Chapter 761: Tao Junqi's Decision

Thinking that she had sworn the oath of inner heart demon, Tao Junqi's dilemma immediately calmed down. She has already sworn the heart demon, what else can she not choose? No matter what, she has to stand on the side of her husband. Even if there is a conflict with the sect, if necessary, she will bear the reputation of betraying her master and destroying her ancestors.

After thinking about it, Tao Junqi suddenly felt a burst of relief in her heart, as if many places that were a little depressed before were swept away, and she was indescribably refreshed.

At this moment, the spiritual power in her body seemed to have suddenly gotten rid of some shackles, she felt light, and wanted to ride of the wind. There also seems to be a force in the sky that attracted her, and wants to take her to the sky.

This is the sign that she can trigger the tribulation and ascend to the sky. As soon as Tao Junqi realized it, she immediately touched the brink of tribulation. As long as she persists for a while longer, she will be able to condense the tribulation cloud, the raging wind tribulation and ascend.

At this moment, Tao Junqi suddenly forcibly suppressed the relief in her heart. Even if she want to ascend, she have to ascend in front of her husband, she can't just leave without anyone knowing.

Of course, Shi Wushuang could clearly feel Tao Junqi's changes, even Tao Junqi almost caused a tribulation in her eyes just now. To be honest, Shi Wushuang still has a little bit of envy in her heart, but this was worthy of her admiration. Shi Wushuang believes in her own aptitude.

"If I want to leave, I have to do it in front of my husband." Tao Junqi didn't hide her thoughts from Shi Wushuang, she explained with a smile, and then continued to drag Shi Wushuang to cultivate. Their husband said that their cultivation base is enough, but killing intent is not enough. Tao Junqi still couldn't understand why their husband wanted them to kill.

Seeing Tao Junqi put their husband in her heart so much, Shi Wushuang really had a little taste this time. Of course, she wouldn't show it, but said to herself silently in her heart: "Shi Wushuang, Shi Wushuang, when you ascend in the future, you should also let your husband watch you ascend."

In the blink of an eye, it was another five years. During the past five years, the five Murong sisters finally successfully hooked the Langya crystal ship up from under the weak water with their joint efforts. After getting out of the weak water, the Langya crystal ship almost flew away by itself. Fortunately, all the five-element rope hooks are hooked on the ship, only then did the five girls firmly control it.

The five girls already have the Iron Wing Flying Eagle monster pet, and their flying speed is top-notch, even comparable to Yang Chen's flying shuttle. Relatively speaking, there is no need for any flying magic weapon for the time being. They didn't collect the Langya Crystal Ship, but handed it over to Yang Chen for distribution.

Yang Chen's seven concubines all have Iron Wing Flying Eagles, so they don't have to think about it. Gao Yue has a puppet refined by the second city lord of the Banyan Tree Immortal Cave, so flying is not a problem. Gongsun Ling has a boat, only Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue are left, they no decent flying tools yet.

Relatively speaking, Sun Qingxue is more favored by the sect in the Blue Cloud Sect, while Shi Shanshan seems a bit lonely. Although the Green Jade Immortal Island has also tried its best to cultivate Shi Shanshan these years, it is not the same as Sun Qingxue having a Dacheng stage master.

Sun Qingxue had a tortoise shield a long time ago, but Shi Shanshan didn't have any decent magic weapon yet. After weighing it, Yang Chen gave the Langya crystal ship to Shi Shanshan.

During these years, Tao Junqi and Shi Wushuang directly killed seven in and seven out of the Langya Well, earning a reputation. According to what Yang Chen said, they regarded the people who entered Langya Well as sharpening stones. They crazily honed their fighting skills, until the last moment, they will never let their opponents go easily.

It seems that the only grand elder who entered Langya well was the one who was killed by Yang Chen and Gongsun Ling. Anyway, Tao Junqi and Shi Wushuang, who went out to cultivate combat skills and experience, did not meet a grand elder.

A few years passed, the masters of Langya Well were all complaining. Knowing that the two girls practiced with them, they had to be forced to practice with them. They can't run away, they can't fight, they can't even fight back, every time they fight with their best. Fortunately, the two women didn't kill them, they always stopped at the last moment, so that they could escape with their lives.

But then again, Tao Junqi and Shi Wushuang have honed their fighting skills, and these Langya Well masters have not. How can it be so easy to get the experience of fighting against a cultivator like Tao Junqi? Later, everyone also came to a tacit understanding. As long as the two women come to challenge, they will go all out to challenge and improve each other.

In the past five years, Tao Junqi basically didn't kill many people except for killing dozens of guys who didn't have eyes or a good tongue, but she gained a lot of experience in fighting various masters. Especially dealing with group battles, it is even more rewarding, because in the later stage, those masters must unite with more than a dozen to barely fight against Tao Junqi.

Gao Yue, Shi Shanshan and Sun Qingxue completed their retreat, and they easily entered the peak Yuanying stage, which is only a few years behind Yang Chen.

Tao Junqi cleaned up the pure yin true fire faster and faster. As her cultivation base increased, the speed of refining the Fourth Fire Divine Thunder also became faster and faster. Seeing that in a few days, the last small piece of it will be cleared.

Under Yang Chen's efforts to excavate the yellow springs jade, the ore veins were exhausted, and no more pieces could be dug out. This time, Yang Chen spent more than ten years digging, and obtained almost thousands of top-quality yellow springs jade. According to Yang Chen's estimate, at least enough divine spring jade could be refined for five or six hundred people.

All the yellow springs jade are in Yang Chen's merit ring, sealed with wax and carefully preserved. At this time, Yang Chen didn't have the conditions to refine the divine spring jade, and the girls despised the smell of the yellow spring jade, so they refused to have it. He believes that after arriving in the spiritual world, these yellow spring jades will definitely give the girls a big surprise.

"Junqi, after refining the last Fourth Fire Divine Thunder, you should ascend!" Of course, Yang Chen could see Tao Junqi's state, and after the family reunited soberly again, Yang Chen said these words to Tao Junqi: "Go up earlier and make arrangements for us."

In fact, not only Yang Chen could see Tao Junqi's state, but all the girls could. Intentionally or not, everyone was letting Tao Junqi get along with Yang Chen more, and even in the last few years, Tao Junqi was the only one who served him every time they went to bed, enjoying the nourishment of her husband. Now, finally, it's time to say goodbye.

“I will make arrangements, husband !” Tao Junqi nodded solemnly, looked around at the girls, and finally cast her gaze on Yang Chen: “After you ascend, go to the Yang’s Manor!” Tao Junqi said the words Yang’s Manor emphatically.
