Chapter 751

Mingyue Canyon,

Mingyue Canyon is located between the thirty-six countries of the Western Region, and the mountains here are high and the roads are narrow, which is very unsuitable for large armies to pass through. Passing through Mingyue Canyon is a three-pronged land, one leading to the Western Continent, and the other leading to the Great Yuan Empire on the grassland. direction.

Mingyuexia Valley is the closest passage to the Western Continent, and Huang Rong doesn't want to take a long detour to the Western Continent.

An old man with ghost symbols painted all over his face stood on a mountain. He looked at the troops being deployed and asked a burly man next to him,

"Wa Ci, are the combined armies ready?"

Wa Ci saluted the old man with a face full of ghost symbols and said, "High Priest, we are all ready. As long as the Central Plains troops arrive, they will definitely be unable to return. Mingyue Canyon is the burial ground of the Central Plains troops."

The high priest said with a cruel smile on his disgusting face,

"Okay, let me inform you that this time our Thirty-six Kingdoms in the Western Regions must destroy those Central Plains troops. This is the Western Regions, and it is the territory of our Thirty-six Kingdoms. Without our permission, no one canNo team can pass"

"Yes, High Priest!"

The high priest of Guizi Kingdom smiled when he looked at the more than 200,000 combined troops around him.

He had always wanted to live in the Central Plains, but the Central Plains people had always looked down on these barbaric people.

Whether it was the Song Dynasty in the Southern Continent It is the Ming Dynasty in the Western Continent. These Central Plains people are very arrogant and reject these barbarians.

This makes the high priest Guizi very angry. This time he has the opportunity to kill the arrogance of the Central Plains people. He is very happy to do so..

At this time, the three cavalry regiments of the Southern Legion with a hundred thousand troops are rushing here quickly. They are responsible for clearing the road. Anyone who dares to block the road of their Southern Legion will be killed.

A cavalryman from After running over on horseback from a distance, he hurriedly said,"Report to the Army Commander, the secret guards have sent news that the thirty-six-nation coalition forces in the Western Region have ambushed in Mingyue Canyon. These are the enemy ambush maps marked by the secret guards."

The commander of the Seventh Army looked at the map and frowned and said,"Come here, please invite the commanders of the Eighth and Eleventh Army."

"Yes, Legion Commander."

The commander of the Seventh Army did not expect that the aliens in Mingyue Canyon would rely on the cliff to stop their march, which was a bit troublesome.

If they fought face to face, these cavalry regiments could destroy the Thirty Kingdoms of the Western Regions without any effort. Army, after a while, the other two legion commanders also frowned when they heard the information from the seventh legion commander. Now they can't think of any way to force the aliens from Mingyue Canyon.

But there is a way for them It's useless now. They can't do those things without orders.

"It's better to inform the commander-in-chief. Maybe the commander-in-chief has a solution"

"Um! We can't risk going in, otherwise our legions will suffer heavy losses."

"Inform the commander-in-chief and tell the commander-in-chief the news here."

The three army commanders discussed it and decided.

They hurriedly ordered the messengers to take the map to the rear and show it to Huang Rong. The three army commanders also stopped attacking. Now they can only wait for Commander Huang Rong to come. Order.

At this time, the Southern Army was still marching at a normal speed.

In the carriage,

Xiao Feng and Li Xunhuan also came to the carriage. When they arrived, they also heard that the advance team was in trouble. They wanted to know if Huang Rong had any way to solve it.

Huang Rong looked at the ambush areas of the thirty-six countries in the Western Region on the map and smiled and said,

"I didn't expect that these alien races would have such methods. It seems that the commander-in-chief of the alien joint army knows us Central Plains people very well."

"hehe! It's just that we are a little stupid. Our Central Plains culture has a long history and is not something that foreigners can just learn and use."

Li Xunhuan looked at the map and couldn't think of a way for a while.

However, if the army charged hard, they could capture Mingyue Canyon, but the casualties of the army would probably be a bit high.

"Commander, is there any way to drive those aliens out of Mingyue Canyon?"

Li Xunhuan appeared here this time because he didn't want to stay in Xuannian Palace in Gusu. After all, Xuannian Palace was full of female relatives. Although his cousin Lin Shiyin lived in Xuannian Palace, he still felt very uncomfortable. Convenient.

Li Xunhuan was originally going to stay in Xuannio Palace, but after an exchange with Li Xuemei, he came to the Southern Legion to protect Huang Rong with Xiao Feng.

Huang Rong looked at Xiao Feng and Li Xunhuan and smiled and said,

"Well, this method is very simple. Almost all the armies of the thirty-six countries in the Western Regions are in Mingyue Canyon. Then we will attack all the surrounding countries in the Western Regions. This time I will destroy these ungrateful foreign countries. I see them starting from Mingyue. Can't get out of the canyon."

Xiao Feng said happily when he heard Huang Rong's plan,

"This method is good. The foreign troops in Mingyue Canyon see that their country is being attacked. It is impossible for them not to save them. In this way, we can let the 7th, 8th, and 11th Cavalry Corps wait outside Mingyue Canyon for the foreign troops to come out.."

Li Xunhuan also nodded.

No wonder this Huang Rong can be the commander-in-chief of the Southern Army. This Huang Rong is simply a natural military genius.

"Um! As long as those alien armies appear, our cavalry regiment can quickly destroy those alien armies."

Huang Rong smiled when she heard Xiao Feng and Li Xunhuan's words. I

'm afraid any general in the Central Plains would have thought of these things. The three cavalry regiment commanders probably also had this plan.

But their orders were not these. The three regiment commanders were Ask yourself to help them attract the alien troops from Mingyue Canyon.

After all, Xiao Feng and Li Xunhuan are not members of the army, so it is understandable that they did not think of it.

Huang Rong looked at the alien countries around the map and ordered,

"Come, order the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth legions to disperse and destroy the surrounding countries in the Western Region."

"Anyone who is taller than a wheel will be killed!"

"Any woman who resists will be killed!"

"Any child who resists will be killed!"

"Yes, Commander!"

When the ordering soldier heard Huang Rong's order, he shuddered and ran to convey the order.

"Holy shit! Rong girl, is this too cruel of you? Xiao Feng said in surprise when he heard Huang Rong's words.

Li Xunhuan also frowned at Huang Rong and said displeasedly,

"Yes, you are trying to exterminate those alien races. Isn't this a kind and harmonious thing? Huang

Rong took out some information from the side and handed it to Xiao Feng and Li Xunhuan, saying, "You will know why I did this after you look at this."

Xiao Feng and Li Xunhuan took Huang Rong's information and looked at it.

However, their expressions were very ugly when they saw it. They did not expect that these aliens are simply not human beings. These aliens should really be exterminated. The information recorded these three people in detail. Years ago, the Thirty Kingdoms of the Western Region massacred merchants from the Central Plains. Even during natural and man-made disasters, these foreigners actually sent troops to plunder the border residents of the Central Plains.

And these plundered border residents, regardless of men, women, old and young, were actually treated as two-legged sheep. They were eaten, and women were even more cruelly abused before eating them. These aliens are simply worse than animals.

"Kill, deserve to be killed! Huang Rong, destroy all these beasts. They don't deserve to live in this world."

"Yes, kill all these beasts. This time I will go too. I will kill them all."

Li Xunhuan and Xiao Feng said to Huang Rong with red eyes.

Not only did they not prohibit Huang Rong from doing this, they also felt that Huang Rong was a little merciful this time. Those beasts did not deserve to live in this world.

Huang Rong's eyes were also a little red now. , she originally wanted to deal with the affairs of Ming Dynasty before dealing with these aliens, but now it seems that she has to operate on these aliens first

"Go ahead and tell these to the legionnaires who are dispatched. I am worried that some soldiers will not have the heart to kill unarmed people. As long as our soldiers know these things, I think they will avenge us Central Plains people."

"good!"

Chapter 752

Southern Continent Western Region, Shuler tribe (country).

This tribe with a population of just over 200,000 is currently holding a carnival. This is because the Shuler people are preparing to receive the spoils after the victory of the coalition army.

If the Central Plains army is destroyed by the coalition army today.

These countries or tribes can obtain the equipment, food and grass left by the Central Plains people, and even some luxury accessories and prisoners.

A tall, bare-chested, foreign man with a full beard was drinking wine. He laughed when he saw the lively carnival around him.

He looked at an old man drinking in the middle and asked,

"Chief, our Shuler tribe has sent 10,000 tribesmen to join the coalition. We should be able to get more loot this time, right?"

Clan Chief Shuler stood up with a smile and said,

"Ha ha! Of course, Gerli, we Shuler and those big tribes or countries have the largest number of tribal coalition forces. The remaining tribes and small countries only sent thousands of troops. We can get more this time. spoils of war."

Gerli smiled and flattered him when he heard the clan leader's words,

"The patriarch is still wise!"

"Gurli, bring out those Central Plains women to add to the fun." Clan Chief Shuler smiled and looked at the carnival crowd and ordered,

The Shuler people are getting stronger and stronger now. If they get more equipment and food this time, then the Shuler people will definitely become the third largest tribe in the Western Regions." A big country among the sixteen countries

"Yes, patriarch!"

Gerli's eyes lit up when he heard the clan leader's order.

There were more than a hundred Central Plains women in his tribe. He was very excited to humiliate and kill those Central Plains women.

