Chapter 381.1: Questioning Inner Heart Pills Coursing A Stir Again

Yang Chen's mind was still hesitant. At first, he felt that accepting Gongsun Ling was already unfair to his master. Secondly, Yang Chen has never figured out whether he wanted to accept Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue.

This was not a wish that came from his heart.

That was to say, while apologizing to his master, the feelings between Yang Chen, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue have not yet reached the point where they could get married together. This was not surprising, they have not been together for a long time. Although they were very happy to meet each other, they have not reached the point where they had to get married.

But now Gao Yue was the master of Yang Chen, as the master she took the responsibility and Yang Chen could not object. Gao Yue's identity was very special now, not only was she the master of Yang Chen, but also the wife of Yang Chen. Whether it was Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan or Sun Qingxue, if they wanted to enter the Yang family, even if they had a higher cultivation base, they had to bow their heads to Gao Yue as an elder sister.

In the end, Yang Chen still did not object to Gao Yue, he made a long sigh and nodded. Since it was well received, he simply accepted it! Yang Chen also did not want to destroy the cooperation between the Pure Yang Palace, Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island.

The issue now was that there were no problems in the Pure Yang Palace, Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling had no problems, Yang Chen had no problems. He just didn't know what Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue wanted. Would they be willing to share Yang Chen with Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling.

In Yang Chen's opinion, Sun Qingxue may not have too much objection, but Shi Shanshan was hard to comprehend. With the arrogant temperament of Shi Shanshan, maybe it would not be considered at all.

"Good!" The palace master saw that Yang Chen also nodded and suddenly he was happy, the other elders were also happy. This was the ideal situation for everyone and everyone was happy to see it.

“The sect will immediately chose a day to go to the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island to discuss the marriage.” As the head of the palace was happy, he immediately made a decision: “It is rare for the Pure Yang Palace to have such a happy event, the sect must make it a grand occasion!”

The master of the palace has made a decision, and everyone would naturally not object. The palace master wanted to be a grand servant once, but with this as a pretext, the relationship between the Pure Yang Palace, Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island would once again be closer by 10%, which was very meaningful.

The next thing, he doesn't need Yang Chen to intervene again. The master of the palace even decided to personally go to the two major sects to propose marriage. As for the dowry, there was no such thing that the Pure Yang Palace couldn't provide. The second grade inner sensing pills and the second grade questioning inner heart pills, were definitely big assets that were coveted by other sects.

Of course, they could prepare a few more of the second grade inner sensing pills, but the second grade questioning inner heart pills could only be two, not more. But even so, it was a rare gift that would definitely make the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island satisfied.

The marriage of Yang Chen was handled by the sect, naturally they took Yang Chen's birthday with the girls and checked their horoscope for a good day for the marriage. This time would not be very short, taking advantage of this opportunity, Yang Chen could just go out for a while.

After they determined their relationship with Yang Chen, Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling naturally moved together with Yang Chen. Originally, Gao Yue also wanted to travel with Yang Chen, but she had to temper the dragon horn, so she could not go out for the time being. He could only be accompanied by Gongsun Ling.

This time, Yang Chen was planning to collect the medicine nourishing gourd left by an Immortal on the Immortal Executioner Stage. This gourd has been coveted by Yang Chen for a long time, but he has always felt that his strength was not enough to collect it. Now his full attribute spirit power was condensed and there was a large number of First Wood Spiritual Solution and Seventh Metal Spiritual Solution as the foundation. Yang Chen now had the qualification to collect this medicine gourd.

The medicinal nourishing gourd left by the immortal, originally belonged to a top grade alchemy grandmaster. After careful refining the medicine nourishing gourd, the medicinal pills put into it would be slowly warmed, purified and enhance the medicine's essence. If the questioning inner heart pill, heaven seizing pill and other heaven defying pills, were placed in the gourd, he would not need to cover it with a talisman, it was definitely a precious thing that alchemy masters dream of.

Gongsun Ling's mountain river geographic map, the more places that it passed through, the more complete the geography drawn would be, the greater the power of the array. As long as there was an opportunity, Gongsun Ling would go out and now could travel with Yang Chen again, Gongsun Ling naturally wanted it.

The place where the medicine nourishing gourd was located was within the dao sects domain. As long as they were slightly careful, there would not be much of a crisis. However, Yang Chen now had a special status. The Greatest Heaven Sect deliberately wanted Yang Chen's life. In any case, he had to be careful.

Before going out, Yang Chen went to the thousand autumn pavilion market again. Before the reward of Yang Lan, Yang Chen also had to learn something from Shangguan Feng here.

As Yang Chen expected, with Yang Chen once again increasing the reward of the spiritual stones, Yang Lan, the guy who was in the foundation stage, even in the Greatest Heaven Sect, he was still anxious, for fear that there would be people around him that would assassinate him. He was careful every day, let alone leave the Greatest Heaven Sect, he does not dare to pass the outer sect of the Greatest Heaven Sect easily.

This was exactly the effect that Yang Chen wanted. Although Yang Chen did not have the fear of him like this, he has been escaping for a hundred years in the shadow of being chased. Relatively speaking, Yang Lan's suffering was only a few days and it was not enough to pay off the interest of Yang Chen's past life.

"The reward is raised to ten pounds of high grade spirit stones." Yang Chen once again raised the reward. For a guy who was in the foundation stage, this was already a sky-high price and even more than enough to deal with a cultivator in the early Jiedan stage. Even if it's just a little bit of spirit stones and he was willing to change it with the head of another cultivator, there would be many people willing to do it.

Yang Chen was going to raise the rewards from time to time, so that Yang Lan would be living in fear. Yang Lan was no better than Yang Chen. In his previous life, he relied on the big tree of the Greatest Heaven Sect. He relied on the drill camp to make a living, but his achievements were not high. At least Yang Chen had never seen the shadow of this guy in the spiritual world for many years.

He believed that when the reward was high enough, Yang Lan would be betrayed by the people in his sect, holding his head to get the reward from Yang Chen. This was Yang Chen's planned life track for Yang Lan and there would be no bias.

Even Yang Chen hoped that Yang Lan would be tougher and more slick, and would be able to support himself until the final time. As Yang Chen said, with a questioning inner heart pill, there would definitely be an elder-level figure of the Greatest Heaven Sect, who would personally solve the problem with Yang Lan.

As for finding Shangguan Feng, Yang Chen also had a purpose, to let Shangguan Feng inquire if there was someone who offered a high price reward for himself. According to the norm, the general reward would never provoke the dozen or so killers to go out, the masters of the Yuanying stage, the worst was also at the peak Jiedan stage, how could they attack him for some spiritual stones.

Shangguan Feng was now also cooperating with the wine immortal house and it was naturally easy to find out the news. Shangguan Feng patted his chest to ensure that the next time Yang Chen came, he would definitely give him a satisfactory answer.

Chapter 381.2: Questioning Inner Heart Pills Coursing A Stir Again

Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling started on the road together, even if they were to arrive at the place where the medicine nourishing gourd was located, it would take several months. Both of them were in Yang Chen's shuttle. This time, Yang Chen did not intend to publicize, he was very low-key.

Anyway, Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling were together, they loved each other. On this road, it doesn't matter how long or short it would be, the two were happy.

Not to mention the lingering affair between the two people, there was another event in recent days, which led to all the dao sects being in clamour.

The matter happened in the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island, but it was not Yang Chen's proposal to Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue, but in just less than two months, the two sects had a new expert who was promoted to the dacheng stage each.

A big sect having a master of the peak Yuanying stage promoting to the dacheng stage was not a surprising thing. However, the promotion of a dacheng stage master was not so easy.

At that time, Elder Hua Wanting spent almost a hundred years and competed with the blood phantom vines, this was only possible with a little help from Yang Chen.

