Chapter 691: : If Direct Buying Doesn't Work, Get An Agent

For the Pure Yang Palace's move, the Greatest Heaven Sect was caught off guard. They thought that the Pure Yang Palace would treasure the things they got from the Zhao family and use them as sect inheritance. After all, the Pure Yang Palace is just a small sect, but they didn't expect the Pure Yang Palace to be so generous that they could sell all of them.

No one would mention the various resources and materials that Yang Chen obtained from the Zhao family. Those were Yang Chen's spoils of war, things he won. If it weren't for the great importance of the demon sealing formation, even Yang Chen could keep this formation a secret. From a moral point of view, if Yang Chen did just that, there was no problem at all. Now that these things are used to benefit the public, that is Yang Chen's generosity and everyone has to appreciate it.

In this way, the Pure Yang Palace can almost be said to have received the support of almost all dao sects. If others want to find fault with this to suppress the Pure Yang Palace, they have to see whether those who support the Pure Yang Palace are willing or not.

According to the original intention of the Greatest Heaven Sect, these precious materials of the Zhao family should have been monopolized by a few big sects and the Pure Yang Palace, but the Pure Yang Palace did not play cards according to common sense.

The Greatest Heaven Sect said that it is not allowed to sell to the demon sect, the Pure Yang Palace immediately agreed, and announced that it would only be sold to dao sect disciples. With such happy support, it was unreasonable for the Greatest Heaven Sect to want to find fault with it. Especially the last move of the Pure Yang Palace, retail sales, has attracted the hearts of countless people. Even if the Greatest Heaven Sect wanted to object, they would not risk offending all the dao sect disciples in the mortal world to obstruct it.

The Pure Yang Palace was willing to betray itself, but the Greatest Heaven Sect obstructs it everywhere, what does that mean? The Greatest Heaven Sect is already the number one sect in the Dao Sect, and you bought everything in a package, and you ate a lot of it. Don't you even leave some crumbs for others? In the world of cultivators, eating alone will be punished by the heavens.

Although the Pure Yang Palace's move made the Greatest Heaven Sect a little unhappy, but after all, it was the Pure Yang Palace's own affairs, and it gave the Greatest Heaven Sect enough face, only selling to the dao sect disciples, the Greatest Heaven Sect could only nod.

Now the Greatest Heaven Sect have tasted the benefits of having their own female disciples on Yang Chen's side. Among other things, just looking at the Pill Cauldron Sect, if they want something, they have to buy it at full price. Where is it? So cool to get it? You know, although you only save 20%, it is equivalent to hundreds of catties of top-quality spirit stones. With so many spirit stones, even for the Greatest Heaven Sect, it was a huge fortune.

Soon, the sects started shopping. On this point, almost all major sects are consistent. The map of the demon sealing formation, the dao sect cultivation skills plus the alchemy formation are packaged.

Although everyone is also interested in the Demon sect cultivation techniques collected by the Zhao family, firstly, they want to avoid suspicion, and secondly, they are not willing to pay such a large price for the purchase, so they all gave up this part tacitly.

The happiest ones were of course the disciples of those small sects, who came to the Pure Yang Palace one after another, went to Hidden Pavilion and the ten thousand treasure building to buy a collection of cultivation methods, carefully inquired about the cultivation method suitable for them, and planned to buy them. Of course, rogue cultivators are even more happy. Although they are not pure disciples from dao sects, none of them have many friends, so let them buy for them. In this regard, the Pure Yang Palace has never made things difficult.

Mrs. Fanghua finally woke up, although she didn't know what the effect of the two meritorious body refining pills was, the feeling of expelling all the impurities in her body made Mrs. Fanghua very happy. Especially when she saw as soon as she opened her eyes, her beloved was holding her to bathe and change her clothes, she was so happy that there was nothing else in her heart.

"Master, I really want the formation map and those cultivation methods, what should I do?" After Mrs. Fanghua heard about the rules given by the Pure Yang Palace, she couldn't help shaking Yang Chen's arm, acting coquettishly at the same time pleading.

"How can I break the rules I set myself?" Yang Chen gave Madam Fanghua a direct look, shook his head resolutely and said, "No, you are not a dao sect disciple, so I can't sell it to you."

“But I really want it!” Mrs. Fanghua was not discouraged, she still begged like that, her body moved a little more, her chest began to rub against Yang Chen’s arm, making Yang Chen feel her firmness and elasticity.

“Do you want it, or the Yin-Yang Demon Sect wants it?” Yang Chen didn’t directly refuse this time, but asked a rhetorical question.

“The sect wants it, but this slave also wants it. As long as this slave can bring these back, it will be a great achievement, and the status of this slave in the sect will be improved in the future.” Madam Fanghua did not hide her thoughts from Yang Chen.

“If the Yin-Yang Demon Sect wants it, then I don’t need to save them resources. But you are my woman, so I can also give you a 20% discount, the extra resources will be for you.” Yang Chen finally said, Mrs. Fanghua was overjoyed and immediately kissed Yang Chen, her face full of joy.

“But...” Yang Chen said but, which made Mrs. Fanghua nervous again, looking at Yang Chen with watery eyes, as if Yang Chen would shed tears if he refused.

“However, I still can’t sell it to you.” Mrs. Fanghua directly expressed that she didn’t understand Yang Chen’s words. She looked at Yang Chen flickering with her eyes full of doubts, why would he give her a 20% discount if he couldn’t sell it to her?

“My Pure Yang Palace will only sell to dao sect disciples.” Yang Chen said very righteously: “Don’t tell me that your Yin-Yang Demon Sect doesn’t even have a single undercover dao sects disciple.”

As soon as this was said, Mrs. Fanghua immediately understood. In fact, with her intelligence, she should have thought of this long ago. It’s just that people are by Yang Chen’s side, and all their hearts are tied to Yang Chen’s body. All they think about is how to please Yang Chen, how to make Yang Chen happy, how can they think of these things. After Yang Chen dialed, Mrs. Fanghua immediately understood what Yang Chen meant.

“I understand. I will find a disciple of the Greatest Heaven Sect to buy.” Mrs. Fanghua not only understood, but she even vaguely discovered from Yang Chen’s attitude that Yang Chen seemed to be dissatisfied with the Greatest Heaven Sect. When it was settled, disciples from the Greatest Heaven Sect will replace her to buy it.

“You’re the smart one!” Yang Chen slapped Madam Fanghua again with his big hand, but this time, it was a compliment, which made Madam Fanghua smile instantly.

“You have the Yin-Yang Demon Sect, so you can’t leave the other Demon Sects empty-handed.” With a smile on his face, Yang Chen enthusiastically pointed out: “If they are also interested, you can give them some advice, you can still show favors, can’t you?”

“Yes, master!” Mrs. Fanghua’s pretty face had become like a flower and she threw herself into Yang Chen’s embrace full of spring emotion.

Chapter 692: : More Transactions

The Pure Yang Palace has been really busy recently. The sale of the Zhao family’s cultivation methods alone has attracted tens of thousands of people to the Pure Yang Palace to choose carefully. Yang Chen’s descriptions of the various cultivation methods are quite detailed, the kind of people suitable for cultivating it was basically clearly marked, which also surprised those who saw the introduction.

Among other things, one or two pieces of introduction jade slips with one or two lower-grade spirit stones, in a short period of time, the Pure Yang Palace sold hundreds of thousands of copies. This alone earned more than a catty of high-grade spirit stones.

The catalog is still like this, the real content can be imagined. The sales of cultivation methods are actually not cheap, because it is not equivalent to the contribution of the sect. Even the lowest cultivation method needs to start with ten catties of low-grade spirit stones. If calculated according to this multiple, the net income of Pure Yang Palace will increase by at least ten catties of top-grade spirit stones.

During the process of buying and selling, the Pure Yang Palace strictly abided by the previous promise, only selling to dao sect disciples, demon sect disciples and those neutral sects and even rogue cultivators came to their door. This is not for the Greatest Heaven Sect to see, but for actual implementation. Every customer who purchased a cultivation method must check the school mark and record it in the book. Not only that, every transaction is supervised by the personnel sent by the Greatest Heaven Sect specially requested by the Pure Yang Palace.

