Chapter 406.1: Killing People To Pick A Quarrel

After refining two furnace of first grade questioning inner heart pills and two furnace of second grade questioning inner heart pills, Yang Chen finally went out.

This retreat of Yang Chen took fifteen years. When he was concentrating on his cultivation, he didn't feel the passage of time. Only when he was out of the cultivation state did he realize that such a long time has passed.

The sect didn't seem to have changed by much, but the spirits and vigor on the faces of the sect's disciples seemed to be different, all of them were very proud.

When he saw his master, he became happy again. In these years, Gao Yue has already prepared the dragon horns and started the refining work. Because the difficulty of refining was extremely high, this process would continue for at least decades.

His master ancestor has also been helping, and was very satisfied with Yang Chen's promotion. After encouraging him, he wanted Yang Chen to make persistent efforts.

When the master of the palace met Yang Chen, he said a lot. The things happening in the sect and the things happening outside, as long as they were related to the Pure Yang Palace, he knew basically everything.

In the past few years, the Pure Yang Palace has recruited thousands of highly qualified outer sect disciples. After undergoing repeated evaluations, most of the new students have been sent to the Blue Vault Mountain immortal cave. Judging from the current appearance of the Pure Yang Palace, the strength of the Pure Yang Palace has not improved a lot and it was developing step by step.

The Wine Immortal House and Pure Yang Palace have now cooperated with each other. In some positions, the Pure Yang Palace has inserted their core disciples. Nowadays, major events and incidents outside the sect basically cannot escape the control of the Pure Yang Palace and it was convenient for the Pure Yang Palace to adjust its external strategy at any time.

However, these were hidden and they never let others know. The only thing that could be said to let outsiders know that their strength has risen was that the Pure Yang Palace held a ceremony for apprenticeship more than ten years ago. At that ceremony, the Pure Yang Palace recruited hundreds of monster cultivators at one time to join their hall of eccentrics.

Among the monster cultivators which joined, there were twelve Yuanying stage masters, more than eighty Jiedan stage masters and the rest were all in the foundation stage. Although these forces were completely incomparable to those of the big sects, the sudden addition of twelve Yuanying stage masters resulted in the doubling of the high-end strength of the Pure Yang Palace, which made people frequently watch them closely.

And there was also good news, the Pure Yang Palace was equally secretive about. In the Blue Vault Mountain immortal cave, the strong ape king Hou Yun in the dacheng stage, under the frequent contact between him and the old tree demon and Wang Yong, he was also from the beginning hostile to fraternity and finally under the temptation of the questioning inner heart pills joined the Pure Yang Palace, becoming the third dacheng stage master of the Pure Yang Palace.

With three masters of the dacheng stage, many things could be solved by the Pure Yang Palace. However, Hou Yun's joining, the Pure Yang Palace did not announce it, but let Hou Yun be a secret weapon.

Hou Yun has recently reached a bottleneck in his spirit power cultivation and was stuck in the middle dacheng stage. The Pure Yang Palace was not bad to him and he was sent one questioning inner heart pill directly, allowing Hou Yun to go into seclusion. At least in the past ten years, it was estimated that Hou Yun would spend it in retreat.

After all, Hou Yun was different from the masters of these large sect. He has always been confined to the Blue Vault Mountain immortal cave. He has not traveled. He couldn't compare with those masters in terms of vision and knowledge.

Even with the help of the transformation secret art and the systematic cultivation method provided by the Pure Yang Palace, it took him several times more to cross his bottleneck than those of the other masters. When he completed the retreat, regardless of whether he was successful or not, the Pure Yang Palace would arrange for him to go out to gain experience and increase his knowledge.

There were more and more core disciples. The hundreds of top-quality flying swords that Yang Chen brought back last time have also been distributed. It has increased the core disciples' combat effectiveness by a huge step.

Now the Pure Yang Palace was also like those big sects. After consolidating their Jiedan stage realm and becoming core disciples, it was necessary to begin to quenching their life source flying swords. Compared to the Yuanying stage, no suitable magic weapon could be found as the life source flying sword. It was already the difference between heaven and earth.

All the things happening in the Pure Yang Palace were good things. The sect was flourishing. No wonder the disciples were full of vitality.

Prior to Yang Chen's retreat, some people were having ideas on him. In this regard, the Wine Immortal House spent a lot of effort to investigate. The idea came from the mouths of some high ranking members of the Greatest Heaven Sect, but it was supported by several people who practiced alchemy, such as the Pill Cauldron Sect and several concocting pills sects and some rogue cultivators alchemy masters.

This was purely a matter of blocking Yang Chen and it was also a conspiracy to provoke greed and deliberate chaos. Maybe in the confusion, someone could really find a hint of Yang Chen's alchemy. By then, everyone was likely to make a profit.

This technique seems to be clumsy, but it was very effective. The Pure Yang Palace has issued harsh wording notes to several ancestral sects, no matter what attitude they want to cope with, they should not be polite when it comes to the manipulators behind the scenes.

But everyone was afraid of those masters who needed Yang Chen's alchemy, so they had to restrain themselves, at least on the surface, they had to stay on good terms with him and even call everything a misunderstanding.

In this regard, Yang Chen was not surprised. Even if Yang Chen did not reach the fifth level, outsiders would have a lot of guesses. After all, the questioning inner heart pill was a good way to make people tempted. Moreover, to those people, Yang Chen didn't take them seriously. Were there few people who wanted Yang Chen's life these years?

Palace Master Zhang Jiao was very nervous, he completely forgot that Yang Chen had brought back the corpse of the second city master. It seems that the positioning of Yang Chen in the mind of the head of the palace was also getting heavier, otherwise he wouldn't feel so.

The Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect could be regarded as being fortunate, because they had friendship with the Blue Cloud Sect Green Jade Immortal Island, they were among the first batch to know that Yang Chen had become a fifth grade alchemy master so their request was faster.

The two major sects were seeking pills, questioning inner heart pills. During the fifteen years of Yang Chen's retreat, another dacheng stage master in the Green Jade Immortal Island also broke through after taking the questioning inner heart pill.

In just two decades, four consecutive dacheng stage masters have appeared because of the questioning inner heart pills and the entire cultivation world was going completely crazy. Countless people wanted to get a questioning inner heart pill, but there was always a price and no market. No matter how high the price was, no one would sell it.

The Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect simply wanted questioning inner heart pills at all costs. Both sects knew that if the Blue Cloud Sect and Green Jade Immortal Island always occupied this advantage, it would not be a dream for them to surpass them comprehensively, but it was already becoming a reality.

For this reason, the price that the two sects mentioned to the Pure Yang Palace almost made the master of the palace who have been used to good things in recent years a little dazed.

Of course, the benefits of Yang Chen were indispensable and Yang Chen's remuneration even surpassed those from the Blue Cloud Sect and Green Jade Immortal Island.

Chapter 406.2: Killing People To Pick A Quarrel

This was quite easy to understand. At first, the two sects were eager to show their loyalty, and at the same time, Yang Chen's status was also different than in the past.

The fire seeds needed by Yang Chen were prepared by both sects, and even the duplicated parts were deliberately eliminated. It must be said that these large sects were very rich.

In addition to providing the same number of fire seeds as the Blue Cloud Sect and Green Jade Immortal Island, there were other things. The materials for alchemy were naturally prepared by themselves. In addition, everyone seems to know that Yang Chen liked to read miscellaneous books. They prepared 20,000 volumes of miscellaneous books and some rare medicinal materials.

The most important reward was not in the material object, but rather their pledge to provide a favour. Both the Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect were willing to provide Yang Chen with a demanded opportunity. As long as Yang Chen spoke, without prejudice to the interests of the two sects, the two sects could do one thing for Yang Chen unconditionally.

This price was really staggering. Whether it was the Five Elements Sect or the Qiankun Sect, it was estimated that they needed just say one sentence to change the dynasties of the mortal world.

In order to obtain questioning inner heart pills, the two sects also tried their best to win Yang Chen's favour.

Of course, it doesn't matter to Yang Chen. Anyway, the Blue Cloud Sect and Green Jade Immortal Island have all taken the lead. After decades, refining for the Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect was not a big deal. The key was to pull the two ancestral sects to the side of the Pure Yang Palace, and at least to have them speak for Pure Yang Palace on key issues.

