Chapter 496.1: The Inferred Truth

“Their destination is the Demon Continent?” When the five members of Yang Chen’s family set off, many people knew their destination, and many people asked in surprise.

Yang Chen didn’t hide his destination. Since he had gone to the Demon Continent, where the killings were constant, he was naturally not afraid of adding some bright spears and secret arrows.

The name of the Demon Continent was not unfamiliar among the major sects of the Dao Sect. On the contrary, the disciples of the major sects have experienced it almost every other time.

However, the experts of the various major sects who have gained experience in the Demon Continent were never a genius disciple like the cold plum fairy and the dancing snow fairy, but a group of disciples who were not outstanding in aptitude and do not have much hope in the sect. Some have violated the rules of the sect or other circumstances, anyway, they were basically disciples who have not made their stand in the sect.

If these disciples stayed in the sect, there were bound to be a tragedy, but going to the Demon Continent was different. As long as they could survive the ubiquitous fighting, they could basically become a master of one party. In this case, whether it was going back to the sect or fighting alone, their future would be very different.

The small sect also has a similar situation, but unless they can’t get on in the dao sect, who wants to go to the Demon Continent at the risk of death? Even Yang Chen had never been there in his previous life. First, he didn’t have the ability, and second, he didn’t have that kind of determination. He wanted to leave his life to avenge his master.

Generally speaking, dao sect disciples rarely come back alive, and only a few come back occasionally. In short, there were more people who have heard of it, but fewer people have been there.

“Young sect master, this is a great opportunity!” It was heard that Yang Chen went out to the Demon Continent and before that, hall master Mao Qi had obtained enough spirit congealing pills, Yang Xi said to Li Liheng without losing the opportunity.

The last time he was imprisoned in the cold deep pool for several years, Yang Xi's body was severely damaged and he only recovered after many years. However, while he was recuperating, he hated Yang Chen even more, thinking about revenge against Yang Chen all the time.

"Kill him, isn't this the person who refines the pills no one can, what will I do when I need it in the future?" Li Liheng didn't alienate Yang Xi for Yang Lan's sake, but he was not a brainless person. For Yang Xi's sake, Li Liheng didn't alienate him, but this challenge was directly rejected.

"Young sect master does not need to kill him." Yang Xi leaned into Li Liheng's ear and reminded in a low voice "Do you really think that the dacheng stage elder Hu's would really do that kind of thing for several pill recipes?"

"What do you mean?" Li Liheng wondered a little bit, but Yang Xi still had the idea of hinting at something on Yang Chen.

"Young sect master, look, all the spirit congealing pills you ate at the beginning were all first grade pills, but the quality was higher, right?" Yang Xi saw that Li Liheng became interested and immediately seduced him "But I got it later that they were all second grade pills."

"So what?" Li Liheng was taken aback, and he thought it was a bit weird, but he still asked.

"Do you think Yang Chen would be so kind that he would refine your second grade pills after requesting first grade pills?" Yang Xi reminded him calmly.

"You mean..." Li Liheng suddenly thought of a possibility, and then became excited "He has a magic weapon that can improve the quality of the pill?"

"I'm afraid it's more than that." Yang Xi smiled evilly in his heart, pretending to be relaxed and said "When he was in the Yang family's village, he didn't know anything. When he arrived at the Pure Yang Palace, it was said that no one was able to point him, but he could rely on himself. By self-cultivation to achieve the nascent soul, and even the fifth grade alchemy master, young sect master, if there is nothing strange in it, this disciple would never believe it."

Yang Xi has been targeting Yang Chen for many years, and naturally he has collected a lot of information about Yang Chen. Similarly, because of the importance of the fifth grade alchemist, the Greatest Heaven Sect also found a lot of information, but they did not know what happened in the Yang family village, only Yang Xi knew about it.

“He was illiterate in the Yang family village?” Li Liheng immediately grasped the news sensitively and asked in a deep voice.

“The disciple guarantees it with his life!” Seeing Li Liheng take the bait, Yang Xi hurriedly hit the iron while it was hot, showing his loyalty, while making Li Liheng more interested.

“Let go, and see the sect master at once.” This time Li Liheng had learned well. He didn’t do it himself like the last time, but quickly got up and took Yang Xi straight to the courtyard of sect master Li.

Soon, the two appeared in front of sect master Li, and after a while, the sect master began to convene several core elders to discuss the matter.

“Is it true?” The elders who heard the news suddenly asked with heavy expressions, everyone couldn’t believe the news. An illiterate person could do this even when he joined the Pure Yang Palace and was suppressed by Chu Heng. It would be strange if there were no problems in it.

If nothing else, he couldn’t even read the cultivation methods so how did he cultivate? Not to mention knowing the ancient characters and helping the Greatest Heaven Sect to interpret the ancient key. The problem of illiteracy was easy to solve, but knowing ancient characters was impossible.

The mortal world territory was so large that it was almost unimaginable. Even the ancient characters which were the inheritance of the Greatest Heaven Sect could be lost. The disciple of the Pure Yang Palace who were s flying from the Greatest Heaven Sect would spend a month on their flying sword, so for him to be able to learn more ancient characters than the Greatest Heaven Sect was a joke.

“Could it be that he got the inheritance of a certain senior?” An elder immediately thought of this possibility.

“I’m afraid it’s more than that.” The deputy sect master shook his head and said “It’s no use to get the inheritance if you are illiterate. Unless you get all the memories, it’s impossible.”

“Memory? Impossible!” Someone exclaimed immediately. It’s not because of anything else, but to obtain other people’s memory. Even the great elders at the peak of the dacheng stage cannot easily obtain it, no one in this mortal world has cultivated in this way.

The group of core elders have been arguing about this possibility, but the conclusion of everyone’s argument was the same, that no one could get all the memories of others, even obtaining half of them couldn’t be done. Otherwise the consciousness clone descending into the lower realm won’t have to be so troublesome, they would just think of a way to get the memory of the clone, without waiting for him to slowly recall it.

“There is a way, maybe it’s possible.” Sect master Li groaned for a long time, and when everyone agreed about the same thing, he spoke and attracted everyone’s attention.

“If there is an expert, using the method of body possession, like forcibly entrusting one’s primordial soul in a certain magic weapon for nourishment, it is also a very possible method.” Li Sect Master finally said his guess.

Chapter 496.2: The Inferred Truth

Boom, after listening to the judgment of sect master Li, everyone suddenly started talking.

It must be said that this conjecture of sect master Li was really reasonable. The method of depriving others of their memory from an inheritance was not feasible, but this method was absolutely possible.

The more the discussion, the more excited the crowd became, especially after the analysis of the possibility of this method by several master refiners, the more the people couldn’t stop.

If the sect master’s guess was correct, then the reason why Yang Chen was so outstanding may be because of such a magic weapon. His cultivation was definitely from an ancient senior guidance, otherwise it was impossible for a guy with mediocre aptitude to have such a speed of cultivation.

As for the alchemy, it's even more so, could a Jiedan stage master casually become a fifth grade alchemist? If there wasn't a cultivator who doesn't know how tough it was, it would be impossible.

Being able to recognize ancient texts shows that the soul in this magic weapon was already a master from tens of thousands of years ago. For such a long time, the primordial spirit has stayed in the magic weapon that could warm and nourish the spiritual awareness and the strength of the spiritual awareness was almost certain. If judged in this way, it was natural to be excited.