In the last hundred years since then, there has not been a new master of the dacheng stage. The old tree demon was its own accumulation and the monster cultivators were not counted. The true dao cultivator, after a hundred years, there was only Wang Yong of the Pure Yang Palace.

However, it has only been a few years after Wang Yong was promoted. Now there were two peak Yuanying stage masters who promoted and they were all related to the Pure Yang Palace, this has to be surprising.

In fact, everyone understood that this was definitely a credit for the questioning inner heart pills. This kind of heaven defying pill that allowed the masters of the dacheng stage to take the opportunity to break through their realm was used in the body of a Yuanying stage ancestor, it was also a spirit medicine that could make people feel reborn.

Wang Yong's promotion was related to the questioning inner heart pills, and the two masters of the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island were also related to the questioning inner heart pills. After the confirmation of the two major sects, the value of the questioning inner heart pills has once again soared to a higher level. It was not known how many people who were trapped in the Yuanying stage and waiting for their life span to exhaust wanted to get a questioning inner heart pill.

Everyone knew that the pill recipe for the questioning inner heart pill was in the hands of Yang Chen of the Pure Yang Palace. All the questioning inner heart pills that have appeared now were from Yang Chen's making, with no exception.

All eyes seem to be concentrated on the Pure Yang Palace. If it was in the past, a small second-class martial art sect, there would be experts who would try to coerce the Pure Yang Palace to hand over the pill recipe, or force Yang Chen to help refine the questioning inner heart pills.

However, unlike before, the current Pure Yang Palace was not like before, they have established a cooperative alliance with the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island. Even if it was the Greatest Heaven Sect, if there was no such thing as a sorrowful grievance, they would not dare to easily provoke the Pure Yang Palace.

Moreover, some large-scale sects were clear that even if it was the Green Jade Immortal Island, if they wanted to refine their questioning inner heart pills, they must pay enough compensation to the Pure Yang Palace and Yang Chen and they must also bring their own medicinal herbs.

From this point of view, whether it was the Five Elements Sect or the Qiankun sect, they were thinking about forming a relationship with the Pure Yang Palace. Otherwise, they would not accept the compensation of the secret plane from the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island and they would be even closer to the two major sects. It was clear that they wanted to get to the Pure Yang Palace through the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island.

After all, there has never been any interactions before, even if it was the Five Elements Sect and the Qiankun sect, it was impossible to look down on the Pure Yang Palace with aloof eyes. If they were seeking people, they must have an attitude of seeking people. At this point, the Five Elements Sect and the Qiankun sect did well enough and they had enough patience.

There were no years in cultivation, so the years and decades used to establish good cooperative relationship was trivial, It was not a big deal for those of the large sect. Even if it took longer, it was definitely worth it. If you look at the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island, it's just a few decades of cooperation, isn't it?

Similarly, does the Greatest Heaven Sect not want to get a questioning inner heart pill? However, the previous arrangements for Yang Chen against the Pure Yang Palace have completely pushed the Pure Yang Palace and Yang Chen to the opposite side. Even if the Greatest Heaven Sect wanted to have a relationship with the Pure Yang Palace, it was impossible not to remember the hatred of Yang Chen's past life.

In the secret plane, the Greatest Heaven Sect lost five dacheng stage masters and the two big sects lost three respectively, there was still some balance. After all, the two big sects still did not have deep roots like the Greatest Heaven Sect. The number of such top experts were still insufficient.

Originally, there were still a few advantages, but now, the Greatest Heaven Sect could only watch the two sects in less than a few years cultivate two new masters of the dacheng stage. Moreover, the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island had more questioning inner heart pills in hand and this situation would only appear more frequently.

For the Greatest Heaven Sect, this was absolutely fatal. If they let the current situation develop, the strength of the Greatest Heaven Sect would be surpassed by the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island, and at this moment the power of the Greatest Heaven Sect's reserve force was hit hard, the Greatest Heaven Sect's status as the leader of the dao sects was already in jeopardy.

All of this seemed to be related to Yang Chen. No matter how hard the Greatest Heaven Sect's top executives wanted to break their heads, they couldn't figure out why a kid in the early Jiedan stage, who was cultivating under their eyes, could have brought them so much trouble.

From the questioning inner heart pill, the Greatest Heaven Sect's top executives seemed to have speculated about the death of the Yuanying stage master who they sent to kill Yang Chen and the killers. With such a good thing, if they were to move one or two masters of the dacheng stage to secretly protect him, it was not impossible.

With this speculation, the top executives of the Greatest Heaven Sect suddenly had no confidence in killing Yang Chen. Such a monstrous talent, if there were several secret protections from dacheng stage masters, what kind of lineup could kill Yang Chen?

The problem was that for the development of the sect, Yang Chen must be killed now. Otherwise, once Yang Chen refines more and more questioning inner heart pills, the threat to the Greatest Heaven Sect would increase. Now the Five Elements Sect and Qiankun sect were faintly leaning towards the Pure Yang Palace. Once the other four sects have received Yang Chen's pills and only the Greatest Heaven Sect was not there, the pile of the Greatest Heaven Sect was simply a deadly threat.

In any case, Yang Chen should be killed. Not only that, but it was also necessary to grab or destroy the pill recipe that Yang Chen may have left. They were afraid that it was not enough to deal with one Yang Chen alone, but also to count the Pure Yang Palace.

There was no moment that the Greatest Heaven Sect would feel that the small second-rate sect like the Pure Yang Palace would be so threatening and would want to get rid of it.

Everything was just because Yang Chen was a monstrous talent. If that stupid guy didn't throw Yang Chen out of the Greatest Heaven Sect, how good it would be!

Chapter 382.1: Coursing A Stir

Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, like a leisurely swim on the road, like a mountain playing with water, did not hurry and slowed down to the place where the medicine nourishing gourd was kept, no matter whether the outside had been turned over because of the questioning inner heart pills.

Gongsun Ling took out her best craftsmanship, just like a wife and gave Yang Chen every time to make elaborate foods. Anyway, the main aim of Gongsun Ling was to temper her life source magic weapon and consolidate her cultivation base, the mountain river geographical map had its special effects. As long as it travels enough, it could be upgraded. It was not necessary for Gongsun Ling to consume too much energy to cultivate it.

This was naturally easier for Yang Chen, he could enjoy the food that Gongsun Ling carefully prepared for him. Every meal left Yang Chen beaming with joy.

At this time, Gongsun Ling was at Yang Chen's side, so she was responsible for making food for him. She looked at Yang Chen's mouth which was eating her own food, and her face was full of satisfaction.

Yang Chen knew that the best way to treat his beloved wife who cooked with her heart for him was to devour the food she cooked. This was the greatest respect for her efforts and Yang Chen did the same. Gongsun Ling had a small amount of food, the people who cultivated seldom eat some common food. Almost ninety-nine percent of the delicious food fell into the mouth of Yang Chen.

In addition to this, the two were talking about some mountains and rivers and they traveled to see it. In essence, Gongsun Ling was still an array cultivator. For array cultivators, the powerful formations were also like the whole world, and then the powerful masters must survive in the heavens and the earth, and cannot jump out of them. The mountain river geographical map was strong, it was also for this reason.

Therefore, what Yang Chen said to Gongsun Ling was nothing more than letting Gongsun Ling know more about the natural world, it was also of great benefit to her cultivation. Of course, what Yang Chen said, was not as inferior as what Gongsun Ling witnessed when she traveled the world, but that must be of the future too.

Naturally, when the two were together, there was no shortage of spiritual awareness double cultivation. Yang Chen's spiritual awareness advancement was of great benefit to the promotion of Gongsun Ling. In fact, before returning to the Pure Yang Palace, Gongsun Ling's spiritual awareness has already risen to the peak of the early Yuanying stage. And every time they practiced, the spiritual awareness of the two would become more concise.

