

Zhanxian 764

Chapter 764: Li Liheng's Dumbness

From some time after Yang Chen made enough profit from the spirit congealing pills from the Greatest Heaven Sect, Li Liheng never fainted again for no reason. Everything that happened later was logical, Li Liheng and Senior Liu Fengzi communicated more and more, and his cultivation of spiritual awareness became stronger and stronger.

It was originally a very gratifying trend, but today it became confusing due to Li Liheng's sudden fainting.

Yang Lan, the only woman in the cave who was not under control, almost lost her wits when she saw this scene. It's not yet the time for Yang Lan and Yang Xi to take action, Li Liheng can't have an accident now, this is their brother and sister's amulet, and it is also the backing of their pretentious prestige, once Li Liheng has an accident, the people around them will definitely not have a good end.

Fortunately, the other women in the cave have lost their minds and don't know what happened. The cauldron, which was favored by Li Liheng just now and also cultivated, was still obsessed with Li Liheng, twisting her naked body shamelessly, asking for it non-stop.

Yang Lan didn't even dare to look at Li Liheng again, she hurriedly escaped from the cave, and discussed with her brother Yang Xi what to do. Fortunately, now that Li Liheng is in a coma, the magic weapon of the cave can let Yang Lan come in and out at will, otherwise Yang Lan really wouldn't know what to do.

Yang Xi who heard the news was also taken aback, very consistent with Yang Lan's first reaction, Li Liheng must not have an accident at this time. After all, Yang Xi had seen more of the world than Yang Lan, and immediately joined hands with Yang Lan to enter the cave magic weapon, kicked the woman who was still entangled with Li Liheng, and quickly moved Li Liheng out of the cave.

With the abilities of the Yang Xi brothers and sisters, it was impossible to find out the reason for Li Liheng's coma. Yang Xi made a decisive decision, and put Li Liheng into a posture that he suddenly vomited blood and fell into a coma while he was cultivating. After checking that there were no openings around him, he pretended to be panicked and started calling people around.

Li Liheng was in the sect. At first, there were some elders around him to protect and supervise him. Later, when Li Liheng wanted to cultivate the Free Demon Heart Sutra, he dared not let the elders watch over him all the time. After finding a reason, the elders stopped surrounding him by his side to let him cultivate freely.

This arrangement actually made Yang Xi and Yang Lan fish in troubled waters. When several elders rushed over, they saw Li Liheng vomiting blood and in a coma, and Yang Xi knelt beside Li Liheng, protecting Li Liheng while quickly reporting "Elder Qi, the young sect master suddenly vomited blood and fell into a coma during his cultivation. This disciple didn't know what happened, so he didn't dare to move the young sect master a single bit. Please make a decision."

"Kneel on one side and wait to be punished!" The elder at the head kicked Yang Xi to the corner of the wall, and immediately began to investigate Li Liheng's injuries.

In just a short while, several core elders and sect master Li rushed over after hearing the news, and they were all shocked when they saw Li Liheng's appearance.

Yang Xi and Yang Lan didn't expect Li Liheng to have an accident, and sect master Li and several core elders didn't want Li Liheng to have an accident even more than they did. The current development of the Greatest Heaven Sect can almost be said to be on a higher level. With the Demon Sealing Formation, other sects can only slow down the supply of spiritual veins as appropriate, with the exception of the Greatest Heaven Sect. Their formation guaranteed that with twice as many people, the spiritual power of the Greatest Heaven Sect would also be adequately supplied.

This is all due to Yang Xi, and this is not counting the guidance of countless masters including the sect master. It can be said that one Li Liheng has already laid the foundation for the rapid development of the Greatest Heaven Sect for tens of thousands of years in the future.

It is precisely because of this that the core elders of the Greatest Heaven Sect didn't care about Li Liheng's usual efforts to win over a few masters of the sect, and even condoned them intentionally. Li Liheng is the young sect master, and he will be the sect master in the future. Finding a few confidantes for himself is not a big deal.

But Li Liheng's coma was an absolute big deal, no one dared to slack off. Soon, after a busy inspection by everyone, they finally came to the conclusion that Li Liheng was unconscious due to a strong shock to his spiritual awareness. As long as he takes proper care, he will recover soon.

Of course, this is the external conclusion of everyone, and the specifics depend on Li Liheng waking up to investigate on his own. As long as there is nothing wrong with the spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method, it is just a trivial matter, and it is enough to find out the reason for the shock of the spiritual awareness.

Li Liheng finally woke up slowly under the treatment of a group of experts, and immediately discovered his condition. After so many years, Li Liheng was able to cultivate the Free Demon Heart Sutra under the eyes of so many elders and masters without being discovered by anyone. His mind was inflexible, he remembered the situation before the coma clearly, and immediately realized that Yang Lan and Yang Xi should have helped him cover it up.

Resisting the dizzy feeling from the sea of consciousness, Li Liheng struggled to greet the elders and sect master. Taking the opportunity to return a reassuring look to his loyal dog Yang Xi who was kneeling in the corner waiting to be punished, he described to the elders how he felt when he suddenly fell into a coma while cultivating.

Hearing that Yang Xi suddenly fell into a coma during cultivation, sect master Li and several elders frowned. Now Li Liheng has no way to contact Senior Fengzi, and can't prove whether the spatial spiritual awareness cultivation method is good or bad, but this unreasonable coma is not a good omen.

While everyone was chattering about why Li Liheng might have fainted, suddenly a disciple guarding the spirit tablet hall came to report that a senior from the sect had successfully ascended to the spiritual world.

Elder Tao Junqi's natal spirit tablet, who had been out for decades, suddenly flickered, and the imprint of spiritual awareness left on the natal spirit tablet disappeared without a trace. This situation is different from the broken spirit tablet. If the spirit tablet is broken, it means that the person died. However, in this situation, there is only one possibility, that is, the person succeeds in surviving the tribulation and ascended.

It is a big event for the seniors of the sect to pass the tribulation and ascend to the spiritual world, so the disciples guarding the hall immediately came to report to the sect master. It was originally a happy event, but because of the unprovoked coma of the young sect master Li Liheng, it made this happy event a little more melancholy.

The other core elder who was thinking also heard the news, his heart suddenly moved, and he asked Li Liheng in a deep voice: "Li Heng, did you leave a tracking mark on Elder Tao?"

When the elder asked, the others immediately reacted. If Li Liheng left a mark of spiritual awareness on Tao Junqi, then when Tao Junqi ascended through the tribulation, once she used the magic weapon that left the mark, it would inevitably cause Li Liheng's mark of spiritual awareness to be attacked by the raging wind tribulation. Li Liheng is bound to be harmed indirectly by the tribulation.

“Yes I left one.” Li Liheng didn't dare to hide it at this time, he had to find a reason to prevaricate, admitting that between leaving a tracking mark for Tao Junqi and the Free Demon Heart Sutra, he knew which one to choose and let the sect master and elders know.