Chapter 711: Attack

“Grandmaster Yang’s ship, can it board the Langya crystal ship?” In a certain mysterious space, more than a dozen people were discussing in low voices.

This is a space similar to a medicine garden, carried by a cultivator and then can bring several or even more people along at the same time. However, although there are such good things, there are not many people who are truly trustworthy, and there are only a dozen people here.

No one dares to bring too many companions that he can’t trust in this kind of space casually. Once someone has evil intentions and boards the Langya crystal ship, it may be their own death. Speaking of which, Yang Chen’s family doesn’t have to worry about these things at all. After all, they are still a family, right?

“I don’t know.” Someone immediately answered the question “In the weak water, no one can guarantee that any magic weapon will definitely work, and the boat-shaped magic weapon may not be suitable. In this weak water, I don’t know how many such magic weapons have been submerged. “

Those who answered were very uncertain, and everyone understood. There is no way, many people have gone out from Langya Well, but even more people have been lost here. Many people thought that the magic weapon they refined could come and go freely in the weak water, but they realized only when they got here that it was just wishful thinking.

No one is willing to experiment easily. Once it fails, they will not only lose a magic weapon, but also lose their own life.

The huge lake in Langya Well looks normal, and there are even live fish swimming in it. But anyone who has studied the legend of Langya Well will understand that the water under the lake is all the legendary weak water, a kind of water that cannot carry anything.

If it’s just that, it’s easy, but the key point is that the Langya crystal ship, which claims to be full of treasures, is in the weak water. They didn’t know how they created a magic weapon back then, which could float and sink freely in the weak water.

The weak water claims to be able to block all spiritual awareness probes. As a result, all underwater situations cannot be found out with spiritual awareness, but can be seen with the naked eye. People can capture the shadow of the Langya crystal ship because they can see it.

The huge lake with a radius of thousands of miles can almost be called an ocean. No one knows where the Langya crystal ship will appear, so what everyone has to do now is to find the whereabouts of the Langya crystal ship. In the meantime, the easy thing to do is minimize competitors as much as possible.

There is ordinary water above the lake, and Gongsun Ling's boat floated on the water easily, and then slowly drove towards the center of the lake. Except for Yang Chen who was sitting in the cabin like a master, the other women all occupied their own direction, staring closely at the movement underwater.

The ship's goal is big and obvious. Within a few hundred miles around, at least a few groups of people approached, and everyone surrounded Yang Chen in a tacit understanding, as if they wanted to follow Yang Chen to find the trace of the crystal ship.

Yang Chen's reputation for being well-read has spread widely. Countless people prefer to believe that Yang Chen has found some detailed records about the Langya crystal ship, and there must be very rare treasures, that's why he was here. Otherwise a fifth-grade alchemist with a bright future doesn't need anything, so there is no need to bring his family here to take risks just for something worth a few spirit stones.

Based on this premise, for the time being, no one will take action against Yang Chen's family. Besides, among the twelve members of Yang Chen's family, there are seven Dacheng stage masters, including Tao Junqi who is at the peak Dacheng stage. This strong personal power alone is enough to deter many people, this is not counting the sect behind the girls. The five major sects of the dao domain are all here, as long as you have a little brain, no one would dare to offend so many super sects at the same time.

But in some other directions, it is not so peaceful. Entering the Langya Well is only the first step, the next step is to look for the Langya crystal boat, some people have sharp eyes, and from time to time they will find some shadows of boats underwater, thinking that they have hit a big luck and found the Langya crystal boat. Later, as long as they behave differently, they will be attacked by the people around them without mercy.

There are tens of thousands of people in the lake with a radius of ten thousand miles. Even if it is evenly distributed, there must be others within a few hundred miles. The distance of a mere hundred miles really can't stop the spiritual awareness exploration of some cultivators, so several places are already bloody slaughterhouses.

Everyone knows that boarding the Langya crystal ship early means the greatest opportunity, no one wants others to discover the crystal ship earlier than themselves, so it was inevitable for this to happen.

"There are people underwater." Sun Qingxue crawled on the side of the boat, and next to her was Yang Chen who was forcibly pulled out by her, and was sitting on the side slowly sipping tea. Sun Qingxue's feet were swinging around Yang Chen, but her eyes were fixed on the water outside the boat. Seeing the shadow of someone, she immediately screamed out.

As soon as Sun Qingxue called out, the rest of the girls gathered together and looked down carefully. Soon, the girls discovered that there seemed to be real people underwater, and there were more than one.

"You don't need to look, they are all corpses." Yang Chen didn't probe at all, as if everything was under control, and explained lightly: "In the weak water, how many years of corpses will not rot, that is unknown how many years have these people been dead."

It is very normal to die in Langya Well. Yang Chen will not have any sympathy for these people, the path is chosen by themselves, no one forces them to come in, since they come in, they must have the consciousness of death. Of course, this mentality does not include Yang Chen himself and his wives and concubines.

The water here is really clear, you can almost see the bottom of the lake at a glance, and you don't know how deep it is, anyway, no one dares to try it easily.

The ship of Yang Chen's family, like an ordinary fishing boat, has been moving slowly in one direction. It's been a long time, but it's only a few hundred miles. Yang Chen's family, especially Yang Chen, didn't show any urgency at all. Except for the girls who were still staring at the bottom of the boat at the beginning, they were all sitting on the deck now. What should they do? Next, Sun Qingxue was still staring at the bottom of the water unwillingly.

“Following like this, when will it be time?” The people who were secretly tracking Yang Chen’s family finally lost their patience. Seeing that many people had already rushed to the center of the lake, they had only traveled a few hundred miles. Everyone understands that the center must have more chances than the fringe. Even if there is a chance in this posture, they have delayed it.

“Anyway, we’ve already arrived here. There is no way to go to the sky or to the earth. Why do we have to be so secretive?” The impatient people began to go crazy “It’s the same if we do it early or late, if we have to do it, we should do it!”

Chapter 712: : Shi Shanshan’s Strength

As if they had made an appointment, figures appeared in several directions around the boat. At first there were only a dozen people, but as they slowly approached, the number became hundreds.

Among the people who came around, there were Yuanying stage masters, but most of them were Dacheng stage masters. The cultivation of Yang Chen’s family has never been concealed from the outside world. If they want to target them, they must naturally have enough Dacheng stage masters. Now it seems that these people are well prepared.

“Grandmaster Yang, far sighted people don’t speak coded words!” There were at least 30 people facing the bow of the boat, and a master in the late Dacheng stage came out more and shouted to them “We all know that Grandmaster Yang is well read, you must know about the Langya Crystal Ship. I don’t care about myself, as long as the master tells the secret of the Langya Crystal Ship, I will turn around and leave, and I will never embarrass the master’s family.”

The voice of this Dacheng stage master spread far and wide, not only Yang Chen’s family, but also those around him could hear it clearly. Everyone around him seemed to agree with his words, they all stopped and waited for Yang Chen’s reply.

Almost everyone’s eyes were focused on Yang Chen. Of course, there were eleven pairs of beautiful eyes staring at Yang Chen from a close distance, looking at Yang Chen’s face. It wasn’t just outsiders who were puzzled, even Yang Chen’s wives and concubines didn’t know Yang Chen’s specific plan this time.

“You guys do it, or should I do it?” Unexpectedly, Yang Chen just smiled and asked the wives and concubines around him, and then explained a little: “You know, my life source flying sword also needs training, when they add up, it’s barely enough.”

Yang Chen’s voice was not high, but what kind of cultivation base are the guys around, how can they not hear? Yang Chen’s attitude simply didn’t take them seriously.

