Chapter 621: Slaves Or Maids

Yang Chen did not expect that the three major sects would be such rogues, they directly gave seven beauties to himself, and let Yang Chen decide whether to make them slaves or maids. Although this reflects the importance and favor of the three major sects for Yang Chen, it also directly pushes Yang Chen to the opposite of the seven fairies.

Yang Chen has already “occupied” four fairies. This matter has made many cultivators dare to be angry and dare not speak out. Now he has stretched his claws to the names of Fairy Junqi, Fairy Aoki and the five Murong faires, it was intolerable and unbearable.

Yang Chen began to have a headache, how to arrange the seven women has become his biggest trouble now. What was even more irritating was that Gao Yue, who was his wife and master, not only does not help him solve his troubles, but even fuels the flames.

“Since their sects say so, then you will accept a few of them as slaves” Gao Yue’s bright eyes rolled, as if she had returned to being a naughty girl, and said with a smile “I also really want to try it, the taste of being served by several Dacheng stage fairies.”

Speaking of this, it was because of Gongsun Ling. Gongsun Ling’s geographical map of mountains and rivers was really too powerful. After so many years of sacrificial refining, it has become very mature. Recently, Yang Chen has pushed Gongsun Ling’s spiritual awareness to the second grade human Immortal realm, making her more and more handy in controlling the geographical map of mountains and rivers.

The guys who were trapped in the geographical map of mountains and rivers became the victims of Gongsun Ling who had nothing to do but to spar. Having experienced the Demon Continent herself, Gongsun Ling’s combat power has skyrocketed. In the geographical map of mountains and rivers, it was purely her who abused so many masters of the Dacheng stage.

In the end, those masters were also beaten by Gongsun Ling, they all became obedient. Everyone also knew that they were in the illusion constructed by Gongsun Ling, and no one had any means to escape, so they joined together and started to study some cultivation methods together.

After the attack was launched, the scene of the five Dacheng stage masters who rushed in saw that one of these masters was revealing his cultivation experience. It was conceivable that this occasion was interrupted by a few of them like clowns, and how furious these guys who had been suppressed by Gongsun Ling but who were all-powerful in the Demon Continent were.

Without further ado, these masters surrounded them, without much spiritual power, they directly beat them upside down with fists and feet, their noses and faces were bruised, and after countless times of madness, they were thrown out to wait for Gongsun Ling. How could the poor five guys have thought that, with their dignified identities as Dacheng stage masters, they would one day be beaten by this kind of people into this kind of virtue?

After Gongsun Ling subdued the masters of the Dacheng stage, she naturally had to enjoy their service. This made Gao Yue very envious, but she didn't have such a powerful magic weapon as the geographical map of mountains and rivers, so she could only watch Gongsun Ling enjoy it, or when Yang Chen was there, she also followed. As for herself, she never mentioned it to Gongsun Ling on her own initiative. Although Gao Yue also knew that as long as she spoke, Gongsun Ling would definitely agree, but she was not willing to lose face.

"Do you really want it?" Yang Chen didn't think Gao Yue was joking. In fact, as long as Gao Yue proposed, Yang Chen would definitely spare no effort to help Gao Yue achieve it. But this matter made Yang Chen very embarrassed, so he had to confirm Gao Yue's attitude "Aren't you jealous?"

"Hmph, you accepted them, at best it's just a few concubines, can they still compete with us?" Gao Yue has absolute confidence in this regard, she can learn from Yang Chen's obedience to her attitude. She felt Yang Chen's intentions, so there was no psychological pressure.

Speaking of which, Gao Yue still cherishes Yang Chen, but there was no other way around it, Yang Chen's body has been transformed by the life essence of more than 20,000 immortals, and some aspects were too strong, so that Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan were not a match for Yang Chen. Although the way of double cultivation does not make people indulge in carnal desires, Gao Yue also does not want Yang Chen to be so suffocating all the time.

Gao Yue was also aware of the grievances between the Pure Yang Palace and the Greatest Heaven Sect. Just like the attitude of the master ancestor Wang Yong, Gao Yue was also in the same line. Since they can't touch their roots for the time being, they will be charged some interest first. Letting Fairy Junqi from their sect become a slave was a small interest. Anyway, it was delivered to their door by them, it was not considered a robbery.

It was precisely because Gao Yue was aware of the grievances between the Pure Yang Palace and Greatest Heaven Sect, so she was more willing to join forces with other major sects to fight the Greatest Heaven Sect together. In this regard, Shi Wushuang and the Murong Five Sisters are good mediators. As long as they accept them sincerely, they will inevitably get the help of the Five Elements Sect and Qiankun Sect in the future.

Of course, the power struggle of the big sect was very cruel and complicated, and this incident fully illustrates this point. The sect master was not allowed to do it, but someone below them can control it and has to do it. If this move can win over a few people inside the sect, it was always good.

The attack on the Pure Yang Palace caused the cooperation between the Pure Yang Palace and the five major sects to drop to a freezing point. Although they still cooperated according to the original agreement, everyone could feel the invisible gap.

The Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect were particularly in a very difficult situation. The good situation was ruined by a few guys who acted without authorization. Hundreds of years of hard work to maintain the current relationship, once destroyed, to make up for it, they don't know how much effort it will take. Thinking of this, the sect masters of the two major sects wished they could smash those disobedient guys into tens of thousands of pieces.

Elder Hua of the Blue Cloud Sect did not suppress her anger, and almost turned the sect upside down. The elder who called the shots, all his old acquaintances and friends, have all been investigated, and the direct execution implicated just about punishing nine clans. Elder Hua was even more stubborn, and said whoever dares to make her disciples unhappy in the future, then don't blame her for taking action, so that the family in charge will never have to be unhappy.

The Green Jade Immortal Island was even more embarrassed. It was not until the investigation was carried out in the sect that the core elders of the Green Jade Immortal Island discovered that Bei Shuangyu and Liu Zifang, who should have been punished. After staying there for less than a month, they were let go, and their whereabouts were still unknown.

What's more outrageous was that even the jade tablets marked with their primordial spirit disappeared, making it impossible for the sect to track their whereabouts by relying on the jade tablets.

What could be more challenging to the authority of the island master? In a fit of rage, the Island Master and Elder Min joined forces to almost uproot the people of Bei Shuangyu and Liu Zifang. All the heads were sent to the Pure Yang Palace. It's good to be a sect expert, but the fewer sect experts who eat inside and outside, the better.

Chapter 622: Evasion

Even those who were ordered by the Island master to be sent to be punished could disappear silently after a month or two, which has shown the fatal flaw of the Green Jade Immortal Island in some aspects.

If combined with the previous Shi Shanshan incident, it can almost be said that the Island Master has almost no right to speak in the Green Jade Immortal Island, as it was difficult to say whether her orders would be carried out.

If the Island master can endure such a thing, what else can't be endured? In the past few hundred years, the strength of the sect has changed with each passing day. The Island master was still watching a thriving Green Jade Immortal Island striding to catch up with the Greatest Heaven Sect, becoming the number one dao sect that can rival the Greatest Heaven Sect. The Island master has also been promoted to the Dacheng stage, and was preparing for the grand celebration. When such a thing happens, how can the Island master have good feelings?

The elder in charge of the punishment, a series of masters who are closely related to Bei Shuangyu and Liu Zifang, were all investigated frantically, this was not a joke. Everyone was taken directly to the Law Enforcement Hall and asked one by one, who gave them such courage?

At the same time, the Green Jade Immortal Island did not forget to show goodwill to the Pure Yang Palace. Anyway, they went too far this time, attacking allies, and they are still allies who are working closely, even if there are ten thousand in the Green Jade Immortal Island. For one reason, at least on the bright side, they have to end the alliance first, right?

