ling might have used her spiritual awareness to probe it also.

Watching this group of people disappear into the square hole again, Yang Chen looked around for a circle, then revealed a smile in a certain direction, then he said to Gongsun ling: "Let's go, we will also go in."

Yang Chen and Gongsun ling's figure slowly walked to the hole. Yang Chen looked down at the black hole and did not hesitate to take Gongsun ling into it.

Until there were no more people on the top of the mountain, farther away, the figure of Madam Fanghua slowly appeared, looking at the direction of the top of the mountain, she frowned.

The square hole on the top of the mountain has been there for half an hour and then it slowly closed. The entire mountain top has restored its original appearance. If there were no broken bodies here, no one would believe that something happened here.