“Husband, drink tea first!” Before everyone could react, a figure rushed out first. The figure had already rushed a hundred feet away, and the voice floated over from afar. It was Shi Shanshan, the cold plum fairy.

Shi Shanshan has been refining the Supreme Pure Yang Sword Qi in sea eye for these years. Needless to say, she has endured hardships, especially before the retreat the sect was involved in the incident of attacking the Pure Yang Palace, although it was not the intention of the sect, but in the end it also made Shi Shanshan very unhappy.

Unpleasant feelings accumulated before and after. Even if she had been able to suppress such negative emotions after experiencing the Demon Continent, Shi Shanshan would inevitably feel a little depressed and needed to vent it completely. It was impossible for Shi Shanshan to vent her anger at Yang Chen and his new concubines. These guys in front of her are just the right targets for her.

The cultivator who just spoke was also the leader of their group, although his cultivation base is only at the late Dacheng stage, he has rich combat experience, and he believes that he has cultivated a superb technique, so he is not inferior to Tao Junqi, who is at the peak Dacheng stage. This is also his confidence to stand up against Yang Chen’s family.

Seeing Shi Shanshan flying directly towards him, the master of the late Dacheng stage showed a smirk on his face, and before Shi Shanshan’s figure approached, a cold snort had already spread around “Senior, don’t drink fine wine. Hmph, grandmaster Yang, the cold plum fairy has been cultivating endlessly, and I am not a person who cherishes beauty. Uh...”

The slightly threatening tone was directly interrupted by an uh sound from his own throat. Before everyone could react to what happened, the master’s body burst open, boom. The cultivator exploded into a cloud of blood and scattered in the air. Not even the fragments larger than the size of a hair were left, and he was completely turned into blood-colored, fine, finer fragments.

The cultivator's companions didn't know what happened at all, it happened so fast, apart from Yang Chen, Shi Shanshan, even Gao Yue and the others didn't expect it.

Shi Shanshan's figure had already turned to another direction, but the rain of blood hadn't completely exploded. When all the debris started to fall down, there was another explosion sound from another direction.

It was also a rain of red blood that exploded. This time, everyone almost went crazy. The same late Dacheng stage master was killed by a junior of the late Yuanying stage, but everyone didn't see clearly what method Shi Shanshan used.

Fear has crept into everyone's hearts, the cold plum fairy has not been out for training for a long time, so many people have forgotten the cold plum fairy's vicious name. Even some old fellows, no matter how much they usually despise the cold plum fairy for relying on the influence of the sect to gain such a reputation, they have to be careful at this moment, lest they become the next one.

The body of the third cultivator exploded again. He even sacrificed his life source magic weapon and powerful protective magic weapon, but the result did not change at all. Immediately behind them were two groups of blood mist that exploded in two other directions.

Shi Shanshan's body flew back to the boat like a high-speed arrow, but around the boat, five masters had already paid the price with their lives. Of course, it's not just that, it may be more appropriate to describe it with no bones left. Once out and in, the rabbit rises and falls, neat and tidy, which makes people dumbfounded.

"I'm happy, it's your turn." Following Shi Shanshan's stern words, Shi Shanshan's figure directly threw herself into Yang Chen's arms. Yang Chen seemed to have a tacit understanding with her, and he stretched out his arms to wrap around Shi Shanshan's slender waist. One hand has already put a cup of freshly brewed tea near her mouth: "It's just brewed, and the heat is just right."

When others watched this scene, they only felt chills all over their bodies. Shi Shanshan looked majestic, but Yang Chen could feel the slight trembling of her muscles under the surface of her body. Holding Shi Shanshan's slender waist, he calmly injected a wave of spiritual power to help Shi Shanshan suppress the surge of qi and blood caused by using five sword qi at once.

“Sister Shanshan is so majestic!” Sun Qingxue, the little girl, yelled out of fear that the world would not be chaotic. Afterwards, her body seemed to shoot out of electricity in accordance with Shi Shanshan’s words just now. While she was in the air, her life source flying sword flew out of her body and flew towards the group of people closest to her.

Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters flew out immediately after. Shi Shanshan’s attack really shocked them, especially Shi Shanshan was only having a late Yuanying stage cultivation base. Could it be that she is so powerful after experiencing the Demon Continent? They can’t lose to Shi Shanshan, who is an elder sister in their family, but according to her sect’s seniority and cultivation base, she can only be regarded as the wife of Yang Chen, who is a junior, right?

Chapter 713: : Vicious Killings

In the eyes of those who surrounded Yang Chen’s family, Shi Shanshan had made them fall into an abyss of fear since she rushed out.

The five cultivators who were almost the strongest were killed by Shi Shanshan in an instant. Before they were really ready to fight back, the sudden appearance of seven iron-winged eagles at the peak Dacheng stage directly lowered their courage to the minimum.

No one knew how the seven iron-winged eagles appeared, but one thing was certain, they were definitely not from their own side. Because on the backs of the seven iron-winged eagles, there was a woman beside Yang Chen riding on them, flying towards the outer circle at high speed.

Yes, that’s right, their goal is the outermost area, to surround these guys who jumped out. With the speed of the Iron Wing Flying Eagle, at this distance, no cultivator can escape their pursuit. Not to mention these guys who don’t know the situation, even Yang Chen dare not say that he can surpass the speed of the Iron Wing Flying Eagle by driving the flying shuttle. A natural high-speed bird has such a talent that sometimes makes people desperate.

After so many years, the cooperation between the seven girls and their monster pets can be said to be very familiar. Under the communication and command of the seven iron-winged eagles using Yang Chen’s beast control art, they are like their own body extensions.

After confirming that they had reached the position where these enemies could no longer escape, the seven girls turned around and came back. Those guys who surrounded Yang Chen's family would never have imagined that they would be surrounded by Yang Chen and the others. In this situation, apart from going down into the lake to face the weak water, there was no direction for them to escape, whether from the surroundings or from the sky.

Behind the Iron Wing Flying Eagle and the seven girls had already begun to kill fiercely. The surrounded guys were like birds in a cage at this moment, and the strongest ones were killed right from the start. For the rest, there was nothing else to come out except for the neck-to-neck killing.

Needless to say, all of them are masters in the Yuanying and Dacheng stage. Faced with such a situation, everyone understands that it is impossible to be kind. There is no other way than to fight with all their strength. Now surrounded by the seven girls and Iron Wing Flying Eagle outside, everyone's ideas immediately went to the innermost part of the circle.

Shi Shanshan is fierce, everyone admits this. However, she is now curled up in Yang Chen's arms, her body began to tremble slightly. Seeing this situation, how could those people not understand that Shi Shanshan must have used some method beyond her current state just now to cause this. Judging by her appearance, it seems that she has no ability to do anything next.

Yang Chen has always had the title of alchemy master of the fifth grade, no one has ever heard of how powerful Yang Chen was in battle. As for Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling, relatively speaking, in addition to the reputation of being beautiful, it is because they are both Yang Chen's wives that they are famous all over the world, and they do not have a reputation for being truly fierce. The only thing to consider may be Sun Qingxue, this disciple of elder Hua of the Blue Cloud Sect doesn't seem to be a soft persimmon either.

However, compared with the seven peak Dacheng stage Iron Wing Flying Eagles and the seven Dacheng stage female masters in the periphery, Yang Chen and his four wives in the circle are all Yuanying stage masters, Shi Shanshan and Yang Chen can be ignored. The strongest one seems to be Gongsun Ling, she was at the peak Yuanying stage so dealing with them was always easier than dealing with outsiders.