Those Central Plains women were better than their Shuler tribe. The women's bodies are so fair that they can even squeeze water out of their bodies.

Most of the Shuler women have rough skin and are tall, but he is not interested in Shuler women at all now.

At this time, not far away from the Shuler women Ten miles away, Huang Rong's 50,000-strong army of the Third Army of the Southern Army was marching towards here.

Beside the commander of the Third Army, the ten thousand captains here were now furious. They did not expect that these aliens would dare to treat them like this in the Central Plains. People, two-legged sheep?

The people of the Central Plains were actually treated as two-legged sheep and eaten here?

Even women were humiliated and cooked and eaten.

This made the captains here so angry that they wanted to be slaughtered one by one. The entire Shuler tribe was destroyed, and these foreigners did not even exist in this world.

The captains here said angrily to the commander of the third army,

"Legion commander, we must exterminate the Shuler tribe this time. These alien tribes are simply inhuman."

"We cannot spare the men, women, old and children of the Shuler tribe. The Shuler tribe must be exterminated. The other thirty-six countries in the Western Regions will also be exterminated if they treat us Central Plains people like this."

"But the commander-in-chief's order only killed men who were taller than a wheel, women and children who resisted, and children who resisted."

"Didn't Lord Xiao Feng just say that in this attack on the Shuler tribe, in addition to the commander's orders, we can make our own decision to deal with the Shuler tribe."

"Kill, this time we must massacre the entire Shuler tribe."

After Zhao Libin, commander of the Third Army, read the secret message Xiao Feng sent to the messenger, his face remained gloomy.

He used to be a real Song Dynasty man, although now he is a legion under Wu Xiangjun. Commander.

But when he saw the news in the secret letter, he was still very angry. He did not expect that the people on the border of the Song Dynasty had suffered such a great hardship.

Zhao Libin, the commander of the Third Army, thought for a moment and then ordered loudly and coldly,

"All captains of ten thousand listen to the order. No one from the Shuler tribe will be spared in this attack. As long as they are men, women, old and young, women and children, all the Shuler tribe will be killed. I will make the Shuler tribe extinct from now on."

"Yes, Legion Commander!"

"Go and tell our soldiers, let my soldiers know what kind of suffering our Central Plains people have suffered here."

"Yes, Legion Commander."

This kind of thing also happened in the other four legions.

After the other four legions learned about the sufferings suffered by the people of the Central Plains here, their legion commanders also desperately wanted to massacre all the foreign tribes or tribes here. Country.

Less than three miles away from the Shuler Tribe, a hundred-man scout team from the Third Legion had killed all the Shuler Tribe's outposts. At one point, their hundred-man scout team even reached around the Shuler Tribe's Dazhai.

"woo woo woo woo!"

"what sound?"

"Why are there such loud footsteps?"

"what happened? Will there be a horn sound?"

The people of the Shuler tribe were having a revelry, but the sudden sound of the horn made them stop. They, the Shuler tribe, didn't understand what was going on. The leader of the Shuler tribe suddenly thought of the sound of the horn. When the Central Plains people received an order to attack, he quickly took out his weapon and ordered loudly,

"Enemy attack! It's the horn sound of the Central Plains army's attack. Get ready for battle."

After Gurli kicked away the Central Plains woman he was insulting, he hurriedly came to Chief Shuler with a machete and asked, "Chief, didn't the Central Plains army go towards Mingyue Canyon? How come there is a Central Plains army here?"

"I don't know. Quickly organize the clansmen to stop the attack of the Central Plains army."

"yes!"

Swish, swish, swish!

Ahhh!

At this time, a rain of arrows was shot from outside the Shuler tribe's stronghold. The reveling Shuler people here died before they had time to react.

And the rain of arrows did not stop at all. Meaning, a series of arrows kept shooting these Shuler tribesmen from the air.

Wuwuwuwu!

At this time there was another sound of horns, and a captain of ten thousand riding on his horse shouted to the soldiers who were preparing to attack,

"The commander of the regiment ordered that the Shuler tribe bullied us Central Plains people, insulted our Central Plains women, and even treated us Central Plains people as two-legged sheep to eat. The Shuler tribe, regardless of men, women, old and young, women and children, were all to be killed."

"kill! kill! kill!"

The well-equipped soldiers of the Third Army of the Southern Army began to attack the Shuler tribe's stronghold crazily, and the Shuler tribe began to organize a counterattack, which was unable to withstand the attack of these elite troops.

Whenever the Third Army passed by The corpses of the Shuler people were left everywhere. Among the corpses of the Shuler people were strong men, old people, and even women and children. The third legion wanted to exterminate the Shuler people.

All of them All the Shuler people, regardless of gender, age or child, will die.

"Don't kill me, I surrender....."Some Shuler people knelt on the ground and surrendered when they saw that they could not defeat the Central Plains people, but they were still ruthlessly beheaded.

Chief Shuler was stunned when he saw the massacred Shuler people.

He did not expect that the Central Plains army would massacre even women and children. This was to destroy the Shuler tribe!

"how so? These Central Plains troops wanted to kill them all. They did not distinguish between men, women, old and young. They killed all Shuler tribesmen wherever they passed."

Gerli saw that the warriors of the Shuler tribe were slaughtered cleanly as soon as they came into contact with the Central Plains army. And now the Central Plains army actually started to massacre the women and children of the Shuler tribe.

This made him feel a little weak to the Shuler tribe. The clan leader said, "Clan leader, run away for your life. These powerful Central Plains troops are killing each other like crazy. We Shuler warriors are no match at all."

The Shuler clan leader looked in other directions and there was no movement. He felt that someone from the Shuler clan must be able to escape this time, "Haha! Gurli, we can't escape. Now we're probably surrounded by the Central Plains army."

"Chief, I can ask our Shuler warriors to open it for you.....ah!" Gerli was shot through the head with an arrow before he could finish speaking to the Shuler tribe leader.

Outside the Shuler tribe's stronghold,

Zhao Libin, commander of the third army, saw the army attacking the Shuler tribe's stronghold. The messenger ordered,

"Ordered all the other 10,000-person troops of the Third Army to attack, and asked Wang Kai's 10,000-person cavalry to stop and kill the fleeing Shuler tribesmen. This time, all the Shuler tribesmen were killed without leaving any one behind."

"Yes, Legion Commander."

Chapter 753

In the Shuler tribe, it can be said that blood is flowing like a river.

Under the massacre of the third legion, whether they are Shuler army warriors or men, women, old and children of the Shuler tribe, they were all massacred by the third legion.

After an afternoon of massacre of more than 200,000 Shulers, almost all the Shulers have been slaughtered.

The remaining Shuler tribe hid in the place where Chief Shuler worshiped, and they resisted the attack of the Third Legion at this narrow entrance.

In a wooden cell, dozens of women in ragged clothes and dirty bodies were leaning together. They were very excited listening to the sounds of fighting outside.

Because the cries of death outside were in the language of the Central Plains people, these women were very hopeful that the Central Plains people's army outside was coming.

Before today, there were more than a hundred of them, but today, they lost dozens of sisters. Those beasts must have tortured the sisters who did not come back to death. bump!

The cell was opened from the outside.

After a group of soldiers from the Third Army opened the cell, they found that there were dozens of ragged women here. Moreover, the exposed skin of these women was red and swollen, and some women even had bruises and bleeding. bleeding

"Are you an army from the Central Plains?" A woman stood up in tattered clothes. She looked at these soldiers in black armor and asked expectantly.

Looking at the appearance of these women, this group of soldiers knew that they were all captured by aliens. Women from the Central Plains, these women look miserable now. They all know how cruelly tortured these women have been.

A soldier with red eyes hurriedly replied to this, "We are the Central Plains army, and we are here to save you.""

"Are you really an army from the Central Plains?" After hearing this, the other women here helped each other to stand up and asked,

"real! The Shuler tribe has been almost wiped out by our army. This time, our army commander ordered the Shuler tribe to be killed regardless of gender, age or child."

"hehe! Okay, okay, then I can tell my parents and my sister that our Central Plains army has avenged them." The woman burst into tears when she heard the soldier's words.

She looked at the soldiers in black armor and saluted.

The soldiers hurried away when they saw the woman saluting. A centurion looked at this woman. The woman waved her hand and said,

"No need to do this, this is what we should do"

"Thank you. Are you the army of the Song Dynasty or the army of the Ming Dynasty?"

"We are the army of Lord Wu Xiang of Gusu City. The Song Empire is almost destroyed by our Lord. The Song Dynasty is not worthy of being an empire for us Central Plains people."

This woman did not expect that these troops turned out to be the troops of Lord Wu Xiang of Gusu City.

She had heard about Lord Wu Xiang before.

It seemed that the beauties on the ranking list of martial arts beauties were more or less related to Lord Wu Xiang.

It's just that she didn't expect that the Central Plains army this time turned out to be Wu Xiangjun's army, which made her very grateful to Wu Xiangjun.

"Mr. Wu Xiang? I had heard of him, but I never thought that it would be Lord Wu Xiang's army who avenged us. The centurion looked at the women and said to them, "You all come out with us, and I will take you to see our legion commander.""

These women all shook their heads when they heard Captain Bai's words.

These women no longer intend to live.

If they hadn't waited to see the retribution of the Shuler tribe, they would have committed suicide long ago. The woman who stood up looked at Centurion and shook her head and said, "No need, we lingering women just want to see the retribution of those beasts, otherwise we would have committed suicide long ago. Little brother, I can borrow yours." Knife?"