Although Yang Chen had a more powerful double cultivation method, Yang Chen does not intend to cultivate it when everyone was in the early Jiedan stage.

Not to mention that Yang Chen, Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling were tempering their life source magic weapon, rashly having double cultivation would infringe on their own magic weapon.

It was not enough to practice those double cultivation methods. Cultivating the double cultivation method under Yuanying stage, unless there was no way around it, Yang Chen would never consider it.

This point was not only for Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling, but also for Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue. Yang Chen could have the highest mystery yin-yang heart sutra double cultivation with them, he would not easily cultivate the spirit power double cultivation.

Originally it was thought that the upsurge of the new masters of the dacheng stage would gradually weaken with the passage of time, but when experts visited the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island, Yang Chen was once again pushed to the cusp again.

The expert who met the two sects was the Beast Taming Sect senior black tiger. In fact, speaking strictly, the first one to accept the monster race was not the Pure Yang Palace, but the Beast Taming Sect.

However, the cultivation method of the Beast Taming Sect was relatively special, the monster could not completely break the relationship. Every monster pet was a monster, and a powerful monster pet was a more powerful monster. In essence, these monsters were of the monster race, but only the monster race who were controlled by people.

Of course, the dao sects could accept this kind of thing, no doubt. The identity of the black tiger predecessor was also a monster pet of an ascended expert who stayed to look after the sect. For a powerful beast taming master, there would never be only one monster pet, leaving one was not difficult.

With the life span of the black tiger and the monster race, plus the cultivation base of the dacheng stage, no matter which sect, it could afford the name of a predecessor. What's more, now the Beast Taming Sect, Pure Yang Palace, Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island have been cooperating to operate the 100,000 mountains. The two sects were of course courteous with the reception of the older generation.

This year, when the black tiger predecessor left the 100,000 mountains, because the Beast Taming Sect and the Pure Yang Palace had fewer masters, the two sects sent experts there. When the black tiger came back, they turned to the Pure Yang Palace. Of course, it was the avatar of the old tree demon Gui Shanyou.

The black tiger predecessor visited the two sects, which was purely etiquette. In recent years, the Beast Taming Sect has also received a lot of resources for its long-term development, and it has absolutely the most direct relationship with the four big sects. As a small sect, the Beast Taming Sect certainly knew where these benefits came from, as the black tiger predecessor was the most respected existence in the Beast Taming Sect, it was also natural to visit the two sects.

Not to mention the black tiger predecessor overseeing the 100,000 mountains, but what happened in the past ten years has not passed his eyes and ears. There were also well-informed generations in the 100,000 mountains. Especially after the four sects secured the 100,000 mountains, many people in the dao sects went to the 100,000 mountains to try their luck. The black tiger predecessor knew no less than anyone.

Originally it was only a courtesy visit, but at the time of his visit in the Blue Cloud Sect, it was quite accidental to talk about this dispute in the secret plane. For this level of the secret plane, the black tiger predecessor had never had an extravagant hope about it, but he heard that the Blue Cloud Sect had two great masters of the dacheng stage injured, which may lead to hundreds of years or even longer time to recover. He was a little surprised, but also a little hesitant to rest on it.

Sect master Lu was aware of this point, and he was slightly balanced in his heart, he sincerely asked the black tiger predecessor. Anyway, sect master Lu faced the black tiger predecessor as the younger generation. The younger generation consulting the senior was perfectly justified.

“When this old man was facing a yin fire tribulation, he was seriously injured. Although I was lucky enough to be promoted to the dacheng stage, the internal wounds have been in the body.” The black tigers hesitated for a moment, but he said something: “I have been suppressing the internal wounds for hundreds of years. A few decades ago, I was finally unable to suppress it.”

This was the secret of the Beast Taming Sect, which was related to the survival of the Beast Taming Sect, so the Beast Taming Sect has never publicized it. Now the black tiger predecessor has already convalesce and he said it to sect master Lu, so it was no big deal. For the first time, sect master Lu heard this Beast Taming Sect secret and was very focused.

“When the internal injury was about to break out, this old man met Yang Chen.” The black tiger predecessor finally said the most important part: “He saw this old man’s injury and refined two pills for this old man. One was called the black tiger suppressing pill, and the other was called the black tiger yuan replenishing pill. The two medicinal pills were taken, and this old man has recovered from the internal injuries from hundreds of years ago.”

Chapter 382.2: Coursing A Stir

Having said that, how couldn’t he understand it already.

Before, everyone was still talking about the success or failure of the secret plane. The Blue Cloud Sect sent out six masters of the dacheng stage, one died and two were seriously injured. There was nothing that could be done about the dead one, but the two that were seriously injured, weren’t they in a similar situation to the black tiger predecessor?

What’s more, the black tiger predecessor’s injury was an internal injury left by the yin fire tribulation. Strictly speaking, it was still heavier than the injury of the formation in the secret plane. Even the injuries of the black tiger predecessor could be healed, doesn’t that mean that these two seriously wounded dacheng stage masters could be the same?

The first three masters of the dacheng stage were the three guys who did not obey sect master Lu. However, after this time lessons of the secret plane, together with the new dacheng stage master who made the breakthrough with the questioning inner heart pill, the two remaining seriously injured guys must have understood the general trend.

Under this circumstance, if they could make the two seriously wounded masters of the dacheng stage recover, doesn’t it mean that the strength of the Blue Cloud Sect would immediately return to before the battle of the secret plane, they would be more united and they would have the secret plane resources.

Sect master Lu was in charge of the Blue Cloud Sect for many years and the key to this could certainly be understood. After listening to the description of the black tiger predecessor, sect master Lu was overcome with joy.

Yang Chen could treat the injuries of the black tiger predecessor, and it was very likely that he could also treat the injuries of the two masters of their sect. When they cure the injury and they became obedient, the benefits were self-evident.

Since he has already said this to the Blue Cloud Sect, when the black tiger predecessor was in the Green Jade Immortal Island, he did not discriminate and mentioned the same thing.

The thoughts of the Island master and sect master Lu were almost the same. Otherwise, they will not be in the same tacit understanding of the previous secret plane battle. They each sent several disobedient guys. Although the Green Jade Immortal Island lost two dacheng stage masters, only one had serious injuries, but it was a dacheng stage master, if he could be cured, even if he does not listen to the sect master, it would also strengthen the power of the sect.

Everything seems to have returned to Yang Chen again. Yang Chen, who was planning to collect medicines and the medicine nourishing gourd outside, did not know that he unconsciously has become the focus of attention.

These secrets were of course limited to the two high-level sects. The black tiger predecessor would not see anyone and he would say that he was seriously injured in the past and was cured by Yang Chen. Therefore, there were not many people who knew this.

However, another thing about Yang Chen that the world got to know about quickly caused a sensation. The Pure Yang Palace's palace master personally went to the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island, respectively, for their own ancestral disciple Yang Chen to ask for a marriage with Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue, this thing did not have much concealment, it quickly spread over the sects.

Cold Plum Fairy and Snow Fairy, almost as long as they were cultivators, everyone knew the names of the two. Born with gentle attitudes, their talents were excellent, and they were also beautiful and unparalleled. Whichever one was taken out as a double cultivation dao companion has been dreamed of by countless cultivators. It was not known how many people were secretly playing with the idea of having the two fairies.

But now, a disciple of the Pure Yang Palace has dared to take the world by storm. One person was trying to marry the two fairies as his dao companions. How could it not make countless people who were having ideas on the two females scream out in anger?

Although Shi Shanshan had already stated that she was Yang Chen's person, but hasn't this always been a fact? How many people were looking forward to Yang Chen suddenly suffering a violent death, so that they could take the opportunity to enter the fray.

Although the snow fairy did not say so clearly, there were many people in the Blue Cloud Sect who knew the relationship between Sun Qingxue and Yang Chen. It seems that it was also at the point where it was not impossible.