In desperation, many people will lose their judgment and will only use the most basic common sense to speculate on certain results. From this point of view, the enemies who surrounded Yang Chen indeed chose a good direction to defeat them. As long as they can control any one of the girls, Yang Chen will give in, there is no doubt about it. Maybe they could still control Yang Chen, that would be even more perfect.

The dozen or so cultivators in the inner circle rushed up immediately, and Sun Qingxue had already rushed into the crowd on her own initiative, and was immediately trapped by five or six people. Who would let this opportunity pass?

To everyone's surprise, so many people stepped onto the deck of the tall ship without any hindrance. But at this moment, Gongsun Ling, who has the strongest cultivation base, was actually holding a plate of side dishes that they don't know where she got in one hand, and is placing them on the jade table in front of Yang Chen, without even looking at the one who rushed up.

"Your opponent is me." Gao Yue's gentle voice came into everyone's ears softly and quietly, and then the people who rushed to the boat felt their aura stagnate, and for some reason, their bodies seemed to be completely affected, even the mobilization of the spiritual power that was invincible in the past seems to have stagnated a lot.

This feeling is like being suddenly put on an invisible shackle by someone, which is extremely uncomfortable. Under such circumstances, it is a blessing to be able to display half of one's combat power. To use an unpleasant description, it was as if they had suddenly fallen from the Dacheng stage to the Yuanying stage.

In fact, this is exactly the case, Gao Yue, who absorbed the aura of the human emperor, and later absorbed the aura of the demon emperor, the monster emperor, and the Immortal emperor, once the aura of the emperor is released, the effect achieved is to knock down one of the enemies in the big realm. Enemies in the Dacheng stage are directly equivalent to becoming Yuanying stage, at present, there is basically no way to resist.

Amidst the horror and fear of a group of enemies, Gao Yue smiled and showed two flying swords, one red and one green, holding them in her hands, and walked towards a few guys who didn't understand what happened.

Two flying swords with unique shapes and some dragon horn characteristics, the group of enemies didn't even know what material they were made of. Apart from being able to judge that it must be very advanced, there is no other cognition. However, when Gao Yue's flying sword fell, they still knew to resist.

Chi chi, two extremely slight voices sounded after Gao Yue's flying sword came into contact with the two enemies, and the figures of the two enemies who had sacrificed their flying swords to resist suddenly stopped in place, maintaining their previous posture of holding the sword and controlling the sword. Only the flying sword in the air seemed to lose control suddenly and fell down suddenly.

With a clang, the two falling flying swords hit the ground and suddenly turned into four pieces, and the cuts were as smooth as a mirror. At the same time, two thin red lines suddenly appeared on the two bodies that stayed in place. In the blink of an eye, the red lines became more and more obvious and thicker into four pieces.

The rest were almost dead souls, Gao Yue actually beheaded their two companions with flying swords with one hand, how could this be possible? Isn't she just a junior in the late Yuanying stage?

"Yang Chen, it really is you who make the sword more enjoyable like this." Gao Yue smiled, and couldn't see the disgusting expression of beheading the two people just now. On the contrary, she talked with Yang Chen with great interest.

Chapter 714: : Chat Before Killing

"I hate it, sister, do you let husband watch these corpses while drinking?" Before Yang Chen could speak, Gongsun Ling was already stomping beside her and began to complain: "It's a small banquet carefully prepared for husband."

Gongsun Ling, who was complaining, was suddenly embraced by Yang Chen's other empty hand. He laughed and kissed her cheek, she became much more obedient, and she didn't speak anymore, and immediately found a jug from nowhere. After the jade cup was filled, it was handed over to Yang Chen's mouth.

"Wine on the head, how pleasant!" Yang Chen's voice resounded boldly, and then drank the wine in Gongsun Ling's cup in one gulp. Immediately afterwards, Gongsun Ling brought another small dish to Yang Chen's mouth.

The enemy was in front of him, but Yang Chen was holding his wife with one arm. It was not an exaggeration to describe such enjoyment as someone who is like no one else.

However, for Yang Chen and their enemies, Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling's move was already a clear and unmistakable announcement, they were not taken seriously at all. Is there anything more insulting than turning a blind eye?

It was time for Yang Chen to drink and eat food, and another enemy's head flew up, and at the same time, he became two halves with his sword.

Everyone began to notice the horror of the two flying swords in Gao Yue's hand. No matter what kind of magic weapon the opponent had, as long as they came into contact with the sword in Gao Yue's hand, they would be cut into two pieces with ease. At least until now, there was no surprises yet.

When Gao Gao and Gongsun Ling went out to cultivate, few people saw their weapons. The opponents had studied the people around Yang Chen, but most of their attention would be attracted by Sun Qingxue and Shi Shanshan. Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling, two women who were only born in the Pure Yang Palace, could not help but be underestimated.

There is no other way, if you are not from a great sect, there was such a disadvantage. Everyone's first impression was that they were close and they got married to Yang Chen, that's all. As for how strong their combat power is, it has never been included in the scope of attention.

"You can only kill five!" The battle here was fierce, but Shi Shanshan had already recovered, her body no longer trembled, but she couldn't continue to fight for the time being. However, she is not willing to show weakness, for fear of being overtaken by the girls, she immediately shouted at the girls.

"Five is five!" Gao Yue said loudly, the sword in her hand had already slashed at another enemy. She had just beheaded three of them, and she was experiencing this completely different feeling from killing, she didn't feel that there was anything wrong with Shi Shanshan's words.

Sun Qingxue who rushed into the crowd showed a completely different performance. Behind her flying sword, there was a soft and flexible rattan which is very strange connected her with flying sword. This also makes her way of swinging the sword different from others, and also different from Yang Chen's way of slashing with the handle of the sword. The rattan is like Sun Qingxue's extended arm, light and agile, making it hard to guard against.

This vine is basically the result of refining the ultimate demonized demon vine after the blue jade blood demon vine seed was conceived by Yang Chen, it can barely be regarded as the blue jade blood demon vine. After so many years of refining, it has become another means for her to control the sword. At this time, it happened to take it out to try its power on these people.

Just after a while, Sun Qingxue's flying sword had penetrated the chests of two masters at the early Dacheng stage, and was heading towards the head of the third enemy.

"Hmph, then I can only take advantage of Sister Ling!" Hearing Shi Shanshan and Gao Yue's words, Sun Qingxue seemed a little unconvinced. But she would never confront Gao Yue and Shi Shanshan, so she could only complain. Then she commanded the blue jade blood demon vine to strangle the neck of the third enemy. After sucking all the blood from his body, the flying sword landed on the fourth enemy's head.

The seven girls on the periphery were in high spirits when they suddenly heard Shi Shanshan and Gao Yue's words, and of course they also heard Gongsun Ling's words. Although they don't understand what Gongsun Ling means by being cheaper, since Gao Yue and Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue only killed five, it is naturally not easy for them to kill more. Gao Yue and the others are wives, they are concubines, and those who are called sisters cannot surpass them.

Of course, the seven girls has never seen the true power of the four women, this time it can be regarded as the tip of the iceberg. They were surprised when Shi Shanshan killed the five cultivators, but Gao Yue's easy killing of five people on the deck of the ship also shocked them, and at the same time they were puzzled. The first time they saw Gao Yue's flying sword, it really opened their eyes.

Relatively speaking, Sun Qingxue's performance was a bit mediocre. Except for the weird blue jade blood demon vine, which is a bit confusing, the other places seem to be normal. Of course, there are also abnormal situations, Sun Qingxue was only in the late Yuanying stage, but those who killed were all masters in the Dacheng stage.