"you....."

The centurion fell silent when he heard what this woman said.

He felt very heavy now.

These women must be here to wait for the Central Plains army to arrive and to wait for the Central Plains army to avenge the people who were killed or even eaten by the alien races. Suffered inhumane abuse

"I have been living on my last breath for so long. It's time to tell my family about the retribution of those beasts. Little brother, can you lend me the knife?"

The centurion's eyes turned gray when he looked at this woman.

This meant that her heart was dead. If she was forced to stay, she would probably be more miserable alive than dead.

The centurion pulled out his knife and handed it to the woman. Said, "I will take your ashes back, and I will bury you on the land of our Central Plains people.""

"Thank you, thank you, thank you Wu Xiangjun."

Stab it!

After the woman bent down and thanked the centurion, she cut her neck with a knife.

Blood flowed out from her neck, but there was no pain on the woman's face. He left with a smile on his face.

Just as the centurion was about to get his knife back, but when he was about to get it, his knife was held in the hand of a woman next to him.

The woman picked up the knife. The sword saluted the centurion, and she put the sword on her neck and said slowly, "Husband and children, your revenge has been avenged. I come to you. We will never be separated again from now on."."

Stab it, as the woman finished speaking, she also committed suicide and was injured.

"Dad, Mom, you can rest in peace if you know something underground."

"Sister, I miss you so much, I really miss you so much"

"Dad, brother, your revenge has been avenged. I will tell you this news.".....

The centurion and his squad watched these women commit suicide one by one in front of them, which made them very uncomfortable. Some soldiers cried and clenched their fists tightly as they watched the women who kept committing suicide.

Forty-six women!

Forty-six corpses!

Just lying here quietly, they can now reunite with their families, but this is somewhat ironic.

An incompetent empire has killed countless people in the Central Plains.

If an incompetent empire continues to exist, I'm afraid there's no telling how many people in the Central Plains will suffer such cruel things.

"I can't stand it, Centurion, I'm going to kill people, I'm going to kill those beasts"

"Kill, those beasts deserve to die"

"Centurion, those beasts should never be left alive."

"Damn it, so many people have been harmed by these alien races. The incompetent Song Dynasty should have been destroyed long ago."

The soldiers here were very angry when they saw these forty-six corpses, and they all asked the centurion for their lives.

These were originally young women who should have a beautiful life in the future, but they were killed by these The lives of aliens are ruined

"Take us sisters and sisters with you, and let's go find the legion commander. The alien races here have other brothers who will kill them. Now let's send these sisters home, back to our Central Plains people's homes."

"Yes, Centurion."

Chapter 754

In Huang Rong's southern army camp, the southern army has now been temporarily stationed more than ten miles away from Mingyue Canyon. The situation here is now beyond Huang Rong's guess.

She also did not expect that the aliens here would be so rampant.

The people from the Central Plains were even worse than slaves here.

This made Huang Rong very angry.

Huang Rong looked very angry when she looked at the military report in her hand, especially the women who committed suicide one by one. This made Huang Rong even more angry and wanted to destroy the thirty-six countries in the Western Region first.

She also did not expect that the Song Dynasty and the Ming Dynasty were indifferent to the people who suffered here. If the Song Dynasty and Ming Dynasty courts did not know the situation here, they would not believe it even if they killed Huang Rong.

Huang Rong put down the military report in her hand and ordered,

"Come, order the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, all these legions to move. The southern legion will only stay here for three days. Within three days, they will attack the foreign tribes and tribes that are close to here. I destroyed all the small foreign countries. I killed all the foreigners regardless of gender, age or child."

"Yes, Commander!"

Huang Rong said to herself after the messenger left,

"I can only do so much now. If it weren't for that bastard Wu Xiangjun, I would have destroyed all the thirty-six countries in the Western Region first this time."

Chang'an City, this is now Wu Xiangjun's territory. Today, more than 100,000 cavalry legions appeared here. When these cavalry armies arrived at the outskirts of Chang'an City, these cavalry legions stopped.

In the carriage,

Zhen Mi Seeing that Su Yan actually ordered the army to station here, this was a little different from what she thought.

Why didn't Su Yan go into Chang'an City to repair it?

Did Su Yan guess that if he entered Chang'an City, he would not be able to get out?

Zhen Mi thought for a while and asked Su Yan beside him,

"Princess, don't we enter Chang'an City?"

Su Yan glanced at Zhen Mi and said angrily, "What's going in? Zhen Mi, do you think I am a fool? Can I enter Chang'an City? If I enter Chang'an City, can I still come out?"

"Why can't you get out? Chang'an City is also your father's territory now. If you go into Chang'an City, will the defenders of Chang'an City still be able to rebel and detain you?"

"Zhen Mi, I know what you are thinking. This time you will be disappointed again. It is impossible for me to enter Chang'an City. The Northern Army in Chang'an City may have received orders from my mother or my aunt. If I enter Chang'an City, I'm afraid the Southern Army will detain me."

Zhen Mi didn't expect that Su Yan would also think of this.

This clever girl will be difficult to deal with this time. It seems that she is really going to be taken to the Ming Dynasty in the Western Continent by this girl.

"you.....You are really a clever little girl."

Su Yan stood up to stretch his body and said disdainfully to Zhen Mi,

"You're still far from fighting me"

"hateful! I don't want to talk to you now."Zhen Mi is going crazy with this girl now.

Shi Guanyin, Xiaomeng and the others smiled when they saw Su Yan competing with Zhen Mi.

Zhen Mi never intended to give up and leave Su Yan's side along the way, but every time Su Yan was eaten to death every time.

"Someone, let Su Yu take my token to Chang'an City and bring back supplies."

"Yes, Princess! Shi

Guanyin looked at the march map and said with a smile,"Su Yan, after Chang'an City are Jiayuguan Pass and Yumen Pass. Which pass are you going to exit from?"

Su Yan came to Shi Guanyin and pointed at the map and said,

"Yumen Pass, Yumen Pass is now under the control of the original Xixia, and it is now considered the sphere of influence of our Gusu City, while Jiayuguan is in the hands of Dayuan, and it is impossible for us to leave from Jiayuguan."

"Then will our army be robbed and killed by the Yuan army if we take the Hexi Corridor? Black Widow asked worriedly while looking at the map.

Shi Guanyin looked at Black Widow and smiled and said,

"Don't worry, Dayuan doesn't dare to take action now. Huang Rong's 600,000 troops have just left here for a few days. If Dayuan dares to sneak attack my army, the Dayuan court is afraid that Huang Rong's southern army will turn around and attack Dayuan."

Su Yan's eyes lit up when she heard Shi Guanyin's words.

She now wants to take her legion across the Yuan Dynasty, so that she can quickly reach the northwest of the Ming Dynasty in the Western Continent.

Huang Rong's route is from the countries in the Western Regions The territory of the Jurchens passing through the border reaches the northeast of the Ming Dynasty in the Western Continent.

However, Dayuan will definitely not let her army cross the border, and it is probably unrealistic for her army to transit from Dayuan.

Su Yan touched his chin and looked at the map and thought deeply Come to think of it, crossing the border from Dayuan is faster than Huang Rong's army arriving at Daming, but how can we cross the border smoothly from Dayuan?

Dayuan is now a hostile country to Gusu City

"You Ruo!"

"Princess!"

"You Ruo, send someone to contact Princess Zhao Min of Dayuan, tell her that my legion will be passing through Dayuan, and ask her to find a way to help me."

"Yes, Princess!"

"Su Yan, do you really want to cross the border from Dayuan?" Shi Guanyin asked in surprise when he heard Su Yan's words.

Although Shi Guanyin had heard that Princess Zhao Min of Dayuan had a close relationship with that bastard Su Chen, and that Princess Zhao Min was even Su Chen's confidante.

But this time she brought more than ten people with her. Wan's legion,

Princess Zhao Min is the princess of Dayuan, is she enough to take risks to help Su Yan?

Su Yan pointed to the map and said to Shi Guanyin, "Yes, if my Black Bird legion passes through Dayuan, we will It can reach the Ming Empire quickly, even more than ten days faster than Huang Rong's Northern Army."

Shi Guanyin looked at the map and shook his head hastily.

To cross the border from Dayuan, you have to pass through several important military towns of Dayuan. They are all heavily guarded.

If Su Yan is ambushed in Dayuan,

I am afraid that Gusu will Even if the other legions in the city wanted to rescue them, they were unable to do anything.

Shi Guanyin thought about it and immediately objected to Su Yan and said,

"But this is too risky. Although Zhao Min has a close relationship with your father, more than 100,000 troops are crossing the border. Aren't you afraid that Zhao Min will deceive you and destroy your army?"

Su Yan is not worried that Princess Zhao Min will take action against her.

Zhao Min cares about her father very much. If something happens to her father this time, Su Yan believes that Zhao Min is also very worried.

But that Zhao Min is also very smart.

I am afraid Zhao Min is already there. What is being arranged?

Southern Huang and Northern Zhao!

This is not just talk.

Zhao Min and Huang Rong are the smartest women in the world.

Both of them are powerful women who have led armies to destroy countries. This is not the one they destroyed. The Broken Kingdom of Jin is comparable.