When every customer buys, he is not alone, at least three people are needed, and one of them must be a disciple of the great sect who has already confirmed his identity. This requirement alone has brought a lot of benefits to some innocent dao sect disciples, and it has also left those Greatest Heaven Sect people who secretly want to find out the flaws in the Pure Yang Palace helpless.

Every record in the transaction was quite detailed, a certain year, a certain month and a certain time. So-and-so from a certain sect bought a certain kind of cultivation method or formation method, alchemy method, etc and a certain guy received it. There are several other circumstantial witnesses, namely XX and so on. At the back of the record, there is the confirmation of the disciple of the big sect who has confirmed his identity, and at the same time, the confirmation of the disciple who is in charge of supervising from the Greatest Heaven Sect, without any falsehood.

Of course, the Pure Yang Palace is not completely ignoring the needs of customers, at least the disciples in charge of supervision from the Greatest Heaven Sect do not know what cultivation method the customers bought. They can only confirm that the ones they bought are dao sect disciples, but they can't inquire about others things more at will, otherwise they will be hated.

The items purchased by the customers on the record are all added later. This is used by the Pure Yang Palace for its own accounting, and no one else can see it. This method ensures to the greatest extent that the buyers are dao sect disciples. The Pure Yang Palace has achieved this level, even the Greatest Heaven Sect has nothing to say.

However, even so, some rogue cultivators successfully bought suitable cultivation methods through a few friends of the dao sect. Of course, it was not only those few friends who came forward. They believe no one would refuse this kind of favor.

Many people know this method, but no one would bring it up. The Pure Yang Palace has put on a posture of giving the Greatest Heaven Sect face, and it is absolutely impossible for the Greatest Heaven Sect to do something that requires the consent of the Greatest Heaven Sect's disciples to sell anything in the Pure Yang Palace, right? What's more, many rogue cultivators rely on this method to obtain cultivation methods. Once they insist on pursuing it, they will not only offend one or two people.

Just under such circumstances, the business of the Pure Yang Palace was very lively, unusually prosperous. A large amount of spirit stones came into the account. This time, although Yang Chen and a few concubines got the benefits back, Yang Chen didn't take it for himself, but dedicated it to the sect. The sect is also generous, all profits are divided into 50-50, half for the sect, half for Yang Chen, no one has any objection to this.

Everything was proceeding in an orderly manner, and soon the cultivators discovered that the prices of the materials needed for the demon sealing formation skyrocketed like the wind, this was a normal phenomenon. When the demand is high, the price will naturally rise. The problem is, it seems that besides the reserves of each sect, most of the remaining materials are shipped by the Pure Yang Palace.

As long as a cultivator with a brain can figure it out right away, the reason why the Pure Yang Palace built the demon-sealing formation with great fanfare is not only to set a demonstration for other sects, but also to give itself time to stock up. As long as you get the Demon Sealing Formation, you will definitely find ways to build one. At this time, even if the items of the Pure Yang Palace are more expensive, everyone will buy it.

No one has any dissatisfaction with this, except for the occasional complaint about the high price of some precious materials, the rest is to admire the Pure Yang Palace for its wealth-making methods. For a business, selling array diagrams and skills to make a fortune, and then selling formation materials to make another fortune, it really was a good way.

In particular, several of the key materials are all produced in the deep sea. Except for the small amount of stocks in the sea sect of the Green Jade Immortal Island, only the Pure Yang Palace is left. In addition, there are rogue cultivators' alliances that are far away overseas, but since the formation map is not allowed to be sold to them, they will certainly not sell these materials cheaply.

For this reason, the transactions of certain cultivation methods are more relaxed. Even if some transactions are found to be purchased by some rogue cultivators, those Greatest Heaven Sect disciples who are in charge of supervising will turn a blind eye. Give it to the disciples of the Demon Sect, and everything will stop. More is worse than less, isn't it?

Only the major sects have the financial resources to buy the Demon Sealing Formation. Of course, this time there are a few more first-rate sects. It's about suppressing the Heavenly Tribulation, as long as it is a capable sect, they wish they could build the Demon Sealing Formation right away.

At least a dozen demon sealing formations started construction at the same time, and no one would have thought that among the formation diagrams of the demon sealing formations that everyone bought, there was an extra tracking formation cleverly designed by Gongsun Ling. This tracking array is hidden in the original demon sealing formation, and it is at the core position. It is impossible to find this tracking array just by studying the array map. Only after the demon sealing formation is activated can the special compass be used to track the location of the demon sealing formation.

No one had any doubts about this. After getting the map, everyone rushed to start building. One of the reasons is the good reputation that Yang Chen has cultivated through doing business over the years. The things Yang Chen sells are expensive, but he has never had fake or defective products. This time, Yang Chen would not smash his own signboard, besides, the Pure Yang Palace has already set up one, if there is a fake, it would be a matter of public outrage, the Pure Yang Palace would be waiting to be wiped out.

Everything seemed to be under the control of the Greatest Heaven Sect, but after a period of construction, news soon spread from all over the world that several rogue cultivators alliances overseas seemed to be building the demon sealing formation. That's not to mention, there is also news from the Demon Sect that several major sects of the Demon Sect are also building the Demon Sealing Formation. How is this going on?

Chapter 693: : Who Bought It

The people who inquired about the news had never seen the map of the demon sealing formation, nor did they know what the demon sealing formation looked like, but several major rogue cultivator alliances and several major sects of the demon sect had begun to build some kind of formation, and everyone had a flash in their minds. The first thought they had was the demon sealing formation.

Among the five major sects, the Five Elements Sect, Qiankun Sect, Blue Cloud Sect and the Green Jade Immortal Island seem to have received the news from the upper world, and they are not so desperate to kill the Demon Sect. The Greatest Heaven Sect's formation was under construction, so it was unable to receive the news from above, and still insisted on the idea that dao and demons should not coexist. This time, it even prohibited the Pure Yang Palace from selling the formation map to sects other than the dao sects.

This matter itself was a bit outrageous, but the Greatest Heaven Sect was so powerful that no one said much. The Greatest Heaven Sect was also taken aback when they received the news, and immediately sent people to investigate in detail to see if it was the real Demon Sealing Formation. At the same time, they also sent people to the Pure Yang Palace to inquire whether the Pure Yang Palace had sold additional maps of the Demon Sealing Formation.

The person who came to the Pure Yang Palace to negotiate was another elder from the Greatest Heaven Sect's Foreign Affairs Hall. The hall master Mao Qi already had a psychological barrier and did not want to face the Pure Yang Palace. Therefore, the person who appeared in the Pure Yang Palace this time was another Yuanying stage elder surnamed Wu.

Elder Wu didn't mean to question them at all, and he smiled when he saw people with a pleasant face. When facing the master of the Pure Yang Palace, his attitude was so good that it was hard to see that he was a cultivator of the Greatest Heaven Sect who had always been domineering.

Such an attitude, of course, is due to the recent increase in strength and status of the Pure Yang Palace, and also the reason why Tao Junqi married Yang Chen. Elder Tao has ordered that he must not offend her husband. There is another most important reason, Elder Wu clearly understood that he was inside the Pure Yang Palace. Now there are at least a dozen people who can easily crush him into a meat sauce.

As for Elder Wu's careful suggestion of inquiring about the sales, the master of the palace was very generous and immediately called Shangguan Feng, who was in charge of the transaction, to answer him face-to-face.

"Elder Wu wants to know about the sale of some Sealing Demon Formation Maps. You answer carefully and don't hide anything." In front of Elder Wu, the Palace Master instructed Shangguan Feng in this way, this attitude also made Elder Wu very satisfied.

"The formation map of the Demon Sealing Formation, how many copies have you sold?" Elder Wu was most concerned about this matter, with the attitude of the master of the palace, he was not so polite when facing Shangguan Feng and asked directly.

"Senior, thirty-two copies of the formation map of the demon sealing formation were sold." Shangguan Feng also did not hide it, these data were already in his mind so he answered casually.

"Thirty-two copies?" Elder Wu was shocked. According to what he clearly knew, that was, the five major sects plus the Pill Cauldron Sect, as well as the three first-class sects had purchased it, the total was only nine copies. Thirty-two copies were sold, the twenty-three copies that were sold after, where did the buyers come from?

