Chapter 491.1: Changes Of Shi Shanshan

Guan Zhenyao's almost invincible dumb aunt was not much better than Yang Chen, her swollen body kept backing, while backing away, blood spurted wildly from her mouth.

After retreating more than a dozen steps in a row, Ya Gupo's legs and feet were no longer able to keep up with the retreat momentum brought by Yang Chen's punch. She couldn't get enough of it and she immediately fell to the ground.

But the body didn't stop because the dumb aunt fell to the ground, she still maintained her inertia, sliding fast towards the back. After sliding on the ground continuously for a distance of about several meters, it stopped.

The ground where the dumb aunt glided across, leaving behind a series of blood stains. The red traces continued for several feet long, which was shocking to see.

How could that be? The first thought that appeared in Guan Zhenyao's mind was that it was impossible. How could such a thing happen? Ya Gupo was a master in the dacheng stage, and Yang Chen was just a junior in the early Yuanying stage. How could the two have such an effect when fighting?

Although Yang Chen was also beaten into the air, she couldn't see the appearance of injury at all, and he even flew back as a way to relieve his strength.

But the dacheng stage master Ya Gupo who punched Yang Chen, who once repelled the two dacheng stage masters with a stick, was hit by Yang Chen until she vomited blood.

Not only that, after falling to the ground, Ya Gupo seemed to have no other actions except vomiting blood. Until now, she still lay still on the ground and didn't move as if she was in a coma.

Guan Zhenyao's head banged and she became dizzy, she was already terrified by the scene before her. Her carefully arranged formation was destroyed by a few swords lights from Yang Chen and even her dumb aunt, who was the last to rely on, was beaten to death by a punch. How could this happen?

Guan Zhenyao was dizzy here, but it doesn't mean that Shi Shanshan and the others were also dizzy. This woman actually had a murderous heart because Shi Shanshan had better aptitude than her. Today, she wanted to kill everyone, how could the girls let her go?

When Guan Zhenyao awoke from the shock, she immediately discovered that she had fallen into the siege of the four women. But Yang Chen had already walked to Ya Gupo's side, looking down at the situation of Ya Gupo.

Seeing this situation, Guan Zhenyao was determined. She was in the late Yuanying stage, but the girls were all in the early Yuanying stage. As long as it wasn't Yang Chen who could knock the dacheng stage masters out with a terrifying punch, she doesn't have these early Yuanying stage ancestors in her eyes. Even if she may not be able to kill the four women quickly, there was still no problem in running away alone.

"Huh, four on one, you think I would be afraid?" Guan Zhenyao was now certain that Yang Chen had no plans to intervene. He had already sat down on the side of the dumb aunt, and put an unknown pill into the dumb aunt mouth. If Yang Chen did it, Guan Zhenyao would really not dare to be so talkative.

Shi Shanshan shook her head slightly at the other three women, who all walked away silently, but still surrounded Guan Zhenyao in a vaguely small circle on the outside.

"Four on one? You really value yourself." Shi Shanshan shook her head contemptuously in the face of Guan Zhenyao who was waiting for her. The tone of her speech was exactly the same as when Yang Chen unlocked her heart devil.

She was facing Guan Zhenyao who was in the late Yuanying stage, but Shi Shanshan was not afraid at all, on the contrary, there was a sense of excitement in her heart. This feeling was like the impulsive feeling of eagerness to try when she had to face a touchstone after meticulous preparation for a long time.

Yes, in Shi Shanshan's mind, Guan Zhenyao appeared at the right time. Not long ago, Shi Shanshan resumed her cultivation and was promoted to the Yuanying stage, and then honed herself in the secret plane formation for almost a full year. The next step was to accompany Yang Chen to dual cultivate and listen to Yang Chen's analysis of her own deficiencies and mood in the battle. It took almost ten years to adjust and consolidate the defects.

During these ten years, although there was a delay in tempering her life source magic weapon, most of the time, for Shi Shanshan, it was the best time to cultivate. Even in the Green Jade Immortal Island, under the guidance of the sect master and the seniors, it seems that the effect of cultivating with Yang Chen was much better.

The few people with innate spiritual roots in the Green Jade Immortal island history have already ascended, and they were not a metal attribute cultivator in the sect anymore. The guidance of the elders was only to teach Shi Shanshan their cultivation experience, but this may not be completely suitable for her.

Many things, for people with insufficient qualifications, are much more difficult to cultivate, and they could only be achieved after thousands of times. But for people with good aptitude, it may be a natural and easy thing. Sometimes, it was extremely difficult to say a simple thing in vain to give Shi Shanshan a crooked road, and have to spend more time making it back.

But with Yang Chen here, there was no such problem at all. In the Heavenly Court, Yang Chen didn't know how many talents with excellent qualifications he had met. For Shi Shanshan, their past experience was simply a broad road. What's more, many directions were directly explained by Yang Chen based on the achievements of Shi Shanshan in the previous life, without Shi Shanshan not knowing how many twists and turns.

Under Yang Chen's guidance, Shi Shanshan was a completely reborn person. Only then did she realize how many detours she had taken in her cultivation before.

Naturally, Yang Chen's performance also convinced Shi Shanshan. The incomparably glamorous fairy, in front of this enchanting husband in her own family, completely lowered her arrogant head. Even between the beds, Yang Chen enjoyed a different taste that Yang Chen couldn't even imagine.

Shi Shanshan, who had reached the ultimate level of cultivation, was feeling itchy hands, and Guan Zhenyao immediately came to text her, was there anything more wonderful than this?

For Shi Shanshan and Guan Zhenyao's heads-up, the other three girls did not dare to be careless, for fear that Shi Shanshan would suffer a big loss. Although everyone would sometimes divide into two small groups to fight for favor in front of Yang Chen intentionally or unintentionally, they were the same externally. While staring at Shi Shanshan and Guan Zhenyao, they also paid attention to what Yang Chen was doing.

Yang Chen seemed to have never had any worries, taking care of the dumb aunt with great ease. This was Guan Zhenyao's plot, but the dumb aunt who was indirectly controlled by Guan Zhenyao was innocent. Fortunately, Yang Chen's punch didn't use his full strength, otherwise, he could beat the dumb aunt into mash.

Shi Shanshan not only possessed the spiritual awareness of the dacheng stage, but also cultivated the seventh metal true secret art and doubled cultivated with Yang Chen, even if Guan Zhenyao was twice as powerful, it was impossible to be like Shi Shanshan before entering the dacheng stage.

Chapter 491.2: Changes Of Shi Shanshan

The result of the battle was as expected by Yang Chen, even if Guan Zhenyao's cultivation was already at the pinnacle of the Yuanying stage, even if she had already possessed her life source flying sword, she still couldn't amount to anything in front of Shi Shanshan.

Shi Shanshan's combat effectiveness was fully demonstrated in this battle. The unprecedented strength also shocked Shi Shanshan herself. The more handy she was in the battle, the more Shi Shanshan admired her husband's instructions. Otherwise, at this time when Shi Shanshan met Guan Zhenyao, it seemed that she could only escape, her life may be saved, but she was definitely not her opponent.

The battle lasted for a while, at least Yang Chen had already taken care of the mute aunt and took the medicine. He sat there with a tea set and made a pot of good tea. After drinking with the other three women, the battle was over.