In this way, whether it was a spirit congealing pill or a questioning inner heart pill, it was based on this soul that they didn't know which magic weapon he had possessed. This also explains why Hu Qianyi, as a master of the dacheng stage, would plot against Yang Chen.

It was true that Hu Qianyi had concealed the news from the Greatest Heaven Sect and now that he was imprisoned by the Pure Yang Palace, it was impossible to ask him for confirmation. However, this speculation has been recognized by everyone as the answer closest to the truth. Otherwise, all the magical things that happened to Yang Chen could not be explained.

Before, everyone had been wondering how Yang Chen became a fifth grade alchemist, and now they have almost a perfect explanation. At this time, Yang Chen took his four wives to the Demon Continent. As long as they leave the territory of the Dao Sect, they would have an opportunity, do they need to hesitate with such a good opportunity?

"It's a matter of great importance, let great elder Liu take ten late Yuanying stage masters, catch up with Yang Chen's family, and bring those things back!" Of course, sect master Li would not lose the opportunity, he immediately made a decision and sent a great elder directly to go after Yang Chen.

Just when a certain core elder promised to leave to make arrangements, sect master Li suddenly paused, and then ordered "Yang Chen's wife named Gao Yue, don't kill her, bring her back to me. She cultivated water-attribute cultivation method with fire-attribute spirit roots. I suspect that there is a secret in her, maybe she is a good furnace for me."

"Yes, sect master!" The elder paused, and immediately agreed. Senior Liu Fengzi pointed out that the cultivation of the sect master was stuck, and a double cultivation between him and a cultivator with water attribute spirit root was needed to break through, now it seemed that the sect master had his eyes on Gao Yue.

This was not a big deal, if the sect master of the Greatest Heaven Sect just needs a cauldron, isn't it a matter of saying a word? How many people would rush to become the furnace of the sect master but didn't have the opportunity, let alone a woman of Yang Chen.

"This incident was discovered by Yang Xi, I will remember your great achievement." The master of the sect clearly distinguished rewards and punishments and affirmed Yang Xi's role here "take him to the sect's secret pavilion, allow him to go in and choose a magic weapon as a reward."

When the doorman spoke, Yang Xi was extremely excited almost instantly. After suffering for so long in the Greatest Heaven Sect, he finally got a chance to grow. Yang Xi has secretly vowed in his heart that as long as he gets the magic weapon of the secret pavilion, he would practice diligently, and one day he would step on Yang Chen under his feet. Of course, the premise was that Yang Chen could still live to that time.

Yang Chen didn't know that because of Yang Xi, the sect master of the Greatest Heaven Sect still had a covetous heart for Gao Yue in this life, and wanted to capture her as his own cauldron. He was now crossing the sea with four women.

Everyone has their own way to reach the Demon Continent, and it was unique that Yang Chen used high-speed magic weapon to rush through a large area of the sea. Apart from Yang Chen, there was no one else who did it like this.

As soon as the four women entered the ocean, they discovered that Yang Chen's entire personality had changed and there was a faint murderous intent that was difficult to detect on him. If it weren't for living with Yang Chen for a while, the women might not have discovered this.

"This time we are going to the Demon Continent, we are going to gain experience." After setting off on the sea, Yang Chen warned the four women very seriously "To be honest, I have never been there. I don't know what it is like over there, but there is one thing that must be kept in mind."

"What?" Sun Qingxue asked quickly.

"Whether it is encountered at sea or on the mainland, they will not show any mercy to you or me. The only thing we have to do is to take any weapon we can use and kill the other party. Otherwise, we will only be killed by the other party. Your sect, fame, master, being a genius disciple in the past are nothing in the Demon Continent.” In the charming faces of the four charming wives, Yang Chen said very solemnly “No enemy will care about these, and no one will take pity on you.”

“Who will our enemy be?” Shi Shanshan was more concerned about this question. No matter how ferocious the enemy was, as long as you knew who the enemy was, you could always guard against it.

“Theoretically, the enemy should be the demonized monsters and cultivators on the Demon Continent.” After thinking for a while, Yang Chen said the answer he knew.

“Who exactly?” Sun Qingxue still asked quietly.

“Anyone except us.” Yang Chen looked at the expressions of the other three women, and knew that they had already thought about a lot of things, so Yang Chen only explained to Sun Qingxue, who was a little simpler.

“What if they are from my Blue Cloud Sect?” Sun Qingxue seemed to be unable to accept such a thorough conception of friend or foe, she lowered her head slightly and asked in a low voice.

Knowing that Sun Qingxue was coming to the Demon Continent to gain experience, Elder Hua explained some common knowledge about the Demon Continent to Sun Qingxue. In fact, only Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling didn’t know much, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue had been indoctrinated a lot.

Elder Hua cherished her disciple, and even used her status as the sect elder to get the contact information of some of the disciples of the Blue Cloud Sect in the Demon Continent and told Sun Qingxue that if she had trouble, she should go to the sect disciples for help.

In any case, those disciples who have been able to take root in the Demon Continent are always better than their newcomers. With these people taking care of her, she believed nothing would happen to Sun Qingxue.

“On the Demon Continent, even the people of your own sect have to be guarded against!” Faced with Sun Qingxue’s question, Yang Chen vomited this helpless answer.

Chapter 497.1: Cultivating On The Way

Next, Yang Chen used his actions to show the four sweet wives what it meant to be cold-blooded and ruthless. The sea monster beasts encountered along the way in the vast ocean, regardless of whether they were hostile to them, Yang Chen would attack when they met.

The one that could be killed quickly, Yang Chen never left his hands, directly attacked them and they were quickly beheaded. When there was no gap in their realm and the battle needs to be deadlocked for a long time, Yang Chen always runs at high speed, and never stays for a while in place.

This situation was fine once or twice, but after a few consecutive times, the women seemed to be a little confused.

“Why do you want to run?” Sun Qingxue was puzzled by this, obviously it was not impossible to win. As long as he persisted for a period of time, the five people could kill them when they attacked together, but they had to run away, which seemed very shameless.

“Two reasons.” Yang Chen stretched out two fingers without hesitation and said clearly “First, we are on the road now, and we can’t delay too much time on the road. The same is true on the road of spirit power cultivation. I know what my main goal is now, and I can’t forget my original purpose just because I’m disturbed by some annoying things. In addition, the same is true in cultivating skills, not as good as a master, I believe you know better than me.”

Listening to Yang Chen’s words, the women were taken aback. Although it was an argument to say that it was not to delay the journey, the latter words were the main point. Unexpectedly, the four women began to think about what was the main goal of their cultivation now, was it just to experience it? Or were there other more important things?

When they were cultivating, the elders of the sect taught them that they must specialize in one discipline, either alchemy or refining. The four women did not deviate from this.

In addition to cultivation, Gao Yue specialized in refining and Gongsun Ling even cultivated the formation techniques, which was purer than Gao Yue’s. As for Shi Shanshan, she had nothing more than her flying sword. Needless to say, Sun Qingxue was willing to abolish her cultivation level at the beginning because of her own cultivation mistakes. The persistence in her heart was by no means comparable to ordinary people.

“Second, it is also to show you the easiest way to survive after arriving in the Demon Continent.” After Yang Chen and the other women thought about it, he put down the two fingers and said with a smile “If you cannot attack, escape right away, this is the safest way.”

The Demon Continent was extraordinary, and one carelessness could cost them their lives. The dao sect’s fighting style was incompatible with this place to a large extent. If they can’t find an effective way to gain a foothold in the initial stage, then the four women would be in danger.