Gongsun Ling has not done anything yet, but the seven girls has already admired this sister from the bottom of their heart. Even if they were able to leapfrog and kill cultivators back then, they were only able to kill one-on-one, and one-on-many was simply impossible. But the situation in front of them is that the three women beheading the masters of the Dacheng stage is like picking something out of a bag, which makes people unbelievable.

While admiring, the seven girls immediately stopped. Strictly speaking, each of them killed more than five, but if the Iron Wing Flying Eagle was counted, it was just not enough, and it barely exceeded Shi Shanshan's requirement.

"It can't be said to be cheap to me!" The seven girls stopped their hands here, and Gongsun Ling on the other side had already got up from Yang Chen's arms, stood up, and continued Sun Qingxue's words in her mouth and said "It's very troublesome, If you want to condense your spiritual power, you still have to do it. There are many things to refine and purify."

Only half of the guys who surrounded Yang Chen's family just now remained. The rest of them are also a little bit frightened. In front of Yang Chen's family, they were like lambs waiting to be slaughtered, with no room for resistance. This is still the situation where Yang Chen hasn't made a move yet, they really don't know what will happen if Yang Chen also makes a move.

The seven girls were still wondering what Gongsun Ling meant by condensing spiritual power, refining, but Gongsun Ling had already started. Under the bewildered eyes of the seven girls, Gongsun Ling seemed to have done nothing, but the girls felt that the scene in front of them changed drastically in a flash. Those remaining guys suddenly disappeared without a trace, as if they had never appeared before.

"It's not good to not say anything before killing someone. It's not good!" Before the seven girl's doubts were answered, Yang Chen's voice sounded like an order: "Before killing people, you must speak clearly. At least you have to say something, just one sentence!"

"Which one do you want to say?" Shi Shanshan asked with a smile while she was still in Yang Chen's arms.

"The injustice has its head, and the debt has its owner!"

Chapter 715: : Langya Crystal Ship

After teasing with the girls, Yang Chen sat quietly on the boat again and enjoyed a wine tasting tour. Anyway, the place where the Langya crystal ship will appear is not fixed, and no one knows where it will appear, so the wanderer may also be able to hit the big luck.

It doesn't matter even if it doesn't happen, when the Langya Crystal Ship appears, the sky will be very abnormal, anyone can notice it, and will never miss it. Besides, the Langya crystal ship has existed for a long time after it appeared, even if it is thousands of miles away, there is still enough time to rush over, so there is no rush.

Now what everyone has to guard against is some guys who plan to take advantage of the moment to eliminate competitors in advance. The group just now has been killed, but no one can guarantee that it will not reappear later. Resources touch people's hearts, not to mention it is a treasure of cultivation, isn't it?

Everyone happily started to share the Qiankun bags they got. The ones who could come in were the guys with some family background. Each of the girls got a few Qiankun bags, and all of them were smiling. Getting a lot of wealth out of thin air would make anyone happy.

While happy, Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters were shocked by the fighting power of Yang Chen's four regular wives.

The four fairies and one husband are already a good talk among the cultivators, but in the eyes of the concubines the four fairies were not so convincing. In particular, the four women only have Yuanying stage cultivation base but can be Yang Chen's wives, but they can only be concubines.

Originally they thought that although the four women were well-known, even after experiencing the Demon Continent, they were at best having the fighting power of the peak Yuanying stage. This was also an important reason why the seven girls could raise their heads in front of the four women. Even in terms of etiquette, Gao Yue and others should be respected, but in terms of strength, they have their own reasons to be proud.

But the hands-on situation just now shocked the seven girls. The cold plum fairy in the late Yuanying stage came up and killed the five most powerful ones, and then Sun Qingxue and Gao Yue also showed fighting strength no less than that of the cold plum fairy, and Gongsun Ling's attack in the end was even more shocking.

How powerful do you have to be to make dozens of Dacheng stage masters disappear without a trace with a wave of your hand? Even if the seven girls add up, it was impossible to do so easily.

The means displayed by the four women each make people fearful. Except for Sun Qingxue's attack which seemed a little normal, everyone else was a shocking miracle. Even the weird vine that Sun Qingxue used to control her flying sword has an inexplicable mystery.

As for the horrifying aura of Gao Yue's attack, and the situation in which the seven girls found out that their cultivation was being suppressed, people couldn't help but be convinced by this eldest sister. That aura, it seems that in front of her, all the girls should bow their heads and call her elder sister.

Speaking of which, Gao Yue, Shi Shanshan and the others seemed to be used to all kinds of weirdness in the battle, which only showed that they already knew each other very well. At this point, the concubines seems to have not yet integrated into this circle, at least they still don't understand how Gao Yue and the others did it.

Could it be that this is the benefit of going through the Demon Continent experience? None of the seven girls have ever been to the Demon Continent, so they dare not guess. However, Yang Chen and the four women who had been to the Demon Continent did not talk about the matter of the Demon Continent, which made the seven girls curious and also a little disappointed.

Generally speaking, Gao Yue and the others have fully demonstrated their combat effectiveness no less than that of Tao Junqi. Even more than that, the seven girls also felt that invisible pressure. High realm does not mean everything, the little pride they had before has disappeared without a trace. There are also some small changes in the eyes of the four wives.

Perhaps it was because during the battle just now, the aura released by so many iron-winged eagles was too scary, so that no one with malicious intentions appeared in this direction. Even if someone notices the movement here from a distance, they will avoid it if they are hundreds of miles away, no one came to die.

The short-lived peace is not like this in all places, except within a hundred miles of the ship where Yang Chen's family is, in other places, it seems that everyone has been aroused fiercely, and there are crazy fights everywhere.

Those who can enter Langya Well are almost all masters above the Yuanying stage, so the movement of making moves is naturally not small. But for the Yang Chen family, there was no reason for them to do it. Everyone was just sitting on the boat, busy with their own affairs.

“Husband, how do you get on the boat then?” Feeling those people fighting in the distance, Shi Wushuang asked curiously: “Sister Gongsun’s ship may not be able to catch up with the Langya crystal ship.”

Yang Chen just told them to enter the Langya Well and board the Langya Crystal Ship, but he never said how to do it, which made all the girls very curious. No one understood where Yang Chen’s self-confidence came from, they were puzzled for a long time, until Shi Wushuang finally asked.

Relatively speaking, Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue had a kind of blind trust in Yang Chen, and they were more trusting than the seven women who later became a family. Even if Yang Chen didn’t say anything, they all made their own preparations, and each refined some things according to the records of the sect, waiting to be used at any time.

There are many legends about the Langya crystal ship, and all the sects have records, so all the girls can conclude that it is impossible to board the Langya crystal ship with Gongsun Ling’s magic weapon. Shi Wushuang’s question at this time is also due to her personality. She is good at strategy and likes to think about some things in advance, instead of being confused like she is now.

Yang Chen understood her character, so he didn’t blame her for doubting his actions. To put it bluntly, Shi Wushuang was also worried about everyone’s safety, because she didn’t know enough about Yang Chen, and she didn’t have enough confidence. After all, Yang Chen’s cultivation was at the bottom of the crowd, and the seven girls hadn’t seen how powerful Yang Chen was.

“Of course this boat won’t work, I have made other preparations.” Yang Chen replied quickly, when he arrived here, the Langya crystal boat would appear soon, so of course there was nothing to hide. In fact, if Shi Wushuang had asked earlier, Yang Chen would not have concealed it either.

While talking, a burst of violent aura suddenly erupted in the far right direction of the boat, and then, a white light shot straight into the sky, like a towering pillar on the water.

