Chapter 681: : Disappeared In An Instant

The original owner of the manor was still not far away, and they could clearly hear the words of Yang Chen and the girls. While the original owner was still there, Yang Chen and several concubines began to discuss how to deal with the wealth they left behind. Why wouldn't this attitude make them grit their teeth in hatred?

The question is, so what about hating? The most urgent task now is to quickly escape from the scope of the tortoise's tribulation, saving one's life is the top priority, as long as one's life is preserved, there will be a future. Apart from the fact that the Patriarch of the Zhao family is still standing there like a walking corpse, where is the Zhao family beside him? Even Zhao Cuiyue, whom he loves and protects the most, ran away from the very beginning, regardless of the relationship between father and daughter.

The Heavenly Tribulation finally came, the terrifying raging wind tribulation was more violent than any time Yang Chen had ever seen. Long Xuan's huge body directly caused the raging wind tribulation to turn into a wind storm that spread thousands of miles away. As long as there was anyone within this range, upon contact, they would immediately freeze in place and would never move again.

In an instant, within a radius of thousands of miles, all living creatures were frozen, and the sea was covered with such clay and wood sculpture-like people, suspended in the air, lifeless.

The only exception might be Yang Chen's family. In this circle, no tribulation came, but everyone's spiritual awareness could feel the horror of the tribulation outside without restraint. For the girls, this was simply an unimaginable experience. Even if all the ascended people in the world were added up, their level of tribulation did not seem to be so intense.

What Yang Chen was interested in was the magic weapon that Long Xuan used to protect his family. To his surprise, this was actually the monument of merit that he had blessed not long ago. The current monument of merit and virtue was invisible, directly enveloping Yang Chen's family in it, and even the raging wind tribulation cannot pass through it. It seems that even in the spiritual world, this monument of merit and virtue is also a super powerful magic weapon for protecting the body.

It was just the first raging wind tribulation, and soon, the second raging wind tribulation began to come. Right in front of Yang Chen's family, the Patriarch of the Zhao family and those Zhao family members who fled far and near turned into mud-like guys, directly turned into dust, drifting with the wind, and there was no trace of their existence anymore. Except for those Zhao family children who were not in the Zhao family manor, the entire Zhao family was wiped out in an instant.

Looking at the situation in front of him, Yang Chen shook his head in his heart. If everyone in the Greatest Heaven Sect was here now, he wouldn't have to try to dig a hole for the Greatest Heaven Sect, he can directly kill the entire Greatest Heaven Sect. It's a pity that Long Xuan's whereabouts have always been controlled by the Zhao family. It's okay to swim slowly in the sea, but if he wants to go to land, the Zhao family probably refuse.

The power of the Zhao family, which has been passed down for countless tens of thousands of years, disappeared without a trace, leaving nothing behind. So what if he was so ambitious and domineering back then? In the end, it is not a handful of loess, and even a handful of loess is not available, and there is no place to die. This secret family that single-handedly created the Demon Continent disappeared completely like this. No one knew how it was before, and there was no future either.

The rise and fall of the ages, maybe that's it! Yang Chen didn't sigh for too long, and began to collect the aura of the raging wind tribulation. Such a pure heavenly tribulation aura is enough for Yang Chen to refine many pills.

The seven women have been frightened by this unimaginable tribulation. A family whose strength and inheritance are comparable to those of the five major sects, just died in a short time. It's just as powerful as the Zhao family. If they were themselves, what would happen if they didn't have a husband?

Smart people can gain a lot from experience, lessons, improvement of mood, etc. Fortunately, none of the women around Yang Chen are stupid. After witnessing what happened, they no longer cared about anything else, they all sat cross-legged beside Yang Chen, and began to retreat to comprehend what they had gained. Of course, it is indispensable for everyone to have an extra questioning inner heart pill.

The seven women didn't think about what would happen if they made mistakes during the retreat process. With Yang Chen by their side, there would be no problem. This is the seven women trust in Yang Chen, which was established not long ago.

Every time he experienced a tribulation, Long Xuan's body shrunk by a large amount. After the nine tribulations were completed, Long Xuan had already turned into a small tortoise with a radius of less than ten feet, and there was another thing on his back that was about as tall as a person. The stele looks very vicissitudes. However, if you look closely, on the vicissitudes of a stone tablet, there is a flash of precious light from time to time, which makes people feel like wanting to worship.

“Master, your manor!” A miniature manor was spit out from Long Xuan’s mouth, and slowly flew towards Yang Chen “The things that Long Xuan has collected over the years have been sent to the manor.”

Looking at the manor flying over, Yang Chen was not polite, grabbed it and received it in the merit ring.

“Those two girls have been sent to the place according to the master’s instructions.” Long Xuan did not transform into a human form, but maintained this humble appearance, uttering these words.

Yang Chen nodded. Long Xuan was talking about Zhao Cuiyue and Bei Shuangyu. The two of them are more valuable alive than they are dead, so Yang Chen made this clear in the terms of cooperation with Long Xuan early in the beginning.

“After the ascension, I can do it myself.” Yang Chen thought for a while, didn’t say anything, but said: “I can’t do anything about the formations around the Sea of Consciousness right now. I’ll find a way after I ascend. You are already in shape now. Great changes, no one will recognize you for the time being, after you go up, don’t rush to seek revenge from the Zhao family, wait until the time is right.”

“With the help of master’s merits and virtues, Long Xuan has saved at least ten thousand years of cultivation time.” Long Xuan said: “Don’t worry, master, Long Xuan has no other strengths, but live a long life. Long Xuan will wait slowly. The master ascended, waiting to see what happens to the Zhao family.”

“Go!” To Long Xuan, Yang Chen didn’t tell him to keep a low profile when he first went up. In the mortal world, Long Xuan was already a fourth grade Earth Immortal. In the realm of high-quality goods, even after ascension, he is also a master, so he doesn’t have to be afraid of being bullied by some short-sighted guy.

Long Xuan’s big head tapped three times at Yang Chen, and then a dazzling light flashed, Long Xuan’s body flew into the air quickly, and finally disappeared.

On the sea tens of thousands of miles away, there were several groups of people staring in this direction dumbfounded, not knowing what happened here.

Chapter 682: : Arrival

For a master of the fourth grade Earth Immortal realm to pass the tribulation, this kind of movement will cause an absolute shock within tens of thousands of miles. As long as you are a cultivator, it is impossible not to notice it.

When Yang Chen was slowly communicating with Long Xuan through alchemy, he consciously asked Long Xuan to move secretly to the original location when they entered Zhao's house. Of course, it won't be the same, as long as the distance is within a hundred thousand miles, it is not too far away.

Long Xuan also tacitly moved slowly in that direction, anyway, the Zhao family's manor was cruising around the seabed, who would care that Long Xuan was slowly approaching that direction? Besides, within a hundred thousand miles, who would suspect that Long Xuan was planning to play tricks?

Those groups of people who noticed the big commotion here were of course the reinforcements from the three major sects. The seven women were also important people in their sects, and they all sent out the highest-level warnings. After receiving the news, the three major sects did not dare to delay, and immediately dispatched capable people to act, and even a few supreme elders secretly hid in it.

You know, even if life and death are at stake, such a message will not be sent out, there are other ways to ask for help. It is definitely something big that can make the women issue such a level of warning. The three major sects were all serious like never before, and quickly sent people to respond.

That's not to mention, the seven women have Yang Chen by their side, since the warning signal was issued, Yang Chen must also be involved. If they arrived earlier, they might be able to make this fifth-rank alchemist owe them a big favor. In the mortal world, the favor of a fifth-rank alchemist is enough to make people soar in the sky. You don't need to look at other examples, just look at Mu Mingyuan.

After rushing to the location at lightning speed, the people of the three major sects found that the place was empty and there was no shadow left. Fortunately, the women's life source tablets were still there and had not been broken, which means that their lives were safe. The person disappeared, it should have fallen into the enemy's hands. After the meeting of the three major sects. As soon as they communicated with each other, everyone's intentions were similar, so they immediately divided into several directions and began to search frantically.

The movement of the great master crossing the tribulation directly alarmed everyone, and everyone rushed in that direction without even thinking about it. The three groups of people were thousands of miles away, so there is no need to worry about bumping into each other.

Long Xuan reached the sixth grade earth Immortal realm after the tribulation. His spiritual awareness directly covered tens of thousands of miles of sea area, and immediately found those masters who rushed over. According to Yang Chen's instructions, he easily sent Bei Shuangyu and Zhao Cuiyue to the team of the Greatest Heaven Sect.

