

Signing In For Eight Years, I Was Exposed As A Zillionaire!

Chapter 18

My Charm Is Gone...

In an instant, the group of young masters and young ladies trembled in the corner. There was no place for them to speak here. Then, they looked at Ye Xuan, who was only eight years old, and their respect for him rose.

Meanwhile, Ye Xuan sat there drinking coffee with a smile on his face. He was really happy. After all, the feeling of watching from the side was really good.

After a while, the Presidents and directors of the respective banks mentioned their conditions and put pressure on the others. Then, they stayed at the side and looked at Ye Xuan, waiting for Ye Xuan's decision.

They knew that Ye Xuan's choice would decide who would get the 60 billion today.

Even the young masters and young ladies looked at Ye Xuan. They knew how important his next choice would be.

After a while, Ye Xuan looked at the people in front of him and spoke slowly.

"Director Liu from Huaxia Bank."

"I'm here, I'm here!"

At this moment, Liu Yanran's body instantly trembled when she heard Ye Xuan's voice. Then, she became excited and quickly responded. She looked proudly at the Presidents and smiled.

The current Liu Yanran was like a victorious white swan. In an instant, the faces of the other Presidents darkened. They were bloody furious.

This despicable Director Liu!

But then...

"Zhang Tianxing, President of the East Sea Bank."

"President of the Jinling branch of the Industrial and Commercial Bank of China."

Ye Xuan picked two more people.

At this moment, the smile on Liu Yanran's face froze and she looked at Ye Xuan in confusion. Didn't he say that 60 billion was hers?

What did this mean now?

Could it be that he was going to split the deposit equally?

This...

However, Liu Yanran was also a little satisfied. Even if they split it evenly, each bank would still have 20 billion yuan. This was not a small sum.

However, if it was 20 billion, their conditions would be a loss to them.

Just as they were thinking about it, Ye Xuan jumped down from his chair, "Yup, it should be the three of you. I will deposit 60 billion in each of your banks."

"I will deposit 60 billion in each of your banks."

Ye Xuan's voice wasn't loud. However, when everyone heard this, it exploded like thunder. It was simply too shocking.

The Presidents and directors felt like their hearts were about to jump out of their chests.

Sixty billion in each bank!

This meant that he would deposit a total of 180 billion!

Oh my god, 180 billion!

Even Liu Yanran covered her mouth in shock.

However, she immediately reacted. They had fought so hard just now and had all used their trump cards.

They only realized at the end that Ye Xuan was on the fifth level!

They were only on the first level!

How sinister!

It was too sinister!

Ye Xuan's small body was different in their eyes. His harmless face also had a different meaning in their eyes.

Meanwhile, the group of young masters and young ladies looked at Ye Xuan and their bodies started to tremble. As the young masters and young ladies of Jinling, they had high standards. However, at this moment, they still felt that their values had been overturned.

"Brother Ye is too fierce," said Lin Yuhan at the side. Everyone nodded immediately. After all, he was indeed too fierce.

It was 180 billion!

Now, they were even more determined in their hearts. Brother Ye must be the young master of an aristocratic family in Tianjing or Shanghai. Otherwise, it would not make sense no matter what.

After a while, Ye Xuan transferred all the funds over and got the black cards from the three banks. As for these black cards, Ye Xuan didn't have much use for them. After all, he had ten times the interest and didn't need them.

The few bank Presidents who had received his savings left in high spirits. The rest were ashen-faced and sighed.

As for Liu Yanran, she naturally stayed behind.

Ye Xuan looked at her. "The others have already left. Why aren't you leaving?"

Liu Yanran was confused.

Was she supposed to leave?

Why hadn't she left?

She didn't dare to leave.

Then, she looked at Ye Xuan. "Mr. Ye, have you forgotten? I've already agreed to be your personal assistant."

"I remember now."

Ye Xuan's words almost made Liu Yanran vomit blood.

"I remember now."

Such a beautiful lady had become his personal assistant. Good lord, had he forgotten about her?

"The key is that I don't have anything for you to manage. Why don't you go back first?"

Liu Yanran was speechless.

I...

In an instant, she even began to doubt her charm.

For so many years, she had been a goddess-level figure. When she was in school, she was a top student in school and was regarded as the school belle. Many geniuses wanted to pursue her, but she rejected them.

Now, she had become the director of Huaxia Bank in such a short period of time. Furthermore, the number of people pursuing her could reach the Yangtze River Bridge. But now, Ye Xuan actually turned a blind eye to a big sister like her.

Even with Ye Xuan's age, she couldn't accept it.

She even felt a little disappointed.

However, she was still prepared to go back.

Meanwhile, the young masters and young ladies' eyes almost popped out of their sockets at Ye Xuan's actions. Was he letting go of such a beautiful personal assistant just like that?

Liu Yun, Lin Yuhan, and the others gulped. If it were them, they would be with Liu Yanran every day.

Was that the difference between them?

However, in the next moment.

"Wait, wait, wait, wait. I remember that there is something I want you to do." Ye Xuan looked at Liu Yanran and quickly spoke.

Huh?

Liu Yanran turned around confidently. Her eyes were filled with hope and confidence in herself.

As expected!

She still had her charm.

Ye Xuan looked at her and waved at her. “Coincidentally, I’ve been wanting to hire a driver recently. You should know how to drive, right? You can be my driver for now.”

His voice was not loud, but when Liu Yanran heard this, she almost spat out a mouthful of blood.
