

“Hu!”

Lan cried out.

Shen Wanshan asked, “Mister, you know him?”

Chen Hao said, “Yes, of course! He’s like my brother!”

Lan sobbed and said, “Ah! Mister, then you must save Hu! I know that you have excellent medical skills! Please, you have to save him!”

It turns out that the Hu guy Lan had mentioned is actually Di Hu.

If I knew that, I would have sent my men to look for him long ago.

Then things would not have turned out this way.

“Lan, move aside for now. Didn't you hear what Mister said? He is brothers with Hu!”

Yu dragged Lan aside.

As for Chen Hao, he was able to assess Di Hu's injuries in a short span of time.

His wounds were very severe and if he had been discovered a few hours later, he would most probably succumb to his injuries, even if Mr. Qin was here.

Chen Hao said, "Hurry up, bring Di Hu back to the manor first!"

Two whole hours later.

Di Hu's fingers twitched slightly.

Right after, his eyes slowly opened.

The first thing he saw was Lan, who was gripping tightly onto his hands.

With a weak voice, Di Hu said, "Lan? A-Am I dreaming? Am I already dead?"

Lan cried out, "No! You are not dead! Hu, you are not dreaming. It's Mister! Mister is the one who healed you!"

"Mister?"

Di Hu was in shock. "I understand how bad my injuries were, even Master Zuo from the Southwest Region wouldn't have been able to save me. The only reason that kept me going was you. I wanted to come over and see you before I died! How could anybody have treated me?"

"It's the truth, Hu! Mister is very capable and he really saved you! Oh right, I got too excited and forgot about it. Mister told me to let him know immediately when you woke up!"

After she finished speaking, Lan wiped her tears off and ran out in a hurry.

"Di Hu, you woke up?"

Chen Hao said while running in.

Di Hu, who was lying on the bed, shuddered when he heard this voice.

He lifted his head up and when he saw who it was, his lips convulsed. "Y-Young Master Chen?!"

Di Hu was astonished and happy at the same time. He anxiously tried to sit up right away.

“Don't move, you just recovered!”

Chen Hao came over and supported him.

Di Hu gripped onto Chen Hao's hand tightly and said, “Young Master Chen, it's so great to see you! I heard rumours that y-you were dead. I didn't expect to see you here. It feels great to see you!”

Di Hu was so agitated that tears were flowing down his face.

Chen Hao also did not expect to bump into Di Hu in a totally foreign place with unfamiliar people around.

He then smiled and said, “I am not dead! I am perfectly fine!”

“Hu, Mister is the one that did everything he could to save you!” explained Lan.

“Y-Young Master Chen? You were the one who saved me?” Di Hu was surprised. “When did you pick up medical skills?”

Chen Hao replied, "About half a year ago. Enough with the questions, I will fill you in later on. Hurry up and tell me what happened to you. How did you almost lose your life and what about your brother?"

Just then, a look of bitterness flashed across Di Hu's face. He then narrated the story of what happened to him and his brother over this period of time.

It turned out that after that night of risking their lives to protect Chen Hao, they returned to the Chen Family.

However, because Tian Long and Di Hu stepped in to help, the Chen Family was afraid that the news would spread out and it would endanger their lives. Thus, Di Hu and his brother were given a sum of money so that they could leave the Chen Family.

At first, Tian Long and Di Hu planned to return to the mercenary base that was overseas.

However, on the way there, they heard about Chen Hao and Li Zhenguo's incident in Qing City.

And the fact that Young Master Chen had gone missing.

As such, they went over to the Southwest Region and investigated the matter in private. However, three months went by and there was still no news.

Not only that, the Situ Family became aware of their presence. With no other choice, the both of them could only leave the Southwest Region and came over to the Tian City Triangle Zone.

At first, they had planned to gain a foothold here and use their money to build a force of their own. Then, they could return and seek revenge on the Situ Family.

However, the both of them underestimated the strength of the forces here in Tiancheng City.

In a brawl to take over another force, they were eventually defeated by the dominant force in Tiancheng City, Wen Sen.

They even captured Tian Long.

Di Hu was also being hunted everywhere.

He had no other choice but to hide and lay low.

Amidst all of that, he happened to bump into Liang Er, a butler who was torturing over a dozen girls.

Di Hu was furious and murdered Liang Er.

Those few days, he happened to get to know Lan.

That was when their feelings for each other blossomed.

The plan was to rescue his brother and then get married.

However, he did not expect that his rescue operation three days ago would fail and he would be defeated by Wen Sen. As such, he almost lost his life and ran all the way here after escaping!

That was the story of what happened.

“Wen Sen?”

Chen Hao frowned.

Shen Wanshan and his men also displayed expressions of fear. “Mister, Wen Sen is a dominant force in Tiancheng City. Not only does he have a large group of people, he has very strong capabilities as well. He’s quite an evil person himself. Even capable people who had spent the last decade training were not worthy opponents of his. By the looks of it, Di Hu and his brother must be capable people with strong skills too. However, it’s not unusual that they were defeated by Wen Sen!”