Of course, Long Xuan didn't send people over there in such a reckless manner, but put Zhao Cuiyue and Bei Shuangyu under a spiritual awareness restraint, and then pretended to be thrown there and sent them there.

Among the team of the Greatest Heaven Sect who were advancing at high speed. A figure suddenly came out of the crowd, and then stopped the two rapidly approaching figures from a distance. The two women were in a coma, and were easily picked up by the figure, and then brought back.

"Bei Shuangyu, the traitorous elder of the Green Jade Immortal Island!" The reinforcements sent by the Greatest Heaven Sect were all Dacheng stage masters, and someone immediately recognized Bei Shuangyu's identity. Although Zhao Cuiyue changed her appearance, she disappeared with Bei Shuangyu, which is easily reminiscent of her original identity as Elder Liu Zifang.

Both women were in a coma, and the expert who caught them was clearly a Supreme Elder from the Greatest Heaven Sect. Just by investigating, they discovered their condition.

"They were sealed by experts." The elder immediately said to the leading Elder of the Greatest Heaven Sect this time.

The team leader is also a Dacheng stage master, but at the moment his face was full of joy. A core elder of the Green Jade Immortal Island fell into their hands. It is said that even their life source tablet was lost and could not be traced.

“Elder, take them back to the sect secretly, don’t let anyone know.” The leader elder knows the priority of the matter, compared with Yang Chen alone. The secret of the Greatest Heaven Sect was even more important. Immediately made a decision “we will continue to save Elder Tao.”

The crowd divided into two directions, and the elder hurried back to the Greatest Heaven Sect with the two girls alone. The others continued to go in the direction where the big movement happened. This time they came out purely to save people, but now they have this extra harvest, which made the people of the Greatest Heaven Sect overjoyed.

“Forget about this, don’t let Elder Tao know.” After the Elder left, Elder Zhang Lai, the leader of the team, told the others. They are all elder-level masters, everyone understands the importance of the matter, and they all nodded.

A few days later, the reinforcements from the three major sects finally arrived at the place where Yang Chen and the women were. They were greatly relieved to see that the women were retreating and comprehending. Then, someone asked about the whereabouts of Yang Chen and the women during this time.

Yang Chen didn’t hide anything, except for the part about the Demon Continent, everything else was completely revealed. Of course, Long Xuan’s bloodline and the specific details of breaking the formation will never be revealed, but only a detailed description of the Zhao family’s situation.

When Yang Chen announced the cultivation secrets of the fifth-grade alchemist last time, all the major sects were very curious about this Zhao family who suddenly appeared. It has never been heard that the Zhao family produced any outstanding figures, but they were able to easily pay the price Yang Chen wanted, so their hidden strength was already comparable to that of other sects. But the strange thing is that no one can tell the origin of the Zhao family.

Afterwards, the major sects did not know how much effort wasted trying to find clues about the Zhao family, but all failed, as if the Zhao family had fallen from the sky. The investigators could only find out that the Zhao family had gone out to sea, but they didn’t know exactly where.

Now the Zhao family actually wants to put Master Yang’s family under house arrest, and even brazenly wants to kill the disciples of the three major sects, is it tolerable or unbearable? If it weren’t for the fact that the entire Zhao family has disappeared, these masters who came here would not mind letting the Zhao family disappear from the sea.

However, everyone was interested in the terrifying black tortoise, and similarly, they are even more interested in the method of controlling the black tortoise. What kind of clever technique can control such a master? There is also the Demon Sealing Formation, which can block the tribulation, Cultivating casually in the Demon Sealing Formation, which is many times better than the elders of the major sects who are cautiously afraid of exposing their power and causing the tribulation to come.

It's a pity that the Zhao family manor also disappeared with the tribulation. It would be great if it could be preserved. He believes that the major sects will do whatever it takes in exchange for the secret of the demon sealing formation and controlling the mysterious tortoise.

Chapter 683: : Disciple Can Help

Before the seven women woke up, Yang Chen did not leak the news that the Zhao Family Manor was in his hands. Although the three major sects are not of the same mind, each restraining each other, who knows if these guys will suddenly attack and snatch it from his own hands?

Yang Chen was not afraid of them turning their backs, but this will hinder Yang Chen's plan to seek revenge on the Greatest Heaven Sect. Everything still needs to be communicated with the masters of their sect after the seven women wake up.

Of course, Yang Chen didn't dare to be sure, there would definitely be information about the Demon Sealing Formation in the manor, all of this would need to be sorted out by Yang Chen before he could make a decision.

The Zhao family manor has been wiped out, and he believe that the remaining Zhao family masters who have experienced in the Demon Continent have no foundation and cannot cause too much trouble. Either they are ascending in the Demon Continent, or they are going to the dao sects to seek revenge. In short, the number of people is not many and it will not cause much harm.

He believed that what Li Cheng asked Yang Chen to do was to eradicate the Zhao family. Now that it has been completed, Yang Chen has no interest in staying here, so he simply took the seven women into the shuttle, not delaying their closed-door comprehension, and returned to the dao sect domain together with the masters of the three major sects.

This overseas trip can be said to be a rewarding experience. The biggest harvest is the merit method, there is nothing more suitable for Yang Chen than this in heaven and earth. Each of the seven concubines received a monster at the peak Dacheng stage, and Gao Yue also received the monster emperor's qi, the demon emperor's qi and the Immortal emperor's qi from Li Cheng, which will definitely be of great benefit to her future cultivation.

There are many material benefits, the entire Zhao Family Manor includes the resources and cultivation inheritance that the Zhao family has searched for hundreds of thousands of years, plus the precious materials that Long Xuan has collected on the seabed for hundreds of thousands of years, all of which are hidden in the manor. Among them, waiting for Yang Chen and the girls to choose one by one.

In addition to the material benefits, Yang Chen also got a servant in name, carrying his own merits and virtues, lurking quietly in an unknown corner of the spiritual world, waiting to kill the Zhao family in the spiritual world with one blow.

In addition, Bei Shuangyu and Zhao Cuiyue were sent to the Greatest Heaven Sect. Yang Chen didn't see the two women in the Greatest Heaven Sect's team, so he can be sure that they must have been secretly sent away. This will be of great use to Yang Chen's next plan.

If you count the experience watching Long Xuan cross the tribulation and the tribulation aura collected, it can be said that Yang Chen's family was not empty-handed, and the benefits are simply countless.

For the three major sects to send people to help, Yang Chen was very grateful, and the masters who came here he gave each of them a Six Desire Pill as a thank you gift. This is a big deal, all the people who got Yang Chen's pill couldn't hide their excitement, even the Supreme Elders were no exception.

With this Six Desire Pill, it means that they have a little more confidence in surviving their tribulation in the future, which is a life-saving grace. The hard work of searching around at sea these days, there are no more complaints, but everyone is glad that they made this trip. If not, how could it be possible to obtain the Six Desire Pill refined by Grandmaster Yang himself?

The return journey was smooth and full of joy and harmony. Everyone was happy, and in such a huge team, except for Yang Chen, all of them were Dacheng stage masters, and there were no sea beasts without eyes that dared to provoke them so everyone just cultivated on their way.

After about six months on the way back, the seven women woke up from the retreat one after another, which caused another commotion. The seven girls exchanged thanks with the masters of their respective sects respectively, and the team atmosphere was very harmonious. Right now, the relationship between Yang Chen and the three major sects is still in the honeymoon period, good for everyone.

The moment the seven girls woke up, Yang Chen told them to wait until they returned to the sect to discuss the matter of the manor. As for other knowledge, feel free. The seven women also knew well that at this time, they must be talking to their husband first, and they always communicated with sect masters like this. Naturally, everything that happened in Zhao's Manor was relayed again from the women, and the masters of the three major sects knew more.

They got back to the dao sect's domain smoothly. Then everyone returned to their sect. After the seven women bid farewell to Yang Chen, they followed their elders to rush back to their sects, they had to immediately discuss with the seniors of their sects about the Zhao Family Manor. Yang Chen rushed back to the Pure Yang Palace alone. First, look carefully to see what good things are in the Zhao family manor, and then wait for the reactions of the major sects.

Compared with the Zhao Family, who was wiped out in just one hour, the existence of the Zhao Family Manor directly caused an uproar in several major sects.