Even though Yang Chen has great abilities, it was impossible to keep an eye on the four women all the time. Therefore, personal protection was definitely not as good as letting the four women master their own way of survival, and giving people fish was not as good as teaching people how to fish. This was the truth.

“Then if it is an opponent that can be defeated, but it will only take a longer time, can’t we attack?” Sun Qingxue’s words actually represent the meaning of the four women and only she asked them out.

“No!” Yang Chen categorically denied Sun Qingxue’s words, and at the same time denied the thoughts of the four wives.

“Why?” With the other three sisters backing her up, Sun Qingxue looked at her husband without fear, and put on a posture of dissatisfaction, waiting for Yang Chen to explain. Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling and Shi Shanshan stood behind Sun Qingxue in cooperation, looking at Yang Chen with eight pairs of wonderful eyes.

“I know that you are all genius disciples in your sect who have reached the realm of the Yuanying stage at a young age. Facing a guy who can’t even be regarded as a powerful enemy and fleeing without a fight will make you very dissatisfied.” Yang Chen saw his wivies all stood opposite him and he couldn’t help but gave a wry smile and then began to explain “Facing the enemy you must defeat them, right?”

The four women nodded in unison, and the neat movements of the four extremely beautiful faces in front of Yang Chen were simply the most pleasing painting. But Yang Chen didn’t feel any appreciation at this moment. He had to persuade the four women to prepare for the cruelest battles ahead.

“If you really think like this, and plan to do so, you may not even survive a month in the Demon Continent.” Yang Chen was very rudely attacking the girls, without saving face at all. “Even if your cultivation is twice as strong as it is now, it would be the same result.”

Yang Chen’s appearance was too serious, and the four women couldn’t help being careful. As their husband, Yang Chen would never cheat them. If this was the case, then Yang Chen has enough reason to say this.

The dao sect’s fighting method was very similar to that of an upright confrontation between two armies. Even if it was a way of eliminating the demons to protect the dao, you have to shout from a distance and tell the other person to face death before you could attack.

There was nothing wrong with this method. As a decent person, of course, he cannot be punished without teaching. The other party must have a way to kill him before he would kill them, or make an appointment early and issue a life and death challenge. Yang Chen has experienced this several times.

However, if you always insist on such a method and don’t know how to work it out, then it’s a trivial matter to run into a demon clan disciple. The other party could use sneak attacks, and you could always be prepared with caution.

The problem was that there were more than monsters and demons on the Demon Continent. In fact, all the cultivators were a group. The common enemy of everyone was the monsters that had been contaminated and demonized by the devilish qi.

Any cultivator, whether it was a dao cultivator or demon cultivator, or an ordinary monster cultivator, once accidentally invaded by demonic qi and unable to resist the invasion of the demonic qi, he will be demonized by the qi and become a monster without any normal thinking. Seeing a living creature with spirit power, it would absorb the other’s spirit power under the instinct to strengthen oneself.

There are only two consequences of the spirit power being absorbed by a demonic fiend, either death or becoming a new demonic fiend. In fact, the war in the immortal world that Yang Chen knew about was started thousands of years later in his previous life was to deal with a more powerful demonic fiend. It’s just that Yang Chen still doesn’t know if these demonic fiends were related to the devil.

After some powerful demonic fiends die, the demonic qi of their whole body would condense into a magical demon orb. After the demon orb was processed to remove the demonic qi, it was the best medicine for cultivators to promote their cultivation base, even compared to a thousand year medicinal materials such as ginseng, it was even stronger.

You must know that before the demonization of the cultivator, it had its own good strength. The demon orb was almost another way of gathering the essence of life and the essence of cultivation, which was of great benefit to the cultivator. The stronger the demonic fiend, the higher the condensed demon orb and the better the effect.

Of course, it was best to be able to kill with one blow. But once caught in a hard fight, it would definitely be a disaster for the cultivator.

Chapter 497.2: Cultivating On The Way

The way demonic fiends fight was fundamentally different from normal people's thinking. Generally, fiends always appear in groups. If you were surrounded by several fiends, and there was no means to quickly kill the opponent or escape, in addition to being attacked by the fiends, you must also resist the invasion of the demonic qi, no matter how high your cultivation base was, it would be very stressful.

Therefore, this method advocated by Yang Chen was definitely the most suitable method after arriving in the Demon Continent. It was not only useful when you have a firm foothold in the early stage, but also applicable to veterans who have lived there for a long time.

Of course, after adapting, everyone would naturally develop their own way. Each method was extremely suitable for combat and survival, and there would never be another direction.

"This is not quite the same as what our sect knows!" Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan obviously have more doubts. What Yang Chen said was completely different from the opinions of some people in the sect who have been to the Demon Continent and returned alive. Which one should they listen to?

"The demonic qi is constantly spreading, but it is temporarily restricted to the Demon Continent, and there is no particularly good way to suppress it." Yang Chen explained very seriously "In order not to cause unnecessary panic, the entire Demon Continent is sealed by a formation, and there are only a few holes in and out. Everyone who enters the Demon Continent will be forced to take a heart demon oath, and must not disclose the true situation on the Demon Continent to outsiders in any way."

“For this reason, those masters who set up the seal formation at the beginning have unified a set of lies, so that the masters returning from the Demon Continent can deal with the interrogation of others.” Yang Chen quickly explained “Generally, the masters who return alive. ... will have a great future, and will never use their own life in this matter to please a certain sect.”

These things were all learned by Yang Chen from a dying expert in the spiritual world. That expert had experienced the Demon Continent, and he had always been tight-lipped. It wasn't until he met a major enemy in the spiritual world and he was dying that he told this to Yang Chen.

Yang Chen was only half-knowledgeable and didn't even know what the demon qi was. So he only had this concept, but he was still very vague about the real situation of the Demon Continent. It could almost be said that he doesn't understand the real demonic fiends at all.

Listening to Yang Chen's words, the four women were a little shocked for a while. Who so generously arranged to seal off a continent, and even not let dao sect leaders, including dao sect leaders like the Greatest Heaven Sect know, was it another unknown force?

Regarding this, Yang Chen wasn't very clear, everything could only be known after arriving in the Demon Continent in person. However, some ways of living have to be instilled in advance for the four women, lest they suffer at that time.

“To enter the Demon Continent, you have to face cruel killings.” Yang Chen waited for everyone to digest, and continued “The demonic fiends are everyone's common enemy, but our enemies are not only fiends, but there are countless others who would try to snatch your demon orbs and they will try all methods. Each demon orb is equivalent to years or even decades of hard cultivation, and no one will remain unmoved.”

The reason why the masters who could go back alive have a bright future was because of the existence of the demon orb. No matter how poorly qualified people are, after they piled up with this kind of cultivation base that was almost equivalent to the accumulation of time, he could always become a master of a generation. Coupled with the strong combat experience, there was a hundred percent chance they would become a peerless master.

“How could no one know about something heaven defying like the demon orb?” Shi Shanshan was very concerned about improving her cultivation and immediately asked the key point “If we can find a large number of demon orbs, can the cultivation base be greatly improved?”

“Theoretically speaking, yes!” Yang Chen directly gave a positive answer “However, I don’t recommend you to do this. In addition, there are not many opportunities to get demon orbs.”