After finally giving up a lot of benefits, the Green Jade Immortal Island got the understanding of the Pure Yang Palace. The Pure Yang Palace also accepted their explanation. Which sect doesn't have a few black sheep, it's normal to have a few scumbags, even in the Pure Yang Palace, wasn't there a master like Liang Shaoming who eats inside and out?

But Yang Chen's side was not easy to handle, Yang Chen has been avoiding them. The Island Master has tried to meet with him several times without getting a chance, so she could only leave angrily. There was already Shi Shanshan who was Yang Chen's wife from the Green Jade Immortal Island, so it was impossible to learn from the three major sects, and then put a beautiful woman over as a slave or a maid or something, the angry Island master vented all her anger on the guys who made the mistakes.

Bei Shuangyu and Liu Zifang secretly had a reward put on their heads by the sect, and the elder who let go of the two directly abolished his cultivation and then demoted them to slave. From a high-ranking sect elder to a lowly servant, even if the cultivator's heart was open-minded, he couldn't bear it. On the first day, the elder chose to commit suicide.

However, her suicide did not bring any benefit to others, but made the sect even more angry. Do you want to threaten the sect with death? They will give them a choice! As a result, at least more than 20 elders were given a choice, die, or become a slave, choose for yourself!

There were a few strong-tempered ones who directly choose to die, and the rest, who are not so determined, can only choose to be humiliated as slaves. If it was said that being a servant can return to the peak one day, then they have actually blocked the way back to the peak by themselves.

There were countless examples of abolishing the cultivation base and re-cultivating. In the past few hundred years, there have been Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan. The most incredible one was Mu Bai's grandfather, Mu Mingyuan. If there was any miracle, they can still ascend directly with the help of Yang Chen.

As long as Yang Chen takes action, what does it mean to abolish the cultivation base? The question was, will Yang Chen act for them? Will he take action for those suspected of attacking the Pure Yang Palace? They didn't even think about it.

Not only the five major sects were in chaos, but also the other small sects. A sect like the Pure Yang Palace inevitably had such a day, not to mention that they are not as good as the Pure Yang Palace? But fortunately, their sect did not have Yang Chen, a superstar that attracted firepower. For the time being, their safety concerns were still slightly less.

But on the other hand, the worry had to be brought to the table. Yang Chen announced that he was injured and recuperating, and some auctions in the ten thousand treasure building were stopped. In fact, all auctions related to Yang Chen's refining of medicinal pills were stopped. The face retaining pills, second grade inner sensing pills, questioning inner heart pills and hundred year pills will no longer be auctioned.

This has made many people anxious. Not to mention, the face retaining pills alone, ninety-nine and a half of one hundred female cultivators wanted it, and the remaining half were still young and shy, so they plan to buy it after a while. This time the product was out of stock, how can it not let these female cultivators go crazy?

In addition to the representatives of the major sects, the only ones who are really capable of bidding for the face retaining pills were the powerful female cultivators, or the concubines of some powerful cultivators. The combined strength of these people was quite astonishing.

The people that need a hundred year pill or questioning inner heart pills, at least must be at the peak Yuanying stage or Dacheng stage, otherwise it was a waste. The power of these people was even more terrifying.

Isn't there a lot of corpses on Meiqing Mountain? Some people went to see it on purpose, recognized some of them or some of the sects, turned around and went down the mountain without a word, and within a few months, brought back a lot of heads. To put it bluntly, these heads are the heads of the remnants of a certain family or a certain sect, and they were specially brought here to relieve Grandmaster Yang.

From the beginning to the end, Yang Chen didn't say a word, and the same was true of the Pure Yang Palace. Those participating sects and families were uprooted one by one. Those people were so ruthless that they left no one alive at all. The five major sects could only hold their noses and eat this dumb loss. If these exposed chess pieces could make Yang Chen happy, they are probably willing to do it themselves.

Using the excuse of recuperating, Yang Chen accompanied his two wives in his own Dragon Palace, and spent two years leisurely wandering around.

In the past two years, Yang Chen gave Gongsun Ling one last suggestion. The power of the Geographical Map of Mountains and Rivers was already powerful enough. The more masters you collect, the greater the power, but there is another point, the longer the master stays in the geographical map of mountains and rivers, the more in line with the aura of the geographical map of mountains and rivers, and the more powerful the geographical map of mountains and rivers will be.

Gongsun Ling has done a good job in this regard. She has begun to let the cultivators in the map learn from each other and ask each other for advice, and she claims that as long as their cultivation can break through the illusion, they will be free. Those old guys who knew that they could not go out for the time being burst out with great enthusiasm for cultivation, and they were very happy to teach and learn from each other.

What Yang Chen told Gongsun Ling was that when she needed it, she could use these Dacheng stage masters with different attributes as the materials for the formation, the power would definitely be many times stronger than using some ordinary materials. Especially when these Dacheng stage masters were now obeying Gongsun Ling's words, the difficulty was many times easier.

Chapter 623: Return From Seclusion

Use people to set up the formation? It was the first time that Gongsun Ling had such an idea, but it was not impossible.

The cultivators in the geographical map of mountains and rivers, because they are controlled by the formation in the map, can't help but obey Gongsun Ling, but this does not mean that their cultivation base was also lowered. If these cultivators cooperate tacitly, they could really be used to try this possibility.

When she thought about it, she felt terrified. An ordinary five-element formation suddenly has dozens of masters in the Dacheng stage attacking. Who can survive this formation? If she uses a little more complicated formation, wouldn't it be even more crazy?

When she thought of it, she went to try it. Gongsun Ling happily started the test with a large group of frowning old devils. Those guys who seem to be complaining a lot, no one can see that they are a group of terrifying old demons of the Dacheng stage who kill without blinking.

So far, Yang Chen has directed Sun Qingxue, Shi Shanshan and Gongsun Ling, and the only one left was Gao Yue.

"Are you also going to give me a final suggestion?" Gao Yue leaned against Yang Chen's arms, enjoying the warmth of Yang Chen's embrace, holding a carving tool in one hand, and was carving something on Yang Chen's wrist guard.

“No!” Yang Chen shook his head directly, answering both simply and neatly.

“Why?” Gao Yue was a little surprised, stopped what she was doing, looked up at Yang Chen and asked strangely.

“Because I want to protect you for the rest of my life!” Yang Chen replied without thinking, as if it came from the bottom of his heart. His arms also tightened slightly, trying to hold Gao Yue tighter.

Only herself was always different in Yang Chen’s mind. Gao Yue’s heart was sweet, she couldn’t help but pursed her lips, and pecked Yang Chen’s face lightly, then lowered her head, patted Yang Chen’s arm, and said coquettishly, “Relax, it’s the last woolen cloth.”

Yang Chen relaxed his arm according to the words and let Gao Yue carve on his wrist. Now, apart from the magic weapons in the past, everything Yang Chen wears was taken care of by Gao Yue. Even the simplest accessories, Gao Yue will carefully design them so that Yang Chen will look distinctive after wearing them.

“Then, how should I cultivate next?” Gao Yue asked Yang Chen while working again. After Yang Chen and her spiritual awareness double cultivation, her spiritual awareness reached the second grade human Immortal realm, this kind of distraction and dual tasking has become very simple, and it was even possible to take care of cultivation without delay at all.

“For the time being, it’s still a matter of refining the dragon horns flying swords.” Yang Chen said frankly, so far, Yang Chen has not had a further cultivation direction for Gao Yue, but refining the flying sword with dragon horns was not wrong. Coupled with condensed spiritual power, at least for a few hundred years, she can do nothing else.

“You’re biased!” Gao Yue rarely imitated Sun Qingxue’s appearance, and said to Yang Chen, “Little Xue, Shanshan and A’Ling all have their cultivation directions for the next few thousand years, but I don’t.”