The mysterious tortoise at the level of an earth Immortal, and the demon sealing formation, these two things are enough to make all sects red-eyed. As soon as they heard that the Zhao Family Manor was in Yang Chen's hands, it was likely that there were records in it, the senior officials of the three major sects couldn't sit still anymore, and immediately began to discuss countermeasures. Of course, secretly spraying Yang Chen's blood on his head is indispensable. For such a big matter, it's fortunate that he didn't show the slightest word of mouth along the way. Now if he wants to, they can only exchange it from him at a high price.

The core elders of the Greatest Heaven Sect have more things to discuss than the Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect. Finding Bei Shuangyu and Zhao Cuiyue at sea was also a major event. Only the core elders have the right to know the whereabouts of these two people. As for how to deal with them, it was a secret among secrets.

Among the core elders of the Greatest Heaven Sect who participated in the discussion, there was a young man, and it was Li Liheng, the young sect master who had been performing well recently. The cross-boundary spiritual awareness cultivation method made contact with Senior Liufengzi, making Li Liheng the star of hope in the eyes of everyone, and gradually opened up some core secrets of the sect to him.

Bei Shuangyu and Zhao Cuiyue consciousness was sealed and they remained in a coma. Several Supreme Elders have already checked it, but there is no way to undo the seal of the spiritual awareness. In this case, many things cannot be learned from them. What everyone is discussing now is how to find ways to undo this spiritual awareness seal.

Looking at the two women in a coma, Li Liheng's mind suddenly flashed some content in the Demon Heart Sutra. Under Yang Xi's instigation, he has already started to cultivate the Demon Heart Sutra secretly, and even Yang Xi has quietly found a few female rogue cultivators at the Jiedan stage to serve as cauldrons for him to cultivate. The two women in front of him, one at the peak Dacheng stage and one at the early Dacheng stage, if they can be used as a cauldron, he believes the effect of the cultivation will be much better.

"If it's just to unblock the spiritual awareness, perhaps the disciple has a way." Li Liheng suppressed his impatience, and tried to speak in the most calm tone "However, it may have a certain impact on their cultivation."

"Oh? What way?" Sect master Li asked immediately with a happy expression on his face.

"It's a small technique in the cross-boundary spiritual awareness cultivation method." Li Liheng lied without changing his face and heartbeat "This disciple can directly communicate with her consciousness and bypass the seal of this spiritual awareness "

Chapter 684: : Precious Materials

If Li Liheng talked about the Demon Heart Sutra, he would definitely be suspected by a group of core elders, but if he said cross-border spiritual awareness cultivation method, then there would be no problem. Of the legendary cultivation method passed down by the elders of the sect, only Li Liheng has achieved success in cultivation, and others don't know what's inside.

The cross-boundary spiritual awareness cultivation method can penetrate even the barriers of the mortal world and the spiritual world, so it must not be too difficult to skip a small spiritual awareness seal and directly communicate with Bei Shuangyu and Zhao Cuiyue. Hearing what Li Liheng said, everyone immediately cheered up.

If they can communicate with Bei Shuangyu and Liu Zixuan, they believe they can also understand the situation in front of them, and defecting to the Greatest Heaven Sect is simply the only choice. In this way, many secrets of the Green Jade Immortal Island can be obtained. Everyone talks about being a Dao sect, but in the final analysis, it is a relationship of cooperation and competition. The more you know about the opponent's cards, the more confidence you will be.

“Li Liheng, take them back, be careful not to leak the news, and try to dig out as much as possible about the Green Jade Immortal Island from them.” Sect master Li and several core elders looked at each other, and they all saw the joy in each other's eyes, they immediately arranged for Li Liheng to handle the matter.

Li Liheng agreed, but his heart was already full of laughter. As long as they fall into his hands, the two irresistible masters will not have any secrets at all in front of the means of the Demon Heart Sutra. Li Liheng knew that the sect only wanted the secret of the Green Jade Immortal Island, not Bei Shuangyu and Zhao Cuiyue, as long as they gave the sect what they wanted, the sect would not ask anything else. Even if the situation of the two women is found to be different, Li Liheng can still use the cross-boundary spiritual awareness cultivation method to cover it up. Anyway, no one except him knows the secrets of the cultivation method, right?

The various sects here began to discuss with each other after the seven women brought back the news, but Yang Chen leisurely approached his master Gao Yue.

Gao Yue has been in seclusion in the Pure Yang Palace for several years, she has already left the seclusion and was busy working for the sect. Because the scale of the Pure Yang Palace was getting bigger now, the original few elders are no longer enough. Gao Yue successfully entered the middle Yuanying stage, plus she was a “native-born” disciple of the Pure Yang Palace, so she also became one of the elders. Because of Gao Yue's cultivation of water attributes, after Liang Shaoming's accident, the master of the Luminous Moon Hall has always been an agent of a disciple of the Jiedan stage. Now the sect intends to make Gao Yue the master of the Luminous Moon Hall.

It is the duty of the disciples to contribute to the sect, and Gao Yue will not refuse, and is busy with this matter now. When Yang Chen came back, he happened to see Gao Yue majestically commanding the disciples of Luminous Moon Palace to hurry.

Yang Chen's appearance naturally made Gao Yue overjoyed, especially since Yang Chen didn't have the seven women by his side, which made Gao Yue even happier. Gongsun Ling has not yet left the retreat, and Sun Qingxue, Shi Shanshan are in their sect, which means that Gao Yue can “dominate” Yang Chen alone for a long time. Of course, Gao Yue was also very happy that Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters know what is good or bad.

Back in the Pure Yang Palace, Yang Chen had to meet with the palace master and all the elders. What he got from the Zhao family this time will definitely not be missing a piece of the Pure Yang Palace, so Yang Chen waited for all the elders to arrive before telling the sect about the experience of going out this time.

The mysterious Zhao family, the mysterious inheritance, the demon-sealing formation, the mysterious tortoise at the level of the earth Immortal realm, one by one, made everyone dumbfounded and couldn't believe their ears. If it wasn't for knowing that Yang Chen, a disciple, would not lie to them, someone would have criticized Yang Chen's absurdity long ago.

Since Yang Chen won't lie, it means that these things are all true. All the elders of the Pure Yang Palace only think that the big guys are a bunch of frogs in a well. Things that they didn't even think about, are actually real. As Yang Chen said, there are only unexpected things in this world, and it seems that there is nothing impossible. The world is as big as the heart.

It has to be said that just listening to the story without experience can be regarded as a small experience. At least the elders of the sect have a much wider vision, and what they see is different from the past, which is of great benefit to the development of the sect.

When they heard that the Zhao family had put Yang Chen and the seven women under house arrest and made them subordinate families, Wang Yong was already furious. If it wasn't for the fact that it was not easy to get angry in front of the palace master, Master Wang Yong would have been shouting too much out loud.

What happened later was even more ups and downs. Yang Chen actually communicated with the mysterious turtle, and broke through the demon sealing formation, triggering a tribulation and ruining the Zhao family completely. Hearing this, all the elders were hooked. The Zhao family deserved their crimes for destroying their family. The genius disciple of the Pure Yang Palace, the fifth grade alchemist, and the young palace master Yang Chen was also within their reach?

The most surprising thing was to hear that the Zhao Family Manor had been completely preserved, and even the inheritance materials that the Zhao Family masters had not had time to take away were also left behind, they all jumped up.

What do these things mean, don't they, as a high-level sect, still not know? The reason why the Pure Yang Palace is a second-rate sect is that apart from not having enough previous accumulation and not many masters in the sect, the lack of deep foundation is also one of the keys. Although the inheritance of the Qingqiong Mountain Cave Mansion was obtained back then, those materials were tens of thousands of years ago, and some of them are not very applicable now. But the Zhao family has been passed down to the present, wouldn't the things that have been passed down be the best supplement to the sect?

"Is all this true?" The palace master stood up excitedly, staring at Yang Chen and asked.

"Everything is in the hands of this disciple." Yang Chen knew what the palace master asked, and quickly replied: "Some things, the methods of the Zhao family have fallen into the devil's way, this disciple will sort out the things that the sect can use, this disciple will stay in the sect."

All the elders were excited for a while, after this, the Pure Yang Palace will have another leap forward in development. Now the Pure Yang Palace is definitely a first-class sect. Although there is still a lot of gap between the five super sects, compared with other first-class sects, it is not far behind, and even surpassed.