Guan Zhenyao was lifted limply by Shi Shanshan and she came to the crowd. At this moment, Guan Zhenyao, without the arrogant posture she had before, was held in hand by Shi Shanshan, her face turned gray, like a fool.

After she used all the methods she had, Shi Shanshan cracked them one by one, and then went straight to to capture her. During this period, Shi Shanshan's extraordinary combat effectiveness has caused Guan Zhenyao to completely lose the confidence to fight Shi Shanshan.

“She is a member of my sect anyway, I want to keep her alive.” Shi Shanshan faced Yang Chen and the girls with a rare soft expression, with a little pleading, no longer the performance of the glamorous fairy.

Guan Zhenyao wanted to kill everyone, so naturally everyone wouldn't let her go easily. But just let it go, it doesn't seem to be justified. That's why Shi Shanshan begged everyone in this way.

Especially Yang Chen, Shi Shanshan's eyes were always looking at Yang Chen. Although Yang Chen didn't seem to be so bloodthirsty before, she has a better understanding of Yang Chen's character after living with Yang Chen for decades, especially in recent years. Although Yang Chen had never killed a single person, the murderous intent in his heart could not be hidden from the person beside him.

“A'Ling has gotten something good again by coming here.” Regarding Shi Shanshan's pleading eyes, Yang Chen just smiled faintly and gave Shi Shanshan an answer. It could be considered to have agreed with Shi Shanshan.

Shi Shanshan was overjoyed in time, and the tenderness in her eyes almost made Yang Chen directly lost. Who would have imagined that the cold plum fairy would show such an expression to someone in her previous life?

Guan Zhenyao was not dead, but she was not much better. Although you could cultivate freely in the mountain river geographical map, you are trapped in the world of others for life and could no longer escape. This result satisfies the girls and also prevents Shi Shanshan from being charged with the crime of fratricide, even though Guan Zhenyao came to attack her first.

“The battle just now was very good!” Guan Zhenyao was dealt with. Yang Chen stretched out his hand and handed Shi Shanshan a cup of fragrant tea “This is just brewed, and the heat is just right.”

Was there anything more wonderful than just fighting with all her strength and receiving a cup of her favorite tea from her husband immediately after the victory? At least Shi Shanshan hadn't encountered it before. After enjoying the small cup of pottery tea full of seventh metal true essence, Shi Shanshan suddenly felt relaxed and indescribable.

“Ya Gupo is okay?” Shi Shanshan asked about aunt dumb after enjoying her tea. She knew that her husband also considered that she would still have a foothold in the sect, so he didn't kill Ya Gupo.

As for why Shi Shanshan had no doubt that Yang Chen could kill Ya Gupo who was in the dacheng stage, this was purely a tacit understanding between husband and wife. Needless to say, Shi Shanshan also had this confidence.

“She can still be saved.” Yang Chen directly gave Shi Shanshan an answer that made her feel relieved: “The injuries that were previously devastated may also be healed.”

“Really?” Shi Shanshan couldn’t believe her ears. Ya Gupo’s injury has been seen by many experts in the sect, and even some experts in other sects have diagnosed her. Almost everyone agrees that there was basically no hope of recovery. Yang Chen actually said that she could be cured, why wouldn’t Shi Shanshan be overjoyed?

Back then, Ya Gupo was not dumb and became a demon, she was definitely a promising master in the Green Jade Immortal Island. Even with the exception of those great elders, there was no one in the Green Jade Immortal Island who could be compared with Ya Gupo. If it weren’t for the madness, there might be one more great elder in the Green Jade Immortal Island now.

But now the dumb aunt could only be reduced to a puppet-like situation where she has almost no consciousness of her own, and was freely controlled by Guan Zhenyao. The depravity of the dignified dacheng stage master made countless people sigh with grief.

Yang Chen’s words sounded better than any sweet words in Shi Shanshan’s ears. In these days with Yang Chen, Shi Shanshan has thoroughly understood that the sect could hardly give her any more guidance, it was almost equivalent to her leaving the sect. But in her heart, Shi Shanshan still has deep feelings for her sect.

If the dumb aunt could be cured, it was definitely a major event that would excite the entire Green Jade Immortal Island. How could Shi Shanshan, a loyal disciple of the Green Jade Immortal Island, not be overjoyed?

“Maybe we should go to the Green Jade Immortal Island for a while.” Yang Chen nodded and said with a smile “After finishing these things, we will go to the Demon Continent.”

Going to the Demon Continent to train has always been the goal that Yang Chen and the girls had agreed upon long ago. Upon hearing this, the girls were all excited, they also had some expectations for this. After experiencing these things in the Dao Sect of the Central Plains, maybe the killing of the Demon Continent would make them more moody.

Ya Gupo just sustained her injury and remained unconscious, but Yang Chen did not heal her. Who knows if she would fight with Yang Chen as soon as she wakes up now, and many things have to wait for Shi Shanshan and the people of the Green Jade Immortal Island to clarify before they could do it, otherwise Yang Chen couldn't control her.

After cleaning up, the group headed straight to the Green Jade Immortal Island in the East China Sea. The harvest this time was beyond everyone's expectations, especially Yang Chen, who would never have imagined that there was such a good thing as the ninth water spiritual solution in this secret plane. There was also an Immortal body, which was even more of a miracle.

Speaking of the secret plane, Yang Chen suddenly came up with an idea. The last time the Greatest Heaven Sect's consciousness clone came to tell them the location and danger of the secret plane, it would be great to tell Li Liheng the "good news" next time he contacted Li Liheng, which would make the Greatest Heaven Sect happy.

He believed that the expressions of the senior officials of the Greatest Heaven Sect would be very exciting.

Chapter 492.1: Ya Gupo's Recovery

When everyone rushed to the Green Jade Immortal Island, it was already half a year later until they arrived. It's far from the Green Jade Immortal Island, even Yang Chen's flying shuttle took six months to reach.

Shi Shanshan didn't conceal anything about Guan Zhenyao in front of the people in the sect. Except for the final disposition, everything else was explained.

Of course, Shi Shanshan wouldn't say that Yang Chen put the dumb aunt down with one punch, only that the few people desperately blocked the dumb aunt. After Shi Shanshan overpowered Guan Zhenyao, the dumb aunt stopped her hands. As for the injury of the dumb aunt, it was just an accident.

Anyway, everyone knew that Yang Chen has a very powerful defensive weapon, and it was normal for a few people to work together to block the attack of the dumb aunt. On the contrary, Shi Shanshan subdued Guan Zhenyao by herself, making all the high-level officials look at her with admiration.

The existence of the dumb aunt proved Shi Shanshan's statement, at least half of it. No one in the sect knew that Ya Gupo had been taken outside by Guan Zhenyao and asked to kill. From this point of view, Guan Zhenyao was very suspicious.

Guan Zhenyao was also the focus of the sect, but just as Guan Zhenyao herself said, after Shi Shanshan appeared, the sect allocated some resources to support Shanshan. It was precisely because of this that Guan Zhenyao felt that Shi Shanshan had robbed her of her position in the sect, and that was the way she would do it.

