Chapter 741: : Too Much Is Trouble

Absorb them all with profound spirit Furnace? This was unrealistic, as long as there is fire in the profound spirit Furnace, it is enough, and it is not necessary or capable of absorbing all of them. Then, after absorbing enough fire seeds, the profound spirit Furnace was withdrawn, what method should be used to deal with these pure yin true fires?

To be precise, it is not necessary to completely remove all the flames, as long as a path can be cleared, the needs of the women can be met, and they can enter the palace to pick things. Or it is a bit too polite to use selection, and it is better to express the mood of the girls with packaging.

But in the face of so much pure yin true fires, if Yang Chen really wants to let go, Yang Chen is still not reconciled. This is the seventh-grade flame, right in front of his eyes, just collecting a little fire to open a way, then turn around and leave? That's not Yang Chen's style. In terms of value, this kind of fire is estimated to be able to top up all the things in the palace.

Yang Chen has always adhered to the idea that if he doesn't take it back, he will be blamed. Such a large area of pure yin true fire is right in front of him, isn't this heaven sent, then what is? It's ominous against heaven, but it can't just be so cheap.

The easiest way to clear a way is to put out the fire. The question is, what a pity to destroy such a precious seventh-grade flame? No matter what, Yang Chen would never use this kind of reckless method.

Since the fire cannot be extinguished, it is necessary to find a way from another aspect. Yang Chen's gaze began to focus on the ground under the flames, staring intently, as if some beautiful flowers grew there.

The pure yin true fire can keep burning, and the support below is crucial. It is a good thing to be able to maintain the burning of the pure yin true fire.

So much pure yin true fire, what to do with it? Yang Chen still doesn't have the ability to absorb the seventh-grade fire and integrate it into the Yin-Yang Burning Heaven Fire, even if he uses the merit.

If you can't use it yourself, others can consider it. Gao Yue is a fire attribute cultivator, her natal fire is the Purple Heart Fire, and the upgraded version of the sixth-grade Purple Heart Profound has already been obtained, and even the more advanced seventh-grade Purple Heart Heaven Fire, Yang Chen is also sure to get it, so she has no need to change her natal fire. Tao Junqi and Murong Yan, who are both fire cultivators, can think about it.

Although Tao Junqi was born in the Greatest Heaven Sect. She is also a genius disciple with excellent qualifications, but her natal fire is not as advanced as the seventh-grade fire, but the sixth-grade fire, before ascension. There is still plenty of room and opportunity for improvement.

On the words of cultivation, both Yang Chen and Gao Yue are in the Yuanying stage. For the time being, Yang Chen can only control the sixth-grade fire, while Gao Yue has to wait until the Dacheng stage to use the power of the Yin fire tribulation to absorb the Purple Heart Profound Fire. As for the seventh-grade fire seed, it is only possible for Gao Yue to get it at the peak Dacheng stage. Murong Yan's cultivation is also a little low, not enough to control the seventh-grade fire, only Tao Junqi is now at the peak Dacheng stage, and has the conditions to absorb the seventh-grade fire.

Peak Dacheng stage, this is just a condition. If Tao Junqi is allowed to control the absorption of the seventh-grade pure yin true fire, she will fail more than 80% of the time, and there is a 90% chance of dying after failure.

With Yang Chen around, of course such a thing would not be allowed to happen. No matter how Tao Junqi was, she was her own woman, so Yang Chen would never forget her. What's more, if she absorbs the seventh-grade fire seed, Tao Junqi's assurance of ascension is much greater, and her speed can also be accelerated. It is very likely that she will be able to ascend before leaving the Langya Well.

Tao Junqi had been in retreat for a few years, Yang Chen didn't wait too long. He just waited until Tao Junqi left the seclusion and during the waiting period, everyone was not idle, and all of them were cultivating secretly in this secret pavilion under the influence of the demonic qi of the Nine Nether Flying Sword.

Waking up from retreat, Tao Junqi was directly shocked by the seventh-grade fire in front of her eyes, and then was even more shocked by the fifth-grade questioning inner heart pills. Coupled with the process of the profound spirit Furnace that other women showed off to her, she couldn't believe it.

Yang Chen said he would help her to absorb the seventh-grade fire, Tao Junqi said nothing, even though she knew that her absorption would most likely fail, she didn't back down. These short years of getting along has made her completely understand that her husband as a monster who specializes in making the impossible possible.

Tao Junqi herself has a high level of cultivation, and this retreat has completely consolidated her realm at the peak Dacheng stage. Under Yang Chen's intimate guidance, Tao Junqi did not hesitate to start the process of absorbing the seventh-grade pure yin true fire. The reason why we say intimacy is that during the process of absorption, Tao Junqi was always held in Yang Chen's arms and pointed out at close range.

Yang Chen's main role, besides pointing out Tao Junqi's experience in controlling fire, is to be ready to protect Tao Junqi at any time with the method of merit. This is his own woman, Yang Chen will never be stingy with his merits.

Tao Junqi had never thought about this kind of incomparable process of absorbing fire, but even at the peak Dacheng stage, she could feel the warmth of being cared for so clearly, and she couldn't help being happy. If you are happy, you will have a clear mind, and if you have a clear mind, you will be more efficient and confident in doing things. If you are confident, you will be more likely to succeed.

That kind of feeling that even if you step down the abyss in front of you, you still firmly believe that your husband will hold you when you fall to 9999 feet, so that Tao Junqi has no worries about the future and went all out. According to the method Yang Chen instructed, she absorbed the Pure Yin True Fire to her heart's content.

Under the worried eyes of the other women, Tao Junqi only used Yang Chen's three critical moments to save her life, and successfully transformed her natal fire into a seventh-grade pure yin true fire.

This change alone has directly increased Tao Junqi's cultivation by at least 30%, and directly reached the peak Dacheng stage. Just now she has consolidated her cultivation, and she has already touched the edge of her tribulation. After discovering this, Tao Junqi didn't care that she was the oldest among the girls, she hugged Yang Chen and showed a rare woman's coquettish and happy expression, which made the other girls dumbfounded.

At last, he had some thoughts on his mind again, Yang Chen could finally concentrate on using these pure yin true fire. The Pure Yin True Fire is so powerful, it cannot be justified without refining a few attack magic weapons.

Ordinary people can refine a few First Wood Divine Thunder, which can be regarded as fatal magic weapons at critical moments. If these pure yin true fires are refined into the top-quality divine thunder, there will still be pure yin true fire when it explodes. Fire attack, it is definitely a must-have weapon for traveling around and killing people.

He believe that in the future, when those short-sighted guys bully the people around Yang Chen, they will suddenly be bombarded by it and burned by the pure yin true fire, their expressions will definitely look good.

Chapter 742: : Refining

Once you have a direction, don't rush to start. They won't be able to get out of Langya Well in a while, and they need to plan their future cultivation carefully. Since everyone is here, of course he has to discuss this with his wives and concubines.

Yang Chen's purpose of coming to the Langya Well was mainly for the Pure Yin True Fire, and now that the Pure Yin True Fire seed has been obtained, it has been properly stored in the profound spirit furnace. Not only that, the spirit-eclipsing dragon fire is an extra harvest, a pleasant surprise, even Tao Junqi, his most powerful concubine, has also turned her natal fire into the pure yin true fire.

It can be said that this trip to the Langya Well has already made a steady profit several times, and it is full of resources, and it will never be lost. The fundamental goal has been achieved, and there are still a lot of resources to take, so no matter what they do next, they don't have to be so timid. Any point of breakthrough income is purely earned, so you can rest assured to cultivate here.

There is another purpose of entering the Langya Well, to temporarily avoid the fermentation process inside the Greatest Heaven Sect for a while, and wait for the big pit he dug to erupt. At this time, his family is in Langya Well, even if other people want to suspect and deal with his family, there is no reason to blame them.

Of course, Yang Chen couldn't tell his wives and concubines about the latter purpose, he could only say that he would use the Langya Well to cultivate and strive to raise the cultivation base of himself and his four wives to the Dacheng stage.