It's just that the two sects have to discuss which one comes first. The master of the palace also asked Yang Chen what he thought about it. After thinking for a moment, Yang Chen suddenly smiled "let me just make a furnace of refining first, let the two divide it equally, then I will make another furnace of pills after 25 years and then they will divide it evenly, it's fine like this. "

This was the intention of many rogue cultivation masters. The two sects have great assets and naturally would not think of this. The palace master still has a headache for how to coordinate the relationship between the two parties. This was indeed a good idea that does not hurt and could benefit both parties.

The two furnaces of questioning inner heart pills he refined before, Yang Chen simply gave it to the master of the palace. As long as the time comes, he only needs to take out one part and then take another part after twenty-five years. For Yang Chen, in the next 50 years, for the time being, he does not need to consider refining alchemy for others.

Of course, Yang Chen's refining now has at least thirty questioning inner heart pills, and the two badge for the two sects were at most twenty, equal to that of the Blue Cloud Sect and Green Jade Immortal Island.

Each sect would be given two second grade questioning inner heart pills, which was also a balanced consideration. As for saying that the two sects paid more, this was also a matter they couldn't do anything about. Who made the two sect not optimistic about the Pure Yang Palace at first and did not cooperate with the Pure Yang Palace from the beginning? Who would have thought that the small Pure Yang Palace would develop so much in a hundred years, and they would have such a monstrous talent Alchemist Master?

After the two major sects get the questioning inner heart pills, their strength would probably skyrocket in the short term. At that time, the faces of the high-level members of the Greatest Heaven Sect would definitely not look good.

They just didn't know that under the hesitation of the Greatest Heaven Sect, they found that even the Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect has acquired questioning inner heart pills. Should they regret not having removed Yang Chen as soon as possible, or should they regret not cooperating with the Pure Yang Palace earlier?

Yang Chen's goal was to make the martial arts sects that competed with the Greatest Heaven Sect develop vigorously. Even when it was time to eliminate the Greatest Heaven Sect, it would not be done by his sect alone. The other sects who have been oppressed by Greatest Heaven Sect these years were not only the Pure Yang Palace.

He thought it would be uneventful for the time being, but the appearance of Shangguan Feng brought Yang Chen some bad news.

With the support of Yang Chen and Scar, the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower hosted by Shangguan Feng in the Thousand Autumn Pavilion was also booming. Now several semi branches have been opened. The business has not only achieved control in the 100,000 mountains, but also in several famous markets, there were also Ten Thousand Treasure Tower branches.

Shangguan Feng came to Yang Chen and told Yang Chen that he had just received news. Ten Thousand Treasure Tower opened a branch in the South China Sea. Someone had uprooted it some time ago, and today he got the news. Knowing that Yang Chen was out of seclusion, Shangguan Feng didn't dare to specialize, so he hurried to tell Yang Chen.

“Is there something wrong with our people?” Yang Chen frowned, but still asked about the people in charge over there if they were injured. They were both disciples of the Pure Yang Palace. Generally, when they felt that they have no hope in cultivation, then they would switch to business. They also look forward to leaving some wealth to their descendants.

“They are all gone.” Shangguan Feng’s eyes were bloodshot. He also knew that some small property would not be placed in Yang Chen’s heart, but things were cruel. He could only tell the truth: “the people and goods are gone. Those people have no plans to keep them alive. “

“Southern Sea? rogue cultivator alliance?” Yang Chen chewed these two words, and asked after a while “Who did it?”

“It is a casual rogue cultivator alliance that is called Hidden Dragon Cave.” Shangguan Feng replied with his teeth gritted. “In the news from the wine Immortal house, the people in the Hidden Dragon Cave saw a few magic weapons, and they did not buy it after arguing with others, so they destroyed Ten Thousand Treasure Tower to vent their anger. “

As he said, Shangguan Feng slammed the wall with a punch: “The people I spent decades training, the smallest buddy, also said that he wanted to buy a good flying sword for his son. His son has better aptitude than him, and is already a disciple valued by the sect! “During the talk, Shangguan Feng almost shed tears:” It’s only been ten years and they are gone! “

Shangguan Feng got along with those guys and their relationship was really unusual. Hearing bad news was also very sad.

“Hidden Dragon Cave?” Yang Chen’s voice added a bit of coldness.

The name of the Hidden Dragon Cave was no stranger to Yang Chen. In the memory of his previous lives, the Hidden Dragon Cave was actually a peripheral organization of the Greatest Heaven Sect. It was secretive and does the things that were not convenient for the Greatest Heaven Sect to do themselves. These guys were fierce and have left only a few living witnesses. They were also an arrogant alliance in the South China Sea. Although their scale was not the largest, no one was willing to provoke it.

Even if the people in the Hidden Dragon Cave didn't attack him, Yang Chen won't make the people in the Hidden Dragon Cave feel better. What's more, now that the people in the Hidden Dragon Cave dare to touch the disciples of the Pure Yang Palace.

How could Yang Chen miss the opportunity that was delivered to his door? It was revenge and resentment. At the same time, it also cut off the outer arms of the Greatest Heaven Sect, weakening the power of Greatest Heaven Sect, which was killing two birds with one stone.

"I'll take a trip by myself!" Yang Chen has been in seclusion and he hasn't been out for a long time, he would just take this opportunity to go out and cultivate. Moreover, this kind of thing that was the beheading of the Greatest Heaven Sect's minions, Yang Chen would never use other people to complete the task. He had to do it himself to make it more vivid and satisfying.

Yang Chen's tone and content of speech sounded extremely calm. However, after doing business for hundreds of years, Shangguan Feng, who has just been promoted to the Jiedan stage, has long been accustomed to watching. Yang Chen seemed calm, but there was a slow exudation of a killing aura from the inside. Even Shangguan Feng, who was close to Yang Chen, could not help fighting a cold war.

Chapter 407.1: Killing

The Hidden Dragon Cave was located overseas, a long distance from the domain of the dao sects. At the speed of Yang Chen, it would take him almost half a year to arrive there.

When Yang Chen was chased and killed by Greatest Heaven Sect in his previous life, he had been hiding there for a long time in the rogue cultivator alliance and he was very familiar with it.

It was also at that time that Yang Chen knew about the inside and backstage of Hidden Dragon Cave during an accidental pursuit and knew their relationship with the Greatest Heaven Sect.

Now that Yang Chen hasn't had time to free his hand to find them to settle accounts, they have already stretched their claws to the door steps of the Pure Yang Palace. The new hatred and the old hate were intolerable, how could he bear it?

However, one point in Yang Chen's understanding was that the dao sects influence was small and poor on the side of the rogue cultivators alliance. Otherwise, Yang Chen would not have been hiding there for hundreds of years. If Yang Chen wanted to rely on the influence of the Pure Yang Palace to reason over there, it was absolutely impossible.

Of course, Yang Chen never intended to reason with the Hidden Dragon Cave or the Greatest Heaven Sect who always looked at the sky. Moreover, the Hidden Dragon Cave has never said that it has anything to do with the Greatest Heaven Sect. It was also the people at the Hidden Dragon Cave that have nothing to do with the Greatest Heaven Sect.

At the beginning, Yang Chen planned to kill them himself, but the Hidden Dragon Cave was not small. Yang Chen alone was not necessarily able to take good care of it by himself. Therefore, Yang Chen directly found She Kui and Xie Sha.

“Am going to kill, will you go?” Yang Chen asked directly, facing the two strange looking people.

“We will go! Why won’t we go?” She Kui and Xie Sha were cultivating, after hearing Yang Chen’s words, their eyes lit up suddenly. Killing with Yang Chen not only kills every time, but also releases the wildness of She Kui and Xie Sha, and there are no future problems. How could two guys let this good thing go?

“Would you like more helpers?” Xie Sha agreed first, then asked immediately.

“Other helpers?” Yang Chen was stunned. When he killed, he liked to bring She Kui and Xie Sha. At most, he brought the old tree demon and other helpers. Yang Chen didn’t think of anyone for a while.

“The eight new Yuanying stage masters who joined the hall of eccentrics. They are nervous after being idle for a long time, take them with us if necessary.” Xie Sha explained.

He said that the eight Yuanying stage masters were the monster cultivators who the palace masters conquered from the Blue Vault Mountain Immortal Cave. In the Blue Vault Mountain Immortal Cave, they could only fight with each other to relieve boredom. They were indeed as anxious as Xie Sha said.