Could it be that the overseas rogue cultivation alliance and the major sects of the Demon Sect bought the Demon Sealing Formation? Elder Wu didn't care about other things at the moment, and immediately asked "Isn't it only allowed to sell to dao sect disciples? How could the Pure Yang Palace sell to other people?"

“Senior Wu, we have never sold to anyone outside the dao sect!” Hearing Elder Wu’s tone, Shangguan Feng immediately began to complain “All the buyers are disciples of the dao sect who have confirmed their authenticity. Only dao sect disciples are eligible to buy, other than that, we have never sold to anyone.”

Shangguan Feng’s tone was very angry. Although he called the other party’s senior in his mouth, he called himself us, and he didn’t humble himself as a junior at all.

“Does anyone in the dao sect buy the map of the magic sealing formation?” Elder Wu is also a sensible person. He also knows that so many rogue cultivators ask friends to buy cultivation methods, but he doesn’t think it’s a big deal. But now that the map of the Sealing Demon Formation has been sold, Elder Wu immediately understood the other party’s tactics, and immediately asked “Who are the people who bought the map of the Sealing Demon Formation?”

This time, Shangguan Feng came without opening his mouth, but took out a piece of jade slip from his Qiankun bag. After reading it, he was about to answer, but Elder Wu waved his hand and said directly “There is no need to talk about the first batch of purchases by the five great sects, the Pill Cauldron Sect and the three first class sects, but only those we don’t know about.”

What Elder Wu meant, of course, was that other than these sects, any disciple of any sect who dared to collude with the Demon Sect would probably have to pay a heavy price this time.

“If you get rid of the buyers of these sects, there will be no one else.” Shangguan Feng smiled bitterly and replied helplessly.

“Which one of the three first class dao sects?” Elder Wu’s aura burst out immediately. Of course, it is impossible for people from the five major sects to collude with the demon sect. Naturally, it is the matter of several other small sects.

“Could it be a disciple of the Pill Cauldron Sect?” Elder Wu followed up and asked.

“The Pill Cauldron Sect only bought one copy.” Shangguan Feng replied honestly.

Now Elder Wu was a little bit on wax, the person who has the problem is inside the five major sects, so it's hard to say. But soon Elder Wu figured it out, his trip was just to know who it was, and he didn't ask him to come forward to eliminate demons and defend the way, so what's the trouble?

"The five major sects have great achievements, so it is understandable to have a few traitor disciples." Even so, Elder Wu still paved the way first, and then asked: "How many copies did the Five Elements Sect buy?"

Shangguan Feng looked at the palace master again, and although the Palace Master asked him to answer honestly, he still wanted to see what the Palace Master meant. Elder Wu also saw Shangguan Feng's movements, looked at the master of the palace frowned and asked: "Could it be that he is afraid of offending others? Brother, don't worry, no matter who it is, our Greatest Heaven Sect will investigate this matter alone, the Pure Yang Palace has nothing to do."

"There is only one copy of the Five Elements Sect." After the palace master nodded heavily, Shangguan Feng quickly replied.

"What about the Qiankun sect?" Elder Wu asked quickly without stopping.

"The Qiankun Sect also got one." Shangguan Feng replied equally quickly.

"Blue Cloud Sect?" Elder Wu spoke faster and faster.

"One copy for the Blue Cloud Sect."

"Green Jade Immortal Island?" Elder Wu's eyes had already shot out a ray of light, showing signs of burning.

"The Green Jade Immortal Island only bought one copy."

"What do you mean?" Hearing Shangguan Feng's answer, Elder Wu's expression was unusually exciting and at the same time, there was a hint of anger.

“Senior, in fact, apart from these sects, the other formations of the Demon Sealing Formation were purchased by disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect.” Shangguan Feng no longer dodged and evaded and directly said: “after buying one copy, twenty-three disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect successively bought twenty-three copies of the formation map of the Demon Sealing Formation from this junior.”

Chapter 694: : Big Loss

The Greatest Heaven Sect, who were in a state of desperation, on the one hand sent people to search for the traces of those traitorous disciples, and on the other hand explained to all parties that this was a conspiracy by the evildoers of the Demon Sect. In private, they hated the Pure Yang Palace to the bone.

If the Pure Yang Palace could have notified these people when they bought the map of the Sealing Demon Formation, how could there be such troubles? Obviously, this was intentional by the Pure Yang Palace, deliberately not notifying and only pretending to be innocent after the fact. Everything was purely the fault of the Pure Yang Palace.

But the Greatest Heaven Sect couldn't attack the Pure Yang Palace. It was agreed at the time that the disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect were responsible for identifying whether they were members of the dao sect, and the Pure Yang Palace was responsible for selling things. And no matter the seller or the buyer, they don't want the supervising disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect to know what the transaction between the two parties is. Therefore, the two sides agreed to ask the disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect to avoid buying something. The Greatest Heaven Sect also agreed at that time, so naturally they can't use this as an argument at this time.

Taking it for granted, the elders of the Greatest Heaven Sect would never remember the face when his sect sent someone to order the Pure Yang Palace not to sell the Demon Sealing Formation to the Demon sect. Anyway, one's own sect must be right, and others are wrong. This is the consistent practice and thinking of the Greatest Heaven Sect.

If the Greatest Heaven Sect had insisted on doing this way when Yang Chen sold the fifth-grade alchemist secrets, everyone would have nothing to say. Speaking of a thousand ways and ten thousand ways, there is still a difference in the cultivation philosophy of demon and dao sects, and everyone will not let go of the hatred accumulated over thousands of years.

But since the Demon Sect and the rogue Cultivators Alliance were allowed to participate at that time, people had to be excluded from the matter of the demon sealing formation, especially not taking things from the Greatest Heaven Sect or other sects, anyone would be upset.

Now it's the turn of the Greatest Heaven Sect to sit on the wax. A series of rumors of unknown people, poor teaching, and collusion with the Demon Sect put the Greatest Heaven Sect in a panic. Even when the disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect went out, other cultivators looked at them differently. Except for those guys who have been trying to curry favor with the Greatest Heaven Sect, the attitude of others towards the Greatest Heaven Sect's disciples has changed, and they are quite alienated. There was even some vague resistance.

Now the Greatest Heaven Sect can prohibit the Pure Yang Palace from selling the map of the demon sealing formation. Tomorrow, one's own sect might be prohibited from doing some kind of business, and the next day, one's own sect could be prohibited from buying some urgently needed things. Anyway, under the guise of eliminating demons and defending dao, the Greatest Heaven Sect has the final say.

All the cultivators are waiting to see how the Greatest Heaven Sect will handle this matter. If the Greatest Heaven Sect do not handle it properly, who will dare to deal with the Greatest Heaven Sect in the future? How can the isolated Greatest Heaven Sect dare to say that it is the number one sect in the dao domain? Even if it's just for the reputation of the sect, the elders of the Greatest Heaven Sect have to show an attitude.

The Greatest Heaven Sect naturally understood this truth, so they quickly came up with a solution. Those disciples who later bought the diagram of the Sealing Demon Formation were all removed from the sect and hunted down indefinitely. All the disciples in charge of supervision were recalled, and then they were punished in various ways for ineffective supervision. The elder in charge of this matter was wiped out of the title of elder, and he retreated to think about his mistakes.

Such punishment, obviously, the resentment of the cultivators could not be appeased, and even the other four sects were quite critical. The disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect "collectively" contributed to the enemy, so that the major sects of the Demon Sect also have the demon sealing formation, and the strength of the Demon Sect will increase greatly in the future. Wouldn't it be more troublesome? With such a good opportunity, the four major sects would also take the opportunity to add insult to injury.

The aggrieved Greatest Heaven Sect couldn't tell the pain, those disciples in charge of supervision were really wronged, they didn't do anything wrong. When buying a map, the identities of those people are indeed disciples of the Greatest Heaven Sect. Is this wrong? Could it be that these supervising disciples could have foreseen that these guys would betray the sect in the future? These disciples who accepted the punishment were also unwilling, but the sect had to sacrifice them to give the world an attitude.