This is not a joke, if you are an ordinary person, you may feel that this is an extravagant wish. How can the Dacheng stage be achieved if you want to achieve it? But with Yang Chen's four wives, there were no problems at all. No matter which one is taken out, they are all rare cultivation geniuses, so entering the Dacheng stage is just a matter of course.

Gongsun Ling is about to enter the peak Yuanying stage, and in a few decades at most, she will be able to enter the Dacheng stage. The others are also in the late Yuanying stage, and the worst among them is Yang Chen, who is still in the middle Yuanying stage. There is still a bit of foundation that can be obtained, and it is purely a model of eating soft food.

"We don't need to do anything else when we are here. A'Yue, A'Ling, Shanshan and Little Xue will do their best to improve their cultivation. Our family has nothing else to do, use as many questioning inner heart pills as you want." Yang Chen said his plan, of course, using a negotiating tone: "Junqi is responsible for clearing these pure yin true fires. Anyway, your natal fire is the pure yin true fire now, and you are not afraid of harm. Wushuang and the Murong sisters, you are responsible for taking turns to go outside to gain experience, there are always unsightly people who want to take advantage of our family, let them be your whetstones."

The guys outside who can't make it into the danger zone will never let it go. When everyone came in, they found the figures of those people they were secretly staring at them, which was Yang Chen who was looking for the pure yin true fire at that time. Now Yang Chen obviously let Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters find those people to cultivate with. Naturally, they would not refuse, having held back their anger for a long time.

"You don't need to kill too much, there are still decades to hundreds of years to go, if there is no opponent, it will not be fun." Yang Chen saw that Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters were already gearing up to go out and have fun and couldn't help reminiscing for a moment.

The girls are smart people so they immediately understood what Yang Chen meant, nodded their heads and left the danger zone happily without saying anything. Gongsun Ling told everyone how to get in and out, as long as the situation outside is not broken, no one else will have a chance to come in.

"Okay, no one is disturbing you here, you can cultivate as much as you want, and Junqi and I will find a way to eliminate these pure yin true fires." Watching the six girls leave the danger zone, Yang Chen silently mourned for those blind guys outside. After a while, he turned back to the beautiful wife and concubine in front of him, and said with a smile.

“Husband, can you refine some high-grade inner sensing pills?” Before the four wives could speak, Tao Junqi, the beautiful concubine over there, spoke first.

In fact, Tao Junqi’s asking this question is purely superfluous, Yang Chen can even refine the fifth-grade questioning inner heart pills, so the mere inner sensing pill seems a little unsatisfactory. If Yang Chen was willing, it would not be difficult to use the ability of the profound spirit Furnace to refine a sixth grade pill, but he just didn’t want to act so shockingly.

“Of course!” Yang Chen was stunned for a moment, and immediately understood what Tao Junqi meant. The second grade inner sensing pill is of great benefit to the peak Jiedan stage cultivators to attack the Yuanying stage, but it has no effect on the masters of the Dacheng stage. Although the second grade inner sensing pill is useless, the fifth grade inner sensing pill is completely different.

However, while thinking of Tao Junqi’s intentions, Yang Chen couldn’t help worrying about another problem. Taking the second grade inner sensing pill is enough to expand the body’s senses by tens or hundreds of times. What kind of terrifying effect will the fifth grade inner sensing pill have? Not to mention external interference, just the sound of heartbeat and breathing is enough to cause unspeakable harm. He is afraid that even the friction of clothes on the skin on the body can become a terrible torture. Even if he could refine such a pill, would he be willing to use it on his concubine?

Talking about this concern to Tao Junqi, what Yang Chen didn’t expect was that Tao Junqi just smiled slightly and said, “Husband, I know you are worried about my body, but I know that I have deviated from my cultivation before. Therefore, there must still be some dark wounds in the body, and if I don’t take the opportunity to solve it now, it will be a big trouble when the tribulation comes.”

Tao Junqi did cultivate in the wrong direction for a period of time before, resulting in a delay in breaking through. Later, she found the right direction again under the guidance of “Senior Liu Fengzi”. The only way she can understand the hidden wounds of qi and blood in her body, it seems that at present, only the inner sensing pill could achieve it.

“That’s it, let’s try the third grade inner sensing pill first, and if it doesn’t work, then go for the fourth grade.” Yang Chen didn’t want to watch the people around him take risks, even if it was the pill he made himself. It was precisely because he made it himself that Yang Chen knew better than anyone else, so he came up with such a step-by-step method. If there was really no effect at that time, he was afraid he could only try the fifth-grade inner sensing pill.

After Tao Junqi and Yang Chen said these words, even Gao Yue and the others became interested. They also tried the inner sensing pills before, after they became Yuanying stage masters, they felt their own blood. Now that Yang Chen wants to refine a higher-grade inner sensing pill, maybe they should try it too.

This time, Yang Chen had to refine the inner sensing pills, even if he didn't want to refine it, all the wives and concubines wanted it, so Yang Chen opened the furnace immediately without saying a word.

Chapter 743: : Third Grade Inner Sensing Pills

With Yang Chen's current level of alchemy and the power of the profound spirit Furnace, refining a furnace of third grade inner sensing pills is just a matter of time. In the past, it took two years to refine a batch of inner sensing pills, but now it takes half a year, and it's still third grade pills.

However, Yang Chen did not end at the third grade, but collected a part of the third grade inner sensing pills, and then continued to refine the rest at the fourth grade. Part of it was refined into fifth grade pills, in one refining process, there are third grade, fourth grade and fifth grade inner sensing pills that came out of the furnace. It's enough for the few people in his family.

After all the pills were refined, it took almost two years. However, the inner sensing pills have already been upgraded from the second grade to the fifth grade, which was a full upgrade of three grades.

Looking at the pills in front of him, Yang Chen suddenly had a premonition that these pills might not be so easy to swallow. The second grade inner sensing pills can improve people's senses so much, what is the concept of the third grade? Not to mention the fifth grade. There was no other way, even if the pills had been taken out, Tao Junqi cannot be allowed to take it first.

After much deliberation, Yang Chen could only grit his teeth, picked up a third grade inner sensing pill, put it in his mouth, and at the same time placed a restraint around him to isolate all sounds.

Boom, with a stream of heat passing from Yang Chen's mouth to his inner organs, everything he saw suddenly became extremely dazzling. Yang Chen understood that this was the first improvement in his eyesight, followed by the terrifying sound like thunder.

The sound of a regular heartbeat is even more uncomfortable than the thunder. The loud rumbling sound heard in the ear has completely suppressed the sound of blood flowing through the blood vessels in the body that has already made him very sad. It felt like his mind was about to explode.

Just as Yang Chen expected at the beginning, the friction between the clothes and the skin on his body seemed to be torture. Even in the blood vessels, it seemed that what flowed was not blood, but small knives. There was a feeling of being hacked into pieces.

The sudden pain caused Yang Chen's muscles to tense suddenly, and then triggered a series of new pains. A sense that has been magnified hundreds of times is definitely not something that ordinary people can bear, even if it was as powerful as Yang Chen, he can't help but groan out in pain.

The pervasive pain made Yang Chen almost faint. He couldn't care less about checking the circulation of qi and blood. Being able to keep his mind is already the limit of Yang Chen's ability to endure the pain, he wanted to focus on other aspects and not think about it.

Yang Chen is not the kind of person who is willing to wallow in pain and doesn't want any solution. At this time, his powerful spiritual awareness doesn't work, and his superb spiritual power doesn't work, it seems that he can only resist. However, the violent muscle shaking caused Yang Chen to flash a flash of light amidst the severe pain.

There was just a flash of thought in his mind and the physical pain suddenly disappeared. After such a short period of time, the effect of the third grade inner sensing pill has passed, and it will no longer affect Yang Chen, his normal senses have recovered, so naturally there was no pain.

All the girls were around, seeing Yang Chen finish all this. The painful expression on his face could not be hidden from the girls at all. As soon as Yang Chen calmed down, everyone immediately gathered around and asked questions with concern.

"Third grade inner sensing pill is too strong, you can't bear it." Yang Chen slightly sighed. He said to the girls, "I will find a way to reduce the effect of the medicine."