"The matter of the demon sealing formation is very important. It is estimated that several major sects will come to the sect to discuss cooperation soon." Yang Chen said to the elders with a smile: "The palace master and the elders should sharpen their knives, this is a gift. If you don't slaughter the fat sheep that come to your door, you won't slaughter them."

Yang Chen's words caused the elders of the sect to burst into laughter. All these years, because of Yang Chen alone, the sect didn't know how much they knocked on the five major sects. It seems that everyone has gotten used to knocking. No, right now there will be a brand new big bamboo stick stretched out, waiting for everyone to knock it bang bang.

Chapter 685: : Future Plans

If only the three major sects bid, it is bound to fail to maximize the benefits. For the sake of Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue, Yang Chen must inform the Green Jade Immortal Island and the Blue Cloud Sect no matter what. Of course, the Pill Cauldron Sect is also a big customer, and they are the ones who can afford the price the most, so they must be notified.

Speaking of the Demon Sealing Formation, it is almost impossible for the mortal world to find a mountain-protecting beast with the cultivation level of the tortoise. However, even without the mysterious tortoise, the simple demon-sealing formation alone is something that all sects dream of.

The five major sects all have grand elders, and now the grand elders of the major sects are all in a state of semi-hibernation, and dare not cultivate easily, even if they are suppressed by sect formations, they are afraid of accidentally triggering a tribulation. In the Demon Sealing Formation, you don't have to worry about this trouble at all, you can continue to cultivate, even if it's just for these supreme elders, the five major sects will definitely fight for it.

In fact, the effect of the demon sealing formation is far more than that. Not to mention protecting the mountain gate, another important function is that some cultivators who have reached the peak Jiedan stage, the peak Yuanying stage, the peak Dacheng stage, who have reached the cultivation base but lack confidence, can continue to cultivate in the demon sealing formation until they have a complete grasp of it, before they will trigger a tribulation.

This point may mean nothing to the Dao Sect, but to the Demon Sect, it is simply a life-saving magic weapon. Most of the magic skills are instant, and the bottleneck is mainly in the state of mind. Many cultivators of the demon sect failed because they lacked the state of mind when they were going through the tribulation. But if they can have a super strong cultivation base, like Mu Mingyuan, it doesn't matter if they don't have a state of mind, they can still ascend.

With the protection of the demon-sealing formation, those masters of the demon sect don't need to find ways to lower their cultivation before they are about to ascend. As long as they stay in the demon-sealing formation, they can continue to cultivate when they obtain the demon sealing formation.

On the way back, Yang Chen actually found the map of the Demon Sealing Formation in the Zhao Family Manor. After researching for a while, Yang Chen couldn't help admiring the ancestors of the Zhao family. They were able to come up with such a way to deceive the heavenly tribulations, which is amazing. It's a pity that in his previous life until ten thousand years later, they kept their secrets and kept them secret. Yang Chen had never heard of the term demon sealing formation.

If such a big resources is in the hands of the Pure Yang Palace alone, it will be the target of public criticism. In this regard, Yang Chen and the Pure Yang Palace have plans to sell them with tears, as long as interested sects bring valuable things, you can take the formation map. Of course, whether it is the buyer or the seller who shed tears is another matter.

Good things are not afraid of too many buyers, so the palace master sent someone to spread the news with understanding. The big customers who bought the secrets of the fifth-grade alchemist last time must be notified in the first round, and other potential customers must also be informed.

Not to mention teaching the Palace Master how to operate this matter, after Yang Chen and Gao Yue returned to Gao Yue's boudoir, Gao Yue couldn't wait to throw herself into Yang Chen's arms. After releasing the Dragon Palace, Yang Chen embraced his beloved wife, intending to give her another surprise.

They were married, let's not talk about other things, after the two of them had an intense lingering first, Gao Yue lay softly beside Yang Chen with her tender body, resting her head on Yang Chen's arm, and started talking intimately.

Gao Yue knew the real purpose of Yang Chen's going out, and it was hard to ask because there were too many people just now, but now there are only the two of them, so of course she had to ask clearly.

"Brother Li Cheng has found a way. I already know the method of refining the ninth water flying sword. It only takes a certain amount of time to solve it." Yang Chen first told Gao Yue the news, and after she was happy for a while, Yang Chen embraced it. Looking at Gao Yue with a beaming smile, he said, "Brother also gave you some gifts, let me bring them back for you."

"What is it?" Gao Yue naturally knew how powerful Li Cheng was, and even Yang Chen had such an expression, it must be something extraordinary, so she immediately looked forward to it and asked eagerly.

"Aura of the Emperors!" Yang Chen took out the three jade bottles containing the Qi of the Demon Emperor, the Qi of the Monster Emperor and the Qi of the Immortal Emperor, and put them in front of Gao Yue like offering treasures: "In addition to the aura of the human emperor on your body, the unity of the four emperors, will be the spirit of the emperor in the future, no matter any opponent, they will knock down a big realm in front of you."

Hearing such a good thing, Gao Yue couldn't believe it for a while. Where are these three royal auras that shouldn't exist in the mortal world? If it weren't for the three jade bottles in front of her eyes, and Yang Chen would never lie to her, Gao Yue would have wondered if she was dreaming.

After being pleasantly surprised, Gao Yue began to worry again, how should she absorb and refine these three royal auras? However, Yang Chen couldn't be troubled by this question, he already had a secret case.

"How did you absorb the human emperor's aura back then? Aren't these three types the same?" Yang Chen smiled and gave the answer: "However, the demon emperor, monster emperor and immortal emperor are all stronger than the human emperor, so it will take just a little longer."

"Do you want me to lie in the tomb for another few decades?" Gao Yue frowned, seeming a bit reluctant: "Is there no other way?"

Yang Chen knew that Gao Yue just didn't want to lie in the tomb, she also didn't want to reject the qi of the three Emperors. Yang Chen had already made arrangements for this, he hugged Gao Yue's arm tightly, and comforted softly: "This time, you don't need to lie in the tomb, I will set up a formation in the Dragon Palace, you just need to lie in it with peace of mind. "

It's fine in the Dragon Palace, Gao Yue felt a little happier, but Gao Yue was still a little unhappy: "Then I won't see you for decades."

"If you let me sleep for decades without doing anything to increase my cultivation base, I am willing too!" Yang Chen teased, and then said seriously: "Don't worry, I will always be by your side."

A smile appeared on Gao Yue's face, but she was actually happier in her heart. As Yang Chen said, as long as he sleeps for decades, his cultivation base will skyrocket, and anyone will be happy to change it. Yang Chen was even afraid that she would suffer in her cultivation, so he painstakingly arranged these things, how could Gao Yue not understand the affection contained in it? If a husband is like this, what more can a wife ask for?

"For the next hundred years, I will continue to cultivate in the sect. Refining my last two flying swords, improving my cultivation, and protecting you." Yang Chen held Gao Yue's little hand, and slowly talked about his future for the next hundred years "After you leave the customs, our family will go to Langya Well to learn more."

Gao Yue didn't say anything, just nodded slightly and asked subconsciously: "And then?"

“Then?” Yang Chen paused for a while, without hiding anything from Gao Yue, and continued, “When we come out of Langya Well, I believe we will all be in the Dacheng stage. At that time, I will find some people to settle some years old accounts, and then we will cultivate peacefully together and ascend through the tribulation. After the ascension, it is the real cultivation of fighting and cultivating.”

Chapter 686: : Precious Materials

Yang Chen, who was enjoying the peaceful world of two with Gao Yue, suddenly felt a tremor in the merit ring. As soon as the heart moved, his spiritual awareness immediately penetrated into it, and instantly found the source of the trembling.

The bottle medicine garden has been growing continuously under Yang Chen’s series of sacrificial refinings. The medicine garden was different from Yang Chen’s other magic weapons. From the beginning when he got the bottle medicine garden, the medicine garden was a high-level magic weapon. Unlike the profound spirit furnace and Immortal beheading blade, it was only after Yang Chen’s step-by-step cultivation and sacrificial refinings that it was able to upgrade from a low-grade to a middle-grade magic weapon all the way.

Enriched some medicinal materials of hundreds of thousands of years, added Yang Chen Heavenly Spirit Treasure Refining Secret Art, Earth Fiend Sacrificial Formation Secret Art and Universe Treasure Raising Secret Art sacrificial refining, absorbed and fused several other medicine garden spaces, now in the bottle medicine garden there was already triple space. The first level contains the thousand-year-old medicinal materials, the second level contains the 10,000-year-old medicinal materials and the third level contains the hundred-thousand-year-old medicinal materials.