Su Yan said to Shi Guanyin with a very confident smile,

"Hahaha! Auntie, you have never met Zhao Min. Zhao Min will not touch me. Zhao Min cares about my father very much, and I am afraid that Zhao Min also got the news about my father's accident this time. Although I don't know if she has any plans now, but She will definitely take action."

Shi Guanyin didn't expect Su Yan to trust Zhao Min so much, but she was still a little worried.

If they were ambushed by the Dayuan army,

Shi Guanyin could take Su Yan away intact, but she didn't have Su Yan's Black Bird Army. There is a way to save it

"Are you so sure that Zhao Min will not betray you?"

"Auntie, if you were Princess Zhao Min, would you betray me?"

"Won't!"

"Neither can Zhao Min. Now I suspect that Zhao Min must have some plans in the northwest of Ming Dynasty. I evenIt is suspected that Zhao Min must be waiting for Huang Rong's southern army to arrive in the northeast of the Ming Dynasty, and the two of them will definitely take action at the same time."

Chapter 755

Chang'an City,

Mu Guiying's maid Xiao He is not! Now he should be the commander of the First Army of the Northern Army. Now Mu Guiying leads the army to destroy the Song Dynasty, and the one who stays in Chang'an City is Xiao He of the First Army.

It's just that Xiao He is very unhappy now.

She looks helpless when she looks at the warrant in her hand.

What should she do?

She was just a concubine of Lord Wu Xiang, and she had never even been to Gusu City. Lord Wu Xiang's aunt didn't know if she would let her in, but now Mrs. Yan Feijun actually asked her to lead the army to stop the little princess Su. Word.

Can she stop the little princess Su Yan?

Can she offend the little princess Su Yan now?

Although she didn't know why Mrs. Jun asked her to stop the little princess, but!

This is pushing her into a pit of fire!

At this time, a captain of ten thousand men in the meeting hall said to Xiao He,

"Legion commander, the little princess has stopped at the outskirts of Chang'an City. Do we want to go see her?"

Xiao He looked at the Zhao Ling in his hand and shook his head helplessly and ordered, "Sun Wei, gather 10,000 cavalry and follow me to capture the little princess."

Sun Wei, the captain of the cavalry regiment, asked in confusion after hearing Xiao He's words,

"What....What, legion commander, you?.....you.....Are you going to rebel?"

Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!

When the surrounding captains heard Xiao He's words, they drew out their swords and alerted the surrounding soldiers. They did not expect that the commander of Xiao He's regiment would betray Lord Wu Xiang, and now he was going to arrest Xiao Jun. Lord, these captains of ten thousand will not betray Lord Wu Xiang.

When the surrounding guards saw the captains drawing their weapons, they also pointed their crossbows at the captains.

Xiao He did not expect that he was After she said that she wanted to capture the little princess, the captains here drew their weapons to defend themselves.

She was both funny and angry when she saw this.

What was funny was that these captains were loyal to that bastard Su Chen, and she was angry. The question is, will she be a rebellious person?

These captains must teach them a lesson in the future.

Now the captains and her guards have begun to confront each other.

She stood up in a hurry and used the gloomy momentum of her master. He ordered with a straight face, "What are you doing? Put your weapons away for me."

Xiao He's powerful momentum almost overwhelmed everyone here, but these ten thousand captains still persisted in resisting Xiao He's pressure.

"Legion commander, do you really want to betray Lord Wu Xiang?"

"Who said I betrayed Lord Wu Xiang?"

"But why did you gather the army to arrest the little princess?"

Xiao He put down his imposing manner and handed the order of Gusu City to the captain next to him and said,

"This is the order from Gusu Chengjun's wife. You are not qualified to see these. After reading them, each of you will receive thirty military sticks."

The captains all looked very embarrassed after seeing it.

They had misunderstood the legion commander this time. This time it was the order of Gusu City Lord's wife, and the phoenix seal cannot be faked.

"I'm sorry, legion commander. We, the bosses, have misunderstood the legion commander. We are willing to be punished."

"Sun Wei, you are punished and will not be executed until you capture the little princess. Now go and assemble your cavalry of ten thousand people."

"Yes, legion commander".....

At this moment, at the port of Jining City in the Sui Dynasty, more than 300 warships have gathered here, making Jining City very lively now. Some Jianghu people are not far away and want to know what happened.

"What on earth happened? Why are so many warships gathered here? Is Wu Xiangjun going to launch a war against the Japanese or the Koreans?"

"Sure, haven't you seen that armies from all over the south are gathering here now?"

"You may not know that there are now nearly 300,000 troops gathered in the military camp in Jining City, but there is still a steady stream of troops coming. I don't know how many troops will be gathered this time."

"I heard that Li Xiuning, the commander of the Eastern Army, also appeared in Jining City. It seems that this time it must be a war to destroy the country."

"Yes, the Eastern Army has almost 800,000 troops. Should the entire Eastern Army be dispatched?"

The Jianghu and ordinary people in Jining City are now discussing what Wu Xiangjun's Eastern Army will do this time.

In the military camp in Jining City,

Li Xiuning and Yun Yu are really talking.

This time Yun Yu Zhen is the commander of all warships, and this time they have to travel thousands of miles to fight in the Ming Dynasty in the Western Continent. They must be prepared to deal with some dangers encountered at sea.

Li Xiuning is still a little lucky this time.

After all, her army has The soldiers are basically from the south and will not encounter any discomfort on the sea.

Yun Yuzhen pointed to the map and said to Li Xiuning,

"Commander, this time we can carry out a supply operation when we reach Yizhou, and then we can directly get to Mingzhou Prefecture in the Western Continent. We can land at Mingzhou Port.

Li Xiuning looked at the map and frowned, "Mingzhou Port?" Can Mingzhou Port accommodate so many of our troops landing?"

Li Xiuning is now a little worried about the hasty dispatch of the army. Mainly because she is very worried about being on the sea.

After all, this is an army of 600,000.

She does not want to encounter danger on the sea, and there are such large armies like them. She had to carefully inquire about the landing site.

Yun Yuzhen looked at Li Xiuning and felt that she was a real commander.

Li Xiuning had basically not rested in the past three days. She thought about all the military details before finally deciding.

Yun Yuzhen smiled and said to Li Xiuning,

"Commander, according to the secret message from the secret guards, Mingzhou is the most suitable landing place for us, and Mingzhou is very close to Jinling City, the southern capital of the Ming Dynasty. After landing, our army can quickly capture Jinling as our base camp."

"Then land in Mingzhou, we will rely on you on the sea." Li Xiuning stood up and looked at Yun Yuzhen and said.

Yun Yuzhen also stood up and moved her forward and backward body and said,

"Don't worry, we have the chart given by Mrs. Dongming from the Dongming Sect. As long as we don't encounter strong winds on the sea this time, we can reach Daming in the Western Continent with certainty."

"Then start getting the troops on board tomorrow morning." Li Xiuning looked at Yun Yuzhen's protruding body, and she thought that this woman might also have an affair with that bastard Wu Xiangjun, and might even be that bastard's concubine in the future.

Yun Yuzhen didn't care about Li Xiuning's look. The look in her eyes, not many people know about her relationship with Wu Xiangjun, and she has never thought about talking nonsense, as long as that bastard can think of her,

"Well, Gusu City only gave us three days. Now we have delayed for almost five days. If the warships were not assembled slowly, we would have set off long ago."

"There is nothing we can do about this. If it weren't for the warships supported by Gusu City, I'm afraid we still wouldn't be able to gather together the warships to transport 600,000 troops. Madam Jun and Concubine Yan gave us a few more days of grace, otherwise I, the commander-in-chief I'm afraid it was taken down"

"Madam Jun should also know our difficulties. Commander, do you think something will happen to Mr. Wu Xiang?"

Li Xiuning said angrily when she heard Yun Yu's true words, "What the hell happened to that bastard? He might not know what kind of conspiracy he was up to, or else that bastard would be having sex with other beauties."

"Ha ha! That's right, Wu Xiangjun is a shameless bastard. Good people don't live long and bad people live for thousands of years. Nothing will happen to him."

Yun Yuzhen looked at Li Xiuning and smiled.

This beautiful and sexy Li Xiuning was beaten by Wu Xiangjun, but it seems that Li Xiuning may not be able to escape from Wu Xiangjun's grasp in the future.

Chapter 756

Outside Chang'an City,

Su Yan's Black Bird Legion was being repaired.

At this time, from the military camp in Chang'an City, a cavalry team of ten thousand people rushed towards Su Yan's resting place.

Dong Dong Dong Dong

At this time, the Black Bird Legion, which was undergoing repairs, suddenly heard the deafening sound of horse hooves, which made the soldiers of the Black Bird Legion know that there might be an enemy attack.

After Wanyan Honglie heard the sound of horse hooves, he hurriedly ordered, "The enemy is attacking. Hurry up and prepare for battle. Protect the princess. The commanders of ten thousand marshal their armies into attack formations."

In just a quarter of an hour, all the legions of the Black Bird Legion were ready. The attack formation was formed, and Su Yan's carriage was now guarded by the Netherworld Cavalry regiment of the Black Bird Legion's first legion.

After Xiao He arrived with 10,000 Nether Iron Cavalry, he saw that the place had been blocked by a cavalry army.

Moreover, those armies actually set up an offensive formation, and even drew their bows and arrows to attack her army.

Xiao He looked at a man who looked like a general and said loudly, "The First Legion of the Northern Army. The commander of the Army, Mu He, wants to see the princess. Please get out of the way."

