Chapter 27

Su Yan regretted a little. If she had known that Huang Rong knew her father, she would not have stayed here to watch the show.

Now Huang Rong doesn't know if she really likes her father or if she is pretending to like her, but Su Yan doesn't want to take risks, and Su Yan also regrets preventing her father from being with her mother these days.

There was already Wang Yuyan, but Wang Yuyan knew him after all, and she was very gentle. Su Yan did not reject her, and Huang Rong knew at a glance that she was a smart, playful person. If she really After being with her father, he might be played to death by her.

Guo Jing was anxiously circling Huang Rong like an ant on a hot pot. Now he was thinking about how to dissuade Huang Rong. He really liked Huang Rong who loved to tease him.

He hadn't seen Huang Rong in the past few days, so he was frantically looking for her in Gusu City. However, he didn't expect that Huang Rong really liked that Wu Xiangjun. This made Guo Jing unable to think of how to stop Huang Rong.

"Little girl, what's your name?"

Huang Rong looked at this beautiful little girl and wanted to know how that bastard Su Chen could have such a beautiful daughter. Is Su Chen's wife also very beautiful?

Su Yan opened Huang Rong's hand that touched her head and said angrily,

"Why should I tell you? Huh, you can't see my father at all while I'm here. I'll order the guards not to let you into my house if they see you."

Huang Rong is not a good baby. The more places she is not allowed to enter, the more she wants to enter.

"Haha, if you don't let me in, won't I know how to break in?"

Su Yan glanced at Huang Rong and said in a disgraceful manner,

"Just you? I'm not bragging. With your level of strength, I'm afraid you'll be shot into a hornet's nest before you even enter my house."

"I don't believe that your father has been staying at home."

After listening to Su Yan's words, Huang Rong also knew that Wu Xiangjun's mansion must be heavily guarded. From the army of that bastard Su Chen, it can be seen that the guards in his mansion must also be very elite.

Su Yan looked at Huang Rong and secretly smiled,

"It's up to you. If you want to wait, then just wait. I hope you can wait."

"Um? What do you mean? Isn't your father at home?"

Huang Rong noticed that Su Yan was smiling secretly and knew there must be something wrong here, otherwise this little girl wouldn't be smiling secretly.

Su Yan waved his hands to A'Zhu and A Bi and said,

"Why should I tell you, A'Zhu and A Bi, let's go. It should be very lively inside Songhe Tower now."

""Yes, miss."

Su Yan left under the protection of A'Zhu and A Bi. Huang Rong smiled when she saw Su Yan leaving and wanted to follow her. Huang Rong thought Su Chen's daughter was very interesting.

This little girl was also very compatible with her. Temper, but Huang Rong was not in a good mood when she thought about that bastard Su Chen. When Guo Jing saw Huang Rong leaving with that little girl, he followed her hurriedly. Now he still didn't think of how to dissuade Huang Rong.

But he didn't want to leave now either. Huang Rong, it was hard to find Huang Rong this time. He didn't want Huang Rong to disappear in front of his eyes again.

Wu Xiangjun's Mansion

Su Chen was now taking the letter Wang Hu sent to him from Daqin. Su Chen read the letter and handed it to him. Mrs. Wang, Su Chen did not expect that King Qin Ying Zheng would borrow troops from him, which made Su Chen feel a little funny.

King Qin Ying Zheng has not yet taken charge of the government, and he has no power at all. If he tricks that Lao Ai this year After death, Da Qin will be controlled, and Lu Buwei will also be played to death by Ying Zheng. This is his chance.

Mrs. Wang read the letter and said in surprise,

"Chen'er, the King of Qin in Great Qin wants to borrow troops? We still need to borrow 20,000 Nether Iron Cavalry, but we don't have that many troops?"

Su Chen said to Mrs. Wang with a smile,

"Aunt Li, we have a total of 50,000 Nether Cavalry. I was just wondering if it would be worthwhile to borrow King Qin's army."

"What? Do you have 50,000 Nether Iron Cavalry? Where are the remaining troops? Forget it, you better not tell me, you have grown up now, you can take care of some things by yourself, but I heard that the King of Qin in Da Qin seems to be in his twenties and has not yet pro-government. It seems that he may also be a Puppet King Qin, you should pay more attention."

Mrs. Wang looked at Su Chen in a daze. She didn't expect that Su Chen actually had an army of Netherworld Cavalry, and there were fifty thousand in total. This made Mrs. Wang a little shocked. She didn't understand what Su Chen had gone through in these years. What,

Su Chen knew the potential of King Qin Yingzheng. This time King Qin Yingzheng came to ask for help, and he didn't want to give up this opportunity. Even if he wouldn't need the help of King Qin Yingzheng in the future, this was at least a way out.

Su Chen smiled and said to Mrs. Wang,

"I know, Aunt Li, I think we can invest in King Qin. King Qin has not yet gained power. If we help him at this time, we can also benefit from him in the future when he becomes the real King of Qin."

Mrs. Wang doesn't know whether Su Chen's decision is right or not.

"What you said is right, but the risk is too great. Chen'er, why don't my mother come and ask her in a few days. After all, she has been a concubine in Xixia for so long. She should know about the Qin Kingdom in the Eastern Continent. of"

"Is your mother coming?"

Mrs. Wang said with a somewhat tangled face,

"Well, I wrote to her and asked her to come over and see if there is any way for you to practice martial arts. She replied and said that she would come before the Beggar Clan Conference."

I guess, Li Qiu Shui is coming, what should I do? Li Qiu Shui is a little abnormal. What if she attacks me? I don't know if the Li Qiu Shui in this world is the same as the Li Qiu Shui in Tian Long Ba Bu. She is also a free-spirited woman.

Seeing Su Chen's nervous look, Mrs. Wang smiled and said,

"Chen'er, why are you nervous? Don't worry, my mother owed me a lot in the past. This time she will try her best to help you. Don't worry, my mother is a great master in cultivation."

"Aunt Li, does Yuyan know that your mother is coming?"

Mrs. Wang smiled and said to Su Chen,

"I've already told her that Yuyan knows things very well, but she didn't say anything."

"That's good, by the way, isn't the King of Xixia your brother?"

Su Chen suddenly remembered Li Qiushui's son, the King of Xixia. He wanted to know if the King of Xixia was related to Mrs. Wang? Was it a half-mother relationship?

Mrs. Wang shook her head and said to Su Chen,

"No, the King of Xixia was only adopted by my mother in Xixia. Now he doesn't know that my mother is not actually his real mother. If he were my mother's son, the power of Xixia would have been handed over to him long ago."