Listening to Yang Chen's words, Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling and Sun Qingxue didn't say anything, but Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi's eyes showed unwillingness to admit defeat. The two women were the kind of women with very stubborn personalities, even if they become Yang Chen's wives and concubines. Yang Chen underestimated their words, but still made the two girls very unconvinced.

"Husband, I want to try!"

"Husband, I want to too!"

The two women said this request one after the other, which made Yang Chen quite at a loss as to what to do. Give it to them, knowing that it is that kind of pain, Yang Chen will also feel distressed. Don't give it, but the two women are so stubborn.

"Sister Shanshan, don't make things difficult for husband!" Sun Qingxue was also a very winking person, seeing Yang Chen's hesitation, she immediately grabbed Shi Shanshan's sleeve and began to act coquettishly. And Gao Yue also shook her head slightly towards Tao Junqi, signaling her not to embarrass her husband.

Yang Chen is not a stingy person, especially for his own women, no matter how precious things are, he will treat them lightly. Not to mention inner sensing pills, which is just a third grade pill, even a fifth grade questioning inner heart pill was given casually, he never hesitated before. By doing this, it is obvious that the medicinal properties of the third grade inner sensing pills are indeed very unusual.

Looking at the behavior of the girls, Yang Chen couldn't help but wryly smile. He just did it out of kindness, but Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi misunderstood a bit. In the previous life, the two women were originally that kind of high-ranking characters, but in this life, because they have been together for too long, he have forgotten their future glory.

After understanding this point, Yang Chen didn't hesitate any longer. Everyone was given a third grade inner sensing pill, but he still couldn't help but remind the two girls to be careful, and at the same time, didn't forget to give them encouragement.

Just like Yang Chen, the two girls quickly set up a restraint around them, and took the pill in their hands calmly. Yang Chen carefully looked at the two women opposite each other, planning to intervene immediately if something went wrong. However, he immediately realized that he had made a fuss over a molehill, the effect of the inner sensing pill was only a dozen or so breaths away, and the effect would pass without him doing anything.

As soon as the inner sensing pill was taken, Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi immediately showed a look of pain on their faces. Under the painful twist, the two beautiful faces looked very strange. In just one breath, the two girls were covered in sweat. For people of their cultivation, this was simply impossible.

Heart cheering for the two girls, Yang Chen silently counted the time, one breath, two breaths... nine breaths, ten breaths, just counting to the tenth breath, Tao Junqi on the right snorted, and the voice she made triggered even more severe pain, her body went limp, and she completely lost consciousness.

Shi Shanshan gritted her teeth desperately to hold on, but she only endured two more breaths than Tao Junqi, and she couldn't hold on any longer. The pain directly exceeded the limit of endurance, and she also lost consciousness.

This is the body's self-protection mechanism. Yang Chen waited silently for more than a dozen breaths and confirmed that the effect of the medicine had completely passed. Then he broke the restraint and rescued the two women. At the same time, he did not forget to give each of the two women a mouth that's filled with a mouthful of ginseng liquid more than 2,000 years old to replenish their vitality.

Except for Yang Chen, no one expected such a result. Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling and Sun Qingxue just thought that Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi would not be able to bear it and would not take another pill, but they did not expect that they would go into a coma immediately. The efficacy of this third grade inner sensing pill was simply killing people.

Chapter 744: : Fifth Grade Inner Sensing Pills

Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi were not in a coma for a long time, they soon woke up, and immediately remembered the previous events. Swallowing the ginseng liquid in their mouth, knowing that it was the husband who replenished their bodies, tenderness rose in their hearts, but at the same time, they were a little impressed by each other's stubbornness.

Especially when Shi Shanshan found herself lying in the arms of her husband, she felt a little impatient. Her previous stubbornness was as ridiculous as a farce.

“Why is this happening, husband?” As the eldest sister, Gao Yue is naturally the most suitable to come forward at this time, and it can also relieve the embarrassment of the two girls.

“The medicine is too strong, stronger than a thousand cuts.” Yang Chen shook his head slightly, but then immediately continued: “However, although it is not very helpful for understanding the qi and blood for the time being, it is helpful for tempering the will. Shanshan and Junqi, you are so powerful, your husband thought you couldn’t bear it, and waited for you to ask for help, but you survived, and you fainted with pain. You really deserve to be my women.”

Yang Chen’s words made the eyes of Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi light up. Among the crowd, only Yang Chen and them had tasted the third grade inner sensing pill, so they naturally understood it better than the others. With Yang Chen’s statement, their previous stubbornness became less embarrassing and turned into courage.

However, to be honest, Yang Chen’s words are very reasonable. That level of pain, if you can really endure it, will indeed greatly hone your will. This thing of will has nothing to do with the cultivation of spiritual awareness, it only depends on the strength of one’s heart. After going through this experience, it seems that one’s spirit is a little sublimated.

Of course, the two girls really admire Yang Chen now. That level of pain, Yang Chen actually endured it from the beginning to the end with just a painful expression on his face, it was not something a human could bear, it was thanks to their husband who endured it so abruptly.

When it comes to tempering the will, all the girls started to be interested. Although Yang Chen’s Nine Serenity Flying Sword can temper the state of mind, it is another way of tempering. Different from the current one, this one is all about exercising one’s endurance and the ability to endure pain.

If you can persevere under this kind of pain and keep your mind focused, they believe that no matter how much damage you suffer in actual combat, you will not immediately panic and lead to complete failure. It’s another way to save your life.

As a result, Yang Chen originally planned to seal up the third grade inner sensing pills, but now each of the women asked for a few pills to hone themselves.

Yang Chen didn't stop them either, it wasn't that he didn't love his women, but that sometimes suffering under such a controlled situation was better than suffering in actual combat without training.

Of course, Yang Chen himself had other plans. In the process of enduring the third grade inner sensing pill, Yang Chen suddenly discovered that it seemed that as long as his body was strong enough, he could endure this kind of pain even more. Conversely, this level of pain is more conducive to tempering one's own body.

Yang Chen has already practiced the body refining technique to the initial stage of sea pouring strength. Basically, Yang Chen already feels that it is impossible to go further in the mortal world. The medicinal effect of the third grade inner sensing pill made him think of another way, using the pain caused by the third grade inner sensing pill to temper the body refining technique.

Strong muscle strength, strong bones, strong fascia, plus strong will and the ability of the nervous system to endure pain. In the previous cultivation, the outer musculoskeletal fascia is strong enough, but the inner nervous system is still relatively weak. The third grade inner sensing pill seems to be able to make up for this shortcoming.

According to normal practice, the body refining technique can only be cultivated by ordinary cultivators who have reached the Immortal world, because the body has undergone numerous transformations, making it extremely powerful. Of course, the effect of the body refining technique transformation will be thousands of times harder. Even in the realm of sea pouring strength, it will take at least a thousand years or even longer to reach the point where the internal nervous system is also tempered, and then it will be tempered by external and internal influences and gradually become stronger.

However, the third grade inner sensing pill completely omitted this step, directly acting on the nerves, enhancing one's own senses thousands of times, artificially causing this kind of ubiquitous severe pain, and there is a more suitable quenching method than this. Is it the way of refining the body?

Thinking of doing it, Yang Chen immediately took another third grade inner sensing pill into his mouth, arranged the restraint, and activated the yellow turban warrior body refining technique.

After swallowing the elixir, the body began to plunge into pain again. The incomparable physical body became more and more distorted, frantically resisting this boundless pain from within.

As soon as the body refining technique was activated, Yang Chen noticed that his ability to endure pain had greatly improved. Although he was still excruciatingly painful, it hadn't reached the point where he couldn't bear it. It seems that the third grade inner sensing pill was not very effective.

Next, after Yang Chen endured the effects of a third grade inner sensing pill, he immediately changed to a fourth grade inner sensing pill. The fourth grade inner sensing pill medicinal effect is ten times stronger. If he was not practicing the body refining technique, it will definitely make Yang Chen want to die, just like Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi.

