Chapter 581.1: Postnatal Spiritual Root

Postnatal spiritual root, what was that? Everyone who heard the news was stunned.

As the name suggests, since it was called the postnatal spiritual root, it must correspond to the innate spiritual root. The innate spiritual root should be easy to understand, the natural spiritual root, then, was this postnatal spiritual root a spiritual root that could be changed?

This was the reaction in the minds of those who heard the news for the first time. Could it be that in addition to the natural spiritual root, they could have other spiritual roots?

This was a major event in the mortal world. Not everyone has Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue's excellent aptitude, full-value spiritual roots, most of them are relatively good spiritual roots of some kind of Five Elements. Many people's cultivation bases were restricted, and most of them were due to insufficient qualifications.

Now suddenly there was a postnatal spiritual root, doesn't it mean that if they also have a postnatal spiritual root, maybe they will have the opportunity to come into contact with the Dao?

It was said that this was the alchemy master of the Pure Yang Palace, Yang Chen, Grandmaster Yang who accidentally discovered it a long time ago. In order to verify it, he even observed and experimented for hundreds of years among the newly recruited disciples of the Pure Yang Palace. Especially in the last 20 years, Grandmaster Yang has been observing the new disciples almost all the time, and this was certain.

The postnatal spiritual root was also of the five elements, and this time, Grandmaster Yang also announced the method of testing the postnatal spiritual root. If everyone has the conditions, they can take a simple test to determine whether they have the postnatal spiritual root.

Like the innate spiritual root, the postnatal spiritual root does not necessarily appear anytime, so the absence of it now does not mean that it will not exist in the future. In short, the emergence of the postnatal spiritual root was uncertain, it also gave many people a whole new hope.

The first action after all those who were interested in it reacted was to test their postnatal spiritual roots according to the method announced by the Pure Yang Palace.

It was relatively simple to test the postnatal spiritual root, as long as you use a unique multicolored stone. If you can't find it, you can go to the ten thousand treasure building, which has already started to operate this kind of colorful stone business.

Many people who didn't believe in it have seen with their own eyes that after their own tests, results that are different from their innate spiritual roots appear on the multicolored stone. For a moment, they were shocked and didn't know what to say.

Careful people immediately remembered, long ago, that Yang Chen urged his own master, Gao Yue, to modify her water-cultivation method to fire. Until now, Gao Yue was a fellow cultivator of water and fire. Her cultivation base was already in the middle Yuanying stage.

Could it be that since that time, Yang Chen has already discovered the clues of the postnatal spiritual roots? If Yang Chen, who was in the foundation building stage, forcibly ordered some disciples to cultivate methods with different attributes from their own innate spiritual roots when he instructed the disciples of Yixiu Villa, it could be said that Yang Chen started a long time ago.

Various sects have verified it one after another. Not surprisingly, they have easily discovered that many disciples have different postnatal spiritual roots. However, some postnatal spiritual roots were better than innate ones, and some are far inferior to innate ones. Yang Chen's published information has already been explained.

However, it was only found that someone has the situation announced by Yang Chen, but it does not prove that the acquired spiritual root was better than the innate spiritual root, and the cultivation according to the attributes of the postnatal spiritual root can have a better future. This cannot be decided immediately, at least it will take a long time to verify.

But judging from the current situation, it seems that Grandmaster Yang has not said anything false. If he usually says this, it basically means that there will be no major changes. At least the core elders of the Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect have believed this statement. As for the Pure Yang Palace, there was an example of Gao Yue, who doesn't believe it?

The level of support for believing and not believing was completely different. The Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect directly purchased a large number of multicolored stones and tested them one by one. Each test found a different result. If the postnatal spiritual root was better than the innate spiritual root, it was recommended to cultivate it immediately.

Among them, there were many disciples who were originally judged to be of poor aptitude and reluctantly allowed to join the sect. Suddenly, it was discovered that the excellence of their postnatal spiritual roots was astounding. This batch of disciples was immediately gathered, and then the sect attached great importance to them, resources were fully tilted, and they immediately cultivated new attributes.

In just half a year, it was enough for many people to discover the differences in the cultivation of different types of cultivation methods, and it was a direct proof that the postnatal spiritual roots mentioned by Yang Chen were indeed true. Those cultivators under the Yuanying stage directly chose to change their cultivation attributes.

As for the masters above the Yuanying stage, they need to choose by themselves. Maybe rebuilding will waste a long time, but it was about better development in the future, at least they will have a headache for a long time.

Countless praises were sent directly to the Pure Yang Palace and Yang Chen's ears. This was a great deed for the benefit of all cultivators. It gives everyone who aspires to cultivate a different choice. Even those who have not discovered their postnatal spiritual roots highly respected him.

If it was said that the amazing combat effectiveness was regarded as a special soldier in cultivation, then the person who publishes the results of this postnatal spiritual root research was basically a Nobel Prize winner in the modern world, at least a doctoral tutor or an academic leader.

Yang Chen's titles increased once more. This time, it's not the master with any prefix, but the word master who was completely straightforward. In the past, when everyone called Grandmaster Yang, it actually meant the master of alchemy, but now when they called Grandmaster Yang, he was a noble master and there was no hidden attribute.

In just one year, when almost all sects tested new disciples, there were more tests for postnatal spiritual roots. The multicolored stones in the ten thousand treasure building were sold out of stock from the very beginning.

Because of the emergence of the postnatal spiritual roots, almost the whole spirit power of the cultivation world was lifted. There have been no such research results related to the origin of cultivation for many years. Yang Chen's discovery was simply a grand event.

"This Yang Chen, what else is there that everyone hasn't discovered?" Such voices filled the various sects. Everyone was full of envy, jealousy and hatred for the disciple who was born in the Pure Yang Palace. How can such an excellent disciple not be their own disciple?

The influence of the Pure Yang Palace was directly raised to a whole new level because of this incident. The postnatal spiritual root was not only good for the dao sects, but also good for all cultivators, whether it was a disciple of the monster race or a demon sect, it was suitable for them. Just this, even if the demon sect was deviant, it will have more incense love for the Pure Yang Palace.

Chapter 581.2: Postnatal Spiritual Root

All the sects were happy, not for anything else, just because the discovery of the postnatal spiritual roots has allowed them to discover many good seedlings for cultivation, and the strength of the sects will gradually increase, which was naturally a good thing.

But the only sect that was not very pleasant was the Greatest Heaven Sect. Originally, someone in the Greatest Heaven Sect had stumbled upon such a phenomenon a hundred years ago, but they have never been able to understand it fully, so the research on this aspect has not been in-depth, but they did not expect that it was actually snatched by Yang Chen.

Strictly speaking, the Greatest Heaven Sect was not wrong, since Yang Chen asked Gao Yue to revise the water attribute cultivation method, at that time it showed that Yang Chen had already discovered the signs. The Greatest Heaven Sect only discovered it a hundred years ago, and it was naturally behind Yang Chen.

The main reason for the unhappiness was that the disciple Yang Chen, who was supposed to be from the Greatest Heaven Sect, was kicked out by some arrogant guy, and the Pure Yang Palace got him.

Every time Yang Chen made major achievements, it seems that he was peeling off a layer of flesh and blood on this scar for the core elders of the Greatest Heaven Sect, so that they can relive the depressing taste. They have to say that it was very uncomfortable.

All the rotating disciples who were in charge of receiving new disciples in that session were all reprimanded again by the higher-ups. It's really a mistake that turns into eternal hatred! Hundreds of years have passed, and every once in a while, they will be beaten and taught a lesson. These disciples were so depressed that they wanted to commit suicide. Was there anything more depressing than this?

Since the first time these disciples were punished, every time the Greatest Heaven Sect received new disciples, which of the rotating disciples were not careful, and did not dare to casually drive out a newcomer who had never seen the world. For fear of accidentally throwing a certain Li Chen and Wang Chen out. He was whipped over and over again because of this incident. The attitude of the Greatest Heaven Sect accepting new disciples has become a model of the dao domain.