In fact, Guan Zhenyao entered the Yuanying stage much earlier than Shi Shanshan, and was stuck at the peak Yuanying stage and couldn't break through it, because there was a problem in her mentality, and there were some things that she couldn't see. Now everyone was thinking about it, but it turns out to be entangled in this, which really made them speechless.

The Green Jade Immortal Island attaches great importance to every genius disciple. In fact, they don't give much preference to one or a few, but some people don't see the big picture and always think that their own things have been taken away. Such a person could only cultivate to the peak Yuanying stage at most, how could the dacheng stage be possible if the mentality of the person does not grow?

Speaking of which, the disappearance and death of several genius disciples in the Green Jade Immortal Island may also be due to Guan Zhenyao. These could be determined by investigating Guan Zhenyao's whereabouts when the accident happened.

Murdering the same sect member was a serious sin in any sect. If the sect allows this to happen, it wouldn't be far away from falling apart. Of course, some small discords are inevitable, but after all, they can't make it to the point of life and death.

"Can Ya Gupo injury be treated?" The senior elders of the Green Jade Immortal Island did not hold much accountability for Zhenyao's affairs. However, when Shi Shanshan said that Yang Chen could heal Ya Gupo, all the senior officials were surprised and then ecstasy.

Ya Gupo's combat effectiveness, except for those great elders, ranks firmly in the forefront of all dacheng stage masters in the Green Jade Immortal Island. This was not a boast, but a real fact.

Every dacheng stage master in the Green Jade Immortal Island has fought against the dumb aunt. However, no one could beat the dumb aunt in a fight. It's a pity that the dumb aunt doesn't have much sanity. In most cases, she only reacts to killing intent. At other times, she doesn't take the initiative to fight at all. People in the Green Jade Immortal Island have always regretted it.

They don't know what method Guan Zhenyao used to let the dumb aunt listen to her command and kill people for Guan Zhenyao. Guan Zhenyao's actions have already caused public outrage. But Ya Gupo was innocent, she was just a poor worm who was involved, and a poor worm with strong fighting power.

Now Yang Chen actually said that he could cure the dumb aunt, and everyone was overjoyed for a while. Once the dumb aunt recovered, it would be no less than the addition of two dacheng stage masters in the Green Jade Immortal Island. You know, even if two masters in the middle dacheng stage joined forces, they were not as powerful as Ya Gupo.

"Can she really be cured?" The island master didn't believe it in general, and asked again.

"I am 80% certain." Yang Chen had already diagnosed the dumb aunt on the road in detail, and the answer to this was that he was not 100% sure. But some things must be stated clearly in advance, so as not to ask for trouble after finding the problem "Of course, it may also fail."

"If you fail, what will be the consequences?" The Island Master looked at the dumb aunt who was still very weak, and asked with some worry.

"The consequence of the failure is that she may become even more mad." Yang Chen answered truthfully "And it is very likely that she will never be so peaceful again, she will attack anyone she sees."

In this way, the consequences would be quite serious. Ya Gupo who has gone crazy and burned her mind and turned into an idiot could be said to be safe normally, but once she wants to kill someone, there was no one in the Green Jade Immortal Island who could stop the dumb aunt. This was the Immortal island of the Green Jade Immortal Island, once the dumb aunt goes crazy, it was estimated that it would be in ruins within a thousand miles.

“It’s a big matter, I take the liberty to ask, what is the matter with Ya Gupo’s injury?” The island master was also unable to make a decision at once. As for the other elders, they were also pondering. As a last resort, the Island master could only obtain more information from Yang Chen for judgment.

“To put it bluntly, the root cause is still cultivation deviation.” Yang Chen saying this sentence was equivalent to not saying the same. The few Green Jade Immortal Island elders who heard this couldn’t help but roll their eyes. Who wouldn’t say such a thing?

“Actually, If I knew the life of Ya Gupo, I could probably know why she became crazy.” Yang Chen’s words immediately attracted everyone’s interest. It was also very good for them to be able to understand the reason why an expert has become crazy. It could at least allow them to avoid problems in their cultivation in the future due to the same reason.

“The root cause of Ya Gupo deviation lies in her invincibility.” Yang Chen’s words slowly sounded out “From the time when Ya Gupo was promoted to dacheng stage, there has never been a defeat in all the battles that she has experienced, this also led to dumbness. She didn’t put anything in her sight, her perverted character which doesn’t put the world in her eyes.”

“This is the fundamental reason. Ya Gupo thinks she is invincible in the world, so she has no scruples when she is cultivating, so she went crazy.” Yang Chen’s words were not fast, and everyone heard it clearly.

Yang Chen’s words were also relatively subtle, but everyone has already understood. Ya Gupo thought that she was invincible, so she has been unable to improve her mental cultivation level. The result of forced cultivation was the consequence of her insanity. Being arrogant, and always believing in herself, was why there was such an ending.

“Then how can it be cured?” The island master was speechless for a while, then asked softly.

Chapter 492.2: Ya Gupo’s Recovery

“It’s actually very simple.” Yang Chen smiled, and in the eyes of everyone, he slowly said “Defeat her and let her know that she is not invincible.”

Everyone present was stunned. Everyone looked at each other, they all fell into silence.

Defeating the dumb aunt was no easy matter, and if they could defeat her, why would they still have to wait until now? In hundreds of years, no one could do it, even when the dumb aunt has lost her sanity.

Yang Chen's four wives were now in a daze. Now that the reason for Ya Gupo's delusion has been found, Yang Chen has actually cured Ya Gupo's madness, but because he has not negotiated with the Green Jade Immortal Island, he has not yet treated her injuries.

A punch to Ya Gupo who vomited blood, and he was unscathed, wasn't it a defeat of the dumb aunt? There was no need to say anything about this. What they saw with their own eyes still happened because of their husband, making the four women truly proud.

Unfortunately, this kind of pride could only be known to the four of them, and cannot be said to others. To let others know that Yang Chen defeated the Green Jade Immortal Island's best combat power besides the Greatest Heaven Sect with one punch alone, it was not known how many people would go crazy.

Their husbands and them also know that they are not so casual and high-profile people. Although he was now the only fifth-grade alchemist in the world, he was already very high-profile, but the more trump cards he has, the better.

"Ya Gupo has become like this, it's been three hundred years, right?" The island master did not directly make a decision, but said this sentence in a nostalgic tone.

The question made the surrounding elders sigh. The dumb aunt, who was so powerful at the time, was now an idiot who can't speak. How big was the contrast? People can't help but sigh.

"It's been more than three hundred years!" One of the elders also replied with some nostalgia.

"Instead of living like this, I think it would be better if she died." The Island master followed the elder's words and said again. Everyone present was an expert and they nodded sadly.

"Let the great elder prepare to fight her. If it doesn't work, let Ya Gupo go!" The island master finally made a decision, which was also a somewhat cruel decision "Let her go easily."

Obviously, this was the island master's agreement to allow Yang Chen to treat her. Even the consequences of failure have been considered, and the great elder has been arranged to fight her. Except for the great elder, no one else could deal with the dumb aunt.

As for Yang Chen's words, no one doubted it at all. Everyone believed that since he said he was 80% sure to cure the dumb aunt, then he must have such a high degree of certainty. If he said that there would be any possible consequences after failure, and there must be such consequences.