After using the fourth grade inner sensing pill, Yang Chen got used to it after using it for a while, and after eating all the fourth grade inner sensing pills he refined, Yang Chen began to swallow the fifth grade inner sensing pills.

The fifth grade inner sensing pills finally gave Yang Chen the feeling that he was approaching the limit. After relying on the body refining technique to survive, Yang Chen felt that the effect of the inner sensing pill was too short, and it had already passed after he had just experienced it. If he wanted to continue to practice, he would be interrupted if he continued to take it and if he only used one, he always felt a little unfulfilled.

For the first time, Yang Chen had the idea of modifying the pill formula, and then this idea got out of hand and became more and more intense. However, there are mainly two directions that he wants to modify the inner sensing pills.

One is to maintain the original function, to detect the circulation of qi and blood in the body. The reason why the inner sensing pill was unable to detect the circulation of Qi and blood in the third grade was because the sensory amplification was too painful, and it was impossible to concentrate on experiencing the circulation of Qi and blood. In fact, any other senses other than detecting Qi and blood, including vision, hearing and pain, are just side effects and have no meaning at all.

If all these side effects can be shielded, then the inner sensing pill will still have a considerable auxiliary effect on cultivation. Speaking of which, the inner sensing pill was obtained from the monster race, the medicine of the monster race is always rough.

Of course, if these side effects are shielded and the time can last longer, it will be better and better, and that is the real good medicine.

Chapter 745: : Improved Inner Sensing Pills

This direction is to bring into play the original effect of the inner sensing pill, and get rid of the side effects. The other direction is to keep the side effects, but only for a long time to meet the needs of long-term cultivation.

Speaking of it, the first modification shouldn't be too difficult. There are many ways to shield the external sensation, and adding some medicinal materials with anesthetic effect can satisfy it. Of course, Yang Chen needed further evidence and experiments on what to add and how much to use.

On the contrary, it is somewhat difficult to extend the time. Yang Chen was planning to carefully analyze which medicinal materials in the inner sensing pill recipe controlled the duration of their effects, when he suddenly found that the surrounding situation was different, he raised his head and saw that his wives and concubines were all around him, almost all pair of beautiful eyes stared at him without blinking, and there were bursts of strange light in their eyes.

Yang Chen subconsciously thought that there was something wrong with himself, and after looking down for a while, he realized that there was nothing wrong. He raised his head and looked at his women suspiciously, puzzled.

"Husband, what you just took was the fifth grade inner sensing pill?" Sun Qingxue's question interrupted Yang Chen's guess. Their eyes were full of admiration, staring at Yang Chen as if staring at some great hero.

Yang Chen nodded his head and admitted Sun Qingxue's guess. He nodded, and immediately made all the girls around him say "ah" in disbelief.

During Yang Chen's practice of swallowing pills continuously, all the girls had already endured the power of the third grade inner sensing pill once. Without exception, all fainted, even Shi Shanshan and Tao Junqi, who swallowed for the second time, were no exception.

This time, because Yang Chen was so absorbed in his cultivation that he didn't take care of them, all the girls woke up slowly after the medicine had worn off for a long time. Aftertaste of the painful taste just now, it was like going to hell once.

Then they immediately discovered that Yang Chen was eating inner sensing pills one by one. Judging from the dragon-shaped pill pattern on the top, Yang Chen was eating fourth grade inner sensing pills. After a while, the elixir turned into the fifth grade inner sensing pills.

The girls who discovered this scene were almost stunned. They couldn't even last more than a dozen breaths after taking the third grade inner sensing pills, and fainted all the time, but their husband seemed to be unable to feel it, and even ate so much, and it was higher-grade inner sensing pills. The pain was ten times a hundred times worse, could it be that their husband's body was made of iron?

Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling and the others have already seen how powerful Yang Chen is, but Tao Junqi and the others have not fully experienced it. After this, the girls re-recognized their husband again. It seems that this husband was not just as simple as a fifth-grade alchemist.

Yang Chen's impression of himself to his concubines is that he has extensive knowledge, is excellent in alchemy, and calm in situations, and now they have to add another one. They can endure what ordinary people can't, but they haven't had the chance to see Yang Chen's real strength, and they don't know how Yang Chen's fighting power is. But since he was able to escape from the Demon Continent, he would probably be no worse than Gao Yue and the others.

After the girls calmed down, Yang Chen talked to the girls about his idea of reforming the inner sensing pill. Regarding this, all the girls naturally agreed with both hands and strongly supported it.

Tao Junqi single-handedly took care of the task of clearing up the pure yin true fire. In fact, up to now, she has successfully opened a half-wide path on the fire field, and there will be a few more years. Even if the pure yin true fire cannot be completely cleared, everyone can still enter the hall through this path.

Yang Chen, after referring to a lot of common sense of pharmacology, learned a lot of experience from the «Elderly Lord Pill Scripture» «Profound Pill Scripture» and the refining experience of those seniors from all sides, and began to revise the formula of the inner sensing pill.

On the basis of the original pill recipe, Yang Chen added a thousand-year-old mandala and several kinds of neutralizing and auxiliary medicinal materials. After several trials, the timing and duration of joining were determined, and it was soon, less than two months. A batch of modified second grade inner sensing pills were released easily.

Of course it was Yang Chen himself who tested the efficacy of the pill, he won't let his women suffer. After taking this brand new inner sensing pills, Yang Chen slowly realized the change in its medicinal effect.

As Yang Chen expected, after adding the mandala with anesthetic ingredients, the external senses and pain sensations were greatly reduced, but the original effect of detecting qi and blood was not lost, and Yang Chen could still feel it clearly.

It can be said that this test has been basically successful. If he has to mention its flaws, it is that the dose of Datura is still a bit small, and there are still some abnormal feelings. Yang Chen's ideal effect is just to be able to maintain normal senses, not to be completely anesthetized, and not to have more than usual pain, that would be perfect.

Of course, an idea is an idea, and there can be no perfect medicine in reality. At the same time, everyone's tolerance is also different. Some people can be anesthetized with just a little datura, while others need a large dose.

After slightly adjusting the dosage and adding about five points more mandala, Yang Chen started the formal refining. This time, Yang Chen went straight to the third and fourth grade refining. For his own wives and concubines, third grade and fourth grade can fully meet their requirements, and fifth grade refining is not necessary at all.

Even if they found out the slight inadequacy of the circulation of Qi and blood in the fifth grade inner sensing pills, it would be impossible for them to adjust it based on their current state. It would require at least the fifth grade human Immortal realm, after reaching the subtle level, only then is it possible.

Another year passed in the blink of an eye, and Yang Chen finally completed the refining of the fourth grade inner sensing pills. Yang Chen gave this brand-new inner sensing pills with added anesthetic ingredients a new name, Qi and Blood Pill, its main function is to detect the circulation of Qi and blood in the body.

The wives and concubines were all there, even the Murong sisters and Shi Wushuang, who were supposed to take turns to cultivate outside, were also there, and the timing was just right. After Yang Chen took out the Qi and Blood Pill and distributed it to the girls, the third grade Qi and Blood Pill was immediately consumed by the anxious girls. No one was worried about the pill that their husband had personally tested, everyone wanted to know how effective their husband's improved pill was.

Without the improvement of external sense organs, without pain stimulation, and paying attention wholeheartedly to the circulation of qi and blood, the women can finally have a thorough understanding of the circulation of qi and blood in their own bodies.

Soon, Sun Qingxue, who had the highest cultivation level among the four regular wives, changed. After discovering some small flaws in the blood circulation in her body, Gongsun Ling corrected these flaws as quickly as possible. The effect was immediate, and Gongsun Ling's cultivation had improved slightly in an instant.

Chapter 746: : Even The Pot

Gongsun Ling was already at the peak Yuanying stage. For hundreds of years, she had tempered the geographical map of mountains and rivers according to the method instructed by Li Cheng, and her spiritual power was pure. Now, after the conditioning of this third grade qi and blood pill, it was even on the verge of extinction. Between breathing, it seems that it can trigger a tribulation at any time.