Now Yang Chen's position in the cultivation world was already unbreakable. Not to mention the only fifth-grade alchemist in the mortal world, just discovering the postnatal spiritual root, almost all cultivators loved him. If you want to deal with Yang Chen, let alone those who have requests from Yang Chen, even if they are strangers, they will be brave enough to pick up the guy, no one else could say a word.

The appearance of the postnatal spiritual root seems to have strengthened the determination of the three major sects to win over Yang Chen. In addition to the Greatest Heaven Sect who still retain their backers, the Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect spared no effort to contact the Pure Yang Palace from all aspects, in order to allow Yang Chen to accept their female disciples.

Only by becoming the son-in-law of one's own sect, it seems that some anxiety can be stabilized. Now was not the time to casually destroy a future genius, at least not for Yang Chen. That being the case, it was better to win over than to grudge. This was something that any reasonable person could think of.

"You found out at that time?" When Gao Yue faced Yang Chen, she couldn't help but be surprised "Then why didn't you explain it clearly. Do you have to make me cultivate water and fire attribute cultivation methods by tricks?"

"The research was not thorough enough, How dare I talk nonsense." Yang Chen couldn't help but complain, but he couldn't help but smile.

At this time, Gao Yue recalled Yang Chen's insistence. In order to make her change the water attribute cultivation method, he even gambled by killing Lin Chang and the old devil. If there was any accident at that time, Gao Yue would not dare to think about it.

However, Yang Chen would be more adventurous. It seemed to show the importance of Gao Yue's position in his heart, thinking of this, Gao Yue couldn't help but feel sweet in her heart, full of the joy of being cared for.

The Pure Yang Palace, from the palace master to the core elders have not lost a smile on their faces for more than a year, they have always been beaming.

They can't help but say that this disciple Yang Chen was really powerful. Since recruiting him to join the sect, he has almost never let the sect worry about him. On the contrary, it was because of Yang Chen that the sect has gained a lot of benefits over and over again. Their strength has gradually improved, not to mention the growth of the sect, and even now their influence has reached a higher level, why would it not let these elders be happy?

"What are you going to do next?" The Palace Master was now concerned about Yang Chen's next plan. Since the postnatal spiritual root has come to an end, Yang Chen must have new plans.

"For the time being, this disciple doesn't have any new plans." Yang Chen answered truthfully. There was really nothing for Yang Chen to be busy with now. In his memory, there will be no major events for the next period of time. He just happened to send the ultimate demonized demon vine to Sun Qingxue, and then accompany Shi Shanshan for a trip. The rest was to wait for the Greatest Heaven Sect to launch the formation.

"Disciple is ashamed!" Suddenly Yang Chen remembered something. At that time, he got the seventh-grade fire seed of the Pure Yang Palace, the pure yang true fire, and said that it would be preserved for three hundred years. It has expired now, and he has not absorbed it or returned it. Speaking of which, this was Yang Chen's own mistake.

"The palace master promised this disciple that he could keep the pure yang true fire for three hundred years. This disciple is blunt and has not used it yet, so he should return it to the sect first." After saying that, Yang Chen hurriedly took out the pure yang true fire seed respectfully and sent it to the hands of the palace master.

In the eyes of the Palace Master, this was not a big deal. Yang Chen was now the young palace master, there was no difference between keeping it in the hands of Yang Chen and the Palace Master. At least no one at the top of the Pure Yang Palace will have any opinion.

However, since Yang Chen said so, it doesn't matter if the Palace Master takes it back. Anyway, when Yang Chen wants it, he can get it anytime, but it's just a little effort.

"If that's the case, then this old man will take it back." The sect master put away the fire seed, and then instructed "Whenever you need it in the future, come and ask this old man for it at any time."

"Thank you for your forgiveness!" Yang Chen thanked him very politely. This was the kindness of his elders, and of course he wouldn't reject it hypocritically.

"But then again, it seems that the sect really owes you a lot!" The palace master suddenly changed his words and said, "You made great achievements back then, and the sect allows you to enter the secret pavilion at any time to see what you needed, but you haven't been there once. It's okay anyway, just go in and have a look!"

This was the reward that Yang Chen had continuously made various contributions to, and Yang Chen naturally did not forget it. However, he doesn't think he can find anything in the secret pavilion of the Pure Yang Palace. It seems that there was nothing that could impress Yang Chen except the seventh-grade fire seed!

With Yang Chen's current net worth, how could he easily see the fortune accumulated by the ancestors of the Pure Yang Palace? But since it was the kindness of the elders, Yang Chen naturally wouldn't go against it.

In his previous life, Yang Chen had not had the opportunity to enter the secret pavilion, he had never been qualified. This time, he could go in and open his eyes to make up for the regrets of his previous life!

Chapter 582.1: Precious Materials In The Secret Palace

The secret pavilion of the Pure Yang Palace was not very special, it was also an independent space. The space was not large, it was about the size of the secret plane where Yang Chen discovered the gray mantis.

However, even so, there were dozens of miles around. When Yang Chen came in, the place seemed empty.

There were no living creatures in the secret pavilion, just a small mountain. What's more, there was not even a house. Yang Chen didn't know where to look for the right thing at first.

His spiritual awareness began to investigate subconsciously, and soon Yang Chen had to smile bitterly. He didn't know if the founder of the Pure Yang Palace was lazy or if he intended to test the blessings of the disciples. The precious materials in the secret pavilion were scattered in various places. The disciples who entered the secret pavilion basically have to play a game of scavenger hunt.

Yang Chen guessed that the Pure Yang Palace was still too poor back then, and if there were not many experts, it would not be realistic to build a beautiful house in the secret pavilion, so it has remained like this until now. If there was a chance in the future, he would still have to build the secret pavilion of the sect.

In the secret pavilion, more than half of the spiritual awareness was blocked, but for Yang Chen, this level of shielding of the spiritual awareness could not affect him too much. At least under Yang Chen's spiritual awareness investigation, at least a quarter of the land details could clearly be seen.

Speaking of which, the ancestors of the Pure Yang Palace were not a noble sect, except for the ancestors, there were no decent masters. Therefore, the things in the secret pavilion, although they were placed in the former the Pure Yang Palace, were all precious materials, but they weren't appealing to Yang Chen.

Yang Chen easily found the spark of the Pure yang true fire again. The seventh-grade fire was not placed carefully, as if it was thrown in at will.

This kind of fire seed Yang Chen has just returned, he can only absorb the fifth-grade fire seeds, and he has not been able to move the seventh-grade fire seeds, so Yang Chen will not use the seventh-grade fire any more.

It can be seen that most of the good things have been added in the past few hundred years. There are a few magic weapons that look very good. Yang Chen can still find traces of the master's refining from above. In addition, there were many good flying swords. Yang Chen remembered that it seemed that he got it from the secret plane in the Greatest Heaven Sect, and gave a part of it to the sect, now it has become a reward in the secret pavilion.

Now that he has reached the secret plane, Yang Chen didn't mind helping his own sect. The magic weapon that he saw, he made Xiao Tian wipe out the aura of all refiners on the magic weapon and make it clean.

In the future, if a disciple of the Pure Yang Palace enters the secret pavilion and obtains these magic weapons, because of Yang Chen's efforts, they can at least save decades of hard work. Anyway, the benefits are obtained by the disciples of his own sect, the meat is rotten in the pot, this kind of effort, Yang Chen can do it easily.

After walking for a while, Yang Chen discovered the traces of the questioning inner heart pills, as well as the hundred year pills. These two kinds of medicinal pills, even in the Pure Yang Palace, were regarded as the treasures of the sect. Only by making enough credit for the sect can they have the opportunity to enter the secret pavilion and find a magic weapon or medicinal pill that suits them.

This is a reward measure from the sect. Of course, Yang Chen will not say much about it. However, so far, Yang Chen has not found what he needs. Whether it's medicinal pills or magic weapons, Yang Chen was not interested.