“Langya crystal ship!” As soon as this violent aura appeared, countless people who were fighting stopped fighting, their eyes couldn’t help but look in that direction, and after a while, they all rushed towards that direction crazily.

Chapter 716: : Looking For Something

The direction where the white light appeared is of course the goal of everyone's trip – the Langya Crystal Ship. The Langya Crystal Ship will appear within a few hours after the Langya Well is closed, and the time is right now, completely in line with the legend.

Everyone flew in that direction, each resorting to their own means, lest they run too slowly and would not be able to board the Langya crystal ship, and at that time, they would have to be trapped to death in this vast space. If you are lucky, you may be able to wait until the next Langya Well is opened, but if you are unlucky, you may have to wait to die.

Without waiting for Yang Chen's orders, Gongsun Ling's boat turned around and flew in that direction. But under Yang Chen's special order, the boat did not go too fast, but maintained a neither fast nor slow speed, neither the first to arrive nor the last.

"Husband!" Tao Junqi was the one who spoke this time, as fairy Junqi from the Greatest Heaven Sect, her character is sometimes similar to the Greatest Heaven Sect's usual style, seeing the opportunity is in front of her, but he doesn't make use of it, she was a little puzzled. Wouldn't it be nice to be the first to rush over? Shouldn't they be the first to get the most benefits?

"No need to hurry!" Yang Chen directly gave Tao Junqi a stable answer: "Rumors are rumors after all, and no one knows the real situation inside. Let them go and have a look. Good things are not first come, first served, the last laugh is the best way to laugh."

This is a safe approach, in the current situation, even if you get the good things first, you may not be able to secure your pockets. There wasn't a single fuel-efficient lamp coming in, it's a common thing in Langya Well to swarm people to kill people and seize treasures, at this time. Whoever gets the item first is the target of everyone's attack.

In Tao Junqi's mind, it is natural to get it by herself, and then swaggeringly show the signboard of the Greatest Heaven Sect, which is naturally a group of evil spirits. It can be said that Tao Junqi's way of doing things has been like this for a long time. Relatively speaking, Yang Chen's safe approach seemed very conservative and not proactive enough.

Tao Junqi still wanted to say something, but Shi Wushuang quietly pulled Tao Junqi's hand. "Sister, we will stay here for at least decades or hundreds of years, There is no rush."

Fairy Junqi is not stupid, it's just because of her style of acting, when Shi Wushuang said this, Tao Junqi immediately understood. After such a long time, there is really no need to fight for such a short time.

"We came here just to find something, and by the way, find a place where no one will bother you to concentrate on cultivating." Yang Chen did not express dissatisfaction with Tao Junqi's way of doing things, but slowly explained: "I need this kind of thing very much, but I don't want to be separated from you, so we can only come in together as a family. As for the things in the Langya crystal ship, I really don't value them that much."

To be honest, Yang Chen said that he didn't pay much attention to the things here, it's really not a lie, at least Tao Junqi and the others knew that Yang Chen could bathe them with the Four Seas mysterious coral Liquid. In addition, the precious materials obtained from the Zhao Family Manor are simply innumerable. A family's collections of tens of thousands of years or even longer are all with the Yang Chen family. No matter how good the precious materials in this Langya Well are, at best, they are just another Zhao Family Manor, it's really not worthy of Yang Chen and the others.

After thinking about this point, the hearts of the girls calmed down. Everyone understood why Yang Chen insisted on coming to Langya Well. Since he was just looking for one thing, there was really no need to be in a hurry like everyone else.

"What is Husband looking for?" Sun Qingxue was the youngest among all of them, she jumped out at this moment and asked curiously. Not only Sun Qingxue, but all the other girls seemed to be waiting to listen, wanting to know what Yang Chen wanted.

"Seventh grade fire seed, the pure yin true fire." Yang Chen has nothing to hide from his wives and concubines. They all came to this place, and there was no need to cover up, so he directly stated their purpose.

"Is there a seventh-grade pure yin true fire in the Langya crystal ship?" Shi Wushuang frowned, and said with some uncertainty: "According to the legends of those who escaped alive in the past, it seems that there is no aura of fire seeds here! Husband, is this news a mistake?!"

The reason why Langya Well was named Langya Well, apart from the fact that the passage is like the mouth of a well, is that this is an area dominated by water attributes, and almost all the things those people get are water attributes. It is indeed very strange that there is a seventh-grade fire seed in such a place.

Shi Wushuang doubted that water and fire were compatible, if the seventh-grade fire seed suddenly appeared in a place of complete water attribute the aura of opposition would definitely be clearly noticed by everyone, and everyone who could not go out would not feel it at all. The only thing that can be explained is that there is no real fire seed here, and the information Yang Chen got was wrong.

“Brother Li Cheng gave the news, so there shouldn’t be any problem.” Yang Chen explained with a smile “If it’s really that easy to be found, then it’s not our turn to come in and look for it, and someone would have already found it.”

Hearing that it was Li Cheng’s news, Yang Chen’s wives and concubines no longer doubted anything. Whether it was the recognition of Li Cheng by the four wives in the Demon Continent, or the gift of the iron-winged flying eagle in the peak Dacheng stage to the seven concubines, all the women felt a kind of sincere admiration for Li Cheng that he seemed to be omnipotent. Since he said so, he must not be lying to Yang Chen.

Yang Chen is famous for collecting fire seeds. Almost all the recipes and pills he sold are to accept fire seeds first, and then accept spirit stones. Especially the seventh grade Pure Yin True Fire, which was emphasized when selling the secret of the fifth grade alchemist secret, must be extremely important to Yang Chen. All the girls are of course happy to be able to find the spark he desperately needs for their husband.

Of course, this reason also explains why Yang Chen is not in a hurry. It is not because he is afraid of becoming the target of attacks. It is simply because collecting the seventh-grade fire is not something that will happen in a short time. As long as Yang Chen can arrive before the other party has fully collected it, it will be fine. When it comes to controlling fire, all Yang Chen’s wives and concubines believe that no one in this world can beat Yang Chen.

The speed of the boat was not fast, and it just mixed in with a group of cultivators who were rushing forward like this. At this time, people obviously don’t care about killing each other, it’s more important to board the ship first, the final fight is after boarding the ship, and it won’t be too late to start after seeing the real treasure, now it’s just an appetizer.

In less than half a day, the cultivators arrived at the location and concentrated in the area several miles around the beam of light. Everyone stared cautiously at the large flat-bottomed boat that shone with silver light as if coated with a layer of spar under the beam of light, and their eyes shot out scorching heat.

Chapter 717: : Boarding The Ship

Langya crystal ship, everyone who saw this large flat-bottomed boat had the same thought in their minds: the destination of their trip, or the temporary destination, was this Langya crystal ship.

No one knows how the Langya crystal ship appeared, and no one knows where the Langya crystal ship was originally. Everyone only knows that the ship suddenly appeared here, and then caused a burst of heaven and earth visions. Everyone was attracted by the beam of light and the explosive aura. As for the people who stayed in this area, no one knew what the result would be.

The gigantic Langya Crystal Ship is nearly a thousand feet long, and its appearance is so shiny that it is almost impossible to look directly at it. If it weren't for the cultivators who were surrounded by successful cultivation, just staring at this Langya crystal ship would cause blindness in both eyes.

Of course, besides the shining Langya crystal ship, the focus of everyone's attention is that there is almost a mile of dark space around the crystal ship. This seemingly pitch-black, lifeless space completely repulsed even the water around the crystal ship. It looks empty, but everyone knows that this dark space is the biggest obstacle to boarding the crystal ship.