Yang Chen didn't let Gongsun Ling attack the Yin fire tribulation immediately. Sometimes, the more solid the foundation is laid, the easier it is to cultivate after the tribulation. This can be seen from the old tree demon Gui Shanyou.

The old tree demon is not considered a genius with outstanding aptitude, but after he forcibly suppressed more than a dozen tribulations and successfully survived the tribulation, his cultivation base was so strong that the world looked at him differently. Even if it is only the early Dacheng stage, it is enough to compete with other masters in the middle and late Dacheng stage, the strength was evident.

According to the method taught by Yang Chen, Gongsun Ling forcibly suppressed the Yin fire tribulation and continued to cultivate. This is the method summed up by the old tree demon. After Yang Chen's small improvement, it was successfully used on Gongsun Ling.

Speaking of it, this method can only be used before the Yin fire tribulation, if it can be further applied to the raging wind tribulation, it will definitely arouse the crazy pursuit of the world. The elders of the various sects don't need to hide in the demon sealing formation at all, as long as they use this method, it would be enough.

Gongsun Ling's effect was the fastest, and soon all the women's effects after taking the medicine also appeared. Everyone has more or less discovered the flaws in the flow of qi and blood in their bodies, and after correcting them, their cultivation has improved. However, when used on the few concubines at the Dacheng stage, the effect was not so obvious. Obviously, the third-grade Qi and Blood Pill was no longer enough to have much influence on the masters of the Dacheng stage.

Of course, Yang Chen would not be stingy with the Fourth grade Qi and Blood Pill, and distributed a few pills to Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters. In front of Yang Chen, the girls once again took the Qi and Blood Pill, and this time, the remarkable effect finally appeared.

Tao Junqi also didn't seem to have expected that since she had reached the peak Dacheng stage, there would still be such subtle deviations in the qi and blood in her body. After correcting them one by one, she just felt indescribably comfortable all over her body. The spiritual power that had been very smooth in the past seemed to become more and more harmonious, and finally there was only one feeling left, that of being at ease.

The changes of the Murong sisters were relatively more obvious, they were originally at the peak of the early Dacheng stage. In just one month, they directly broke through the bottleneck of the early Dacheng stage and entered the ranks of the middle Dacheng stage.

The change of Shi Wushuang was not as direct as breaking through the realm, but the realm in the early Dacheng stage has been completely consolidated, and the hidden wounds accumulated in hundreds of years of cultivation were gone, and her future cultivation will be smooth.

Seeing the changes in the girls, Yang Chen finally felt relieved, this qi and blood pill was successful after all. Strictly speaking, this is the first time Yang Chen has changed a ready-made elixir formula after his rebirth, and completely improved a elixir according to his knowledge of pharmacology. It can be said that this is the embodiment of Yang Chen's true alchemy level.

Yang Chen himself also benefited from the third grade Qi and Blood Pill. It has to be said that the appearance of the Qi and Blood Pill was too timely. Yang Chen practiced the Yellow Turban Warrior Body Refining Technique to temper his body, and it was inevitable that his body would be damaged during the cultivation. This time, almost all the extremely subtle hidden injuries in the past were discovered and adjusted one by one.

This small adjustment to the dark wounds alone strengthened the effect of the Yellow Turban Warrior's body refining technique by at least 10%. Although it didn't bring about an improvement in realm, it also made Yang Chen's body stronger and stronger.

Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue were already used to the natural promotion process when they were cultivating by Yang Chen's side, and they just felt it was a matter of course. But it was the first time that Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters felt so deeply.

Cultivation, this is something all cultivators have a deep understanding of. No matter how correct the direction is, there will always be more or less problems. At the slightest, it would be a waste of time to make detours, and at the worst, it would affect the cultivation and may even get injured, but following Yang Chen's side, it seemed that the previous common sense had been overturned, and the cultivation became a matter of course. It was almost the first time for the seven concubines to experience this kind of smooth flow.

Yang Chen doesn't care about the feelings of the women now, he has already devoted himself to studying the second grade inner sensing pill. Extend the duration of the medicinal effect, and use it to cultivate the Yellow Turban warrior body refining technique, and at the same time, to hone the will.

This change is obviously not that easy. It took Yang Chen three years to carefully analyze the various medicinal materials and refining methods of the inner sensing pill, and Yang Chen discovered some clues.

The change of medicinal materials is not important, what is important is the refining method. Just like the qi seeking pill back then, the medicinal effect was brought out by the unique method, if you want to prolong the time for the inner sensing pill to take effect, you have to change some methods during the refining process.

When it comes to alchemy technique, there is probably nothing in this world more powerful than the technique handed down by the Grand Supreme Elderly Lord. There is no elixir prescription or pharmacology in Elderly Lord Pill Scripture, and almost the entire refining techniques. During the three years, Yang Chen pondered over dozens of techniques, and finally decided on three.

The three methods have their own advantages and disadvantages, and the effects they bring may be slightly different, but the specific effect still needs to be practiced. After figuring it out, Yang Chen started to act.

Three batches of improved inner sensing pills were released in a row, each time was the simplest first-grade refinement, but each time the pills obtained were second-grade pills that had been upgraded by the profound spirit Furnace.

Yang Chen took the three kinds of inner sensing pills one by one. For Yang Chen, the second-grade inner sensing pill, there was almost no pain, he just felt the time when the effect of the medicine took effect.

The Elderly Lord Pill Scripture is worthy of being the Elderly Lord Pill Scripture. All three methods have achieved the purpose of prolonging the efficacy of the medicine, but each has its own advantages and disadvantages in the length of time, and at the same time, it will more or less affect the multiple of sensory enhancement.

Yang Chen didn't directly choose the one with the longest time, but made a compromise, and took the middle method, which was the second longest in terms of time, but the sensory enhancement was slightly weaker than the inner sensing pill. The reason why he chose this one was because after the third grade refining, he needed to make the girls last longer, so as not to faint in pain.

Yang Chen asked Gao Yue to give the new elixir a new name, heart refining pill, as the name suggests, it is for tempering the will. Having obtained a brand new refining method, Yang Chen opened the furnace again, and solidly refined a large number of third grade pills, and at the same time produced a batch of fourth grade and fifth grade pills.

The third grade and fourth grade is for his wives and concubines, and the fifth rank is for Yang Chen himself. As for the fourth grade pills, it would be more difficult to use after the girls got used to it, or they would find opportunities to sell it at a high price. Anyway, the pill refined by Yang Chen, they don't know how many people would come crying and begging for it.

Chapter 747: : Entering The Palace

In the process of improving the elixir, Tao Junqi also opened a path from the pure yin real fire to the palace. Because Yang Chen was refining alchemy, the girls didn't alarm Yang Chen, nor went in directly, but waited for Yang Chen to finish refining. Now that the pill is in hand, everyone can finally happily see what good things are in that palace.

Yang Chen couldn't laugh or cry when all the girls insisted on waiting for him to enter the palace together. The things inside belong to everyone, so what's the difference if you look at it first and then he look at it later?

However, Yang Chen still accepted the girls' kindness, took the lead and led the girls into the palace.

For tens of thousands of years, this was the first time outsiders entered the palace. The inside of the palace was very clean, without even a speck of dust, and it seems to be waiting for the arrival of the new owner.

It is said to be a palace, but in fact, the entrance is a huge circular hall, and there is only such a hall. Around the hall is a circle of connected jade platforms, which are filled with a wide variety of treasures, which are dizzying for the eyes. Don't look at anything else, just look at the color and light, it is enough to make people's heart beat.

Yang Chen's eyes did not stare at those items, but directly landed on the surface of the jade platform. There are circles of regular patterns on the surface of the jade platform, some of which were shining brightly, while others were very dim.

While Yang Chen was watching, the patterns on a jade platform flashed with light, and then a long knife that looked good on the jade platform disappeared without a trace. In the blink of an eye, the patterns on the jade platform dimmed immediately, and a disc suddenly appeared on the jade platform.

All the girls' attention was attracted by the flashing light just now. After observing for a while, they all focused on Yang Chen's face, waiting for Yang Chen to clarify everyone's doubts.