Chen Hao asked, “Is he that powerful?”

Chen Hao was clear on Tian Long and Di Hu’s skills. They had exceptionally strong physiques and a natural talent in fighting.

It was a rare sight for them to be beaten up and not being able to keep up with another person.

Shen Wanshan was not weaker than Tian Long and Di Hu. However, at that moment, he also had a fearful look on his face. That showed how fearsome Wen Sen, the dominant force in Tiancheng City, were.

With a stern voice, Shen Wanshan said, "But Mister, me and my brothers lives belong to you. We are not afraid to die! If you ask us to face off against Wen Sen, we would gladly do so!"

"Yes, Mister. We are not afraid!"

The other brothers of Shen Wanshan declared their stand as well.

Chen Hao lifted his arm up and said, "We will have to break things down and come up with a plan. Wanshan, I need all the information you can gather on Wen Sen's forces. Prepare them for me right away!"

Chen Hao was not afraid, but if Wen Sen was as powerful as people claimed him to be, he could not put his brothers' lives in danger!

Nonetheless, Tian Long and Di Hu had an exceptional bond with him.

Now that Tian Long was in trouble, Chen Hao would definitely do anything to rescue him.

Very soon, the evening took over.

“Young Master Chen, you have to bring me along when you go to Tiancheng City!”

Di Hu limped into the courtyard and said to Chen Hao, who stood upright with his arms behind his back.

Chen Hao smiled and said, “Di Hu, why did you get out of bed? Didn't I tell you that I am no longer Young Master Chen? You don't have to address me as such anymore!”

“Alright, I got it, Young Master Chen.”

Di Hu also gave a bitter smile and coughed. “Ahem! By the way, both of us have left the Chen Family as well, so we are no longer Tian Long and Di Hu as granted by Miss Chen. You may address me as Zhang Hu!”

Chen Hao patted him on the shoulder and said, "I would take action within these few days in regards to Tian Long's rescue operation. You should stay back to rest and recover! Don't worry, I promise I will bring Tian Long back to you in one piece!"

"But Young Master Chen..."

"Say no more!"

Chen Hao lifted his hand up and cut Zhang Hu off.

Just then, Shen Wanshan walked in from outside.

He coldly spoke, "Mister, the five main forces of Tagou Town sent over an invitation. They wish to invite you over to a gathering tonight. Furthermore, the person who sent over the invitation made it compulsory for you to attend!"

Chen Hao asked, "What is this all about? A hostile banquet to teach me a lesson? Or are they trying to intimidate me?"

Shen Wanshan said, "Haha, I understand very well the intentions of these five forces. They are intimidating us as we are trying to set up our operations here. From today onward, they would want to threaten us to pay the protection fees! Mister, we don't have to respond to them. I will help you reject them right away!”

“There is no need to reject them. Since we are getting ready to head to Tiancheng City tomorrow, I do not wish for there to be any potential problems. Seeing as how they are so well-prepared, it would be disrespectful to turn them down. Let them know we will head over tonight!”

“Sir, I still feel that this shirt that I got for you is not a good match. Why don't we pull over in front and I shall get you another one?”

Along the way, Yu, who was seated next to Chen Hao smiled and asked.

Chen Hao took a look and gave a bitter smile. He said, “It's okay, I feel that it's rather suitable!”

Right then, Chen Hao glanced toward a commercial building. All of a sudden he jerked his head and stared hard at the building.

A young man had walked into the commercial building.

Yu asked, “What is it, Sir?”

Chen Hao said, “I think I saw my friend, it looks like him! Alright then, let's pull over in front and head to the commercial building!”

The car then stopped right in the middle of the street.

Even though they blocked the road, nobody dared to mess with them and chose to move aside and went around instead. In Tagou Town, everybody knew that whenever they were convoys, it must belong to a big shot that nobody could afford to offend.

Chen Hao then brought Yu into the commercial building.

Slap!

Just as a young man was picking out a suit, he felt a smack on his shoulder.

He got a shock and immediately turned around.

He was initially stunned, and then his surprise turned to joy.

“Damn! Chen Hao?”

Chen Hao smiled and said, “Yang Hui, it really is you!”

Yang Hui excitedly said, “Chen Hao, y-you are okay? I heard that you were missing and got into an accident. Turns out that you are here in Tian City! No wonder nobody could find any information on your whereabouts!"

He smacked Chen Hao hard on the shoulder and said, "It's great to see you here!"

"Oh right, Yang Hui, why are you here?"

After some catching up, Chen Hao asked as he was confused.

This was a rather bad part of the city and other than the locals who grew up here, nobody else would come here to expand their business.

Yang Hui helplessly coughed and said, "Don't even mention it. I am in the sales department for a big corporation in China and I was posted here! Sigh! This place is rather rough. Nine out of ten people on the streets have weapons on them!"