Of course, Yang Chen doesn’t think there were many helpers. These guys were fierce men who could kill and not blink. Since they wanted to kill people in the Hidden Dragon Cave, it was natural that the more helpers, the better.

“Okay, ask if they would like to go together!” Yang Chen was also very easy to do things. These masters of Yuanying stage have vowed, and have seen the hope of promotion in the Pure Yang Palace. They were definitely loyal, so he was not suspicious.

As a result, Yang Chen, She Kui and Xie Sha, the three men took turns appearing in front of several other Yuanying stage masters in the hall. Every time he appeared in front of a master, Yang Chen seemed to ask the same words: “we are going to kill, will you go?”

Maybe they already heard that She Kui and Xie Sha said that they were following Yang Chen went out to kill and set fire to their hearts. The several newly promoted Yuanying stage masters didn’t even have one objection.

This movement was too big, which directly aroused the attention of the hall master, the old tree demon Gui Shanyou. At the beginning, the old tree demon who followed Yang Chen to kill before, heard that Yang Chen was actually going out again, he could not help itching.

“Need help?” The old tree demon acted very directly and asked very directly. He appeared in front of Yang Chen and asked this sentence.

“If you want to come!” Of course, the more masters of this kind, the better. Yang Chen didn’t mind the Pure Yang Palace coming out in full strength, but it was impossible at this time, the old tree demon was willing to help, Yang Chen certainly was happy.

Gui Shanyou was now a hall master and he was also an elder of the Pure Yang Palace. Of course, it was impossible to leave at will, but this does not prevent his old man’s avatar from going out with Yang Chen. This was done once or twice before and both were very familiar with it.

“I brought a new friend.” The old tree demon was not alone. Everyone knew that following Yang Chen to go out to kill was a good chance to not have to worry about someone looking for a post account, of course it was to all gain experience. So they could take care of a few more experts.

The friend mentioned by the old tree demon referred to the dacheng stage master Hou Yun who was new to Pure Yang Palace but kept a secret. This monster cultivator who has been training for thousands of years in the Blue Vault Mountain Immortal Cave has also not practiced outside for a long time and has been practicing in a dull way. This opportunity to go out was just right for him.

Yang Chen was so happy, he thought it would be nice to be able to pull up She Kui and Xie Sha. Who knew that there would be two more dacheng stage and eight Yuanying stage masters to come along.

This lineup, especially the old tree demon and Hou Yun, not to mention to deal with the Hidden Dragon Cave, even if it was facing the top masters of the rogue cultivator alliance, they may not fall behind.

Others didn't know the power of the old tree demon, but how could Yang Chen not know it. Being able to continuously suppress the Yin Fire Tribulation more than ten times, it was not easy to say that masters in the middle dacheng stage could do it, and the old tree demon had already done it easily at the peak Yuanying stage. For a guy like Scarface, he did not put up the slightest fight back against the old tree demon.

If it was that the old tree demon has devoured a whole Penglai divine wood, he believed that the old tree demon now could definitely compete with the guy who reached the peak stage in the middle stage.

The old tree demon was already so powerful but Hou Yun could fight with the old tree demon and the ancestor Wang Yong, how powerful would he be.

With so many experts to help, Yang Chen was confident of pulling out the Hidden Dragon Cave completely. The chess piece arranged by Greatest Heaven Sect overseas has already been destined to perish.

It was easy to go out with only She Kui and Xie Sha, but it was not a trivial matter to travel with so many masters at one time, and to go to the overseas rogue cultivator alliance where the distant dao sects forces could cover, so he informed the elders.

In fact, Yang Chen hadn't asked for instructions from the master of the palace. The master of the palace already knew what happened to Yang Chen. Now Yang Chen was the treasure of the Pure Yang Palace. It was not known how many people were paying attention to his every move. This was especially true of the master of the palace. So when Yang Chen appeared in front of the master of the palace with a few masters, he the Lord of the Palace was not surprised at all.

“It’s okay to go out and practice.” As soon as Palace Master Zhang Jiao spoke, Yang Chen’s private behavior was put under the guise of the sect “Masters of the sects should also walk around and see the world.”

Chapter 407.2: Killing

Since this matter was now defined as the sect’s experts going out to gain experience, then it was not as simple as Yang Chen going out and provoking Hidden Dragon Cave alone. Every move of Yang Chen has been linked to the sect’s decision-making. So daring to target Yang Chen was also directly going against the Pure Yang Palace.

At this moment, Yang Chen felt the love of the sect again. In this regard, Yang Chen did not pretend, and naturally accepted the sect’s kindness.

Before setting off, Yang Chen met Elder Hou Yun, who was brought by the old tree demon. Starting from knowing the name Hou Yun, this was the first time Yang Chen had met Hou Yun. Hou Yun, who cultivated the transformation secret art, transformed into a sturdy man of the same size as Yang Chen’s body and revealed an unusually powerful aura all over his body.

In addition to his sturdy figure, Hou Yun’s face was also densely covered with hair, just like an ordinary person with hirsutism. He didn’t wear any robe armor, just an ordinary cotton robe, which made him look like a big farmer.

If he didn’t know the details of Hou Yun, even if it was Yang Chen, the first time he saw Hou Yun, he would certainly think that it was an ordinary farmer, not a master of the dacheng stage.

As soon as he saw Yang Chen, without waiting for the introduction of the old tree demon, he walked up to the opposite side of Yang Chen, looked up and down, and stretched out his hands, and patted it twice on Yang Chen’s shoulder and laughed: “Yang Chen, okay, okay, you already look like a practitioner!”

Hou Yun’s words caused a few inconsistencies in the surrounding Yuanying monster cultivators. At the Yuanying level, everyone has practiced transformational secret arts and become human beings, but at most it was to maintain their physical fitness, which was completely different from Yang Chen’s stout practice of body refining cultivation method. It was estimated that this matched Hou Yun’s appetite.

Just this one action, in a word, surprised everyone except the old tree demon, She Kui and Xie Sha.

Everyone was a master, they have all learned how powerful Hou Yun was. Don't look at his two pats on Yang Chen that seem intimate and casual, but everyone knew how powerful Hou Yun was. Those two pats, the idle monster masters could be easily shot to the ground by it, at least half of the Yuanying stage masters present were softened by Hou Yun's intimate action.

After all, Hou Yun's body was of a mighty ape king, born with divine power, even it was powerful guys such as She Kui and Xie Sha, in the face of Hou Yun's random pats, they had to put up a full resistance and use their formidable monster race physique to be able to withstand it.

Seeing Yang Chen standing in place, he didn't even change his expression, he took Hou Yun's two pats so lightly and they couldn't see any signs of Yang Chen's use of spiritual power. Astonished, everyone took a moment to glance at Yang Chen again.

As Yuanyuan masters who hasn't had much contact with Yang Chen and doesn't know much about Yang Chen, they thought what they heard were all hearsay. But looking at Hou Yun's two pats, their views on Yang Chen changed a little.

As for Hou Yun himself, he was even more surprised. He did not expect that Yang Chen, a small junior in the Jiedan stage, could take his two pats so calmly.

Although Hou Yun was afraid of hurting Yang Chen in the first pat so he held back, but when he saw Yang Chen being so relaxed, the second shot was a firm use of his physical strength. The power of that shot was not only a pat, but it was 100,000 jin. If it was an ordinary Yuanying stage master, it was estimated that he has to make every effort to mobilize his whole body's spiritual power and monster power in order to make himself stand.

Even with such a huge power, Yang Chen stood still and didn't move a bit. Even after a while, Hou Yun couldn't help but look at this younger generation in a new light. He only knew that Yang Chen was capable from the old tree demon's mouth, but he still had some disapproval in his mind. How powerful was a descendant in the Jiedan stage?

Under the two pats, Hou Yun's contempt flew away without any trace. He thought that Yang Chen was only good at alchemy, so he should be worthless in cultivation. However, when standing in place, he didn't even use spiritual power but relied on his physical strength to take his two pats. With this move alone, Hou Yun knew that if they had to fight, perhaps these masters in the Yuanying stage here could not be Yang Chen's opponent.

As a master of the dacheng stage, and a master who has been practicing for thousands of years, how rich his experience was, in a flash, Hou Yun replaced with a laughing face and praised him again and again.

It seemed that Yang Chen was an interesting disciple and he was not uncomfortable to follow him out. Didn't he see that even masters like the old tree demon couldn't help sending out his avatar?