Yang Chen also declined the island master who was about to discuss reward with him at the beginning. This was Shi Shanshan's teacher, even if Yang Chen would not do this kind of thing for free, but it could also be seen as giving Shi Shanshan face, he would wait until the dumb aunt recovers. If there was anything wrong with Ya Gupo, Yang Chen would be ashamed to ask for any rewards.

The injury of the mute aunt. It's nothing at all in Yang Chen's hands. A fifth grade lingzhi mushroom jade pill was enough, what matters was her sanity.

At the request of Yang Chen. Shi Shanshan took the dumb aunt and Yang Chen into a quiet room. Inspiring aunt dumb's mind requires Yang Chen to shock her with a strong spiritual awareness. It was also a life-and-death step for Ya Gupo, and no one could disturb them.

Ya Gupo who was a master of the dacheng stage, had no pressure on taking the fifth-grade lingzhi mushroom jade pill, and her injuries began to improve visible to the naked eye. After all, the damage was caused by pure physical power, and there was no such effect as the spirit power which was constantly destroyed.

Right now, Ya Gupo's mentality was still controlled by Yang Chen. It was not until Yang Chen felt that the injury on the dumb aunt's body had completely improved. Then, he pressed one hand on the back of the dumb aunt's head, and fiercely used the Beast Controlling Secret Art technique. Yang Chen, who was holding the dumb aunt, launched a spiritual awareness shock attack.

This attack couldn't be too strong, otherwise the dumb aunt would be deadheaded, but it can't be too weak also, otherwise the effect would not be achieved. Fortunately, Yang Chen's spiritual awareness has now reached a certain level and he could control it anyway he wanted.

Next, Yang Chen and Shi Shanshan quickly left the quiet room and were replaced by Elder Tong. Once the dumb aunt can't recover, Elder Tong was the person to end the pain of the dumb aunt.

Of course, Elder Tong dealing with the dumb aunt would not be without a price. The price she had to pay was to open the seal formation and immediately face her tribulation and ascend.

Because of Elder Tong, this time they chose a quiet room on a remote island, and the surrounding area has been emptied, lest Elder Tong's ascension would implicate other people.

In the expectation of everyone, there was no tribulation cloud gathering in the sky, that was to say, Elder Tong had not released the seal. Similarly, this also means that the dumb aunt had nothing done to her for the time being.

The elders of the Green Jade Immortal Island, who were waiting and anxious, finally began to slowly feel relieved. After waiting for more than half an hour, there was nothing unusual at all. Then they heard the call of Elder Tong "Okay, it's all right!"

A group of people rushed to the island and rushed into the quiet room. Then everyone was in a daze. Opposite Elder Tong, there was a middle-aged woman with tears on her face. Although there were faint crow's feet on her face, it was definitely not the old woman before. The appearance of this middle-aged woman was exactly the dumb aunt before she went crazy.

"Greetings island master!" In the eyes of everyone's astonishment, the dumb aunt stood up and bowed to salute the group of people who came in "Greetings elders!"

All the high-level members of the Green Jade Immortal Island who came in, except Elder Tong, all had dumbfounded expressions. Ya Gupo, could she now speak? And looking at her performance, was she really back to normal?

"This old woman used to be arrogant, short-sighted, and a 300-year-old dumb idiot, just like Nanke Yimeng." Facing a group of high-level members of the Green Jade Immortal islands, the dumb aunt lowered her head again and said "Finally, I have been able to turn my misfortune into blessing. I want to wait in the sect for five hundred years, I ask the island master's grace!"

Ya Gupo was already strong, when she became a dumb idiot she had no distractions. Naturally, she has improved her cultivation. Now she has recovered her mind, understands what went wrong and her mentality improved immediately, so she was on the verge of ascending. Waiting in the sect was to repay the care of the sect over the years and the grace of this awakening.

Chapter 493.1: .1

Everyone had some hope in their hearts at the beginning, but no one dared to really put hope on Yang Chen. Even if Yang Chen could heal the trauma of the mute aunt, the confusion brought about by her insanity was not something that could be cured by some “medicine”.

Not to mention defeating the dacheng stage master Ya Gupo, it was absolutely impossible.

But now, the dumb aunt stood in front of everyone, sane, organized and acting naturally, and they couldn't see anything wrong with her.

Could it be that Yang Chen has defeated the dumb aunt? How could that be? Everyone who thought of this possibility directly gave an impossible answer subconsciously.

But what's going on with Ya Gupo now? Did someone defeat her? Who was it? Min Huafeng was anxious and asked immediately.

“I also vaguely remember being defeated, but who defeated me and how, I can't remember.” Ya Gupo also had a look of being “fascinated” and the answer was ambiguous.

It seems that this question could only be asked about Yang Chen and the others carefully. For now, they should take a look at the situation of Ya Gupo. In any case, the Green Jade Immortal Island has another master who was a great elder, and the strength of their foundation has once again become a bit more powerful.

The group of people almost hurried back to the main island of the Green Jade Immortal Island with joy. Ya Gupo was in a daze after all these years, completely unaware of what happened to her, and she was embarrassed when she heard the narration from others.

Especially that Guan Zhenyao used her as a tool, which made the dumb aunt angry. Despite being in that kind of idiotic state, the battle was still her instinct. How many times she has experienced it, she still vaguely remembers. Except for the discussions with several masters in the sect, the extra ones that the sect didn't know were obviously Guan Zhenyao's handwriting.

The content that Ya Gupo recalled became even more iron proof that Guan Zhenyao's heart was in the wrong. Even if Guan Zhenyao was a sweet talker, she couldn't make it clear, the charges were completely settled, and no one doubted it anymore.

After some greetings, the dumb aunt finally came to Yang Chen and his wives, thanking Yang Chen for her salvation.

Regarding Yang Chen and Shi Shanshan, when Ya Gupo had her cultivation deviation, Shi Shanshan had not yet joined the sect. Now an elder with such a seniority came to thank her, Shi Shanshan dared not act big and hurriedly returned the thanks. It was Yang Chen who received a sturdy thanks, and only then did he show the courtesy of the younger generation.

Yang Chen was able to save Ya Gupo, and Yang Chen deserved her thanks. No one had any opinion on it.

"This old woman vaguely remembers, the last time I was defeated." Ya Gupo's sentence was first to thank for her salvation, and secondly, she wanted to know who was the master who defeated herself
"This old woman wants to know, who is this expert?"

Not only the dumb aunt, but even the island master and the others who came after all had a curious expression, waiting for Yang Chen to answer. What a coincidence that this person happened to appear when Yang Chen and others were besieged.

"It's not someone else, it's you, Senior." Yang Chen smiled and started to answer directly, but his answer made everyone confused. She defeated herself? How was this possible?

"Myself?" Ya Gupo also had a big "confused" expression. Yang Chen's words were really incredible, and she couldn't think of the key to it even if she wanted to break her head. No way, although she vaguely remembered fighting a few times, she couldn't remember the process of the battle at all.