Wanyan Honglie did not expect that these powerful troops were actually the Northern Army's third A legion, and the powerful and beautiful woman in front of him is actually the same legion commander as him,

"The commander of the Muslim Army can go there, but the troops of your army will stay here."

Xiao He looked at this middle-aged man and asked doubtfully,

"Who are you?"

Wanyan Honglie offered his hand to Mu He and said with a smile, "The Falcon Legion, the second legion of the Black Bird Legion, is led by Wanyan Honglie."

Xiao He heard that this old guy turned out to be the commander of the second legion of the Black Bird Legion, but Wanyan Honglie's cultivation level was too low. He was a little scumbag with only the second level of innate talent. He didn't know why the little princess let him be. A regiment commander, which made her look at Wanyan Honglie and say unceremoniously,

"Commander Wanyan Regiment, this time I was ordered to take away the little princess. I hope you won't stop me."

Wanyan Honglie did not expect that this woman would actually come to arrest the little princess. This made Wanyan Honglie confused as to whose order this woman had received to make her so confident.

Wanyan Honglie looked at Mu He and asked in confusion," Under orders? On whose orders? The little princess is Wu Xiangjun's only heir. Who can order you to take away the little princess?"

Xiao He looked at Wanyan Honglie and said directly,"Of course Madam Gusu Chengjun's order, do you have any objections?"

"Forehead! No, but without the order of the little princess, the army here cannot pass. I hope the commander of the Mu Army will be more tolerant."Wanyan Honglie was startled when he heard that it was Madam Jun's order.

This time, the little princess took the army to Liangzhou without any order.

He also knew it.

Wanyan Honglie did not expect that Madam Jun's order came as soon as they arrived here. Come down

"Now go and inform the little princess that Mrs. Jun wants her to return to Gusu City immediately, otherwise I will personally take her back to Gusu City."

"Okay, I will report to the little princess now."

Just a moment later,

Su Yan rode a horse to the front of the army.

Her eyes lit up when she saw the heroic woman in armor in front of her. She thought that this heroic female general would be good as the commander of her subordinate army.

"Mu He, the commander of the first regiment of the Northern Army, met the princess."When Xiao He saw Su Yan coming, he got off his horse and bowed to her and said,

Xiao He is Su Chen's woman.

She doesn't know how to kneel down and salute Princess Su Yan.

For her to salute Su Yan like this is already the biggest act. It's etiquette.

This is because Su Chen didn't reveal her identity. Otherwise, Su Yan would have saluted her this time.

"See the princess!"

Xiao He brought 10,000 cavalymen and all dismounted, knelt down on one knee and saluted Su Yan, saying,

"Get up, everyone! Commander of the Muslim Army, it seems that you have not learned the etiquette well?"After Su Yan waved her hand to let the soldiers get up, she looked at Xiao He with some curiosity.

A legion commander should not know what etiquette to use when meeting her, but this legion commander just bowed to her. , which made her look at Xiao He with some doubts.

Xiao He looked at Su Yan and smiled and said,"Princess, I'm afraid you will have to ask your father about this later."

Su Yan was stunned when he heard Xiao He's words.

It turned out that this heroic woman was actually his father's woman.

Now she is completely convinced by her father. I'm afraid there are no beautiful and capable women in the world like his father. To win.

Zhen Mi heard Xiao He's words next to Su Yan and understood.

It turned out that this woman was actually Wu Xiangjun's woman, but why did this heroic woman also fall in love with Wu Xiangjun?

Who is Wu Xiangjun ? What's so good about it?

Zhen Mi looked at the graceful Shi Guanyin next to her, the cool and beautiful Xiao Meng, and the sexy and sultry Black Widow. These women were not only powerful, but also more beautiful than the last.

And she Su Yan's mother, whom she has never met, and Wu Xiangjun's wife, Concubine Yan, are probably very beautiful.

Zhen Mi is now a little curious about Su Yan's father, Wu Xiangjun.

Zhen Mi looks at Su Yan With a confused look, he smiled and said in shock, "I'll go, Su Yan, this woman can't be your father's woman, right? Now you actually ask your father's woman to kneel down and salute you. You are so courageous."

Su Yan saw that Zhen Mi was still looking at her jokes at this time, which made Su Yan, who was now depressed, smile strangely at Zhen Mi.

Su Yan looked at Zhen Mi and said unkindly, "Zhen Mi, Do you think you can escape? You will also be my father's woman in the future. This is what I said. Even if my father doesn't want you, I will tie you up and send you to my father's bed."

"you.....you....." When Zhen Mi heard Su Yan's words, her face turned red and she didn't know what to say.

She seemed to have pissed off Su Yan this time.

I'm afraid Su Yan would really do this in the future.

Zhen Mi now wants to admit her mistake to Su Yan. She doesn't want to be tied up and sent to her father's bed in the future.

Su Yan dismounted and bowed to Xiao He and said, "Aunt Mu, I was wrong this time, but you can't blame me. My father didn't tell me about you."

"I know, but this time you are leaving with me. Madam Jun and Concubine Yan gave me an order to take you back to Gusu City. Please don't make things difficult for me."

Su Yan said coquettishly and jokingly after hearing Xiao He's words,

"I won't leave, Aunt Mu. I'm going to Daming to save my father. Can't you just pretend you haven't seen me?"

"Su Yan, do you think it's possible? Are all the secret guards here blind?" Xiao He looked around at the secret guards protecting Su Yan and her and curled her lips and said.

Xiao He knew that although these secret guards were protecting her and Su Yan, these secret guards were another Madam Jun. Under Salamander's men, these secret guards will report anything that happens.

Just like what happened today,

I'm afraid that tomorrow, Mrs. Jun, Concubine Yan and Jing Salamander will know about it.

"Just pretend they are all blind." Su Yan looked at the thousands of secret guards around him, and then at the dozens of secret guards around Xiao He, and felt that there were spies everywhere around her, right!

There were also shadow assassins, they They are all hidden spies. I am afraid that everything she does will be known to her family. It seems that she will not be able to escape the fate of being monitored in her life.

Su Yan looked at the secret guards around him and immediately threatened,

"All you secret guards here, listen, it's best to stay silent about what happened here today, otherwise if I find out and you tell my mother what happened here, I think you will all be in trouble in the future."

"Yan'er, what are you doing?"

Chapter 757

Su Yan was threatening the secret guards here, but she suddenly heard her mother's frightened voice and became confused. She did not expect that her mother would come, which was unexpected to her.

She looked around and didn't find her mother's whereabouts, but she knew her mother was already here, but her current cultivation level was too low to find out where her mother was hiding.

"Mother, why are you here? Why didn't you show up when you came?"

Shi Guanyin also looked around with interest.

She didn't expect that the Shadow Assassin's king-level shadow killing technique, Jing Salamander, was so advanced. Even she didn't find out where Jing Salamander was hiding.

Shi Guanyin also practiced this. It's a king-level secret skill, but she has no interest in this kind of concealment technique. She just needs to improve her strength to the point where no one can shake it.

Is there anything else that needs to be done to hide it?

Zhen Mi is also very curious about Su Yan's mother now. , she is also searching everywhere now.

She wants to know what Su Yan's mother looks like.

Is Su Yan's mother a gorgeous woman?

Black Widow and Xiao Meng did not expect Su Yan's mother to arrive. They also wanted to meet Su Chen's first wife, who was the woman who controlled the secret guard.

Xiao He was a little nervous now, and she did not expect that Wu Xiangjun's two wives would come this time. He met a very mysterious Mrs. Jun, and this Mrs. Jun is also the biological mother of the little princess Su Yan.

Xiao He has not yet been accepted by Wu Xiangjun's family, and that bastard Su Chen probably hasn't separated her from Miss Mu either. Guiying told his family what happened, and he didn't know whether Mrs. Jingbajun's arrival would be good or bad for her.

"I am right beside you."

At this time,

Jing Salad suddenly appeared next to Su Yan and said,

Jing Salad is still wearing her fishnet outfit, her cold and beautiful face still has an expression of not being approached by strangers, and her bulging figure now looks more attractive. Thinking about it

"The secret guard meets the Lord."

After the Frightened Salamander appeared, the secret guards all knelt down and saluted the Frightened Salamander, saying,

"See Mrs. Salamander!"

And the troops here, whether they are Su Yan's Black Bird Legion or Xiao He's Legion, are all kneeling down and saluting the Frightened Salamanders.

"Mu He met Mrs. Salamander"

"Black Widow meets Madam Salamander"

"Xiao Meng met Sister Jing Salamander"

"Zhen Mi Jian.....Met Mrs. Salamander."

Except for Shi Guanyin, the other women here all bowed down and saluted the Jing Salamander.

"Get up, everyone!"

Jing Salamander's cold voice came from her mouth, and just a simple sentence reached the ears of more than 100,000 army soldiers here.

""Mrs. Xie."

Jing Salamander ignored Su Yan who was a little worried. She looked at Shi Guanyin and saluted,"Jing Salamander has seen Sister Shi.""

"Frightened Salamander, you don't have to do this."

Shi Guanyin didn't expect that Jing Salamander would salute her, which she couldn't accept.