Before traveling, Yang Chen went to say goodbye to his master. Gao Yue was now refining the Dragon Horn Flying Sword. Within a hundred years, she does not have to think about leaving the Pure Yang Palace. This was also good, at least her security could be absolutely guaranteed.

There was Gongsun Ling, she was waiting for Gao Yue. Yang Chen was going out and she has been back for a few days, naturally she has to follow.

"I am going to kill, will you go?" Gongsun Ling was no exception. After saying goodbye to his master, he went to Gongsun Ling and asked this question casually.

"I will go!" Gongsun Ling looked at Yang Chen with a smile and answered. Going out with Yang Chen to do the same thing that made her feel like a husband and a wife, which was very sweet.

On the other side of the South China Sea, Gongsun Ling hasn't been to it yet. Taking this opportunity, she could also add the South China Sea to the mountain river geographical map, killing two birds with one stone.

Adding up to fourteen people, except for Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling who were both in the Jiedan stage, the others were either Yuanying or dacheng stage masters. They were all seniors. Yang Chen was naturally not going to take everyone to the dome hall, so everyone all boarded the ship of Gongsun Ling and flew towards the South China Sea.

After reaching the sea, the water dividing fins were blessed on both sides of the ship, and the speed suddenly doubled. However, they were still a few months away from the side of the South China Sea's rogue cultivator alliance and everyone was on the boat and cultivating separately.

Of course, Yang Chen didn't hesitate to produce enough Jade Dragon Wine for everyone. Gongsun Ling's elaborate cuisine made even the dry tongue of the monster cultivators watery. Along the way, everyone was very happy while eating and drinking.

While rushing, Yang Chen was also wondering how to get started with Hidden Dragon Cave so that others could not say anything. Even if it was the Greatest Heaven Sect, it could only eat this dumb loss, but could not find Yang Chen to settle accounts.

All of this requires a reputation. Even if Yang Chen kills the people in the Hidden Dragon Cave by hand, no one would stand on the side of the Hidden Dragon Cave morally.

Of course, the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower shop was destroyed and all the shopkeepers in the shop were killed.

This was a good reason. It's just that these were not enough. Yang Chen, who had escaped from Greatest Heaven Sect for more than a hundred years, knew that if he wanted to do it thoroughly, at least he should let the people in the rogue cultivator alliance stand on his side.

Chapter 408.1: This Is Poison Not Sickness

The rogue cultivator alliance on the South China Sea was located on a large archipelago in the middle of the South China Sea. It was very far away from the dao sects domain, and there were many surrounding islands. There were many places suitable for cultivators to cultivate even under the sea. This was why the dao sects cannot exert influence here.

The road was far away, and the masters cannot attack this nest and disregard the safety of their nest, but a few masters cannot guarantee that they could completely control the place, and this has become a paradise for rogue cultivators.

The biggest forces here were several rogue cultivators alliances, and the Hidden Dragon Cave was one of them. Hidden Dragon Cave occupies dozens of relatively small islands, it united hundreds of people and became a small rogue cultivator alliance among several forces.

The most powerful master of the Hidden Dragon Cave was the cave master in the peak Yuanying stage, he was extremely fierce. In this rogue cultivator domain, he also had a famous reputation and most people don't dare to offend him easily.

Yang Chen and his party came all the way, but did not directly find the Hidden Dragon Cave, but found the largest rogue cultivator alliance which was the South China Sea Alliance.

The South China Sea Alliance was simply the emperor of the South China Sea, even more arrogant than the Greatest Heaven Sect in the dao sects domain. In the first place, the strength of the South China Sea Alliance was indeed shocking. They had the background of the four dacheng stage masters, occupied hundreds of islands with the most abundant resources and tens of thousands of disciples in the alliance.

It was just that the South China Sea Alliance did not announce the establishment of an ancestral sect, but mainly focused on absorbing rogue cultivators. However, although the South China Sea Alliance was domineering, but paid attention to rules, which was one of the reasons why Yang Chen came here to find the South China Sea Alliance directly.

Of course, another important reason was that almost all the development of the South China Sea Alliance over the next few hundred years was in the mind of Yang Chen. Right now there was one thing that could be used by Yang Chen.

The only person who appeared outside the gate of the South China Sea Alliance was Yang Chen. The others and Gongsun Ling took a rest on the ship. The arrival of a master did not attract anyone's attention. Only two appearances, Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, appeared in the South China Sea. The two descendants of the Jiedan stage were not enough to make anyone vigilant.

"Who are you? For what purpose have you come here!" As soon as Yang Chen was close to fifty feet away from the gate of the South China Sea Alliance, someone screamed.

It couldn't be helped but said that the South China Sea Alliance does have hegemonic capital. Even the guards at the door, the two masters of the Jiedan stage and a dozen disciples in the foundation stage, almost did not give up more face than those major sects.

“My humble self is Yang Chen, I am the proprietor of the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower and came to visit the Union Master Bian specially!” However, Yang Chen did not say his identity from the Pure Yang Palace, but came to see him as the owner of the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower.

Bian Xuren was the leader of the South China Sea Alliance, though, it was only the confession on the surface. The real masters behind the scenes were masters in the dacheng stage, but they have been concentrating on their cultivation and were unwilling to manage these common things.

“Yang Chen? The owner of Ten Thousand Treasure Tower? I haven’t heard of it!” When they saw Yang Chen’s courtesy. The two masters in charge at the gate looked at each other and saw the strangeness in each other’s eyes. Then one of them impatiently waved and shouted, “You can not see the leader? Quickly retreat! “

The eyes of the several people were so high that they could look down on a guy who they have never heard of. Had it not been for Yang Chen’s courtesy, he might have been thrown out earlier.

Re-gard-ing this, Yang Chen was not surprised at all. It was not difficult to join the South China Sea Alliance, but it was not so easy to meet the leaders of the South China Sea Alliance. Bian Xuren and several other senior executives have been troubled by one thing for a long time. Unless it was a major event or a big expert who was related to the alliance, they would not easily come forward.

“Please can you report something for me..” Although Yang Chen was harshly scolded. But there was no slight change on his face and he still said to the goalkeepers on the opposite side with respect “I know a little bit about the An-cient Med-ical Tech-nique(s), maybe I can help the leader and elders to solve some problems.”

Bian Xuren’s biological son suddenly suffered from a strange disease two hundred years ago. His whole body was weak and it was all thanks to Bian Xuren and several other elders who took turns in daily input of spiritual power into him to be able to continue his life.

This son was the heart of Bian Xuren, but also the heart of other elder brothers who were also elders. When he grew up, he was originally qualified, but unexpectedly he became inexplicable after going out to the sea once. In this way, Bian Xuren and several brothers exhausted their life to save him.

Many of these people in the alliance were not very clear about it. Yang Chen also learned about these secrets after having escaped to the South China Sea Alliance after a hundred years. But at that time, the South China Sea Alliance was on the verge of falling apart and Yang Chen could no longer be sheltered.

Now that Yang Chen said that he knew some of the Ancient Medical Technique(s), the two masters in the Jiedan stage, the gatekeepers, started to mumble. There has been a rumor in the alliance about what physicians the leader needs. What does Yang Chen mean by this? If they didn't report it, they were afraid of angering the leader. However, if they report it and the leader was to ignore it, they would be unwilling to bother the leader without cause.

Yang Chen also saw the hesitation of the two masters in the Jiedan stage and smiled and said, "It is not necessary to report to the alliance master, but any elder on duty can do it. Just a few hard-working trips, there will be thanks . "

As he talked, Yang Chen took out a middle grade spirit stone, which looked like he had a pound or two and passed it over easily. If he let others run errands, naturally they could not run for nothing.

With this piece of middle grade spirit stone, plus Yang Chen just said to tell the elder on duty instead of the leader, it immediately made the two masters in the Jiedan stage no longer under pressure. They looked at each other, one of them quickly nodded: "You wait here." Then turned and left.

After the time to drink a cup of tea, the Jiedan stage master who went quickly hurried back. After making a strange glance at Yang Chen, then he slightly bowed and made a please gesture and said loudly: "Please come with me, please!"

It took a while to become a distinguished guest. It must have surprised the Jiedan stage master. He had never heard of Yang Chen, how did he know that the Alliance needed a doctor?