Chen Hao smiled.

Yang Hui jokingly said, "How about you,

Chen Hao? We didn't hear any news of you for half a year. Have you been here all this while? Let me take a look and see if you are missing any limbs!"

When old friends bump into each other, it was not enough to have a heartwarming catch-up session. If there were no sarcastic remarks, it would be a waste of the relationship built back then.

Chen Hao said, "Nope, I am still in great condition. Not only that, I just arrived here a while ago. Due to certain issues, I lost contact with everyone for half a year."

"Sigh, I heard that you severed ties with your family. Don't despair, at least you had enjoyed what you were supposed to a year ago. Even though it's gone now, it was still a life worth living."

Yang Hui patted Chen Hao on the shoulder once more.

When old friends reunite, there would always be so much to talk about.

"Yang Hui, this is my contact number. After

I have finished settling things within these two days, let's meet up!"

Chen Hao passed over his new telephone number to Yang Hui.

"Heh, who is this? Is she your girlfriend?"

Yang Hui took Chen Hao's number, then he turned around and looked at Yu and smiled.

Yu's face turned red from the question.

Chen Hao gave a bitter smile and said, "I will explain next time!"

"Alright, go ahead, Chen Hao. I also have to purchase some clothes as I have a very important client to meet tomorrow!"

Both of them gave each other a hug and just as they were about to leave, the voice of a girl was heard.

"Eh? Isn't this Manager Yang? What a coincidence!"

Yang Hui turned his head sideways and laughed. "Oh, it's General Manager Qin and General Manager Li! What a coincidence!"

Clearly Yang Hui had bumped into his clients.

Chen Hao also motioned for Yang Hui to go ahead with his matters.

Just as Chen Hao turned around and was about to leave, he was shocked after seeing the couple at their side.

The couple was none other than Qin Nuan and her boyfriend. They were the ones who humiliated him when he was in dire shape half a year ago and worked on a construction site.

"Damn! Chen Hao?"

Qin Nuan who was hugging her arms around her could not help but sneer after seeing Chen Hao.

Yang Hui said, "What? Chen Hao, you know General Manager Qin and General Manager Li? Haha, General Manager Li's uncle is the one in charge of a large corporation over here. I am discussing the project with them now!”

Chen Hao casually nodded and said, “Sort of!”

Qin Nuan mocked. “Haha, Chen Hao, why are you pretending? What do you mean, sort of? Did you think you could forget me so easily? Did you forget that you had a short stint in the construction site? I was also the one that gave you your salary. Have you forgotten?”

Chen Hao merely glanced at her.

Originally, based on Fatty Wang’s description, Qin Nuan was not like that. For some reason, her personality had completely changed.

Qin Nuan snorted and said, “I guess you can't make a living within the country and came over here. Let me tell you what, it wouldn't make a difference for people like you no matter where you go. Even if you came here, you would only be someone's lackey!”

“General Manager Qin, this is my good friend. Is there a misunderstanding between you two? He is a good person!”

Yang Hui defended Chen Hao when he saw that Qin Nuan was disrespectful and blatantly ridiculing Chen Hao.

“Your good friend? Oh, then I am sorry, Manager Yang, I think your cooperation with my husband’s uncle should be terminated. This project should also be made void, am I right, dear?”

Qin Nuan said as she clung onto her boyfriend’s arm.

“Of course!”

“General Manager Qin, you...”

Yang Hui was speechless.

He had been here for more than a week working on this project and now the deal was cancelled just like that?

Just then, a worker walked into the commercial building.

He shouted, "Who is the owner of the car with plate number xxxx? Move your car right away! Who is the owner of that car? Move it aside now! If not, I am going to call a tow truck!"

He raised his voice and shouted.

Naturally, there was no etiquette unlike back in China.

As long as there was a dispute, they would just take action right away. That was the culture here.

Qin Nuan's boyfriend then coldly said, "It's mine! My car is parked properly, what's wrong?"

"What's wrong, you ask? It is blocking the road, so you better move it aside now! Otherwise I will just tow your car away!"
The employee rudely replied.

Qin Nuan's boyfriend did not want to lose face in front of Qin Nuan as well as in front of Chen Hao and Yang Hui.

Thus, he coldly said, "My uncle is Wu

Gang! His nickname is Fatty Wu!”

“F*ck you and your Fatty Wu! I don’t care if you’re Fatty Wu or Skinny Wu! Move your car right away!”

The employee scolded.

Qin Nuan’s boyfriend was in an extremely awkward position.

“Fine, let me go and take a look and see whose path I am blocking!”

Qin Nuan’s boyfriend refused to yield.

He held Qin Nuan’s hand and walked out.

“Exactly, let me call my uncle now and see if anybody dares to not show respect to him!”

“Sir, I am done purchasing your shirt!”

Just then, Yu ran over with a shirt she bought.

“Yang Hui, don't worry. Relax and give me a few days. Wait for my call!”