Jing Salamander was that bastard's first woman, and even Jing Salamander was one of that bastard's two wives. Now Jing Salamander is even more... A super master who is half-step to the Heavenly Realm. Although Shi Guanyin's current cultivation level is half-step to the Golden Core Realm, and she is much older than Jing Salamander. If she were to be reincarnated, she would have to salute Jing Salamander in the future. After all, She is also that bastard woman

"Sister joked, you and Sister Bai Ruobing deserve my salute."

Jing Salamander didn't care whether Shi Guanyin accepted it or not. She saluted to Shi Guanyin and then looked up at Shi Guanyin.

Jing Salamander was very grateful to Shi Guanyin. If it weren't for Shi Guanyin, I'm afraid that bastard Su Chen would have died countless times.

"Forget it, come and take away Su Yan's girl this time!"

"Um! This girl is crazy enough outside. If we don't take her back, I'm afraid she will cause trouble like her father."

"Ha ha! They are a father and daughter with a good character, but this time you don't have to force me, I'm afraid you won't be able to take Su Yan away."

Su Yan was very speechless when she heard the conversation between her mother and Shi Guanyin.

She was very anxious now. If her mother kidnapped her this time, she might not be able to go to Ming Dynasty to find her mother.

Su Yan came Jing Salamang, who was next to her, took her hand and asked coquettishly, "Mother, can I not go back to Gusu City?"

"What do you think?"

Jing Salamander looked at Su Yan coldly and asked expressionlessly.

Su Yan secretly glanced at Jing Salamander and whispered,

"I said not Gusu City"

"Do you think that's possible?"

Jing Sala rolled her eyes at Su Yan and felt very helpless.

Now Su Yan is getting more and more wild, and even more and more disobedient. She is now afraid that Su Yan will not be like a girl in the future.

Su Yan will become an empire in the future. Princess, Jing Salamander now wants to take Su Yan back to Gusu City so that she can learn more etiquette.

"Mother, I am taking the army to Daming this time, and Huang Rong's legion has already passed. With Huang Rong's southern legion here and Zhao Min's army, nothing will happen to me in Daming."

"no!"

Su Yan saw that her mother still had a cold expression that said she could say nothing. She was helpless now.

Su Yan now very doubted why his father, Su Chen, liked such a cold woman like her mother?

Is it just because her mother was beautiful? Is that right?

But this isn't right!

Her mother, Jing Salamander, was not like this in front of his father. She really couldn't understand these things.

Su Yan looked at Shi Guanyin and said coquettishly to her, "Aunt Shi, just help me. Please beg for mercy! I really want to go to Daming to find my father. Doesn't my aunt not want to go to Daming to find my father?"

Shi Guanyin was also very moved when she heard Su Yan's words.

She had not been together with that bastard Su Chen for a long time. Besides, that bastard Su Chen had managed to get rid of the pervert Jellyfish Yinji, which gave her a lot of advantages. I have to ask that bastard.

Shi Guanyin looked at Jing Salamander and smiled awkwardly and said, "Jing Salamander, why don't you let Yan'er and I go to Daming? Nothing will happen to her as long as I'm here.""

"this....."

Jingli didn't expect that Shi Guanyin would say this, which made her unable to refuse now.

However, with Shi Guanyin's half-step golden elixir realm, nothing would happen to Su Yan, but just let Su Yan leave like this, and she would go back. In the end, there was no way to explain to Li Qiushui and the others.

When Su Yan saw that Shi Guanyin actually agreed, she hurriedly said to Jing Salamander, "Oh! Mother, how could anything happen to me with Aunt Shi here? Don't worry! Aunt Shi and I will return to Gusu City after we find our father. I ensure!"

"All right!"

"Wow! Thank you mother." Su Yan jumped up and shouted happily after hearing Jing Salad's agreement.

Jing Salad saw Su Yan's happy look and touched her head.

This time she returned in vain. I'm afraid she will be dead when she returns. They will be complained by Li Qiushui and Yan Fei.

One day later, in an ordinary house in the capital of the Ming Dynasty

, Fairy Yunmeng and Su Chen came here. This is the place where Fairy Yunmeng stayed before, although it is not very luxurious. , but it's very quiet here

"Asshole, go to another room and sleep."

When Fairy Yunmeng saw that this bastard Su Chen wanted to sleep with her in his arms, Fairy Yunmeng was so embarrassed that she wanted to kick this bastard away.

Su Chen said shamelessly while lying on the bed,

"I'll do it! Yunmeng, will you become lawless once you restore your cultivation? It's not like we haven't rested together before. I don't know everything about your body. What are you pretending to be now?"

"Shameless pervert!"

Chapter 758

Fairy Yunmeng really has nothing to do with Su Chen now. This shameless pervert is really too shameless. Although she has fallen in love with him, why can't this bastard lose his face?

Su Chen was lying on the bed and looked at Fairy Yunmeng who was washing up and said hurriedly,

"By the way, Yunmeng, ask your men tomorrow to quickly find out what happened in the past few days since we were missing."

Fairy Yunmeng combed her hair and said without looking back, "I know, you are not worried about your confidante in the capital of the Ming Dynasty, are you?"

"I'm not worried about them. I'm just worried about my daughter these past few days since I've been missing."

Su Chen smiled when he thought of that girl Su Yan.

If that girl Su Yan knew that he was missing, she might really come to the Ming Dynasty to look for her.

But if she comes to the Ming Dynasty, I'm afraid that Concubine Yan and Jing Salad will let the Heavenly Human Realm go. Bai Ruobing, Shi Guanyin and others will also come.

By that time,

I am afraid that the Ming Dynasty will really be destroyed.

"Your daughter?"

"Um! My enemies know that I am missing and dead. If they want to destroy my power in Gusu, they can only take action against my daughter."

"Then nothing really happens to your daughter, right?"

"No, if my enemies were smart they wouldn't take action now. After I disappeared, my wives would step up to protect my daughter, and even my women in the Heavenly Realm would be recalled to protect her."

"Haha, then what are you worried about?"

"I'm worried that that girl will act recklessly. That girl is not a peaceful person. I'm afraid that she will come to Daming. If she does, I'm afraid Daming will be turned upside down by her."

"....."

Fairy Yunmeng was speechless for this bastard.

Fairy Yunmeng did not expect that this bastard was not worried about his daughter's safety, but now he was worried that his daughter would cause trouble everywhere when Emperor Ming came. This was comparable to this bastard.

He looked at the beautiful Fairy Yunmeng and urged, "Forget it, Yunmeng, come over and have a rest. Why are you combing your hair so late?"

Su Chen was very sleepy now.

He was in Shura City. He hadn't had a good rest in those few days. The women in Shura City were like fairies. Every night he endured the beauty of those beauties. Now that he was back in Tianxuan Continent,

Su Chen wanted to enjoy Fairy Yunmeng. Tenderness, no one will bother them this time.

Fairy Yunmeng's face turned red when she heard Su Chen's words.

She didn't expect that this bastard would dare to urge her. This bastard was really such a bastard and so shameless.

She looked at Su Chen and said angrily, "You are always acting weird tonight. If you dare to touch me, I will castrate you."

"I'll do it! You are so poisonous." Su Chen just come down. Fairy Yunmeng picked her up and put out the candlestick with one palm.

"Damn bastard, please be gentle"

"knew!"

In the following days,

Su Chen and Fairy Yunmeng were so tired of being together every day that they didn't even care about what happened outside.

Six days later,

Fairy Yunmeng really couldn't stand Su Chen anymore. This bastard was now getting worse and worse. It's too much. She does those things in broad daylight. Now she loves and hates this bastard Su Chen. After putting on her clothes, Fairy Yunmeng leaned into Su Chen's arms and said with sweat on her face,

"Husband, you or I should go to Zhu Qiqi's house. Now your army is about to arrive in Daming. Daming is very chaotic now, and tomorrow is the competition between Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng. Don't you care about this? Yet?"

Su Chen wiped the sweat from Fairy Yunmeng's forehead, then he hugged her soft body and said, "It doesn't matter, I have planned all these. Something big will definitely happen in tomorrow's competition. We just show up tomorrow. , by the way, your enemy Happy King may also appear."

Su Chen knew that Fairy Yunmeng was a perfect person.

The Happy King also cooperated with Fairy Yunmeng to dominate the martial arts world. However, there was no such relationship between them. It was just that after a long time, it was rumored that there was a relationship between them. couple

"Did the damn Happy King really appear in the Ming Dynasty Capital?" Fairy Yunmeng hated Happy King Chai Yuguan for plotting against her. Now that she heard that Happy King Chai Yuguan was really in the Ming Dynasty, she was so excited that she wanted to kill that hypocrite.

"Don't be so excited. As long as Happy King Chai Yuguan is in the imperial capital, he will definitely show up. It will be easy for you to kill him then." Su Chen comforted Fairy Yunmeng's excited mood.

He knew that Fairy Yunmeng had been looking for revenge on Happy King for decades. It was understandable that she was so excited when she got the news about Happy King this time.

Fairy Yunmeng was like a She lay in Su Chen's arms like a kitten and said with a smile, "I know, it's only been a few decades, but I can finally take revenge."

Su Chen looked at his calmed down emotions and continued, "Yeah! This martial arts contest between Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng is a conspiracy. Now we suspect that Happy King may be cooperating with Prince Nan of Ming Dynasty."

"If Prince Nan and Happy King succeeded in taking the throne of Ming Dynasty this time, Ming Dynasty might really fall apart. Fairy

Yunmeng asked suspiciously when she heard Su Chen's words, "Isn't this very beneficial to you?"