This time, the tremor in the bottle medicine garden was related to the tool spirit A’Zhu. In the years since he got the peach tree, A’Zhu has been busy, trying to fuse and devour the peach tree with her own body. A’Zhu body is also a peach tree, although it can be regarded as a different species, it is completely comparable with the Immortal peach tree that Yang Chen got. The Immortal peach tree grown from the Immortal peach in the hands of the old man was a treasure even in the Immortal world. Even if the years of growth in the human world are not enough, it was enough to bring great benefits to A’Zhu.

The shock of the merit ring just now was related to the fact that A’Zhu completely absorbed and fused the Immortal peach tree, and her realm was greatly improved. The two tool spirits were all promoted, and Yang Chen’s cultivation of the bottle medicine garden has finally brought about a qualitative change. The level of the magic weapon has been raised again, and it has directly become the top magic weapon in the world. Even the current Immortal beheading blade and profound spirit furnace are a level lower than the medicine garden.

Now the two weapon spirits, A'Zhu and A'bi, are no less than human Immortal realm masters in terms of pure realm. It's a pity that their bodies have been completely imprisoned within the bottle medicine garden, and they have become weapon spirits, so they can't ascend. They can only wait for Yang Chen to ascend and take them into the spiritual world and Immortal world one day.

Just the moment when the magic weapon of the bottle medicine garden was upgraded by absorbing and fusing the Immortal peach, the medicinal materials in all the medicine garden spaces were directly increased by hundreds of years out of thin air. Those Penglai devine woods who have been cultivating in the space of the medicine garden and have spiritual wisdom have also obtained great benefits because of this.

Originally, they had been cultivating in the medicine garden for hundreds of years, and these Penglai devine woods had already reached the level of the peak Jiedan stage, but now because of the change in the space of the medicine garden, it directly triggered their breakthrough.

Without further ado, Yang Chen released all the Penglai devine wood monsters, and the tribulation clouds in the sky began to gather rapidly. This movement immediately attracted the attention of the elders of the Pure Yang Palace. After discovering that it was caused by Gao Yue, they immediately began to make arrangements.

The twenty-four Penglai devine wood monsters were of almost the same level of cultivation, and they survived the tribulation at the same time, the thunder tribulation caused was extremely exaggerated, even half the power of the thunder tribulation when Yang Chen went through the tribulation back then. However, for the Penglai devine wood monsters, who only cultivated the twelve zodiac crowd guarding great formation in addition to their own cultivation, joining forces and crossing the tribulation was simply an instinct in life.

The jaw-dropping and terrifying thunder tribulation came crazily. The Penglai devine wood monsters were divided into two groups, forming two Twelve Zodiac Crowd Guarding Great Formation, which easily resisted the thunder tribulation.

They are natural devine trees, and they have been incanted in front of the earth temple for many years. The strength of these Penglai devine wood monsters is beyond everyone's expectations. In Yang Chen's eyes, a thunder tribulation that was stronger than the other was all about tempering their bodies.

At this time, the Jiedan stage disciples in the Pure Yang Palace had a good opportunity, this kind of ceremony watching scene was a rare reference experience for their future cultivation.

The promotion of the Penglai divine wood monsters was another small surprise. With them, Yang Chen became more confident that Gao Yue could absorb the qi of the three Emperors. However, now is not the time to immediately arrange for Gao Yue to absorb the Qi of the three Emperors, he has to deal with the diagram of the demon sealing formation first.

While waiting for the buyer to come to the door, Yang Chen and Gao Yue began to sort out the things left in the Zhao Family Manor. In this regard, Gao Yue, the legitimate hostess, seemed very competent. In her words, there are so many good things about her husband that even he doesn't know how much money he has, so Gao Yue has to count it slowly.

The things in the Zhao Family Manor are not just the map of the Demon Sealing Formation. Among them, most of the cultivation methods are of great reference value. These need to be identified by Yang Chen one by one before being enriched in the Sutra Pavilion of the Pure Yang Palace. It's a pity that these cultivation methods are of little use to Yang Chen and Gao Yue who have already cultivated the true essence cultivation methods, only some cultivation experience can be used for reference.

Some of the things that Long Xuan left to Yang Chen surprised Yang Chen. Among other things, at least some of the undersea medicinal materials that have been grown for tens of thousands of years and hundreds of thousands of years, Yang Chen transplanted them into his bottle medicine garden immediately after discovering them.

It has to be admitted that in the vast ocean, there are countless treasures of heaven and earth, much more than on land. The inaccessible seabed, for Long Xuan, is his home, where he can find good things anytime and anywhere. In the long life of hundreds of thousands of years, things that are not at the level of treasures cannot enter the eyes of Long Xuan at all.

Although the Zhao family controlled Long Xuan through the formation technique and made him contribute a lot, the real precious materials Long Xuan kept for himself. It's a pity that these treasures of heaven, material and earth have been maintained in their most primitive state, and Long Xuan has no chance to further refine these things, so he can only simply preserve them. It was not known where he usually hides these things so that the Zhao family won't find out.

In the beginning, every time Gao Yue found a good thing, Gao Yue would be pleasantly surprised for a long time, but in the end, there were almost endless precious materials that made her not surprised at all, except that Long Xuan lived long enough and found enough precious materials, besides that there is no other feeling. Just like being in the Dragon Palace, who would care if a floor tile is the top quality jade?

As for Yang Chen himself, he took the pieces of jade slips and slowly sorted them out, watching Gao Yue fly like a hardworking bee among all kinds of treasure piles, with an indescribable happiness on her face.

Soon, Yang Chen discovered that the things left by Long Xuan, together with some treasures of the Zhao family, could actually make up a complete set of materials needed for the Demon Sealing Formation. This is another great thing for the Pure Yang Palace.

Chapter 687: : Let's Try It Again

After discovering this, Yang Chen interrupted Gongsun Ling from the retreat without saying a word. Gongsun Ling's retreat this time was mainly to be familiar with the masters in the mountain river geographical map and to cooperate with the masters themselves, so she was not afraid of being interrupted.

Seeing Yang Chen, Gongsun Ling was naturally lingering. Afterwards, she learned about Yang Chen's trip this time from Yang Chen's mouth, and naturally, the formation diagram of the demon sealing formation came into Gongsun Ling's hands.

Gongsun Ling is an array cultivator, and has an incomparable spirituality in array techniques. Take Yang Chen as an example, if he didn't have the memory of the formations in the spiritual world and the Immortal world in his mind, he would not be a match for his wife in terms of the way of formations.

The formation map is there, the materials are sufficient, Yang Chen has enough spiritual stones, and the spiritual power of the Pure Yang Palace earth vein is enough to support it, everything is ready. Not only that, beside Yang Chen there is Gongsun Ling, a master of formations, and Gao Yue, a master of crafting. Gao Yue can help Gongsun Ling refine anything that Gongsun Ling needs at any time. If the array comes out, then it will meet so many conditions.

The sect did not disappoint Yang Chen in the previous life, and it is the same in this life. Although Liang Shaoming, Chu Heng and others suppressed him at the beginning, but later the sect's senior elders not only realized the mistake, but also directly trained Yang Chen as the Young Palace Master. As the successor of the sect, how could he not devote himself to building the sect?

The Elders of the Pure Yang Palace were happy to see the success, and they ordered the whole sect to cooperate. They wanted people to send people, and things to give. They directly regarded the construction of the Demon Sealing Formation as a top priority. Such a powerful mountain protecting formation can make the Pure Yang Palace even more impenetrable.

The news spread quickly, and the three major sects immediately knew about the movement of the Pure Yang Palace. Originally, the people from the three major sects were still discussing the authenticity of the Demon Sealing Formation, but now that the Pure Yang Palace is about to set up a model, of course everyone was temporarily quiet, waiting to see the results of the Pure Yang Palace.

If the Pure Yang Palace can only prove that the Demon Sealing Formation is vulnerable after exhausting people and resources, then naturally everyone will not have to pay any price. But if it is really feasible, the three major sects are not in a hurry, just come to the door. Anyway, to buy something from Yang Chen has never been cheap, and everyone is used to it. Now every sect has female disciples who have a close relationship with Yang Chen, so they must take advantage of it when they get the chance.

The movement of the Pure Yang Palace also attracted the attention of the Green Jade Immortal Island and Blue Cloud Sect. This time their news was behind the three major sects, but not too far behind. Under the intentional publicity of the Pure Yang Palace, the two sects also watched from the sidelines, waiting to see the final result.