Not every monster would condense demon orb after death, only monsters that are strong enough to a certain degree would have the demon orb after death, and they cannot consume too much qi fighting before death. Yang Chen didn’t know what kind of fiends in what realm of cultivation level would condense the demon orbs, but he also knew that the chance of getting the demon orbs was probably one in ten thousand, which was very difficult.

As for why Yang Chen didn’t recommend that all the girls take the demon orbs, there was another reason. For cultivators who are not so outstanding in their cultivation aptitude, using these external objects to improve their cultivation was a faster way than their own cultivation speed.

But for a genius disciple like Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue, this was not a good idea. No matter how good the external power was, it wasn’t better than the power that comes out of self-cultivation.

For the four wives of Yang Chen, they came here to gain experience, that was, they really came to only gain experience, as for other gains, they didn’t need to think too much about it for the time being. This was what Yang Chen said at the beginning, to understand what their main purpose was, if it was a trivial matter, then they would give it up.

The four women finally understood Yang Chen’s good intentions, and began to treat them cautiously. The experience along the way was completely in accordance with Professor Yang Chen’s method, one strike without stopping. It was especially important that they could quickly determine the strength of the opponent in this strike, and then make further choices. This was the real focus.

While practicing this way of fighting, the four women were consciously fighting each other. Everyone knew in their hearts that the five people could not be together forever, and that they wouldn’t always live under the care of Yang Chen’s wings, which was not a good thing for anyone. The four women understood this and Yang Chen himself understood it.

Although the girls were very harmonious when they were together, they were still competing in their hearts. At least Yang Chen knows that Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan were uniting against Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling, and there would be some kind of competition between Sun Qingxue, Shi Shanshan and Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling.

Everyone was not convinced to be overwhelmed by others, and naturally they worked hard and competed secretly. Normally they practiced a lot of combined attacks, but the frequency of each individual was not low, and no one wanted to see that others were better than themselves.

They were geniuses in cultivation and after being instructed by Yang Chen, although the cultivation of the four girls has not been directly improved, their combat effectiveness has risen sharply. He believed that those guys who could still compete with all the girls before they set off would definitely die ugly against the four girls at this moment.

During the training of the girls, the Demon Continent finally appeared in front of everyone.

Chapter 498.1: Kill Him

They rushed from the central plains to the Demon Continent, but they still spent a full 13 years of wandering on the sea. Everyone finally saw the shadow of the Demon Continent before their eyes.

They didn't even need to judge, everyone knew that this must be the Demon Continent. Before getting close, they could detect the restriction of the formation. A hundred miles away, a warning sound was heard.

"A hundred miles ahead is the Demon Continent, if you want to live, turn back quickly!" A majestic but annoyed voice repeated the above four sentences very solemnly, as if to warn the people who approached, where this place was.

Finally arrived at the destination, all the women had been waiting for a while. They didn't know what it looks like on the Demon Continent, and what challenges they would encounter.

During these thirteen years, all the girls have been training all the way on the sea. They encountered countless sea beasts in the Dacheng and Yuanying stage, and even almost hit the territory of a sea beast that was in the midst of a tribulation. If it hadn't been for Yang Chen to discover it early and use the sea jasper lamp to shield their spiritual awareness and escape, maybe they would have been drawn into the range of the tribulation and be attacked by the tribulation.

There were fights almost every day, and every day they had to flee. Even most of the time, Yang Chen would drive the shuttle to observe from a distance, until the women or one of the wives ended the battle or escaped from the attack range of the sea beasts, then they would be picked up by the shuttle.

By the time they arrived here, the women had extremely rich combat experience. In other words, they had extremely rich experience in protecting themselves. It was better to practice in advance at sea than to practice after facing the demonic fiends.

When they were about ten miles away from the coast, there was a voice telling everyone which direction they should go in to avoid being attacked by the formation.

Yang Chen didn't succeed either. He honestly followed the voice prompts and circled the coastline for almost thousands of miles before he came to a portal that could enter the Demon Continent.

It's really a huge portal, it wasn't known who made it. The huge stone tens of feet high was carved as a whole, with dragons and phoenixes, it was exquisitely unusual. When the crowd appeared, and when they took the shuttle to enter the portal, under the huge arched portal, they looked like five tiny ants.

Their spiritual awareness could not penetrate inside the door at all, nor could they even see the scene inside the door. It's the same situation all the way along the coastline for thousands of miles. On the sea, they didn't know what was going on in the Demon Continent.

As soon as they entered the huge arch, Yang Chen was slightly taken aback. Inside the arch was a huge square, it was more than enough to hold tens of thousands of people. On the other side of the square, there was another slightly smaller portal. But at this moment the door was closed tightly, and it wasn't known when it would open.

At this moment, on this huge square, there were hundreds of cultivators scattered around, some people and monsters, each gathered into several small groups, scattered in all directions. Seeing someone come in, they all looked up.

The four women had already covered their faces with veils before they entered the door, but the slender figure and perfect body of the four of them still attracted a lot of people's coveted eyes.

This veil was refined by Yang Chen during the practice of the women at sea. While hiding the face, it did not affect the sight at all. It would not feel uncomfortable, it was very suitable for four women.

The people sitting in the square basically didn't speak much, scattered from the east to the west, and everyone looked at them. They all seem to be on guard.

Spiritual awareness could already be used, but no one would easily use it. So many people gather here, and it was no less than provocative to use their spiritual awareness to probe easily.

Everyone was sitting and waiting in the square. Yang Chen was of course no exception. He directly looked for a direction and took the four women to the edge, and then occupied the corner and sat down.

Everyone in the square, almost all of them stared straight at Yang Chen when the five of them walked over there. Some guys looked at the attractive figures of the four women and seemed to have begun to drool. However, no one spoke, no one acted, everyone just watched.

It was a young man who had been sitting in a corner. Seeing Yang Chen and his party, his eyes lit up. When Yang Chen and the others sat down, he stood up and walked towards Yang Chen.

The action of a single person immediately attracted everyone's attention. Everyone's eyes followed the young man who was in action. They watched him walk to a place two feet away from Yang Chen's family and stopped.

"The entrance and exit door is opened once a month, and it will be opened in three days. Before opening the door, no one is allowed to do anything here." The young man was born very handsome and he didn't have sturdiness at all. He also had a cultivation base in the early Yuanying stage, and it seemed that there was no threat at all.

“Thank you for telling me!” Yang Chen thanked the other party, “please forgive me, I Yang Risheng don’t know how your excellency is called?” Being in the Demon Continent, Yang Chen also had a cautious heart and didn’t tell the other party his true identity.

“I am Li Cheng!” The young man also bowed his hands in return, but his eyes turned to the four women.

“Here are my few friends.” Yang Chen casually introduced them to Li Cheng “Han Mei, Liu Yun, Xue Wu, Bi Xia, this time we planned to come here together to gain experience.”

Yang Chen himself used a fake name, so naturally he would not tell the other party the true names of the four women. The Demon Continent was insidious and treacherous and being careful was indispensable.

“Good to meet you!” Li Cheng arched his hands at the women and said in a low voice, then turned and left. But before leaving, he whispered to everyone “Maybe we will meet again in the future.”

Watching Li Cheng return to his original corner, Yang Chen realized that Li Cheng was alone. It was very rare for anyone to come to the Demon Continent to experience it alone, but Yang Chen soon discovered that he wasn’t the only one, a little strange and rare. Among the hundreds of people around, at least three were sitting alone.

Those three guys seemed to be at the mid-to-late Yuanying stage and at a glance, you could see their sturdiness. Even if you don’t know them, you know that they must have been honed in some difficult places. Although no murderous aura was released from their bodies, the fierce smell could be found no matter how far away.