“I plan to go to Big Brother Li Cheng after a while and ask him to give me some pointers for you.” Yang Chen said truthfully. Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan were both good, he had references from their previous lives, Yang Chen can easily specify the direction, Gongsun Ling, because of a coincidence, has a geographical map of mountains and rivers, she can almost be said to be invincible in the mortal world, even if she can't defeat the enemy, she will escape, only Gao Yue was left, Yang Chen dare not make a decision lightly, after all, in his mind, the position of his master was still the most important one.

During the two years that Yang Chen was recovering from his injury, some small things continued to happen. Almost all of the five sects have cleaned up a group of sect elders, which was unimaginable before. Fortunately, the five sects are organized, and these things were completed in two years. The charges were very convincing, so that people can't see any connection with the attack on the Pure Yang Palace.

On the contrary, there was another trivial matter in the Green Jade Immortal Island that has something to do with Shi Shanshan. A Dacheng stage elder seized the opportunity and challenged Shi Shanshan directly at the sect. No matter how Shi Shanshan shied away, the other party insisted on fighting, even if the Island Master came out to stop him. Anyway, he was destined to end in tragedy. He thought that if he can pull Shi Shanshan into the water, let's see if Yang Chen can continue to be proud.

After Shi Shanshan repeatedly shied away, the other party began to insult Shi Shanshan and Yang Chen. Was it bearable, what was unbearable? Shi Shanshan accepted the challenge on the spot.

In the crowd of sect elders, Shi Shanshan started a duel with the Dacheng elder after Shi Shanshan strongly demanded that the arena be set up in three layers of formation from the outside.

In order to avoid hurting other disciples, this time Shi Shanshan insisted on taking the challenge on a blank island, and the sect finally had to agree. The Island master even told Shi Shanshan in person to find a chance to take care of her opponent without any worries at all, and the sect supported her.

It can be said that in the expectant eyes of a group of masters, Shi Shanshan, who leaped high, sent a sword qi towards the opponent. She had no way of controlling this sword qi. The mere two years were only enough to make the sword qi more familiar with her body.

As soon as the sword qi came out, an elder in the late Dacheng stage, comparable to Elder Min, did not even have any resistance, and turned into a powder.

Not only that, the small island full of protective formations was full of terrifying movements of formations breaking. If it wasn't for the fast running of those onlookers, they might have been implicated. The final result was that an island with a radius of almost two miles disappeared directly and ceased to exist. Dozens of masters who set up protective formations tried to resist when the formations were attacked, but were injured and vomited blood by the counter-shock. In the end, only a group of people stood ten miles away in the air and looked at each other.

After this, Shi Shanshan pleaded guilty and went to the ten thousand sea center to accept punishment. How does this make sense? As a last resort, the Island master went to the ten thousand sea center to visit Shi Shanshan in person, hoping that she could change this decision. Otherwise, this was simply a direct hit in the face of the Green Jade Immortal Island.

Shi Shanshan explained for a long time that the pressure of the ten thousand sea center helped her to conquer the sword qi, and after personally demonstrating that there was no obstacle in the ten thousand sea center, the Island Master was relieved. But when she returned to the sect, she sent the news to the Pure Yang Palace as soon as possible, and also attached the explanation.

Of course, Yang Chen received the news. He would not comment on Shi Shanshan's decision. That's fine, pressure does help absorb sword qi. He pretended to be injured for more than two years, and it was time to go out.

The Pure Yang Palace immediately announced the good news of Grandmaster Yang's return from injury. Suddenly, the Pure Yang Palace, which had been calm for a long time, began to become lively again.

Chapter 624: Life Essence Herbs

The face retaining pills and the Inner sensing pills began to be auctioned in the ten thousand treasure building again, those anxious people finally breathed a sigh of relief, as long as they continued to sell, they hope this doesn't happen again in the future.

After leaving seclusion, Yang Chen shocked everyone. It seems that he was really very weak from the injury. If it hadn't been for the palace master and the others to know that this was Yang Chen's plan, they might have been frightened.

Only Yang Chen came forward, and neither Gao Yue nor Gongsun Ling appeared in front of everyone. Judging from Yang Chen's appearance, it was estimated that the two women were also seriously injured. It seems that this time, they were disturbed by others during the double cultivation, and they went into trouble. Otherwise, a little injury would not have caused Yang Chen to become like this.

“Greetings Grandmaster!” As soon as he left seclusion and returned to Gao Yue’s small courtyard from the Dragon Palace, Yang Chen heard several coquettish salutations in unison. Afterwards, he saw Fairy Junqi from the Greatest Heaven Sect, Fairy Qingmu from Qiankun Sect, and the five Murong sisters from Five Elements Sect bowing down to him.

“What are you doing here?” Yang Chen has been cultivating in the Dragon Palace. Although news from the outside could come in, Yang Chen really didn’t take the fact that a few women were slaves and maids. Suddenly, the seven women came here, and even Yang Chen also felt a little awkward.

“Grandmaster...” Shi Wushuang raised her head to explain, but was interrupted directly by Yang Chen.

“Don’t say it.” Yang Chen resolutely said “If you want to stay, everyone will continue as usual, and don’t say anything about masters and slaves. I’ll go to see the palace master first, you guys wait for me here.”

“Ok!” This time, the seven girls agreed in unison, very happily. In fact, from the depths of their hearts, why would they be willing to let themselves become someone else’s slave from a high fairy? Even if this person was Yang Chen.

When Yang Chen left, the seven girls looked at each other, and everyone’s faces were filled with joy. However, they seem to be worried about Yang Chen’s attitude.

Yang Chen said that he was going to see the palace master, but it was really just a visit, and there were not too many other things to talk about. Anyway, he has been staying in the sect recently, and they have already discussed some things, but they just haven’t met. When he comes out of the retreat, he always does everything he needs to do in an upright place.

“Why are you hurt so badly?” Tao Junqi was the first to ask eagerly after Yang Chen returned from where the Palace Master was headed, “Could it be that your medicinal pills can’t cure you?”

Shi Wushuang and the five Murong sisters didn’t speak, but they all seemed to be worried about Yang Chen’s appearance and stared at Yang Chen with worried eyes, which made Yang Chen feel uncomfortable.

"I hurt some foundations." Yang Chen replied indifferently "It will be a while, and it will not be healed quickly."

All the girls were silent. People who practice cultivation are most afraid of hurting their foundation. If this happens, not only will their cultivation be damaged, but their future cultivation will also be greatly affected. Unless there is a way to replenish it as soon as possible, they will be half ruined.

"I..., Junqi, if your concubine acts as a cauldron, can you recover faster?" Tao Junqi seemed awkward at first, she wanted to call herself a wife but claimed to be a concubine.

Fairy Junqi had already said something before. If Yang Chen was willing to join the dual cultivation, she would be willing to act as Yang Chen's cauldron at the beginning, but now she has always followed her words, and said these words in front of Yang Chen on her own initiative.

"This concubine is also willing!" Yang Chen was a little sluggish after listening to it. How could the other girls let go of this opportunity?

"What's the point of this?" Yang Chen smiled wryly and shook his head. He and the sect master had already discussed it. Since he couldn't refuse the arrangement of the three major sects for a while, he would make excuses for the time being. Even when necessary, let them see how powerful Yang Chen was, and maybe it will slowly dispel the suspicions of some major sects.

However, the performances of the fairies showed a stance that they would not give up until their goals were achieved, which made Yang Chen sigh. Every sect has such loyal disciples, and they can do anything for the sake of the sect. In addition to the Greatest Heaven Sect having hatred for himself, it would be a bit unreasonable if he treats Tao Junqi differently from the other two. Especially in the future, if he wants to take revenge, he will need to rely on the power of other people's sects.