Except for the five major sects, the others received the notification from the Pure Yang Palace. Almost all the sects that have the ability to spend resources here in Yang Chen are paying attention to the movement of the Pure Yang Palace. Everyone's purpose is surprisingly the same, whether it's the dao sect, the demon sect or the monster sect, they all have the same mind.

"A'Ling, is there a way to make a little modification to the formation?" After Gongsun Ling studied the formation for almost a year, she planned to start to set up the formation and Yang Chen suddenly asked a question.

"What kind of modification?" Gongsun Ling would never question Yang Chen's request, but only asked about the specific situation: "Too much modification may destroy the integrity of the formation."

"It doesn't need to be too complicated, just add a secret tracking to let you know where there is such a formation." Yang Chen said softly "At that time, it will be of great use."

Yang Chen's request was an order to Gongsun Ling. After contemplating carefully with her eyes closed for a while, Gongsun Ling replied with some uncertainty "Maybe there is a way, but we need to arrange it first to see the actual effect."

The layout of the Demon Sealing Formation has finally begun. During the year when Gongsun Ling studied the formation diagram, Gao Yue has already used the materials provided by Yang Chen to refine various accessories for the formation according to Gongsun Ling's continuous requests. Gongsun Ling made arrangements one by one.

Calculating the time, setting up the formations, and going back and forth in a hurry, it took almost another year just to set up the formations. Now all the formations are in place, just waiting for the final activation.

During these two years, there was calm in the dao sects. Even if there were any disturbances, they tacitly avoided the Pure Yang Palace. It seems that all the sects intentionally or unintentionally did not target the Pure Yang Palace, for fear of disturbing the arrangement of the demon sealing formation.

Different from the Zhao family's formation, the Pure Yang Palace can't find a similar mysterious tortoise to provide spiritual power. It can only use the spiritual veins as the source of the formation's spiritual power. In terms of power, it may be more powerful than the Zhao family's formation. According to Gongsun Ling's calculations, as long as there are no experts above the seventh grade human Immortal realm, facing the formation of the Pure Yang Palace, they can only do nothing.

The Demon Sealing Formation was finally activated, and quickly formed an invisible barrier within a radius of hundreds of miles around the main hall of the Pure Yang Palace. The original Great Mountain Protecting Formation was also controlled by the Palace Master after the Demon Sealing Formation was activated, and stopped functioning.

Next, it is natural to start crazy testing. Compared with the formation, the test is much simpler and rougher. With the existing masters of the Dacheng stage in the Pure Yang Palace as the main force, everyone frantically launched various attacks on the demon sealing formation inside and outside the formation.

For more than ten days in a row, all-round attacks had no effect on the Demon Sealing Formation at all, and a smile finally appeared on the faces of the elders in the Pure Yang Palace. For the time being, there are no masters who are about to face a tribulation, not even those at the peak Yuanying stage and Jiedan stage, who are about to survive the tribulation, so we can only do this first. Of course, even if the Pure Yang Palace proves it, it was estimated that those sects will test it themselves.

“In this way, we can release the news.” After consulting Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, the palace master finally made a decision.

When the news came out, the major sects were not polite, and immediately dispatched experts to the Pure Yang Palace, hearing is deception, seeing is believing, no matter what, it is necessary to actually test the effect of the Demon Sealing Formation. The Pure Yang Palace only tests the defensive power, but cannot check whether it will shield the heavenly tribulation. There are many people who are about to break through in the other sects, each of them brought a few.

The Pure Yang Palace has made sufficient preparations this time, and the masters who came to attack the formation casually without stopping. At the same time, those masters who were about to pass the tribulation also began to let out their aura, waiting for the moment when the tribulation came.

Naturally, the attack has no effect. Those masters who were waiting for the tribulations to come, have not waited for it. And as soon as the formation was released, the sky immediately began to gather with tribulation clouds. The facts have clearly shown that this magical formation really has the effect that Yang Chen’s family said, it was no exaggeration.

The palace master watched the group of masters come to a conclusion, without saying a word with a smile on his face, but he seemed to see the scene of Yang Chen, the big profiteer of the sect, viciously wielding the butcher’s knife and slaughtering them.

Chapter 688: : Don’t Sell To The Demon Sects

During the formation of the Demon Sealing Formation, Gongsun Ling contributed most of the time, and Yang Chen was only in charge of the logistics. Professional matters should be handled by professionals. Although Yang Chen also carefully studied the formation diagram of the demon sealing formation, he behaved very normally at this time and did not give people the feeling that he was also very evil in the formation.

With Gongsun Ling’s help, Yang Chen basically has a lot of time to deal with other things. One of them is to give the five-grade body refining pills that he refined in the Zhao family to those close to him.

From the master of the palace to the ancestor Wang Yong to the other elders who have supported Yang Chen for a long time, Gao Shiyan, Zheng Feng, Meng Xian, Xu Chengxin, Zhu Chentao, etc., Yang Chen sent all of them a body refining pill. Even the acquaintances in the bayan tree Immortal cave, the old tree demon, Hou Yun, She Kui and Xie Sha all got some.

Among the apprentices, currently only Hua Mengyou's aptitude was not strong enough, so she got one naturally. Du Qian, Shangguan Feng, Wang Yuan, Yang Chen's peers who helped a lot in the process of cultivation, also got one respectively.

If you're not close to him, you don't even need to think about these fifth grade body refining pills. Every body refining pill consumes Yang Chen's own merit, without a direct relationship with Yang Chen, why should Yang Chen use his own merit to perfect others?

The effect of the fifth grade body refining pill is not so immediate, especially now that these people have cultivated for a long time, even if the spiritual root is improved, it will take a few years to gradually show the effect. Before that, except for Yang Chen, no one knew what kind of changes this small pill would bring.

All the pills were taken in front of Yang Chen. Yang Chen didn't want to give the pill to them, and when he turned around, they would treat it as a family heirloom and pass it on to the younger generation, that would lose Yang Chen's original intention of giving the medicine.

Yang Chen didn't explain much about the efficacy of the pill, but only said that it was good for them. No one would doubt Yang Chen's words, especially when it comes to pills, no one has ever questioned it. The people who received the medicinal pill took the pill in front of Yang Chen almost without hesitation, not at all afraid that Yang Chen would harm them.

Later, when waiting for the formation of the Demon Sealing Formation, Yang Chen helped Gongsun Ling while flipping through the Zhao family cultivation methods left in the Zhao family manor. Although the personal wealth of each member of the Zhao family was wiped out with Long Xuan's tribulation, the inheritance of the Zhao family has not been lost, and all of them are in the Zhao family manor. Yang Chen's task is to organize these into different categories.

In fact, someone has been taking care of the Zhao family's Sutra Pavilion, and the contents inside are not in a mess. Yang Chen just needs to go through the catalog to confirm one by one.

After the success of the Demon Sealing Formation, the elders of the Pure Yang Palace and Yang Chen were already sharpening their knives and preparing to slaughter all the sects, but suddenly they received a suggestion from the Greatest Heaven Sect that was not officially notified.

“Don’t sell the map of the Demon Sealing Formation to the people in the Demon Sect?” Yang Chen was also taken aback when he heard the news, and asked in bewilderment when he saw the palace master who came to inform him of the news: “The Greatest Heaven Sect What does this mean? Why didn’t they say it when we sold the secrets of a fifth-grade alchemist last time?”

The Greatest Heaven Sect has its own reasons, and from the righteousness of the Dao Sect, this suggestion is also tenable. Since ancient times, dao sects and demon sects have been incompatible, so if you sell this powerful demon sealing formation diagram to someone in the demon sect, isn’t that a suspicion of being an enemy?

If it was the previous Pure Yang Palace, the Greatest Heaven Sect would not be so polite. They would have sent a group of masters to the door to destroy the Pure Yang Palace. Heretics, everyone punishes them quickly.

However, now the Pure Yang Palace is not a soft persimmon to be slaughtered by others. Even if it is the Greatest Heaven Sect, if they want to deal with the Pure Yang Palace, even if they don’t look at the strength of the Pure Yang Palace itself, they still have to look at the intentions of several other big sects. This is the result of Yang Chen and the sect’s hard work for so many years.