“Senior didn’t have much judgment at the time. A small illusion was enough to trap Senior.” Yang Chen smiled and said “Plus a strong counter-shock, Senior completely defeated herself. “

Yang Chen’s words, on the one hand, concealed his own strength, on the other hand, it made the dumb aunt’s mentality much better. Defeated by a few younger generations, no matter how hard it was, she would lose face. However, being trapped by the illusion during the muddle-headed period, and then shocking and hurting herself, there was no shame. After all, the dumb aunt was unconscious at the time and couldn’t distinguish the illusion from the reality.

Sure enough, when Yang Chen said these words, Ya Gupo’s face suddenly improved a lot. The other seniors of the Green Jade Immortal Island also suddenly realized that this argument was the subject of scrutiny, and Gongsun Ling herself was a formation cultivator. Everyone knows it well, and no one doubts anything else.

Next, naturally the Green Jade Immortal Island wouldn’t let Yang Chen take out a fifth grade Lingzhi Mushroom jade pill, even if he had a relationship with Shi Shanshan, it was impossible to accept Yang Chen help without any reward. Therefore, after several excuses, Yang Chen reluctantly accepted a sixth-grade fire seed as a reward, and both parties were very happy.

For the Green Jade Immortal Island, the recovery of the dumb aunt means that from then on, there was one more dacheng stage elder who was about to ascend and their strength has skyrocketed. And it’s still an extra one, the dumb aunt in the past, it took a few people to take care of her. When it was really going to fight, it didn’t come in handy. As long as the opponent was like Yang Chen and others, an illusion formation could take care of her.

No one doubted Yang Chen’s alchemy and medical skills anymore. There were even a few elders who asked Yang Chen for help through Shi Shanshan to refine a batch of face retaining pills. They were willing to provide enough “medicinal” materials and remuneration.

Seeing Shi Shanshan’s face, Yang Chen reluctantly agreed to such a request. He also used this method to increase Shi Shanshan’s position in the eyes of the seniors of the Green Jade Immortal Island. Not to mention her strong combat power and excellent cultivation aptitude, she could still have the face of letting Yang Chen start refining the pill, so the sect had to pay much attention to her.

For Yang Chen, it was not too difficult for him to refine the face retaining pills. With ample supply of “medicinal” materials, it took less than three months to produce more than 30 pieces in a batch, far exceeding the number of elders who requested and provided “medicinal” materials.

However, these “medicinal” materials were thousands of years old, and the face retaining pills could last for a hundred years. No woman will dislike her youthful and beautiful appearance, and naturally no woman would hate the face retaining pills too. All the elders who received the face retaining pills kept them as treasures, to Yang Chen, they were even more grateful.

Ya Gupo was settled here, the affairs of Guan Zhenyao were settled and the face retaining pills were refined for the elders, so Yang Chen and others set on the way out again.

This time it was not about to set off to the Demon Continent, but to go straight to the South China Sea, to the sea of no return and store the immortal body obtained from the secret plane in the empty Dragon Palace. Having retained the seed of the divine consciousness that Yang Chen split into two, this immortal body was Yang Chen’s last support.

Chapter 493.2: .2

It’s not that Yang Chen didn’t want to use the immortal body to cultivate, it was just that the three purities secret art was like this. The first split of the spiritual awareness was just to split a seed of consciousness, which gave the subject a chance to resurrect after death. However, this seed of spiritual awareness cannot cultivate while the subject still exists.

For Yang Chen, he could only watch his divine consciousness seed attached to the immortal body, drooling at the immortal body that had already experienced the heavenly tribulation in vain, and was still unable to cultivate.

He could not help but say, this was a huge enticement. If Yang Chen could be cruel and he kills himself, he would start again, and with the help of the immortal body, he might be able to raise his cultivation to a jaw-dropping realm in a short period of time. But in that case, would he still be himself?

No one would commit suicide in exchange for a better opportunity to cultivate, even Yang Chen couldn’t make this determination. Not to mention that his current body had the full value of the acquired spiritual roots of all attributes, but he has not experienced a higher heavenly tribulation, and his future achievements would not be worse than that of the immortal body with a single attribute.

Hurrying to the sea of no return, Yang Chen didn't want other people to know, so he just traveled directly across the bottom of the sea with his four beautiful wives. With the flying shuttle this treasure, plus the sea jasper lamp, he was not afraid of being discovered by others at all.

When he reached the outskirts of the sea of no return, Yang Chen put the four girls down. There was no other way around it, the inside of the sea of no return was very dangerous, and without the five-element hook of the dragon clan, it was impossible to get down. As for the five-element hook, only Yang Chen could use it at present and Yang Chen was not willing to let his wives take risks.

With Gongsun Ling's mountain river geographical map, Yang Chen made them feel relieved to travel outside of the sea of no return. The sea beasts here were extremely fierce, and it was also a good place to cultivate their fighting skills.

Yang Chen alone, once again entered the interior of the sea of no return. This time when he entered, Xiao Tian was also very awake, and he seemed very excited to revisit the old place.

After arriving at the original dragon palace again, before placing the immortal body, Yang Chen suddenly moved in his heart and released the dragon palace.

Last time, Yang Chen controlled the Dragon Palace to fuse the dragon clan treasure house in a lethargy after Xiao Tian swallowed the dragon bead, but it was clear that he certainly did not personally operate the fusion thoroughly. This time, Yang Chen released the Dragon Palace and just let Xiao Tian personally control it, and to completely merge the two.

The immortal body and the seven treasured glaze box were placed in a pool of tenth water spiritual solution by Yang Chen. Since the last time Yang Chen collected it, some has slowly accumulated here again, but there was only the first layer. He placed a nourishing formation here, just to nourish the immortal body with the help of the tenth water spiritual solution.

After the temporary placement and waiting for the process of Xiao Tian controlling the dragon palace fusion, Yang Chen did not idle, and once again connected the spiritual awareness link with Li Liheng of the Greatest Heaven Sect.

During this period of time, every almost a year or so, Yang Chen would contact Li Liheng once, and it has almost become a fixed rule. However, Li Liheng consumes more and more spirit congealing pills and he used about ten in one contact. At this rate, within a maximum of ten years, Yang Chen's spirit concealing pills would be exhausted.

The contact time each time was longer, but almost every time he gave instructions to Li Liheng and others in the Greatest Heaven Sect about their cultivation. Judging from Li Liheng's increasingly proud performance, he has gained an absolute position in the Greatest Heaven Sect.

This was a good thing, and Yang Chen was happy to make it happen. It was also the first step of the plan to let a guy with no talents and no virtues ascend to the high position of the Greatest Heaven Sect. But today, Yang Chen intends to make the Greatest Heaven Sect depressed.

"When this old man was chatting with a senior in the sect recently, that senior occasionally said that he remembered that one of his seniors left a secret plane in the mortal world." Senior Liu Fengzi said to Li Liheng, "You Write down the method to open the secret plane, go get those things inside!"

Li Liheng was overjoyed. Needless to say, the secret plane left by the predecessors in the spiritual world was full of precious materials. Needless to say, just medicinal materials could be made into peerless treasures over the years.

Not daring to leave a word, Li Liheng remembered Liu Fengzi's advice firmly and repeated it to Liu Fengzi. After there were no more problems, Liu Fengzi was relieved.

"In this secret plane, there are many dangers. The seniors who left it behind are not are not so easy to handle. You must be careful, otherwise the consequences will be disastrous." Senior Liu Fengzi still seemed to be worried, and said again.