People who knew this kind of thing understood, but they all knew one thing, that was, if Yang Chen wanted to be a dao companion with any one of them, it was not a difficult thing. However, if he became greedy and he wanted to take the two beauties and imitate an emperor, it was simply impossible.

Not mentioning that if the two women meet this kind of situation, they would not agree, but the two major sects of the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island would not entertain it. Needless to say, even if the head of the Palace of the Pure Yang Palace personally came forward, even if the sect master of the Greatest Heaven Sect came out, the two sects may not necessarily give the sect master of the Greatest Heaven Sect such face.

What's more, this was not the most extreme thing about the situation. The most disappointing thing was that Yang Chen, the kid, actually wanted to marry his master and apprentice sister also. At this point, the Pure Yang Palace did not hide it. According to this argument, the cold plum fairy and snow fairy would not necessarily be Yang Chen's wife.

After hearing this news, the first reaction in everyone's mind was to hit their face. This was definitely the Pure Yang Palace slapping the two major sects in the face, there was no other explanation. Was there anything more ridiculous than hearing this?

Compared with this kind of shock, Yang Chen wanting to marry his own master was almost a small little thing that could no longer be a small sesame. If a cultivator and his master had double cultivation together, it was not worth making a fuss about. What really shocked everyone was that the move of the Pure Yang Palace was definitely a good bullying of the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island, it could be used to obtain soft persimmons.

If this could be tolerated, what else couldn't they bear? There was still no formal indication from the two sects, the cultivators in the world were already in amnesty. What does Pure Yang Palace want to do? They were courting death for themselves. Who really thought that Yang Chen the little alchemist master could be so arrogant?

Yes, the alchemist master in the cultivation world was indeed an honorable rank, idlers were not willing to provoke them easily. However, this does not include the big sects like the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island. Which big sect does not have a few senior alchemist masters, they really thought that without a small Yang Chen, no one could refine a medicinal pill?

Among them, the most happy was the Greatest Heaven Sect. The Pure Yang Palace's move was definitely a self-destruction of their relationship. It's hard to establish an alliance with the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island. If it was because of this event on the part of the Pure Yang Palace, it's a waste of effort. As long as there was no alliance with the two sects, if the Greatest Heaven Sect wanted to destroy the Pure Yang Palace, it would take just a matter of minutes.

Everyone was waiting for a reply from the Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island. Everyone was waiting to see the outcome of the Pure Yang Palace and Yang Chen. Countless gloating guys were even thinking about it once the Pure Yang Palace was abandoned by the two main sects, how they could get the most benefits from the Pure Yang Palace. If they could get the questioning inner heart pill, it would mean the brightest future for them.

Yang Chen, who was at the cusp of the event, had no awareness of being concerned. He was traveling with Gongsun Ling and slowly approaching the place where the medicine nourishing gourd was located. There were more than a dozen days ahead, which was the destination. At that time, Yang Chen's dream of raising the medicine nourishing gourd would be in Yang Chen's hand.

Chapter 383.1: Blockage

Yang Chen's destination was close to the mountains in the West. Although it was still in the dao sects domain, because of the relatively rare spirit power, there were few cultivators coming here except for some rogue cultivators and occasionally passing guys.

However, very few people do not mean that no one came here. At least Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling have encountered several cultivators now, and it seems that they were very rude to Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling.

“Fellow daoist, here is the place of our retreat, please leave!” Four masters of the peak Jiedan stage, standing in a row, stopped the road of Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling. The four looked at Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling and their eyes were very cold.

Being closer to their destination, Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling gave up the shuttle and changed to their flying swords, but the speed was not as fast as before, just to find the most accurate location. Unexpectedly, the four people who suddenly appeared stopped them when they did not reach the position that the immortal said.

“Retreat?” Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling were both surprised. There was a lack of spirit power here. Even if it was only a daily practice, there was not enough spiritual power. Unless it was supplemented with a large number of spirit stones, it was somewhat excessive to do something like that. Was someone actually retreating here?

Fortunately, this was not the destination of Yang Chen, how others were willing to retreat here, Yang Chen does not have to care. Listening to the words of the four people, Yang Chen said indifferently: “If this is the case, then we will make a detour.”

When Yang Chen spoke, Gongsun Ling stood quietly on the side of Yang Chen and she said nothing. Since Yang Chen came forward, she just had to wait for Yang Chen to handle it. She had nothing else to worry about.

With this attitude of giving them face, the four people had no reason to martyr Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, but the world was unpredictable, Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling just wanted to change their direction, but the leader of the four people suddenly rushed to the opposite of the two and intercepted their way.

“My widowed master is retreating here. The distance of a thousand li is a forbidden place. Fellow daoist, wherever you came from, you will have to go back, so as not to get hurt from angering us.” The Jiedan stage master who appeared in front of Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling coldly threatened while blocking the road.

A thousand miles circumference, Yang Chen’s destination was also included. Yang Chen looked at that direction and couldn’t help but sigh. He didn’t have the mind to fight with these people, however when the people took the initiative to provoke him, there was nothing that he could do about it.

“I don’t know how long you have to go into seclusion, calculate the time and I will come back later.” Before starting, Yang Chen first lowered his posture and tried to solve it by other methods. He was here to take things, not to kill people.

Generally speaking, Yang Chen was still a good person. As long as it was not something too much, Yang Chen would not pursue it. Take Guang Ning of the Luminous Moon Hall who wanted to rob Yang Chen’s bright ray sword. Yang Chen did not get angry at first and even promised to give him a better flying sword. If it was not for Guang Ning compelling him step by step, Yang Chen would not have killed him.

For Yang Chen, the path of cultivation was not to kill. If it was to kill, if the immortals that were killed by Yang Chen were to be added up, it would be more than the immortals whom everyone in the world has ever heard of. When a person arrived at the realm of Yang Chen, he couldn’t afford any interest in a group of mortal realm cultivators. If it was changed to a few great principle golden immortals, maybe Yang Chen could be moved.

The more people standing taller, the more humiliating, Yang Chen seemed to be in this state. Naturally, this was also related to the memory of his previous life.

When they heard Yang Chen’s words, the other party apparently did not expect Yang Chen’s answer. Even if it was unreasonable, it seemed that there was no reason to attack when it came to Yang Chen’s coping.

They said that he was not allowed to go in, well, he would not go in, he would go around. They said that he couldn’t make a detour, he had to pass the original way back, good, but he asked when he could pass. Since it was only a retreat, and it was not for a long-term, there must be a time limit.

“This, the patriarch did not explain, but...” The other party was apparently stunned and immediately replied, answering one sentence, and seemed to feel that he could not give a letter of confession. After hesitating, he said “After a millennium!”

Millennium? Yang Chen directly frowned. With the speed of Yang Chen and the women’s cultivation now, a millennium was enough for them to ascend, what else would be there to take?

“Kids, go away, don’t ask too many questions!” The guy opposite to them obviously couldn’t make the other few satisfied. Next, there was a voice which plugged in: “If you don’t want to go, this old man doesn’t mind leaving you here forever.”

“It seems that it is not bad to accept a little guy to be my slave.” Another voice seems even more ferocious: “In addition, this little lady has a good aptitude and would make a good cauldron. I will have a big reward!”

The words suddenly made Yang Chen’s face become cold. Yang Chen doesn’t mind that the others used that attitude on him, but the discourse involving Gongsun Ling, that was another matter.

“What he said is not very clear, please explain it a little.” Yang Chen’s face became cold and immediately restored to being calm and he asked the person standing in front of him.

The opposite person slammed the last guy who had just said nothing, and was about to say something. The guy had already opened his mouth directly “you don’t understand? The woman behind you, my master wants her, if you hand her over, we can let you be our slave and spare your life!”