“Not everyone can succeed as a fifth-rank alchemist, especially the disciples of the Demon Sect. They pursue a shortcut to reach the sky in one step. They don’t have the indomitable perseverance of the dao sect disciples. If they want to rely on your hard cultivation of basic skills to become a fifth-rank alchemist, then It’s impossible.” The palace master explained immediately. This question, when the people from the Greatest Heaven Sect came to suggest, the palace master asked himself and now he was just relaying the reason.

As someone from the Greatest Heaven Sect said, Yang Chen’s method of becoming a fifth-rank alchemist is to work steadily step by step, which is completely opposite to the cultivation method of the Demon Sect. If someone in the Demon Sect really became a fifth-rank alchemist with that method, it can only show that he is not a real member of the Demon Sect.

Of course, the real key is that from the very beginning, many people did not believe that Yang Chen would really reveal the key to becoming the fifth-grade alchemist, so last time, the major sects did not reject people from the demon sect that much. Especially the Greatest Heaven Sect, anyway, as long as they feel that the method Yang Chen gave is unreliable, they will immediately have another reason to deal with the Pure Yang Palace, and the other big sects can't even raise any objections.

At that time, it didn't prevent people from the Demon Sect from participating, and it meant that. Anyway, if something is wrong, with the personality of members of the Demon Sect, they will definitely kill immediately, and it will save the Greatest Heaven Sect a lot of troubles. Conversely, after the Pure Yang Palace is destroyed, they can wave their arms again and shout the slogan of "Dare to Destroy our dao sect the Pure Yang Palace" to eliminate demons and defend the dao, and they can kill many in one fell swoop.

What they didn't expect was that Yang Chen really told the key to becoming a fifth-grade alchemist, and it was very reasonable. The most important thing is that every step he said can be done by someone, even if the Greatest Heaven Sect wants to find fault, they can't find it. Although they got the secret of the fifth-grade alchemist, they lost an excuse to deal with the Pure Yang Palace.

Of course, the Greatest Heaven Sect cannot repeat the same mistakes this time. How can the Greatest Heaven Sect, the leader of the dao sect, tolerate the people of the Demon Sect doing business in the dao sect domain? Even in the business of fifth-grade alchemists last time, some sects were unable to participate because their accumulation was not deep enough, and faintly expressed dissatisfaction. The core of the dissatisfaction is that dao sects and the demon sects actually does business together.

The Greatest Heaven Sect, who has always regarded itself as the leader of the dao sects, bears the brunt. Those who were dissatisfied ignored the aim at the Pure Yang Palace, for fear that one day they would cut off their chances when they sought out the Pure Yang Palace and Yang Chen, so of course they would aim at the five sects that had gained all the fame and benefits. The other four sects didn't say anything, but this time the Greatest Heaven Sect said something could make the Demon Sect not succeed.

Chapter 689: : Trading

In addition, there is one most important reason, but the people from the Greatest Heaven Sect didn't say it. But basically everyone can think of it, that is, the Demon Sealing Formation is not like a fifth-grade alchemist and can easily succeed.

Even a nouveau riche like the Pure Yang Palace can easily set up a demon-sealing formation, so those sects with deep foundations are no problem. Once the members of the Demon Sect obtain the formation map of the Demon Sealing Formation, then with the financial resources and manpower of the five sects of the demonic dao, they will definitely be able to arrange it.

The benefits of the demon sealing formation to the Demon Sect are far greater than the benefits to the dao sect. Just the heaven-defying function of shielding the heavenly tribulation is enough to raise the overall strength of the Demon Sect to a higher level. With the blessing of the demon sealing formation, those demon sect disciples who lack confidence will definitely have a straight-line increase in combat effectiveness when their cultivation base and confidence are simultaneously improved.

The most common common sense that almost all cultivators understand is that between dao and demonic cultivators with the same cultivation time, without the influence of other factors, the realm and combat effectiveness of the demonic cultivator far exceed that of the dao cultivators. Because of the quick cultivation speed of the Demon Sect, the only shortcoming is the lack of cultivation of the state of mind, which is the strength of the dao sects.

But if there is a demon sealing formation, when this only shortcoming is no longer a shortcoming, then the blow to the dao sect will be fatal. Starting from this direction, the Greatest Heaven Sect's suggestion is also reasonable.

Of course, for Yang Chen, he doesn't care about these things. It may not be obvious when you arrive in the spiritual world, but after you arrive in the Immortal world, the heavenly court is already regardless of origin, and all dao sects and demons are accepted. In the face of a powerful enemy, it is only right to unite all forces that can be united.

Theoretically, the Profound Heaven Sect has been in charge of the Heavenly Court for so many years, there should have been news brought down a long time ago, informing the Greatest Heaven Sect not to kill the Demon Sect like that, and it is enough to maintain the balance between the two sides as much as possible. It's a pity that after the Greatest Heaven Sect's guiding formation was detonated by Yang Chen, at least for hundreds of years, before the new guiding formation was set up, it was impossible for the Greatest Heaven Sect to receive any news from the upper realm.

On this point, the Green Jade Immortal Island, Blue Cloud Sect, Five Elements Sect and Pill Cauldron Sect are not so active, they are no longer so active in the battle between the dao sect and demon sect, and they even seem to be quiet. No need to ask, there must have been a message from above. Basically, those who are still active on the front line of eliminating demons and guarding the way, only the Greatest Heaven Sect is left.

In the eyes of many small dao sects, the Greatest Heaven Sect is the leader who maintains the tradition of the dao sects. Naturally, in the eyes of the demon sect, the Greatest Heaven Sect is a thorn in the flesh. Didn't they see that the other big dao sects gave them face, the Greatest Heaven Sect is deceiving too much, really think that the Profound Heaven Sect can do whatever they want if they control the heavenly court?

There is nothing wrong with eliminating demons and defending the Dao, at least many people in the Greatest Heaven Sect think so. In essence, there is nothing wrong with this, but now demon cultivators, who are just cultivators with a different way of cultivation, are no longer considered demons in the heavenly court, the real devil is someone else. Unfortunately, the current Greatest Heaven Sect is not very clear.

Thus, a representative of the Greatest Heaven Sect came to persuade the Pure Yang Palace, and the news reached Yang Chen's ears from the palace master.

"Is this the meaning of one sect of the Greatest Heaven Sect, or the meaning of the five major sects?" Yang Chen asked with a frown. If it is a collective decision made by the five major sects, then it really has to be taken seriously. Don't look at the Pure Yang Palace being proud of its strength now, but it's not enough to wrestle with the five major sects.

"The other sects have no objections, it's just the meaning of the Greatest Heaven Sect." Of course, the master of the palace knew what Yang Chen meant when he asked this question, and he answered very accurately: "Besides, the Greatest Heaven Sect also said it, it's just a suggestion, how to deal with it specifically, It still depends on what we, the Pure Yang Palace, think."

Yang Chen quickly figured out the key point, and he suddenly had a calculation in his heart.

"Since it is the meaning of the Greatest Heaven Sect, then, this disciple feels that we, the Pure Yang Palace, can't do such a deal with an enemy." Yang Chen smiled and said to the head of the palace "Although this move will make our sect suffer a huge loss, but as a member of the dao sect, it is natural to respond to the call of the Greatest Heaven Sect, whether it is the Zhao family's demon sealing formation, or the cultivation inheritance, it will only be sold to the members of the dao sect, what does the palace master think?"

The palace master has also become a fine role, otherwise it would be impossible to sit in this seat. With a slight twist in his heart, he immediately understood what Yang Chen meant.

Not selling to the Demon Sect and those neutral sects would greatly offend these sects. However, the Pure Yang Palace only acted according to the Greatest Heaven Sect's wishes, not intentionally offending all parties, otherwise they would not have sold the secret of the fifth-grade alchemist last time to all parties, presumably all parties would understand.

If you say this, it shows that the Pure Yang Palace can't provoke the Greatest Heaven Sect, so it is forced to bow its head, but in terms of the dao sect's righteousness, it is just and awe-inspiring. In response to the call of the dao sects leader, who can say no? And in the same way, the matter of offending the Demon Sect and the Neutral Sect was taken by the Greatest Heaven Sect. Who told this to be the Greatest Heaven Sect suggestion? If those sects are resentful, just go to the Greatest Heaven Sect.

Benefits for the Pure Yang Palace, and the hatred of the Greatest Heaven Sect, is there anything that would make the palace master happier than this? After Liang Shaoming's incident, the elders of the Pure Yang Palace hated the Greatest Heaven Sect deeply, and it was their wish that they could calmly give the Greatest Heaven Sect a hand in their destruction.