Among the more than 100 people on the square, there were only a few Jiedan stage masters, and the others were masters of the Yuanying stage, but it seems that so many people combined were not as fierce as these three guys.

Most people’s eyes were always focused on the three masters, intentionally or unintentionally. Regarding this, the three of them didn’t even think about it, sitting on their own, as if they hadn’t been affected at all.

After observation, even the eyes of the four women began to sweep over the three of them, but Yang Chen's attention was always on Li Cheng who had just come to talk to them.

Chapter 498.2: Kill Him

Li Cheng's performance did not seem to be special. Strictly speaking, it was only slightly enthusiastic. He came over to tell Yang Chen the day when they door would be opened.

Judging from his realm exposed to the outside, Li Cheng was just in the early Yuanying stage, and it was not a threat to most people here. Moreover, the kind of tenderness he showed, as if he was enthusiastic and not guarding against others, was easy for everyone to ignore.

Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan, and Sun Qingxue were carefully observing everyone on the square. Although these people may all be in the same camp after they enter, no one could guarantee that there would be no other plots. The four women were very defensive in their hearts.

Soon, the four girls discovered that Yang Chen seemed to be paying attention to Li Cheng consciously or unconsciously, and they were all puzzled. They wanted to ask, but this was not the place, they could only hold their doubts in their hearts.

Li Cheng's aura was not outstanding, but Yang Chen always felt a little strange, but for a while, he couldn't find the strangeness.

Many cultivators who came here to gain experience may have been wrongly induced by people, thinking that this was a place of gaining experience where they fight each other. Before arriving in this square, they had been listening to the guidance of the mysterious voice. In the square, everyone was waiting for the door to open and it was fine for the time being.

However, as the opening time approached, some people began to have some unnecessary thoughts. There was another hour when the door was about to open, and everyone on the square was no longer sitting honestly and began to walk around.

"Boy, you came here alone, be careful. How about taking refuge with us and ensuring your safety?"

“You little Jiedan stage masters also dare to come to the Demon Continent, if you want to survive become this old man’s servant, this old man can take care of you.”

First of all, the few people who were alone and the cultivators in the Jiedan stage were drawn in and threatened by the gangs of several people around. Of course, none of them dared to do this to the three seemingly fierce cultivators, but aimed at Li Cheng and a few small groups of one or two people.

When Yang Chen thought he would stay out of the matter temporarily, someone began to target him. To be precise, it was the women around him.

At this moment, in front of Yang Chen, ten people came from afar, all of them were men and women. The leader was a man who looked very handsome. The man was also followed by four women, but at first glance, the women were his concubines or slaves, and they were very attached to the man. One has even been in the arms of the man.

The remaining five were very fierce men, like the man’s bodyguards or servants. Directly facing Yang Chen was a brawny man with his arms folded.

“My young master has taken a fancy to these friends of yours and wants to invite them to cultivate together.” When the brawny man spoke, his face almost turned up to the sky, he was just looking at people with his chin, very disdainful.

“Liu San, be polite, don’t scare the young ladies.” The young master’s voice came from behind the strong man, ordering very casually.

The brawny man was in the Yuanying stage. However, he was called a vulgar name like Liu San, with only a surname and no first name, and was replaced by numbers. Obviously, he was a type of domestic servant.

“Yes, Young Master!” The strong man hurriedly bowed and agreed, and then moved forward, whispering viciously in a voice that only Yang Chen could hear. “Boy know your limit, otherwise you will face an ugly end.”

“Fuck off!” Yang Chen squinted at the brawny man and yelled.

The brawny man was taken aback and then a cruel glow appeared in his eyes, a grinning smile appeared on his face “my young master likes your women, he wants them as his cauldrons.”

“If you don’t want to die now, get out of here!” Yang Chen snorted again.

This time the brawny man smiled savagely again and left. Immediately, the young master hugged the woman in his arms and walked over.

“Put down your veil and let me see what kind of flowers and moon looks you have in the end.” The young master’s arrogant voice spoke, but this time he was directly facing the four girls and ignored Yang Chen.

The four girls didn’t even raise their heads, and ignored the young master who they didn’t know where he appeared from. There was no way to no everyone, this mortal world was too big, the Dao sects only occupied a small piece of territory, countless cultivators were distributed on the vast territory, it was normal not to know where others emerged from.

“You will be good cauldrons!” The young master didn’t take it seriously. He just looked at the four women unscrupulously with a gaze like appreciating the goods and praised them.

The woman in his arms seemed unhappy, but the young master didn’t care about it, his arms tightened and her face changed slightly. The young master’s behaviour, she has long been accustomed to it, nothing more than fighting for favor. The four women, even if they were favoured for a while, could not compete with her.

The four women still ignored him, but the young master smiled disapprovingly. He has seen a lot of women like this. At first, they ignored him and when they really knew his status, they would flock to him. The four women around him were proof.

“Liu San!” The young master shouted at the brawny man just now, looking at the four women.

“Liu San is here, young master!” Liu San immediately shouted loudly.

“Kill him as soon as he enters the door.” The young master dropped a sentence, then put his arms around the woman in his arms and walked to the door.

Liu San replied in a low voice, and then shook his head left and right. Two strong men similar to Liu San stood beside Yang Chen, looking at Yang Chen as if looking at a dead person.

The people on the square have already discussed the moment. Those who should make a decision have already made a decision. They were clearly divided into several groups, a few fewer than they were at the beginning.

The door to the Demon Continent was finally opened in the expectation of everyone, and then several close groups walked in first. Then came the lonely fellows. Afterwards, the young master and his servants and concubines also stepped into the door with a laugh.

In the square, only the five members of Yang Chen’s family were left. Only then did they slowly get up and walk towards the portal.

“Are you ready?” At the edge of the portal, Yang Chen asked the four women.

“Yes!” the four women nodded in response.

“Let’s go!” Yang Chen laughed and stepped into the door first. The four women followed, all of them entered the Demon Continent.

“Boy, die!” Liu San’s familiar voice sounded directly in everyone’s ears.

Chapter 499.1: Here Is Not A Playground

Several rays of light came straight at Yang Chen, without giving Yang Chen any preparation time at all, deliberately wanting Yang Chen’s life as soon as he came in.

It seemed that the people around this young master were resolute and vigorous, without the kind of greeting nonsense, directly attacking the opponent, neat and tidy.

Yang Chen stood there, as if frightened stupidly, motionless. Seeing that the three sword lights were about to descend on Yang Chen, three more rays of light suddenly appeared beside Yang Chen, which was able to block the flying sword that would kill him.

Gao Yue, Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan shot at the same time, each blocking a sword. Immediately afterwards, they rushed out and fought with Liu San and others who rushed up.

Gongsun Ling quickly stood in front of Yang Chen, as if she was Yang Chen's bodyguard, staring at her surroundings, not daring to relax at all.

The young master, who was waiting to see the excitement not far away, became sluggish at this moment. What situation was this? A man hiding behind several women? It turned out that these women were not Yang Chen's concubines, but bodyguards?

Thinking about the few women around him, all of them were cultivation cauldrons, and their cultivation bases were worse than his own. Letting them be bodyguards was simply looking for death. Compared with the women around Yang Chen, it seems that the people around him were a lot worse!

After killing the nasty kid Yang Chen this time, he must subdue these few women who seem to have good aptitudes. They could be his cauldron and also be his bodyguards, just imagining it brought him excitement.