Speaking of which, most of the things in this secret pavilion were related to Yang Chen, and Yang Chen can't enter the secret pavilion. Looking for something, it seems to Yang Chen, it doesn't have much impact.

However, Yang Chen soon discovered something different, a dozen pieces of jade slips. The jade slips that the ancestors of the sect could put into the secret pavilion were naturally not ordinary. Yang Chen immediately came and rushed to the first jade slip.

As expected by Yang Chen, on this jade slip, there was a very profound cultivation method, and it seems that it can be cultivated at least until the Dacheng stage. Yang Chen shook his head slightly regretfully for the water-attribute cultivation methods. The cultivation methods were of little significance to Yang Chen. No matter how powerful the cultivation methods were, they couldn't compare to the true essence cultivation methods.

That is, Yang Chen can be allowed to find what he likes in the secret pavilion at will. Change it to any other person, after coming in, the first thing that comes into contact with it will be spread out of the secret pavilion involuntarily. If you find a magic pill, you can take it with you, but if it is a jade slip or something, you can only check it and return it.

Throwing away the jade slip in his hand, Yang Chen came to the location of the next jade slip. As soon as his spiritual awareness probed it, his spirit was suddenly lifted.

On this jade slip, his fire attribute cultivation experience was personally recorded by the patriarch. Among them, the part about the Pure yang true fire was very detailed, especially for the control of the pure yang true fire, there was a very detailed opinion.

Yang Chen was instantly overjoyed, even though he had tens of thousands of years of experience in fire seeds in his previous life, the part of the patriarch that specifically aimed at the pure yang true fire was also extremely precious to Yang Chen.

Overjoyed, Yang Chen sat down on the spot and began to slowly study the experience. Compared with his own understanding, it took more than ten days to get through.

It must be said that those who can establish a sect are definitely geniuses among geniuses. The fire attribute experience left by the ancestor, even for Yang Chen, was a very useful supplement. It was only after reading the records for how long that Yang Chen felt that his ability to control fire seemed to have risen a bit.

Being in the secret pavilion, Yang Chen certainly couldn't easily experiment, but the trend of these things from the ancestors was firmly in his mind. Don't look at the experience left before ascension, it's enough for Yang Chen to control the Pure yang true fire at the right time.

Just this piece of jade slip was worth Yang Chen entering this secret pavilion once. With this harvest, Yang Chen naturally would not let other jade slips go, and began to look at them one by one.

For some jade slips that recorded advanced cultivation methods, Yang Chen basically ignored them first. There was a piece of jade slip that recorded several unique pill recipes, and Yang Chen paid special attention to it.

The pill recipe was not a complicated one. For Yang Chen, it was basically the kind that has no difficulty, but these kinds of pill recipes seem to have precious raw materials. Moreover, these pills seem to be more effective for mortals than for cultivators.

But Yang Chen attaches great importance to it, not for anything else. One of these pills was called life prolonging pill. So far, apart from hearing that the Grand Supreme Elderly Lord and Old Man of the South Pole have this kind of life-extending elixir in the Immortal Realm, Yang Chen has never heard of it anywhere else.

Don't look at the lifespan of the cultivators greatly increased after cultivation, but it was not unlimited. The cultivators will grow old and the lifespan will be exhausted. If you can't make a big breakthrough in your cultivation, you will end up trapped in a realm and unable to improve, and you will eventually die.

You can greatly increase the lifespan of mortals, in fact, it was very easy to do. Many things could effectively improve the physique of mortals. When the physique is improved, the natural lifespan will also increase, it is very simple to prolong lifespan.

For cultivators, it was not so easy. The physique of the cultivators themselves has been greatly improved, and it was not easy to do this simply by relying on medicinal pills. Just like it was impossible to directly improve the cultivation base, it was difficult.

However, the life prolonging pill on the jade slip did not simply rely on this method to increase lifespan. Of course there was this reason, so it works well for mortals. But there are such a small part that are still different, and even for cultivators, they were effective, but the effect was not as obvious as that for mortals.

Who was Yang Chen, the only fifth-grade alchemy master in the mortal world, with the knowledge of a Great Lou Golden Immortal, so he naturally found the speciality at a glance.

Speaking of which, part of the uniqueness of this longevity pill was that it supplements human lifespan in a way similar to supplementing the essence of life. It was purely to supplement people's lifespan, it has no other influence at all. It will not deepen the cultivation base, and will not stimulate potential in advance, it simply supplements lifespan.

The monarchs, ministers, and envoys among the various medicinal materials on the pill recipe are very harmonious, which is obviously the work of a master. The method of alchemy was peaceful. It was the most orthodox and the one that does not produce any side effects. If it was purely based on the alchemy technique, a fourth-grade alchemist could fully meet the needs.

However, if it was just a fourth-grade alchemist, he would not be able to refine the life prolonging pill even if he was killed. This kind of longevity pill has a very harsh condition, that was, when refining, it needs to use two specific seventh grade fire seeds.

The Pure yang true fire and pure yin true fire. These two kinds of seventh grade fire seeds were necessary for refining the longevity pill. As long as you have these two kinds of fire seeds, as long as you reach the level of a fourth-grade alchemist, as long as you have enough medicinal materials, you can refine the longevity pill.

Seeing this condition, Yang Chen finally knew why this life prolonging pill formula was in the secret pavilion of the Pure Yang Palace. It seems that in addition to those fire seeds that they don't know where it is, the Pure yang true fire is only the treasure of the sect left by the ancestors of the Pure Yang Palace. Even if you have the heart, you can't find this precious kind of fire seed.

It was so hard to find a pure yang true fire, not to mention another pure yin true fire that was directly comparable to the pure yang true fire. The power of the two fire seeds was exactly the same, it's just a yin and a yang. In alchemy, yin and yang need to work together to be successful.

Under such harsh conditions, even a wealthy sect like the Greatest Heaven Sect and Pill Cauldron Sect can find the fire seeds, but there was almost no one who can use two kinds of fire at the same time. A seventh-grade fire seed is enough to make people dominate the mortal world, let alone two at the same time.

Yang Chen thought about it, but he couldn't think of anyone who could use two kinds of seventh-grade fire at the same time, except himself. Yang Chen suddenly felt a little guilty, maybe Li Cheng can do it too.

The pure yang true fire was in this secret pavilion, but the pure yin true fire has never been heard of. Even if Yang Chen has already obtained a lot of seventh-grade fire seeds from the major sects, but there was no trace of the pure yin true fire.

It seems that the pure yin true fire can be regarded as a target to look for next. Yang Chen has already understood the principle recorded in the pill recipe of this kind of longevity pill, but the effect of the pill was very good for cultivators.

This was different from the hundred-year-pill that directly improves the cultivation, but simply increases the lifespan. Taking the hundred year pill may increase your lifespan by breaking through the realm, but in order to resolve this side effect of the hundred year pill, it will take a longer time.

However, simply increasing the lifespan was different. Although the breakthrough time will be delayed, everything was obtained by self-cultivation, and naturally it cannot be said to be risky. There was no side effect of directly improving the cultivation base at all. For those whose life essence was almost impossible to break through, it was simply a perfect life-saving medicine, even better than the hundred year pills.

Since Yang Chen has chosen his identity as an alchemist in this life, of course Yang Chen has to do in-depth research on alchemy.

It's definitely not enough to just rely on the basics, with Yang Chen's previous life's level as a sixth-grade alchemist, it's basically no surprise that he has reached the spiritual world. The only way to improve one's alchemy level is to research and create one's own elixir. Just as you can never become a true scholar by following a textbook, you are recognized as a master if you always have to overcome advanced topics one by one.

After a trip to the secret pavilion, Yang Chen was naturally overjoyed when he found such a good thing and a good topic. The experience of the patriarch, coupled with the formula of this longevity pill, was enough to make Yang Chen's trip worthwhile, but surprises always come unexpectedly.