Yang Chen didn't have the slightest pressure, and followed the Jiedan casually to enter the South China Sea Alliance. Even if the elder on duty was also not the brother of Bian Xuren, how could he not know the current plight of the South China Sea Alliance?

“Are you a doctor?” In the guest hall, Yang Chen met the elder on duty. What made Yang Chen strange was that the elder turned out to be a woman. For a moment, Yang Chen thought of the identity of the elder—Bian Xuren’s wife, Shu Lanqiu.

Chapter 408.2: This Is Poison Not Sickness

Speaking of which, Shu Lanqiu was the person who cares the most, because she was the sick Bian Yong’s mother. Even Bian Xuren did not have Shu Lanqiu’s condition as tight as Bian Yong. When she heard Yang Chen said that he was a doctor and sounded very confident, he was immediately brought in.

“Greetings Elder Shu.” Yang Chen didn’t directly answer Shu Lanqiu’s question, but bowed and saluted first, then straightened up and said loudly, “Yang Chen, this young man, is the proprietor of the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower and a little bit knowledgeable about it. “

“Ten Thousand Treasure Tower?” Shu Lanqiu looked at Yang Chen and sneered suddenly “Ten Thousand Treasure Tower has been bossy in my South China Sea and has been wiped out by Hidden Dragon Cave. Why are you here?”

“Naturally, I want justice for my Ten Thousand Treasure Tower storekeeper and waiter.” Yang Chen sneered at Shu Lanqiu, without any fear and directly stated his purpose.

“No matter which sect you come from, I would advise you that the South China Sea is not where you can meddle in, where you come from, or where you go back honestly.” Shu Lanqiu said lightly. Originally, she was disdainful of meeting a jeidan stage junior, but since it was a matter involving Bian Yong, she naturally has to pay more attention.

Just by looking at Shu Lanqiu for a while, she knew the name of the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower, shows how effective the South China Sea Alliance was in controlling the area. Even the excuse that the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower was destroyed by Hidden Dragon Cave was known to them.

“Is my Ten Thousand Treasure Tower really bossing the marketplace, the elder knows the truth in her heart.” Yang Chen didn’t talk back, he just said something. Under the guise of cleverly grabbing things, if the elders of the South China Sea Alliance couldn’t see what’s tricky in it, they were really too substandard.

“The strong dragon does not press the ground snake, no wonder others are there.” Shu Lanqiu smiled slightly and said nothing. Everyone’s unspoken things were meaningless when they were broken. These were all chores. Shu Lanqiu cared about whether Yang Chen could really heal Bian Yong, so she immediately changed the topic: “Mister said that you are skilled in Ancient Medical Technique(s), but is that the truth?”

“I don’t dare say that am skilled, I only know a little or two.” Yang Chen once again humbled himself. He knew that Shu Lanqiu would definitely bring the matter up.

“I have a patient in the South China Sea Alliance. I have never heard of it being spread outside, but how did you know that sir?” Shu Lanqiu listened to Yang Chen’s words, but her face slowly changed, and her speech volume increased, she became a little more skeptical.

Bian Yong was seriously ill because of an injury. After the injury was cured, the root cause of the disease fell, no matter what kind of elixir was used, it would not help. In the South China Sea Alliance, it was only known by a few high-level officials, and has been secretive, but Yang Chen could know it and it was very questionable.

“This junior is slightly familiar with the Ancient Medical Technique(s). A few years ago, it was by chance I had seen the side of the Union Master Bian from far away.” Yang Chen’s words, with a sense that made people feel scared said “At that time, the side of the Union Master Bian complexion did not seem very good. “

“So what?” Shu Lanqiu’s face became more and more gloomy. What was the relationship between seeing her husband a few years ago and finding a patient? Does it mean that you are sick if you look bad?

“At that time, it seemed that the Union Master Bian master had some slight illness.” Yang Chen, however no matter how dark Shu Lanqiu’s face became, he continued slowly, “I was not sure at first, but after seeing the elder, I became more and more proficient and sure. “

A few years ago, he saw the face of the Union Master Bian and suspected that he was ill. Now he saw the Union Master Bean’s wife. It was becoming more and more certain that the Union Master wife was also sick, how could this not make Shu Lanqiu furious.

“Dare I ask Mister, have you come to provoke me and the South China Sea Alliance?” Shu Lanqiu was furious and she stood up and slapped at the table.

“This junior’s eyes can’t be mistaken.” Yang Chen sat aside unmoved. Although Shu Lanqiu looked angry, she was still calling him Mister, which had explained a lot of problems. This little trick has not been placed in Yang Chen’s eyes.

“Mister really thinks that my husband and me also have some illness?” Shu Lanqiu saw Yang Chen’s brazen appearance, and she believed him a little. Could it be that Bian Yong’s illness was contaminated by herself and her husband, so was it how Yang Chen had seen it?

“Union Master Bian and elder issues are still a trivial matter. I am afraid that the people who are really sick are not for a day or two.” Yang Chen slowly shook his head and said this.

As soon as this word came out, Su Lanqiu’s heart became a little bit more hopeful. Bian Yong has been sick for hundreds of years, and the couple have tried their best to help him. They could only maintain their vitality by relying on the help of a few intimate brothers daily. Yang Chen judged that there was a patient just by looking at herself and Bian Xuren. This eyesight was really amazing, maybe he could really heal Bian Yong’s pain.

“It’s true, there is a patient.” Of course Shu Lanqiu would not easily let go of the life-saving straw. Since Yang Chen saw it, she immediately took advantage of the opportunity and admitted that there was a patient.

“Presumably it is a close person to the Union Master Bian and elder.” Yang Chen also did not have the joy of guessing, and said something lightly.

“The man who is said to be seriously ill is my son.” At this moment, Shu Lanqiu no longer needed to conceal, and quickly acknowledged, but immediately asked: “Sir, my son has been experiencing weakness and loss of appetite, Drowsiness, what illness is it? “

“I haven’t seen the patient so this junior can’t speak irresponsibly.” Yang Chen didn’t answer, but replied lightly.

Shu Lanqiu also scolded herself for being overzealous. If it was a common disease, a disease that could be diagnosed and treated by others as soon as it was said, how could it be only be delayed for hundreds of years without being cured, but she anxiously asked this question.

“Sorry for being irrational.” Shu Lanqiu stood up, making a respectful gesture to Yang Chen: “Please i ask Mister to come and treat the child.”

Soon, the two went to Bian Yong’s room. In addition to Bian Yong, who was struggling with a sick bed, there was a big man with eyes like electricity, staring at Yang Chen for a while. Had it not been for Shu Lanqiu who brought in Yang Chen, perhaps this big man would have attacked him immediately.

“Mister please begin to diagnose.” Shu Lanqiu asked Yang Chen once again.

Yang Chen sat in front of the patient’s bed with great caution, then glanced at the patient’s eyes, looked at the tongue coating, and diagnosed the veins on both wrists and evadd en palpated the patient and then he frowned.

“How is it?” Shu Lanqiu asked nervously. As a mother, she was more anxious than anyone.

“This is not a disease,” Yang Chen said with certainty, “this is a rare poison.”

Chapter 409.1: Hidden Dragon Cave

“Poisoning?” Not only Shu Lanqiu, but even the big man who had been listening screamed loudly.

No way, the news was so shocking that they could not accept it. For hundreds of years, everyone did not know how many doctors had been secretly found, whether they were from the secular or the cultivation world, all thought it was a rare disease and could not be treated. As soon as Yang Chen came here, he said that he was poisoned with a rare poison.

“My son is really poisoned?” The guy whispered again, and at the same time he waved his hand, wrapping up the entire room where the sickbed was located with several restrictions, so no one would hear it.

“It’s poisoning.” Yang Chen nodded heavily while sighing and said with certainty: “I’m sure this is poisoning, Union Master Bian.”

The other person called the patient my son, naturally it was Bian Xuren himself, not to mention that Yang Chen had claimed to have seen Bian Xuren before, so he was not too blind to call out the Alliance leader.

“What poison?” As soon as Bian Xuren heard that Yang Chen was determined it was poison, he suddenly became a different person, and his murderous aura covered his body “Is there a cure?”

Shu Lanqiu beside them was already crying with joy, for the first time in many years, someone gave a diagnosis with certainty. Whether it was illness or poisoning, there was always a direction to follow.