Yang Chen sighed and stepped back two steps, turning his head to the side of Gongsun Ling: “Ling’er, they want you, then you can play with them!”

Gongsun Ling nodded silently and took two steps forward, replacing Yang Chen in his position. Yang Chen let Gongsun Ling go out, of course, it was also for her to gain experience, although the path of cultivation was not to kill, but the combat experience was indispensable. The four peak Jiedan stage masters in front of them seemed ok for Gongsun Ling to be able to handle them.

Don’t look at it that Gongsun Ling was just in the early Jiedan stage. When it comes to cultivation aptitude, Gongsun Ling was no worse than Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue. In the past, she did not have the resources owned by the two fairies sects. Secondly, it was also her direction of cultivation which was wrong, but this life could be completely different. With Yang Chen’s strong support and pointers, Gongsun Ling has embarked on a completely different path.

The Fifth Earth True Secret Art, coupled with the Highest Mystery Yin-Yang Heart Sutra, these two have already taken Gongsun Ling’s combat power to a position where she could fight with peak Jiedan stage masters.

Chapter 383.2: Blockage

Brush, a powerful sword shadow, swept from the front of the four people and directly shocked the four people. Involuntarily jumping backwards and far away, each of them sacrificed a magic weapon.

Gongsun Ling's sword only swept the space in front of them, but she did not follow the attack. Instead, in the face of the four people's anger and stunned eyes, a table and a chair were taken from her Qiankun bag. She placed it next to Yang Chen. After Yang Chen sat down, she changed the tricks and took out a few dishes from the Qiankun bag, all kinds of tableware were available.

After doing all this, Gongsun Ling went up to face the four masters in the peak Jiedan stage, and there was a burst of eye-catching light in her eyes.

What was this? The four masters who were shocked by Gongsun Ling's actions finally understood what Gongsun Ling was doing. She turned out to be fighting at the moment, to prepare for the early Jiedan kid, so that he could eat the side dishes and watch the battle while also drinking, what does she think of them?

Boundless anger directly rushed to the minds of the four peak Jiedan stage masters. From birth to the present, even if they met their current master, they did not feel that they were so insulted.

Without any protection, a Jiedan stage master ignored their battle as a performance to provide wine, Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling were really naive, or was there not any fear in them?

Gongsun Ling couldn't speak like Yang Chen. Before Yang Chen dealt with them, as Yang Chen's wife, Gongsun Ling certainly wanted to help her own family, and now her husband let her face the enemy. Gongsun Ling had no plans to hold back.

The fascination array was instantly stimulated and the figure of Gongsun Ling disappeared silently in place. After the cognition of the mountain river geographical map and the content that Yang Chen talked with her these days, Gongsun Ling comprehended more about the confusing array. What kind of confusing array could match the real world of the mountain river geographical map?

The four Jiedan stage masters saw that the figure of Gongsun Ling suddenly disappeared. No matter how they urged their spiritual awareness, they could not detect the position of Gongsun Ling.

Only a moment, the four experienced peak Jiedan stage masters knew what to do. Yang Chen was there and he made no movement at all. They didn't even know where he got a pot of wine. He poured a cup and took it slowly. As long as they attacked Yang Chen, Gongsun Ling would have no reason to hide.

The four people did not know how many years they had cooperated, they already had a very tacit understanding. Almost at the same time, the magic weapons of four people went to Yang Chen. Attacking the enemy's weakness to force him into action, such things, they were already familiar with it and could no longer be more familiar with it.

It was a pity that this kind of attack that has just been sent out at the speed of light, it has not yet arrived by Yang Chen's side but the four people felt a fierce sword qi behind each other. With their many years of experience, they immediately knew that if they didn't evade, they would definitely not end well. Without thinking, the four people brought back the magic weapons they used to attack Yang Chen and greeted the oncoming sword qi.

Everyone's movements were very fast. Clank, four sounds were heard almost at the same time. After the sword qi and the magic weapons collided, they were smashed away. But the four Jiedan stage masters did not get the advantage, and everyone's face showed a cautious look.

Four peak Jiedan stage masters with their tacit understanding, didn't gain any advantage against a blow from an early Jiedan stage junior, what was this concept? The four people couldn't imagine it. Why was the little guy in the early Jiedan stage so fierce?

They have seen a lot of geniuses that could leapfrog their level to challenge others at a higher level, but that was only for a small level, the extreme limit was only two small levels to challenge the other. In general, even if the early Jiedan stage master reached the limit, they could only compete with the guys in the late Jiedan stage. They have never seen or even heard of an early Jiedan stage master jumping three smaller levels and challenging masters of the peak Jiedan stage, and it was still against four people.

But this was not complete, countless sword light as dense raindrops, appeared from all directions, attacking the faces of the four people.

Even if their combat experience was richer, the four people have not seen such a dense sword light attack, which has already subverted the limits of their cognition. You have to know that there was no sword array here and they would not have given Gongsun Ling the time to arrange the sword array. But this kind of dense attack, apart from the sword array, they still couldn't think of any possibility.

It was not possible to run around the four masters of the peak Jiedan stage, the speed of one's movement cannot be so fast. There was no other possibility than the array.

But knowing that it was a battle in an array, the four people had nothing to do now. The arrays they have seen, there were traces to follow, the flag of the array, the characters which preside over the law, even if they were in the array, there was always a clear understanding that they were in the formation.

However, now they were in the same place, obviously not in the same place and there was no feeling of being in the formation. But they could face the attack of the array. How could this not let the four people be shocked?

What was even more shocking was that whether they were deliberate attacks or the attack that the woman blocked, some aftermath flew to the side of Yang Chen who was drinking and watching the show, but it seems to suddenly fall into nothingness. In general, it disappeared without a trace.

Gongsun Ling's attack has never stopped and the attack was getting stronger and stronger. The four peak Jiedan stage guys have become more and more serious. The bodies of several people have already leaned together, but they still couldn't completely resist the overwhelming attacks of Gongsun Ling.

The four masters have already had a lot of bloody marks, they had to stop the deadly attacks and ignore some other unimportant places. According to this situation, there was only one outcome waiting for them, that was, their spiritual power would be exhausted and the opponent would kill them on the spot.

All of the four people were racking their brains but they couldn't understand how Gongsun Ling, a junior in the early Jiedan stage, how could she have such a large spiritual power, the four people have been exhausted and even started taking medicinal pills to recover with spirit stones, which was barely able to recover them and block only attacks to their key points. But Gongsun Ling's attack has not weakened, it even strengthened.

Even fools would understand that they have kicked big iron plates this time. Yang Chen has not yet made a move, and Gongsun Ling has already forced them to be so embarrassed.

The guy who made the remarks, his heart has long been regretful. If he knew this earlier, why would he bother to say those unreasonable words, Yang Chen had been very polite and they had to bully him.

Chapter 384.1: Puppet

When the four people were all lying on the ground and could not move, the figure of Gongsun Ling appeared on the side. The sword in her hand swayed, the guy who had just been speaking to them, his head directly fell to the ground clean and neat, she was not soft.

Another guy who said something that was unpleasant was not able to speak at the moment. As for the master who was dealing with Yang Chen at the beginning, he was feeling as bad as it was.

When Yang Chen talked with them with politeness, they did not know how to cherish it and the two companions also made threatening statements. They even wanted to make Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling stay behind as slaves. This kind of thing couldn't be placed on anyone who could endure it. The other party only let Gongsun Ling make a move and she defeated them. The situation in front of them was not good.

Scoffs, Gongsun Ling, under Yang Chen's training, didn't have the soft feelings of her previous life. Even if these opponents have fallen to the ground, each of them has added a sword, completely letting them ruin any luck.