As for the Pure Yang Palace, nothing happened. If it is wrong to say that it is wrong to implement the rules set by your the Greatest Heaven Sect without any compromise, then the Pure Yang Palace has nothing to say. The problem is, the Greatest Heaven Sect can't slap itself in the face, and it's wrong if they can't be Pure Yang Palace. If it is necessary to say that the Pure Yang Palace is at fault, perhaps their fault is that they did nothing.

Those people didn't inform the Greatest Heaven Sect when they bought the map of the demon sealing formation. This is the mistake made by the people of Pure Yang Palace. The problem is, the Pure Yang Palace is not an affiliated sect of the Greatest Heaven Sect, so there is no obligation to inform them. Besides, the person who bought it is clearly a disciple of your the Greatest Heaven Sect. If they wanted to inform the other four major sects, it makes sense.

A farce-like thing just came to an end so slowly, the Pure Yang Palace didn't lose the slightest bit, it sold as much as it should have sold, it was just a little delayed. The four major sects didn't suffer any loss either. After watching a good show for free, their mood improved a lot. The masters of the Demon Sect and the rogue cultivators also had no losses, and all the things they should buy have arrived, but they have been delayed for a while.

The only one that suffered huge losses was the Greatest Heaven Sect. The loss of reputation, the embarrassment of being thankless, the helplessness of being slapped in the face by one's own people, and the anger of being put together, offended many people, and almost became the target of public criticism. The disciple who made a mistake came to explain to the world. The Greatest Heaven Sect has never been wronged like this in history.

As the demon sealing formations of the various sects slowly took shape, this incident finally passed little by little. However, the major sects have a new worry. It seems that Yang Chen has broken the demon sealing formation. If he knows how to break the formation, wouldn't the demon sealing formation of the major sects become a joke?

Although it is said that the major sects want the demon sealing formation mainly for the powerful function of the demon sealing formation that can isolate the tribulation, but if it can also play the protective function of the formation, wouldn't it be better? So, everyone's eyes were fixed on Yang Chen again, and they began to think about how to get the method to break the formation.

Yang Chen didn't realize that he was the target of public criticism at all, and he was still unable to retreat in the Pure Yang Palace. In his words, it will take at least a few decades for him to retreat and refine the ninth water Flying Sword. During this time, everyone should not interfere with him.

It's a pity that those worried sects still approached Yang Chen, and they were the ones Yang Chen couldn't refuse. Fairy Junqi, Fairy Qingmu, and the Murong sisters came to the Pure Yang Palace together again, and returned to their husband.

With them coming forward, Yang Chen had to give them face no matter what, and simply gathered all the sects who were interested in the method of breaking the formation, and unlocked the secret of breaking the formation for them.

Chapter 695: : Subtle

After getting the map of the demon sealing formation, masters of formations from various sects kept studying, but, no matter how hard they racked their brains, they couldn't find a way to break the demon sealing formation, but this formation was real. It was broken by Yang Chen. In this way, could it be that Yang Chen's attainments in formation techniques are no worse than theirs in formations?

It can be said that the most important reason for the collapse of the Zhao family was because the Demon Sealing Formation was destroyed, so it was unable to suppress the heavenly tribulation. When the Heavenly Tribulation of the fourth grade Earth Immortal realm came, those guys who were not protected all died.

Although the major sects have taken a fancy to the ability of the Demon Sealing Formation to suppress the Heavenly Tribulation, there is a person like Yang Chen who can crack the Demon Sealing Formation, which makes people a little entangled. Although no one said it, everyone basically agreed. If there are more masters and more tribulations to suppress, once Yang Chen suddenly breaks the formation, wouldn't they be reduced to the same fate as the Zhao family?

If they don't figure out how to break the demon sealing formation, and don't make up for this last flaw, all the major sects will have trouble sleeping and eating. Yang Chen understood what they were thinking, so he didn't resist. He just asked them to get together and announce it at once, saving himself the need to say it a few more times.

The sects were quite satisfied with Yang Chen's attitude, especially the pills bought from Yang Chen, which basically established Yang Chen's reputation. Generally speaking, everyone was willing to choose to believe what Yang Chen said.

It was related to the interests of the sect, so the representatives of the major sects gathered together very quickly, and the master of the palace personally received them. Fairy Junqi, Fairy Qingmu and Fairy Murong Wu were all present, and after they ask about this matter clearly, they will all stay in the Pure Yang Palace to accompany Yang Chen.

"I know the reason why you seniors are here. In fact, it is very simple to break this formation." Facing the representatives of the major sects, Yang Chen said straight to the point: "Basically, there are two ways, both of which can be broken instantly."

Hearing Yang Chen's words, the group of people were shocked. When the Pure Yang Palace sold the array, they never said such a thing. Isn't this sincere deceit? However, Yang Chen's concubines have always been calm, without too many emotional ups and downs. Their husband must have had intentions when he said so.

"One way is to find a master, directly drop ten times with one force, and break the formation with force." Yang Chen waited until everyone quieted down, then he said slowly "As long as the attack power exceeds the limit that the formation can resist, the formation will naturally break."

Speaking of it, this is actually a common way to break the formation of all formations. Any formation has a limit, and it is impossible to have an unlimited formation, so as long as it exceeds the limit of the formation, breaking up is a normal thing. The key is, what kind of attack power can break the demon sealing formation?

"The specific attack strength, according to my guess, should be at least at the level of the fifth grade Earth Immortal realm." Yang Chen did not give the exact value this time, but gave a guess "When the black tortoise escaped, it was probably at the level of the fourth grade Earth Immortal realm, there was no way for it to break it with the fourth grade Earth Immortal realm, presumably a higher level is required. At least it must be the fifth grade Earth Immortal realm."

After the normal transcendence and ascension, the human immortal is the first rank, and there are also the ninth and tenth grade of the human Immortal realm. Then comes the earth Immortal realm, in other words, it is at least two great realms higher than the Dacheng stage before it is possible to break through this formation. Among the sects in the mortal world, even including the Greatest Heaven Sect, how could there be masters who surpassed the tenth grade human Immortal realm? The great elder is already an old monster among old monsters if he can reach the fifth grade Human Immortal realm, so it is as difficult as climbing the sky to break through the demon sealing formation.

This also means that it is basically impossible to destroy the demon sealing formation by force. All the sects breathed a sigh of relief.

“Then what is the second method?” Someone asked immediately, the fifth grade earth immortal, there is no way for the black tortoise to reach it. Obviously, Yang Chen’s method of breaking the formation at that time was not this, and everyone was concerned about Yang Chen’s method.

“The second method is to destroy the demon sealing formation from within.” Yang Chen finally opened his mouth and said the method that everyone is interested in: “I think everyone has discovered that this demon sealing formation actually has a formation eye. “

The representatives who came here were all masters of formation, and for matters related to the formation, at least one must understand the formation. As for the matter of the formation, after the various sects get the formation map, there will be special personnel to analyze it, of course they will not be ignorant. When Yang Chen said that, everyone nodded.

“The eyes of the formation usually need to be controlled by two people, and they can control the formation at any time to make adjustments.” Yang Chen said, these are all things that can be seen in the formation map, and Yang Chen has no need to hide “So, these two people are very important. Once they have other thoughts or are killed, basically the formation can be easily broken.”

Once the person controlling the eye of the formation has other thoughts, of course they can break the formation instantly. However, if it is killed, the formation can at least operate independently for a period of time, but it is not comparable to breaking the formation instantly, but Yang Chen’s words can’t be completely wrong. A formation that no one controls is a dead formation, even if it is grinded, it can be broken.

“I don’t know how Grandmaster Yang broke the formation?” Immediately, the elders of the Greatest Heaven Sect asked. Although some clues could be known from Tao Junqi’s mouth, she didn’t know the core after all, so they quickly asked. This question is also what others are eager to know.

“I was in the Zhao family at the time, and asked the Zhao family to send the tortoise to help me under the pretext of alchemy. It took me two years for the tortoise spiritual awareness of the fourth grade Earth Immortal to figure out the movements of the Zhao family’s masters who control the formation.” Yang Chen said with a face. There was no deceitful guilt at all, and he said very naturally: “At the last moment, the tortoise suddenly launched a spiritual awareness attack, killing the two masters of the Zhao family who controlled the eyes of the formation, and then relying on the strength of the fourth grade Earth Immortal realm, the demon sealing formation was directly opened from the inside.”