"This is the reason why precious materials appear in those places outside." Yang Chen quickly figured out the mystery, and explained with a smile: "The formation on the jade platform is like the entrance of a storage bag. The formation after absorbing enough spiritual power, it will activate, take things in, and then send it out somewhere."

All the girls suddenly realized that this Langya Well has been opened dozens of times, and every time people come in there are precious materials, but it turned out to be the reason. Needless to say, the disc that suddenly appeared also fell out of another storage space. Obviously that storage space must be in this hall.

This also means that as long as everyone collects that storage space, nothing will appear in other places in Langya Well. Those guys outside who still want to get some good things from Langya Well by chance will never have to think about getting any good things in the days to come.

The girls soon discovered the storage space, which was on the top of the hall, like a huge qiankun bag. This big qiankun bag also needs the support of spiritual power. Every time the formation below is activated, something will be taken out of the qiankun bag. Therefore, after the long knife disappeared, a jade plate appeared.

"I don't know how this sect designed such a thing." Yang Chen also couldn't figure out what the original sect members of Langya Well thought. If there are good things, of course they are distributed to the disciples of the sect, so what does it mean to hide them and protect them with the pure yin true fire?

If you can't figure it out, you can't figure it out. This does not prevent Yang Chen's family from happily putting away their things first. This time, this big qiankun bag took advantage of the Murong sisters. To open the big qiankun bag requires the spiritual power of the five elements to be complete. Among Yang Chen's family, only Yang Chen can open it independently, and the others can only join forces. But when it comes to teaming up, who can be more comfortable than the Murong sisters?

The treasures of ancient sects, it just fell into the hands of Yang Chen's family. Gao Yue and the wives are used to getting a lot of good things when with Yang Chen. But it was the first time for Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang and the others. Even with their Dacheng stage state of mind, they were still very happy. They have seen a lot of precious materials, but they have not found many precious materials themselves, especially when they got so many at once.

The big qiankun bag is mainly magic weapons, each of which is a precious material that has been carefully refined by masters. Take it out casually, it is enough to be the magic weapon of ordinary masters. The only pity is that these magic weapons need to spend at least a hundred years to refine them in order to eliminate the aura left by the refiner.

No one thinks there are too many good things, but the fact that they can't use them when they get them made the girls feel a little bit discouraged. Without even thinking about it, Sun Qingxue threw herself into Yang Chen's arms, and said coquettishly, "husband, help us find a solution!"

There is no need to think about the solution, Yang Chen just asked the Murong sisters to pass the magic weapon to him in the same way, when it was passed it in his hands, and then the girls were surprised to find that all the aura left by those refiners disappeared in a blink of an eye without a trace.

The four wives were okay, not very surprised, but the seven concubines couldn't believe it. How can there be such a simple good thing? One must know that among the cultivators outside, it took dozens or even hundreds of years to cultivate. Yang Chen actually did it casually, how many incomprehensible skills does their own husband have?

Xiao Tian is actually the most comfortable one. There are so many treasures, each one is delicious to him. He devoured every piece of magic weapon, devouring it with great joy.

Yang Chen passed one piece, and the girls immediately divided up one piece. Of course, it is also very simple for everyone to divide things. Anyway, the grades of the magic weapons are similar. Everyone formed a circle, sat in rows and ate fruits and vegetables. One piece for each person, which was very fair.

"This time, did we take all the things in Langya Well?" It took more than ten days to divide the spoils before everyone finished dividing the spoils. Shi Wushuang couldn't help but teasingly said with a full qiankun bag.

"It should be!" Sun Qingxue cheerfully put away her qiankun bag, and then replied: "Now I can exchange a lot of good things when I go back, Master will definitely be so happy."

Sun Qingxue's words caused everyone to burst into laughter. No one thinks there are too many good things, especially magic weapons of this level, even if they don't need them, they can still exchange for many useful things for themselves.

"Actually not necessarily." Yang Chen chuckled suddenly and said, "It's just a small amount."

“Anything else?” All the girls came to their senses for a moment, looked at their husband with great vigor, and waited for his answer.

“There are actually a lot of good things out there.” Yang Chen cast his gaze outside the main hall. Everyone looked over with Yang Chen’s gaze, and the blazing Pure Yin True Fire appeared in everyone’s eyes. Thinking of the fourth fire devine thunder that Yang Chen had mentioned, everyone immediately understood what good things Yang Chen was talking about.

“The fourth fire devine thunder is just another part.” Yang Chen lowered his head with a smile, looked at the ground of the hall and said, “The real precious material is here.”

Chapter 748: : Yellow Springs Jade

“Here?” Following Yang Chen’s gaze, everyone began to look underground. Soon, all the girls raised their heads, with puzzled expressions on their faces, Gongsun Ling couldn’t help asking.

Although the floor of the main hall is good, it is only good. It is just a neat and beautiful crystal stone floor. Compared with the refined emerald floor tiles of the Dragon Palace, it is not known how bad it is. The girls who are used to seeing the big scenes in the Dragon Palace really can’t think of these floors in front of them as something precious, could it be that these are some unknown treasures?

“It’s not these, but something underground.” Yang Chen smiled and explained softly. His spiritual awareness has penetrated the floor, entered the stratum below, and saw the mineral vein below.

All the girls were not stupid, so they immediately follow the gourd and draw a ladle, and their spiritual awareness went down. Soon, the girls also had the same discovery.

Below the main hall where everyone is located is a large jade mine, and a few huge topaz can be found very close to the surface. Although they haven’t seen what it looks like, but they think the quality is still good.

“These yellow springs jade?” Gao Yue couldn’t help frowning. Although the quality of the topaz under their feet is not low, it is not something worthy of everyone’s attention. There is another name for these topaz, which is Yellow Springs Jade that Gao Yue mentioned. In the mortal world, not to mention cultivators, even ordinary mortals may not like it.

“It’s top-quality yellow springs jade.” Yang Chen added an attributive to describe it with certainty, smiling all over his face. The difference between ordinary yellow springs jade and the top-grade yellow springs jade is not one or two points, the value is completely different.

It’s no wonder that all the girls have incredible expressions. People usually don’t like these yellow springs jade, firstly because of the name, and secondly because this so-called topaz has a very strange smell, which makes people very uncomfortable. No one would be happy to smell messy when wearing a jade pendant.

To put it more clearly, the smell of the yellow springs jade is a bit like the smell of decayed coffins that have been buried in ancient tombs for many years. The reason why the yellow springs jade got its name is also because of this smell. People thought it was a stone from the yellow springs, so it was named yellow springs jade.

Yellow springs jade is indeed a pile of garbage in the mortal world. It is estimated that no one would want it for anything, and no one would be willing to make building materials from it, even the most top-quality yellow springs jade.

Ordinary people don’t like it, and cultivators don’t like it either. No matter how this yellow spring jade is refined, it always has a nasty smell. The material is not suitable for refining, it is also not sensitive to spiritual power, and is completely a rock.

Apart from the delicate stone quality and the nicer color, these yellow springs jades can be said to have no merits. The girls really couldn’t figure it out, how could their husband say that these things are treasures?

If you can’t figure it out, you can’t figure it out, but no one will doubt Yang Chen’s words. Yang Chen said that this is a treasure, so it will definitely not be garbage. But everyone still looked at Yang Chen curiously, waiting for his explanation.

Yang Chen couldn’t explain it, he couldn’t tell everyone. These top-quality yellow spring jades have ascended to the spiritual world, are they precious materials that everyone can’t grab?

Ordinary people can't use it because of the limitation of the environment. The cultivation base of the cultivators is not high enough, and the spiritual pressure from the outside world is too small, so they cannot play the role of yellow springs jade at all.

In the spiritual world, this yellow springs jade that people hate has another name, it is divine dwelling jade. Its greatest function is to allow cultivators to separate a ray of soul to live in it, as long as this piece of jade that entrusts a thread of soul will not be destroyed. Even if the cultivator body is killed, it can still be resurrected by relying on a ray of primordial spirit in this piece of divine dwelling jade.