"I am a bit curious now, who is your master?" Yang Chen was sitting there, still holding a glass of wine and didn't even seem concerned. He just looked at them on the ground where they were thrown by Gongsun Ling. Not far from the three living guys, he slowly asked "Since he has a liking for my wife, I want to know his name."

When Yang Chen was asking, Gongsun Ling had already picked up the Qiankun bags from the four people and began to check the spoils. With Yang Chen, Gongsun Ling did these things in the demonic sect domain. Every time, he was very excited and happy.

The three people lying down were basically gone. They were still alive, it was because of Gongsun Ling holding back. You must know that Gongsun Ling's sword array was powered by the top grade spirit stones that Yang Chen gave, not to mention the four peak Jiedan stage masters, even if they were four Yuanying stage masters, they could fight for dozens of months without it being consumed. When they met Gongsun Ling, they were unlucky from then on.

“Killing you will depend on yourself!” At this point, where would the three people still have the arrogance from before, the guy who spoke knew that there was no fortune, and could only throw a swear word.

Of course, the swear words here, but their mind has already told the dead guy how many times he cursed. People were polite because they have the confidence, but he still had to scream that he would make his wife a cauldron, he rushed to court death and also implicate his companions.

“I am a reasonable person.” Yang Chen slowly took a drink of the jade dragon wine and then continued to speak “In fact, I do not like means to make people talk.”

The slow voice, at this moment, there was a pressure behind it that couldn't be described, so that the three people lying down couldn't fight back.

“Which person is your master, I just need to go to the place where you don't want me to go and I will know, so your insistence doesn't mean anything.” Yang Chen was holding an unknown monster meat and drinking another small cup of jade dragon wine, and he said this “For me, it is actually a matter of not knowing for a while longer.”

“Of course, if you can not say, I am not in a hurry.” Yang Chen then said slowly: “I admire your loyalty to your master, but since your Lord is still retreating, he must be afraid of people coming to bother him.”

“Now, you can tell me, is there anyone inside?” After all these things were finished, Yang Chen did not care what the three people thought and directly said his request.

“My master is the alchemist master Gao Jing.” Finally the middle guy opened his mouth: “Master is refining a furnace of important medicinal pills there and can not be disturbed. We were wrong and have offended you, I ask for your excellency to forgive us!”

“Alchemy?, in this place where even birds don’t defecate?” Yang Chen sighed and asked strangely when he heard the reply “What is he making? There is no spiritual pulse here, how many spirit stones would be needed to compensate?”

Since the other party opened up, Gongsun Ling also stopped the action in her hand and returned to Yang Chen’s side. She was also obviously attracted by this issue.

“Because the alchemy here has a higher success rate than other places.” The three ground guys have not answered yet and a strange voice said. Then, the figure appeared opposite to Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, standing on the ground three steps behind.

The appearance of a Yuanying stage master, standing on the opposite side with his hands behind his back, proudly standing opposite Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, seems to not care answering Yang Chen’s questions, he just looked down at the three guys lying there and turned around and looked at the one who had lost his head in the distance and frowned and said “useless thing!”

“It turns out that you are their Lord.” Yang Chen still didn’t mean to stand up. He looked up at the sudden appearance of the Yuanying stage master and shook his head. “I get the chance to lay my eyes on you.”

“They certainly don’t dare to say the identity of this old man to you.” After the emergence of the Yuanying stage master, he seemed to have decided to kill Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, he slowly said: “they did not let you in, it was good for you. But since If you toast and don’t eat and drink fine wine, then don’t blame the old man for being ruthless.”

“You killed the third child, indicating that your cultivation base is not bad. If you like, you can replace the position of the third child and be a slave to this old man.” The Yuanying stage master stared at Yang Chen, he seems to be talking about trivial matters, then he turned to Gongsun Ling: “This girl is not bad, this old man still lacks a cauldron, this wilderness can also be more fun with her here.”

The Yuanying stage master did not give Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling the opportunity to speak again. When these words were spoken, it was as if they were justified. Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling had been left by him at the mercy of the general tone.

“Is it finished?” Yang Chen sat in the chair and did not move his ass, staring at the Yuanying stage master.

“I have!” The Yuanying stage master sneered and said: “This old man usually does not give people a chance, don’t miss it!”

“Sure enough, what kind of slaves do you want!” Yang Chen also sneered, this guy appeared arrogant and told Yang Chen that alchemy here could increase the success rate, obviously he had no intention of letting Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling leave.

However, Yang Chen had long discovered the existence of this guy, has been waiting until now, he just wanted to know why. Since he knew that alchemy here was weird, it was obviously related to the medicine nourishing gourd. At this point, this guy has no effect at all.

Raising his hand, Yang Chen made a gesture of goodbye. The other party glanced at it, and then a gray light, thunder and lightning from the bottom to the top of the Yuanying stage master.

Chapter 384.2: Puppet

Gongsun Ling had long been reminded by Yang Chen when the three of them spoke, so she returned to Yang Chen’s side. Just near the position where the Yuanying stage master appeared, she left her own praying mantis puppet underground.

The praying mantis puppets were discovered by Yang Chen and Sun Qingxue in a certain secret plane, all of which had Yuanying stage cultivation bases. Yang Chen gave it to many people in the sect and both his master and apprentice sister had one.

The refining of the puppets was later re-refined by Wang Yong, and the power was almost comparable to that of the praying mantis’s cultivation base when it was alive. Moreover, the puppet itself did not have any vitality and it had the earth attribute. If it was hidden under the land, without a strong spiritual awareness like Yang Chen’s, it was impossible to find it even if he was standing on it.

Yang Chen waved his hand and Gongsun Ling controlled the praying mantis puppet to attack. The main means of attack of these praying mantis were it’s two arms, between the waves, it was very fast. Even when Yang Chen first entered the secret plane, he was almost killed and he had to use his body protecting magic weapon to save his life.

The appearance of the Yuanying stage master shelf was large, his tone was very arrogant, but his strength was not very good. He was not like Sun Qingxue, who had a master of the dacheng stage to prepare a body protecting magic weapon for her, and he did not have such a strong means like Yang Chen's body protection method. The two arms had already passed the body of the Yuanying stage master before he reacted.

But no matter what reaction he made, it was too late, the praying mantis brushed its two knife like arms and slashed across the waist, and turned the other side into four quarters.

When the four bloody chunks landed, the three people on the ground did not react at all. After finally understanding what had happened, the three people screamed with uncontrollable fear.

How could they not be shocked. Their savior, the savior in their hearts, was slain in front of them. They didn't even have the chance to escape. Is there something more frustrating and desperate than this?

However, their screams did not last long. The mantis just cut with one hand and turned the three people lying down into six segments. The screaming sound stopped.

Gongsun Ling went to clean up the Qiankun bag of the Yuanying stage master. Yang Chen was thinking about whether the discovery of the alchemist master was related to the medicine nourishing gourd.

According to the facts, here was not a place with spiritual power, nor a place for the production of elixir. Apart from the medicine nourishing gourd, Yang Chen couldn't think of any reason to improve the success rate of refining medicinal pills.

Obviously, the other party does not know the real reason, or has not had time to know the real reason. The Yuanying stage master and four slaves appeared here, and it was estimated that they were asking for the alchemist master to refine a pill.

The blockade of this place was definitely to make the alchemist master have a better alchemy, but they were not lucky. The place where the bird does not lay eggs, there were even such masters as Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling.

The purpose of this trip was to collect the medicine nourishing gourd. Yang Chen certainly would not leave this kind of thing to others. Even if others found out, Yang Chen would make a move to snatch it.

No one appeared in front of him again and soon Yang Chen arrived at the place where the medicine nourishing gourd was. Not as far as Yang Chen expected, on the top of the mountain, a Yuanying stage alchemist master was sitting on a flat ground, carefully controlling a well-looking pill furnace and the eye-catching process seemed to have reached the key time. It seems that this person should be the alchemist master Gao Jing that the people mentioned.