Of course, Li Liheng promised with full mouth that he would proceed with caution. Only after spending ten spirit congealing pills, did he end the contact with Senior Liu Fengzi.

Li Liheng was not present when the ancient secret key of the Greatest Heaven Sect broke out last time, so this was not very clear to him. With his personality, these things that have nothing to do with him he would not pay much attention to them afterwards. And at that time, he was suffering from unprovoked fainting, so how would he care about a secret plane.

At this moment, he got an ancient secret plane, and he became excited for a while. Under the gaze of the waiting and anxious Greatest Heaven Sect core officials, Li Liheng quickly explained the process of this exchange.

Hearing that there was an ancient secret plane, everyone suddenly became excited. But after Li Liheng enthusiastically told the news about the ancient secret plane, he thought he could see the excited expressions of the sect master and elders, but to his surprise, he only saw depression.

What was this expression? Li Liheng looked at the elders a little puzzled. It was the sect master who understood Li Liheng. Seeing his puzzled appearance, he slightly reminded him "This secret plane is the secret plane that caused us to lose several dacheng stage elders."

The excitement in his heart instantly turned into consternation, Li Liheng stared at the crowd dumbfounded, his mind lost. Senior Liu Fengzi said that the secret plane was left behind by a senior so how could it lead to such a disaster?

"Did Senior Liu Fengzi say to be careful?" Li Sect Master asked in a low voice. He vaguely doubted Liu Fengzi, whom he had never met and could not meet. What does it mean to take out a secret plane that was almost universally known?

"Senior told me to be careful several times, he said that the senior who left it behind wasn't easy to handle." Li Liheng hurriedly mentioned the advice of senior Liu Fengzi. But even if he wanted to break his head, he didn't understand, how could the secret plane handed down by the predecessors of the spiritual world become the secret plane that has already been explored?

"Wait for the next contact!" Sect Master Li sighed, not knowing what kind of thoughts were in his mind.

Chapter 494.1: Return

After he played with the Greatest Heaven Sect, Yang Chen set up his clone and immortal body, and then went to the Dragon Palace to check the situation of the Dragon Palace fusion.

Last time Yang Chen had completed the initial integration, this time Xiao Tian personally controlled it, and it was even more relaxed. Within a month, the integration was completely completed, and it was the deepest level of integration.

For more than a month, the women were a little worried. Fortunately, Gongsun Ling experienced this kind of waiting last time, knowing that the interior of the sea of no return was extremely dangerous, so after explaining to the other three women, everyone joined hands to practice against the sea beasts, and it didn't seem too boring.

Yang Chen came out of the sea of no return and they hadn't seen him for more than a month, but when the girls looked at Yang Chen, they clearly saw a different aura from him than before.

It was a kind of pleasing self-confidence, only the close people around Yang Chen could feel it, and it was absolutely invisible. That kind of self-confidence, even detached from life and death, like there was no longer any sense of fear.

It was understandable that when a person has an immortal body that becomes his own clone, and once the body dies, the clone would wake up again and have almost all of his own memories, no one would be afraid of death anymore.

This state of not being afraid of death would naturally affect the body's state of mind, turning it into a kind of openness to fearlessness. Was there anything better than this that could improve the realm of cultivation?

It has only been a few years since everyone has entered the Yuanying state, and when most people were consolidating their realm, Yang Chen seems to have begun to hit the peak early Yuanying stage.

Everyone had been away from their sect for many years, and they had to go back. Shi Shanshan has just gone back recently, but Sun Qingxue has never been back to the Blue Cloud Sect.

Sun Qingxue was going back to her natal home, so she had to bring some gifts back. Now Yang Chen refined some face retaining pills that have become the most sought-after item. Last time he refined it in the Green Jade Immortal Island, it happened that Sun Qingxue brought it back as a gift.

Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue really seemed to be advancing and retreating together, and the two girls didn't want to go back to the Pure Yang Palace at this time. They just made an appointment with Yang Chen on a date to meet again, and then rushed to the Blue Cloud Sect together.

Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling naturally followed Yang Chen back to Pure Yang Palace. In addition to communicating with the elders and the palace master, Yang Chen also had another purpose, which was to wait for the Greatest Heaven Sect to come to him again.

They have already spent more than half of the spirit congealing pills, and the remaining ones were definitely not enough for Li Liheng to persist for fifty years. The high-level staff of the Greatest Heaven Sect knew this very well, but they still couldn't help it. The pill recipe with them has not only been verified by the masters of the medicine hall, but also the pill recipe left by Senior Liu Fengzi was exactly the same.

There was no problem with the pill recipe, but there was no alchemist to refine it. This made the Greatest Heaven Sect extremely depressed, and in desperation, they had no choice but to come to Yang Chen again.

Hall Master Mao, who vowed never to see Yang Chen again, had been waiting in the Pure Yang Palace for five years. If he didn't come, Li Liheng's communication with Liu Fengzi over the years has brought many benefits to the sect. Mao Qi knew from the beginning to the end that even his own cultivation level had improved slightly.

All of these were based on Li Liheng's normal cultivation of spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method, and the foundation of Li Liheng's normal cultivation was the spirit concealing pills. Without the spirit congealing pill, there would be nothing. There would be Li Liheng, no Liu Fengzi and no future guidance.

Even if he had sworn an oath, he had to break the oath at this time. As sect master Li asked at the time, if he used the heart demon to swear? If it was not, then it would be none other than Hall Master Mao. Who told the Greatest Heaven Sect to deal with Yang Chen the most frequently, and he was most familiar with Yang Chen?

"Why are you here again?" Seeing Hall Master Mao's face, Yang Chen blurted out this sentence, his face full of impatience and a look of surprise.

Mao Qi's face went dark immediately. What does he want again? Do you think I want to come? But he only darkened his face, and he returned to normal immediately. Now that the Greatest Heaven Sect wants to ask Yang Chen for help, it's not the time to turn their faces with Yang Chen. Besides, Yang Chen didn't say much, did he?

"What kind of pill are you making this time?" In front of Mao Qi, Yang Chen rarely had to be as polite as in front of other outsiders. He sat down opposite Mao Qi and reached out and grabbed the teapot from Mao Qi and asked while pouring tea.

"Spirit congealing pills." Mao Qi was not polite with Yang Chen, reached out his hand to grab the teacup and took a sip, then lazily spit out three words and helplessly said.

"Spirit congealing pills?" Yang Chen had a puzzled look on his face, staring straight at Mao Qi, and even asked in an unbelievable tone "Senior Mao, what are you doing with it, are you throwing away the spirit congealing pills. Or is there too much precious material in the Greatest Heaven Sect that you have to rush to send it to me? I am embarrassed!"

Mao Qi almost jumped up angrily, what does he mean by throwing away the spirit congealing pills? Does he think he was willing to come here to find him? How could Mao Qi fail to hear the teasing in Yang Chen's speech?

Moreover, Yang Chen made no secret of it. He clearly told Mao Qi that he had been ripping them off several times before, so why would he come to find him again if it wasn't important?.

"There is no other way, more than one person needs it." Mao Qi couldn't attack yet, so he could only forcefully suppress his anger, and calmly explain "Let's agree on a price!"