Fairy Yunmeng knew that Su Chen was preparing to unify Tianxuan Continent, and Su Chen would attack the Ming Empire sooner or later. If the Ming Dynasty becomes chaotic tomorrow, this would be a good thing for Su Chen. Su Chen touched it Chin thought for a while and said, "This is not beneficial. The Ming Empire has already sunk. It won't be too difficult for me to destroy the Ming Dynasty."

"You should pay attention to these yourself, and let me know when you need me to take action."

"Of course, I won't be polite to you, a great expert."

"Haha, stop making trouble, I can't even stand you anymore."

The imperial capital of the Ming Dynasty, the imperial palace, and the Ming Dynasty court are now in great chaos. Wu Xiangjun's army of more than one million people has divided into two groups and marched towards the Ming Dynasty. I am afraid they will reach the border of the Ming Dynasty in a few days.

And now the Ming Dynasty court's The officials have not discussed any way to resolve these crises, and the palace has been as noisy as a vegetable market these days.

A general said hurriedly to the Ming Emperor on the throne,

"Your Majesty, I am afraid that Lord Wu Xiang's warships will be able to reach the Mingzhou Port in Ming Dynasty in two days. Although we have also dispatched 60 border troops and 300,000 Hunan troops to prevent Lord Wu Xiang's southern army from landing in Mingzhou, But these troops may not be able to stop Wu Xiangjun's Eastern Army."

Another general in the palace hall also said in panic, "Not only Wu Xiangjun's Eastern Army, but now Wu Xiangjun's Southern Army has also reached the Jurchen territory. If the Jurchens let Wu Xiangjun's army pass through, I'm afraid Wu Xiangjun will be defeated. It will take less than two days for Xiangjun's southern army to reach Shanhaiguan in Ming Dynasty."

The other ministers in the palace hall began to talk after hearing this. Now Wu Xiangjun's army is attacking Ming Dynasty from the south and the north. How can Ming Dynasty resist the invasion of Wu Xiangjun's army?

Zhu ignored it. He also stood up with a gloomy face and said,

"Your Majesty, the Yuan army in the northwest is now taking action. The commander of the 500,000-strong army in the northwest of the Yuan Dynasty is Princess Zhao Min. Princess Zhao Min is Wu Xiangjun's confidante, and may even be Wu Xiangjun's wife. This time Princess Zhao Min We will definitely cooperate with Wu Xiangjun's army to attack the Ming Dynasty, but we can't do this."

"Damn it, didn't you catch all the Wu-Tang Clan? What about the Ghost Palace? Why is there still no news about the Ghost Palace? Uncle Huang, Shenhou, you haven't found the hiding place of the Ghost Palace yet?"

Chapter 759

In the imperial palace of the Ming Dynasty.

The Emperor of Ming Dynasty is very angry now.

Wu Xiangjun's army is about to attack, but the court is still in chaos, and now he can't even think of a strategy to deal with it.

These ministers are now trash in the eyes of the Ming Emperor.

Wu Xiangjun's 1.2 million troops attacked the Ming Dynasty!

This made the Emperor of the Ming Dynasty very frightened just thinking about it.

This was as many as the Ming Dynasty's border troops, but could the Ming Dynasty deploy all the border troops to deal with Wu Xiangjun's troops?

This is definitely not possible.

The borders of the Ming Dynasty still need the protection of the border troops.

Wu Xiangjun's Eastern Army's 600,000-strong army took more than 300 warships to attack the Ming Dynasty from the sea, while Wu Xiangjun's Southern Army's 60-strong army came from the sea. The Northeast attacked Ming Dynasty. How did Ming Dynasty respond?

If there are no large armies on both sides to stop Wu Xiangjun's army, Wu Xiangjun's army may march straight into the Ming Dynasty, especially the Shanhaiguan Pass of the Ming Dynasty.

If they cannot stop Wu Xiangjun's army, I am afraid that the Imperial Capital of the Ming Dynasty will directly face the extraordinary situation. Dangerous situation.

Moreover, Dayuan is still implicated now.

Princess Zhao Min of Dayuan is actually the woman of Lord Wu Xiang. Princess Zhao Min led the army and just occupied some land in the northwest of Ming Dynasty today.

If Zhao Min's army in the northwest and Wu Xiangjun's army attack the Ming Dynasty, how will the Ming Empire stop it?

The Emperor of the Ming Dynasty feels very aggrieved when he thinks about it now.

What does Wu Xiangjun's disappearance and life and death have to do with the Ming Empire? Lord Wu Xiang was not ordered to be attacked and killed by the Ming court.

The Emperor of Ming Dynasty now hates the Wudang Clan and the Ghost Palace to death.

Now everyone in the Wudang Clan has been captured alive, but the Ghost Palace has not found any clues for more than ten days. This makes the Emperor of Ming Dynasty very angry now.

The Ming Empire's Jinyiwei, Dongchang, Xichang, Hulong Villa, Shenhou Mansion, these special agencies and spy organizations that monitor the world, can't even find out where a small Jianghu sect is.

The Ming Emperor was so angry that he couldn't help but kill people.

Zhu Wuwu was a little haggard now.

He was a rebel, but now he was running around for this incompetent emperor, and he was even trying his best to help this incompetent emperor. This made him feel incredible when he thought about it now.

But now the Ming Dynasty is in turmoil.

If the Ming Dynasty cannot survive this crisis, he may be nothing in the future, and he may even be a wanted criminal hiding everywhere in the future.

Zhu Wuwen looked at this incompetent emperor and bowed and said,

"Your Majesty, the Ghost Palace has been very secretive since the accident occurred decades ago. Now very few people in the world know about the Ghost Palace. It is very difficult to trace the Ghost Palace now. However, there is a person named Shen Lang who is related to the Ghost Palace. Relationship, we are all chasing him with all our strength. As long as we catch Shen Lang, we can get the news about the Ghost Palace."

Zhuge Zheng and I are also looking ugly now.

Something caused by Wu Xiangjun has forced the Ming Empire to this point. This is something Zhuge Zheng and I have never imagined.

Now Wu Xiangjun's army of more than one million is pressing down on the border. If the Ming Dynasty is not careful, it will be destroyed. This is what Zhuge Zheng and I don't want to see. Zhuge Zheng and I looked at the haggard Zhu Mingli and couldn't help but shook his head.

In the past ten days, this brave prince has worked hard with all his heart. I tried my best to search the Ghost Palace. I am afraid that the iron-hearted God Hou Zhuwu is not so enthusiastic about the throne now.

Zhuge Zhengwo also stood up and said to the Ming Emperor,

"Your Majesty, what Shenhou said is right. Shen Lang is now a key person. As long as we catch Shen Lang, we will get the hiding place of the Ghost Palace, and then we will wipe out the Ghost Palace."

The Emperor of Ming Dynasty patted the dragon chair angrily and asked loudly, "Where is Shen Langren? When are you going to catch it? Do you have to let Lord Wu Xiang's army arrive at the city to capture Shen Lang?"

"Your Majesty, calm down!"

"Your Majesty, calm down!"

"Your Majesty, calm down!"

Cao Zhengchun, the governor of Dongchang, suddenly saluted the Ming Emperor and said,

"Your Majesty, we might as well start with the Emei Sect. The Emei Sect has a close relationship with Wu Xiangjun. Even the Emei Sect did not hesitate to offend the Wudang Sect and Ghost Palace to protect Wu Xiangjun in the restaurant. We might as well ask the Emei Sect to deal with our Ming Dynasty."

"Emei sect?"

The Emperor of the Ming Dynasty was a little confused when he heard the words of the old eunuch Cao Zhengchun.

Cao Zhengchun had clearly investigated what happened in the restaurant that day.

The relationship between Wu Xiangjun and the nuns of the Emei sect was not simple.

Even Cao Zhengchun I also suspect that the strength of the Emei Sect has increased greatly during this period, probably because of Lord Wu Xiang.

"Yes, Your Majesty, the Emei Sect has a close relationship with Lord Wu Xiang. Even the nuns of the Emei Sect may be the women raised by Lord Wu Xiang outside. The Holy One should also know that Lord Wu Xiang is a person who loves beauty."

The Emperor of the Ming Dynasty's eyes lit up when he heard Cao Zhengchun's words.

He felt that what Cao Zhengchun said was right.

If the nuns of the Emei Sect were really the women raised by Lord Wu Xiang, I am afraid that the crisis of the Ming Dynasty would depend on the Emei Sect. Those nuns came to resolve the issue

"Cao Zhengchun, please find out more about these things for me. If this matter is true, maybe this is an opportunity for our Ming Dynasty to get rid of the crisis."

"Yes, Your Majesty!"

When Cao Zhengchun heard the emperor's words, he hurriedly saluted and accepted the order.

At this time,

Zhu Wuwu stepped forward and saluted the Ming Emperor again,

"Your Majesty, there are only more than 300,000 troops in Shanhaiguan now. We must ask the surrounding garrisons to rush to Shanhaiguan immediately. Shanhaiguan cannot be broken under any circumstances, otherwise our Ming Dynasty capital will be in great danger."

"The Minister of War, in addition to the border army in the northwest and the army in Mingzhou, the border army of the Twelve Guards of the Ming Dynasty dispatched another 500,000 troops to assist Shanhaiguan."

"Yes, Your Majesty!"

The Emperor of the Ming Dynasty suddenly thought of tomorrow's martial arts competition between Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng, and his face turned very ugly.