"If you can recover as soon as possible, we will also use more face retaining pills!" Shi Wushuang didn't say anything else, but directly attributed the reason to her own needs. In fact, of the seven fairies in front of him, except for Tao Junqi, who had used a face retaining pill, the others were all young and beautiful fairies themselves.

"It's really not necessary." Yang Chen could only answer in a very formal manner "Sister Junqi, Sister Wushuang, and Sister Murong, you seem to have already split up. Who am I?"

As soon as he called them elder sisters, the seven women were overjoyed. Since Yang Chen started to call them that, it meant that there was finally a solution to the troubles caused by those guys in the past. However, what does Yang Chen mean? He was an alchemist, so if the injury can be cured, it would have been cured a long time ago, so why wait until now.

“You are a fifth-grade alchemist.” One of the Murong sisters said, Yang Chen still can’t tell which of the five sisters is which, unless he uses his spiritual awareness to sense the other’s five elements, but this would be too rude.

“Yes, I’m a fifth-grade alchemist.” Yang Chen nodded with a smile: “If that’s the case, why do we need to use that kind of method that harms others and benefits ourselves?”

“Then why don’t you refine some medicinal pills, and then come out after curing yourself?” Fairy Junqi asked curiously. She really planned to sacrifice part of her cultivation to complete Yang Chen to make up for the previous cracks. Yang Chen said this, but she was a little confused.

“Lack of a suitable main medicinal materials.” Yang Chen smiled and replied.

“What medicinal materials? Let me check the sect and see if I can get some!” Fairy Junqi immediately swept up.

However, just after Fairy Junqi finished saying this, several other fairies also refused to obey, and they all said that they could also help solve it. Yang Chen just lacks the medicinal materials, it was too simple, they dare not say anything else, as long as Yang Chen needs the medicinal materials of 10,000 years, if the three major sects can’t get them together, then no one in this world can get them.

If Yang Chen uses those medicinal herbs, it means that the relationship between that sect and Yang Chen was getting closer. Who would miss this opportunity?

“The medicinal herbs that contains life essence, any kind will do.” Yang Chen said with a smile, but his eyes turned to the seven girls, as if waiting for their answers.

Chapter 625: The Prestige Of The Wife

The seven fairies were all dumbfounded. They had heard of many medicinal herbs, but what are the medicinal herbs that contain life essence? They have only heard about herbs saving lives, improving spiritual power, or others, but they have never heard of it containing life essence.

“It’s just to increase the lifespan.” Yang Chen explained it in an easy-to-understand way. The girls were suddenly stunned, and then they all wilted like eggplants beaten by frost.

From ancient times to the present, apart from hearing the legend of the seventh-grade pills, they have never heard of anything that can increase the life of a cultivator. There was a lot to increase the lifespan of mortals, but at best it was to improve the physique of mortals and let them live for a few more years, but for cultivators, these are useless at all.

It was only at this time that the girls realized that it seemed that Yang Chen had hurt his life essence this time. For a while, it was not known if the seven women were really caring about Yang Chen, or if they were performing in front of Yang Chen, all of them had anxious faces.

“What should I do? What should I do?” Shi Wushuang racked her brains while thinking, and there were anxious tears in her eyes. Yang Chen was taken aback, could it be that Fairy Aoki really has feelings for him? It shouldn’t be right?

“... Jun, if your concubine is a cauldron, can you recover a part of it?” Tao Junqi gritted her teeth and asked again this time, with an indomitable look. At the same time when the word Jun was exported, everyone could feel that she had silently added a word in front of Jun.

As soon as she said this question, the other girls stopped and stared at Yang Chen, waiting for Yang Chen’s answer. From their eyes, Yang Chen could even see that as long as Yang Chen nodded, they were all willing to do it.

“Of course!” Yang Chen nodded slightly and said, “It’s just that the heavenly laws has its own way of balance. If there is more here, there will be less there. It’s impossible to use a coincidence.”

“This concubine is willing to be a cauldron. As long as... you can recover, it’s not a big deal if this concubine is slightly damaged.” Fairy Junqi didn’t know the reason, but being able to make such a decision was enough to make Yang Chen moved.

“This concubine is also willing to be a cauldron!”

“This concubine is also willing to be a cauldron!”

After Fairy Junqi finished speaking, Fairy Aoki and the five Murong sisters stepped forward one by one, expressing their willingness to sacrifice themselves to complete Yang Chen.

“Why are you all so troubled?” Yang Chen couldn’t help sighing.

Fairy Aoki gritted her teeth and finally said “Someone of my sect elders participated in the last attack on the Pure Yang Palace, although it was not my sect’s will, but after all, it was my sect’s elder’s intention, this is my sect right? Living in the Pure Yang Palace, I’m sorry, this concubine is here to atone for their sins. Don’t say it’s just a cauldron, if you just want this concubine’s life, this concubine will happily obey.”

When she spoke, the scene immediately fell silent. Fairy Junqi and the five fairies Murong were planning to say something, but after looking at Yang Chen’s face, they held back their words.

“You mean the same thing?” Yang Chen asked with a sigh.

This time, the girls didn’t speak, they just slammed down their beautiful heads.

” You have suffered on behalf of others, so why bother?” Yang Chen shook his head and said regretfully.

Speaking of this, the scene suddenly became awkward. After a while, Yang Chen suddenly realized that this was an excellent opportunity to get rid of the entanglement of the seven girls.

“That being the case, I don’t need such trouble. I have designated several specific medicinal materials, and you can help me find them. Then everything will be written off, how about it?”

Just when Yang Chen felt that as long as the seven girls nodded, Yang Chen would find a few medicinal materials that were relatively precious, but they were nothing to the three major sects, so that they could communicate smoothly.

“This concubine Shi Wushuang is unparalleled and has been in love with the young master for many years. I am willing to be the maid of the young master, to be the concubine of the young master, to be a slave of the young master, this concubine swears by the heart demon to live and die for the young master!” Shi Wushuang seemed to have anticipated Yang Chen’s plan one step earlier, and she said these words quickly and urgently.

Shi Wushuang was not the only smart person. Tao Junqi and the Murong sisters immediately understood something from Shi Wushuang’s firm tone and Yang Chen’s words just now, one by one, according to what Shi Wushuang said, they all repeated them. In the end, they all swear by heart demons.

It seems that all the girls were mentally prepared. It was impossible to become a flat wife like Gao Yue and the others. Therefore, it was only possible to be a concubine a slave or a maid, which seems to be in Yang Chen’s mind. However, looking at Yang Chen’s appearance, was he willing to let the seven fairies really be slaves and maids? If he did this, it was estimated that Yang Chen would be cursed to death by countless people who admired the seven women.

Yang Chen was stunned and speechless, the door of the room slammed softly, it was Gao Yue who walked out of the door.

“Greetings Mistress!” The seven women had no other consideration this time, and bowed to Gao Yue. Gao Yue was Yang Chen’s wife and eldest wife, so why did she want to see them?

“Get up!” Gao Yue commanded softly, “From now on, everyone will be sisters, so you don’t need to be so polite.” When she said this, she made a decision for Yang Chen.

The seven girls were overjoyed and stood up. Gao Yue said that everyone were sisters, doesn’t that mean that at least they were also concubines and will not be slaves and maids.

“Husband’s heart is soft, he can’t see beautiful women softly begging. A’Ling and I have to retreat for a while recently, and I will ask you to take care of him.” Gao Yue directly took up the eldest sister’s style and instructed “Be optimistic about husband, don’t let any woman get close to our husband, do you hear me?”

“Yes, elder sister!” The seven girls agreed in unison. The answer was full of excitement, they called her elder sister willingly, even if the seven women were older than Gao Yue, they had to respectfully call her elder sister Gao Yue.