According to the position of everyone's eyes, the crystal ship should be hundreds of feet deep underwater, and it is normal to repel water. But no one knows how deep the weak water is, so no one dares to take the risk of boarding the ship easily.

The appearance of the shiny crystal ship was really exciting, and finally, after a while, someone couldn't help being impatient and started to act.

The people who survived outside the Langya crystal ship left too many legends. Almost everyone who came here knew how to board the ship. Everyone outside made thorough preparations and waited for this moment to come.

Huhuhu, dozens of long cables of various kinds appeared directly in several directions around, the long rope shone with lights of various colors. Either fast or slow, they all flew towards the Langya crystal ship. When approaching the Langya crystal ship, all the long cables were either hooked or stucked firmly fixed on the surface of the crystal ship.

Without exception, these long ropes are carefully refined, and there are all kinds of materials. There is spider silk, there is silk, there is even some metal wire, or some kind of thick rope made of hair. All long ropes have one thing in common, that is, they are strong. If it is not strong, it is impossible to board the Langya crystal boat with the long rope.

The long ropes successfully boarded the crystal boat, and before the group of people had time to be happy, several of the long ropes snapped from it. In the dark space, it seems that there are countless invisible blades cutting those long ropes crazily. If it is not strong enough, it will be cut off directly.

“How could this happen!” In the calm space, there suddenly sounded a tragic cry, which was the owner of one of the long ropes. After hard work and preparation for hundreds of years, it ended up like this: without the long rope there is no hope of boarding the ship, so they can only wait here to die.

Cultivators are hard-hearted, and everyone watched those few people fall into this situation, but no one spoke, not even a look of sympathy. No one forced them to enter Langya Well and fall into this field. To be honest, they had to be mentally prepared for this from the very beginning.

It seems that except for a few people, no one is sure that they will be able to board the Langya crystal ship. They can't say that they will end up in the same end if they stay for a while. How can they even care about sympathizing with others?

Those whose long ropes are still very strong have begun to board the ship excitedly. There were a few refined long ropes that tied the owner to the other end in a very firm way, and then began to shrink, and several figures entered the dark space like this, and flew towards the Langya crystal ship at high speed.

Those with sharp eyes have discovered that after just such a short period of time, those long ropes seem to be mottled, as if many years have passed. The people who had rushed out accelerated desperately, hoping to bring themselves to the Langya crystal boat before the long cable had an accident.

However, just halfway through the flight, more than a dozen long shrinking cables suddenly broke into several pieces, and the dozen or so figures suddenly let out several ragged screams, as if their bodies had been crushed by some huge attracted by gravity, they all flew away from the crystal ship around them.

Plop, plop, the sound of falling into the water spread far away reached the eyes of the people who were still watching. The dozen or so people had already landed on the surface of the water repelled by space, as if they had fallen from a high altitude. For some reason, those cultivators couldn't fly away in the space, no matter if it was the Yuanying stage or the Dacheng stage, they couldn't even change their direction, and fell into the water screaming.

Then there was no sound, and thousands of people watched helplessly from all directions. The dozen or so people who fell into the water struggled for a while in the clear and transparent water, and then their bodies gradually became motionless. Everyone who saw this scene felt chills in their hearts.

Everyone now understands where the well-preserved corpses in the water that can be clearly seen from the surface of the water come from. But the more they understand, the more intense the fear in their heart and the less confidence they have.

Whoosh, two sounds of objects piercing through the air at high speed, and two arrow-like rays of light shot towards the Langya crystal ship from two directions. Needless to say, these are two people who have refined the high-speed magic weapon trying to rush through this space at high speed and board the ship smoothly.

The wish is beautiful, but the reality is cruel. The two rays of light seemed to be getting slower and slower, and when they were hundreds of feet away from the crystal ship, they finally stopped with exhaustion, and then began to fall involuntarily.

One of the cultivators was very smart, there happened to be a long rope that was still shrinking under the fall. When the cultivators just started to fall, he just grabbed the center of the long rope, and the long rope changed its direction for a while.

The owner of the long rope uttered a terrified cry, but he couldn't stop this guy from approaching the Langya crystal ship with the strength of the long rope.

It's a pity that the good times didn't last long. Just when the guy who borrowed his strength thought he had a plan, a tragedy happened, and the taut long rope broke directly. The two figures uttered two long screams at the same time, which lasted until they fell into the the water and stopped abruptly.

At the beginning, there were more than a dozen people who were pulled closer by the long cable, and everyone's eyes were on them. If they are successful, they will be the first group of people to board the ship. If they are not successful, they will be another group of cannon fodder for those who come later.

Chapter 718: : Paying To Board The Ship

The people around saw those people approaching the Langya crystal boat slowly, except for a few people, the others were so nervous that they couldn't say a word, they couldn't take their eyes off, for fear of missing something.

You know, everyone just heard about the successful boarding of the ship before, but now seeing is believing, and the actual experience is more convincing than anything else.

It's a pity that among the remaining dozen or so people, half of them still failed to support to the end. Under the witness of everyone, a few people missed again less than a hundred feet away from the Langya crystal ship, screamed and fell into the weak water, becoming a new batch of lifelike specimens.

The remaining few people boarded the surface of the Langya crystal ship under the envious eyes of countless people, and then their figures flickered for a moment before disappearing. No need to ask, they must have entered the interior of the Langya crystal ship.

Boom, as the first person successfully boarded the ship, the people watching around were no longer in the good mood of watching a show. If someone boards the ship, it means treasures being snatched. If you don't make a move, don't say that others eat meat and drink soup by themselves. I guess they don't even have soup. What is everyone here for, not to watch others get rich.

Whoosh, whoosh, the continuous sound continued, this time at least hundreds of people sacrificed their magic weapons at the same time. Countless long cables were connected to the Langya crystal ship, and the sound of hundreds of figures rushed into the dark space at the same time.

They saw so many people die just now, but this time, almost all the ones who rushed out were experts and those who had more confidence in the magic weapon they had prepared. Relatively speaking, there were far fewer accidents, but even so, there were still dozens of people who failed to persist to the end and fell into the weak water screaming, but more people successfully boarded the ship. After arriving on the Langya crystal ship, their eyes were full of ecstasy, and then their figures flickered and disappeared.

This scene stimulated more people, and those who waited and hesitated no longer held back. They all started to act, if they don't board the ship now, there will be nothing left for them.

Those who came back again did not just board the ship, after realizing that they had boarded the ship with full confidence, some masters began to attack. Everyone knows that if there are more cultivators and less meat, and one less competitor, the more benefits you may get, and the brain is hot at the moment so they just attacked the people around them.

Before fully boarding the ship, in the dark space, a martial arts show was staged. Thousands of people used thousands of long cables, one end was connected to the crystal boat, and the other end was connected to themselves, and they started to fight crazily. Not only did they attack people, they were also attacking those long ropes. This time, even the guys who launched the attack at the beginning began to be afraid. The long rope is not as well protected as anyone. In order to survive, everyone can only attack more and more fiercely.

Many of the people who fell into the weak water this time were already skeletons, and some of them were incomplete. Although almost hundreds of people boarded the ship successfully, the tragedy just now has frightened many people who were going to board the ship.

The sudden killing also caused no one to rush into the space for a long period of time. In the end, there was still an unknown cultivator who directly transmitted a voice "Everyone boards the ship according to their own abilities, and their lives and deaths are their own destiny. When boarding the ship, it's better not to do anything, otherwise no one will be able to get on the ship, and those who went first will gain everything, what do you think?"