Anyway, Mao Qi and Yang Chen didn't deal with each other once or twice, and there was not so much exchange of greetings between the two. It was straightforward to get straight to the point and it was the style of two people talking about business.

"How many?" Yang Chen didn't worry about what the Greatest Heaven Sect wanted so many spirit congealing pills to do, nor did he directly name a price, but asked the quantity. Without figuring out the quantity, how could he speak about the price.

Last time, the Greatest Heaven Sect had learned a lesson. For fear of not having enough spirit congealing pills in fifty years, Yang Chen deliberately asked Yang Chen to refine almost 5% of the amount as a reserve. But he didn't expect it to be consumed so early. This time, he was afraid that in addition to having enough to treat the disease, a large amount of extra was needed.

Fifty years have passed and almost more than half have been used, and there were only a few left. This time, the Greatest Heaven Sect decided to get enough quantity at a time so as not to trouble Yang Chen again afterwards.

"Five thousand!" Mao Qi gritted his teeth and said the number, trembling involuntarily in his heart, faintly aching.

This amount was enough for Yang Chen to offer a price that would make the Greatest Heaven Sect speechless. Mao Qi couldn't help but feel distressed when he thought of the resources that could have been enjoyed by the Greatest Heaven Sect's disciples, but now they would be handed over to the alchemist in front of him.

Chapter 495.1: Trade

"Not enough!" Mao Qi directly began to shake his head, and managed to grasp Yang Chen's veins. How could it be that Mao Qi was the master of the Foreign Affairs Hall? Besides, how could the grievances suffered in the past not be brought back today even if they were profitable?

"Not enough?" Yang Chen's expression recovered a little, and it didn't look like the shock it had before. But he was still a little surprised by what Mao Qi said, and couldn't help asking.

"Yes, not enough!" Mao Qi deliberately repeated once more, and also emphatically explained the word not enough. After two pauses, he continued "Add thirty second grade questioning inner heart pills, then maybe it would almost be the same."

This time it was Yang Chen's turn to start thinking. Mao Qi was planning to recover all his previous losses at once. Of course, he had to appreciate Yang Chen's embarrassed expression and he didn't urge him. He sat there slowly tasting tea as steady as Mount Tai, he couldn't express his thoughts on his face.

As everyone knows, Yang Chen almost broke his belly with a smile at the moment. The contrived and performance just now really made Mao Qi think it was true, and easily made the Greatest Heaven Sect no longer suspect that he was involved with the spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method. Imagine a guy who doesn't even know that a consciousness clone could descend into the lower realm, could he know such a secret issue?

As for the alchemy scriptures, Yang Chen was indeed in need. But to make Yang Chen accept Mao Qi's new price tag, it was absolutely impossible.

"Forget it, the price is too high, this younger generation junior doesn't need the pill scriptures of the immortal world." After Mao Qi was proud for a while, Yang Chen hesitated for a while and made up his mind, and gave Mao Qi an unexpected answer " Anyway, this junior is only a fifth grade alchemist, if there really is a pill recipe of the immortal world, and the junior can't use it, so let's not use it!"

Mao Qi's joy slid back into his body directly following the cold air he was sucking in, and almost burped his back.

Having said so much, he put on a big show, watching Yang Chen about to fall into the hub. Suddenly, Yang Chen came to draw a salary from the bottom of the tank and quit, and Mao Qi fell into a sluggish state for a while.

The alchemy of the spiritual world was good, and the alchemy of the immortal world was even better, but the spirit congealing pills was only the resource possessed by Yang Chen that they urgently needed.

Those masters in the medicinal hall of the Greatest Heaven Sect, which one hasn't read these alchemy scriptures? But in their own words, the more advanced the alchemy, the more incomprehensible it was. Perhaps it was because their realm was not high enough, they simply couldn't understand the method described in the scriptures.

If it was understood that it was impossible to distract and control a variety of flames in alchemy, then using several different types of real water to condense into a fire attribute array to make alchemy was simply unheard of. Using water as fire to make alchemy, was it a joke?

But the pill scripture was obviously not a fake obtained from other places, but the Greatest Heaven Sect doesn't know how many times it has spent the opportunity of the lower realm consciousness clones, let those clones of the lower realm piece together the memories, absolutely, there could be no fakes.

The Greatest Heaven Sect also made good calculations this time, doesn't Yang Chen like these things? They would give him a pill scripture that he can't use at all to suspend his appetite, while they got the pills they needed from him, maybe Yang Chen would study these scriptures until he becomes crazy, and they could ruin Yang Chen's life without acting up.

Just like a primary school student who just learned that zero was the smallest number, suddenly gave him a high school mathematics textbook to study and interpret imaginary numbers. He wouldn't even know the negative number, let alone what comes after the square root of the negative number. Maybe because there was no step-by-step progress, it would make him confused.

This was also the reason why five thousand spirit congealing pills were needed at a time. If they take enough pills, even if they use ten pills a year, it would be enough for five hundred years. Five hundred years was enough time for Li Liheng's spiritual awareness to reach a certain level without the need for spirit congealing pills and Yang Chen would be destroyed.

The plan was good, but they did not expect this change, at least Mao Qi didn't expect it. When he finished what he said before, he thought that Yang Chen had been stunned by the pill scripture handed down by the immortal world, and would try to get it desperately. But he didn't expect Yang Chen to be so realistic. If he couldn't use it, he would not consider it for the time being, and would not buy it at a big price.

In this way, the Greatest Heaven Sect's plan fell through, this doesn't matter. The problem was that the number of the spirit congealing pills were not enough, which was a big trouble. Looking at the speed Li Liheng was using the pills now, it seems that it was increasing. On average, ten pieces were used for a spatial spiritual awareness contact, this was growing. More than two thousand pieces were not enough to make the Greatest Heaven Sect completely relieved.

Knowing that his own greed has broken the major deal, Mao Qi immediately changed his words "Then I will ask for half of the questioning inner heart pills, fifteen second grade questioning inner heart pills, how about it?"

Anyway, it was not the first time to bargain, Mao Qi was very familiar with it. It's rare that once again, he took the initiative, so he had to get more things from Yang Chen.

Yang Chen shook his head directly, he didn't want to give anything more at all. Yang Chen wanted these pill scriptures very much, but he wouldn't exchange them with extra questioning inner heart pills.

“Ten?” Mao Qi’s face looked ugly again, and when discussing the price with Yang Chen, it seemed that Mao Qi never had the upper hand. Every time, Yang Chen said as much as he wanted. Mao Qi was determined to change the status quo this time.

Still shaking his head, Yang Chen didn’t even want to say anything. This attitude made Mao Qi’s heart sink, but he immediately warned himself that the purpose of this trip was to get the spirit congealing pills and the extra questioning inner heart pills, if he can’t get it, he can’t get it.

He also blamed himself for being greedy. Seeing Yang Chen tempted, he insisted on adding the questioning inner heart pills. If he really went back like this, the sect master would never give him a good face.

“Well, I will agree with you!” Mao Qi immediately made a predecessor’s generous appearance, patted his head, and directly made a decision “Just do what you said.”

After saying this, Mao Qi saw a playful smile on Yang Chen’s face and he was suddenly shocked. He had seen Yang Chen’s lion’s way of speaking many times. If he was to get greedy this time, it was not a good thing.