“Husband has been in bad health recently, but don’t let him be too distracted.” Gao Yue turned to look at Yang Chen, who was already frowning, and said another sentence, then turned around and entered the room again.

“Good luck elder sister!” The seven women watched Gao Yue disappear behind the door in a coquettish voice, and then all expressions of joy appeared on their faces.

“Husband, what kind of medicinal materials do you need? You mention it, we will go to the sect to find all the ingredients for husband.” Fairy Junqi was the closest to Yang Chen, and she was the first to turn to Yang Chen and say.

“Yes, husband, just tell me what herbs you want.” Shi Wushuang also had the same attitude, and suddenly she became very familiar. She walked behind Yang Chen and naturally began to massage Yang Chen’s shoulders.

Chapter 626: Folktales

Yang Chen was completely speechless, Gao Yue’s outburst made all his previous plans come to nothing. He doesn’t know what Gao Yue thought or how she made such a decision.

However, perhaps it was that Gao Yue heard the heart-wrenching oath from the seven fairies. She had always wanted to find more people for Yang Chen who could serve Yang Chen. She couldn’t accompany Yang Chen for a long time because of the previous matters, so finding a few more people might help Yang Chen not be disturbed too much.

Especially the origins of these fairies were the three major sects, the Greatest Heaven Sect, Qiankun Sect and Five Elements Sect, if you add Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan’s Blue Cloud Sect and Green Jade Immortal Island, the five major sects are complete, she believe there are those words from Gao Yue, these few women will definitely drive away any women who intend to approach Yang Chen.

In this regard, what Gao Yue and the others have done was not enough. Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling were born in the Pure Yang Palace, and sometimes it was impossible to do this kind of things, Shi Shanshan doesn't care about other things at all, Sun Qingxue was happy as long as Yang Chen was. That's fine, a few more can do this effectively, perhaps this was also one of Gao Yue's considerations.

Especially with Gao Yue's attitude, the three major sects will also further attracted to the Pure Yang Palace. Even if they want to deal with the Greatest Heaven Sect in the future, they only need to hide it from Tao Junqi. It could even be used to unite the people of the other four sects.

Since Gao Yue nodded and came forward in person, of course Yang Chen would not take a completely different attitude from Gao Yue. When dealing with the seven women, his face relaxed a lot.

"Actually, your sect may not have this medicinal herbs." Yang Chen said, a jade slip suddenly appeared in his hand and handed it to Tao Junqi.

Tao Junqi was stunned for a moment, and when she brought it over to investigate, a strange look appeared on her face. Then, very strangely, she handed the jade slip to Murong next to her. After the Murong five sisters took turns to look at it, they handed it to Shi Wushuang. Everyone's faces were full of indescribable expressions.

"This is just a myth and legend, husband!" After Shi Wushuang read it word by word, she returned the jade slip to Yang Chen with a wry smile "How could such a thing be found in the mortal world!"

They don't know where such folklore was recorded in the jade slips, and they don't know where the jade slips were collected to record such chores. One of them records a kind of herb that increases longevity by eating it.

Usually, everyone laughs at this kind of folklore. It was understandable to use it as a chat to relieve boredom, but if it was serious, it was a joke. That's why all the girls looked like that. They really couldn't imagine how a dignified Yuanying stage master, a fifth-grade alchemist, would believe such a ridiculous thing.

“Sometimes, people think that I can become a fifth-grade alchemist, there must be some secret. They believe that I can get some precious materials that others can’t get.” Yang Chen smiled, and said to the seven women beside him: “Today, I will let you see how I get somethings that others can’t get.”

In front of Yang Chen, a table, teapots and cups were set up, and a pot of spiced tea was brewed, and everyone had a share. After everyone sat around the table, Yang Chen took out another piece of jade slip and said, “This is one of the hundreds of thousands of miscellaneous books in my collection, look at the records inside.”

After everyone took turns to read it, there was still a folklore in it. There was a monkey who ate a peach and turned into a monkey spirit or something.

“This article was obtained from the Blue Cloud Sect’s collection of books.” Yang Chen took out another jade slip.

Looking at the girls again, they thought it was still folklore. In the two jade slips, there was an Immortal peach. After eating it, you can immediately ascend to the Immortal world. Mu Mingyuan has done this kind of thing once, but it was definitely not an Immortal peach, but an elixir refined by Yang Chen. Although the girls felt a little ridiculous, their expressions were much more cautious.

“This one is a collection of books in the Green Jade Immortal Island.” Yang Chen seemed to sincerely want to show the girls how to find peerless treasures from folklore, and took out another jade slip.

“There are similar legends in the collection of the Greatest Heaven Sect.” This time Yang Chen took out the collection of books obtained from the Greatest Heaven Sect. The content was nothing more than this, a fisherman accidentally lost his way into a peach forest, fell asleep after eating a peach, and woke up and could no longer find the peach forest or something.

“This is also from the Five Elements Sect.” Another piece of jade slip was directly given to the Murong Five Sisters. According to the folklore, someone saw that on the night of lightning and thunder, a peach core fell from the sky and turned into a small mountain, and the two gates in front of the mountain were tightly closed.

“Qiankun Sect also has something similar.” This jade slip was given to Shi Wushuang. The same was a folklore, a certain barren mountain turned into a peach forest overnight, and the fallen flowers were colorful. The literati and poets come here from time to time, and they endure for a long time.

“These are all legends, and some are recorded by literati, who ate peaches from a certain place to be light and healthy, etc.” Yang Chen took out dozens of jade slips at once, and put them on the table and the women checked them one by one.

All the women took these jade slips to investigate for a long time, but they were unable to effectively string together all the clues.

“Husband, is there any mystery here?” Shi Wushuang asked.

Yang Chen sighed inwardly and looked at the other six girls. Tao Junqi and the five Murong sisters were also waiting for Yang Chen’s answer. Yang Chen picked up the teacup, took a sip, and then said, “The records of these literati and poets are not very useful, they are just to prove somethings.”

“Why is this? Husband!” Shi Wushuang still didn’t understand “Accordingly, they are people who have something to say!” The other girls also nodded.

“These guys never believe in certain things.” Yang Chen shook his head and said contemptuously, “Also, what the literati memorized is sometimes not necessarily true.”

The girls agreed on this point, Tao Junqi turned and asked suspiciously “Husband, is it because those legends are the focus?” Tao Junqi also added husband to almost every sentence, for fear that Yang Chen would default on his debts.

“That’s right.” Yang Chen replied with certainty “Those legends are the real focus. Because they are legends, some people will not consciously modify them when they record them, so that we can see the original ones. The things left by the literati have long been changed by myself or others.”

Chapter 627: Taste

The Murong five sisters have been listening and investigating those jade slips. There seems to be some tacit understanding between the five sisters. When everyone thinks about a certain issue at the same time, they can all come to the same conclusion.

“Husband, according to these legends, means that a long time ago, a peach pit fell from the sky, turned into a hill, and was closed by two gates. Well, what does this mean?” asked one of the five Murong sisters.

“It may be the location of the hill. There are two peaks or cliffs in front of it that look like gates.” Yang Chen replied immediately.

“The fisherman couldn’t find it after eating it, maybe there was some kind of confusion, and he was sent out of the formation.” Another sister Murong said “There are peach blossoms all around, maybe it’s a simple peach blossom confusion. “

“That’s right.” Yang Chen said with a smile “It makes sense, what else?”

“Some monkeys have eaten it. Is that place where the monkeys live, or not far away.” Shi Wushuang also joined the analysis team.

“This counts as one.” Yang Chen nodded again.

“There are a lot of peach trees, otherwise there would be no literati and writers frequented.” Tao Junqi joined in without falling behind.

“Yes, it is rich in peaches, and the peach forest is vast.” Yang Chen nodded in the same way, affirming Tao Junqi.