“Young master’s poison is not a big problem, at most it makes people feel weak and lethargic. It will not be fatal for a while.” Yang Chen said slowly, while organizing his own words “if it’s you two, it might be a little bit troublesome. “

“What do you mean?” Bian Xuren’s face changed for a while, his son became like this and Yang Chen said that it was all right. Instead, he and his wife, two masters of the Yuanying stage, had something wrong with them. What was it?

Yang Chen didn’t answer right away, but sniffed around for a long time and his tightly frowning brows didn’t go away. This action made Bian Xuren and his wife inexplicable. They didn’t know what happened, but nobody dared to disturb Yang Chen.

After a long while, Yang Chen looked puzzled and frowned, “This shouldn’t be!”

“What shouldn’t be?” Shu Lanqiu asked puzzledly. She now cares about her son and her husband, and it also involves herself, so she was anxious.

“The poison of your son is unique, and it is easy to solve.” Yang Chen explained patiently, “It is just that this younger generation has never figured out how the two seniors were poisoned.”

“We are also poisoned?” Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu were surprised for a while, how could that be? So far, they haven’t had any abnormal feelings. How could they be said to be poisoned?

“This junior knows that seniors don’t believe it.” Yang Chen said frankly, without going around in circle and quickly made his request: “I also asked the seniors to find a live Fire Dragon Fish, and you would know at a glance.”

It’s already at sea here, and it’s not unusual to get a live Fire Dragon Fish. Although it was a nourishing sacred product in the earthly world, it was just an ordinary thing in the South China Sea Alliance. Soon, a large tub was brought to Yang Chen with the sea fish.

After the restrictions were still set, Yang Chen got up and started to grab the Fire Dragon Fish, took out a jade bowl and stabbed the Fire Dragon Fish body with a knife, and after a while, accumulated a small bowl of Fire Dragon Fish blood.

“I also asked the predecessor to get her hands dirty, so as to get a little bit of your son’s blood.” Yang Chen was also polite and directly ordered Shu Lanqiu.

Seeing the mystery of Yang Chen, Shu Lanqiu and Bian Xuren were also a little frightened. Shu Lanqiu glanced at her husband and Bian Xuren nodded slightly, and then Shu Lanqiu went to the bed. She gently stroke on the veins of Bian Yong’s wrist, squeeze a little blood dripping into a jade cup, and then quickly repaired the small wound with spiritual power.

After Shu Lanqiu did all of this, Yang Chen started to make four portions of Fire Dragon Fish blood, divided it into four small jade bowls, then picked up the jade cup, and put a few drops of blood from Bian Yong and slowly poured into the blood of one of the Fire Dragon Fish.

Alas, a horrifying sound came out suddenly. As soon as the two bloods came into contact, white smoke erupted and snored. It took a while to stop.

When it calmed down, the red blood in the jade bowl has also become a weird liquid, which was actually dark purple. Yang Chen scooped down the gill slices from the Fire Dragon Fish head and threw them into the small jade bowl. There was another snoring sound, and the gill slices began to slowly dissolve in the purple liquid.

It was almost unnecessary for Yang Chen to say anything more. Both Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu took a breath of cold air. The blood turned out to be something that could erode bones, its toxicity was conceivable.

Immediately after, Yang Chen cut a hole in his hand and dropped it into the second jade bowl. The two kinds of blood were mixed for a long time, there was no movement, they were still so red and there was no change. Immediately, Yang Chen pushed the remaining two jade bowls in front of Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu, and made a gesture of please.

Obviously, this was Yang Chen asking them to try with their blood. The two did not hesitate to cut through the blood vessels to squeeze out a few drops of blood, which were dropped into the Fire Dragon Fish blood.

There were sounds and white smoke, but they were not violent. Compared with Bian Yong's blood, the blood reaction of the two was very slight. However, after a while, the red Fire Dragon Fish blood in the jade bowl turned into lavender.

At this moment, the faces of Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu suddenly became ugly, they were poisoned without even realizing it, which was incredible.

They couldn't believe everything happening in front of them. There was no response from Yang Chen's blood, but all three of Bian Xuren's family responded. Needless to say, there must be something wrong here.

"If the two seniors don't believe it, take a closer look at the blood of the two seniors. Some of them are already purple." Yang Chen sighed and said slowly.

The couple Bian Xuren was even more frightened. They desperately made a few drops of blood again and dropped them into the white jade bowl and they looked carefully.

At a glance, the faces of the two changed again. In their red blood, there was a little bit of light purple, which was very rare. If it was not that both were cultivators and their eyesight would be greatly increased, and they would be reminded by Yang Chen, and the contrast in the white jade bowl would be sharp, they really couldn't find it in a short period.

This has fully demonstrated that the two couples, Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu, had been poisoned without even realizing it and the two were unaware of it.

Chapter 409.2: Hidden Dragon Cave

“The poison in the young master was not a deadly poison, but once it comes into contact with something in the Fire Dragon Fish blood, it will become very poisonous,” Yang Chen explained slowly.

In fact, Yang Chen didn’t say too much, and Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu both understood what was going on. The demonstration just now has explained everything.

“The two seniors have been taking good care of the young master. The poisonous gas in the young master’s body has accumulated over the years, and they have also entered the bodies of you two.” Yang Chen continued his judgment: “Just, this younger generation has never heard of them smelling like Fire Dragon Fish blood, so I don’t understand how the two seniors were poisoned. “

Seeing Yang Chen’s confusion, Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu glanced at each other suddenly and said, “Supplementing Spirit Soup”

“Supplementing Spirit Soup? What is it?” Yang Chen suddenly felt as if he had found the answer and asked eagerly.

“This Supplementing Spirit Soup, as the name suggests, is used to nourish the spiritual awareness.” Shu Lanqiu explained heavily to Yang Chen: “Every day after sending spiritual power, I am always exhausted. You have to drink some of this Supplementing Spirit Soup. To make this Supplementing Spirit Soup, Fire Dragon Fish is used. “

Just in an instant, all three understood everything. Bian Yong was poisoned. After the Union Master Bian and other elders work hard to replenish Bian Yong’s spiritual power every day, they would drink the Supplementing Spirit Soup made from the Fire Dragon Fish.

They were only in face-to-face contact with Bian Yong. The poisonous gas attack was almost negligible. After the soup was boiled, some ingredients in the Fire Dragon Fish blood were also negligible. Maybe two meals don’t matter, but after hundreds of years of accumulation, both of them have been unknowingly exposed to this strange poison.

The ruthless part was that this poison had almost no effect in the early stage. This could be seen by Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu who haven't noticed the abnormality. If they wait until deep in age, who knows what would happen?

"Not good!" Yang Chen suddenly remembered something and hurriedly reminded them "Did other elders of the South China Sea Alliance also spend spiritual power for the young master and drink this Supplementing Spirit Soup?"

"Not good!" Bian Xuren was reminded by Yang Chen and was also shocked. In the past 100 years, each elder has spent spiritual power for Bian Yong, and even several dacheng stage elders were no exception. Almost every Individual drank some of the Supplementing Spirit Soup, and the person that poisoned Bian Yong must have figured this out before making such an arrangement.

Although it was not known who arranged such poisoning schemes, it was very obvious to target the South China Sea Alliance. This has almost wiped out the top leaders of the South China Sea Alliance. As long as the time arrives, even the enemy's hands were not required, the top leaders of the South China Sea Alliance would die as many poisonous weapons as possible. The absence of these experts in the South China Alliance would only make it a loose sand.

The more Bian Xuren thought, the more frightened and angry he was. What kind of enemy would actually make a plan that was so deep, long and even hundreds of years old to destroy the South China Sea Alliance?

"Not everyone drank the Supplementing Spirit Soup." Shu Lanqiu suddenly frowned and said with gritted teeth: "There is one person who has never drank it."

Bian Xuren froze, then his complexion became complicated. Yang Chen was on the side, but he didn't say anything, he just listened quietly, as if nothing was of concern to him.

"In my South China Sea Alliance, Elder Luo has always disliked seafood, never ate fish and shrimp, and naturally did not drink the Supplementing Spirit Soup made from a Fire Dragon Fish." Bian Xuren seemed to speak into the air when saying these words. But everyone knew that these words were said to Yang Chen.

“Maybe it’s just a coincidence.” Yang Chen knew that he couldn’t speak out of turn and he justified for Elder Luo who he had never seen before: “It’s not a big crime to not eat seafood.”