"Be careful, don't hurt the girls!" The young master suddenly thought of a problem and hurriedly shouted loudly. It would be a pity if Liu San and the others hurt the girls regardless.

Thinking of the beautiful figures of the four women, the young master looked forward to seeing their beautiful faces under the veil. In any case, Liu San and the others should not be allowed to destroy these wonderful things.

What responded to him was not the familiar Liu San yelling “Yes. Young Master!”, but a bloody human head flying straight towards him.

He was just immersed in the wonderful fantasy, the young master did not pay attention to the battle. He was very confident in the abilities of Liu San and the others. You know, these guys were on his turf. But it was not just a master of the late Yuanying stage. Yang Chen and the others were all in the early Yuanying stage, so it's not a problem at all.

However, this bloody head destroyed all his beautiful imagination. It was not a good thing to behold the beautiful woman alive, it was too horrible.

The young master was planning to sweep the head away with a flick of his sleeves to prevent him from seeing the disappointment he shouldn't see, but suddenly his eyes widened and looked at the flying head incredibly.

It's impossible for a beautiful woman's head to be so ugly. On the head that kept tumbling, two big eyeballs staring at him, coupled with a shocked expression on his face, perfectly captured the owner of the head's dying expression at the moment of being beheaded.

Those eyes were so familiar, it has been with him for more than a hundred years. At this time, the young master realized that the head turned out to be Liu San's head that he had just ordered.

The woman in his arms also saw the head clearly and screamed in horror. The few of them were promoted to the Yuanying stage by the young master using secret methods and various medicinal herbs, where they would gain experience of fighting. In the past, they watched the young master kill people, but none of their own people have been killed, this was the first time.

Looking at the head of a familiar person, the several women screamed in horror. With the blood dripping continuously in the air, it was as if a horror movie was being staged.

With the screams of the several women, another head flew up. It was thrown in this direction, with the same blood dripping and the same dead eye.

“Leave me one!” Gongsun Ling let out a coquettish voice, which passed through the face-covered veil to the ears of everyone present.

Of the three servants who took action, there was only one left who had been severely injured by Sun Qingxue and was about to be beheaded. Just as his opponent Sun Qingxue was about to do something, when she heard Gongsun Ling’s cry, she flew up and kicked the hapless guy in front of Gongsun Ling.

Gongsun Ling was not polite, and quickly received the seriously injured guy in the mountain river geographical map. With this neat movement, no one could imagine the kind of grinning expression under Gongsun Ling’s veil.

A master in the Yuanying stage suddenly disappeared without a trace, and suddenly everyone was shocked. The two remaining servants of the young master hurriedly stood in front of the young master, covering the young master and his woman behind them, looking at Yang Chen and his party with horror.

“It’s a pity that you killed them so soon!” Gongsun Ling’s voice resounded beautifully again. It was very beautiful, just by listening to her voice, you can imagine how beautiful the face behind the veil was.

But on this occasion, Gongsun Ling’s voice made people involuntarily horrified. When the crowd looked at Gongsun Ling’s gaze, it was as if they were looking at some cannibal demon.

It was a terrifying way to die without a whole body, but in front of a girl with a beautiful body and a beautiful voice, it seems that he can’t even do this. He disappeared without a trace in an instant, and it was not that he disappeared out of thin air, but was received by someone in a space magic weapon.

The little girl was not afraid of what kind of damage a master in the late Yuanying stage would cause when entering her space magic weapon. This could only be explained by one thing, that was, she has completely eaten that guy.

Many people were waiting here with the intention of watching a show. It was not that no one saw the scene in the square just now. People have the habit of watching the excitement, especially if you look at the excitement, you could roughly estimate the strength of both sides. For those guys who may become their future opponents, everyone wants to pay attention.

It's just that, looking at it this time, half of the people felt chilly in their hearts. The three women who rushed out beside Yang Chen made their moves more fiercely than they thought.

Almost at the speed of light, the outcome was already clear. First was Shi Shanshan, and then Gao Yue, after the opponent only shot a sword, they used a kind mysterious body and sword technique, to behead them, showing no mercy. It's so firm and ruthless that people couldn't help but be shocked.

Chapter 499.2: Here Is Not A Playground

After thirteen years of training with those ferocious sea beasts at sea, the current fighting style of the four girls has almost become instinctive. They would never show mercy when they attacked.

If Gongsun Ling hadn't shouted in time and wanted an extra Yuanying stage master for the mountain river geographical map, the last guy would definitely have been beheaded by Sun Qingxue.

From this battle, it could basically be seen how the three females were practicing. Shi Shanshan had no distractions, her combat effectiveness was the most powerful, and she was also the first to kill her opponent. After Gao Yue succeeded in refining the Dragon Horn Flying Sword, together with cultivating the water and fire attributes, she was almost at the same time as Shi Shanshan, the difference was only a fine line.

Only Sun Qingxue didn't seem to be fierce enough. Although she had severely injured her opponent, she still hadn't finished him off. Of course, this has something to do with her cultivation base and also with the opponent's strength.

After several encounters, the three powerful servants that the young master had relied on became two corpses and one missing. The party that lost were the three late Yuanying stage masters, and the three women who won were only in the early Yuanying stage. This result shocked everyone who saw this scene.

The young master was already a little panicked. He couldn't think of the fact that the few women he wanted to take as his cauldrons were so powerful. If he knew this a long time ago, he wouldn't have provoked them. Now his three most powerful subordinates have been killed, where were the remaining two opponents of the three women?

The four women following him were just the playthings of the young master, and they didn't have enough strength for participating in the battle. Only the young master himself had some fighting power, but there were also Gongsun Ling and Yang Chen who hadn't done anything since the beginning.

At this time, even a fool could see that Gongsun Ling was definitely a master of the same rank as Shi Shanshan, Gao Yue and Sun Qingxue. Which force were the four female masters from that they were so terrifying?

Gao Yue, Shi Shanshan, Sun Qingxue the three women did not take back their flying swords. They slowly walked towards the young master from three directions. Gongsun Ling was not to be left behind, and stepped forward. Although the faces of the four women cannot be seen under the veil, the killing intent in the eyes of the four women was as obvious as a torch in the dark night.

"I think we might have a little misunderstanding." When the young master opened his mouth this time, it no longer had the arrogance that was there before. Instead, there were a lot of pleadings in his voice. "The young master of the Sleepy Dragon Valley has offended you a lot before, and I hope seniors will stay their hands and let this junior off."

In order to survive, the young master of the Sleepy Dragon Valley didn't even need his face. He was a master of the late Yuanying stage, directly addressing the early Yuanying stage ancestors as seniors, which was unheard of in the mortal world. Regarding age and cultivation base, he should be the predecessor of Yang Chen and others, but now he was saying the other way round.

No one laughed out of what they heard from him. Facing the horror between life and death, it was understandable what kind of gaffes he made.

Regardless, no one felt sympathy for the young master and his party. What did they come to the Demon Continent for? In order to carry out killing and gain experience, but the young master brought his concubines and servants, it was clear that the Demon Continent was regarded as a good place to play by him.

Relying on a little power in his family, he would not take a cruel place like the Demon Continent seriously, he deserves it. This kind of person would die sooner or later here, it's just the difference between dying early and dying late. He died early and was overborn, but now Yang Chen and the others have ended up losing it, and the province would add obstacles to others in the future.