A simple jade slip, he don't know how long it has been kept. When Yang Chen casually picked it up to check it, he jumped up and was surprised.

What was recorded on this jade slip turned out to be the «Third Fire True Secret Art» that Yang Chen couldn't find anywhere. The great Yin-Yang five elements secret art, the only difference was that the «Third Fire True Secret Art» has not yet been found, and it appeared in front of his eyes unexpectedly, why would it not make Yang Chen ecstatic?

How can there be such a true essence cultivation method as the «Third Fire True Secret Art» in the secret pavilion of the Pure Yang Palace? Yang Chen couldn't think of it without breaking his head. However, what was recorded on the jade slip in front of him was not a fake «Third Fire True Secret Art». Yang Chen could tell the truth from the beginning to the end with his knowledge, this was real.

How can that be? It was no exaggeration at all to describe it by stepping through the iron shoes and finding nowhere. Was there anything more dramatic than this? If he knew that there was the «Third Fire True Secret Art» in the secret pavilion of the Pure Yang Palace, why did Yang Chen travel around to search for it, racking his brains to search for memories in his mind?

Yang Chen almost impatiently kept the «Third Fire True Secret Art» in his mind. The huge surprise made Yang Chen lose his temper. Fortunately, he was the only one in the secret pavilion. Being seen by others would definitely be a joke to Yang Chen for many years.

Yang Chen's face was already blooming with joy. After going out, he would be sure to ask the palace master, which patriarch passed down this «Third Fire True Secret Art», and how to thank the patriarch with a few pillars of incense.

Chapter 583.1: Sleep With Her

“You ask where this «Third Fire True Secret Art» came from?” The palace master looked at Yang Chen in front of him, he looked at him with a very strange look “Actually, speaking of it, it has something to do with you. “

As soon as Yang Chen came out of the secret pavilion, he asked about the «Third Fire True Secret Art», which made the palace master a little stunned. However, he did not hide it, but directly explained it to Yang Chen.

“Does it have something to do with me?” Yang Chen frowned. After thinking about it, he couldn't remember when he got the «Third Fire True Secret Art», and he handed it over to the Palace Master. But since the palace lord said so, he thought it would not be fake, so he just listened.

“Didn't that Luo family's master Luo Yuan chase and try to kill you back then?” The palace master first mentioned Luo Yuan, and then explained the whole incident.

Many years ago, when Yang Chen and Sun Qingxue went out to cultivate together, he once brought Sun Qingxue into that secret plane. Apart from getting a lot of grey mantis puppets, the other biggest gain was the third fire true essence.

After coming out of the secret plane, Yang Chen and Sun Qingxue were chased and almost killed by Luo Yuan, a late Dacheng stage master. At that time, relying on the high speed of the flying shuttle, Yang Chen sent Sun Qingxue back to the Blue Cloud Sect, and then took Luo Yuan and began to fly on the vast sea. Finally, with the help of the octopus Jing Lan Ying, Luo Yuan was killed.

At that time, the reason why Luo Yuan chased Yang Chen was to get the third fire true essence. Since Luo Yuan's death, Yang Chen has also searched Luo Yuan's body, but he has not found the whereabouts of the «Third Fire True Secret Art», there was nothing at that time.

However, the Pure Yang Palace had just improved its strength at that time. They can't see anyone thinking badly about their genius disciple, so they directly sent people to destroy the Luo family. The treasures accumulated by the Luo family over the years were naturally owned by the Pure Yang Palace, among them was this piece of jade slip of the «Third Fire True Secret Art».

Because it was the true essence cultivation method, the master of the palace put the «Third Fire True Secret Art» into the secret pavilion. It was reserved for active disciples to cultivate. However, the conditions for cultivating the «Third Fire True Secret Art» were harsh, and one must have the third fire true essence, so no one had a chance until Yang Chen came.

Yang Chen couldn't help laughing, and at the same time felt a little lucky. At that time, the «Third Fire True Secret Art» could not be found on Luo Yuan's body. It was the Luo family who kept this thing in the family. Fortunately, there was something about Luo Yuan back then, otherwise Yang Chen wouldn't know where to find the «Third Fire True Secret Art».

For others, it was very difficult to cultivate the «Third Fire True Secret Art», because there was no third fire true essence. But for Yang Chen, there was no problem, the third fire true essence has been prepared long ago and everything was ready. Now that the «Third Fire True Secret Art» was in hand, Yang Chen can't wait to complete the great Yin-Yang five elements secret art.

Gathering the great Yin-Yang five elements secret art was a complete wish of Yang Chen after his rebirth. The success was imminent, and Yang Chen doesn't even have the leisure to talk more with the palace master. After learning the reason, he immediately left, returned to his small courtyard, and plunged into the Dragon Palace and began retreating.

It was the first time that the Palace Master had seen Yang Chen so anxious, it seemed like such a situation happened only after Gao Yue was seriously injured last time. However, it was no wonder that Yang Chen's innate spiritual root was the fire attribute, and it is no wonder that he discovered the «Third Fire True Secret Art». Excitement was unavoidable, but there was not too much guilt.

After Yang Chen returned, he sat in the Dragon Palace for at least a long time before he suppressed his excitement and began to cultivate according to the «Third Fire True Secret Art».

Yang Chen has cultivated nine kinds of true essence cultivation methods, and his experience was unmatched by anyone. The «Third Fire True Secret Art» was also Yang Chen's innate spiritual root attribute, coupled with the understanding of the fire attribute in his previous life, the cultivation was simply completed in one go.

In just four months' effort, the third fire spiritual power in Yang Chen's body was completely transformed into third fire true essence, and began to flow in his body.

As soon as the cultivation of the «Third Fire True Secret Art» was successful, it directly caused a chain reaction. The great Yin-Yang five elements secret art finally took shape, and all ten kinds of spiritual power were the most original spiritual power, they began to influence each other in an instant.

Because the time of cultivation comes first and then later, some of the source spiritual power was deep, and some spiritual power was shallow, this was the phenomenon of balance.

But at the beginning of the great Yin-Yang five elements secret art, all the spiritual powers seemed to be one, and began to flow according to the Yin-Yang five elements.

Metal produces water, water produces wood, wood produces fire, fire produces earth, and earth produces metal, the five elements produce each other.

All the total amount of spiritual power, also under the nature of the five elements, began to slowly balance. The least amount of third fire spiritual power has increased wildly, while the most fifth earth true essence has gradually decreased, gradually tending to the same.

By the end, all the total amount of spiritual power became almost exactly the same. Then the flow of inverse Yin-Yang and five elements began.

Metal overcomes wood, wood overcomes soil, soil overcomes water, water overcomes fire, fire overcomes metal, the five elements overcome each other.

This kind of situation happened when Yang Chen started to cultivate the Yin-Yang five elements secret art. Positive Yin-Yang five elements increase spiritual power, while negative Yin-Yang five elements consume spiritual power, and at the same time polish all spiritual power to become more and more pure.

Before, because of the lack of the third fire true essence, it has been unable to reach the level of consummation. Now that the great Yin-Yang five elements secret art was completed, all the spiritual powers have started the process of this positive and negative cycle. In less than six months, the Yin-Yang five elements in Yang Chen's body were condensed to an exceptionally pure level.

This kind of condensing effect was far better than the effect of purifying spiritual power in every true essence true secret art. It was just that, the quality of Yang Chen's body's true essence spiritual power almost matched that of Li Cheng back then.

However, Yang Chen also knew that he was still far from Li Cheng. They have already had such an adventure, he really don't know how Li Cheng did all that.

The great Yin-Yang five elements secret art was completed. Even though the negative five elements constantly consumed the condensed spiritual power, the speed of Yang Chen's spiritual power growth still shocked Yang Chen. Even if he dare not say that it was ten times faster than before, it was still three times the speed.