It’s not that Yang Chen’s character was good and he has to say good things for others. It was really the friendship of other people for hundreds of years. They just saw Yang Chen for the first time. If he talked badly, who knew what others would think, simply be a good person and think of people for the benefit. Even if Bian Xuren didn’t want to think that way, it had nothing to do with Yang Chen.

“Elder Luo wanted to have a relationship with the dao sects in the Central Plains.” Bian Xuren smiled and did not hide anything from Yang Chen who he met for the first time, but said by himself: “is it really a coincidence ! “

Hearing what Bian Xuren said, Yang Chen’s heart sank for a moment. How could this hundreds of years of arrangement be so similar to the Greatest Heaven Sect’s plot in the Pure Yang Palace? Hidden Dragon Cave was the minion of the Greatest Heaven Sect, was there a shadow of Hidden Dragon Cave in it?

“Sir, I don’t know if this poison can be cured?” Shu Lanqiu has always been concerned about whether her son could be saved, and now she was more concerned about whether her husband and herself could be saved, so after Bian Xuren has vented, she immediately asked Yang Chen.

“If the poisoning day is deep, there is no way for even a Great Principle Golden Immortal to do anything about it.” Yang Chen sent Shu Lanqiu directly into the abyss, but immediately pulled her from the abyss to the sky: “But now the poisoning is not deep, but it is difficult, as long as you find a few herbs, you can detoxify after refining it. As for young master, it is even simpler. The same herbs can be used without refining. “

“What kind of medicinal herbs, as long as the gentleman can say it, even if it is under a mountain of swords and in the sea of fire, the South China Sea Alliance will be able to find it for you.” Shu Lanqiu was really excited. Yang Chen could not only cure his husband and himself, but also her son, was there anything more enjoyable than that?

“It is not necessary to go down the mountain and the sea of fire. The medicinal materials are not too rare. In the Central Plains, it is easy to find.” Yang Chen waved with a smile: “my Ten Thousand Treasure Tower Branch had it, but unfortunately, the branch was destroyed by the Hidden Dragon Cave, killing and stealing the goods. “

When Yang Chen talked about the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower, Shu Lanqiu remembered what happened to Yang Chen. Yang Chen helped them so much. Whenever possible, the South China Sea Alliance also had to come forward and put pressure on the Hidden Dragon Cave.

When she was just about to tell Yang Chen, Shu Lanqiu's face changed a little, turned to her husband Bian Xuren and quietly said "Elder Luo also made good friends with the people of the Hidden Dragon Cave, and Hidden Dragon Cave was willing to join the central plains dao sects, the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower, had medicinal materials for treatment. It happened that the branch of Ten Thousand Treasure Tower was destroyed by Hidden Dragon Cave. Is it a coincidence! "

"Sir, if the medicinal materials are taken alone without any refining, is it effective?" Shu Lanqiu seemed to think of it and asked Yang Chen again.

"Of course, it is impossible to completely detoxify, but it can offset a lot of toxicity." Yang Chen answered.

"Okay! Good!" Bian Xuren also figured out a lot of things, he could not help but even say two good words "What an Elder Luo, what a Hidden Dragon Cave cave!"

Chapter 410.1: We Are Not Here To Be Reasonable

When a thing is rare, it becomes precious. The specialties of the monster race could earn a lot of money when they get to the central plains dao sects. Similarly, the specialties of the Central Plains could also make a lot of money when they get to this island in the South China Sea.

The Ten Thousand Treasure Tower's branch in the South China Sea had this idea. Shangguan Feng was not just a simple businessman, but has reached the realm of pursuing profit maximization.

Based on this reason, the price of some things in the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower branch could definitely make people jealous. The Hidden Dragon Cave's move against the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower branch was not necessarily a matter of wealth.

However, now with Shu Lanqiu's analysis, the purpose of the Hidden Dragon Cave against the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower branch has changed dramatically. At least in the hearts of the leaders and couples of the South China Sea Alliance, that was definitely a conspiracy.

“Mr. Yang, you can rest assured, we will help the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower branch get justice!” After hearing from Shu Lanqiu about Yang Chen’s intention in meeting with the South China Sea Alliance, Bian Xuren patted his breast and promised.

He was not kidding, his son and his wife, the senior members of the South China Sea Alliance lives were in the hands of Yang Chen, not to mention sacrificing a hidden dragon cave that was hostile to the South China Sea Alliance. Even if they let the other sea alliances in the South China Sea fight at the same time, they would not hesitate to make a challenge.

“I dare not ask you to do so. It is the grudges between the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower and the Hidden Dragon Cave. Naturally, it is between my Ten Thousand Treasure Tower and the Hidden Dragon Cave to resolve them.” Yang Chen did not want the South China Sea Alliance to intervene. Once the South China Sea Alliance intervened, not to mention that they would not kill the Hidden Dragon Cave, it would be delayed for some time, it was estimated that Yang Chen does not want to see it.

Especially the group of people who came with Yang Chen came with the purpose of killing and setting fire with Yang Chen. They really wanted to release their frustrations. There was no need to mention others, it’s estimated that She Kui and Xie Sha would be seriously dissatisfied, let alone that it seems to have been how long Hou Yun has been suppressing himself.

“Here is my South China Sea Alliance, how can I let mister do it by himself?” Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu were strongly discouraged and must take matters into their own hands.

It’s not that they have to take the initiative. Yang Chen was now valued by the top of the South China Sea Alliance. He was a small master in the Jiedan stage, and if he argues with the Hidden Dragon Cave, which has several masters in the Yuanying stage. Not to mention the outcome, once Yang Chen was injured wouldn’t the hope of the South China Sea Alliance be lost? In any case, they couldn’t let Yang Chen do it himself.

“I don’t dare bother the South China Sea Alliance, as long as the leader can uphold justice then I wait to resolve my grievances.” Yang Chen has made up his mind. Anyway, as long as the South China Sea Alliance was in its early stages, it proves to itself that Ten Thousand Treasure Tower has occupied the truth. Naturally there was a group of killing stars to solve.

Bian Xuren and his wife discouraged him for a long time, but Yang Chen was determined about this. There was no way to stop him, and the two could only make concessions. The South China Sea Alliance would absolutely cooperate with the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower. Whatever they needed would be provided by the South China Sea Alliance.

Yang Chen was not an empty talker. He has directly reconstituted a medicinal pill from his existing medicinal materials, but it could only temporarily restrain the toxicity of Bian Yong and allow Bian Yong to maintain a normal life for a month.

The Bian Xuren couple also had no doubt and gave Bian Yong the medicine. Less than half a day later, Bian Yong, who had been lying on the sick bed with weakness and incapable of action, immediately recovered his strength.

Bian Yong originally had the Jiedan stage cultivation base. For the past 100 years, Yuanying and dacheng stage masters have been injecting spiritual power into him. After a long period of time, his cultivation has risen without falling, but has faintly reached the breakthrough edge. He believed that as long as the toxicity in his body was completely removed, it was estimated that he could reach the Yuanying stage.

This time, it surprised the couple. For hundreds of years, they have only maintained their son's longevity and now they suddenly saw their son standing in front of them, calling his father and mother. At this moment, both of them seem to be in a dream.

In particular, Bian Yong's cultivation base has reached the peak of the Jiedan stage and he was facing a breakthrough immediately. This was absolutely what made the Bian Xuren couple feel like winning a big lottery with a prize pool of 100 million yuan and they were so happy that they didn't know how to celebrate.

Bian Yong was paralyzed for more than a hundred years, and he lived a life that was worse than death. Today, Yang Chen gave him a medicinal pill and he immediately became no different from normal people. Bian Yong heard the words clearly on the sickbed. Bian Yong used to think he was ill, but now he knows that he was secretly poisoned by others, and it turned out to be through his body, it was spreading to the top of the entire South China Sea Alliance.

For a moment, Bian Yong's anger was almost impossible to contain. He heard that Yang Chen was going to deal with the Hidden Dragon Cave, and even planned to join hands with Yang Chen. After all, it was discouraged by Bian Xuren and his wife, but they still promised Yang Chen that they would go through fire or water for him if necessary.

Yang Chen could have eliminated the hidden dangers of the South China Sea Alliance in one fell swoop, but Yang Chen still kept his hand, but first rescued Bing Yong and said that he did not have a complete set of medicinal materials. This also forced the South China Sea Alliance to do its best to help Yang Chen, instead of turning a blind eye after the possible hidden dangers were resolved.