When Yang Chen broke the formation, Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the Murong Sisters were all present. Thinking about the situation at that time, it was similar to what Yang Chen said. Hearing this, they finally understood what happened at that time, and they all nodded slightly.

When the representatives of all parties heard Yang Chen’s statement, they immediately felt relieved. Yang Chen’s explanation is very reasonable, everything makes sense, of course it is easier to break through the formation from the inside than from the outside. From this point of view, the only mistake of the Zhao family was to allow spiritual awareness of the mysterious tortoise to enter the inside of the demon sealing formation, otherwise, Yang Chen would not be able to break through the demon sealing formation due to his great abilities.

In this way, as long as the person who controls the eye of the formation is trustworthy, there will be no problems. After reaching this conclusion, the representatives of the major sects were finally relieved, and their hanging hearts were also relieved.

Chapter 696: : Storm

In the final analysis, Yang Chen’s breaking of the formation was accidental. If the Zhao family didn’t happen to have a mysterious tortoise of the fourth grade earth Immortal realm, or if the tortoise was not forced by the Zhao family to become a mountain-protecting beast, Yang Chen would never have been able to do so in his life. If he wanted to break the formation, he would either die of old age or become a subsidiary of the Zhao family.

The Demon Sealing Formation was still safe, after reaching this conclusion, all smiles appeared on their faces. Yang Chen really did a great deed this time, with the Demon Sealing Formation, many experts have new hope. However, the representatives of the parties who came did not leave immediately, they wanted to know another thing.

“Grandmaster Yang, I don’t know if you can sell the pills that can increase spiritual awareness that you refined in the Zhao family?” The others didn’t speak, finally the representative of the Greatest Heaven Sect asked.

If you count all the pills refined by Yang Chen, the Inner sensing pills, questioning inner heart pills, hundred year pills, heaven seizing pills, plus Demon Sealing Formation, it can almost be said that they provide a one-stop service of the tribulation and ascending, which made people unable to help but be amazed.

The only pity is that Yang Chen has not yet refined the pills to increase spiritual awareness. However, according to the news brought back by several concubines of Yang Chen, it seems that Yang Chen has already refined a pill that can increase spiritual awareness in the Zhao family, and someone in the Zhao family has already taken it and it was absolutely effective.

What the representatives of all parties want to know is the mysterious pill. You must know that the bottleneck of many alchemists now is the lack of spiritual awareness. Not only alchemists, but as long as they are cultivators, no one would think that their spiritual awareness is too strong. If Yang Chen can really have the elixir to increase spiritual awareness, it means another important resource for future cultivation and all parties must hold it in their hands no matter what.

As soon as the people from the Greatest Heaven Sect asked about the elixir, Yang Chen knew the purpose of these people. He couldn’t help but glanced at his concubines, no need to ask, the news must have leaked from their mouths.

The seven girls were swept away by Yang Chen’s gaze, and became nervous for no reason. Yang Chen never said that the news of that kind of elixir could not be told to the sect, so they did not hide it from the sect. Now it seems that the sects have used their minds again, this is not worth the candle. If their husband blames them, and they are sandwiched between their husband and sect, how should they behave?

Fortunately, Yang Chen just glanced at them and didn’t mean to complain. This relieved the uneasiness in their heart a little. It’s just that even they themselves don’t know when their minds have started to revolve around their husband’s intentions.

“That’s to win the trust of the Zhao family, and specially cooperate with the tortoise, using the tortoise’s powerful spiritual awareness to stimulate the potential of users. It makes them feel the rapid growth of spiritual awareness in a short period of time, but after ten years, that person will definitely die.” Yang Yang Chen shook his head slightly, and explained to the representatives of each sect.

Hearing that it was such a reason, the group of people couldn't help being disappointed. However, this is normal, none of the sects had heard of a pill that could greatly increase spiritual awareness. They thought it was a breakthrough, but now it seems that it is nothing more than a mirror image.

“Based on my estimation, at least one needs to be at the level of a seventh grade alchemist, before perhaps one can refine some pills that increase one's spiritual awareness.” Seeing everyone's disappointment, Yang Chen added a sentence “In the mortal world, it's impossible!”

This sentence can be regarded as giving everyone a hope that is not hope. In terms of alchemy alone, there is no one stronger than Yang Chen in the mortal world. Even if Yang Chen said that, everyone had already given up in their minds. In any case, even Yang Chen, the seventh grade alchemist, would not be able to reach it in his lifetime. Everyone is still not sure about the ascension after tribulation, and there is no need to hope for those more distant and illusory futures.

In any case, the problem of the demon sealing formation is completely solved, as long as the person who controls the eye of the formation is absolutely reliable. If the people who control the eyes of the various sects have other thoughts, then they will be considered exterminated, no matter others.

After sending away the people from various sects, the method of breaking the demon sealing formation was also passed on. This was intentionally done by the Pure Yang Palace, the people who came were all from the dao sect. People from the Demon Sect and the rogue Cultivation Alliance didn't know about the news. On the one hand, it was an explanation to the Demon Sect and the rogue Cultivation Alliance's sect who bought the map of the Demon Sealing Formation. On the other hand, It is also to let the cultivators know that there is no need to think about breaking the demon sealing formation.

As for Yang Chen, he returned to his courtyard with his seven concubines. As soon as they entered the Dragon Palace, the seven women knelt down towards Yang Chen in unison.

“Your concubine has leaked my husband's secret, please punish me.” All the girls said in unison, kneeling in a row, waiting for Yang Chen to deal with it.

“I never said to keep a secret, what is the crime, what is there to punish, get up.” Yang Chen laughed, not taking this trivial matter to heart at all, let the girls stand up, and asked with a smile: “Is the sect’s work done?”

The girls stood up obediently and sat beside Yang Chen. Tao Junqi was the first to answer Yang Chen’s question: “The position of the elder of the sect has been relinquished. From now on, I will concentrate on staying by husband’s side and serving him!”

Not only Tao Junqi, even Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters have the same meaning. The matter of the sect was completely settled when they went back this time, and in the future they would wholeheartedly be Yang Chen’s concubine and serve Yang Chen wholeheartedly. In fact, their respective sects will not let them do anything else, as long as they take good care of Yang Chen, it will be a great contribution to the sect, and all the things that the sect should have will not be short of them.

The incident with the formation map, just like this, passed quietly, and no one knew that Yang Chen dug a small hole for the Greatest Heaven Sect without making a fuss. Today everyone collectively watched the Greatest Heaven Sect make a fool of themselves in silence, and tomorrow they might collectively take action to push the Greatest Heaven Sect into the pit. Many things, it is such a subtle habit that gradually changes, and then begins to change.

Next, Yang Chen stopped going out, and stayed in the sect wholeheartedly, refining his ninth water flying sword. The purpose of going out this time was to get the refining method, and after getting the merit method from Li Cheng, the ninth water flying sword will be released as a matter of course. As long as the ninth water flying sword was completed, only the one flying sword will be left for the Great Yin-Yang Five Elements Flying Sword, success was in sight.

This refining process lasted thirty years. Yang Chen’s wives and concubines basically cultivated in seclusion with Yang Chen, ignoring outside matters. However, Yang Chen’s family, who was refining the flying sword in seclusion, didn’t know that there was another uproar outside, the cause was still related to Yang Chen.

The center of the turmoil was still in the the Pure Yang Palace, but everyone’s goal was the fifth grade merit body refining pill refined by Yang Chen.

Chapter 697: : Waves

To be precise, outsiders don’t know the existence of the Fifth grade merit body refining pill, and they don’t even know the name. However, there is no doubt that the matter was caused by the fifth grade merit body refining pill.

Yang Chen didn't have many merit-body refining pills. The palace master, the seven elders of the Pure Yang Palace, the old tree monster, Hou Yun, She Kui, Xie Sha, Hua Mengyou, Shangguan Feng, one for Wang Yuan and one for Du Qian, plus two for Mrs. Fanghua, for a total of eighteen. Of course, there are still a few pills in Yang Chen's hand, but these things will not be taken out easily. Without that kind of friendship, why give them the body refining pills that have consumed Yang Chen's huge amount of merit?