In just half a year, Yang Chen's spiritual power cultivation level has directly rushed to the peak middle Yuanying stage. It seems that he was only one step away from entering the late Yuanying stage. This was also the result of Yang Chen's constant focus on the concentration of spiritual power. If he lets go of it, he believe that it will only be a matter of turning his hands to reach the late Yuanying stage.

In the sea of consciousness, a complete change has taken place again. After the Yin-Yang heaven burning fire, the yang fire dragon, after adding the «Third Fire True Secret Art», was also like the yin fire dragon, with scales and claws emerging, finely carved, becoming very lifelike.

Chapter 583.2: Sleep With Her

Originally, the Yin-Yang heaven burning fire developed unevenly because it only had the fourth fire true essence but not the third fire true essence. This was the reason why Yang Chen didn't dare to absorb more advanced fire seeds, for fear of breaking this balance completely and causing destructive consequences.

Now that the third fire true essence has finally been completed, there was no need to worry about the imbalance between Yin and Yang.

The change in the sea of consciousness was not only that the dragon became more and more lifelike, but also directly drove the further growth of his spiritual awareness.

Even if there was a powerful technique such as the Three purities secret art, the spiritual awareness of the seventh-grade human immortal realm has not grown too significantly in the more than 100 years after leaving the Demon Continent. There was no other way, compared to the spiritual power that has been cultivated step by step for more than a hundred years, the seventh-grade human immortal was a bit too large to show obvious effects at all.

But at this moment, the growth of the spiritual awareness that had been stagnant for a long time came again, directly connecting Yang Chen's spiritual awareness to two realms and rushing to the ninth grade human Immortal realm. Just a little short of it, he can enter the earth immortal realm.

The three purities secret art finally showed its powerful essence again. The sea of consciousness expanded several times, and then began to slowly shrink again. Between the condensed and compressed spiritual awareness, the sea of consciousness has become stronger than steel.

Then, Yang Chen found out that the gap between his spiritual power cultivation base and his spiritual awareness cultivation base seemed to be large enough to reach the brink of another split in his spiritual awareness.

Startled by this result, Yang Chen hurriedly stopped the cultivation of the three purities secret art. It seems that for a long time in the future, he could only cultivate hard, and let the growth of spiritual power catch up with the growth of spiritual awareness as soon as possible.

All the great Yin-Yang five elements flying swords, all the finished products were taken out and carefully refined again. Yang Chen has enough good materials on his body, so this time he added a lot of them. Every flying sword was carefully sacrificially refined, the heavenly spirit treasure refining secret art, earth fiend sacrificial formation secret art, universe treasure raising secret art were used and almost all the flying swords had a small improvement in quality.

This refining lasted just over three years. In addition to the flying swords, Yang Chen did not favor one or the other, the medicine garden, the profound spirit furnace, the golden bell, the cable hook, and the wine gourd, the flying shuttle, sea jasper cup were all refined in turn.

After finishing all this, Yang Chen pinched his fingers and counted, it had been nearly ten years. He was immersed in the refining of the magic weapon, and he didn't feel that time had passed. Now that everything was done, he felt that he should go out and have a look.

Only, as soon as he came out of the Dragon Palace. It seemed that something was wrong in his own courtyard. However, where exactly was wrong, he couldn't detect for a while.

"Are you out?" A slightly familiar but generally unfamiliar female voice rang in Yang Chen's ears, and her voice seemed to be full of surprises.

Yang Chen turned his head and he saw two faces that he never expected. One was Tao Junqi, a Dacheng stage elder of the Greatest Heaven Sect, and the other was Shi Wushuang, a genius disciple of the Qiankun Sect.

What was going on? How can people from the Greatest Heaven Sect and Qiankun Sect appear in the small courtyard where he was in seclusion? In the midst of his surprise, Yang Chen's spiritual awareness suddenly found several stunning figures walking towards this side. Looking at the almost identical body shapes, Yang Chen knew without asking that they must be the five Murong sisters of the Five Elements Sect.

There was actually people here from the Greatest Heaven Sect, the female disciples of the Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect, when he had been in closed-door seclusion for ten years. This discovery made Yang Chen's hair almost stand up. What happened to the sect, has it been destroyed again? How could such a thing happen?

As his consciousness expanded outwards, Yang Chen felt a little relieved. The familiar figures around were still disciples of the Pure Yang Palace. Everyone seems to be normal. Even the original servants of Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling in Yang Chen's courtyard were still there, and it seems that there was nothing wrong.

After a while, five identical and beautiful figures appeared in front of Yang Chen. They were the five Murong sisters of the Five Elements School. Together with Tao Junqi and Shi Wushuang, all the heroines from the three major sects who proposed marriage to him were all present.

"You guys..." He already has 10,000 years of memories of his previous life, and even has four beautiful wives, but Yang Chen has never experienced such a situation, and he doesn't know what to say. After saying these two words, he didn't know what to say, and he froze in place.

"You are retreating here, and you don't have a few competent people to serve you, so let's take care of it for you." Fairy Aoki was indeed the longest-sleeved good dancer, with a calm face and a kind of smile that matches her peerless face, she explained in a few words very clearly.

As soon as Fairy Aoki finished speaking here, Tao Junqi added "The Palace Master has already agreed to this matter. If you need anything, just tell us." Her amorous feelings add to her mortal aloofness. With her identity, speaking to Yang Chen with such an attitude gives people a different kind of attraction.

Although the five Murong sisters next to them didn't say much, they all nodded in unison. Five identical peerless and enchanting same movements, was indescribably refreshing.

What made Yang Chen strange was that in the tone of their conversation with Yang Chen, they just used their name, as if they were communicating with someone of the same generation. This was very unusual, if others don't say it, Tao Junqi was definitely more senior than Yang Chen. It was not an exaggeration for her to call Yang Chen a boy casually.

Now they were all speaking in this tone, how can Yang Chen feel at ease? Didn't the proposal of marriage in those days have already been declined? What went wrong?

"I just got out of seclusion, I'll go see the elders in the palace first!" Yang Chen subconsciously used this reason to resist for a while. At least he should ask the palace master to explain, so far, Yang Chen has been confused.

"Palace Master, Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the five Murong sisters, what's going on?" In the discussion hall where several levels of restrictions were placed, Yang Chen faced all the core elders who had arrived, and asked the Palace Master with a wry smile.

"Oh, we agreed to their affairs." The master of the palace replied casually.

"But why didn't you tell me, Tao Junqi is the elder of the Greatest Heaven Sect!" Yang Chen didn't know what to say, but how could he agree to this matter casually, so he quickly found a reason "The Greatest Heaven Sect has always wanted to destroy my Pure Yang Palace!"

"What's wrong with the Greatest Heaven Sect? Maybe if they have ideas about our sect, don't you want us to charge some interest? Can they take all the good things?" Wang Yong already answered loudly and loudly: "Yang Chen, I order as your master ancestor, sleep with her!"

Chapter 584.1: Biting The Bullet

Wang Yong's words made Yang Chen speechless for a while. When he turned his eyes to the other elders, those elders seemed to be laughing and watching the play. He really doesn't know what everyone thought, how could they let those women come to him in his place of seclusion?

Once they have any malicious intentions, although Yang Chen's self-protection was not a problem, he would inevitably reveal many secrets. Such as the Dragon Palace, such as others, this was something Yang Chen was not happy with.

"What about my master and apprentice sister?" In the face of his master ancestor, Yang Chen couldn't talk back too much, but he still wanted to and immediately asked.

“They are the main wives, these are concubines, what would they do?” Wang Yong really thought of a countermeasure long ago, and he was very decisive. “When you are sitting, they are standing, when they are eating, they are waiting, and you are not happy with such a good thing?”

Yang Chen was speechless for a while. It seemed that he couldn't communicate much with the master ancestor, so he turned to the palace master, and asked carefully. “Palace Master, didn't you already refuse at that time? Why will there be trouble later? “

“The three major sects of theirs depend on you.” The sect master also gave a helpless smile “Shortly after you retreated, they came to the sect, saying that there were so many rumors outside that they could not raise their heads. For the sake of their own reputation, I can't let outsiders make it worse, I can only take them.”