Soon the Pure Yang Palace sent out the news, and the response was so fast that even the representatives of the Greatest Heaven Sect were a little surprised. Basically, he came to make a suggestion in the morning, and the Pure Yang Palace announced it before noon, which was simply giving the Greatest Heaven Sect enough face. No matter how harsh a person is, they will not be able to pick out the faults of the Pure Yang Palace.

As soon as the news came out, there was a sudden uproar. Naturally, there is no need to worry about the dao sect, and some guys who don't know where they are are still applauding loudly. As for the members of the Demon Sect and those neutral sects, especially some sects that have been preparing for a long time, they just waited to buy a formation map to increase the welfare of their disciples, and suddenly became furious.

The Pure Yang Palace, no, the Greatest Heaven Sect is too bullying, right? Why can only dao sect disciples buy it? Last time, the Pure Yang Palace even sold the secrets of fifth-grade alchemists, so why not let them buy this time? As long as you taste it carefully, you can know the taste. This is obviously to suppress these sects, and at the same time prevent the Pure Yang Palace from gaining more benefits.

Everyone understands this truth, so everyone can understand the Pure Yang Palace and Yang Chen's difficulties. The sentence of responding to the Greatest Heaven Sect's call has already explained everything, the Pure Yang Palace can't provoke the Greatest Heaven Sect, this is the truth, nothing else. All the hatred came up, all pointing to the Greatest Heaven Sect.

But at this time, Yang Chen has already fallen into another tender place.

Chapter 690: : Master I Want It

The Great Elder of the Yin-Yang Demon Sect, the famous Mrs. Fanghua, curled up in Yang Chen's arms like a kitten. Her body was covered with no clothes, her delicate naked body formed an exaggerated body curve, which made people's hearts flutter at a glance.

Yang Chen's big hand roamed freely on the delicate skin that attracted countless people's attention. Every time the palm touched, it would cause an exaggerated reaction, as if Yang Chen's hand was electrified.

On Mrs. Fanghua's face, there was an expression of grievance, and she was about to burst into tears, which was indescribably lovable. Mrs. Fanghua's tone seemed to be acting like a baby to Yang Chen.

That's right, the Great Elder of the Yin-Yang Demon Sect who could decide the death of countless lives with a single word, and the most ruthless female devil in the Demon Sect in recent decades, was now acting like a spoiled child to Yang Chen. If anyone can see this scene, they can definitely smash their jaws on their feet.

"Master, why can't you sell the map of the Demon Sealing Formation to the disciples of the Demon Sect?" Mrs. Fanghua's coquettish content is of course related to the most sensational topic recently.

Yang Chen had already announced that he would sell the formation diagram of the Demon Sealing Formation two years ago, and now the Pure Yang Palace has built a Demon Sealing Formation, thoroughly proving the authenticity of the formation diagram. When she arrived with a large sum of wealth waiting to be enjoyed, she was hit head-on by the news from the Pure Yang Palace and was dizzy.

"I'm also a dao sect disciple after all, so of course I can't collude with you devils." Yang Chen said with a smile, but his big hands didn't stop at all. They kept walking on Mrs. Fanghua's delicate body, enjoying with the most wonderful elasticity of smooth skin, it was indescribably comfortable.

“Master, I don’t care about it, you have to give me the Demon Sealing Formation Map.” Mrs. Fanghua’s body twisted for a while, her charming tone and the stimulation of physical contact brought Yang Chen supreme enjoyment.

Mrs. Fanghua’s fame has spread far and wide, it was not known how many people have given her their heart and soul. If it were an ordinary person, with just a look and a little pleading, they would have already agreed in haste. However, Yang Chen seemed to have a heart of stone, just enjoying it with a smile, but never spit it out.

“Master, the Demon Sealing Formation is really important, we want it!” Of course Madam Fanghua knew that this trick of hers was useless to Yang Chen, but the joy of being able to reunite with Yang Chen and the fact that she wanted to try her best to make Yang Chen happy, she couldn’t help but make such a move. Likewise, she herself enjoyed it too.

“If I gave it to you, the Greatest Heaven Sect can destroy the Pure Yang Palace.” Yang Chen slapped Mrs. Fanghua’s buttocks lightly and softly, making a soul-stirring slap, and then caressed Mrs. Fanghua again. Being in the same position, Mrs. Fanghua couldn’t help closing her eyes and moaning.

Yang Chen never felt sorry for Mrs. Fanghua from the very beginning. She was born in the Yin-Yang Demon Sect, the largest sect with dual cultivation of Yin-Yang. In matters of men and women, even Tao Junqi, Wushuang and the five Murong sisters were not Mrs. Fanghua’s opponents alone. Madam Fanghua was also the only woman who can make Yang Chen happy by herself.

Reunited after a long absence, and still talk about what to do with those unpleasant things, of course, the first is to be gentle first. Mrs. Fanghua took out all the tricks, and paid the price of being soft into a puddle of mud, so that she also climbed to the peak of joy.

As for Mrs. Fanghua herself, she has already gone through countless peaks, and she can barely maintain Yang Chen’s mixed spiritual power by picking up yang, nourishing yin, and not fainting, she was at Yang Chen’s mercy. At this moment, Mrs. Fanghua could not say a word other than stay limply in Yang Chen’s arms enjoying the aftertaste of happiness.

Yang Chen has never been stingy with his women, two fifth grade body refining pills were delivered to Madam Fanghua’s cherry mouth, along with a large cup of purple and fluorescent four seas mysterious coral Liquid, for her to swallow the pills.

Seeing the obvious five pill lines on the pill, Madam Fanghua opened her mouth without thinking, letting Yang Chen put the pill into her mouth, and then drank the four seas mysterious coral liquid that Yang Chen fed over with satisfaction, feeling satisfied and happy. In happiness, she entered dreamland.

Among Yang Chen's women, only Mrs. Fanghua's spiritual root aptitude seems to be inferior. Yang Chen will not let her lag behind others like this. The two meritorious body refining pills may be able to raise her acquired spiritual roots to a higher level, and her future cultivation will not be too bad.

When Mrs. Fanghua was asleep, it was also the day when the Pure Yang Palace sold off the Zhao family's property at a marked price. Countless people from the dao sect gathered in the Pure Yang Palace, some were buyers, some were inquiring about news, and so on.

It is said that the price is clearly marked, but the five major sects are obviously different from other sects. Now there are female disciples from the five major sects who have a close relationship with Yang Chen, and Yang Chen doesn't take it too seriously and gave them a 20% discount on top of the specified price.

The Demon Sealing Formation Diagram, this is a precious material that can be compared with the secret of a fifth-grade alchemist. The difference is that this can be built as long as there are materials. The Pure Yang Palace is a clear proof of the array that can completely see the effect within a few years.

A map of the demon sealing formation would cost ten kinds of seventh-grade fire seeds, or a thousand catties of top-grade spirit stones that are equivalent in value. It was not known how many years it took the Zhao family to collect cultivation method suitable for dao sect disciples to cultivate, and the package price was 500 catties of top-quality spirit stones. The quantity and quality of the cultivation methods suitable for the disciples of the demon sect are similar to those of the disciples of the dao sect, and the package price is also five hundred catties of top-quality spirit stones.

The spirit controlling formation diagram for controlling super powerful spirit beasts, the formation method used by the Zhao family to control the black tortoise, had the same price as the demon sealing formation method, ten kinds of seventh-grade fire seeds. But relatively speaking, the demand for this formation was much smaller. After all, mortal spirit beasts beyond the level of human Immortals can be said to be rare. It is no such thing as a demon sealing formation, as long as you get the formation map and materials, you can see immediate results.

In addition, some less important alchemy formation methods were also summarized by Yang Chen and sold separately, with a package price of 500 catties of top-quality spirit stones.

The above are the wholesale prices for bulk transactions. In addition, the Pure Yang Palace also provides individual retail services for certain kinds of cultivation methods, pill recipes and formations. As long as you are a fellow dao sect cultivator, as long as you have spirit stones, you can buy them at different prices. Anyway, it's just something the Zhao family has collected, not the inheritance of the Pure Yang Palace sect, so Yang Chen doesn't have any psychological pressure to keep them.

Of course, the good things must be collected by the Pure Yang Palace, but even so, the Pure Yang Palace's move won a lot of applause. Especially for those rogue cultivators, they have never thought about it since they started cultivating, they can simply buy advanced cultivation techniques with only spirit stones.