Of course, the price is not low, and the cultivator who is resurrected with the divine dwelling jade will have a sharp drop in cultivation. The primordial spirit would be damaged, and it will take at least thousands of years to make up for it. However, no one would care about this price compared to the death of the soul. If there is a piece of divine dwelling jade, it is equivalent to one more life.

However, this kind of divine dwelling jade is only produced in the mortal world, not in the spiritual world or Immortal world. Moreover, not all yellow springs jades of any quality can be called divine dwelling jade. Only the best of the best can be qualified to become the divine dwelling jade. Of course, it's just a qualification, to truly become the divine dwelling jade, it needs to be refined by masters with great effort.

The most amazing thing is that the real use of the yellow springs jade has never been handed down when the consciousness clones of various sects in the Immortal world are separated into the lower realm. All memories about the yellow springs jade will be completely forgotten in the lower realm. So much so that there is no record of any divine dwelling jade in the mortal world.

There is only a little bit of divine dwelling jade in the spiritual world and Immortal world, and it was discovered and used by some extremely lucky guy who happened to bring a little bit of divine dwelling jade on his ascension. It can be said that every piece of divine dwelling jade is invaluable after being brought up.

As much as a cultivator's life is worth, this divine dwelling jade is worth as much. It's no wonder that Yang Chen regards these rubbish in everyone's eyes as treasures. It's a pity that Yang Chen couldn't explain all this to the girls, he could only make them feel unhappy.

“Do you really want to dig this stinky thing?” Sun Qingxue pouted her lips and asked, her little face full of displeasure. Not only Sun Qingxue, but even Gao Yue and the others looked at Yang Chen with displeasure, waiting for his answer.

The yellow springs jade’s smell is very bad. Yang Chen’s wives and concubines are all fairies who love cleanliness. Although no one doubts Yang Chen’s words, if he really want them to dig these yellow springs jade, they may not be able to accept it. You must know that due to the influence of the yellow springs jade, the surrounding soil must also have that weird smell. A group of fragrant and beautiful girls doing this kind of thing is absolutely unpleasant.

“Okay, your husband will do this.” Yang Chen smiled and undertook all the work of digging the yellow springs jade by himself, his words also made all the girls smile.

“Haha, now our family has taken the Langya Well all together!” Shi Wushuang immediately brought the topic to the treasures of the Langya Well, and the girls immediately chattered about it.

All the magic weapons in this secret place were shared equally by everyone, not even the big Qiankun bag was left behind. Moreover, the pure yin true fire outside, and the underground yellow springs jade were not left behind, which can be described as “scraping the ground three feet”.

“Actually, there is only one thing missing to be considered a success.” When everyone was happy, it was Yang Chen who jumped out to spoil the scenery again. However, his words aroused everyone’s interest again. After guessing to no avail, they asked what it was.

Chapter 749: : New Natal Magic Weapon

The Langya crystal boat is the tool everyone takes when they come in, and it is also the first test in the Langya well. Those who can board the boat are qualified to enter the Langya well to make a fortune. Everyone patronizes the precious materials, but forgets that the real top-notch magic weapon that has been kept under everyone’s noses is really dark under the lamp.

However, after the Langya crystal boat sent everyone there, it sank into the weak water, so how should it be collected? The girls began to use their brains, racking their brains to figure out how to collect the Langya crystal ship.

If you want to collect the Langya crystal ship, you have to break through the weak water. Among the women, only Gao Yue and Murong Shu are water-attribute cultivators. The problem is, Gao Yue and Murong Shu don't know how to avoid the harm of the weak water.

Everyone thought about it, but they couldn't come up with a safe solution. You look at me, I look at you, and finally you have to turn your attention to their husband.

The girls suddenly realized that in front of Yang Chen, they seemed to know nothing, even Tao Junqi, who was the oldest and the most cultivated. Now everyone is used to it. When they encounter any problems and really have no way to do anything, they just wait for their husband to give them advice.

Yang Chen's gaze swept across Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan, and Sun Qingxue one by one, then Tao Junqi, Shi Wushuang, and finally stopped on the five Murong sisters. The girls didn't know what Yang Chen was going to do, they all looked at Yang Chen curiously.

"Yan'er, if your husband is not mistaken, the natal magic weapons of you sisters don't seem to be so balanced?" Yang Chen's gaze stopped on the Murong sisters, and he asked a question.

"How can it be so easy to get together the magic weapons for the balance of the five elements?" Murong Yan, the youngest who was asked by Yang Chen, gave a wry smile and replied in a delicate voice.

The Murong sisters come from the Five Elements Sect, and the sect also vigorously cultivates them, but no matter how hard the sect works. There is no way to give them the magic weapon of the complete five-elements. Although everyone's natal magic weapon is an incredibly precious weapon, it still cannot be completely balanced after all. The sisters can only use similar weapons, and rely on the tacit understanding between the sisters to balance the gap between the natal magic weapons.

"If you are asked to change your own magic weapon, would you be willing?" Yang Chen suddenly asked a question that caught the Murong sisters off guard.

“Replace the magic weapons?” Not only the Murong sisters, but even Tao Junqi and Shi Wushuang were stunned.

Not to mention how many years of refining the natal magic weapon requires everyone to temper it. Needless to say, the hard work, the usage habits and tacit understanding cultivated over the years cannot be changed casually. Not to mention, changing the natal magic weapon actually means destroying the previous one to re-smelt the latter one. What is essential for cultivation will be affected, and there is even a great possibility of going backwards.

The Murong sisters are already masters in the middle Dacheng stage after taking the Qi and Blood Pills, and the natal magic weapon has been tempered and used for at least four or five hundred years. If they give up once, anyone will hesitate.

But Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue were very calm about this. This kind of thing is really too normal. Gao Yue and Gongsun Ling’s natal magic weapon was almost prepared by Yang Chen, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue’s natal flying sword embryos were refined by Yang Chen himself. Since the husband said so, it must be better than the Murong sisters now, the natal magic weapon is a better choice.

That’s what Yang Chen thought, Tao Junqi’s ascension was imminent, and it was too late to change her magic weapon. And with the pure yin true fire as the natal fire, as long as the pure yin true fire is added to the natal magic weapon, Tao Junqi’s natal magic weapon can be directly promoted to the top level, and there is no need to replace it.

Needless to say, Gao Yue and the wives magic weapons were all prepared by Yang Chen, and there is no need to replace them. What is missing now is Shi Wushuang and the Murong sisters. For Shi Wushuang, it is easy to arrange, she is a wood attribute, Yang Chen only needs to take out a whole plant of a Penglai devine wood and let Shi Wushuang refine it into her natal flying sword. The only trouble is the five Murong sisters.

The fighting power of the five of them is mainly concentrated on the five elements formation. The five people’s cultivation bases are similar to each other, and this is the foundation. However, as they enter the spirit world and the Immortal world in the future, the gap between the five people’s natal magic weapons will become larger and larger, and it will become more and more difficult to balance. The reason why the Murong sister’s reputation in later generations is not as prosperous as that of Fairy Hanmei is that they were dragged down by their magic weapons.

Speaking of the Langya crystal boat, Yang Chen suddenly had a solution in his mind that could solve the disadvantage of the five girls. The five-element hook was originally used by five people, and it was made of five strands of dragon tendons. Is there a natal magic weapon more suitable for five women than this? As long as the five-element hook is separated, with the tacit understanding and genius of the five girls, he believe that it will soon become a set of super magic weapons that will move the world.

The only thing to worry about is the decline in cultivation brought about by the replacement of the magic weapons and the time for re-refinement. Fortunately, the five girls are only in the early Dacheng stage, and there is still a lot of time before they ascend for them to re-refine. Now he only has to look at what the five girls themselves think.

“We will let husband decide!” The hesitation of the five girls did not last for a long time, and soon the five sisters made the same decision tacitly. Yang Chen is their husband and he has a wide range of knowledge, so he will never harm them, that’s enough.

“Use this, after pulling out the Langya crystal boat, separate them to make your natal magic weapon!” Yang Chen directly took out the five-element hook and handed it to the eldest sister Murong Han: “It is made of five-element dragon tendons and keel bones. It’s well balanced and best for you.”