This proposal is actually very touching. If no one boards the ship, no one will agree to it, but someone has already boarded it. If everyone hesitates here, then the treasure of the Langya crystal ship has nothing to do with them.

“Okay, let’s do it!” No one is a fool. Immediately, someone began to respond: “if you have to do it, it will not be too late to do it after you get on the boat.”

When boarding the ship again. It seems that there is order, and not many people go out at one time, and basically everyone does not interfere with each other. Except for those unlucky guys, they basically boarded the ship smoothly, and there were no more killings.

Batch after batch of people boarded the ship, and the last ones left were those who lacked confidence. Originally, everyone rushed in excitedly, but after referring to those who had failed before, they realized that their preparations were not sufficient. If they boarded the ship rashly, there would only be a dead end. But if you don’t board the ship, if you stay here, you can’t escape a death sentence. There is no way to go to heaven, and there is no way to go to earth, many people were close to the verge of collapse.

Just when someone finally couldn’t bear it and was about to give up their lives, several gentle voices suddenly sounded from all directions: “Bring people aboard, each with fifty catties of high-grade spirit stones, and we ensure that they will be brought to the crystal ship safely!”

Hearing this voice suddenly at the moment of life and death, those desperate guys seemed to have found a straw to save their lives. They became crazily excited and began to look around to see who was talking.

The owners of the several voices didn’t hide anything, they came out more and more, revealing their true colors. Seeing their figures, someone immediately recognized their identities, and they all became excited.

“Senior Li who entered Langya Well!”

The seven or eight people who came out were all known to have entered Langya Well, and then came out alive. Their yelling was like a sound of heaven to these desperate people. Everyone felt that they had returned to heaven directly from hell.

Since they went in and came out safely, they must be absolutely sure to board the ship. Originally, everyone had to risk their lives to fight, but now they only need to pay fifty catties of high-grade spirit stones. Anyone can count on such a deal, if they knew this earlier, they wouldn't have spent all their time preparing for it. As long as they brought the spirit stones, they would be able to board the ship successfully. Those people in front of them could be said to have died in vain.

But then again, if it wasn't for the example set by the people in front, how could the people behind be willing to pay such a price to enter the ship? It has to be said that this is a good deal. These few masters who re-entered Langya Well have already received a lot of benefits before boarding the ship.

The people who came in were either Yuanying stage and Dacheng stage masters. Although fifty catties of high-grade spirit stones were quite a lot, it was not unbearable for these people. It doesn't look like much, if there are so many people counting, each person who brings people on board brings hundreds of people on average, and they can receive dozens of catties of top-quality spirit stones here.

Yang Chen's family has not made a move yet, but no one has paid attention to them. After witnessing all this, except for Yang Chen, all the girls were stunned, is this okay?

"Okay, don't read into it, we should go." Yang Chen's voice called everyone's attention back "Why don't you let them take it in, and let me see for myself, maybe I can collect some weak water"

Chapter 719: : Collecting The Weak Water

Yang Chen really fell in love with those weak waters. Although he didn't know how powerful they were for the time being, no matter whether it was a master at the Yuanying stage or a master at the Dacheng stage, they all had the same result, die of terror.

If it was the previous life, Yang Chen probably would never have any extra thoughts, but now it is different. After collecting the treasure house of the Dragon Palace, Yang Chen not only has the Five Elements Hook in his hand, but also has a hook that can hold it. It would be unreasonable for the big gourd not to take the opportunity to collect some weak water when he encounters such an opportunity.

This is clearly the benefit that God sent to Yang Chen's mouth again. To use an old-fashioned saying, if he doesn't take what God gives, he will be blamed instead. No matter what, Yang Chen would collect some.

How can the girls agree, let them leave their husband and accept the blessings of those people to board the crystal ship, watching their husband take risks, not to mention Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue the four main wives, Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters none of these concubines would accept such an arrangement.

No matter what Yang Chen said, the girls believed that they would follow Yang Chen regardless of life or death. Everyone is afraid of being separated from their husband. Moreover, they are also afraid that Yang Chen will sometimes do some extremely risky things. If there are many girls following him, Yang Chen will restrain himself a little, so as not to get carried away.

Yang Chen can ignore other people's words, but when Gao Yue opened her mouth, this matter is a conclusion, and Yang Chen can't refute it. There was no other way, Yang Chen could only take the girls into the medicine garden, so that they could see the situation outside at any time. He calmly took out the five-element hook and clasped it on his wrist.

In several directions, people have already started to pay spirit stones, and those people who have entered the crystal ship have received them into a certain space magic weapon, and the number of people has been greatly reduced. The rest of the people were also queuing. At this time, no one would choose between taking a risk and fifty catties of high-grade spirit stones. Among the people left behind, only Yang Chen seemed to plan to use his own means to board the ship.

"Grandmaster Yang..." Yang Chen's reputation was so great that almost everyone who came in knew it. There was a person close to him who was about to open his mouth to make friends, but Yang Chen had already jumped into the dark space, and the words of that person were directly blocked in his throat.

When he was in the air, the five-element hook grew like a living thing, penetrating the space flexibly, and directly resting on the Langya crystal boat. Each of the five hooks found a protrusion on the crystal ship and fastened it firmly.

If you don't enter the dark space, you can't feel the feeling inside. As soon as he entered, Yang Chen found that there was a strong suction coming from all directions, as if to pull his body to the surroundings, and the crystal boat seemed to repel him. The Five Elements Hook straightened instantly and withstood the force.

In the sea of no return of the Dragon Palace, the five-element hooks could easily hold Yang Chen, so the suction here was not a problem at all. After Yang Chen tried a few times, his heart became more and more determined.

However, the dark space does not only have such a little repulsive force. Although it seems to be empty, Yang Chen can clearly feel an invisible wind, carrying a power of time, affecting the space all the time and anything in the space.

Most of the guys who broke the long cable were eroded by the power of this kind of time, which caused the long cable to decay and break, and people who were in it would inevitably be affected. Those who went in seemed to have nothing happened, but if they didn't perform cultivation methods to recover their vitality immediately after boarding the ship, they would definitely be seriously ill. In this way, there is almost no difference between boarding the ship early and boarding late.

No wonder those guys who returned to Langya well again are not in a hurry at all. On the one hand, they are waiting for the last opportunity to make money. On the other hand, they probably have more preparations and already got the upper hand.

After discovering this, without even thinking about it, the golden bell of the Dragon Clan appeared outside Yang Chen's body, wrapping him tightly. The three dragon shadows began to fly up and down around the golden bell, flashing bursts of light from time to time, blocking the wind of the five elements.

In the eyes of others, Yang Chen's figure did not approach the crystal boat as quickly as others, but began to slowly fall downwards, as if the long rope in his hand could no longer support his body.

It is a pity that a promising fifth grade alchemist died like this. However, at this time, who is sure that he can rescue Yang Chen? Even those guys who returned to Langya Well can only guarantee that they will successfully board the ship with the magic weapon of space, but it is impossible to rescue Yang Chen in this situation.

The further down, the dragon shadow on the golden bell outside Yang Chen's body churned more and more fiercely, and the invisible force of erosion that Yang Chen felt became stronger and stronger. There is even a lot of power from the Five Elements mixed in it, if it wasn't for Yang Chen with a strong spiritual awareness, he wouldn't be able to notice this at all.

No wonder those cultivators just screamed and screamed but couldn't save themselves after falling. It turned out that they were under attack at any time and couldn't draw their hands. After falling into the weak water, they had almost been attacked, and trying to struggle to get out is as difficult as climbing to the sky.