After so many years, the fifth grade merit body refining pills began to take effect slowly, and the obvious sign was that the speed of these people's cultivation began to speed up, and the cultivation of certain cultivation methods seemed to become easier. At first, everyone didn't pay attention, but when the effect was very obvious, someone finally noticed the change. It is definitely impossible for the innate spiritual root to cause this kind of change, so only the postnatal spiritual root was suspected.

Wang Yuan was the one who realized this, so he inadvertently checked with the five-colored stone, and suddenly found that his acquired spiritual root had unknowingly increased by at least fifteen. Looking at the result, Wang Yuan was stunned on the spot, but the people who saw it by accident were also shocked.

No one thought that the acquired spirit root could change like this. Immediately, the onlookers, who were from the Pure Yang Palace, immediately began to ask Wang Yuan for advice on how to improve the postnatal spiritual root. As a result, their voices were a little louder, and they were immediately heard by some other people.

The news spread almost instantly, knowing that the postnatal spiritual root can improve, except for those geniuses such as Shi Shanshan, Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling, who had a full Innate and acquired spiritual roots, almost all the cultivators went crazy. Who doesn't understand what it means to have a better spiritual root, and immediately, countless people flocked to the Pure Yang Palace.

Of course, the Pure Yang Palace didn't understand why at this time, so the master of the palace asked someone to protect Wang Yuan first. Then everyone got together and discussed in detail what happened to cause the growth of the acquired spiritual root.

After much deliberation, Wang Yuan couldn't think of the reason for the growth of his postnatal spiritual root. The only explanation was that Yang Chen forced him to take the fifth grade merit body refining pill on the spot. When Wang Yuan said this, the headmaster and other elders were also stunned.

Afterwards, they immediately checked with multicolored stones, and the result was naturally beyond everyone's expectations. Everyone's postnatal spiritual roots were all growing.

It is not an exaggeration to describe the headmaster and elders as surprises. They themselves know their own aptitude, they are incomparable with those talented freaks in cultivation. They thought that as long as they could bring the Pure Yang Palace to the highest peak in their lifetime, it would be an achievement in this life, but they didn't expect that they would also have the opportunity to step into the ranks of those geniuses.

Is the gap between idiots and geniuses now able to be pulled in or even raised to the same level in some way? Those cultivators who are troubled by their poor aptitude finally saw a glimmer of light, and saw the hope that they too, could become geniuses. Even if it's just an insignificant trace, it's better than nothing, isn't it?

Everyone understands what it means to be able to improve the postnatal spiritual root, so the matter is so important, the high-level officials of the Pure Yang Palace immediately kept silent, and those who had taken Yang Chen's pills also silently shut their mouths.

Although the high-level kept it secret, the news inevitably spread. Even Mrs. Fanghua, who is far away in the demon sect, knows about it. After checking, Mrs. Fanghua could hardly believe her eyes. When did her postnatal spiritual root almost reach full value? Apart from the two pills given by Yang Chen, there was almost no other explanation.

The matter of the day after tomorrow's spiritual root promotion is really too big, and the Pure Yang Palace does not admit it, but no one can stop others from guessing. Why didn't other sects have people with elevated spiritual roots, only the Pure Yang Palace had them? In addition, Yang Chen released the news about the postnatal spiritual root before, and everyone agreed that the Pure Yang Palace or Yang Chen must have found a way to improve the postnatal spiritual root.

Yang Chen has been retreating, so no one could ask Yang Chen for confirmation. Even if they are the master of the palace, they just know that Yang Chen must have mastered the method. But it was also impossible to get definite news from Yang Chen. Therefore, the Pure Yang Palace has always been silent about the speculation from the outside world.

But this does not prevent other people from guessing, more and more people came to the Pure Yang Palace to inquire about the news. In the beginning, they were just some insignificant little people, those who could be ignored by the Pure Yang Palace, but later, the limelight intensified, and finally even the people of the five major sects were alarmed.

Of course, the current Pure Yang Palace is no longer the previous Pure Yang Palace. If it was before, when people from the five major sects came to the door, they would definitely ask questions directly, assuming a questioning posture. But now, the representatives of the five major sects are just chatting with the palace master very gently, as if they are old friends who haven't seen each other for many years, revealing a feeling that they are one people. But they never mentioned the method of improving the postnatal spiritual root.

Presumably they also know that this matter must be related to Yang Chen, Yang Chen is now retreating with his wives and concubines, they dare not disturb Yang Chen's retreat easily. If it is self-defeating, it will be the sinner of the sect. The only thing to do is to establish a good relationship with the Pure Yang Palace, and absolutely not let Yang Chen have any opinions on the five major sects, everything will be discussed after Yang Chen leaves the seclusion.

What people are looking forward to most now is Yang Chen's exit. If possible, this time people from the five major sects even have the intention to talk to the Pure Yang Palace and give Yang Chen to their sect. This kind of thing is not unheard of, even the alchemist Deng Yiya, who is second only to Yang Chen now, was a disciple of the Heavenly Lake Sect, and now has transferred to the Pill Cauldron Sect.

Yang Chen's family doesn't know anything about the outside world, they are indeed seriously retreating now. Tao Junqi and the others were working hard to absorb and refine the spiritual power of the Immortal peach that everyone got back then. Although that peach is not a genuine one, it can provide the girls with ten years of spiritual power. Although not as effective as Yang Chen's Immortal peach, but it is more or less good for replenishing life essence.

As for Gao Yue, with the help of Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling, she slowly began to absorb the Qi of the Three Emperors, and when the absorption was completed, it will be the day when she leaves seclusion.

Chapter 698: : Tenth Water Flying Sword

Gao Yue's method of absorbing the Qi of the Three Emperors was the simplest and most active one. Just like the 20-year experience of Yang Chen's family being buried in the dragon's veins and suspended animation for 20 years, absorbing the spirit of the Three Emperors also requires such a process.

The only difference is that the Qi of the Three Emperors is restrained in a small formation. The formation was provided by Yang Chen and arranged by Gongsun Ling. Based on Gongsun Ling's understanding of the formation, it took more than three years to complete this seemingly small formation, even longer than the demon sealing formation.

After the formation was set up, Yang Chen directly took out five top-grade spirit stones of about the same size without hesitation, each weighing about one catty, and embedded them in the formation's eyes. The array was just arranged in the Dragon Palace. That's not to mention, the formation is basically arranged directly on the map of the East China Sea. Below the eye of the formation where the five top-quality spirit stones are located, there are five very strong spiritual veins leading directly.

Yang Chen would never be stingy with what he gave Gao Yue, and used the best of everything, for fear of any accidents. After arranging the formation, Gao Yue entered the so-called closed state again.

In fact, it was more appropriate to call this state sleep or suspended animation. Yang Chen still used the previous method to seal Gao Yue's cultivation, and let her enter a state of suspended animation. Her body was placed in the center of the formation, and there was a huge influx of spiritual power all the time. At the same time, there were also strands of the Three Emperors' Qi, floating into Gao Yue's body bit by bit from three directions, Gao Yue can absorb all this without even doing anything.

However, this time is far from being able to be completed in twenty years. According to Yang Chen's estimate, it would take at least fifty years for the Qi of the Three Emperors to enter Gao Yue's body. During this period of time, Yang Chen was already busy enough to complete all the trivial matters.

After successively arranging the demon-sealing formation and the formation that absorbs the spirit of the Three Emperors, Gongsun Ling's understanding of formation has reached a new level. These two formations, whichever one is taken out, are the formations of the spiritual world or even the Immortal world. Even with Gongsun Ling's comprehension, she couldn't fully understand it.

Although it is said that the two formations were successfully arranged, it was just Gongsun Ling's construction according to the plan. The only research on the formation was that under Yang Chen's guidance, she added a very large formation to the core of the demon sealing formation. It's just a hidden tracking formation, and it's still far from a complete understanding.

Even so, the successful arrangement of the formations has already given Gongsun Ling a certain degree of understanding of the two formations, and it happened to be a complete understanding of the two formations.

After all the women around me have settled down. Yang Chen just started the process of refining the ninth water flying sword. The mysterious black liquid obtained from the ultimate demonized demon vine finally came into play. Under Yang Chen's almost inexhaustible merits, it gradually became a puddle that could be controlled by Yang Chen.