In this way, all the women, have spoken and almost turned over the things in the folklore, and came to some conclusions.

If there really was such a kind of Immortal peach, it should be in a place rich in peaches, and there should be monkeys, plus two mountains with the same door, and a maze. It seems that such a place was not easy to find.

“Actually, there is one thing you haven’t noticed, that is, the words of the people recorded in the legends.” Yang Chen added another point “There are almost three legends in which the mountain people used a tone of ‘heh’ when they replied. This is a common spoken language in the country in southwest Bazhou.”

When Yang Chen said this, the girls immediately became excited. If even the location can be confirmed, wouldn’t it be easy to find?

“It’s not that easy to find, but let’s go over and take a look!” Yang Chen stood up, and then notified the servants to inform Gao Yue and the palace master, and then dragged the seven girls into the shuttle and left the Pure Yang Palace.

They had heard before that Yang Chen liked to read a lot of miscellaneous books, but they never cared about it. After a while, the seven women really understood that Yang Chen had really read a lot of miscellaneous books, otherwise it would be impossible to find so many jade slips that recorded the same thing.

It’s just that no one was sure about such news from folklore, but since Yang Chen was interested, it was also beneficial to accompany Yang Chen on a journey.

Their speed was fast, but even so, it will take several months to get to Bazhou. This world was so big that it was not a simple matter of going back and forth.

During the trip, everyone was a cultivator, so they were not lonely, especially since they all wanted to leave a good impression on Yang Chen, so naturally, they each took out what they were good at to please Yang Chen. Tao Junqi even took out a few articles about the cultivation experience of the senior fire attribute cultivators of the Greatest Heaven Sect, and asked Yang Chen to refer to it, which made Yang Chen very surprised. At this point, Tao Junqi seems to be deceiving her teachers and betraying her ancestors.

“The sect master agreed.” Tao Junqi didn’t explain much, just one sentence was enough. It can be seen that the Greatest Heaven Sect has attached great importance to Yang Chen to a certain extent.

The Murong sisters took care of all of Yang Chen’s life matters. It could almost be said that when he stretched out his hand for food and opened his mouth, and Yang Chen only needed to speak, and the other Murong sisters covered it all.

Shi Wushuang was smart. Among the seven women, her cultivation base was the lowest. Although she was also at the peak Yuanying stage, everyone else was in the Dacheng stage. In front of Yang Chen, Shi Wushuang also put away her pride of Fairy Aoki, and very humbly asked Yang Chen for advice. She knew exactly how much benefit that little girl Sun Qingxue got from Yang Chen.

Yang Chen naturally knew everything about this kind of advice. Yang Chen knew all the things that Shi Wushuang had always been puzzled by. Even the Murong sister, who was a wood type, listened with great interest.

In this matter, Shi Wushuang took the lead and left Yang Chen with the impression that she still needed Yang Chen’s care. Unlike Tao Junqi and the Murong sisters, they were all in the Dacheng stage, so they were naturally embarrassed to pull their faces down and let Yang Chen in the middle Yuanying stage take care of them. To understand this, Tao Junqi and Murong sisters were secretly scolding the little fox in their hearts, and they didn’t even think that he was at the peak Yuanying stage, two small realms higher than Yang Chen’s cultivation base, so they were too embarrassed to do so.

Soon, the girls arrived in Bazhou in this atmosphere. Yang Chen’s shuttle flew not far in the southwest direction, and everyone saw the peach forest. The peach forest was almost distributed for thousands of miles, and the shuttle flew a few times, but no one found anything like a gate.

“Husband, didn’t you find the right place?” Shi Wushuang asked cautiously.

Yang Chen shook his head noncommittally, suddenly he found something, flew over in a certain direction, and then flickered, he disappeared from the shuttle.

On a mountain road that was not very smooth, an elderly old woman was struggling down the mountain with a basket of peaches on her back. Yang Chen’s figure appeared not far in front of the old woman.

“Grandma, how does this peach taste?” Yang Chen’s voice reached the old woman’s ears, and the old woman realized that Yang Chen was there and raised her head.

“The taste is very sweet, it is soft and big. This old woman has been eating it for decades.” Seeing that it was a child from a rich family, the old woman put on a smile and replied with a mouth that had lost half of her teeth.

“Can you sell me this box of peaches?” Yang Chen already had a large amount of copper coins in his hand and handed them over.

“Okay, okay!” Of course the old woman was happy, she put the peaches on her back in front of Yang Chen, and then picked up Yang Chen’s copper coins, her mouth was about to crack open after seeing so many coins.

“Grandma, how old are you? I’m asking, how old are you?” Yang Chen asked again.

“This old woman is only ninety-six this year.” The old woman replied happily “Not old, not old!”

Watching the old woman walk away, Yang Chen’s figure with a basket of peaches disappeared, and reappeared in the shuttle.

In the scene just now, all the girls in the shuttle were watching, but they didn’t know Yang Chen’s intentions.

“Come on, fresh peaches, try it to see how it tastes.” Yang Chen was very happy, he put a basket of peaches in front of the girls and motioned them to have a taste.

Chapter 628: Cutting The Peach Tree

All the fairies didn’t understand what Yang Chen meant, didn’t they come to look for the Immortal peach? How come he wants to eat peaches? But they wouldn’t be disobedient to Yang Chen’s good intentions, so they could only choose a peach that looked pleasing to the eye and held it in their hands.

Yang Chen himself took one out of the basket, and with a slight flash of fire on his hand, the girls saw that the tiny hairs on the peach's surface disappeared immediately. Afterwards, Yang Chen didn't care whether he looked elegant or not, he took a big mouthful of the peach, and the juice was dripping.

"Well, it tastes good, give it a try!" Yang Chen persuaded the seven fairies while eating.

Everyone looked at each other, as if they had to eat. Although the peaches in the wild are not necessarily so delicious, the advantage was that they are not too dirty. Everyone imitated Yang Chen and started to clean the hairs on the surface of the peaches by each means.

Shi Wushuang was of the wood attribute, and the peach happens to be too. As soon as she activated her spiritual power, the hairs were concentrated in one place, and then Fairy Shi stretched out her slender fingers, gently grabbed the tuft of hairs, and then opened her cherry mouth and bit it up.

Tao Junqi and the Murong sisters, the fire-attribute ones, all used the same technique, just like Yang Chen's. However, it seemed simple at first, but after using it, they realized that it was not that easy.

Although the flame was also very small, it was only along the surface of the peach, and the small ravines were not spared. It was not so easy to burn off the hair without hurting the peach. The two women were casual on the surface, but in fact they carefully controlled the flames, and only burned the fur little by little, but the time was much slower than Yang Chen.

They must have spent at least five times the effort that Yang Chen had just finished with a flick of his hand. Although in the eyes of everyone, this hand was already the ultimate performance of fire control, it was clear that the gap between them and Yang Chen was not small.

The other Murong sisters also used their own methods, and everyone completed the cleaning with ease. They were all masters of the Dacheng stage, and such trivial matters were completely out of the question.

Everyone elegantly and beautifully took the first bite and carefully chewed it twice in their mouths, and the seven pairs of beautiful eyes couldn't help but burst into a unique brilliance.

Everyone saw the light in each other's eyes, and couldn't help but take another bite, chewing several times to confirm whether they felt wrong just now.

That's right, this peach was really delicious, sweet, soft, and juicy. It's a rare good peach, but this was not enough to surprise a Yuanying stage master and six Dacheng stage masters. They were surprised that there was a unique power in this peach, which belongs to the category of spiritual power, but it was very weak, at their level, they could find it.

More importantly, this spiritual power seems to be able to supplement their essence. Although it was only faint to the extreme, it can indeed be supplemented.