It's inaccessible, Gao Jing was concentrating, and he doesn't know who he was. After waiting for a while, it seems that just after an important joint, the alchemist master breathed a sigh of relief and looked up, just to see Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling in the distance.

Not the original Yuanying stage master, Gao Jing's heart was shocked, and the control of the pill furnace was somewhat out of control. A loud bang came out, and a black smoke broke out from the pill furnace, this kind of medicinal pill was a refining waste.

Gao Jing's mind was agile. This was not his old friend, but two strangers. My old friend recently received a message to deal with a guy who came, but now he has not returned. What happened was almost certain.

He did not control the dregs in the pill furnace. Gao Jing used the quickest action to put the pill furnace away, and then turned around without turning back. He also seems to have a good flying magic weapon on his hand and instantly escaped dozens of miles away.

"He is smart!" Yang Chen took Gongsun Ling and landed on the flat ground where Gao Jing was. As soon as they breathed, the smell of the dregs entered their nose.

"Danyang grass, dragon fruit, snort, this is to refine the second grade spirit calming pill, the drug has been integrated, condensed and not scattered, the second grade spirit calming pill has not succeeded." After mentioning a series of herbs names, Yang Chen had been able to judge what kind of medicinal pill was being refined by the other party "for the second grade spirit calming pill, if he can't control the fire in time. If he was scared, he will refine a waste. It is not so good to think about the level. At most, it is the level of a third grade alchemist master."

The name Gao Jing, Yang Chen had never heard of it before, and it was obvious that he was not a famous person. A third grade alchemist master, Yang Chen was still not afraid of offending.

Here was where the medicine nourishing gourd was, but obviously the other party did not find this. It was no wonder that standing here, no matter how the exploration of the spiritual awareness, he could not detect any abnormalities, it was normal to not find it. It was already a very good chance to be aware that the success rate of alchemy here was higher.

“Here is the place where you said the medicine nourishing gourd was?” Gongsun Ling looked around carefully. Her spiritual awareness explored, but she could not find the medicine nourishing gourd and she could not feel the aura of any magic weapon. She started to have some doubts.

“Of course!” Yang Chen was originally confused, but soon saw the location of the medicine nourishing gourd and answered Gongsun Ling.

After Gongsun Ling looked at it again, there was still no discovery. She could only ask Yang Chen “Where?”

“Here?” Gongsun Ling’s spiritual awareness quickly explored below, and continued to explore dozens of feet, she did not find the slightest abnormality, once again turned her confused eyes to Yang Chen, waiting for Yang Chen’s explanation.

“If you fly a little further, you may see it clearly.” Yang Chen smiled and pointed out.

Gongsun Ling said nothing, immediately she brought the ship and flew out of the distance, carefully looked at the feet of Yang Chen and finally found the clue.

The mountain peak at the foot of Yang Chen was thick on the side and looked round. There was also an annular gully flushed by the torrents near the mountainside. Looking from far away, it was clearly a gourd.

Chapter 385.1: Failure Is Also An Experience

The concept of a magic weapon to Gongsun Ling was the kind that could be controlled in the hands. Even if it was oversized, just like her ship or Yang Chen's shuttle, if it was bigger like Gao Yue's dacheng stage puppet, the original shape was hundreds of feet. It was already the biggest magic weapon that Gongsun Ling has ever seen.

Although knowing the size of the magic weapon could change with the owner's mind, but this size was also limited to a certain range and was not too exaggerated.

But now, Gongsun Ling discovered that her heart was still not big enough and she still couldn't imagine how far the magic weapon was. Even if her own mountain river geographical map could draw the whole world, but its body was just a painting axis that was a few feet long and a few feet wide. How could she think of such a huge magic weapon?

A mountain peak was hundreds of feet high, and the length of the stretch was almost hundreds of miles. Such a huge mountain peak was a magic weapon. This made Gongsun Ling shocked and began to reflect on her own lack of imagination.

Who had stipulated that magic weapons could not be huge? Gongsun Ling wanted to understand this moment. She was a smart person. She suddenly realized that she was on the point of comprehending and sat down directly to start retreating.

Yang Chen said nothing but rushed up, throwing a questioning inner heart pill in the mouth of Gongsun Ling, and then sitting on her side to protect her. It was rare that there was such an opportunity for epiphany. Yang Chen certainly would not let Gongsun Ling miss it.

Gao Jing has been scared away, there would be no more people to disturb them in a short time. He did not know how long it would take for Gongsun Ling to complete her retreat, Yang Chen simply began to collect the medicine nourishing gourd.

Before the collection, Yang Chen was still fully prepared. Twenty-four penglai divine wood monsters, surrounded Gongsun Ling and the ship directly in accordance with the position of the Heavenly Cycle Constellation Great Formation. At this time, the Penglai divine wood monsters had a peak foundation stage cultivation base. Under the nourishment of the first wood true essence spiritual liquid, they would be able to impact the Jiedan stage in a few years.

The twenty-four Penglai divine wood monsters were connected with each other. Once the Heavenly Cycle Constellation Great Formation was arranged, even if it was a master of the mid Yuanying stage, they would not necessarily be able to breakthrough easily. The tree monsters were so powerful that you could see some clues from Gui Shanyou.

The Penglai divine wood monsters and Yang Chen have the connection of a master and servant. Once someone breaks into this circle, Yang Chen would know immediately.

In the middle of the Heavenly Cycle Constellation Great Formation, it was the five-party array arranged by Wan Qian's five female apprentices, who also protected Gongsun Ling and the ship. Even if there was any strong enemy, Gongsun Ling would not be hurt.

After all this was arranged, Yang Chen began to collect the medicine nourishing gourd.

Yang Chen had not come to collect it before because he was not strong enough. The immortal who left the medicine nourishing gourd at that time said that if Yang Chen's cultivation base was less than the Yuanying stage, he should never expect to be able to collect it.

Now Yang Chen's entire attribute spirit power has achieved condensed dan, according to the calculation of the heaven measuring ruler, his spiritual power cultivation base has been more than 3,000 degrees, far beyond the limits of the general Yuanying stage master, for the collection of the medicine nourishing gourd, it was more than enough.

However, Yang Chen was still fully prepared, even if he has the means of collecting, but he was not a real Yuanying stage master. In terms of spiritual power transfer, there was still a certain gap with a Yuanying stage master, so Yang Chen prepared a large number of seventh metal true essence liquid. After he came to the brains of the medicine nourishing gourd.

The method of collecting with a secret technique was very complicated. The complete secret technique required Yang Chen to complete hundreds of charms one after another, and each time, Yang Chen needed the spiritual power of his whole body to condense a charm. It takes more than one day to complete it.

The Yuanying stage was the minimum level that could be used to collect the medicine nourishing gourd, but it was not said that the Yuanying stage master would be able to collect it. Switching to anyone else, even if they were in the Yuanying stage, it was not an easy task to condense such a charm.

It was necessary to control the spiritual power of the whole body and condense it into a delicate charm. It was almost impossible to condense successfully without the control of a spiritual power in the late Yuanying stage or even the peak Yuanying stage. This was not only a need for spiritual power, but also an extreme requirement for control.

The medicine nourishing gourd was used by the alchemist masters, and for the alchemist master, it was the basic skills to be able to master the alchemy heat. What was needed for the medicine nourishing gourd was at least the third grade alchemist master who could control the refining of the third grade spirit pill. If this was not possible, he was not qualified to use the medicine nourishing gourd.

This point, Yang Chen was very clear about it, and he himself has reached this requirement. Even so, the condensation of each charm still needed the devotion of Yang Chen's whole mind, which was almost the limit that Yang Chen could do in this situation.