A similar battle was happening all around. Several waves of people have fought separately since they first entered the door, but with such a quick victory and defeat, Yang Chen and the others were still the first wave.

“This is the Demon Continent.” Yang Chen had been standing there without doing anything, but at the moment he spoke.

In this sentence, the death penalty for these people has already been announced. To gain experience in the Demon Continent, you must be prepared to die at any time. Now that you are here, people who are not prepared have to die. The difference was that Yang Chen and the others would do it, or the demonic fiends would do it, or other people would do it. That’s it, the result was not any different.

The four women showed the results of training on the sea very well, and they swarmed up to face their already fearful opponents without mercy. Even if the other party already knows that the four women were so powerful, they wouldn’t die without a fight, but they persisted a few more times than the previous three.

The young master and the two servants fell under the swords of the girls without any accident, leaving the four concubines with pale shivering faces. Seeing the four women looking at them with cold eyes, the four women knelt on the ground in fright and kept begging.

Gongsun Ling stepped forward, shook her hand, and received the four women who dared not resist in the mountain river geographical map. Although these four women have poor combat effectiveness, it could even be said that they have no combat effectiveness at all, but at any rate they were also having Yuanying stage cultivation bases. As long as they breathe out refining qi in the mountain river geographical map, they could increase the power of the mountain river geographical map.

Although this method was cruel, it was better than killing them. It’s better to live than to die, isn’t it?

Ten people, ten Yuanying stage masters, in a blink of an eye, only five corpses with no heads were left, and the other five disappeared without a trace. Watching this scene, everyone around was a little bit scared.

Among the Yang Chen’s group, no one dared to despise them because of their early Yuanying stage cultivation bases. On the contrary, many people had cast horrified glances at them. They believed that after this episode, at least these people who just came in, no one would dare to make moves against them lightly.

Li Cheng, who had been staying here to watch the excitement, stepped forward at the moment, gave Yang Chen a thumbs up, smiled and praised "Brother Yang is really amazing!"

The people were killed by the four women, but Li Cheng gave Yang Chen a thumbs up, which made people feel uncomfortable.

But Yang Chen didn't underestimate Li Cheng in the slightest. In his eyes, no matter how powerful those fierce guys were, he could always see through the strength of each of them. But Li Cheng was a bit unpredictable. On the surface, he was only having the strength of the early Yuanying stage, but when Yang Chen faced Li Cheng, he always had a frightened feeling, as if he was instinctively afraid of something.

This was a feeling that Yang Chen had never felt before. Even when facing the Profound Heaven Sect's sect master in his previous life, Yang Chen had never been so frightened when the other party waved his hand to wipe out Yang Chen.

But Yang Chen couldn't find anything unusual about Li Cheng. This kind of unknown fear was the most scary thing. Fortunately, Li Cheng didn't seem to be malicious towards Yang Chen. He just greeted him and left quickly by himself.

Yang Chen couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief, his eyes turned to the world behind the door, and for the first time began to seriously look at this legendary demon continent.

Chapter 500.1: You Dare Deceive Me

All the scenes do not seem to be much different from the central plains dao sects. If there was a difference, it was a lush forest, almost all over their field of vision.

Using his spiritual awareness to explore the depths of the forest, Yang Chen quickly grasped the terrain for thousands of miles. In the forest, there were water networks and rivers. The weather here was obviously much hotter than the central plains, and the air was much humid.

Such an environment was suitable for many monsters to survive. In this vast expanse of huge jungle, he doesn't know how many fierce monsters hide in it.

Almost thousands of miles away, Yang Chen's spiritual awareness detected an unusual aura, which was probably the demonic aura among those populations. However, within this range, the devilish qi was very weak, it seemed that it was only slightly seeping out from the center, and it was not enough. It was estimated that he would need to go deeper if he wanted to kill the monster.

Not far from the door, there was a long table with hundreds of jade slips on the table. Some people have seen that in the past they picked up jade slips to read, but everyone picked up a few and put them down, and then took a piece of it and put it away.

Yang Chen took care of the few people's qiankun bags, and after the good things were divided among the girls, he came to the table and picked up a piece of jade slip to explore with his spiritual awareness. The women were no exception, they took a piece of it to check.

At first glance, Yang Chen discovered that the information recorded in this jade slip turned out to be a map of the Demon Continent. Some peripheral gathering points were recorded above, and some dangerous areas were indicated, and the others were not recorded much. It seems that the people here were really well prepared, they even thought about these details.

Yang Chen was no exception at the moment. He took a piece and put it away, and he experienced it in the Demon Continent. With such a map, it could save a lot of time and effort. Presumably the contents of the other jade slips were the same. Yang Chen didn't look at it any more. After watching the women each receive one piece, they flew towards the closest gathering point.

When you first come to the gathering point, you can also understand some of the situation here. Of course, even the nearest gathering point. You have to pass through a dangerous area on the map, and you may inevitably fight on the road.

"Husband, we have something to discuss with you." When Yang Chen controlled the shuttle's flight, Gao Yue suddenly spoke with Yang Chen in a rare tone.

"What's the matter? Let's talk." Yang Chen said casually. He also sat at the table in the flying shuttle, but the four women sat opposite him.

“Husband, we want to gain experience alone.” After the four women looked at each other, Shi Shanshan suddenly spoke to Yang Chen. The expressions of the four girls were very serious.

“Gain experience alone?” Yang Chen was slightly surprised. In the Demon Continent, where an accident killed people, if the five people worked together, their chance of survival would be even greater. The four women wanted to practice alone. Why won’t it surprise Yang Chen?

“Along the way, we felt that every time we encountered something, you had to arrange it first. This seems to lose the meaning of gaining experience.” This time it was Gao Yue who spoke again, in a negotiating tone. “If we are so dependent on our husband in the future, maybe we will become the same as the young master’s concubines.”

The women that Gao Yue mentioned had no effect in their entire lives except for sticking to the young master’s side, wooing the young master, and serving as a furnace for the young master. Their practice was just to increase the bargaining chip to please the young master.

Yang Chen had never regarded his wife as such a woman, not to mention other things, just the previous life cold plum fairy and dancing snow fairy were so heroic. How could it be possible that such a majestic beauty has been subjugated to become someone’s concubine furnace?

But what Gao Yue said seemed to have some truth. Because Yang Chen had the advantage of rebirth, he always tried to tell them how to do it, but he also forgot that the women around him, even without him, should live very wonderfully.

After too much time, Yang Chen suddenly wanted to understand where his mistake was. He valued them so much that he restrained their original growth. Practicing within the framework given by others was a taboo in cultivation and the women were obviously aware of this problem.

Now the four women were very serious about this matter to Yang Chen, after Yang Chen thought for a while, he finally nodded. The four women’s experience at sea has also been fruitful, as he could see from the battle against the young master who was from the Sleeping Dragon Valley.

“Pay attention to safety.” Yang Chen took out almost all the healing pills on his body and distributed them to the four women. Since he wanted the four women to break through in the Demon Continent by themselves, he had refined a large number of them on the sea, and when necessary, these pills were life-saving items.

The four women of course accepted their own husband's confidence in them, and they all accepted the pill with ease. The naughty Sun Qingxue even kissed Yang Chen gently on the cheek "Thank you, husband!"

"Every other year, take a month to meet at this gathering point." Since they have to cultivate separately, there must always be a day when everyone would reunite, or to exchange experience with each other, Yang Chen could also make some new refinements and hand the medicine to them.