"The old woman just now, was ninety-six, carrying a basket of peaches of several dozen catties, walking on this mountain road like walking on the ground, what does that mean?" When he tasted two bites, he had already eaten the one just now, and took another one from the basket, as if he hadn't eaten enough.

"Husband, I'll help you!" Shi Wushuang was the closest and she was quick-witted, grabbed the peach from Yang Chen's hand, and quickly washed the hair away. He didn't know where she got a jade plate, and quickly used a jade knife to cut the peach into beautiful pieces, and put it on the table beside Yang Chen.

A set of exquisite small jade forks for picking fruits and another delicate jade plate were placed in Yang Chen's hand, then Shi Wushuang picked up the jade fork, forked a piece, and personally delivered it to Yang Chen's mouth, coquettishly said "Husband please eat!"

Yang Chen swallowed the peach in one gulp, chewed it slowly, and then asked with a smile, "Was how I just ate unsightly?"

"It is husband's true nature, don't worry about it." Shi Wushuang said with a smile "I just heard from elder sister that husband likes the best of everything, especially when he eats it. He never tires of eating fines and delicacies, so of course his concubine must give him the best. Of course, as long as husband is willing, you can eat whatever you want."

While saying this, she has already prepared Yang Chen like this. Obviously, Shi Wushuang really thought the same thing as Yang Chen. It must be unsightly to grab it with such a big hand and eat it dripping with juice.

However, Shi Wushuang was a smart person, she would not criticize Yang Chen face to face. Instead, she used another method to serve him personally. She helped Yang Chen cut the peaches, put the tableware, and even delivered them to his mouth. Yang Chen couldn't defy her good intentions, he will only conform to her intentions. Isn't it comforting to chew the bite just now?

In addition to the last paragraph, and Gao Yue's meaning, then Yang Chen will definitely accept her arrangement willingly. This happened many times, and in a subtle way, Yang Chen would get used to following Shi Wushuang's arrangement.

"It tastes good, but Sister Wushuang, using the jade knife will still contaminate the peach with a bit of metal qi. Why not cut it with your flying sword, wouldn't it be more delicious?" Yang Chen seemed to be very picky and directly put forward higher requirements.

"Life source flying sword?" Shi Wushuang did not expect that Yang Chen would make such a request, that he would be so disrespectful to her that he wanted to use her life source flying sword to cut fruit for him, what kind of weirdo would come up with such a method? Could it be that in Yang Chen's eyes, she was so lowly?

Shi Wushuang suddenly began to feel self-pity here, while Yang Chen stared at Shi Wushuang with all his spare time. The other fairies beside him obviously didn't think of Yang Chen's statement, but for a while, no one knew what to say, and the atmosphere suddenly fell silent.

"No matter how good the flying sword is, isn't it also for use?" Yang Chen suddenly said with a smile "You don't want to use it to cut this delicious fruit, but are you willing to cut the disgusting flesh and blood of those enemies? Maybe it's still stained with highly toxic filth or something, so you don't feel bad?"

As soon as these words came out, Shi Wushuang suddenly thought of something in her mind. There was something shining in front of her, but it was always in a place that she couldn't reach, but it seemed that the illusion was already within reach.

“A thing is a thing, although it is part of your life, it is not your own life.” Yang Chen continued, “You don’t use it when it should be used, but you always temper it blindly, what’s the use? You always sharpen the sword edge but don’t use it.”

Chapter 629: Cutting The Peach Tree To Breakthrough

Shi Wushuang finally understood what he had in mind, Yang Chen’s words directly reminded her of the key point.

Shi Wushuang has always been a person with a little bit of cleanliness. This is not annoying, as long as it doesn’t go too far, on the contrary, no matter when you clean up your surroundings, a clean beauty will always make people happy.

But this kind of character also makes Shi Wushuang cherish her own flying sword very much. Except for the life and death fight, she will rarely use it. This life source flying sword was tailor-made by Shi Wushuang’s master who invited several refining masters. Shi Wushuang loved her flying sword and she will not use it in ordinary practice. Where would she use the flying sword for things like cutting fruit?

On the contrary, there were some restrictions on Shi Wushuang’s cultivation, so that she stayed at the peak Yuanying stage, and she was slow to break this bottleneck and transcend her tribulation.

Shi Wushuang was also a well-known fairy in Yang Chen’s previous life. Even if Yang Chen didn’t need to deliberately understand her life, those guys who secretly admired her would chatter and explain to Yang Chen. Yang Chen was very clear about the difficulties in her cultivation, and with a little bit of dialing, she reached the point.

“This concubine understands, thank you Husband!” After Shi Wushuang came to her senses, without saying a word, she directly put the jade plate to one side, took out another peach from the basket, washed the hair and with her life source flying sword, she easily cut the peach again and placed it in front of Yang Chen.

“Go! Let’s watch the ceremony here!” Yang Chen signaled to Shi Wushuang to go outside. In the process of calmly cutting peaches for Yang Chen just now, tribulation clouds had already begun to condense, and the sky outside had also turned dark.

The flying shuttle had already stopped in an uninhabited place. Under the expectant gazes of Yang Chen, Tao Junqi and Murong sisters, Shi Wushuang flew out of the flying shuttle by herself, suspended in the air, and began to welcome the imminent tribulation.

They have long heard that the people around Yang Chen will be instructed by Yang Chen from time to time. Before the girls didn't believe it, Yang Chen himself was just a person who had just entered the middle Yuanying stage, how can he teach others?

It was only now that they discovered that Yang Chen used nothing more than a simple matter of cutting peaches, which would allow the peak Yuanying stage Shi Wushuang to comprehend her mistake, thus breaking the bottleneck and facing her tribulation. The other girls looked at Yang Chen as if they had known Yang Chen for the first time, so unfamiliar, so mysterious.

Except for Yang Chen, everyone was a master of the Dacheng stage, so there was no need to avoid the tribulation in a long distance. The flying shuttle has the package of the inverted sea jasper lamp, which will not have any impact on Shi Wushuang's tribulation. Everyone was watching Shi Wushuang resisting one yin fire after another from a close distance, while Yang Chen was still doing something.

"Oh, don't be surprised, such a good opportunity to collect some aura of heavenly tribulation and use it to refine the Seven Emotions and Six Desires Pill." Yang Chen didn't hide it from them, it was also normal to collect at this time.

Taking the aura of the tribulation, although the girls were curious, they didn't ask much. Soon, Shi Wushuang easily passed the Yin fire Tribulation and became a master of the early Dacheng stage.

"Thank you Husband!" After returning, Shi Wushuang gave thanks again, but in the manner of a concubine saluting the master. Although they now have Gao Yue's agreement, they haven't married Yang Chen yet, and they don't dare to pretend to be his wife for the time being. They can only use the etiquette of a concubine.

"You don't need to say such polite words." Yang Chen said casually. The girls heard it, but they all thought it was Yang Chen who felt that the family didn't need to be so polite, and felt a faint joy in their hearts.

“When this concubine was in the tribulation, it seemed that the tribulation smashed a formation below.” Shi Wushuang said immediately “I don’t know if it is the one we are looking for.”

“Is there such a thing?” Yang Chen was surprised for a while “It seems that I really have a great fate. If you find a place where you can face your tribulation, you can come here by chance, go and see!”

The shuttle disappeared, and the figures of everyone appeared next to the blasted formation that Shi Wushuang said. Among them, the Murong Five Sisters were the ones who have studied formations the most deeply, so they were the ones to judge.

“It’s a formation, the effect of this formation is to cover up what’s here.” One of the five sisters said, after carefully exploring the ruins of the maze, and after discussing with the sisters, they said “ It should be in this direction.”

Without further ado, he summoned the flying shuttle and rushed in that direction with the girls. In less than two days, just above the waterway of a big river, they saw two cliffs on the left and right like a gate.