“Boy, you're so lucky in love!” Elder Xu next to him joked with a smile “The beautiful female disciples of the five major sects have been wiped out, there is no man more lucky in love than you in this mortal world.”

Elder Xu did not lie. In terms of status, Yang Chen might not be able to keep up with the sect masters of the major sects for the time being, but from this point of view, there was really no man who was more lucky in love and enviable than Yang Chen.

There were so many beautiful and unparalleled women, especially all of them were from famous families, and their cultivation bases were extremely high. No matter which one, they had countless fans. Even if he has no name as an alchemist, it was enough to make him famous all over the world.

Speaking of which, the core elders of the Pure Yang Palace were also estimated to be helpless. The three major sects actually used such a rude method, insisting on the stuffing of their own female disciples, and it would not work if they did not accept them. No matter how tactfully the Palace Master and the others refused, these women had to identify with Yang Chen.

In addition, the three major sects fueled the flames behind. Moreover, these women threatened with their own reputation, and even the master of the palace couldn't bear the pressure in the end.

When there was no way to turn them around immediately. For the time being, they can only be allowed to contact Yang Chen for a while. If they can get along, then everything is fine. If not, then it will be something else.

But everyone understood that since the girls came prepared, they would definitely not give up until their goals were achieved, so how could they be at odds with Yang Chen. In front of Yang Chen, they will definitely be obedient, and maybe there will be other tricks to achieve good things. All success or failure, it seems that they are all placed on Yang Chen.

Wang Yong was also angered by this incident, so he would say such words to vent his anger. Otherwise, as an elder of the Dacheng stage, with a high moral character, how could he say the words "sleep her".

Rely on himself? There was a helpless wry smile on Yang Chen's face, this was really a person sitting at home, and disaster comes from the sky. Since he helped Mu Mingyuan last time, he has been secluded in the sect and practiced alchemy. If there are no two doors, this can also lead to the disaster of a lot of beautiful women?

If it were someone else, he might not know how happy he would be to be stunned by this golden pie that fell from the sky, but how could Yang Chen not know the key, it was clearly a bunch of trouble!

Now he has only just left seclusion to see the palace master and the elders, and he hasn't seen his wives yet. Who knows how to explain it to them at that time? It's so bizarre that he can't tell.

"Why is this disciple so unlucky?" Yang Chen said with a bitter face, "What should I do?"

"A few beauties are in the limelight, and others envy you for your boundless beauty. How embarrassed are you?" Wang Yong also knew that there was a lot of trouble, but for the time being, the Pure Yang Palace didn't have the capital to turn against the three major sects, so he could only do this first. "If it's a big deal, just get along with it first. If it really doesn't work, then say it's inappropriate. If you think you are an alchemy master, it's better than the sect's direct rejection."

They can't help but say that although Yang Chen hasn't gone out much recently, the limelight has gotten a little bigger. Not to mention the hundred year pills, even the postnatal spiritual root has been tinkered with. Such a posture was definitely the most outstanding one among the group of people with unlimited prospects, and the three major sects cannot be moved.

Such talents must be involved in a little relationship no matter what, creating a situation of traveling to their own sect. Now the development of the Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect in the past few hundred years has vaguely exceeded the expectations of the three major sects, and all of them were related to Yang Chen.

Since they can't kill him, they must have a relationship with him, otherwise their sect will be left farther and farther away, which is not what any sect wants to see.

The Greatest Heaven Sect was not worried about such worries. Anyway, in a few decades, the formation will start to operate. At that time, let alone a major sect, even the four major sects together will not be able to catch up with the development of the Greatest Heaven Sect, but isn't this a question of avoiding suspicion?

Everyone was worried, only you are not worried, what does this mean? Could it be some secret? When the formation is exposed, the trouble will be even greater. It was better to advance and retreat together with everyone temporarily, at most it was just to aggrieve a female elder.

Besides, if she can really get on well with Yang Chen, Tao Junqi will not feel wronged at all. If she wanted medicinal pills, she would have medicinal pills, if she wanted spirit stones, she would have spirit stones, Yang Chen would never humiliate his own people. Maybe it was Elder Tao who will take a lot of advantage in the end.

The three major sects jointly exerted pressure, and even the Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect had to reluctantly agree. When it comes to the Pure Yang Palace, it was even less likely that there will be too many obstacles. No matter what the Palace Master and the others say, they will hold on to the fact that their reputation was damaged, and no one can say anything else.

In other words, didn't Shi Shanshan of the Green Jade Immortal Island slowly marry Yang Chen for the same reason at the beginning? Why can she use it, and others can't use it?

The Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect had nothing to say in the end, and the Pure Yang Palace had nothing to do about it.

Chapter 584.2: Biting The Bullet

So, when Yang Chen was out of seclusion, he saw seven female masters who were able to dominate the situation there, guarding his door like virtuous little wives, waiting without saying a single word.

Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling naturally knew about this, but the Palace Master and several elders had no choice. After taking turns to persuade them, the two women were a little bit dumbfounded and could only acquiesce to them.

However, the two women couldn't see it, so they simply hid from a distance to perform the sect mission, not wanting to see Yang Chen entangled with a few more beauties.

After talking about these things, Yang Chen and the group of elders were relatively speechless in the discussion hall for a while, and then the palace master remembered and asked about the effect of Yang Chen's retreat.

"It's a good practice, but as soon as I came out, I was in a bad mood!" Yang Chen still couldn't fully accept the fact that the elders of his sect just kicked him into the fire pit, and he was weak in answering.

"There's nothing serious about the sect, and everything will be done step by step, so you can solve them with peace of mind!" The master of the palace was also a little bit unbearable, so he could only drop this sentence and say no more.

"Anyway, as long as you are careful, you won't be the one who suffers." Wang Yong comforted again "Since they brought them to the sect themselves, just eat them and clean them up, and then see if they will serve you happily or not."

For Wang Yong, his disciple and grand disciple were so promising, and his face was bright. As he said, as long as there was no problem with Yang Chen's safety, the beauties will never be the disadvantage of his disciples and grand disciple.

In the realm of Wang Yong, a lot of things are also very open. Since the other party's purpose was obvious, there was no need to hide it. They should eat, drink, and take advantage of it, the big deal was to give them a little discount.

Anyway, as long as it does not exceed the Green Jade Immortal Island and the Blue Cloud Sect, it was better than now. Then either side would be justified, and no one can pick a thorn. After all, the Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect have cooperated many times since the beginning, and their friendship was not ordinary.

In Yang Chen's past life memories, even among the Immortals, there were many lecherous Immortals, there were a lot of them. Anyway, if you reach that realm, as long as it was not forced, it would also be a good story for outsiders to talk about.

But Yang Chen never thought about it, after being reborn. Before he ascended through the tribulation, he already had a lustful reputation on his back. How can this be a pure man who has always maintained his virginity in his previous life?

What's more, it's a good story if he loved them or not, and now it's obvious that he was the one who was forced. He don't even have a place to reason, was there any reason in this world?

Not to mention the Great Lou Golden Immortal, it was impossible that even the Jade Emperor or Three Purities Dao Father encountered such a thing. Needless to say, Yang Chen was now in the middle Yuanying stage, so what if he can kill the masters of the Dacheng stage. Even if he can kill Immortals, he can't kill those beauties, right?

Deliberately looking for Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling to relieve his depression. However, Yang Chen discovered that the two women were not in the Pure Yang Palace at all. It was estimated that they were angry and left.

There was never a moment when Yang Chen looked at his yard and felt that he didn't want to go back. In the past, as long as he thought of Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling waiting for him, his heart felt warm, but now it's just a pain.

The disciples of the Pure Yang Palace who he met around, whether they were elders or juniors, all smiled and congratulated Yang Chen when they saw Yang Chen. Who could know the sorrow in Yang Chen's heart at this moment.