The women nodded and agreed. Then Yang Chen had some instructions for them and then watched the four women leave in four directions one by one. Even Yang Chen didn't know why he was such a dick, maybe it was really the reason for his concern.

After sending away the four wives, Yang Chen suddenly felt a little distracted and a little more irritable. The departure of the four girls was also the path they should take in practice, rather than being tied by him. This was the right thing, but Yang Chen couldn't make himself happy.

Yang Chen was depressed, so naturally he was looking for someone to vent. Isn't it easy to find some opponents to kill in the Demon Continent?

The high-speed shuttle plunged into the dangerous area marked on the map. This was actually only the outermost area contaminated with devil qi, and there are only some monsters that are equivalent to the early Jiedan stage. Under Yang Chen's venting, slashing and killing, in just one hour, hundreds of Jiedan stage monsters turned into bloody fragments.

However, this simple killing did not let Yang Chen completely vent his boredom, so Yang Chen thought about the hapless Li Liheng again.

Who made Li Liheng leave a mark of spiritual awareness on his body, who made Li Liheng cultivate the so-called spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method, and who made Li Liheng the only guy with Yang Chen's spiritual awareness that could communicate with outside the demon continent?

Then he could only be unlucky.

Chapter 500.2: You Dare Deceive Me

The demon continent shields the spiritual awareness, this was the merit of the formation. Even if Yang Chen's powerful spiritual awareness had reached the second stage of the human immortal realm, he couldn't break through this terrifying formation.

However, there was one exception, and that was Li Liheng, he cultivated the spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method. The power of this technique lies in the fact that the spiritual awareness of the cultivator could pass through the barriers of the mortal world and the immortal realm, the small formations that were also in the mortal world couldn't shield his spiritual awareness, even if Li Liheng's cultivation base was still very low, it was still impossible.

As a result, the poor young sect master Li Liheng of the Greatest Heaven Sect became a victim of Yang Chen's anger at this time. When he was cultivating, he was surrounded by the sudden anger of the predecessor Liu Fengzi, he didn't even know what was going on.

"You damn liar!" Carrying an unpredictable majesty, Li Liheng was almost at a loss for Liu Fengzi's anger. Senior Liu Fengzi even directly denounced him as a damn liar.

The pressure of a mountain directly pressed Li Liheng's consciousness firmly in a certain corner, feeling the monstrous anger of Liu Fengzi, Li Liheng could not even say a word.

Li Liheng has never discovered that when he faces a person's anger, it could be so terrible. Even when he faced Sect Master Li's anger, he was just scared on his face, and there was a slight rebellion in his heart, but in the face of the anger of Senior Liu Fengzi, he did not even dare to continue breathing. His heartbeat? Will it disturb Senior Liu Fengzi, could he stop it?

Finally, after the torrential flames of anger of the predecessor Liu Fengzi, his mood was slightly calmed down. The huge pressure that had always been on his head was also slightly reduced, giving Li Liheng finally a chance to express a little bit of his thoughts. But it's just a little bit, nothing else.

"Senior, is there any misunderstanding?" Li Liheng looked at the situation and asked cautiously. He really didn't know where he had offended Senior Liu Fengzi, and how he would provoke such monstrous anger.

The young sect master of the dignified Greatest Heaven Sect who has recently been able to call fourth wind in the sect. If he wanted it to rain it would rain, where has he been under such terrible pressure. Now Li Liheng only wanted to prove his innocence and not let the predecessor Liu Fengzi bear hatred towards him.

It must be known, everything he has now was bestowed by Senior Liu Fengzi. Once he doesn't have the support of Senior Liu Fengzi, he could only be the poor worm who could be bullied by any expert in the medicinal hall.

He was said to be cautious, but in fact, this was in his conscious world, which could be described with sincerity and fear.

"The old man asked a few masters who soared up from the sect. In the past hundreds of years, there has never been a human sect disciple who has cultivated the spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method." The anger of the predecessor Liu Fengzi really had a reason. Of course, it was only Yang Chen's reason for venting out, otherwise, where was there an excuse to go crazy?

However, those guys who ascended not knowing about the spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method was normal. This was originally a secret held in the hearts of a few core elders, and not everyone could know it.

In short, this reason was reasonable no matter how it was considered, as no core elders have soared recently. The last group of elders who knew about the spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method who soared to the spiritual realm obviously didn't know that there was a little guy named Li Liheng who was cultivating this cultivation method which was almost impossible to succeed in.

"Say! Where did you come from? You dare to pretend to be my Greatest Heaven Sect disciple!" After talking about the reasons just now, the anger of Liu Fengzi emerged again, and the monstrous power once again suppressed Li Liheng and he couldn't speak anymore.

It seemed that Liu Fengzi's anger was a bit too great, and the terrifying pressure directly caused poor Li Liheng to lose consciousness. That's not to say, even the sect master and several core elders who surrounded Li Liheng every time felt the terrifying pressure through Li Liheng's aura.

Released together with the pressure, there was also an undisguised killing intent, so that all the people present were like the servants who have fallen into an ice cave and weren't having any cultivation bases. They either fainted or rattled their fearful teeth, and none of them could maintain a standing form.

After a long time, the horrible aura slowly dissipated, the sect master and several core elders were relieved, and then immediately began to treat Li Liheng who had fainted due to the pressure.

When Li Liheng woke up, the anxious elders waited to understand what had happened. It turns out that it was because of this, everyone has a feeling of dumbfounding.

But thinking about it, they know how much this senior Liu Fengzi has helped them, he has given them pointers for dozens of years. On average, once a year, there were dozens of times. After so many "selfless" instructions, if he was deceived, they would be furious if they were replaced by him.

"What should I do? Senior Liu Fengzi doesn't believe that I am a disciple of the Greatest Heaven Sect, what should I do?" Li Liheng was the person who valued this issue the most. Everything he currently enjoys, status, power, even wealth, women, comes from Liu Fengzi's support, once Liu Fengzi no longer believed in him, he would fall into hell completely.

Sect Master Li looked at Li Liheng's anxious look, and exchanged glances with several core elders and then said gently "It's okay! It's okay!"

They naturally withdrew from everyone and then placed dozens of restrictions, and then Sect Master Li smiled and comforted Li Liheng and said "Don't be afraid, the sky has not fallen down!"

"But Senior Liu Fengzi doesn't believe in this disciples anymore!" How could Li Liheng not be depressed? For sect master Li, it could be said that he has received the guidance he dreamed of, and several elders also did the same. Naturally, they could stand giving up their relationship with Liu Fengzi, but for Li Liheng, it was far from enough.

"My Greatest Heaven Sect have a set of codes that identify each other." Sect master Li felt that some things should be known to Li Liheng, and now the matter involves Li Liheng himself, so he was not afraid of leaking it "It is for the spiritual world seniors to recognize the disciples of my sect arranged in other sects."

The Greatest Heaven Sect had many chess pieces placed in other sects. Some of these chess pieces may be sacrificed, but some would soar. Once they go to the spiritual world, their identities cannot be recognized by the Profound Heaven Sect, which was a big problem. Therefore, the Greatest Heaven Sect naturally made a complete identification scheme.

“Next time you contact Senior Liu Fengzi, tell him this.” Sect master Li said to Li Liheng confidently
“These are the secret signs that have been left for tens of thousands of years, and they also prove that you are a core disciple of the Greatest Heaven Sect. As long as you give these secret codes, Senior Liu Fengzi will definitely trust you.”