Fortunately, the magic weapon of the dragon clan is really powerful, and Yang Chen himself possesses the true essence of the five elements, so even if there are some attacks from the five elements, it will not be able to affect Yang Chen in the slightest. Yang Chen's figure slowly descended, and the five-element hook also slowly extended. After a while, he reached the bottom of the space, almost close to the water surface.

Pulling the hook with his right hand, Yang Chen turned his left hand, and a blue-yellow gourd appeared in his hand. He slowly stretched out his hand to the edge of the space and the water surface, and the mouth of the gourd plunged into the weak water, and began to collect.

The gourd is indeed the magic weapon of the Dragon Clan. Under such circumstances, it does not have the slightest influence. No matter how strong the weak water is, it is also water. Yang Chen can directly feel an aura that is completely different from ordinary water. In the gourd, a small pool of water was formed.

The long cable of the Five Elements Hook maintained this length, confronting that terrifying gravitational force, and Yang Chen's figure also hovered in the air, quietly waiting to collect enough weak water.

Everyone outside, except for the few old people who had entered Langya Well, had already entered other people's space magic weapons, and those few people finally understood what Yang Chen was doing. Surprised, several people could only watch enviously, although the water is good, they don't have the ability or the courage to do such a thing.

Chapter 720: : Erosion Spirit Dragon Fire Seed

"Erosion Spirit Dragon Fire!" Hearing this voice, Yang Chen was also shocked. On the one hand, it was because of the name of the flame, and on the other hand, it was the sudden sound.

Yang Chen noticed something was wrong when he collected the weak water, it seemed that something got into the gourd. It's just that Yang Chen had no time to take care of it because he was surrounded by flames. Sure enough, now this guy jumped out.

Fortunately, the guy who jumped out and made a sound, after Yang Chen's inspection, was not a terrifying enemy. Now that Yang Chen no longer had any worries, he could easily detect the situation in the gourd. The guy who made the sound was clearly a very weak spirit body.

The sound could reach Yang Chen's mind because the other party had contact with Yang Chen's spiritual awareness and used a technique similar to the beast mastery to achieve the goal. For Yang Chen, the other party does not have the ability to harm him, on the contrary, as long as Yang Chen is willing, he can easily destroy this weak spirit body.

The erosion spirit dragon fire also shocked Yang Chen. This kind of flame, which also belongs to the legend, has been met here. As the name suggests, the erosion spirit dragon fire is a unique flame of the dragon race. Because there are no dragon races in the mortal world, this kind of flame is almost extinct. He didn't expect it to exist here, and it was also received by Yang Chen into the profound spirit furnace.

He doesn't know whether to say that Yang Chen is lucky or bold. If the erosion spirit dragon fire is counted according to the level, it can be regarded as one of the seventh grade fire seeds, one of the strongest fires in the mortal world. With Yang Chen's current real ability, in fact, he does not have the ability to collect the erosion spirit dragon fire.

Yang Chen had only heard of this kind of fire seed, and the word erosion spirit dragon fire, clearly showed the characteristics of the fire seed. The main power is to burn all kinds of spiritual bodies. If it is placed on a living creature, what is burned is the consciousness of the living creature.

If he hadn't been lucky enough to get the Merit from Li Cheng before and he was also proficient in cultivation, maybe Yang Chen would not be on board the Langya Crystal boat this time. A trace of fear flashed through his mind, and Yang Chen didn't care about communicating with that spirit body, so he first informed his wives and concubine that he was fine. They must have been waiting anxiously, especially since this place is still on the Langya crystal ship full of murderous threats, they are even more anxious.

Seeing that Yang Chen was fine, the girls finally felt relieved. Regarding Yang Chen's bold behavior, the girls didn't know how to comment. In the end, Gao Yue came forward and severely reprimanded Yang Chen for his irresponsible and risky behavior. After Yang Chen repeatedly promised that there would be no next time, Gao Yue restrained her anger. As for Sun Qingxue, when Gao Yue scolded Yang Chen, she had already sneaked into Yang Chen's arms to scold him.

After the girls were relieved, Yang Chen didn't care about seeing what the Langya crystal ship was like, and settled the guy in the gourd first.

Under the erosion spirit dragon fire, the spirit body was able to safely hide in the gourd. It must be said that there must be a few brushes. But a spirit body is a spirit body, and when faced with this kind of erosion spirit dragon fire that specifically restrained him, he couldn't retreat completely. The reason why he was so weak was probably because of the fire.

"Who are you? Why is there a magic weapon made from the dragon clan on you?" To Yang Chen's surprise, before Yang Chen could ask about the identity of the spirit body, the other party had already approached him: "Are you alive?" Got impatient?"

His tone was filled with a wordless anger. Even though he was very weak, he did not hide his attitude that might anger Yang Chen at any time.

Yang Chen admired this guy very much, he was as bold as Yang Chen, and his vision was first-class, so he immediately discovered that the gourd is the magic weapon of the Dragon Clan. He doesn't know if some master fell into the weak water and has been living in this spirit until now. Those who can survive in this environment are definitely worthy of Yang Chen's admiration.

"Humble junior is Yang Chen, dare to ask the senior's name!" Yang Chen tried to communicate with the other party using the beast control art.

The other party did not reject Yang Chen's connection, and established a communication bridge with ease. Now that spirit body is already weak, and it really doesn't have much strength to take the initiative to maintain communication with Yang Chen. It would be much easier if Yang Chen took the initiative.

What surprised Yang Chen in particular was that after communicating with the other party using the beast control art, Yang Chen couldn't tell whether the other party was a human or a monster. This was something that had never happened before, and Yang Chen couldn't help but force himself, this guy is by no means an ordinary person.

“Where did you get the dragon corpse? With your ability, there is no way to refine it. Who refined it for you?” The other party did not answer Yang Chen’s question, but asked a series of questions. They are all related to the dragon clan magic weapon.

“Although I have a relationship with the Dragon Clan, there is no need to explain it to senior, right?” Yang Chen replied calmly, his expression unchanged. The other party’s tone is serious, but now life and death are in Yang Chen’s hands, as long as Yang Chen is willing, the other party can be wiped out at any time.

Even if the spiritual body is not in good shape, Yang Chen doesn’t need to care about this kind of guy who he can kill countless times with just one finger. On the contrary, it was Yang Chen who was very interested in how the other party escaped from the fire of the erosion spirit dragon, so he might as well get something from this guy.

“No, who the hell are you? How come there are so many fine wines and wine yeast treasured by the dragon clan?” For a while, the dragon body ignored Yang Chen, but after discovering so much wine yeast brewed by the dragon clan in the gourd, it finally couldn’t help it, surprised asked out.

“Senior, do you know these wine yeast?” Yang Chen’s eyes lit up, and he felt a lot of anticipation in his heart. It seems that the only one who can recognize the wine yeast treasured by the Dragon Clan is the Dragon Clan itself. Could this spirit body be the dragon spirit of a dragon?

“These things are in your hands, is it true that the dragon clan has fallen?” The other party didn’t answer, and after a while of silence, he asked like this. Although he didn’t give a definite answer, Yang Chen was already certain that the other party must be a dragon.

Only in this way can it explain how he escaped death in the erosion spirit dragon fire, unless someone who understands the dragon-fire, he can’t fight against the erosion spirit dragon fire at all with his spiritual state. This guy is a dragon, and most likely the dragon spirit of a fire dragon.

“All the dragons have ascended, and there are no more dragons in the mortal world.” After confirming the other party’s identity, Yang Chen immediately replied as if he had found a treasure, and at the same time did not forget the formula: “If senior still wants to find a companion, you have already done so.”