Next, the South China Sea Alliance must be communicating at a high level. At least those things that Bian Xuren and Shu Lanqiu analyzed just need to be known by their brothers. Of course, the suspected Elder Luo would definitely have a very tragic end. There was no way that everything that happened with him was coincidental.

With the lesson learned from the Pure Yang Palace, Yang Chen was almost sure that Elder Luo was a secret spy of the Greatest Heaven Sect. If there was a problem with the senior officials of the South China Sea Alliance, Elder Luo would be in control. Then, with the great achievements of annexing the Hidden Dragon Cave, he could soon stabilize the entire South China Sea Alliance. At that time, the rogue cultivators in the South China Sea would also be placed under the power of the Greatest Heaven Sect.

Everything was a good plan, but unfortunately they met Yang Chen. These people should never have destroyed the branch and killed some Pure Yang Palace disciples and attracted Yang Chen and a group of evil stars.

Now, a group of evil stars headed by Yang Chen was on the sea not far from the Hidden Dragon Cave. Gongsun Ling's ship floated quietly on the sea, and everyone was in the cabin, drinking silently.

The crowds from the Pure Yang Palace were ready, and now they were waiting for the South China Sea Alliance people to arrive to surround them, so that Yang Chen and the others would not make an omission and have a fish that leaks from the net. With the help of the South China Sea Alliance, this time the Hidden Dragon Cave couldn't escape.

"Seniors, this time, we are not here to make sense with the Hidden Dragon Cave." Yang Chen looked at the time which was almost over, and said to some masters who were already eager to start "The blood of disciples of the sect cannot flow in vain, there is nothing remaining of the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower branch, so the Hidden Dragon Cave also cannot leave alive. "

Chapter 410.2: We Are Not Here To Be Reasonable

When the Hidden Dragon Cave attacked the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower branch, it was also unreasonable. After the killing and overstocking were completed, it was announced that it was the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower who was bullying and the Hidden Dragon Cave presided over justice. Anyway, it was fairly accomplished. Who outside of the South China Sea would fight for a rootless and unmanageable Ten Thousand Treasure Tower?

Even if the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower was just a branch here and they might have some links outside, but what about it? This was the South China Sea, and the Hidden Dragon Cave was the ground snake. This Ten Thousand Treasure Tower was not a big sect's shop. Who would offend the ground snake in the South China Sea for the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower?

With a high reward, this was possible. However, since it was a business, it was necessary to calculate costs and benefits, to deal with the Hidden Dragon Cave, a foreign powerhouse, what kind of price do these masters need to pay? A small Ten Thousand Treasure Tower was not so rich.

It was precisely because of this that the Hidden Dragon Cave could attack with a peace of mind and not even inquire about the background of the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower. Even the shopkeeper was just a small fry in the foundation stage. They destroyed it with no psychological burden.

However, the people in the Hidden Dragon Cave had no idea what a terrifying force was behind this little character in their eyes. Therefore, when a group of evil stars from the Pure Yang Palace appeared around several islands in the Hidden Dragon Cave, many people did not even know what was going on.

The terrifying attack began in an instant, the ten Yuanying stage masters did not give any warning, and each of them automatically used their treasure to enter the hidden dragon cave. Wherever they went, those children of the Hidden Dragon Caves were all dead and wounded.

Yang Chen has said that there was no need to keep anyone alive, the ten monster ancestors who followed Yang Chen originally followed Yang Chen to kill people. Why would they consider keeping anyone alive, they would have a good time in the periphery of the Hidden Dragon Cave, pitiful and sad screams suddenly sounded.

This was a rogue cultivators alliance, not a formal sect, and was relatively loose in structure. In terms of inheritance, it was even more impure, there was no systematic inheritance and almost everyone cultivated differently.

Except for the upper level of the Hidden Dragon Cave, which has the Greatest Heaven Sect's support and those advanced cultivation methods, most of them were obtained from various places. The low level rogue cultivators were up against fierce Yuanying stage monster cultivators, the result was not hard to imagine.

The monster cultivators, when they kill, no matter what, it looks good and decent, plus this time Yang Chen was intentionally standing up and there was no scruples on everyone's hands.

As soon as they got started, they used the most brutal trick. A cultivator may just use a flying sword to penetrate the heart, but these guys just come up and tear people into pieces.

At the moment when the attack was not half a column of incense old, on the islands of the Hidden Dragon Cave, there were countless stumps and broken arms on the periphery, internal organs were lying on the ground, and blood flowed away. When timid people come here, they would definitely think that they had reached the blood sea slaughterhouse, not a place of cultivation.

As for the old tree demon avatar and Hou Yun, they still disdain to attack some guys in the qi refinery stage, foundation stage and jidan stage. These were the cannon fodder that made She Kui and Xie Sha and the others let out their anger.

"Who dares to act unruly in my Hidden Dragon Cave?" Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling's ship slowly arrived at the edge of the main island of the Hidden Dragon Cave, and heard someone yelling loudly. But then, there was a scream of screams, and then no one dared to shout loudly.

"Yang Chen, not leaving anyone alive, wouldn't it be too much?" Gongsun Ling listened to the stern voice, looked at the flesh covered on the ground not far away and asked suddenly.

After all, Gongsun Ling was still a woman who has not been tempered in the killing field. Compared with Shi Shanshan's character who doesn't mind killing, she would always feel a little softhearted when seeing such a cruel scene.

"When they killed our people, the treasurer of the Ten Thousand Treasure Tower, they didn't feel too much." Yang Chen turned his head and said. If Gongsun Ling thought this way every time, Yang Chen was worried about whether she could survive the disaster in the future.

“I mean, for those high-level masters, if we leave them, perhaps there may be a few more free slaves in my mountain river geographical map.” Gongsun Ling explained with a smile.

Now Gongsun Ling has called the guys she has taken into the mountain river geographical map as slaves. In fact, those people do slave work, but they don’t know it yet.

Gongsun Ling’s words also meant that Yang Chen’s worry was not necessary at all. The Gongsun Ling of this life was no longer the Gongsun Ling of the previous life.

“Relax, there will be opportunities in the future.” After confirming that Gongsun Ling was not having the kind of character that Yang Chen should be worried about, Yang Chen smiled and comforted. Looking at the tragic situation of the disciples of the Hidden Dragon Cave on the island, his heart seemed to have returned to that of his previous life.

How were there ten Yuanying stage masters besieging the Hidden Dragon Cave and how similar were they to the previous eight Yuanying stage masters besieging the Pure Yang Palace? In the past, his master sent Yang Chen away from the siege to avoid being implicated. The memories of his previous lives seem to torture Yang Chen’s heart and now he finally released some.

In Yang Chen’s heart, he never had the concept of not giving others away. These were the blood debts owed by the Greatest Heaven Sect in his previous lives. In this life, he could only use more blood to pay them and there was no other possibility.

The pitiful screams continued one after another and Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling had stowed the ship and boarded the island. The avatar of the old tree demon and Hou Yun also followed as Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling slowly walked along the island’s road a little into the center of the Hidden Dragon Cave.

The four were barely held back, and their bodies were fragmented along the way. The main attacker of this island was Xun Kui and Xie Sha. The two murderous guys did not know how many lives were collected when they were in the deserted valley. Here, on the instructions of Yang Chen, they showed their fierce wildness.

Finally, the screams were no longer heard, but the sound of the attack was louder, and the rumbling rumours spread far and wide. You don’t need to ask, you know, this was a great enemy. This was the main island of the Hidden Dragon Cave. It was inevitable that there were masters here.

Numerous warnings were sent out, and the Hidden Dragon Cave was like a beast that had been deeply stabbed at this moment, finally reacted and began to organize a counterattack.

In the distant sky, dozens of streams of light flashed out. It was exactly the figures of flying swords flying towards the main island of the Hidden Dragon Cave. Obviously, this was the masters who were out or those who have a good relationship with the Hidden Dragon Cave coming to help.

In the hands of Hou Yun, it was not known when a glittering stick appeared. He flew into the air in the middle of the sky and raised the thick and scary stick high, facing him at dozens of lanes. The streamers that flew over were smashed down.

After the sound of thunder, like a thunderbolt, Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling suddenly saw more than a dozen human-shaped pits on the ground. There were a few groaning sounds in the pit.
