Chapter 39

Qiao Feng was a little shocked when he saw these Netherworld Cavalry killing these innate masters so cleanly. Qiao Feng knew that if the Jianghu people were surrounded by the army, they would have a narrow escape, but these Netherworld Cavalry did not kill a single soldier now.

Qiao Feng also rejoined the battle. He looked at the two masters and rushed over. He wanted to personally kill these black-clothed assassins who assassinated him.

Liu Teng saw that the rest were all masters among masters. He did not let the Netherworld Cavalry fight these assassins in close combat. Now the Netherworld Cavalry rode around these assassins on horses and shot them with military crossbows.

With the cooperation of these Netherworld Cavalry, Qiao Feng was now able to kill these assassins with ease. However, in just a short time, all these assassins were killed by Qiao Feng and Netherworld Cavalry. The Netherworld Cavalry was also killed by more than ten masters by the remaining two masters. personal.

Liu Teng looked at the two grand masters who were shot into a hornet's nest, and then looked at Qiao Feng who was covered in blood. If Qiao Feng hadn't dragged these two grand masters this time, more than ten people on the Netherworld Cavalry would have died..

When Qiao Feng came to Liu Teng's side, he looked at the general and said,

"Thank you General this time. Liu

Teng also clasped his fists at Qiao Feng and said,

"You're welcome, we're just following orders."

Liu Teng knew that Qiao Feng might be a friend of the princess, and he did not dare to look down on Qiao Feng, the leader of the Beggar Clan.

Qiao Feng was curious and asked the general,

"Is this general sent by your little princess? Little princess, where is she now? Liu

Teng thought about it and told Qiao Feng,

"Gang leader Qiao and the princess are not far away."

When Qiao Feng heard that the little girl was also nearby, he hurriedly said, "Can you take me to meet your little princess?"

"Okay, please, Gang Leader Qiao."

When Liu Teng brought Qiao Feng to the carriage, Qiao Feng saw Su Yan and a beautiful woman watching their arrival from a distance.

Su Yan looked at Qiao Feng who was covered in blood and said in surprise,

"Uncle Qiao, you are in a bit of a panic this time."

Qiao Feng felt a little embarrassed and said to Su Yan, cupping his fists and saluting,

"Little princess, thank you for your help this time. Su

Yan waved his hands and said nonchalantly, "It doesn't matter. How could you be robbed and killed by an assassin?"

Qiao Feng is also very confused now. He did not expect that there would be so many martial arts masters here to rob and kill him. There are even two master masters. This makes Qiao Feng unable to figure it out.

Qiao Feng shook his head. He shook his head and said helplessly,

"Alas, I don't know. These are dead warriors in the world of martial arts, and they are also some of the top masters in the martial arts world. I have not offended so many masters in the martial arts world. I am still a little confused now. Huang

Rong looked at the tall and upright Qiao Feng and said,

"Gang Leader Qiao, this time may have something to do with your Beggar Clan Conference, and we have received news that someone in your Northern Beggar Clan is going to be detrimental to you at this conference, and it is someone from your Northern Beggar Clan who is going to be detrimental to you."

Qiao Feng was very surprised after hearing Huang Rong's words and said,

"Girl, are you telling the truth?"

Qiao Feng didn't expect that this robbery and murder might be caused by people in his Beggar Clan. It's just that no one in the Beggar Clan is so capable of hiring these powerful assassins. Could it be that someone in the Beggar Clan colluded with other forces?

Huang Rong nodded and said with a smile,

"Of course it's true. A lot of people in the world know about these things. If it weren't for this, we wouldn't go to your Beggar Clan Conference to watch the fun."

Su Yan said angrily, raising his fist.

"That's right, Uncle Qiao, are there really people in your beggar gang who want to rebel? Do you want me to help you get rid of those rebellious gang members?"

Qiao Feng looked at Su Yan's little girl and said happily,

"Haha, no need, this time I want to see who is rebelling in the beggar gang. Su

Yan looked at Qiao Feng who was covered in blood and asked worriedly, "Okay then, Uncle Qiao, does it matter if you get these injuries?"

Qiao Feng checked the immediate injuries and said nonchalantly,

"It's okay, these are just superficial wounds, little princess, now I have to rush to the apricot forest."

"We are also going to the apricot grove. Uncle Qiao, please let the military doctor bandage your wounds first and change your clothes. There are some clothes of my father's in the carriage. See if you can put them on. We will go to the apricot grove together later."

"this....Okay, I will entertain you well this time when you go to our Beggar Clan Conference."

In the apricot forest, some of the leaders and some masters sitting in the middle of the apricot forest were looking at the handsome men and women under the big trees next to them intentionally or unintentionally. Some of them even recognized Xiao Li Feidao and Li Xunhuan.

They didn't expect it either. The great master's little Li Feidao actually appeared here, but why was Li Xunhuan with those beautiful beauties? Little Li Feidao just loves fine wine and I didn't hear that he was a womanizer.

Li Xunhuan is also very speechless now. Originally, he wanted to see if anyone here knew Su Chen, so that he could also know some information about Su Chen.

But Su Chen fell asleep on the table. Li Xunhuan originally thought that he would wake up soon, Now Su Chen is sleeping soundly on the body of Shi Feixuan.

Shi Feixuan looked down at Su Chen sleeping on her lap with a shy face. Now Shi Feixuan is also a little at a loss. She just gives Su Chen some internal energy to prevent him from getting cold.

Unexpectedly, Su Chen leaned on his shoulders without knowing it. Maybe he felt uncomfortable, and then Su Chen hugged his waist and lay on his legs to sleep. , if Shi Feixuan hadn't checked that Su Chen was really asleep, she would have thought that Su Chen was taking advantage of her.

Next to her, Hanhan stared at Shi Feixuan with burning eyes. Now she wanted to kill this little kid. Nun, this little nun even became a monk and wanted to fight for a man with her, which made Huanhuan very angry.

And that bastard Su Chen, he didn't rely on me when he was by his side, so why did he insist on lying on that little nun? Huanwan also wanted to strangle this bastard to death.

Zhao Min was now very interested in the sleeping young master, especially now that the expressions of Shi Feixuan and Huanwan made her guess that there must be something going on between the three of them. It's just that she is not familiar with Huanwan and Shi Feixuan, and she is too embarrassed to ask about their relationship.

"Miss Lin, who is this young man? Why is he lying on Miss Shi's lap? And why is Huanwan next to them still staring at them?"