Every time a magical character condensed successfully, it took a day and a half for Yang Chen and this was supplemented by the continuous supply of the seventh metal true essence liquid. If this was not the case, in this spirit power scarce land, he could either use a large amount of medicinal pills or use a large number of spirit stones, otherwise it could squeeze dry the people who wanted to collect it as long as he condensed dozens of magic symbols.

This was another test. As an alchemist master, either the medicinal pill was sufficient or he was very rich. If these two things were done, he was a true alchemist master. The little guys who have just learned a little bit of alchemy was completely unqualified.

With the support of a large amount of seventh metal true essence liquid, Yang Chen could hardly condense a magical symbol without having to rest. Every time one condenses, Yang Chen would drive it into the mountain.

Surprisingly, Yang Chen has already completed almost one hundred charms, but the mountain that should be a medicine nourishing gourd has not changed at all. He couldn't help but wonder if this mountain was really a medicine nourishing gourd.

If it wasn't for the alchemist master Gao Jing, telling him that the success rate of alchemy here would increase, even Yang Chen would doubt this. However, with the confirmation of the guy before, Yang Chen has been very sure, this mountain was the real medicine nourishing gourd.

After two years, Gongsun Ling finally woke up, and the spirit power of her whole body soared. Through this understanding, she directly broke through the bottleneck of the early Jiedan stage and entered the middle Jiedan stage. From the beginning of the condensing dan to the present breakthrough, Gongsun Ling spent almost fifty years.

A genius was a genius, Shi Shanshan, the cold plum fairy, in this ridge, she took almost the same time to enter the middle Jiedan stage. The gap between Gongsun Ling and Shi Shanshan was greatly reduced.

After waking up to find Yang Chen's action, Gongsun Ling did not bother Yang Chen, but just looking for an opportunity for Yang Chen to know that she was awake, so that he did not have to worry, then Gongsun Ling began to quietly practice, silently waiting for Yang Chen. The day when the gourd collection was completed.

Chapter 385.2: Failure Is Also An Experience

Three years later, Yang Chen finally condensed and completed the last charm and it entered the mountain.

With the infusion of the last charm, Yang Chen's body suddenly felt a huge suction force, accompanied by the scream of Gongsun Ling and he could not help but enter a certain space.

This was a very huge space, which was like a lattice, divided into countless small spaces, it was very dense, at least tens of millions.

Yang Chen understood that this space was the interior of the medicine nourishing gourd, because it was filled with the smell of Yang Chen's familiar medicine, which was very rich.

As long as Yang Chen's mind was moving, it could appear in any grid. Yang Chen knew that every place could store a kind of medicinal pill. The elixir preserved here does not need to use a talisman to block the medicinal properties, the medicinal qi would not be emitted, and the efficacy would be better and better because of the nourishment of the magic weapon.

Originally, Yang Chen thought that there would be a lot of peerless medicinal pills in it, but what disappointed Yang Chen was that despite the scent of medicine, Yang Chen did not find any trace of an elixir. It seemed that the owner of the medicine nourishing gourd just left the gourd and did not leave any elixir.

However, among these grids, it was not empty. At least a few million places had some black dross.

In the experience of Yang Chen, he realized that these dark things were all dregs. But Yang Chen still didn't understand that such a powerful medicine nourishing gourd, the owner does not put in medicinal pills, but put so much dregs, what was the reason?

The surprise was always in the end, and in the middle of the grid, there were hundreds of jade slips. When Yang Chen first discovered it, he couldn't believe his eyes. In the medicine gourd, there were so many jade slips, what kind of peerless pill recipe could it be?

Yang Chen picked up a piece and used his spiritual awareness to explore it and carefully looked at the content. Soon, Yang Chen was somewhat disappointed. In this jade slip, it only recorded the changes of some common herbs under various fires, as well as some changes in the medicinal materials.

According to Yang Chen's current alchemy standard, after referring to the profound pill scripture and the elderly lord pill scripture and other scriptures left by several immortals, these things were simple for Yang Chen. These simple medicines, if Yang Chen could control the perfect fire at any time in his hands, there would be no mistakes at all.

However, as Yang Chen picked up more and more jade slips, Yang Chen's face began to become more and more cautious and more serious.

The contents recorded on these jade slips were basically the same, the only difference was the type of medicinal pills. Later, there were some simple pill recipe combinations, but the contents were all changes in the medicinal materials under various kinds of abnormal conditions, and most of the time, they all ended in failure.

However, Yang Chen began to pay attention to it. He also took care of the jade slips as if it were a peerless treasure.

It was impossible for Yang Chen not to pay attention to it. He now found out from the things recorded in these jade slips that he seems to have taken a wrong route on the path to alchemy.

Despite the elderly lord pill scripture, the profound pill scripture, the pill recipes of the spiritual world and immortal world and the memory of Yang Chen's own fire attribute spirit root in his previous life, his control of fire could be said to be extraordinary, all this plus the strength of the profound spirit furnace, Yang Chen could almost be said to be the most powerful alchemist master.

There were a lot of medicinal pills that could be used as proof, whether it was the questioning inner heart pill, or heaven seizing pill, black tiger yuan replenishing pill, black tiger suppressing pill, qi seeking pill, these could prove that Yang Chen was definitely an advanced alchemist master.

Even Yang Chen himself thought so before. Almost every medicinal pill that Yang Chen refined has not failed, all of them were successful. At most, the quality of the medicinal pills were different, the number of medicinal pills released would be different, no medicinal pill has ever been a waste.

But after reading the records on these jade slips, Yang Chen discovered that he was not a senior alchemist master in a strict sense. The reason was that Yang Chen has never refined any waste medicinal pills.

It sounded ridiculous for this reason, but Yang Chen knew that all of it was now because of the memory of his past life. However, Yang Chen was just a very ordinary alchemist master in his previous life. Perhaps an ordinary alchemist in the heavenly court could indeed be a senior alchemist in the mortal world, but this does not mean that Yang Chen could still have such advantages after he ascends.

If it was changed to a pill recipe which Yang has never heard of and some medicinal pills that Yang Chen has never touched, Yang Chen couldn't maintain such a level. Even Yang Chen himself couldn't guarantee it.

These detailed jade slips told Yang Chen how real alchemist masters grew up. For each kind of medicinal pill, this master has experimented with different kinds of fires under different circumstances, what kind of mistakes would be formed and what kind of consequences would result.

Similarly, the same was true of the tests in the pill recipe. What kind of mistakes would occur in the cooperation of different medicinal materials in different situations, this was the embodiment of the real basic skills of alchemy.

As the saying goes, failure was also an experience. The smooth sailing situation was bound to be not too long-lasting. No one was an exception and one day there would be setbacks and failures. Being able to learn from failures was the most correct attitude.

On the path of alchemy, what Yang Chen lacked was precisely a failure. Because of the memory of his previous life, Yang Chen did not know how many failures might be encountered on the path of alchemy. Now, when in the mortal world, Yang Chen could pretend to be a master, but it was really in the spiritual world and the immortal world, that Yang Chen would definitely be exposed.

What was recorded on these jade slips was the precious alchemy experience of the immortal, and it was still a lot of failure experience. Some were even deliberately failed to learn about the changes in potency in different situations.

As for the dregs in the grid, it was the result of these failures. For each test, there was a pile of corresponding dregs left. In the medicine nourishing gourd, these dregs have also been perfectly preserved, ready for Yang Chen to research.

Now in the eyes of Yang Chen, even if the place was filled with peerless elixir, it was not as precious as this pile of dregs. With this, Yang Chen could make up for his lack of awareness in medicinal materials to the maximum extent, so that Yang Chen could consolidate the foundations that he lacks the most.

Even if someone took tens of thousands of grand supreme elderly lord ninth grade gold core to exchange, Yang Chen would now be reluctant to exchange these medicinal dregs. Until now, did Yang Chen really understand what path he should take on the cultivation of alchemy.