They have come to this area before, and they have not seen these before. Obviously, the formation was cleverly hiding this part of the scene.

The high cliffs, one left and one right, looked like two huge portals from the direction of Yang Chen and the others. The river circled around there, but returned to the river again. However, behind the two cliffs, a cloud of mist rose, and no one could see what was inside.

“Two doors?” Yang Chen whispered to himself. The girls behind him have been shocked by the folklore that has been confirmed again and again.

“Go!” Yang Chen let out a low voice, and the flying shuttle quickly rushed over the cliff and entered the mist.

Although the fog was thick, it had no effect on Yang Chen and the others. Soon, everyone saw the hill that should appear behind the two gates.

On the hill, there was a dense peach forest with thousands of them. Strangely, all the peach trees looked exactly the same. On each tree, there was only a huge peach, the size of a washbasin, which was really gratifying to look at.

“Good luck.” Looking at this scene, Yang Chen suddenly showed a smile on his face, looked left and right and suddenly asked, “Tell me, which one is the peach that can best make up for the life essence?”

The girls had always been in a dream. They couldn’t believe that Yang Chen had found such a legendary Immortal peach forest just by relying on the mutual confirmation of several folklore. If they hadn’t followed Yang Chen all the way to find it, they wouldn’t have believed it at all. Was there anything more ridiculous and unbelievable than this?

But no matter what, Yang Chen did indeed lead everyone to a place, and saw this unique peach tree with only one peach with their own eyes. But thinking about it carefully, how could such a treasure be found so easily by them? Of those treasured treasures that they have heard of before, which one has been found by how many people who have been fighting for a long time to find it?

“The Immortal peach has a soul, one can only choose one.” Yang Chen’s reminder voice came over again.

“How did you know?” Tao Junqi asked curiously, this is something that has never happened in the legend.

“It’s engraved on the stone tablet over there.” Yang Chen pointed to a direction next to him, and everyone saw a simple stone tablet.

Chapter 630: Immortal Peach

The appearance of the stone tablet was very simple, and it was very majestic when it was carried on the back of the pixie. There were many patterns on it, they don’t know how long it has been placed here, but there was no vicissitudes of life on it. There were several very ancient fonts on the monument, which only Yang Chen seems to be able to recognize.

None of the girls knew what it meant, but they knew that Yang Chen would definitely know, otherwise Yang Chen would not have said that. Tao Junqi was even more aware that Yang Chen had deciphered the secret plane of the sect last time, the Greatest Heaven Sect did not hide this from their elders.

Since this was recorded on the stone tablet, it was obvious that the original owner has already made arrangements. All the girls understood the importance of good fortune on the path of cultivation, of course, this was also a test of their own eyesight, so after a pause, they all turned to Yang Chen.

“Husband, which one do you choose?” Murong Yi asked. Yang Chen has not actually called the Murong sisters by their names. In their past life, the Murong sisters made a name for themselves as sisters, but which one was named which, not many people knew, and Yang Chen was no exception. Up to now, they have not officially introduced themselves.

“If I choose, I won’t have your share.” Yang Chen smiled and gave them such an answer.

All the seven girls understood, this was Yang Chen’s confidence, let them choose first, just let them exercise their eyesight.

No one said anything, everyone walked into the peach forest, began to let go of their spiritual awareness, and probed one by one. However, it was indeed a bit difficult to choose the best one among thousands of peach trees.

Tao Junqi was a fiery person, so she rushed to the center and the highest point without saying a word, picked the largest peach tree, and plucked the huge fruit on it.

As soon as she got her hands on the Immortal peach, Tao Junqi’s figure seemed to disappear involuntarily, and they didn’t know where she went. The girls were shocked, and immediately understood why Yang Chen said that they could only choose one. It turned out that if they got it, they would be sent away, and even Tao Junqi, who had the highest cultivation base, could not resist. Legend has it that a fisherman got lost in the peach forest, and then woke up and the peach forest disappeared, it was probably the same reason.

On this, no one could help them, followed by Shi Wushuang, who rose into the air and saw the reddest peach. After picking it, she also disappeared in place.

The Murong five sisters discussed it for a while, and everyone let go of their spiritual awareness. Instead of starting from the peach, they looked at the peach tree. Finally, after some selection, they found five peach trees with the best growth, each took a peach and disappeared in place.

All the girls who disappeared were now concentrated in one place, except for Yang Chen who did not appear. Everyone looked at the peach in their hands, and didn't know if it was the best peach. They would wait for Yang Chen to come here and let him judge.

Although Yang Chen's cultivation base was the lowest, in terms of his understanding and knowledge, all seven fairies were willing to bow down. Not to mention that Yang Chen only used some folklore to find such a miraculous place. If it was said that Yang Chen was in the identification of medicinal materials, it was estimated that no one dares to say that he was stronger than him. A fifth-grade alchemist has such confidence.

The girls were waiting for Yang Chen, but they had no idea that Yang Chen didn't choose any peaches here, but walked directly to the stele and began to observe carefully. From the front to the back, Yang Chen watched it several times before a smile appeared on his face.

His spiritual awareness was completely released, and Yang Chen immediately discovered that this hill was one body at all, without the slightest layer of stone and soil. This time, Yang Chen's judgment was further increased.

"Take it!" He simply released a technique and landed on the stone tablet. After that, the pixi stone tablet glowed for a while, and the pixie below seemed to have suddenly come to life and ran wildly.

Yang Chen didn't care, he just stood there and waited silently. Soon, the pixie ran to a place and got into the ground with the stone tablet. Immediately afterwards, the entire hill began to shake.

Rumbling, the mountain kept shaking, and all the peach trees began to drop their leaves and dissolve into the ground. Through the branches and trunks, all the peach trees disappeared.

The hill finally showed its true colors, a huge peach tree. For some magical reason, all the branches and leaves were held together like a solid hill. Now all the branches and leaves were beginning to stretch, facing the sun, showing a vast expanse of green.

The Immortal peach core of the Old Man of the South Pole was thrown here by the crane demon. It took thousands of years to finally grow back into a complete peach tree. Then Yang Chen pretended to find the site from the hidden folklore, and then it fell into his hands.

The huge peach tree was transplanted by Yang Chen into the medicine garden space. Although the size of the peach tree was already very terrifying, it was not a big problem for the medicine garden space.

In Yang Chen's hand, he was holding a peach that was not too big, only the size of a human head. This is the result of this huge Immortal peach tree. It looks unremarkable, but the essence of life contained in it was directly coveted.

"Azhu, if your body can merge with this Immortal peach tree, I don't need to say more about the benefits, work hard!" Yang Chen said to Azhu.

In the past, Abi was fused with the blood demon vine and demonized demon vine, now Abi was obviously stronger. With this peach tree, Azhu would be able to catch up, it depends on Azhu's own efforts.

Azhu seemed to be singing and dancing happily in the medicine garden space. Even Abi looked happy for Azhu, she never suffered any grievances when she followed Yang Chen, the master. The space was constantly expanding, and all kinds of medicinal materials were filled in desperately.

Not to mention that Azhu was merging with the Immortal peach tree, Yang Chen flicked his figure holding the Immortal peach, and came to the place where the seven girls were sent. Even the entire body of the peach tree was collected by Yang Chen, so Yang Chen knew exactly where they were sent.

Seeing Yang Chen's appearance, all the girls' eyes invariably saw the peach in Yang Chen's hand.

"Why is it so small?" All the girls were shocked. The peaches in their hands were all the size of a washbasin. Only this one in Yang Chen's hand was no more than the size of a human head. Compared to everyone else's, it was obviously a lot smaller. Is it that the smallest is the best?

"Husband, is it the best one?" It was Shi Wushuang who immediately asked for everyone.
