

Zhanxian 763

Chapter 763: Tao Junqi's Ascension

Being aroused by the Penglai divine wood tribulation, Tao Junqi became more and more energetic. Although there is no one from the sect by her side during the tribulation, it is enough to have a husband, family and sisters.

Just before Tao Junqi had prepared everything and was waiting for the tribulation, Yang Chen called Tao Junqi aside alone. The girls knew that Yang Chen must have something to say to Tao Junqi, and Tao Junqi must not be willing to part with her husband, so they all knew that they didn't have to come forward to disturb, leaving time for the two of them.

At this moment, Tao Junqi doesn't have the demeanor of a Dacheng stage master who is about to pass the tribulation and ascend, but she was simply a young woman in a boudoir who enjoys the love of her husband. She, who was full of arrogance, was completely naked, but she didn't care about other things. She leaned lazily in Yang Chen's arms, as if she wanted to squeeze herself into Yang Chen's body.

For a long time, neither Yang Chen nor Tao Junqi said a word, just maintained this posture, almost motionless. The only thing that moved was Yang Chen's mischievous hands, slowly moving around on Tao Junqi's delicate skin.

"Junqi, take this." Yang Chen handed a piece of jade slip to Tao Junqi, Tao Junqi obediently took it, and casually explored it with her spiritual awareness, a look of surprise suddenly appeared on her face.

Among the jade slips, there was a simple map. Yang Chen marked some things on it, it was the topography of the spiritual world and the distribution of various sects. At the same time, there were several Immortal caves locations, as well as the locations of some heavenly materials and earthly treasures.

In addition, there are some things Tao Junqi should pay attention to and do after her ascension. For example, go to the sect first, then collect an Immortal cave, refine it as the Yang Family Manor, place the Yang Family Manor in a certain place in the ocean, and so on.

"Husband, why do you have this?" Tao Junqi asked in shock. Things in the spiritual world, even the Greatest Heaven Sect, don't have much information. Apart from a few words passed down to the lower realm by the consciousness avatar. It is not easy to write down important news and some cultivation experience, skills and so on. About the topographical distribution of the spiritual world and the Immortal world, the distribution of the Immortal caves, the sky, and the distribution of the spiritual veins, they know very little, and it can almost be said that their eyes are smeared.

Yang Chen actually gave Tao Junqi such a jade slip, how could Tao Junqi not be shocked? Although the map is very crude, with only approximate directions, and drawn carelessly, how could Yang Chen know something that even the Greatest Heaven Sect doesn't know?

At this time, Yang Chen's good reputation of being well-read saved him a lot of explanations. Tao Junqi asked him how he got it in surprise, but she didn't intend to ask Yang Chen to explain it in detail. Anyway, she knew that Yang Chen had read a lot of books and got a lot of things from it that others didn't know. As for the specific book and content, She didn't need to ask clearly, as long as Yang Chen was her husband, this was what her husband told her, and it was enough for her own good.

Whether these things are right or not, Tao Junqi has no doubts. Tao Junqi's heart cannot be expressed in words for her husband's painstaking planning for herself. It was the first time in Yang Chen's place that she felt this kind of care. Even with her master, she didn't have such meticulous care.

The moment of parting finally arrived, and she got up from Yang Chen's arms. After putting on the dress with the help of her husband, Tao Junqi immediately became the elder of the Greatest Heaven Sect, the all-powerful Fairy Junqi.

Maybe it was the power of the Penglai devine wood's collective tribulation a few days ago that challenged Tao Junqi, maybe it was Yang Chen who gave Tao Junqi confidence. This time, Tao Junqi directly released her Iron Wing Flying Eagle. At the same time, she ordered the twelve Penglai devine woods who would follow her to ascend to attract their tribulation.

Even if cultivators have monster pets, they will be ranked in order. Senior Heihu from the Beast Control Sect is an example. In the future, Senior Heihu will be able to meet his master again after he survives the tribulation. Fourteen cultivators survived the tribulation at the same time, which is really rare in the history of the cultivation world. Tao Junqi's move, dare not say it is unprecedented, must be unprecedented.

Yang Chen and the girls were not far from Tao Junqi's tribulation, watching quietly. The golden bell and the geographical map of mountains and rivers worked together, and Yang Chen used some secret methods to block the attack of the tribulation. With the support of everyone's strong cultivation base, even if it is a tribulation, as long as everyone does not take the initiative to attack, they will not be attacked by the tribulation.

Under the watchful eyes of her husband- and sisters, Tao Junqi's clothes fluttered in high spirits, like a fairy in a fairyland, calmly enduring the silent wind in the sky. During the interval between the two tribulations, Fairy Junqi didn't even forget to give her husband and sisters a reassuring smile. She was calm, even if the sky collapses and the earth cracks, she can take it lightly. Between the sky and the earth, there was a beautiful picture of a fairy facing the wind.

The nine tribulations of the raging wind passed through successively, and the clouds in the sky disappeared for a moment, as if those tribulation clouds had never appeared.

After experiencing the baptism of the tribulation, Tao Junqi seemed to have lost the smell of mortals, and she had already brought a sense of fairy spirit with her every gesture. This kind of holy aura, no matter how high the cultivation base is, it is impossible to have it without going through the raging wind tribulation.

Tao Junqi gracefully stretched out her hand to put away the Iron Wing Flying Eagle and the Penglai devine woods, and she floated in front of Yang Chen. She gave a blessing, and then gave a blessing to all the girls, and then said: "Husband am going ahead, we will meet in the spiritual world soon!"

"Go ahead!" Yang Chen nodded heavily, without saying anything. What should be said has already been said, now there is no need to make Tao Junqi feel sad by acting sad about parting. All the girls also nodded at Tao Junqi, didn't speak, just watched with smiles.

A pair of wonderful eyes kept staring at Yang Chen's body, Tao Junqi's body slowly rose up and flew into the air, but her gaze was always on Yang Chen's body, as if she wanted to firmly embed Yang Chen's figure in her eyes.

Flying into the air, Tao Junqi suddenly remembered something, with a wave of her slender hand, a jade pillow appeared in her hand. Immediately, Yang Chen felt that Tao Junqi's spiritual awareness suddenly shook her body on the jade pillow, and the jade pillow was instantly shattered into pieces. On the jade pillow, Yang Chen's familiar imprint of spiritual awareness trembled suddenly, and then was completely shaken away.

It wasn't until this was done that Tao Junqi's figure pierced through the void and disappeared into the sky. Only the afterimage of the beautiful woman was left in the sky, but there is no aura of the beautiful woman anymore.

At the same time that the jade pillow in Tao Junqi's hand was shattered, Li Liheng, the young sect master who was far away in the Greatest Heaven Sect, was enjoying himself and cultivating in his Immortal cave magic weapon. What the Free Demon Heart Sutra brings to cultivators is not only the improvement of spiritual awareness, but also great physical pleasure. Li Liheng has been addicted to it and cannot extricate himself.

"Ah!" Li Liheng, who was enjoying himself, suddenly let out a sharp scream, put his head in his hands, and fainted instantly in pain.