The incident with Lord Wu Xiang is driving him crazy now, and these Jianghu people are still here to cause trouble.

This is really putting the Ming Empire on hold. In my eyes, fighting on the top of the Forbidden City on a full moon night is a slap in the face of the Ming Empire.

"Tomorrow's full moon night is the battle at the top of the Forbidden City. I don't want those Jianghu people to leave the Forbidden City alive. These emperor uncles and Shenhou will work together to do it."

"Yes, Your Majesty!"

After the emperor left, the ministers here are now very hesitant.

How did the powerful Ming Empire fall to this point?

No marriage!

No tribute!

No submission!

The emperor guards the country, and the king dies!

What happened to the powerful Ming Dynasty? Forced to this point by a Wu Xiangjun?

The Ming Empire has millions of battle-hardened troops, but now there are only more than a million border troops left? The surrounding foreigners that the Ming Empire fought a hundred years ago have fled away from the Ming border. , those alien races did not dare to invade the country for decades, and even the surrounding alien races once offered themselves to the Ming Dynasty.

Why do the surrounding alien races want to take a bite of the Ming Dynasty now?

The Jurchens rebelled and occupied Liaodong, and the Yuan Empire occupied several states in the northwest. , and the southern region is constantly being harassed by Japanese Japanese pirates.

Since the emperor left, the palace hall has been very quiet. The important ministers here have not made a sound now. These important ministers are now reflecting on how the Ming Empire fell into this kind of situation. reached the point.

Chapter 760

The Ming Empire, the Ming Empire is now in a state of turmoil. The news that Lord Wu Xiang's wife sent out more than one million troops to avenge Lord Wu Xiang has now been completely spread in the Ming Dynasty.

This made the people of the Ming Empire feel very incredible when they heard it, and even thought it was a fake.

In the eyes of ordinary people who have little information, the Ming people still think that the Ming Empire is very powerful. Even if Wu Xiangjun's army of more than one million comes to attack the Ming Empire, the Ming Empire's millions of troops will still defeat Wu Xiang. Your army.

Shenhou Mansion

Zhuge Zheng has been sitting in a chair in a daze since I came back from the palace. He is now very worried about the upcoming war. He also heard the discussions of the ordinary people on the street today.

Does the Ming Empire still have millions of troops?

This happened many years ago.

The Ming Dynasty now only has more than one million troops. Even the frontier troops have basically never been on the battlefield. Otherwise, they would not have lost the troops outside the pass in the war with the Jurchens and Dayuan people. Large areas of land.

At this time, the four famous arrests came back. The four of them looked at the meditative Zhuge Zheng and I was very worried. They looked at the other three cold-bloodedly and asked Zhuge Zheng, "Shenhou, this time things are really serious." Is it serious?"

Zhuge Zhengga took a sip of tea and said expressionlessly,

"Seriously, this time is related to the life and death of the Ming Dynasty. If the war breaks out, I am afraid that the Ming Dynasty will lose completely. The Ming Dynasty's army is no match for Wu Xiangjun's troops who came out of the war."

The four famous arresters here were very surprised when they heard Zhuge Zhengga's words. They did not expect that Zhuge Zhengga was so unfavorable to the upcoming war, which made the four of them feel a little incredible. Lengxue heard

Zhuge Zhengga's words He said a little irritably,

"Why did Mr. Wu Xiang's wife launch a war against our Ming Empire indiscriminately? Lord Wu Xiang was not ordered to be attacked and killed by our Ming court."

Zhuge Zheng shook his head when he heard Lengxue's words.

This Lengxue took it for granted.

If the king of any country is assassinated in another country, no matter how big or small the country is, no matter how strong or weak the country is, that country will launch a war.

Can we fight it? Let's not talk about war for the moment, it is related to the dignity of a country.

If it is peaceful because that country is strong, it will lose the integrity of the country and even cause turmoil in the country.

"Cold-blooded, you are wrong. If a king of a country is assassinated in another country, the country must be blamed first. Just like if our Emperor Ming was assassinated in another country, wouldn't we also launch a war against that country?"

The cold-blooded ones couldn't help but nodded when they heard Zhuge Zhengwo's words.

Although Zhuge Zhengwo said it well, thousands of people will die when the war begins.

Wu Xiangjun's wife is also a ruthless character.

This time she actually Two combat legions with more than one million troops will be dispatched. Are they preparing to destroy the Ming Empire?

Zhuge Zhengwo suddenly looked at Qingwu and asked, "Qingwu, what is the relationship between the Emei faction and Wu Xiangjun?"

Qingqing was very confused when Zhuge Zheng asked her, what is the relationship between Wu Xiangjun and the Emei sect?

That pervert may have fallen in love with those beautiful nuns from the Emei sect, but she would not tell Zhuge Zheng about this. Me.

After all, those beautiful nuns of the Emei sect are monks, and now Wu Xiangjun and those nuns have not come together.

Wu Chiqing will not ruin the reputation of those nuns.

Wu Qingqing shook his head and said to Zhuge Zhengyi ,

"What is the relationship between the Emei Sect and Wu Xiangjun? There doesn't seem to be a special relationship between them. I just know that the Emei Sect's Miejie Shitai has always wanted to accept Wu Xiangjun's daughter as his apprentice. I don't know the rest."

"That's it! It seems that the Emei sect can't help."Zhuge Zheng sighed when he heard this.

He originally didn't believe what Cao Zhengchun said, but now he has given up on this matter after hearing Wu Qingqing's words.

"You all go down and prepare for a competition on the top of the Forbidden City on the night of the full moon tomorrow. The Holy Emperor has decreed that Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng will challenge the dignity of the Ming Empire. This time, as long as they arrive at the Forbidden City, you will fight with Jin Yiwei, Dongchang, and Xichang. , Hulong Villa worked together to kill Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng."

When Tie Shou heard Zhuge Zhengwo's order, he said doubtfully,

"Lord Shen, Ximen Chuixue is Wu Xiangjun's sworn brother. Do we really want to kill Ximen Chuixue?"

Zhuge Zheng stood up from his chair and said loudly,

"Holy shit! How could I forget this? No, I want to attack Mian Sheng immediately. Ximen Chuixue cannot be killed at this time. If he kills Ximen Chuixue, I am afraid it will anger Mrs. Jun in Gusu City even more."

The four famous catchers looked at Zhuge Zhengwo who was in a hurry and left. They had never seen such an unstable Zhuge Zhengwo before. Today was an eye-opener for them. The next day,

Emperor

Ming Dynasty was very In the excitement of the Forbidden City, some martial arts people came to the Forbidden City early in the morning. Although the Ming Empire is now facing the threat of war, the competition between the two great swordsmen of the Ming Dynasty on the top of the Forbidden City still attracted countless people to watch.

Zhu Qiqi In the mansion,

Lu Xiaofeng and the others are very depressed now. For more than ten days, they have not found that bastard Wu Xiangjun, and they don't even have any clues.

Today is the day of the competition between Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng, and they are facing off against Wu Xiangjun. That bastard gave up completely. After all, what happened today was a big deal.

Sikong Zhaixing looked at the silent drinking crowd, then he looked at Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng and said,

"What to do now? How about Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng just do a few tricks in the Forbidden City and then come back!"

Lu Xiaofeng shook her head when she heard Sikong Zhaixing's words and said,

"Sikong Zhaixing, this is not a question of whether to fight or not. As long as Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng appear on the top of the Forbidden City, I am afraid that Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng will fall into a trap. But I still can't figure out those calculations. What are Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng doing?"

Sikong Zhaixing is helpless now.

These days, it's either about Wu Xiangjun or the martial arts competition between Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng. Now he is going crazy because of these things.

"well! It's impossible not to compete, and it's even more impossible not to compete. What the hell is this!"

Lu Xiaofeng ignored Sikong Zhaixing's complaint.

He looked at Fu Hongxue and wanted Fu Hongxue's mother to help. After all, Fu Hongxue's mother was a terrestrial immortal in the heavenly realm.

"Fu Hongxue, today's competition between Ximen Chuixue and Ye Gucheng needs your mother's help. Can you please ask your mother?"

Fu Hongxue's expression changed when she heard Lu Xiaofeng's words.

His face, which was originally bruised and swollen, is now even more ugly. He has been beaten by his mother every day for the past ten days.

As long as Wu Xiangjun is not found, there is no news about Wu Xiangjun. , Fu Hongxue will be beaten up by her mother to vent her anger.

Fu Hongxue doesn't know now whether her mother is worried about Wu Xiangjun, that bastard, or if she has other ideas, but he can tell that her mother and Shen Sanniang are worried about Wu Xiangjun That bastard,

Fu Hongxue doesn't dare to see her grumpy mother now, "I'm the one who fucks you!" Lu Xiaoji, do you see the swelling on my face? I am being beaten by my mother every day. Do you want me to die early and be reincarnated? I don't dare to see my mother now. Sikong

Zhaixing looked at Fu Hongxue with curious eyes and asked, "By the way, Fu Hongxue, what is the relationship between your mother and Wu Xiangjun?"

"none of your business!"

Fu Hongxue looked at the bastard Sikong Zhaixing and said angrily,

"I'll do it! We are brothers. I see that your mother is very concerned about Wu Xiangjun's affairs these days. I am not itching to know."

"Then you go ask my mother, but I'm afraid you will be thrown out while lying down."