Thinking of this, Mao Qi didn’t care about his identity, and hurriedly exclaimed “You can’t increase the price. You said it yourself. You won’t go back on your word, right?”

Seeing that Mao Qi was so nervous, Yang Chen also gave up his plan to increase the price more to slaughter the Greatest Heaven Sect. Anyway, two pill scriptures from the spiritual world and one pill scripture from the immortal realm were definitely well earned for Yang Chen. This was the experience of the Greatest Heaven Sect’s alchemy masters in the immortal world, and it was exciting to think about it.

Chapter 495.2: Trade

Compared to the previous harvests, others might feel that Yang Chen has lost a lot this time. Originally, a few hundred spirit congealing pills could be exchanged for various sixth-grade fire seeds, sixth earth true secret art and sixth earth true essence and the like. During the last time, he even got hundreds of fire seeds and a ten thousand year old medicine garden. This time he only got some pill scriptures that contained the experiences of alchemy.

But for Yang Chen, these things were more rare than those of the previous medicinal materials and fire seeds. These experiences no matter which sect it was placed in, were carefully collected as heirlooms. If they don't have a certain identity in the sect, and they haven't made enough contributions, they won't even get to touch them.

As for the pill scriptures of the spiritual world and the immortal world, it was even more rare. Except for some common pill formulas such as questioning inner heart pills and face retaining pills, other medicinal pill recipes were not known at all, they were not even known to people in the sect and they don't even know the names of some pill medicines. One could imagine how precious these alchemy scriptures were.

Although Yang Chen already has the elderly lord pill scripture and the profound pill scripture, most of the elderly lord pill scripture only talks about refining techniques. It just recorded and talked about the refining techniques of a dozen kinds of pills, which could not satisfy Yang Chen's need to become a master alchemist in the future.

This time, the Greatest Heaven Sect took the initiative to use the pill scriptures of the spiritual world and immortal world. That was because they still cannot understand the preciousness of these pill scriptures, otherwise they would not be so prodigal to use the pill scriptures that the elders of their sect spent so much effort to acquire.

Mao Qi was definitely here this time. He negotiated the price with Yang Chen, and immediately took out dozens of jade slips and handed them to Yang Chen.

This was Yang Chen's usual habit of paying the money first, then giving the pills later. After the previous few transactions, the Greatest Heaven Sect was quite satisfied with Yang Chen's credibility. So they don't care about taking out the reward first and letting Mao Qi bring it directly, saving time by running back and forth.

After a rough sweep of his spiritual awareness, it was basically certain that these things were authentic. Yang Chen was not afraid that the content inside wasn't authentic. With Yang Chen's ability, a careful analysis would definitely find the problem. Once Yang Chen made it known that the Greatest Heaven Sect used fake information to trade with Yang Chen. The Greatest Heaven Sect reputation would be hit again, the gains outweigh the losses.

Yang Chen didn't neglect, and directly greeted the master of the palace, after talking to his two wives. He plunged into the alchemy room and began to refine the pills.

The spirit congealing pills was no difficulty for Yang Chen. Even if he was distracted and was doing it a few times, it was enough for him to make another thought and absorb and fuse a fourth grade fire seed.

After so many years of absorption, all the third grade fire seeds on Yang Chen's body have been integrated into the Yin Yang Heaven Burning Fire. Several fourth grade fire seeds were also incorporated, and its power was steadily improving.

However, for Yang Chen, the fourth grade fire seeds and below were basically laying the foundation and gradually perfecting the prototype for the Yin Yang Heaven Burning Fire. Only when he started to absorb the fifth grade fire seeds, would it be the real time to shine.

The current Yin-Yang Heaven Burning Fire could already simulate any kind of fire below the fourth grade, except that the power was simply not comparable to ordinary fire seeds. No one could see any flaws, to the present position. Everyone, including those around Yang Chen, basically thought that Yang Chen's fire was the earth fire.

As a fire cultivator, for a long time, Yang Chen hadn't used his flames to fight any enemy. This time he refined the spirit congealing pills for the Greatest Heaven Sect, and when he arrived at the Demon Continent, Yang Chen had to gain a profit no matter what.

It took Yang Chen three years to complete a total of 5,000 spirit congealing pills. When receiving the spirit congealing pills even Mao Qi was taken aback. Five thousand spirit congealing pills, all of them turned out to be second grade pills.

Even Mao Qi couldn't help feeling a little bit taken aback. Yang Chen's move could be said to be very kind, it must be known that the Greatest Heaven Sect only requested for first grade spirit congealing pills. This time and last time, they basically got second grade pills and the quality was absolutely impeccable.

Yang Chen has been refining for three years, and Mao Qi has been waiting in the Pure Yang Palace for three years. It was conceivable that he attaches great importance to the spirit congealing pills, but with this batch of pills, even if Mao Qi wanted to pick a fight, he couldn't pick a little bit.

“The old man has to say, although your price is high, the pill given is the best!” Mao Qi couldn’t help but sighed, complimenting Yang Chen and then he didn’t say much, left directly. After the palace lord greeted him, he hurried back to the Greatest Heaven Sect.

During the refining of the pill, Yang Chen also contacted Li Liheng’s spiritual awareness several times here, each time it was a little finger, and it did not cause much change.

Basically, there were no more mundane things in the short term. After Yang Chen finally talked to the palace master, he took Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling on the road to the Demon Continent.

Before leaving, they must go to the Green Jade Immortal Island and the Blue Cloud Sect to pick up Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue, there was no doubt about that. However, after the palace master and the elders knew Yang Chen’s destination, they were somewhat reluctant to let him take such risks.

Everyone has heard of the Demon Continent, but no one has been there. They only know that it was a place where cultivators of various races gather, and killings were common, but no one knows what the specific situation was.

Despite this, the dangers over there were all understood. Although the territory of the demon sect and monster race could be regarded as dangerous, compared with the Demon Continent, those two places were basically a peaceful paradise.

Fortunately, Hou Yun was not there.

He presided over the banyan tree Immortal’s cave in the ten-thousand trees forest. Otherwise, he would definitely follow Yang Chen when he heard the news. That place full of killings was Hou Yun’s favorite environment.

In the previous life, Yang Chen had never been to the Demon Continent, separated by millions of miles in the vast sea, and even the flying shuttle had to fly on the sea for almost ten years. In addition, all kinds of fierce sea beasts were rampant in the sea, waiting for idle experts, so he couldn’t even go there.

This was by no means a trivial matter. Back then, Yang Chen went into the domain of Luo Yuan in the peak dacheng stage, who was about to face the tribulation. If it weren’t for the sea jasper lamp, he would have been directly obliterated, and there was no other possibility. Luo Yuan in the dacheng stage was still like this, it was conceivable that to pass the entire sea area, he would almost pass through the domain of some sea kings like Luo Yuan.

Even the two major sects were quite critical of Yang Chen's taking their genius disciples to this dangerous place to gain experience. But now Yang Chen was the husband of the two women, no matter how big the sect was, it seemed that they couldn't take care of the Yang family's affairs. In the end, the two women could only be armed by their respective sects to allow them to travel.

After picking up the two women from their respective sects, the Yang family finally embarked on the road to the Demon Continent.