Similar to the shape of the nine nether flying sword, Yang Chen did not constrain the ninth water flying sword into the shape of a sword, but could change its shape anytime and anywhere. The strong nature of the black liquid gave the ninth water flying sword an excellent foundation, and Yang Chen didn't even need to deliberately increase its power, it already has enough lethality.

Even Yang Chen himself would not dare to touch the black liquid easily. If it didn't happen to be a flying sword, Yang Chen wouldn't even be able to collect it. Even if there is a refining method for the Merit, it will not be a one-time effort to turn the black liquid into the ninth water flying sword. Yang Chen could only use the correct method, let go of the ninth water flying sword a little bit, and then wrapped a large amount of merit on it, and started to refine it bit by bit with the technique of the merit method.

This is to refine the life source flying sword for himself. Yang Chen will never be stingy with merit, the merit value consumed at every moment is always at the maximum value that Yang Chen can use. If a guy from the Immortal world saw Yang Chen being so extravagant in the mortal world, he really didn't know what kind of prodigal he would think Yang Chen was.

The black liquid needs to be refined bit by bit. Similarly, Yang Chen has been refining the core of the Demon Continent, and it has lasted for more than a hundred years. It is precisely because refining the core of the Demon Continent needs to restrain at least half of Yang Chen's energy, Yang Chen's cultivation base has not increased significantly in recent years, and has remained at the stage of just reaching the middle Yuanying stage.

Gao Yue, who has always been close to Yang Chen in cultivation, has shown a cultivation realm far surpassing Yang Chen's before retreating, her cultivation of spiritual power has entered the late Yuanying stage of the cause. As for Gongsun Ling, it has reached the peak of the late Yuanying stage, and it looks like it will soon enter the peak Yuanying stage. He believes that the completion of this retreat will be the time for Gongsun Ling's breakthrough.

Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang, and the Murong sisters have followed Yang Chen for a short time, and they haven't had such great benefits as Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling. However, each of them has a monster pet of the peak Dacheng stage given by Li Cheng, and the attributes of this monster pet can just correspond to their own attributes. The five elements are born together, which is definitely of great benefit to the cultivation of the seven girls.

As long as the seven girls can completely refine the spiritual power of that Immortal peach, at least they can add decades of cultivation to their current foundation. This is an unattainable opportunity, and only following Yang Chen can they have such an opportunity.

Compared with Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling's retreat, it didn't take too long to refine the Immortal peach. Therefore, the seven girls were the first to wake up from the retreat. However, after waking up, they didn't bother Yang Chen too much, but continued to cultivate around Yang Chen, while practicing and waiting, waiting for Yang Chen to leave seclusion. You must know that such a cultivation environment, even the five major sects, cannot provide it.

After more than ten years of continuous refining by Yang Chen, all the black liquid was finally refined by Yang Chen's merit. At this point, basically the black liquid will no longer hurt Yang Chen himself. The next step is to further refine the black liquid into the ninth water flying sword, this process will take several years.

To strike while the iron is hot, Yang Chen didn't intend to give up halfway, but directly started the next step, trying to complete the ninth water flying sword completely in this retreat. At that time, the Great Yin Yang Five Elements Flying Sword will only be short of one flying sword.

The whole family has been in seclusion for twenty years. While the cultivators outside were eagerly waiting, Yang Chen finally completed the refining of the ninth water Flying Sword and left seclusion together with the seven concubines. As soon as they left the seclusion, they were taken aback by the battle in front of them.

The master of the palace took Yang Chen away without saying a word, and the seven girls were also invited by people from the three major sects to the guest rooms provided by the Pure Yang Palace. In short, this time, everyone must know whether being to improve the acquired spiritual root is real or not.

Chapter 699: : Leaders

"Is it just for this matter?" Yang Chen didn't feel too surprised when the palace master introduced to him how the Pure Yang Palace had been frantically sought after these years and asked lightly.

Seeing Yang Chen's posture, the palace master knew that Yang Chen knew it well, and the heart that was hanging in his throat was firmly put back into his chest. Originally, he was afraid that the Pure Yang Palace would become the target of public criticism, but as soon as he saw Yang Chen's smile, he wished that people would pay more attention to him, so that the Pure Yang Palace would have a chance to make a fortune.

"It's simple, if they want to know, then tell them, and they don't need to pay any price." Yang Chen faced the master of the palace, and did not hide his plan, telling the truth "Anyway, that kind of thing is something that can be met but not sought after. It's really a blessing to meet someone, so it's okay to tell them."

"Then aren't you at a loss?" Hearing that Yang Chen wanted to tell others everything for free, the palace master immediately felt a little bit reluctant. Why shouldn't people from other sects pay a little for the things his own disciples have researched? Just pay and know?

"No loss, no loss." Yang Chen laughed. The master of the palace is a fan of the authorities. This kind of great reputation, just like discovering the acquired spiritual root back then, can establish the capital of his status as a great master, it won't be a loss either.

The master of the palace also understood that he was a little petty. He was also a master of the Dacheng stage now, not the kind of half-hearted cultivator who couldn't see the future at the end of the Yuanying stage, and is so inseparable from the opportunity that few talents will have in the future, he is definitely a big man. The performance that a master should have, thinking of this, the palace master couldn't help but feel a little ashamed.

With Yang Chen's tone, the master of the palace was no longer in a hurry. The two of them didn't care how many people in Meiqing Mountain were waiting to see Yang Chen, they had to meet them in the sect first before talking. Want something good, you also have to have that patience, you can't eat hot tofu in a hurry, right?

Yang Chen was leisurely with the master of the palace, but Fairy Junqi, Fairy Qingmu and the Murong sisters were the first to be asked by the representative of their sects whether Yang Chen had revealed anything about raising the acquired spiritual root. In this regard, as people around Yang Chen, they should have the most advantage.

However, the seven women now each have a certain status in the sect. Those sect representatives who came to the Pure Yang Palace for negotiation did not dare to be rude to them easily. What's more, the representatives of the sects are generally elders of the Yuanying stage when there is no important matter. When facing them, they always ask for advice respectfully after paying a big gift first.

It's a pity that the seven women didn't hear Yang Chen talk about raising the acquired spiritual root. The things about the merit method, except Li Cheng, only Yang Chen knew about it, no one else. Even Gao Yue doesn't understand now, let alone the concubines.

Although they couldn't get a definite answer from the seven girls, the representatives of each sect begged the seven girls to speak more kind words in front of Yang Chen, and let the sect get as much secret as possible. Even if they can't know the secret, they have to seek a result that can be bought at a high price, here's the bottom line.

The seven women did not give any guarantees. Just like the vast majority of masters of the Dacheng stage of the sect, when they reached their level, if it wasn't for the sect's life-and-death event, the key point would be the event of a fifth grade alchemist like Yang Chen. Generally speaking, they will cultivate diligently in order to ascend.

This is also the reason why most sect masters and elders in charge of some trivial matters are in the Yuanying stage, and they are true masters in the Dacheng stage will only take the name of an elder in the Dacheng stage, and doesn't care much about the affairs of the sect. Of course, those guys who like to fight for power and profit are exceptions.

However, speaking of it, the current sect masters of the five major sects are all masters of the Dacheng stage, and none of them will fail. At least one of the Seven Emotions Pills that Yang Chen sold back then was used on the sect masters of the various sects. In just a few years, the several sect masters all passed their tribulations, and countless people began to covet Yang Chen's seven emotions and six desires pills.

Yang Chen finally appeared in front of hundreds of representatives of various sects in the anticipation of everyone. Under the expectant eyes of a thousand people, Yang Chen told them with certainty that he had discovered a possibility decades ago. The treasures of heaven, material and earth that enhance the acquired spiritual root. Because he was not sure, he tested it with a few disciples of the Pure Yang Palace. From the current results, it seems that such things can indeed have the effect of improving the acquired spiritual root.

As soon as this sentence was announced, the whole scene erupted, countless people scrambled to ask Yang Chen what kind of treasure it was. They wished they could know the name right away and go all over the world to find it.