Listening to Yang Chen’s understatement that it was made from the tendons and bones of the Five Elements Dragon, the delicate bodies of the Murong sisters couldn’t help but tremble. Knowing that the husband will not harm them, he will definitely give them a suitable magic weapon, but unexpectedly, it is a magic weapon of this level. The five girls immediately fell into a state of ecstasy beyond belief.

Not only the Murong sisters, but even Tao Junqi and Shi Wushuang were stunned. The girls couldn’t help but be surprised, the dragon clan has long since disappeared in the mortal world, but where did Yang Chen get the magic weapon refined from dragon tendons and bones?

“The origin is not a problem, rest assured, even if it is ascended, no dragon clan will pursue it.” Yang Chen gave the girls a reassurance, and then pointed out: “It will be troublesome to start tempering, don’t worry, use a lot of spiritual power, wait until you have your aura, and then refine it with your spiritual awareness.”

The five girls only nodded their heads frequently, and had no other words. Hearing their husband’s voice in their ears, they felt an unspeakable joy in their heart.

“When the tempering is completed, you don’t have to worry about the improvement of the magic weapon. This five-element hook is enough for you to use in the Immortal world.” As another small hidden danger in the future has been solved, Yang Chen was also happy, and he waved his hand: “Okay Let’s work on our own, and shovel the precious materials here before going out.”

Chapter 750: : Outside News

From the three great danger zones in Langya Well, to all the magic weapons that may appear in the big Qiankun bag, to the pure yin true fire, the yellow springs jade veins under the danger zone, if you count the Langya crystal ship, this trip for Yang Chen’s family, people can really say that they have shoveled the Langya Well up to its roots.

Not to mention anything else, once the Langya crystal ship is collected, no one will be able to come here through the weak water. There will be no more legends about Langya Well in the future.

According to this standard, Yang Chen found that his family really looked like locusts, and they didn’t leave any room for the guys behind. Not to mention that they eat meat and they drink soup, there is not even soup residue left.

Since Tao Junqi and the Murong sisters have gained a lot on this trip, Yang Chen was not partial, and directly gave Shi Wushuang a whole Penglai devine wood. As for how she uses it, that is Shi Wushuang’s own business. For these few concubines whose cultivation base is higher than his own, Yang Chen does not intend to give more guidance on cultivation.

The division of labor is very clear, Yang Chen is in charge of getting the yellow springs jade, Tao Junqi is in charge of getting the pure yin true fire, the Murong sisters are in charge of getting the Langya crystal ship, and the rest Gao Yue, Gongsun Ling, Shi Shanshan, Sun Qingxue and Shi Wushuang are concentrating on their cultivation, striving to be able to go further. Yang Chen’s plan when he came in was that the entire family had to enter the Dacheng stage.

Of course, everyone’s cultivation will never fall behind. Tao Junqi’s collection of the pure yin true fire is in itself a cultivation, and the same is true for refining the pills. The Murong sisters tempered the five-element hook and the natal magic weapon to lay a solid foundation for future cultivation. Shi Wushuang has already decided to refine the Penglai devine wood into her natal flying sword.

When the girls cultivated, they did not forget to take the pills that Yang Chen refined later. Everyone understands the benefits of this kind of tempering, and even in the later stage, they will ask Yang Chen to use the influence of demonic qi to further temper their mood while they are suffering from the pain of refining the questioning inner heart pills.

Yang Chen's cultivation will never be delayed. After taking the fifth-grade inner sensing pill, the yellow turban warrior body refining technique will be cultivated immediately. While cultivating the yellow turban warrior body refining technique, Yang Chen also had to do another job, which was to dig the yellow springs jade with his bare hands.

The main hall was built on a very hard slate floor, and the veins of the yellow springs jade were irregularly distributed in this large piece of stone. Yang Chen didn't use any tools, just his bare hands, relying on the strength of his body, and started digging while cultivating the body refining technique.

The great pain brought by the refining pills stimulated the Yellow turban warrior body refining technique to almost reach its limit, and under this stimulation, Yang Chen's movements seemed to be crazy, he demolished the entire hall on the first day and then started digging like crazy.

Every yellow spring jade was wrapped in hard stones, Yang Chen relied on his strong spiritual awareness to find the location one by one, and then carefully excavated them.

In order to prevent the smell of the yellow springs jade from leaking out, Yang Chen carefully wrapped each piece of the yellow springs jade he dug up with wax, and carefully stored it in a corner of the merit ring. These are all fortunes that have ascended to the spirit world and the Immortal world, so they must be treated with care.

In the desperate land of Langya Well, no one disturbed them, only Yang Chen's family was busy, and they cultivated without any pressure.

While Yang Chen's family was cultivating hard, the outside situation was slowly changing. Because of the emergence of the Demon Sealing Formation, many high-ranking cultivators of the sect no longer worried about the tribulation coming, and began to let go of their cultivation.

Small sects are fine, they don't have masters of this level, but big sects are different. The deeper the sect's heritage, the more masters there will be and as soon as these people started to cultivate, the spiritual pulse of the sect was used rapidly.

In the past, the high-ranking masters of the major sects just slowly improved their cultivation over time. After all, under the situation of insufficient spiritual pressure in the mortal world, with their base numbers, the range of improvement was very limited. Most of the great masters work hard to suppress and seldom cultivate.

Every cultivator who is too advanced can almost be said to be a master who has surpassed the level of ascension. It is common sense that the more masters take up more spiritual resources. With so many masters letting go of their cultivation at the same time, even for the five major sects, the spiritual power supplied by the spiritual veins seems a bit stretched.

This is an unprecedented situation, something that has never been encountered before, and the major sects have to seriously consider this issue. It is important to be a master, but the power in the mortal world is still dominated by ordinary cultivators, and some contradictions inevitably arise from this.

Fortunately, all major sects have scattered resources. In order to supply the cultivation of these supreme masters, except for a few supreme masters who sit in the sect, the others have all transferred to other places to cultivate. Supreme masters must bring a new magic-sealing formation with them in their cultivation. Naturally, the Pure Yang Palace, which has a large number of formation resources, was sure to make a fortune.

This is true of the Dao Sect, and the same is true of the Demon Sect. Because of the emergence of the demon sealing formation, some demon masters who were not in a strong state of mind all hid in the demon sealing formation to cultivate. The sect masters who did not have the Demon Sealing Formation also began to concentrate on several major sects of the Demon Sect. Simply judging from the number of masters of this level, in the short hundred years since the appearance of the Demon Sealing Formation, the strength of the Demon Sect has been greatly improved.

Dao masters and demon masters of the same realm, in terms of pure combat power, it is obvious that demon sect masters have the upper hand. With the growth of the Demon Sect, some sects of the dao domain began to feel a little worried. Fortunately, as long as they did not invade the other side's mountain gate, those masters would not easily come out of the Demon Sealing Formation. The two sides maintained a superficial balance.

The changes in the strength of the two sides have led to subtle changes in the relationship between them. Except for the Greatest Heaven Sect who are still unswervingly holding the banner of Dao and Demon not fighting against Demon and Dao, the other major sects have begun to tacitly cooperate with Demon sects.

Because they missed the most critical message from the lower realm of the consciousness of the avatar in the Immortal world, even if the Greatest Heaven Sect rebuilt the reception array later, they only received some news that was passed down later. One wrong step, one wrong step, and what's even more frightening is that they still don't know what mistakes they made.

However, compared to other sects who compete for spiritual resources due to the cultivation of the Supreme Elder and ordinary disciples, the Supreme Heaven Sect has no pressure. The Qiankun Wuji Zhenyuan formation has been quietly used for more than a hundred years, and the sect's spiritual power is strong, so there is no worry at all.

These hundreds of years have been enough for the Greatest Heaven Sect to gradually smooth out the influence of the lack of disciples of the younger generation brought about by the destruction of the mountain gate. Coupled with the operation of the eccentric hall and sufficient spiritual support, the Greatest Heaven Sect has already left early on a high-speed development road.