No matter how reluctant he was, Yang Chen had to go back to his yard to face the seven women. Shaking his head, Yang Chen walked into his yard, and as expected, the seven women were waiting for him in the yard.

“Welcome back!” Tao Junqi was the eldest and the oldest, standing in the middle like a wife welcoming her husband home, greeted him virtuously.

“Ten years of seclusion, and you haven’t touched any delicacies, so you must be bitter.” Shi Wushuang said with a smile, “Sister Murong and the others have already prepared some wine and vegetables, you can try their craftsmanship.”

While talking here, the five Murong sisters over there have already brought up a few trays from behind. Before Yang Chen could react, the small stone table in the courtyard was already covered with several delicate-looking dishes, as well as a jade pot and a jade cup. The wine has not been poured out, but the aroma of the wine was already tangy.

Yang Chen’s good food, good wine, good tea, good clothes, these habits seem to have been passed down for a long time. Even the four wives have mastered a craft because of Yang Chen’s hobby. Of course, now add the reputation of a good beauty.

Shi Wushuang and the others knew a lot about Yang Chen’s hobbies, but they didn’t know if the cooking skills of the Murong sisters and the others had just been learned recently.

Since the beauties have already made moves, it would be a real rudeness if Yang Chen ignored them. Yang Chen simply gritted his teeth, and as soon as he came, he sat down with a golden knife, picked up the jade chopsticks already placed on the table, and wanted to enjoy it.

Before Yang Chen could choose which dish to choose, one of the Murong sisters grabbed the front. Holding a jade plate, she chose one dish from several dishes, spooned a little, and placed it in front of Yang Chen, shyly and said “This is the craftsmanship of this slave family, you can try it!”

At this time, the other Murong sister had already stood behind Yang Chen, stretched out a jade hand, put it on Yang Chen’s shoulder, and massaged it gently.

The jug was also carried by another woman, filling it for Yang Chen, and then the next one had already squeezed the jade cup and brought it to Yang Chen's mouth.

When he thought that the five Murong sisters of the Five Elements Sect in the Immortal Realm actually served him like this, Yang Chen felt like he was in a dream. As if he was shocked, he almost didn't dare to move.

"Master...you don't have to be nervous, my reputation has already been involved with you, and I can't get rid of it in this life." The one who spoke was Shi Wushuang, her eyelids lowered slightly, and she said with a slight grievance "It's not that I wait for the lowly. , you are really outstanding, for the sect's plan, I am also willing to follow you, be a slave and a maid, you make a decision."

In Yang Chen's astonishment, Tao Junqi next to him also said with a slightly aggrieved expression "I don't ask for anything else, I just ask that you take more care of me and my sect in the future."

Seeing that Yang Chen's body was stiff, Shi Wushuang asked a little puzzled "You, you don't like this?" For fear of causing Yang Chen's misunderstanding, she quickly explained "We only know from an old friend of yours that you like these."

When Shi Wushuang said this, Tao Junqi waved her hand over there, grabbed a person from some magic weapon, and threw her directly on the ground.

Chapter 585.1: You Will Get What You Want

Yang Chen still hasn't figured out how these arrogant women from the three major sects can suddenly make such a gesture to please him, but after seeing the figure on the ground, he has some understanding in his heart.

The person on the ground was really Yang Chen's acquaintances. When Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling went to the Demon sect domain to look for the seventh metal spiritual solution, because their cultivation base was relatively low, they were only in the Jiedan stage, so they disguised themselves as the locals did. The one they met at that time was this person on the ground.

Shao Fanghua, Mrs. Fanghua, the elder of the Yin-Yang Demon Sect, was invincible in seduction, and was also a unique figure in the Demon Sect. However, because Ye Zhenxiong of the Promise Demon Sect was plotting against her at the time, the plan failed, so she was so frightened that she immediately hid.

Before leaving, Mrs. Fanghua mistakenly thought that Yang Chen was a descendant of the demon sect who cultivated the double cultivation method, and used all means to seduce Yang Chen. At that time, in addition to Gongsun Ling, Yang Chen also had the five apprentices of Wan Qian. In order not to be exposed, Yang Chen had a lot of fun at that time.

At that time, the five girls were dressed in revealing clothes, and they were even more attentive in serving. In addition, Gongsun Ling also wanted to let go of the two-person world with Ai Lang. Yang Chen didn't even have to move his hands, he only stretched out his hand for food and opened his mouth.

Perhaps, it was because of the impression left to Mrs. Fanghua at that time, that he liked the services of beauties, so the seven arrogant girls of the three major sects would make such a move!

Speaking of which, it wasn't much of a surprise that Mrs. Fanghua fell into the hands of the seven women. Mrs. Fanghua, who was still trapped at the peak Yuanying stage, in front of Tao Junqi, a master of the late Dacheng stage and the five Murong sisters in the early Dacheng stage did not even have a chance to resist. If she even faced Shu Wushuang, Fairy Aoki, who was also at the peak Yuanying stage, she was not an opponent, and being captured was a natural thing.

Yang Chen's reputation was too big, and many people keep his portrait. It was not surprising that Mrs. Fanghua later learned about Yang Chen's identity. He just didn't expect that things would be so coincidental. Madam Fanghua fell into the hands of the seven women, and passed them some bad ideas, which made Yang Chen so unnatural now.

"Slave Fanghua, greets master!" Although Mrs. Fanghua was controlled, she was not in a coma, and she was still sane. Seeing Yang Chen, she didn't dare to be as big as before, she immediately straighten her clothes and bow down to the ground respectfully.

However, although the kneeling was very strict, the curve of the body was more and more protruding. Especially that kind of lowly posture could arouse people's desire the most. Yang Chen naturally didn't care, but the seven girls all blushed when they saw it. This demon girl was so rude even when she greeted him. She was indeed a demon girl from the Demon Sect, she was despicable. Thinking of how Yang Chen really liked such words, they were all too shy.

In the past, Mrs. Fanghua and Yang Chen played the game of master and slave with Yang Chen, and now they are just turning that game into reality. For Mrs. Fanghua, the most important thing now is to save her life. As for the illusory pride, what's the use of that now?

Yang Chen smiled bitterly in his heart again, it seemed that the seven girls really did everything they could to please him. Even the past that has been hidden for so long can be found by them, which also shows the strength of the three major sects.

If the seven girls just put on an obedient attitude, Yang Chen wouldn't mind pretending to be a snake and dismissing them. But the problem is that they made their position clear as soon as they came up. First, it was for the reputation of their family, and second, it was for the sect.

To be honest, it was for the sake of the sect, but it made Yang Chen unable to parry. Yang Chen couldn't say anything, he doesn't deal with their sects, and their respective sects are not pleasing to the eye, so won't he agree? Yang Chen was not trying to calm people down, but provoking trouble.

"Let's have a good chat!" Yang Chen could only smile bitterly, and then slightly waved his shoulders. He smiled at one of the Murong sisters behind him, and asked them to sit down.

This time, the girls did not disobey and sat down each. Seeing that there were no other servants around, Yang Chen glanced at Mrs. Fanghua, who was kneeling on the ground, and said coldly, "Will you still not get up and serve?"

After driving away all the original servants, it was estimated that the seven girls did not want others to see their appearance. At this time, Mrs. Fanghua became the most suitable servant.

Mrs. Fanghua hurriedly got up, quickly prepared tableware for the seven women, placed the wine glasses, poured the wine one by one with the wine jug, and then stood respectfully behind Yang Chen.

This battle was completely different from the time when she just knelt down. She became cold and high, as if she suddenly transformed into a glamorous cold plum, awe-inspiring not to be taken lightly, to be more dignified, to be as ladylike. If everyone didn't know her identity as a Demon Sect elder, maybe they would think she was a famous lady.

The ever-changing temperament made the seven girls surprised for a while. Seeing that Yang Chen seemed to be accustomed to it, the seven girls all began to think, could it be that Yang Chen likes this ever-changing temperament?