It's better that the master of the palace has a way to come forward directly to make everyone calm down. Yang Chen has already written down the discovered treasures of heaven and earth and the results of his guesses. If all parties want it, they can go to the Pure Yang Palace treasure pavilion or ten thousand building to buy the recorded jade slips at any time. Of course, there is also some detailed analysis of the acquired spiritual root on this jade slip. As long as a piece of jade slip is in hand, basically everything about the acquired spiritual root can be known.

This time, in order to benefit fellow cultivators, the Pure Yang Palace will not accept any money for this part of the content. As long as you are interested, you can buy it at any time, as long as you pay for the jade slip and the cost of engraving the jade slip. Of course, the treasure pavilion and ten thousand building will still make a small profit, no matter how small a mosquito is, it is still meat, isn't it?

The answer given by the Pure Yang Palace made everyone ecstatic and satisfied. If such an answer is not satisfactory, then there is nothing to say, and you can do it directly.

In an instant, a large group of people began to flock to the Pavilion and ten thousand building, and the mountain gate of the Pure Yang Palace was immediately much cleaner. On the contrary, the representatives of several big sects still held their breath, and they greatly praised Yang Chen and the Pure Yang Palace for their actions to benefit their fellows, and then they left satisfied.

"Husband, what exactly is it that can improve the postnatal spiritual root?" When the crowd dispersed and the seven girls returned to Yang Chen, they had a chance to ask Yang Chen. They are purely curious, this has already been announced, there is no such thing as asking for secrets.

"It's the Immortal peach we found together last time." Yang Chen didn't hide it, the jade slip recorded that Yang Chen brought the seven girls to find the Immortal peach together, and the same kind of peach that the old man held in his hand, it didn't use merit Refining is a good thing that can really improve the acquired spiritual root, and it will never lie. It's just that Yang Chen didn't use that kind of thing.

"Husband, you used the Immortal peaches to make alchemy, isn't it delaying your recovery to your true essence?" Tao Junqi now doesn't care about other things, and is directly concerned about Yang Chen's body. The last time they went looking for the Immortal peach, they just wanted to replenish his true essence, so if they split up some more, wouldn't it delay Yang Chen's recovery?

Chapter 700: : Academic Leaders

“Don’t worry.” Yang Chen also benefited from Tao Junqi’s concern, and gave her a reassuring answer before slowly explaining to the other six girls who were also worried “The peach pit of that Immortal peach and the half of the pulp has been taken by me, my life essence has already been restored, so don’t worry.”

If Yang Chen said this before the concubines refined the Immortal peaches, they might have been a little worried, but they had just refined those Immortal peaches, so they naturally understood the effects of the Immortal peaches.

You must know that each of the peaches that the seven girls got is just a little bit of aura from the real peaches, and it already has such an effect. After transformation, Tao Junqi has steadily entered the realm of the peak Dacheng stage and it was related to that false Immortal peach.

This is not the real Immortal peach, but it already has such a powerful effect, how powerful the real Immortal peach is, it is simply unimaginable. Yang Chen said that using a whole peach and half of the pulp to replenish the life source should be more than enough.

“The rest of the half is not easy with the help of the tortoise fourth grade Earth Immortal realm spiritual awareness, the essence of the Immortal peach was refined into the fifth grade body refining pill.” Since Yang Chen started to talk, he simply made up the story. In the end, it also allowed the seven women to have an explanation in front of their sect in the future, and also blocked the way for someone to ask for his help.

If you want this kind of elixir, you need to find the Immortal Peach, which has the same effect as a heaven and earth treasure, and then find someone whose spiritual awareness has reached the level of the Earth Immortal realm.

In the piece of jade slip that was sold, apart from stating that Yang Chen used Immortal peaches, there were also several things that were said to be guesses by Yang Chen. All can achieve the effect of enhancing the postnatal spiritual root. Of course, those are real natural treasures that are almost rarer than rare ones. Even Yang Chen in his previous life had only heard of these things but he had never seen them before. If someone can really find it, it is definitely a blessing that connects the heavens, with this kind of blessing, there is absolutely no problem in improving the postnatal spiritual root.

In particular, Yang Chen has asserted that this method of improving the postnatal spiritual root can only have a very obvious effect before it has been baptized by the raging wind tribulation. It’s not that Yang Chen has never met a ninth grade alchemist in his previous life, but only after arriving in the spiritual world and Immortal world. Even if one refines a ninth-grade pill and wants to improve the spiritual root, it is just like the fifth-grade pill that Yang Chen gave Hua Mengyou back then, only a little improvement would occur, it was impossible to have the effect of these merit pills.

The lower the level of cultivation, the better the effect of the body refining pill. If it is a person who has never cultivated before, maybe after taking one, they can directly reach the full value of one or even two postnatal spiritual roots. This is the case with things that change the foundation. The lower the level, the more effective it is, and the higher the level of cultivation, the lower the effect.

However, some wealthy sects or families can't stand it, and are willing to pay a high price to find a good foundation for their descendants. If there is such luck to get such natural materials and earthly treasures. At this time, there is a difference between refined Immortal peaches and unrefined ones.

Yang Chen was afraid of trouble, so he directly said he used the spiritual awareness of the Earth Immortal realm to help refine it, blocking the way for others to seek the alchemy.

After all, it is to improve the postnatal spiritual root. This is a heaven-defying thing, otherwise it would not consume a lot of merit. Except for guys who are so strong that they are blessed to the sky, even for Yang Chen, it is not so easy to improve. Yang Chen cultivated old demon Yi demonic art, and then he had the opportunity to kill tens of thousands of Immortals, so he now has full postnatal spiritual roots. Without this opportunity, Yang Chen might not be able to kill all the people in the world if he wanted to achieve the current effect.

Unless it is someone close to Yang Chen, Yang Chen will never be willing to use his massive merits to help others against the heavens. Cultivation should be open-minded, but it does not mean that people will be good people and give everything for others.

Yang Chen's article was an academic paper in his world, and it directly received the attention of countless master-level people. Combined with the article he published earlier on the discovery of the postnatal spiritual root, it was a whole authoritative document on the study of the postnatal spiritual root. To use a more modern word to describe it, Yang Chen was now an absolute authority in the study of postnatal spiritual roots, an academic leader, and no one else.

Although Yang Chen successfully used an article to solve the threat of the Pure Yang Palace becoming the target of public criticism, he did not expect what kind of influence he would have on the cultivators. Countless cultivators, except for a very small number of cultivators, no matter whether they are masters of the Dacheng stage who are about to pass through the tribulation or the juniors of the qi refining stage who have just started to cultivate, from top to bottom there has been a search for treasures which can improve the postnatal spiritual root.

This is not counted, and even the cultivators have set a level for this type of spirit, called the spirit root level. Spirit root-level treasures of the heavens, material and earth are the highest level above all existing spirit levels. Even if it is an elixir that can bring the dead back to life, it is only at the life and death level, one level lower than the spiritual root level.

The very small group of people who didn't look for it and don't pay attention to it are geniuses like Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue who are already full of innate spiritual roots, or Gao Yue who had full postnatal spiritual roots. Well, their excellent aptitudes allow them to improve their spiritual roots without using these extraneous things, they don't know how many people are envious of them.

It's a pity that since it is a spirit root level, how can it be easily found? How many people hold this purpose and search for it for hundreds of years, wasting years and wasting their cultivation, but they just end up empty-handed.

On the contrary, people from the three major sects intend to imitate Yang Chen and search for them from some legends, but the accumulation of this kind of great sects, just the legend books that have nothing to do with cultivation is worth tens of millions. It's not an exaggeration, how many people can have the memory like Yang Chen? Besides, Yang Chen was just using that as a cover, the real secret was still obtained from the Immortal realm and the memories of his previous life, even if there really was such a person, he searched all the legends in the world, but he couldn't find him.

Anyway, the Pure Yang Palace finally calmed down, but Yang Chen's reputation became greater and better. Even in pure theoretical research, Yang Chen is not inferior to countless great masters. Just relying on his postnatal spiritual root research is enough to become a member of the great masters.

Just when countless people started looking for spiritual objects, Yang Chen issued a reward through the Pure Yang Palace and Wine Immortal, that he was using the Seven Emotions and Six Desire Pills in exchange for top-level Xinjin materials. Yang Chen wants to successfully refine the Xinjin Feijian before the Langya Well is opened, and completely assemble the Great Yin-Yang Five Elements Flying Sword.