“Since the elder sisters are so clear about what they said, if this younger brother is more hypocritical, he will not appear to be a man.” Yang Chen picked up the wine glass and said to the seven women “It is plain that the reputation of the elder sisters has been damaged, and Yang Chen has nothing to repay. I will toast you a glass of wine at first, but in the future, if you are sent, I will not hesitate.”

The seven women didn't care, they all stood up to accompany Yang Chen for a cup, and sat back again.

“The sect has a the decision, so naturally I have wronged you sisters. This younger brother apologizes to you sisters here, but it is the younger brother who has implicated the elders. Everything is wrong because of this younger brother, I also ask you elders to forgive me.” Yang Chen added another apology. This kind of thing can't be said to be the other party's fault, can it?

“I believe that you sisters are also very aggrieved, and you don't want to follow a stranger without knowing him.” Yang Chen organized his words and slowly said to the seven girls who were all a little shy: “It's not that this younger brother is presumptuous, this kind of major event, we must also pay attention to love affair, both parties have to be willing, so that they are not forced to be together reluctantly, this younger brother also feels that he has wronged you sisters.”

Feeling that Yang Chen was going to talk about a key point, the seven girls raised their heads and looked at Yang Chen. Seven pairs of beautiful eyes stared at Yang Chen, especially five pairs of beautiful eyes that were almost identical. The psychological pressure on Yang Chen was even greater than when Yang Chen faced Dacheng stage enemies.

For some reason, Yang Chen felt a little soft-hearted in his heart, and the words of rejection that he had originally said in his mouth turned into another rhetoric.

“I think, at least we have to get to know each other for a while first, and then talk about other things in detail. If you feel wrong, let's talk about other things. What do you think?” After saying these words, Yang Chen almost felt like giving himself a slap in the face.

Chapter 585.2: You Will Get What You Want

To be honest, if Yang Chen could choose, Yang Chen would rather choose to fight with seventy enemies, rather than face seven beautiful women like this.

Even if he has ten thousand years of life experience in his previous life, how can a ten thousand-year-old virgin have experience in dealing with feelings? In this life, he has already had four wives for this, but Yang Chen still hasn't learned how to deal with emotional matters.

In fact, not only Yang Chen, but if all cultivators were considered, it is estimated that they are all virtues. In the world of cultivation, who would value the love between men and women so much? How many daoist couples who have joined the dual cultivation, in fact, the original intention at the beginning was not to like each other, it was so everyone in the dual cultivation can jointly improve their cultivation, why would there be any love life?

Even if there is, it is only gradually cultivated after being together for a long time. The so-called love is born over time, and people in the cultivation world will not easily quarrel over trivial matters. Everyone was an expert, and it was natural to get along with them happily.

As soon as Yang Chen said this, the light in the eyes of the seven girls seemed to flash. Yang Chen didn't directly refuse, and he also wanted everyone to get to know each other. This was a different feeling for the seven girls.

The sect wanted them to be close to Yang Chen no matter what, and to become Yang Chen's pillow, and to think about them like Yang Chen, and to feel wronged for them, was like a world apart. Being born in a sect, naturally, they has to repay the great kindness of the sect. Even if it was just to complete the sect's mission, they must be close to Yang Chen. Now that Yang Chen was so concerned about their feelings, how can it not make the seven girls feel good?

"Also, don't always think about trying to please others." Yang Chen didn't know which muscle cramped. He actually said something that he could even slap himself with a million slaps afterwards: "If I really like you one day, I will definitely like the real you, not deliberately to please me, understand?"

All the girls nodded silently. In this atmosphere, Yang Chen hurriedly ate a meal with the seven girls that was not very tasty, and then, as if escaping, in the name of sending some new goods to the ten thousand treasure building, he quickly fled with Mrs. Fanghua.

The reason why he brought Mrs. Fanghua. It was Yang Chen who suddenly thought that the witch has absolute authority in dealing with this kind of thing. This kind of embarrassing thing, if he doesn't ask for advice, it would be a waste!

In Du Qian's room, Yang Chen greeted Du Qian very rudely and drove Du Qian out. The dove occupied the magpie's nest and quickly set up a restriction. Then began to ask Mrs. Fanghua for advice.

Du Qian, who was confused, was kicked out. Seeing that Yang Chen quickly placed restrictions in the room, he couldn't help shaking his head. This Junior Brother Yang was too impatient, right? Obviously there are seven charming women in his yard, where did he bring back such a charming stunner?

If Yang Chen knew what Du Qian was thinking at the moment, he would definitely spit out a mouthful of old blood for hundreds of thousands of miles, and his reputation for hundreds of years would be completely destroyed in one day! This time, even the people in the sect agreed with Yang Chen's lustful reputation.

But no one will have any opinion on this. The young palace master is lustful, that's because he had the ability. How many people rely on Yang Chen's medicinal pills to improve their realm. Feeling that his future is bright, how can he care about such trivial matters? Besides, which one has the Young Palace Master forced? Isn't it all voluntary?

"Fanghua, tell me, did my performance just now fail?" Yang Chen wanted to know Madam Fanghua's opinion, so he asked directly.

Mrs. Fanghua has been waiting there. After the initial panic, she found out that Yang Chen didn't intend to kill her, and immediately became overjoyed.

She has been fascinated by the Demon Sect since she was a child. Mrs. Fanghua has seen many such things. After seeing the performance of the seven girls, she was even more convinced that with her own charm methods, sooner or later, Yang Chen will be confused and unable to reject them.

"Master is doing very well!" After hearing Yang Chen's question, Mrs. Fanghua flattered her ass without any trace "They are all together, and many things are not suitable to say, master handled it very appropriately."

“What should I do next?” Yang Chen also seemed to understand Madam Fanghua’s nature, so he stretched out his hand and took out an elixir and sent it to Madam Fanghua’s eyes “Help me come up with some ideas, if it works well, this thousand-year face retaining pill is yours.”

The face retaining pills are so popular, even if Yang Chen didn’t understand it at first, he now understands some women’s psychology. For a woman like Mrs. Fanghua, such an elixir is simply the best charming tool, and Mrs. Fanghua can’t help it.

“Really?” Madam Fanghua was ecstatic, her eyes fixed on the pill between Yang Chen’s fingers, and she could no longer look away. For the thousand-year face retaining pill, even if Mrs. Fanghua was commanded to dance in front of the entire Pure Yang Palace, she was probably willing!

“Of course!” Yang Chen didn’t say a word, stretched out his hand, and flicked the face retaining pill into Mrs. Fanghua’s hand “You are experienced, just tell me what to do next?”

“What kind of attitude do the four ladies have?” Mrs. Fanghua was not someone who didn’t work for a reward. She got the face retaining pill, and she was so refreshed that she immediately began to ask. Of course, she knew that Yang Chen already had four wives and of course she had to know the reactions of the principal wives at this time.

“They will not object to my decision.” Yang Chen thought for a while and gave this answer. He has confidence in the four women, and his answer was unequivocal.

“The master is indeed the head of the family!” Mrs. Fanghua couldn’t help but admire him, the four great fairies, who are famous people in the world now, are so well-behaved in front of Yang Chen, She couldn’t help but admire him.

“Stop talking nonsense!” Yang Chen got a little impatient and urged, “What should I do?”

“Actually, you don’t need to do anything for the time being.” Mrs. Fanghua’s expression lifted and she hurriedly replied. Now her life was in Yang Chen’s hands at any time, she couldn’t slack off. “Just now, master, you have given them hope, just find an opportunity to separate them and get along one by one. I believe that when there is this foundation, They’ll give in soon enough.”

“What do you mean?” The more Yang Chen listened, the more he felt that something was wrong. He asked Mrs. Fanghua to find a way to reject the seven women of the three major sects.

“For the time being, they already have good feelings for you, plus the pressure from their respective sects. As long as you, master, express your care to their sects at the right time, I believe that it will not take long for the master to get what he wants.” Mrs. Fanghua answered affirmatively.
